ISSUER OF MARRIAGE LICENSES

Next to Fairweather & Co's, 177 George Street

WHEN they put a man in jail, he cannot follow his natural inclinations. His enjoyment of life is limited. He cannot eat what he wants to—he is limited to a very frugal diet. He is alive to be sure, but life doesn't possess very many advantages.

Are not all these things equally true of a dyspeptic? For all of the real enjoyment he gets out of life, he might as well be in jail. He cannot eat what he likes, nor as much of it as he would like. If he transgresses any of the rules of his diet, he is punished for it. He suffers much, gets little sympathy.

Dyspepsia starts with indigestion, and may lead to almost anything. Indigestion means a variety of things—it shows itself in many ways. At first, perhaps a little heaviness in the stomach, a little sourness, windy belchings and heartburn. Headaches begin to come pretty soon after that, and biliousness and a foul taste in the mouth in the morning. Chronic constipation is almost inevitable, and it is probably the most serious trouble that ever takes hold of a man. Its seeming simplicity is the thing that makes it most dangerous, because it leads to neglect. Constipation means that the body is holding poisonous, impure matter that should be gotten rid of. The poison is being reabsorbed into the blood and the whole body is being filled with it. Impurity in the blood may lead to almost any disease. There is no telling what may come of it. Constipation is the start of it all. And yet people are careless about it. It is the most serious thing in the world, and the easiest to cure if you go about it right. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. Cure it positively, certainly, infallibly. Cure it so it stays cured. Cure it so you can stop taking medicine.

And that is something that no other remedy in the world will do.

Shoes and Gloves.

To wear with these linen costumes, as well as with all other summer gowns must be pretty shoes and gloves, and these accessories often cost as much if not more than the gowns themselves. Narrow pointed shoes and slippers are no longer fashionable, and the very latest styles are both sensible and becoming, giving sufficient breadth across the ball of the foot, and having a rounded toe that is a happy medium between the needle point and the square. Even in the cheap qualities of shoes the good shapes can be found now, if care be taken to choose those that have the soles broad, the uppers narrow and the vamps long enough. Tan shoes are not becoming when the foot is large, but they are the correct wear in summer, and are so much cooler than the black ones that they are universally worn. Patent-leather shoes and patent-leather trimmings aer for full dress. White shoes are worn with white gowns—if one's feet are small. Dongola with a dull finish, which is kept in condition by cream dressing, takes the place of the polished calf skin which is used for winter service. Bronze and black slippers and the tan Suede are all in style for evening wear, while for evening gowns the slippers are made of the material of the gown. The embroidered tips on slippers are exceedingly effective, and seed pearls and brilliants are combined in endless variety of pattern. On bronze slippers there is often used an iridescent brown beading, while steel on the black is still fashionable. Even on slippers the medium high heel is preferred to the Louis Quinze, and no shoes or boots have high heels, so that it would seem as though common-sense prevailed in some of fashion's laws this season.

Suede gloves are cooler than glace kid, and consequently are worn with summer gowns, but the Biarritz in all the yellow shades and black are exceedingly smart, and also quite cool enough, as the fashion allows of their being worn a size larger than other gloves. Tan, black, white and pearl gray are the colors most worn.—Harper's Bazar.

Strict Rules of Etiquette.

In Baron Rothschild's recent book of anecdotes he tells some curious tales of the extremely stringent rules of etiquette which prevailed at the French court in the reign of Louis XVI. Marie Antoinette christened the Comtesse de Noailles "Madame Etiquette." Once, when she fell from a donkey in her private grounds, she jumped to her feet and cried out, laughing: "Go and fetch Mme. de Noailles; she will tell us what is prescribed for a Queen of France when she falls off a donkey." One cold winter night, when the queen was undressing, the maid was handing her the chemise de nuit when the lady in waiting came in to whom, as being of superior rank, the garment had to be given over. She could not touch it, however, until she had removed her gloves and before that operation had been performed the Duchess d'Orleans, a princess of the blood, turned up, and after her the Comtesse de Provence, who was of higher rank still, so that the chemise had to be handed from one to the other, while the queen stood waiting and shivering. At last, unable to contain herself any longer, she exclaimed: "It is ridiculous! What a nuisance!"—The Mirror.

Onions for the Complexion.

Prof. Shusof says that onions make a nerve tonic not to be despised. They tone up the worn-out system, and if eaten freely will show good results in cases of nervous prostration. If a sprig of parsley is dipped in vinegar and eaten after an onion no unpleasant odor from the breath can be detected. And in addition to this valuable and important bit of information, onions eaten freely will also, he says, beautify the complexion.

THE FARMING WORLD

WITHOUT CAPITAL.

How the Successful Co-operative Danish Creameries are Run.

The Danish method of starting and managing creameries is remarkably successful in profitable returns to farmers because the product is of the finest quality and is made at the least expense. Prof Georgeson, who has made a special study of the matter, says that after ten years' use of the following system, not a single creamery in Denmark has failed:

1. The members elect a board of directors from their number and this board has full control of the business and their action is binding on the association.

2. Each member subscribes a given number of cows and is entitled to a number of votes in the meetings of the association in proportion to the number of cows he has entered.

3. Each member pays into the treasury of the association a small amount, varying in different associations from 50c to $3 or $4 for each cow he enters. This becomes part of the capital stock.

4. The association borrows the additional money required for the erection of the creamery and each member becomes responsible for a share of this debt in proportion to the number of cows he has entered. The creamery erected is always a most substantial structure, built of brick with all appointments perfect and equipped with a full line of modern dairy machinery.

5. A competent expert is placed in charge of the creamery. He is under the supervision of the directors and is usually paid part salary and part commission together with certain perquisites, such as house, garden, light fuel, etc., and he usually hires and pays his own assistants out of his own pocket.

6. The members are paid monthly for the milk delivered to the creamery in proportion to the per cent. of fat it contains, and they usually take back the skimmed milk and the buttermilk at about 1-4c per pound.

7. The borrowed capital usually runs from ten to twenty years, one-tenth or one-twentieth, as the case may be, falling due each year, and for the payment of this a sinking fund is provided from the profits of the business.

8. No member can withdraw from the association before the debt is paid without losing his entire vested interest in the creamery, except when he sells his place, in which case one-half his interest will be paid back to him.

9. The members obligate themselves to feed their cows liberally and in suitable food, for the production of a good quality of milk. They agree to exercise the strictest cleanliness in this handling of the milk, to report any change in feed or to withhold the milk should any disease break out in the herd or among the people who attend the cattle, and the directors have authority to inspect the premises of each member at any time and to impose heavy fines for the violation of regulations which have been adopted by the association.

10. Two-thirds majority is required for the election of new members or to amend the constitution.

Measuring an Acre.

Few farmers know the size of their fields or how many acres they contain. It is desirable—in fact indispensable—for good work that a farmer should know this; otherwise he cannot apportion seed or manure for it, nor can he tell how much time it would take to plough, harrow or cultivate it. A good cotton cord, the size of a plough line, should be kept for this purpose. To make one, buy 67 feet of cotton rope, one inch around, fasten a ring at each end, and make these rings precisely 66 feet apart. This is four rods. Tie a piece of red rag in the center. One acre of ground will be a piece four of these cords long and two and one-half wide, equal to sixteen by ten rods, making 160 square rods to an acre.

The advantage of the rings is that one person can measure by driving a stake in the ground to hold the rope while he stretches it out. The rope should be soaked in tar and then dried. This will prevent its shrinking. Last year a neighbor of the writer had a heavy sod ploughed by contract at $2.50 per acre. Three persons stepped it off. One said it was four acres, another made it a little over five, and the third said it was three and one-half acres. The contractor sent over and got this rope, and all five men measured it, and it was found to be just three and one-half acres. He had paid to have the grass cut off it for three years at $1 per acre, or 35 each season, counting it to be five acres in extent, thus losing $4.50 through his ignorance. Get a measuring line, and when not in use put it away so that the hands cannot get at it, or they will be very apt to cut a piece off to tie up harness, thus making it worthless for the purpose of measuring.

GOOD ENDORSERS.

Every business man understands that no matter how valuable the signature on a note may be, his confidence is greatly increased if the note is well endorsed.

This is equally true of articles other than notes. It is particularly true of pianos. The musical public always likes to know if a piano is well endorsed.

The Mason & Risch Piano is undoubtedly endorsed by more eminent names than any other instrument made in Canada. Here are a few of them:—

Madame Albani	Franz Lizst
Sir A. C. McKenzie (Principal Royal College of Music)	F. H. Torrington
Dr. Bridge (Organist Westminster Abbey)	S. P. Warren
Otto Bendix	Edouard Remenyi
Frederick Archer	W. Waugh Lauder
Mrs. Longmore	Signor D'Auria
	Watkins Mills
	Edouard Scharff

These are but few of the many eminent admirers of our pianos. We could go on and fill a column but we think this enough to establish our claim to be well endorsed.

An examination of our instruments is cordially solicited no matter how remote your idea of purchase may be.

Our prices are reasonable, quality considered, and our terms elastic enough to suit anyone.

HOW THE SUN LIFE

FULFILS ITS PROMISES.

A Matured 10 Year Endowment.

Profits Paid by the SUN 21 per. cent more than the Estimates.

The following letter, which speak for itself, was received by the undersigned this morning from a gentleman in Brockville, whose ten year endowment which he held in the Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada matured last week and was paid him. The Sun is modest in promises but UNEQUALLED IN RESULTS. The public are benefitted by results, not by promises unfulfilled

BROCKVILLE, November 7th, 1895.

W. H. HILL, Mgr. Central Ontario Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada, Peterborough, Ontario:—

DEAR SIR,—I should have acknowledged the receipt of yours enclosing cheque for endowment policy No. 12,871 before, only I wanted to write something more than a mere receipt. I am pleased to hear of the continued prosperity of the "SUN" and it speaks well for your Company when the profits are greater (by 21 per cent.) than you as the Company's representative promised or rather estimated, as was the case with this policy.

I hope your Company will continue to prosper and I often regret that I do not carry more insurance than I am doing. I might have carried twice as much as I do when at Minden without any great effort, still what little I do carry I feel is perfectly safe being in the "SUN."

I must thank you for your promptness and kindness regarding this policy just settled. I hope we will both be alive and well when the new one I now hold will be due in 1905 and assuring you of very best wishes, I remain,

Yours Sincerely,

(Signed) F. R. C.

The above voluntary testimonial is significant and shows in a most practical way the SUN'S standing as a profit paying institution.

CANCER CURED
—AND A—
LIFE SAVED
by the Persistent Use of
Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"I was troubled for years with a sore on my knee, which several physicians, who treated me, called a cancer, assuring me that nothing could be done to save my life. As a last resort, I was induced to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, after taking a number of bottles, the sore began to disappear and my general health improve. I persisted in this treatment, until the sore was entirely healed. Since then, I use Ayer's Sarsaparilla occasionally as a tonic and blood-purifier, and, indeed, it seems as though I could not keep house without it."—Mrs. S. A. Fields, Bloomfield, Ia.

The Latest Fashions

MIDSUMMER PARIS STYLES.

Midsummer fashions in Paris show developments that among even the smart set here are as yet undreamed of. Some weeks later on our fashionables will begin to imitate the eccentricities of style that are now being worn by the leaders of fashion in Paris.

Perhaps the most striking departure [illegible] in one of these summer costumes in black and white the sleeves were absolutely tight-fitting, save for a puff at the top, the puff itself being nearly covered by an immense bow of black and white ribbons?

This design, which was seen on a gown of white silk linen, was not more remarkable than one seen on another exquisite creation of white linen, embroidered with tiny blue flowers, and having a collar, ceinture and epaulets of sky-blue satin. These sleeves, which were long and tight and slightly wrinkled, were of white mousseline de soie.

Another noteworthy sleeve, designed for an outdoor toilet, was composed of a succession of white taffeta plaitings. The white taffeta, figured with green, of which the gown itself was made, formed the puff and the epaulet was of sea-green silk overlaid with guipure and bordered with white taffeta plaiting. There is an elaboration of detail in these new fashions which suggests that an interesting phase of gown-making is now inaugurating itself.

Another return to old-time styles is seen in the midsummer skirts. These have a well-graduated flare and less of the ripple effect than was seen in the spring gowns. There is a suggestion of remote decades in the flaring skirt of ivory white satin, with parallel horizontal bands of jonquil yellow ribbon, overlaid with fine white lace. A lace frill about the bottom of the skirt is also a late novelty.

The hats that Parisian women are wearing at present are large and bizarre, but they are not over trimmed. A wide brim, fluted crown, with a bunch of flowers and a long aigrette. Is a not uncommon device, the aigrette being indeed hardly ever missing. Another new chapeau appears to be a distant relative of the English walking hat and is so devoid of grace of outline that none but a Frenchwoman could wear it with impunity. Its only trimming is a narrow black band and a mass of roses at the side, the blossoms far overtopping the crown.

It has been held that consumption is hereditary, and the fact that one person of a family had died of consumption was considered a sure sign that others of that family could not escape it. This is partly true and partly untrue. A man with weak lungs is likely to transmit that weakness to his children. But there is no reason in the world why the weakness should be allowed to develop. Keep the lungs full of rich, red, wholesome blood, and the weakness will disappear. Decaying tissues will be thrown off, and new material will be added until the lungs are well and perfectly strong again. This is the thing that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery does. This is what makes it cure 98 per cent. of all cases of consumption where it is taken according to directions. It searches out disease germs wherever they may be in the blood, and forces them out of the system. It supplies the blood with rich, life-giving properties. It makes the appetite good, digestion perfect. Send 21 cents in one cent stamps to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y., and receive Dr. Pierce's 1008 page "Common Sense Medical Adviser," profusely illustrated.

Every ingredient in Manley's Celery-Nerve Compound is a blood maker and health giver. If you are weak or run down, try it.

Dear Sirs: It is with pleasure I can recommend others to take Manley's Celery-Nerve Compound, as I am thoroughly satisfied it is a sterling preparation, and as a tonic I think it is unequal. Other members of my family, besides myself, have used it, and in all cases it gave the most gratifying and pleasing results. Yours truly,

ABOUT THE LIVER.

A lazy, slow or torpid liver influences the whole system, causing biliousness, sick headache, sallow complexion, languor and dullness. Burdock Blood Bitters regulates the liver, purifies the secretions and cures all forms of liver troubles. We say so and here is the proof:—

I hereby wish to thank you for the great benefit derived by me from your Burdock Blood Bitters. For three years I was troubled with liver complaint and tried everything to no purpose. I had almost given up hope until one day I determined to try Burdock Blood Bitters. I can say now that marked improvement resulted from the use of the first bottle and at the end of the sixth bottle I discontinued its use, being completely cured.

Remarkable Sheep.

"One of the most ludicrous sights I ever saw was in New Zealand a few months ago," said a commercial man. "Imagine a band containing hundreds of green sheep all feeding off each other's backs and getting fat. Of course I inquired about it and got an explanation of the startling phenomenon.

"The sheep had been turned into a stubble field from which a crop of wheat had just been taken, and the first thing they tackled was the straw stacks. They ate right into them, and what grain was left in the straw tumbled down into their wool. Then some warm rains came and the wheat sprouted and grew just as it does out of the wet gunny sack you see spread over beer kegs in this country to keep them cool. But portable pastures were new to me."—San Francisco Post.

THE WALLACE SHOW.

Unquestionably one of the Best That Ever Came to Ottawa.

The Ottawa Free Press makes the following comment on the Wallace Show :—The Great Wallace Show is well named, for it is unquestionably one of the greatest circuses that has ever been in Canada. If there was any doubt on this point lingering in the minds of the public before the circus arrived in town this morning, it was dispelled when the parade appeared on the streets. It was the most gorgeous pageant ever seen in this city, extending as it did for at least one mile in length and consisting of the finest display of horses, wild animals of every description, handsomely costumed lady and gentleman performers, and costly gilded chariots and wagons.

A Free Press representative visited the circus ground on Bank street this morning and under the pilotage of the gentlemanly press agent, J. H. Harrison, he was given an inside view of the vast shows. The spread of canvas covers about twenty acres of ground, the main tent alone being about 500 feet long and capable of seating 7000 people. The menagerie tent is not much smaller, and under its cover is displayed the greatest collection of animals ever brought here. A special train of forty-three cars owned by Mr. Wallace is necessary to carry this great show and the daily expenses of the circus are $2,800.

A visit to the half dozen tents were the horses are kept was a sight that would make a horse fancier grow fairly wild with ecstacy. There were seen 300 head of as fat and sleek looking thoroughbreds as were ever gathered together under any circus tent. Mr. Wallace has an immense stock farm in the east where he breeds and raises most of the fine stock seen with the show.

The great Wallace Show is a complete village in itself, carrying, as it does, everything necessary to running such a vast enterprise. In one tent was seen a barber's shop, next a meat shop, a laundry, a blacksmith and harness shop, etc., while two large tents are reserved for the dining quarters of the army of people that accompany the show.

The menagerie attached to the show is a great feature. All the animals and wild beasts are well fed and healthy looking and on a par with the excellent appearance of the horses. This portion of the show proved a strong attraction to the crowd this afternoon.

Thousands of men, women and children saw the monster street parade to-day. One of the principle features was the handsome horses which drew the gaily decorated hand wagons and dens for the wild animals. The den of the lions, wagon No. 35, attracted especial attention because it is the largest wagon of its kind in the world, measuring 24 feet, inside measurement, and cost $2,700 That wagon, horses and lions represent $15,000 in cash, paid out by the proprietors. It is a sample of the amount of money put into the business by the owners. The largest of the many elephants came from Africa and is known to be eighty years of age. Not the least attractive of the animals are the sea lions, hyenas, coyottes, besides those four male ostriches, which in themselves constitute a very costly attraction.

SOME BIG FISH STORIES.

Allegation That a 300-Pounder has Been Captured in Lake Deschenes.

A fish story of unusual dimensions comes to hand from Aylmer to-day, says the Ottawa Journal. Mr. P. Boivin, an Ottawa man, who was in Aylmer Saturday night, informed The Journal to-day that on Saturday night a man named Barbeau caught in the lake with a net a fish that was ten feet long and weighed 300 lbs. He had seen the fish and it was not a yarn he was telling. It was supposed the fish was a maskinonge or a big salmon trout.

The story was told in the Journal reporter's sanctum, and the reporters who were in smiled a mighty smile in chorus.

"Well," said Mr. Boivin, "if you don't believe me telephone Mr. Alonzo Klock at Aylmer, and he will tell you all about it."

A good idea soon put in operation.

In asking about the matter the Journal querist was very cautious for fear of a mare's nest.

"The big fish f" said Mr. Klock through the phone, "Oh, yes, I know about it."

"Did you see it," asked the Journal.

"Yes," replied Mr. Klock, "and three hundred other people here saw it."

"How big was it f"

"It measured 12 feet 8 inches long and weighed 325 lbs. I did not see it weighed," continued Mr. Klock, "but they told me it weighed that and I think it did all right."

In answer to further questions, Mr. Klock said he had not seen the fish since yesterday, but he understood it was at Gravelle's ice house in the village. He did not know what kind of a fish it was, but supposed it was a maskinonge. It was caught near an island above Aylmer.

NEARER HOME.

The Fenelon Falls Gazette says :—The largest lunge that has been seen at the Falls for a long time past was caught last Tuesday morning near the site of Greene & Ellis' mill by Mr. Charles, who had it photographed, suspended by a cord, with his nephew, little Teddy Calder, standing alongside of it, and the boy and the fish were about the same length. The latter measured 3 feet 7 inches, was 18½ inches in circumference and weighed 20½ pounds. The fish made a hard fight for liberty and was not landed in its captor's canoe without considerable difficulty. The same day Mr. Wm. O'Brien, who makes a living by fishing during the summer, came to the village with three or four lunge, the heaviest of which weighed 15½ pounds. The greatest piscatorial feat we have heard of this season was performed last Friday by Mr. Arthur Knowlson, formerly of Lindsay, but now of New York, who has been camping out not far from Rosedale with a party of relatives and friends. While fishing near the locks with light tackle for bass, with a minnow for bait, he hooked a 14 pound lunge, which by patience and skill he managed to land, though his fancy bamboo rod was broken early in the struggle.

DO THEY GET BIASSED?

Judge Houston Thinks Magistrates Should Not be Authorized to Take Informations.

"It has been my opinion for some time," said Judge Houston to a Chatham reporter, "that a magistrate should not be allowed to take informations."

"Who, then, should take them f" queried the reporter.

"The chief of police or acting clerk. According to the existing statute, the magistrate takes all informations, nine out of ten of which he is called upon to try himself. This is unfair to the defendant in every case, as the magistrate nearly always has to listen to a biassed account of the trouble from the complainant's standpoint alone. In some cases, too, such harrowing stories of aggravated assault are told that the magistrate decides to issue a warrant for the arrest of the defendant, when, perhaps, the evidence will not justify him completely when adduced in court.

"Then, too, the complainant's story can hardly help influencing the mind of the magistrate, who consequently goes into the court room with certain prejudices against the defendant. And this fact is fully realized by those ventilating their troubles in the police court. In fact, I have known cases where it has been a pure and simple race between parties, who have had trouble, to reach the court first, pour in their heart rending story into the ears of the magistrate and have warrants issued for their opponents.

"This is not as it should be," added Mr. Houston firmly. "It would be a high misdemeanor to speak to a high court judge before a civil suit, let alone a criminal proceeding, and it is contempt of court to address the judge upon the case even after it is tried. I don't know whether the authorities think that a magistrate is better qualified to sit upon a case, after hearing one side of it discussed than these poor judges, but I question the advisability of it."

COBOURG RACES.

Posters have been issued announcing races at Cobourg on Monday and Tuesday, August 24 and 25. The amount in purses is $1,050, and the largest ever offered in the history of racing in Cobourg. The liberal purses will be sure to attract some of the finest running and trotting stock in the country. The meeting last year was so satisfactory, both to the horsemen and the public, that we bespeak a much greater patronage at the approaching races. Already the secretary is in receipt of letters from as far east as Ottawa, making inquiries regarding the meet, also from New Jersey. It is expected that a number of enteries will be received from Rochester horsemen, several having expressed a willingness to bring their horses to Cobourg. All that is requires to make the races a grand success is liberal patronage from the surrounding country. The programme is ample to satisfy all lovers of horseracing, there being seven events on the bill, including running, trotting and pacing. This should be sufficient to draw an immense audience, and we trust it will. Peterborough will doubtless be well represented.

MUSIC OF THE BANDS

Closing Day of the Tournament at Hamilton.

TORONTO BANDS GOT EVERYTHING.

The First Premium of Four Hundred Dollars Was Captured by the Queen's Own—Highlanders Outplayed the Grenadiers, in Mr. Rogers' Judgement, by a Few Points.

Hamilton, Aug. 4.—(Special.)—The proceedings in connection with the band tournament promoted by the Thirteenth Band, resumed this afternoon, with the bugle bands' parade, and marching competition for an Imperial snare drum, donated by a Toronto firm. Three bands were entered in this contest, and they were: The Q.O.R. Bugle Band, Toronto; the Dufferin Rifles Bugle Band, Brantford; and the Nineteenth Battalion Bugle Band, St. Catharines. The buglers and drummers presented a fine appearance as they passed Judge W. B. Rogers' carriage. The Queen's Own Band consisted of 21 bugles and 10 drums, under the direction of Bugle-Major Swift. There were only eight bugles and five drums in the Nineteenth Battalion Band, under Bugle-Major McManus. The Dufferin Rifles were represented by 13 buglers and seven drummers, in charge of Bugle-Major Oxtaby. At Dundurn Park to-night Judge Rogers announced his decision in this competition, awarding the prize to the Queen's Own Rifles Bugle Band.

For bugle band playing, first prize, $75, was won by the Q.O.R. Band; the 38th Dufferin Rifles' Band, Brantford, got second prize, $50, and the bugle band representing the Nineteenth Battalion, St. Catharines, was awarded third prize, $25.

The principal event this evening was the competition for first-class bands. There were four entered, the Queen's Own Rifles' Band, Toronto; the 48th Highlanders' Band, Toronto; the 29th Battalion Band, Berlin, and the Royal Grenadiers' Band Toronto, and as all were of rare excellence, there was considerable speculation as to which would carry off first honors. Each band was obliged to play twice and these were the numbers upon which the various bandmasters risked the reputation of their organizations:

Queen's Own Rifles — Selection, grand finale, "Ariele" (Bach); waltz, Krell's Ball (Lumbye).

Forty Eighth Highlanders—"Reminiscences of Gounod" (Godfrey); waltz, "Belle Ami" (Meissler.)

Twenty-ninth Battalion Band — Overture, "Semiramide" (Rossini); waltz, "Pres de Tois" (Waldteufel).

Royal Grenadiers—Selection from "Faust"; waltz, "Eldorado" (Doyle).

First prize, $400, was awarded the Q.O.R. Band; second prize, $200, was carried off by the 48th Highlanders' Band, Toronto, and third prize, $100, fell to the lot of the Royal Grenadiers' Band of Toronto.

Before announcing his decision, Judge Rogers stated that he was delighted with the efforts of the various bands, and he considered the Queen's Own Band superior in many ways to the other competitors. He stated that he had considerable difficulty in arriving at a decision in reference to the 48th Band and the Royal Grenadiers'—they played so much alike. However, he gave second prize to the 48th Band on the score that its style of execution was slightly better than its rival.

In the slide trombone solo competition there were two entries, Arthur Wakeham of the Queen's Own Band, and C. W. H. Martin of the Royal Grenadiers, but their playing was of such an inferior quality that the judge declined to award the prize, a slide trombone, to either of them, acting under a clause in the rules of the tournament, which specified that if the competitors did not, in the judge's opinion, score a certain number of points, the trophy was to go to the band winning first prize in the first-class competition. Thus the Queen's Own Band added another to its stock of prizes.

The Royal Grenadiers' Band captured a silver cornet for having the best cornet player in its ranks.

Judge Rogers played a cornet solo and the tournament which has proved a success, artistically and financially, closed with the combined bands playing "Nearer My God to Thee."

About 5000 people were present at the evening proceedings.

SHE WORE THE DIAMONDS.

Woman Thief, Who Stole Gems From a Foreign Banker During the World's Fair, Caught at Last.

Chicago, Aug. 4.—A World's Fair diamond thief has been brought to justice. She is Mrs. Julia Houston, and has promised to take the sheriff to the place where she has hidden $4000 worth of diamonds stolen from Banker Mackey of London. All the rings will be recovered for the foreigner.

The woman's arrest brings to a successful end the case which baffled the police for three years. Mackey attended the World's Fair as a representative from the Principality of Monaco. He took apartments at a fashionable boarding house kept by Mrs. Houston. One morning his jewels were missing. Mrs. Houston was arrested on suspicion, but there was no evidence against her and she was released. The banker returned to London and the search for the jewels ceased.

A few months ago the suspected woman's neighbors noticed that she wore a handsome brooch. The police were notified and they sent word to Mr. Mackey. Evidence was collected and as a result Mrs. Houston was indicted by the grand jury on the charge of larceny. A capias was issued, but it was not until to-day the woman was arrested. Mackey has returned to England, but will come back to prosecute the case.

JACK ROSS' CAPTURE.

A Well Known Toronto Crook Pleads Guilty to Pocket Picking at the Hamilton Band Tournament.

Hamilton, Aug. 4.—(Special.)—The pickpocket captured at the band tournament has been identified by a description from the Toronto Detective Department as Jack Ross, a notorious pickpocket of that city. Ross has served long terms in the Ohio Penitentiary and Toronto prisons. His brother Bill is at present in Kingston Penitentiary serving a ten years' sentence for pocket-picking. Charlie Ross, the young man who was recently shot dead while attempting highway robbery on a Judge in Chicago, was also a brother of the prisoner.

In the Police Court to-day Ross pleaded guilty and was remanded.

WON THE LONDONDERRY CUP.

The Canadian Artillery Team at Shoeburyness Defeated the First Essex by Four Points.

London, Aug. 4.—In the National Artillery Association competition at Shoeburyness, the visiting Canadian artillerymen to-day defeated the first Essex team in the contest for the Londonderry Challenge Cup, which trophy has been held by the Canadians since the last contest in 1886. The contest was an exciting one and the Canadians are elated over their success. The scores were: Canadians 48, First Essex 44, Sergt.-Major Bridgeford, who was the number one man of the Canadian team on their last visit here ten years ago, held the same position to-day.

In the No. 1 Garrison Artillery competition, with Col. Cole in command, the team finished at the tenth place, behind the third prize.

In the No. 5 Position Artillery competition (disabled ordnance), the 3rd Kent were winners, with a score of 56. Canada was tenth, with 41. Fifteen teams competed.

In the No. 6 Garrison Artillery A Shift, the 4th Durham took first prize, with a score of 85, the 2nd Durham were second, with 76, and Canada was third with 74. Eight teams were in the contest.

The Repository Badges, B Shift competition was postponed, owing to Sergt. Instructor Bridgeford of the Canadian team making a mistake in the stores required. He thought eight lashings were needed, whereas the list says two.

GENERAL HAMILTON MATTERS.

The Police Put a Stop to a Family Row—Change in the Dummy Railway—A Charge of Arson.

Hamilton, Aug. 4.—(Special.)—A lively row occurred at the residence of Thomas Callaghan, No. 2 Greig-street, at noon to-day, when the police swooped down on the place and arrested Thomas Callaghan and his brother James on the charge of assault and disorderly conduct. Mrs. Thomas Callaghan is the complainant, and a third man figured in the row. Mrs. Callaghan said her husband threatened to shoot her, and he said his wife had tried to stab him. Furniture was broken and a revolver and knife were being brandished, when the row was broken up by the authorities.

Mr. B. B. Osler, Q.C., president of the Dummy Railway Line, which connects Dundas with the city, has sent Chairman Brown of the Board of Works several copies of his proposed bylaw in connection with the conversion of the road to a trolley line, and he has also asked that the board meet to-morrow to consider the bylaw. The board, however, will not meet till Aug. 12. Among the changes desired by President Osler are the right to connect with the Radial Railway Company's line by way of Catharine street, and the right to double track Main street, to connect with the H.G. and B., the tracks to be jointly used by the H. and D. and the H.G. and B.

Mr. Morley Allison, grocer, will be tried at the Police Court on Thursday on the charge of arson, preferred by Mr. Anthony Copp, owner of Mr. Allison's store, which was mysteriously fired a short time ago.

BLAZE AT AURORA.

The Queen's Hotel Stables Destroyed and Eight Horses Burned—Mr. Wiley's Residence Burning.

Aurora, Ont., July 5.—The Queen's Hotel stables were totally destroyed by fire at midnight. It is reported eight horses perished. The Queen's Hotel was saved by the heroic efforts of the fire brigade. The residence of Mr. Wiley is also now burning. It may be partly saved. Loss not known yet.

INVESTIGATING THE CROPS.

A Chicago Times-Herald Correspondent Making a Tour.

Toronto, Aug. 5.

Mr. E. B. Pieser of The Chicago Times-Herald is at the Rossin. He has just made a grand tour of the Western and Middle States for the purpose of ascertaining the state of the crops, and is now visiting Canada for the same purpose. He says the crops throughout the West are immense this year. Corn and wheat are good, while oats will be tremendously abundant.

Mr. Pieser tells of a farmer in Michigan whom he visited the other day who had just sold 320 acres of growing oats at 9c per bushel, he to bear the expense of harvesting. This meant a loss of 2½c per bushel in the cost of raising.

Mr. Pieser does not think free silver will carry. In many districts of even the Western States, he says, the people are for gold.

The Fathers of the Cables.

London, Aug. 4.—The Marquis of Tweeddale, Chairman of the Anglo-American and Eastern Telegraph Companies, addressed the following to the American press: "A Financial Committee is about to be formed to inaugurate an International memorial and commemorate the inception and extension of submarine telegraphy connected with the names of Cyrus Field, Sir Jos. Anderson and Sir John Pender."

THE SINGLE TAXERS

Having a Rough Experience in Delaware.

ARRESTED AND THROWN INTO JAIL

Not Allowed to Make Speeches in the Streets of Dover—The Judge Would Make No Concessions and the Governor Will Grant No More Pardons.

Dover, Del., Aug. 4.—Fifteen single taxers are now confined in the Dover jail for advocating their theories in public speeches on the streets of this city. The weather has been intensely hot and the suffering has been great. Altogether the jail contains 80 prisoners, which is twice the capacity of the place.

The last arrest took place Thursday night, when W. S. Pike was arrested. In addition to Mr. Pike, the following are serving the usual "$10 fine or 30 days in jail": P. F. O'Hara, J. H. Moritz, James J. Haggerty, W. H. Stephenson, James O'Neill, W. H. Keevan, S. Melville, Rev. August Deligren, H. B. Tawresey, Joseph W. Gross, Thomas Graham, F. W. Moore, Alexander Stirlith and Dr. B. F. Longstreet.

The method of procedure has been identical in each case. As the arrests continue public indignation appears to increase. On the occasion of the last arrest a mob of 100 persons gathered to make trouble, but the activity of the justice and constables in hustling the prisoner off to jail prevented anything serious. Just now the citizens of Dover are asking when and where this is to end.

That the trials by Justice Cooper were made travesties, even those who are opposed to the single tax idea readily admit. When an arrest is made "for obstructing the streets" the prisoner is taken before the venerable magistrate. An offer is at once made on behalf of the defendant to furnish bail. Cooper declines to accept it and the so-called trial is allowed to proceed. The accused requests a postponement that he may secure witnesses, but the postponement is denied. Then a trial jury is demanded, and even this is refused. The constables who made the arrest are called and they testify that the sidewalk was obstructed by a crowd which was being addressed by the defendant. In several cases, on cross-examination, these officials testified that there was a passageway for vehicles in the street and that people were enabled to pass on the sidewalk.

All this has no effect on the outcome. The "$10 fine or 30 days in jail" is always inflicted. An offer to pay the fine is always rejected and the alleged delinquent is soon a member of the "Dover Jail Single Tax Club."

When the first arrest was made Governor Watson immediately pardoned the offender, but in all subsequent arrests he has refused to interfere, saying that, while he was in favor of free and untrammelled speech, he was opposed to sidewalk obstruction. The single tax people here say that the charge of obstructing the streets is a mere pretext and that the trials are farcical and unjust.

In the meantime, one of the prisoners has developed a case of typhoid fever, and he has been removed for treatment. All the others are complaining of the miserable condition of the Dover dungeon.

WAS IT FARR'S FAULT?

The Engineer of the Ill-Fated Excursion Train Had Put on Brakes, But the Train Was Beyond Control.

Atlantic City, N.J., Aug. 4.—The two principal witnesses in the inquest into the deaths resulting from the Meadow collision were on the stand this morning. They were George F. Hauser, the tower operator, who set the signals at the time of the accident, and Thomas Hollihan, fireman of the Reading express. Hauser's testimony, which has been borne out by previous witnesses, shows that the excursion had a clear track, and that the danger signals were set against the express. While from the evidence it is known that the express was usually given the right of way and that Hauser may have done an unusual thing in giving an excursion train the privilege of crossing, he fulfilled his duty by setting the danger signals for the flyer. Hollihan, the fireman, saw the danger signals set as his train approached the crossing. He could not see Engineer Farr over the top of the boiler, but from the movement of the train knew that he shut off steam and put on the air brakes before the collision. The brakes seemed to work, but the momentum of the train was too great to stop before the two trains came together.

WAS THE YOUNG MAN POISONED?

Francis Robillard of Ottawa Died in Great Agony—An Inquest Has Been Ordered.

Ottawa, Aug. 4.—(Special.)—Francis Robillard, aged 22, died in the suburb of Hintonburg to-day under circumstances which point to poisoning. He ate cucumbers Sunday morning, took ill and was given some powders by a physician. To-day he expired in great agony. An inquest will be held Friday.

THE SILVER WAVE DECLINING.

Letters to McKinley Show That the Great Free Coinage Boom Has Passed Its Height.

Canton, Ohio, Aug. 4.—Major McKinley's letters to-day brought encouraging news from many parts of the country. There are indications of a significant character that the popular interest in free silver in many of the Western States is declining. More than half a hundred writers, all of them trained observers, state in letters received to-day that the excitement over the free coinage of silver has reached its highest pitch and that the wave is beginning to roll backwards.

HASSAM PASHA MALTREATED.

There is Trouble Brewing—The Christians in Heraklion Panic-Stricken.

London, Aug. 4.—The Daily News will publish to-morrow a despatch from its Athens correspondent, saying that Hassam Pasha, the Governor of Heraklion, for refusing to admit a crowd of armed Mussulmans to the town, was dragged from his horse and maltreated, sustaining serious injuries. The Mussulmans thronged into the town, and it was found to be necessary to call out the troops to restore order. The Christian residents of the place were thrown into a panic. The situation, according to this despatch, was never so critical as it is now.

FOREST PRESERVATION.

Though the importance of our forests as a factor of national prosperity has always been recognized, too little attention has been heretofore devoted to the preservation of this great source of wealth from destruction. It has largely been taken for granted that as settlement and civilization progress, the forest must be sacrificed to the needs of agriculture, regardless of the scientific truth that unless a certain percentage of the land is kept in timber, the climate will gradually, but surely, deteriorate, so as to render farming unprofitable. The Ontario Government has done much in the past to inculcate sound views on this question, and the report of Mr. Thos. Southworth, Clerk of Forestry for 1896, just issued, contains a good deal of information as to forestry conditions in this Province. A perusal of this document indicates that the Ontario Government has for some time been devoting a good deal of attention to the subject of forest preservation. Two note-worthy steps in that direction are the setting aside of Algonquin Park as a perpetual forest reserve and the adoption of the system of fire-ranging, which has done a great deal during recent years to lessen the number and destructiveness of forest fires. The report suggests an extension of this policy, pointing out that there are large areas in Northern Ontario manifestly unfit for settlement, owing to the broken character of the land, which ought to be maintained as forest reserves. This does not mean the prohibition of lumbering, but that instead of being stripped at once of all their timber and left a prey to fire, the mature trees only should be taken from time to time, leaving the others to grow up. If this plan were pursued and adequate precautions taken against fire, Mr. Southworth thinks that there would be no reason to fear the exhaustion of our timber supply or the other evils resulting from deforestation. So far as the older portion of the province is concerned the damage wrought by over-clearance can only be remedied by replanting and the careful preservation by individuals of such woodland as remains. The report comprises much information on tree-planting, likely to be of value to farmers and others who desire to utilise waste land in this manner, pointing out that in consequence of increased demands for special manufacturing purposes, many kinds of wood are attaining additional commercial value which will render a plantation a source of future profit. The results of the latest scientific investigation and practical experiment are presented, together with many special articles on forestry and tree growing which will be appreciated by all interested in the subject. All desirous of obtaining copies, can do so by sending their names and addresses to Mr. Thomas Southworth, Clerk of Forestry, Parliament Buildings, Toronto.

PROTESTS.

The time for filing protests against members of the House of Commons gazetted as returned at the last general elections, has expired, and the full crop gathered shows that protests have been entered against the return of sixty-three members, of whom forty-four are Conservatives and nineteen Liberals. Of this total Ontario contributes eleven, all against Conservatives; Quebec, thirteen—five Liberals and eight Conservatives; New Brunswick, twelve, of whom four are Liberals and eight Conservatives, leaving only two seats unprotested; Nova Scotia, eleven—three Liberals and eight Conservatives; Prince Edwards Island four—three Conservative and one Liberal; Manitoba and the North-west six, of whom two are Liberals and four Conservatives; in British Columbia three Conservatives and two Liberals. A pugnacious New Brunswick there are only two seats left unprotested, so that in the event of all members being unseated there will have to be practically a new general election. Mr. Laurier's majority in Ontario will be undisturbed no matter what the result of the trial of the petitions, and the probability is that it will be substantially increased. In fact there is good reason to predict that the already substantial parliamentary Liberal majority will be increased largely as the result of unseating and by-elections. But there is not likely to be a wholesale unseating. That process is a good deal more difficult under the changed law. Formerly a single corrupt act dislodged the member elect; now it requires the proving of enough corrupt acts to affect the result. When the majority is narrow there is, other things being equal, a greater chance of success; but where the candidate has been elected by a large majority the difficulty will be proportionately increased.

AN ENEMY'S ESTIMATE.

The Ottawa Journal (Independent Conservative) says:—"If Mr. Tarte were dismissing Conservatives to make room for Liberals, he would have an easier and pleasanter job than the one he announces himself to have undertaken. If he were merely dismissing Conservatives to make room for Liberals, the Conservative politicians and press would howl about the Liberal politicians, at least the lower order of them would do so. But Mr. Tarte seems to simply run his department on business principles. This remarkable action will not lessen the Conservative outcry much. The partisans will not give an opponent any credit they can help, and it will dissatisfy a considerable number of Liberals who expected themselves or their friends to step into government berths. Mr. Tarte, if he carries out his announcements, can look for reward to the approval and support of intelligent citizens in the future, but meanwhile he must face not merely political abuse from his opponents, but a great amount of harrassing pressure from office-seekers professing to have always been among the faithful on the Liberal side. But it is earnestly to be hoped that he will stand firm and succeed in carrying out his programme. Surely the country can and will appreciate something better than it has had of late years—some public principle other than the continual loading up of all the departments with employees for whom there is no real work."

A FARMER MINISTER.

Mr. Fisher, the Minister of Agriculture in Mr. Laurier's Cabinet, appears, says the Montreal Herald, to have all the qualifications. His ripe experience in scientific farming, his extensive knowledge in matters of economics, his considerable Parliamentary training, his great seriousness of temperament and his indomitable energy, all seem to mark him as a man specially qualified for the performance of the great task to which he has been called. He promises modestly that with the help of his colleagues he will see to it that the farmer shall enter shortly on a period in which he shall be better used by the Government than he has ever been used before. Mr. Fisher may be trusted to fulfill that promise to the best of his ability. His ability is such as to warrant the assurance that he will fulfill the promise in its entirety.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

A LOCAL opponent of the present Government who took a very prominent part against Mr. Laurier at the last election, says he is very well pleased so far with the new Government, and that if Mr. Laurier and his party go on as they have begun, they will enjoy a long lease of power.

THE Toronto World's anxiety to find an office for Sir Charles Tupper is explained by the fact that the World wishes to bring about the reorganization of the Conservative party, a feat which is impossible with Sir Charles as leader. He is the lion in the path. The party is badly out of sorts and badly needs reconstruction, therefore a long holiday in "the cool shades" will be good for it.

DR. BRYCE the secretary of the Provincial Board of Health, has issued his annual report. Advices from every part of the province show a very satisfactory condition of health. The province is and has been comparatively free from contagious disease, and such epidemics as have existed have all been traced to their sources and the causes removed and matters rectified as far as possible. The report is, on the whole, encouraging.

THE system of fire ranging adopted by the Ontario Government seems to be achieving good results in the preservation of the forests, says the Globe. Though the summer of 1895 was one of the dryest on record, the destruction by fire is estimated at only $41,600. The saving has been effected by the employment of 114 men for a few months in the year at a cost of $26,253, shared between the public treasury and the limit owners.

THE Montreal Gazette approves of the course pursued by Mr. Tarte in dismissing the temporary clerks by the score. It says that "unfortunately most of the Ministers are not at liberty to take these drastic measures to reduce their staff." It proceeds to argue in favour of running the civil service on business principles. Credat Judæus! What is the world coming to? But how comes it that the Gazette had never a word to say on the subject while its Tory friends were revelling in a devilment of nefarious carnival, and stealing and wasting the public money and committing every kind of political debauch? So sudden a conversion is suspicious.

ONE HONEST MAN.

DEAR EDITOR:—Please inform your readers, that if written to confidentially I will mail, in a sealed letter, particulars of a genuine, honest home cure, by which I was permanently restored to health and manly vigor after years of suffering from nervous debility, sexual weakness, night losses and weak, shrunken parts. I was robbed and swindled by the quacks until I nearly lost faith in mankind, but thank heaven, I am now well, vigorous and strong and wish to make this certain means of cure known to all sufferers. I have nothing to sell and want no money, but being a firm believer in the universal brotherhood of man, I am desirous of helping the unfortunate to regain their health and happiness, I promise you perfect secrecy and as I do not wish to expose myself either, please address, simply: P. SHOCKED THE PRINCESS.

Soldiers Went in Swimming and the German Empress' Sister Drove by—Whole Regiment Punished.

Berlin, Aug. 4.—Several members of the Second Guard Artillery went in swimming in Havel Lake the other day and neglected the formality of using bathing clothes. The spot they selected is a retired one, but, unfortunately for the bathing warriors, a carriage road runs along the lake shore near by.

Just as the men emerged from their bath and climbed up, dripping from the water, a carriage drove by in plain view, and among the women it contained was the sister of the Empress, who, shocked beyond expression, became hysterical and fainted.

The matter came to the Emperor's ears and measures were taken to discover the culprits. None of the soldiers belonging to the Guard would confess, and, as a consequence, the entire regiment is now being punished for the offence of the real offenders. Extra drills have been ordered daily, and, it is announced, all furloughs in the regiment will be denied until the guilty soldiers are given up for punishment.

COMMENDABLE PROMPTITUDE.

A Resident of St. John, N.B., Makes a Successful Trial of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

St. John, N.B., Aug. 3—Mr. Robt. Moore, residing in Indiantown, a suburb of this city, has recently made what is allowed by all who are acquainted with the facts to be a most remarkable recovery. He has been a sufferer from a serious complaint of the kidneys for over seven years, and during that time has suffered excruciatingly. He has also suffered considerably in pocket, having paid large sums for medical advice. Quite recently he happened to read of the many cures effected by Dodd's Kidney Pills, and with commendable promptitude made a trial of them, with the result that after taking three boxes of the remedy he was entirely restored to health.

Mrs. S., says: "I had been suffering from rheumatic pains for months. Miller's Compound Iron Pills cured me."

THE DETROIT DERBY

Captured by Damien, a Rank Outsider.

NIMROD SECOND, ARGENTINA THIRD

Seagram's Sailing Was One of the Two Favorites That Justified Expectations—Canada Sailed All Round Her Competitors at Port Dover Regatta—Baseball Record.

Detroit, Aug. 4.—The summer meeting of the Detroit Jockey Club opened at the Grosse Point track this afternoon. Only two favorites finished in front, outsiders winning in four events. The International Derby, a sweepstakes for 3-year-olds, worth $5000, was won by Damien, a rank outsider and a 15-to-1 shot. In the retch Damien, who had been trailing the leaders, began to come fast, and had his head beaten a furlong from home, winning by two lengths from Nimrod, who was a head in front of Argentina. Summaries:

First race, mile—Preston, 9 to 5, 1; Joe Clark, 4 to 1, 2; Egbert, 5 to 1, 3. Time 1.41¼.

Second race, 6 furlongs—Jennie June, 7 to 1, 1; Miss Rowett, 20 to 1, 2; Necedah, 10 to 1, 3. Time 1.14¾.

Third race, 5 furlongs—Indo, 7 to 1, 1; Sutton, 6 to 1, 2; Bernadillo, 8 to 1, 3. Time 1.01¾.

Fourth race, 1⅛ miles—Damien, 15 to 1, 1; Nimrod, 12 to 1, 2; Argentina, 8 to 1, 3. Time 2.36¼.

Fifth race, 7 furlongs—Service, 6 to 1, 1; Blanc, 15 to 1, 2; Little Tom, 20 to 1, 3. Time 1.28½.

Sixth race, 6 furlongs—Halfling, 7 to 5, 1; Moyan, 5 to 1, 2; Irene Woods, 10 to 1, 3. Time 1.14¼.

CANADA AT PORT DOVER.

The Canadian Defender Sailed All Round Her Opponents.

Port Dover, Aug. 4.—The race to-day was for 40-footers and over. Canada, Scorpion and West Wind started. Canada came in first, Scorpion second.

In the 30-foot and under 40-foot class, Vivia, Dina, Miriam, Eva and Puritan started. Dina came in first and Vivia second.

In the 30-foot and under, Viking, Nox, Myrna, Hiawatha, Dorothy, Sybil, Edith, Burocey, Don and Rogue started. Hiawatha came in first and Sybil second.

The course was triangular, four miles to the leg, and all the yachtsmen agreed the finest on the lakes.

The weather was unexceptionally favorable, with a good, stiff wind.

The Canada went twice around the course, in all 4 miles; started at 11 a.m. and finished at 2.44 p.m.

The Canada had a very easy thing of it, and she excited the admiration of local sailors by the way she carried her topsail when the other yachts were content with either lower canvas or reefs. She leaves for Erie to-day to take part in the Erie regatta to-morrow.

The report that Vencedor will be at Erie is unfounded.

BRITANNIA'S QUEEN'S CUP.

Cowes, Aug. 4.—The regatta of the Royal Yacht Squadron, of which the Prince of Wales is commodore, began to-day under favorable auspices of wind and weather. The grounds about the club house of the Royal Yacht Squadron were thronged with a crowd to see the race for the Queen's Cup, which last year was won by Admiral the Hon. V. Montagu's cutter Carina. The race was open to all yachts belonging to the squadron. The course was 50 miles. A good steady breeze was blowing from the northwest when the yachts started, making the run to the Lymington Spit buoy a close reach. The starters were: Kaiperor William's Meteor, the Prince of Wales' Britannia, John Gretton, jr.'s, Hester, and Capt. James A. Orr Ewing's Mohawk.

The Meteor crossed the line first, but the Britannia was close up and had the advantage of being in the weather position. The other yachts followed in procession. The race throughout was a close one between the Meteor and Britannia, but the latter won on time allowance, the Meteor giving her 15 minutes. They finished at the following times: Meteor, 4.45.50; Britannia, 4.40.40.

The other big raters, the Ailsa and Satanita, did not start in the race for the Queen's Cup, they having entered in the regatta of the Royal Southampton Yacht Club, which was sailed in Southampton water. The race was won by the Ailsa.

THEY MADE A TRIPLE PLAY.

Fast Fielding by the Torontos and Another Defeat for Scranton.

Toronto, Aug. 5.

It was a pretty game over the Don yesterday up to Toronto's last of the eighth, with honors easy. Then Southpaw Brown weakened, and a single, a double, two triples, two bases on balls and three errors scored seven runs. Scranton started to rap Dunn pretty freely in the ninth, and with two runs scored, no one out and two on bases Smith accepted Meaney's wicked liner and doubled up Brown at third. The feature was Toronto's fast triple play in the fourth. Two hits and a stolen base had placed Eagan on third and McGuire on first. Then Meaney sent a sharp one to short, and the ball traveled quickly to second, to first and on home in time to easily retire the three. Score:

ANOTHER RECORD FOR BALD.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Aug. 4.—One world's record was smashed before 3000 people here to-day. There was a stiff breeze blowing from the south, but wonderful time was made in spite of it. Bald first went for the one-third mile, flying start, wer'd'a record of .34 3-5. He was paced by a triplet. His time was 33 sec. flat. Bald then went for the two-thirds mile record, making it in 1.12 2-5, which is the state record. The crowd went wild when Sanger won the professional two-mile handicap. He was scratch man against a field of 10. He won the race by two lengths. Summaries:

Quarter-mile, open, amateur—H. B. Marsh, Grand Rapids, 1. Time .36 2-5.

FOUND A BIG SPIDER COLONY.

Their Webs Are as Large as Hammocks, and They Show Fight Whenever Approached.

Flemington, N.J., Aug. 4.—In the Grove at Quakertown, known locally as the "Buzzard's Roost," naturalists from the University of New York have been greatly interested in finding a colony of remarkably rare spiders, supposed to be the solpugideans. They are of the size of tarantulas, and closely allied to the scorpions of southern regions. They are very pugnacious and show fight whenever approached.

The special haunt of these spiders is an old ruined building among the trees, where their webs, as large as hammocks, festoon every corner. The curators are much surprised at finding this species in the North.

CHICAGO'S PORK MARKET

Was Somewhat Excited Yesterday Because Montrealers Were at Work.

Chicago, Aug. 4.—There was an excited and higher market in pork to-day. A story that the September option in this commodity was likely to experience a squeeze at the hands of Montreal holders, who are heavily long on that month, had an alarming effect on the minds of Chicago shorts, and September pork opened at $6.90, 5 cents higher than it closed yesterday, advancing with very little opposition to $7.25, where it closed 90 cents higher than yesterday.

At the Western Cattle Market this morning the receipts were 67 loads of cattle, 800 sheep, 800 lambs, 60 calves and 600 hogs. Prices for both export and butchers' cattle were practically unchanged, although the tendency of the market is towards lower prices. Export sold at from 3c to 3½c per lb., and choice butchers' cattle brought from 2c to 3c per lb.

The market for milch cows was unchanged, with prices ranging from $15 to $50 per head.

Business in the small meats market was slow. The heavy run of sheep and lambs this morning, following the overstocked market of last week, depressed prices, and, although dealers report the market unchanged, sales were effected at prices below quotations. Lambs sold at from $2 to $2.75 per head, and sheep at from 2½c to 3c per lb. Calves brought from $2 to $4 per head.

The hog market was steady. Best hogs sold at 4c to 4¼c per lb., thick fats at 3½c per lb., stores at 3½c to 3¾c per lb., sows 2½c to 3c per lb. and stags 2c per lb.

Export cattle, $3 to $3.50 per cwt.; butchers' cattle, choice, $2.75 to $3 per cwt.; medium, $2.25 to $2.50 per cwt.; common, $2 per cwt.; milch cows, per head, $15 to $50; sheep, shipping, $2.50 to $3 per cwt.; sheep, butchers', $2.50 to $2.75 per cwt.; lambs, spring, per head, $2 to $3; calves, per head, $2 to $4; hogs, choice, $4 to $4.12½ per cwt.; hogs, thick fat, $3.50 per cwt.; stores, $3.50 to $3.75; sows, $2.50 to $3; stags, $2.

Two Box Cure

MILVERTON, 29TH JULY, 1895.

Gentlemen,—For the last ten years I had been troubled with kidney disease, being so bad at intervals that I could not lie in bed at night nor stoop to the ground.

I had tried all the remedies I could find without effect, but heard of Dodd's Kidney Pills and procured a box.

I am most happy to say it for my own sake as well as for others that I am perfectly cured after using four boxes.

A STRANGE FISH.

Is it a Ling or a Dog Fish?—Slightly Resembles Both.

Mr. Dickson Jewett landed a strange looking fish at Stony Lake, when night fishing for eels and cat fish the other evening. It greatly resembles a cat fish, but is larger and lighter in colour, besides being blotched like a speckled trout. It has the cat fish head, but is minus its horns. The tail fin extends half way up its back, on both the upper and under sides, and in this particular, as well as in the great length of tail, it resembles an eel. The fish is 35 inches in length and weighs three pounds and fourteen ounces.

Mr. R. C. Winch observed a fish exactly similar to the above lying dead on the shore of Stony Lake yesterday. He never saw or heard of one like it and regarded the find as a great curio.

NOTE.—Commodore Calcutt, who saw the above paragraph in proof during a call at this office this morning, pronounces the fish an eel-pout. The eel-pout (Zoarces viviparus) answers the description. It is remarkable for the fact that, like the whale, it brings forth its young alive. The ling, the turbot of Lake Ontario, has some features, such as the dorsal fin, in common with the eel-pout, but has a head more like a pike.—ED. EXAMINER.

HARD ON HORSE-FLESH.

The Hot Weather Proves Very Exhausting to the Chemong Team.

The protracted spell of hot weather is very hard on horses. Stage and 'bus horses, especially, feel the heat, and as an example of how exhausting it is, the statement is made that during the past two weeks a team of horses have actually been worn completely out on the Chemong stage line, and Mr. Scott has been compelled to purchase two new ones. He says that in all his experience of staging no weather was ever so hard on horseflesh as has been that of the last two weeks of July.

Coal Advanced.

Owing to the state of the coal market in the United States, we are compelled to advance coal to $5.75 per ton for August delivery. Ours is the purest hard coal mined, being free from sulphur, iron and slate, burns to a white ash, and lasts as long, if not longer than any coal on the market. A coal dealer who sold some of our coal last season in town and claims to have some left over, is offering it at $5.50. If the coal is our coal, we advise the people of Peterborough to take this coal from him, it is cheap, and is better coal and will give better satisfaction than the coal he is selling at $6 per ton. People's Coal Co.; office 230 Charlotte street, telephone 205.

THE MILWAUKEE CONVENTION.

Rev. Mr. McLeod Speaks Codcerning It and Its Benefits.

Last evening an echo meeting of the great Milwaukee Convention of the Baptist Young People's Union was held in the Park street Baptist church. Rev. Mr. McLeod, of the Gilmour Memorial Baptist church, gave a very full report of the proceedings of the convention. He took for his subject, "Milwaukee in 1896."

It seems a good while now, said the speaker, since a number of us took the train in Toronto one Wednesday morning to go to Milwaukee. It seems long on account of the great things which we heard and which we will not forget very quickly. We got into the land of our cousins and were met by a young man from that place, but who had come from Chicago to meet us, and then we travelled with him to Milwaukee. We soon found out all the particulars concerning the arrangements.

The building in which the convention was held was erected to serve the purpose of an agricultural show building, but it was used this year for a

A NOBLER CAUSE.

Its seating capacity is about 25,000 or 30,000. This year's convention made the sixth annual convention. The president of the convention was always very punctual and as soon as the clock indicated the opening hour the convention was opened by one of the delegates present offering up a prayer and then some Scripture was read.

After these ceremonies the delegates were welcomed, and then the president declared this 6th annual convention opened. Some doctors say that up to five years there is a great deal of mortality and after the 5th year has passed it decreases, i. e. after a child is 5 years old there is not so much danger of its dying. Well the Young People's Union has passed its 5th year and is doing well. The doctor's bill, as it were, for the founding of the society is $15,000.

After the welcoming of the delegates was completed Mr. White gave an interesting welcome address to the convention. Mr. White was known to most of those who were at the Convention. In his address he gave some good reasons should be held in Milwaukee. Then Mr. Drake, the president of the city union, told some things to the delegates. He said that in Milwaukee there were more homes and fewer mortgages; more marriages and very few cases of divorce; more beer in the city and less of it drank, than in any other city in the United States. It is an interesting thing to know the first fact when it is taken into account that the population is composed of two-third Germans and nearly all own their own homes, and there is more water there and fewer Baptists than in any other city of its size in the Union.

Mr. A. J. Gordon spoke about the independence of the Baptists. They love the liberty for which their fathers bled and died. They would not hear for a moment of such a word as "toleration." We ought to join together and bring the world to Jesus Christ. If all the delegates assembled at the convention were to do their best they would soon bring the world to Christ.

Then came the report of the Board of Managers for the year. This report was a very good one and also very encouraging. It told how many had sent in examination papers and how many had passed. Four hundred thousand young Baptists were joined together in this union of Baptist young people. It seemed to be a wonderful number to Mr. McLeod, who did not think there were so many. After all it is not so small an organization

AS SOME IMAGINE.

If they all work together they will do a grand work. He also spoke about the funds of the Union. When the society was first formed there was lots of enthusiasm and no money to pay for the work. Still when it was decided to continue the work some good-hearted people gave large amounts, but there is still a deficit of about $15,000. This money is used almost exclusively in getting tracts and other matter printed.

Mr. McLeod gave a very full description of all the addresses given and at the conclusion he received a vote of thanks.

Miss Mann, who was also at the convention, will, at some future time, describe parts of the convention, untouched by Rev. Mr. McLeod.

PORT HOPE METHODIST CHURCH.

Rev. W. R. Young, B.A., of Peterborough, Invited to Become its Pastor.

The Port Hope Guide of yesterday's issue contains the following paragraph of interest to the citizens of Peterborough:—

"The first meeting of the ministerial year of the official board of the Port Hope Methodist church was held in the vestry on Monday night last. The usual business was promptly transacted; the election of a delegate to the district meeting, fixing the pastor's salary for the ensuing year, and other matters.

"A hearty invitation was extended to Rev. W. R. Young, B.A., now pastor of the George street Methodist church, Peterborough, to become the pastor of the Port Hope church for the next conference year.

"As the Rev. Mr. Young is considered one of the most eloquent speakers of this conference and one of the best read and progressive men among his fellows, we congratulate the board on his choice. We trust the invitation will be accepted."

NOTE.—When seen in reference to the matter, this morning, Mr. Young stated that the invitation would be given his serious consideration, but the notice was too short for him to venture an opinion on the matter as yet.

Mr. Nagle of Ottawa, has been the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Harry Phelan, for the last few days. He returned home yesterday accompanied by Mrs. Phelan and Master Nagle Phelan. Before returning Caledonia Springs will be visited.

Mrs. J. A. Raymond and daugter, of Water street, have left for the lakes. Mrs. Raymond is a neice of the late Robert Nicholls and came from the United States about a year ago, meeting with an accident which caused her to become a resident of Peterborough.

Mr. J. G. Guiteau, a nephew of President Garfield's assassin, was in town yesterday. He is travelling in Canada for the benefit of his health and knows quite a few Peterboroniane, whom he looked up last evening. Mr. Guiteau converses quite freely concerning his uncle's rash act.

Mr. W. Cross, piano tuner, and family have removed from Toronto and taken up their residence in Peterborough at No. 91 Weller street. Mr. Cross comes to Peterborough under the patronage of the R. S. Williams & Sons Piano Company, of Toronto, and heartily endorsed by that firm as a skilful piano tuner and recommended to their numerous customers in this district. Mr. Cross will now be available for tuning and regulating all makes of instruments in town or country, and already enjoys the patronage of quite a number of our best citizens. He is a practical piano maker as well as tuner, with twenty years' experience.

August Prices.

August is the last month of Summer—the end of the clearing-out season when Summer Goods must give way to Fall Stocks. We cannot afford to carry over one season's goods to the next. We must keep a perennial freshness about our store. For these reasons, you can understand how it comes that you can buy anything in our summer lines just now with very little consideration for what it cost us. Take Wall Paper for instance. An ordinary Wall Paper advertisement in August is about as unlooked for as snow in August. People have almost stopped buying and trade is at low-water mark. But there's a way to stimulate activity even in Wall Paper, and by almost giving away the goods, and doing it agreeably, we think we can crowd this store with buyers during this last of the summer months.

Wall Paper.

Pretty Patterns, for ordinary rooms, that could never be bought for less than 5c. and 6c. per roll, our August price 3½

Special lines in Art Patterns, for dining-rooms, bed-rooms, etc., that were cheap all summer at 7c and 8c, our August price 5

Very pretty American Papers, with borders and ceiling papers to match, regular 12½c. and 15c. patterns, our August price, ...9

Rich Gilt Papers, with border and ceilings to match, worth 20c and 25c. our August price..... .15

"What's the matter" with papering the home now instead of waiting until fall? Many families have closed up their homes and are away summering, giving a better chance for the work to be better done and without confusion and discomfort. What a pleasure it would be to return to the brightness of the newly prepared home. Now's the time! when Wall Paper can be bought for half the price it will be in the fall and when it costs less to put it on.

Y.P.S.C.E. NOTES.

Paragraphs of Local Interest to Endeavourers Supplied by the County Union.

WORLD'S CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOUR PRAYER CHAIN.

Subject of prayer for August—"For Young Christians.

"Pray that as they are scattered by the vacation season the knowledge of Christ may be spread abroad by them, and that their consistent lives may everywhere tell for the Master."

A LITTLE LESSON IN THE SCHOOL OF PRAYER.

"They that were scattered abroad went everywhere preaching the word." Thus reads the sacred record of the early disciples. How glorious it would be if his statement were true of Christians to-day! At once the Gospel would be carried into the ends of the earth. The summer tourist to strange lands, the sojourner in village and at mountain and at seaside, all would make it their chief business to preach Christ. Magnificent possibility! And for this we pray. Ten thousand hearts will be lifted up this month in the prayer that all of the multitude of Christians dispersed by the vacation season may be living epistles of Christ's Gospel. May we not be especially importunate in this prayer? Its fulfilment means wonderful things for the kingdom of God. It means the salvation from special temptations of hosts of young people; it means Christian lives made more robust and noble by witness-bearing; and it means thousands won to the Redeemer by a pure religion preached and lived. Is not this worthy a month's prayer from all Christendom?—The Golden Rule.

LITTLE KINDNESSES.

This was the topic for discussion this week and it seems so applicable to our especial appeal to you this week that we utilise it. Little kindnesses. When shall we render them. Shall we, as did David, wait for some quiet season when we have nothing else to think of or will now at this very present moment listen to the cry for aid? Do we know how many thousand Armenians are holding out their hands to-day crying pitifully, we are starving, wont you please give us something to eat? Do you know that one five cent piece will keep one of these people from starvation for one week? Can you personally see any one of these kneeling before you with outstretched hand, pleading with you to give them just a little mite to keep them from starvation, you see it all plainly, but probably fee that your mite would not count for much. Here is what many mites would do: We have 1,500 Endeavourers in this county; if each one gave two cents, that would mean 600 Armenians kept from starvation that week. But then we see the greater need, so we will not stop at two cents; we will give five cents and drive starvation from the doors of 1,500 Armenians. But now we have fully entered into the spirit of giving, we will give the Lord His just dues, one-tenth of our income. What will we consider a fair average income? Three dollars per week would be reasonable; a tenth would mean 30 cents; allowing 15 cents for other demands from our church, we could in the meantime keep from starvation 4,500 Armenians. This all looks fine in theory; will we not try and make some special effort immediately to put it in practice? How would it do to have an Armenian day in the county and on this day every Endeavourer give his mite? We throw out the suggestion, probably our president will take it up and name the day. In this case procrastination is the thief that is robbing many of their lives through starvation. This is a case where all the denominations may join in doing a good work for suffering humanity.

EVERY ONE HIS WORK.

Did you ever scan the membership roll of your church to see how many are working toward the great aim of the Christian church—evangelising the work—and see how many drones you have. And of those who are giving, how many there are who give because it is respectable, and therefore the correct thing to be a subscriber to the mission fund. Now the Christian church should be a great hive of industry every one working with the desire to please the Master and win souls to His service.

But these words are meant for Christian Endeavourers throughout our country, let every member ponder over his or her position in regard to this all important matter. The county president has brought this question before us, and asks that we make a special effort to make this a good year of missionary effort. What percentage of members in your society are giving anything toward missions. What is the average amount given by each? Is the average as much as you think it ought to be? Are you giving your share of it? And if you are is the amount given by you as much as you think it ought to be when measured by the goodness and loving kindness of your Heavenly Father.

These questions are worthy your prayerful consideration, and if the holy spirit leads you to take a deeper interest in missions, do not resist Him. If the work meant for you to do is to raise the enthusiasm of your fellow members do not shirk the responsibility, and if it points to greater self sacrifice and larger gifts from yourself, rest assured that God will bless in all your endeavours for Him.

And now, let us say to each Christian Endeavourer, we do not ask you to give to any C.E. scheme. We ask each one (and we trust the response will be from everyone) to give to his or her own denominational mission board. But will you not keep a record of how much your members have given this year, and then we can see by our yearly statistics whether we are going ahead or behind our previous record. "Advance Endeavour" along missionary lines is our watchword for 1896.

Healthy, happy children make better men and women of us all. A little care and a little planning before birth is often more important than anything that can be done after. On the mother's health and strength depend the life and the future of the children. A weak and sickly woman cannot bear strong and healthy children. Most of the weakness of women is utterly inexcusable. Proper care and proper medicine will cure almost any disorder of the feminine organism. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has been tested in thirty years of practice. It is healing, soothing, strengthening. It is perfectly natural in its operation and effect. By its use thousands of weak women have been made strong and healthy—have been made the mothers of strong and healthy children. Taken during gestation, it makes childbirth easy and almost painless and insures the well being of both mother and child. Send 31 cents in one-cent stamps to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N.Y., and receive Dr. Pierce's 1008 page "Common Sense Medical Adviser," profusely illustrated.

NORTH HARVEY.

From Our Own Correspondent.

The huckleberry social held at Oliver's Point was a decided success. Quite a number from South Harvey and Bobcaygeon came and all spent a very pleasant evening. The net proceeds amounted to about twenty-one dollars, which was given to the missionary, Rev. Mr. Jamieson, who has been doing good service here and in South Harvey for the past year.

Work on the North Squaw River road ended Saturday night, although not quite completed, as the appropriation was all used up. The job was in charge of James Richmond and he did his work in a very thorough and workmanlike manner as far as he went, the only wonder is that he did it so well, as it is rather difficult to put a road through such a rough country and required considerable skill and ingenuity to do. Mr. Richmond deserves credit for the way he did the job. This road is of considerable benefit in opening up the back country and we feel certain that Mr. Stratton will get a grant another year to finish the work, as he has always taken an interest in helping the back settlers.

There are considerable bush fires in the north-eastern part of the township, which, owing to the continued dry weather, make it rather dangerous. Some are now out fighting it to save their beaver hay.

Last week some scamp fired some brush heaps in several places along a new fence that Quintin Moore built last spring, and but for the timely assistance of neighbours would have in all probability cleaned out a part of the settlement, as everything was dry as tinder, but by hard fighting they succeeded in getting it under control and the damage done was but slight. Such miscreants should get the full weight of the law, and we have no doubt they will if found out.

Harvesting has commenced in earnest here and the samples of grain are very fair considering the drought, straw in most cases being rather short.

W. J. Oliver had a fine field of fall wheat; some of the heads measured six inches filled with good plump grain.

James Oliver has finished his job, filling the eastern approach of the Squaw river bridge with stone. The work was badly needed, as it was very unsafe, especially in the spring when it is generally covered with water, but now we will be able to cross it safely, thanks to the efforts of Mr. Stratton.

It is reported that Mr. Richard Gerrard contemplates moving away from here up to Kinmount. If it is true he will be badly missed, as he is a general favourite with both old and young, and no bee or sport seems quite complete without Dickie as he is familiarly known.

Maltine With Coca Wine Feeds the Nerves.

Are you all run down? Are you tired in body? weary in mind? Does sleeplessness rob you of mental force? make your days a weariness and night a torment? In brief, is life rapidly becoming a burden to you? Thousands are living in this miserable condition while relief from this worst of mental and physical conditions may be speedily obtained by the use of Maltine with Coca Wine. It is a real tonic, for it builds up the body, gives strength and vigor to the nerves, supplies pure rich blood, restores appetite, and adds wonderfully to the digestive power of the stomach. Maltine with Coca Wine renews every fibre of the body, gives mental activity. Maltine with Coca Wine is a builder—builds nerve, builds muscle, builds bone. All druggists sell it.

LACROSSE.

The members of the team are now in fine shape for their game with Port Hope to-morrow, and doubtless a big crowd will go down with them on the special train to see them win from Port Hope and secure the coveted title of district champion, which also entitles them to a place in the semi-finals in the C. L. A. series. The boys are playing a fine game just now, as their practice has not been neglected. The following team will represent the town:—Goal, Dobbin; point, Brown; cover point, Mein; 1st defence, Lynch; 2nd defence, Borland; 3rd defence, Hickey; centre, McDonough; third home, Phelan; 2nd home, Rubidge; 1st home, Lipsett; outside home, King; inside home, McCabe.

Galley being absent and Glover's arm being still sore deprives the Peterboroughs of two of their most reliable men, but the boys hope to win nevertheless.

THE WHEEL.

Toronto Globe, Monday: There will be no scarcity of meets this season, as arrangements are under way for the holding of meets in nearly every town in Ontario with a suitable track. The usual August circuit ends practically at Simcoe on the 20th, and after that meets are few and far between. There is nothing left for the poor racing man to do but to swoop over to the other side, where the game is harder to beat than even the thimble-rigging outfit that struck the Humber a few Sundays ago. Correspondence is now being held with the secretaries of clubs in places as far east as Montreal, and there is a likelihood that an extension will be made to Quebec. The circuiters will retrace their steps by way of Ottawa, Peterborough and Lindsay. Orillia, Midland, Penetang, Barrie, Goderich and other towns will be comprised in the circuit on the return trip. Secretaries of clubs wishing particulars should write W. Payson Davidson, 99 Yonge street.

THE GLORIOUS UNCERTAINITY OF THE LAW.

The Costly Dance the Law is Capable of Leading Litigants.

To show the mill a litigant must go through once he enters the law, the case of the C. P. R. against the Township of Chatham, Kent county, is a good illustration. The company sued the township for $2,000, a balance claimed to be due under a contract relating to a railway culvert and a township drain. The trial judge dismissed the action. Victory No. 1 for the township. The company appealed to the Divisional Court of Osgoode Hall, which dismissed the appeal. Victory No. 2 for the township. The company appealed to the Court of Appeals for Ontario, which dismissed the appeal. Victory No. 3 for for the township. Then the company appealed to the Supreme Court of Canada, and had it decided that the lower courts were wrong. Victory No. 1 for the company. Then the township, having more judges in its favour than against it, taking all the courts in account, appealed to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, and now the Judicial Committee have dismissed the appeal of the township, whose ratepayers will have to whack up all the costs, amounting to ten times the cost of the culvert or the drain, whichever was the most expensive. It is a curious thing too that leave to appeal in this case was granted, while leave to appeal in the very important case of the Queen vs. St. Louis was denied.

GALWAY.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Mr. Thos. Humphrey, who was thrown from his horse on July 14th, sustained injuries that resulted in his death ten days' later. His remains were taken to Kinmount cemetery. He leaves behind to mourn his loss a wife and one child.

Mr. W. J. Torpey, formerly teacher of S. S. No. 4, and who is now attending college, paid a visit to his many friends here during his vacation.

D. Curtin and T. Cahill went to Ennismore last week to attend the funeral of the latter's brother-in-law, Mr. Caddigan, who died very suddenly of heart failure.

Mrs. Garvey, of Indian River, Otonabee, has returned after a lengthy visit to her many friends and relatives here. Mrs. Garvey is a sister of John Allen. They resided at one time with their parents on a farm on the shores of Swamp lake. Though the place is now uninhabited, Mrs. Garvey did not return home until she had visited the scene of her early childhood, which was a delight to her.

Get Your Job Printing Done at The Examiner.

The old story of Prometheus is a parable, an allegory. Prometheus was on terms of intimacy with the gods. From them he stole fire, and gave it to men. For this sin he was bound to the rocks of Mount Caucasus, and vultures were set upon him. They only ate his liver. This grew again as fast as it was pecked away. Are his sufferings to be imagined? Yes, and realized.

Take a modern interpretation of the parable. There is no cooking without fire. In cooking and eating the mischief lies. The stomach is overtasked, the bowels become clogged, they cannot dispose of the food that is given them. The impurities back up on the liver. Then come the vultures. The sufferings from an outside, visible hurt, are a mere pin-scratch to the torments of a diseased liver.

But, moderns are ahead of the ancients. There is a sequel to the old story. Dr. Pierce is the author. His "Golden Medical Discovery" is more than equal to the vultures of dyspepsia and its kindred diseases. Every atom of the "Discovery" is an active agent against disease. It flies like a ferret, wherever it is sent. It is as sure as the needle of the compass. There is no more need of suffering from dyspepsia than there is of hanging one's self.

Mr. W. Rogers, of 309 Grayson St., Louisville, Ky. has this to say for himself and the "Golden Medical Discovery": "I was a dyspeptic. I had not had a comfortable night in six years. I have taken three bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I am now fifty years old. I feel thirty years younger." Yours truly.

TO EXTRADITE HENRY NOAD.

Affidavits in Court to Show the Woman Arrested With Him Was Not His Acknowledged Wife in Canada.

New York, Aug. 4.—There was another examination into the case of Henry Noad, formerly assistant paymaster of the Canadian Pacific Railroad, who is held under extradition proceedings charged with having stolen $3500 from the company before Commissioner Shields to-day. Noad was represented by his counsel, Edmund E. Price, while Lawyer Fox looked after the interests of the British Consul. Lawyer Fox introduced several affidavits from Canada, which Mr. Price objected to on the ground that they had no bearing on the matter at issue. They were admitted, however, under the law, as all are certified affidavits, but the commissioner said they could afterward be taken for what they were worth. They were made by Kenneth McCaskill, Kate O'Sullivan and Michael Mullarkey and went to prove that the woman arrested with Noad here, who said she was his wife, was not the wife he acknowledged in Canada.

Mr. Fox put Capt. O'Brien of the Detective Bureau on the stand. He said he had aided in the arrest of Noad and Mr. Fox sought to prove by him certain admissions of statements that the woman had made about the money taken from the safe deposit vault, but as these alleged statements were not made in the presence of the defendant, they were ruled out. Mr. Fox then said that he would have to ask for an adjournment as a witness he had expected was not present, and he would be compelled to examine Anna Noad, the reputed wife of the prisoner, in the effort to trace the money in the package to the alleged theft. Mr. Price promised that the woman would be in court, but said his client should have an examination, as there was not a scintilla of evidence against him.

The case was set down for a final hearing on Thursday at 2 o'clock.

When Noad was arrested, a woman was taken with him, calling herself Anna Noad, and she was held as an accomplice. After Noad was held, she went with officers to the American Safe Deposit Company, where she gave up the keys for a vault rented by Noad. In this was found a package of papers and $2000 in bank notes. It is claimed that this money is part of the alleged theft.

Rev. W. C. Hubbard Preaches to Masons, Who Were Present in Full Regalia.

London, Aug. 3.—The Rev. W. C. Hubbard preached in the Rochester Cathedral yesterday to a congregation of Freemasons, who wore the full regalia of their order. Dean Hole, who recently made a tour of the United States and Canada in the interest of the cathedral, presented to Mr. Hubbard an illuminated address to he American brethren. THIRTY NOW HAVE PAY ORE.

Three Lucky Strikes Were Made by Miners in the Rossland District Yesterday—Much Enthusiasm Prevails.

Rossland, B.C., Aug. 3.—(Special.)—Three big gold strikes were reported to-day. The first and perhaps most important is on the Georgie claim, where a tunnel 120 feet long has been cut in a ledge of high grade ore at a depth of 100 feet from the surface. This ore ran $40 per ton on the surface, and has improved 20 per cent. with this depth. This strike is near the east end line of the Monte Cristo, and is in the same ledge running through that claim. It therefore means also as much to the Monte Cristo as to the Georgie. The second strike is reported from Red Mountain, which is a claim situated between Cliff and War Eagle. Three ore running fairly well in gold has been found in a shaft down 40 feet. The third strike is on the Coxey claim, lying near the California on the west side of the Red Mountain. Good ore was found on this ground several days ago, but that just discovered runs much higher in copper, having about 20 per cent. of that metal and running well in gold also. Intense interest and enthusiasm has been caused by the astonishing succession of important strikes made in the last three weeks. Nearly 30 mines now have pay ore.

HE DIED AT HIS POST.

Richard Mitchell, Engineer at the Cayuga Pumping House, Found Dead.

Cayuga, Ont., Aug. 3.—The colored citizens of Cayuga celebrated Emancipation Day in this village to-day. The day was also Cayuga's Civic Holiday.

Quite a gloom was cast over the village this morning when it became known that Mr. Richard Mitchell, a highly respected citizen, was found dead in the station pumping house, where he had been engineer for several years. He went to work this morning early, and when his family called him to breakfast they found him lying dead. Mr. Mitchell was band master in Cayuga band and as a consequence the band did not participate in the day's doings. Few men will be more missed than Mr. Mitchell.

A Fiend in Detroit.

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 3.—Several young girls have been assaulted here recently, and on Saturday another victim was added to the list. A 13-year-old girl named Mote, of near London, Ont., who is visiting here, was seized and dragged into a vacant factory on West Congress-street on Saturday in broad daylight and her assailant choked and assaulted her. The police are after the brute, and think he committed all seven of the outrages.

Kruger Not Satisfied Yet.

Johannesburg, Transvaal, Aug. 3.—The Standard Diggers' News publishes an interview with President Kruger, in which he said that he had declined to interfere in behalf of Dr. Jameson. The President pointed out that the British Government still had to decide who were the ringleaders in the Jameson raid.

A lazy, slow or torpid liver influences the whole system, causing biliousness, sick headache, sallow complexion, languor and dullness. Burdock Blood Bitters regulates the liver, purifies the secretions and cures all forms of liver troubles. We say so and here is the proof:—

I hereby wish to thank you for the great benefit derived by me from your Burdock Blood Bitters. For three years I was troubled with liver complaint and tried everything to no purpose. I had almost given up hope until one day I determined to try Burdock Blood Bitters. I can say now that marked improvement resulted from the use of the first bottle and at the end of the sixth bottle I discontinued its use, being completely cured.

CANCER CURED
—AND A—
LIFE SAVED
by the Persistent Use of
Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"I was troubled for years with a sore on my knee, which several physicians, who treated me, called a cancer, assuring me that nothing could be done to save my life. As a last resort, I was induced to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, after taking a number of bottles, the sore began to disappear and my general health improve. I persisted in this treatment, until the sore was entirely healed. Since then, I use Ayer's Sarsaparilla occasionally as a tonic and blood-purifier, and, indeed, it seems as though I could not keep house without it."—Mrs. S. A. Fields, Bloomfield, Ia.

In those municipalities, therefore, which have taken advantage of the act, the saloonkeepers are now being compelled to close up shop.

Their shut down has caused much depression in business in Naugatuck.

COALHEAVERS CHICAGOED.

Buckenberger's Aggregation Put Up a Great Game Over the Don.

Toronto, Aug. 4.

Scranton was whitewashed in a well-played game over the Don yesterday, Toronto scoring five runs. A strong wind blew across the field, which helped balls batted by O'Brien and Staley over the left field fence, and also gave the fielders merry chases after flys. Staley pitched a masterly game, allowing only 5 hits, and not more than one in any innings, besides locating the rubber perfectly. Only 30 Scrantons went to bat, and but one of these, O'Brien, reached second base, and that was in the first innings. There was not a strike-out and only one stolen base. Score:

ITS FAME SPREADING.

A New Remedy in General Use in Manitoba and the Northwest.

Winnipeg, July 27th—The effects of the regular wave of sickness which sweeps over this portion of the Dominion in the spring are noticeable in the increasing amount of the druggists' sales. There has been quite a run on the kidney remedy now so well known under the name of Dodd's Kidney Pills. The recovery from Bright's disease of Mr. Arthur Coley, of Somerset, through their use, an account of which appeared in the papers, gave a considerable impetus to the sale, and the remedy has become indispensable in many Manitoba households, its fame having penetrated into the remotest parts of the province and Northwest Territories.

THE HOUSEHOLD WORLD

CLEANING CURTAINS.

Lace Must be Handled Carefully to Secure Good Results.

It always pays to have a frame of light wooden strips to dry curtains on. It should be the exact size of the curtains, so that they may be stretched on it when wet and dried in this way. Tack a strip of strong cloth on all sides of the frame and pin the curtains evenly to this strip at the bottom, top and sides. Or, if you prefer, they may be basted to it, though this is more trouble. Almost any variety of curtain can be washed by the method given. Expensive Brussels curtains had better be cleaned by a regular French scourer who understands how to handle real lace.

Before touching the curtains make a strong soapsuds of hot water in which a tablespoonful of borax has been dissolved for every gallon of water, and half a bar of soap shaved and melted for every tubful of water. Put the curtains in this water. Souse them up and down and let them soak well covered over night. The next morning examine them, put them through a wringer and throw them into fresh soapsuds. Souse them repeatedly and scald them in a clothes boiler and rinse them as carefully as possible in two or three rinsing waters. If they are white, blue them a little, but bleach them, laying them on the frames on the grass. If they are creamy in color dry them in the house, and use a few tablespoonfuls of strong coffee to preserve the yellow tint.—N. Y. Tribune.

A Bedmaking School.

At the "Kitchen Gardens," conducted by charitable people in Chicago, in the poorer districts, the girls are taught all sorts of household arts, with a view to making them housekeepers of the neat and tidy sort. Among other things is the art of bed-making, and this is done by actual practical instruction. Besides this the children are taught many trivial but important little things by precept. On this occasion the little ones were questioned by the teacher about points which had been given them at a previous lesson. Little songs, telling of each feature of the work, are interspersed through all the lessons, and are a most important feature of the work. The song on bed-making, which precedes the questioning on the subject, will serve as an illustration of the character of all the songs:

When you make in the morning,
All the day dawning,
Throw off the bedding and let it all air;
Then shake up the pillows,
In waves and in billows,
And leave them near windows if the day is quite fair.

Beds made in a hurry,
A fret and a worry,
Are always unhealthful and musty 'tis sure;
But left for an airing,
Painstaking and caring,
And one must sleep sweetly to know it is pure.

The rules for bedmaking,
If ever forsaking,
They'll soon grow so matted,
So hard and so flatted,
You'll wish you had listened and kept them quite new.

The minutest details are taught and thoroughly explained. The pupils are told what the mattress and different kinds of bed clothing are made of, how often they should be changed, how they should be washed, cleaned and aired. Among other things they are told that bedding shouldn't be aired by hanging it out of the front window.

In all the other branches details are taught with equal care.

How to Clean Silk.

The cleaning of silk is a much more difficult thing than the cleaning of wool. There are some delicate colors that will not stand cleaning. The majority of silks may be cleaned by the process given, otherwise they may be considered beyond cleaning. Lay the piece of silk on a pad made of linen. The fold of a white linen sheet will do very well. Stretch the silk on the pad, and if it is greasy remove the grease spots with a piece of cotton dipped in refined gasoline or benzine, the name under which gasoline is often sold by druggists. Clean the silk in this way on both sides. Do not wet it, but moisten the cleaning pad of cotton often with the liquor. After the process take a fresh pad of linen and lay the silk over it and sponge it well with a mixture of half rain water and half alcohol. Rinse this off with clear rain water, drying it carefully with linen so as to absorb all them oisture you can. Turn the silk on the wrong side, lay a cloth over it and press it very carefully. If it is very delicate silk it can sometimes be dried on the board without applying heat.—N. Y. Tribune.

Steam Baths in the House.

A steam bath in the home is a luxury, but with little expense an arrangement can be made which will furnish this luxury to any home. The most primitive way of making a steam bath, and the method which has been resorted to among the Indian tribes, is to cover the individual in some way with skins, blankets, a tent, or a box. Then a pail of water is placed within the inclosure. A fire is then made near the place, and stones are heated. When the heated stones are dropped into the water it produces a large amount of steam. This can very readily be arranged by taking a chair and placing a pail of water underneath and pinning blankets in front and behind the patient, to completely cover him except the head. Small stones are heated and placed in the pail one by one until sufficient steam is generated to cause perspiration.—Home Queen.

Korns, Korns.

There are more than one sort of korns. Some korn is planted in the ground and the other sort don't need planting; they grow quite naturally on men's toes and don't need hoeing. This kind of korn has two sorts—one gentle or tender like until Bill Jones steps on your foot, when it gets boiling and swears like everything; the other is hard headed and makes a row all the time, especially when your boots are on. I don't like korns and I use the extracting medicine, Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor, which removes them painlessly in twenty-four hours.

Bardock Pills do not gripe or sicken. They cure constipation and sick headache.

Length of a Leap Year.

A leap year is a year of 366 days. Every fourth year is a leap year, except such years as complete centuries, and whose numbers, after supressing the two ciphers, are not divisible by four. Thus the years 1500, 1700 and 1800 were not leap years, and 1900 will not be. The year 2000, being divisible by four, will be a leap year.

The Dog Watch.

"The dog watch," a term used by sailors, was once the dodge watch, a short watch being introduced between these longer in duration in order that too great an amount of work should not be put upon the same men in the course of the day.

A Lucky City.

If you have impure blood you may take Hood's Sarsaparilla with the utmost confidence that it will do you good.

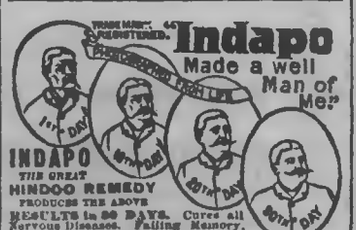
Letters Come.

Letters come day by day telling us that this person has been cured of dyspepsia, that person of Bad Blood, and another of Headache, still another of Biliousness, and yet others of various complaints of the Stomach, Liver, Bowels or Blood, all through the intelligent use of Burdock Blood Bitters.

It is the voice of the people recognizing the fact that Burdock Blood Bitters cures all diseases of the Stomach, Liver, Bowels and Blood.

Mr. T. G. Ludlow, 334 Colborne Street, Brantford, Ont., says: During seven years prior to 1886, my wife was sick all the time with violent headaches. Her head was so hot that it felt like burning up. She was weak, run down, and so feeble that she could hardly do anything, and so nervous that the least noise startled her. Night or day she could not rest and life was a misery to her. I tried all kinds of medicines and treatment for her but she steadily grew worse until I bought six bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters from C. Stork & Son, of Brampton, Ont., for which I paid $5.00, and it was the best investment I ever made in my life. Mrs. Ludlow took four out of the six bottles—there was no need of the other two, for those four bottles made her a strong, healthy woman, and removed every ailment from which she had suffered, and she enjoyed the most vigorous health. That five dollars saved me lots of money in medicine and attendance thereafter, and better than that it made home a comfort to me.



RESULTS in 30 DAYS. Cures all Nervous Diseases. Failing Memory, Pareais, Sleeplessness, Nightly Emissions, etc., caused by past abuses, gives vigor and size to shrunken organs, and quickly but surely restores Lost Manhood in old or young. Easily carried in vest pocket. Price $1.00 a package. Six for $5.00 with a written guarantee to cure or money refunded. Don't buy an imitation, but insist on having INDAPO. If your druggist has not got it, we will send it prepaid. Oriental Medical Co., Props., Chicago, Ill., or our agents. GORE'S LANDING—RICE LAKE.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

There were two very bright services in St. George's church here Sunday. In the morning the attendance was about 75. The sermon was preached by Mr. Derwyn Owen, of York Mills, who is spending his holidays in the village. In the evening, through the kindness of the choir of St. John's church, Peterborough, a very hearty service was rendered. The church was crowded to its utmost capacity, the attendance being about 160. The incumbent, Rev. W. Major, officiated. As the choir boys are camping at Hatrick's Point, on the opposite side of the lake, Captain Harris kindly placed the steamer Beaver at their disposal. The congregation of St. George's enjoyed the service very much, and hope that it is not the last time they will have the pleasure of hearing the boys.

When the Press is Truthful.

Newspapers are sometimes deceived about the character of some amusement institution that intends visiting its place, and are led to commend it to their readers when the show is not worthy. But they never say anything erroneous of an entertainment when it has been witnessed; then the newspaper testimony may be depended on. With this in mind, one who reads papers from other places soon becomes convinced that the Great Wallace show is really the "greatest on earth." Our exchanges where it has exhibited are unanimous in declaring it first-class in every detail. Columns are devoted to it, and the universal verdict is "honourably advertised and honourably conducted." It is said to come up entirely to its advertisements, which are considered as pledges and are faithfully fulfilled. At Peterborough on Monday, August 10th.

THE DEADLY TARANTULA.

A London Boy Bitten Two Weeks Ago Succumbs to the Poison the Insect Injected Into His Hand.

London, Ont., Aug. 4.—Freddy Ferrar lies dead at his home on the Hamilton-road, east of Egerton-street, a victim of the deadly tarantula. Two weeks ago Freddy handled some bananas at a fruit stall in the city. A hideous insect dropped on his hand. He noticed it a moment later and brushed it off, thinking it a common spider. When he reached home his hand was badly swollen and he remembered the spider. A poultice was immediately applied. It seemed to have the required effect. A few days later a similar swelling broke out on his leg and he grew feverish. He continued to be up and about, however, and to be able to perform light duties until Saturday. Then he had to take to his bed. He became unconscious that night and remained in that state until he breathed his last yesterday at 1.30 p.m. Freddy was 11 years and 8 months old. He lived with his uncle, Mr. Henry Stratfold, of this city.

DESTRUCTION NEAR THE SOO.

Many Farmers Have Lost Their Homes Owing to Forest Fires—Passengers in a Train Faint From Heat.

Fault Ste. Marie, Mich., Aug. 4.—Much damage is being done by forest fires in this vicinity. Yesterday Gladys, a station eight miles from here on the Soo Shore road, was wiped out and its residents had to flee for their lives. Brimly was threatened with destruction, and may have been wiped out by this time. Scores of farmers have lost their homes and barely escaped with their lives. The regular South Shore passenger train was compelled to return, owing to the intense heat and smoke. Several of the passengers fainted before the train got out of the fire belt. No rain has fallen for weeks, and everything on the ground is as dry as tinder. Unless it rains soon there will be a vast amount of timber destroyed.

A Shameful Practice.

Many tooth preparations contain substances that speedily destroy the enamel and beauty of the teeth. For this reason the greatest care should be exercised in the selection of a dentrifice. Ivorine for the teeth is offered with the assurance that it is absolutely free from any objectionable ingredients. An admirable cleanser is Ivorine, imparting dazzling whiteness to the teeth, firmness to the gums, and renders the breath sweet and fragrant.

Coughs, colds, asthma, bronchitis, sore throat and lung troubles are cured by Norway Pine Syrup. Price 25 and 50 cents. It breathes out the healing virtues of the pine forests.

W. C. McCOMBER & SON, Bouchette, Que., report in a letter that Pyny-Pectoral cured Mrs. C. Garceau of chronic cold in chest and bronchial tubes, and also cured W. G. McCombee of a long-standing cold.

MR. J. H. HUETT, Chemist, 328 Yonge St., Toronto, writes: "As a general cough and lung syrup Pyny-Pectoral is a most invaluable preparation. It has given the utmost satisfaction to all who have tried it, many having spoken to me of the benefits derived from its use in their families. It is suitable for old or young, being pleasant to the taste. Its sale with me has been wonderful, and I can always recommend it as a safe and reliable cough medicine."

GOOD ENDORSERS.

Every business man understands that no matter how valuable the signature on a note may be, his confidence is greatly increased if the note is well endorsed.

This is equally true of articles other than notes. It is particularly true of pianos. The musical public always likes to know if a piano is well endorsed.

The Mason & Risch Piano is undoubtedly endorsed by more eminent names than any other instrument made in Canada. Here are a few of them:—

Madame Albani	Franz Lizst
Sir A. C. McKenzie (Principal Royal College of Music)	F. H. Torrington
	S. P. Warren
Dr. Bridge (Organist Westminster Abbey)	Edouard Remenyi
	W. Waugh Lauder
Otto Bendix	Signor D'Auria
Frederick Archer	Watkins Mills
Mrs. Longmore	Edouard Scharff

These are but few of the many eminent admirers of our pianos. We could go on and fill a column but we think this enough to establish our claim to be well endorsed.

An examination of our instruments is cordially solicited no matter how remote your idea of purchase may be.

Our prices are reasonable, quality considered, and our terms elastic enough to suit anyone.

THE OVATION TO MR. LAURIER.

The Whole City Turned Out to Greet Him.

NEARLY A THOUSAND TORCHES

Carried by Enthusiastic Admirers of the Premier - Madame Laurier Almost Smothered in Bouquets — Sir Oliver Mowat Shares the Honors—Address of Welcome and the Premier's Reply.

Ottawa, Aug. 5.—(Special.)—The Liberals of Ottawa and Ottawa Valley gave a right royal welcome to the Premier and Mme. Laurier on their arrival here to-night to formally take up their residence at the Capital. The local committee had made elaborate preparations for celebrating the Liberal victory of June 23, and with the exception of a few hitches everything passed off successfully. The outlook during the day was not promising, as rain fell at intervals, making walking on the roadway most disagreeable. Fortunately, however, during the entire evening the rain held off.

The Premier and his good lady were timed to arrive here at 8.50 p.m., and long before that hour thousands had congregated at the Canadian Pacific depot.

When the train arrived there was great cheering, which was again and again renewed when Mr. and Mme. Laurier emerged and took their places in Mr. Edwards' four-in-hand. A procession was quickly formed and started in its march through the principal streets of Upper and Lower Town. It took fully an hour to pass the Parliament buildings and was nearly two hours in traversing the route mapped out, winding up at Cartier-square. There were fully 800 torch-bearers in the procession.

A number of illuminated floats and fully 200 transparencies of different kinds were seen. Among them were the following inscriptions: "Render Justice to all"; "The Sutherland Comedy Co. will appear nightly at the big pavilion, commencing Aug. 19"; "Religion, love and country"; "Protection to the working classes"; "Honor the Great Chief", etc.

At different points along the route Mr. Laurier and Sir Oliver Mowat were repeatedly cheered.

In Centre Town, by some mismanagement, the procession was broken in two sections, with a great gap between them, but thousands who lined the streets waited patiently till the second section, in which the Premier and his escort were, appeared.

At the head of Rideau-street, a strange incident occurred. Eugene Cardinal, a leading Ottawa horseman, who was driving the four-in-hand drag on which the Premier and his friends were riding, was overcome presumably by the excitement of the occasion, and fell from the box seat in a faint. He was quickly removed and the ribbons taken by Mr. Edwards, M.P.

On arriving at Cartier-square, Mr. Laurier was conducted to a raised platform especially erected for the occasion, and which had been tastefully decorated. The Premier and his wife were greeted with uproarious cheering and Mme. Laurier was nearly overwhelmed with bouquets.

A couple of minutes later Sir Oliver Mowat appeared on the platform, with smiles on his face and carrying a very handsome bouquet. He also came in for great applause.

Others on the platform were: Messrs. Scott, Davies, Tarte, Fisher, Paterson, Sir Henry Joly, Fitzpatrick and Dobell, members of the Government, Senator McInnes (B.C.), and the following members of Parliament: Messrs. Hutchinson, Belcourt, Edwards, Devlin, Bourassa, Harwood, Proulx, Guay, Stenson, Bruneau and Featherston.

An address of welcome in English and French was presented to the Liberal leader, who then addressed the gathering of 5000 or 6000 people present. On coming forward to reply, the Premier received a magnificent ovation. He struck a popular chord by addressing the crowd as "fellow citizens." After thanking them for the address, he said if the pains for the victory of June 23rd should be given to any section of Canada, it should go to his own native Province of Quebec, and to his own race, the French-Canadians of Quebec. He was sorry to see at this moment that that which should be the pride of all sections of the Canadian people was being used by leaders of the once great Conservative party with a view to throwing seeds of discord in our population. It was true that Quebec had sent an overwhelming majority to support the Liberal party, but it was no less true that Sir Charles Tupper and his friends did their best to capture that majority (Cheers.) It was, in his opinion, a happy day for Canada when appeals of Tupper and Angers and their friends were disregarded by the French-Canadians and Roman Catholics of Quebec. (Cheers.)

An attempt had been made to rouse the passions and prejudices latent in the hearts of his co-religionists, but he was proud to know it had been disregarded. He stood there as Premier of Canada and selected as Liberal leader by the Protestant majority in the House of Commons. (Cheers.) The platform for which he stood was one of freedom and justice and toleration for all. (Cheers.)

After referring to the proposed cleaning out of the stable, a work already commenced by Mr. Tarte, he proceeded to say that the Government would endeavor to do its duty by all sections of the people.

The Government would endeavor to relieve agriculture from its burden, to promote trade and commerce, to develop our native industries. It would also be their endeavor to encourage literature, letters, arts and sciences and to make Ottawa a seat of learning of arts and letters in the Dominion. (Cheers.) He had spoken elsewhere of his desire to see Ottawa become the Washington of the north. (Cheers.) He had not forgotten these words. He intended to live up to them as much as he could. There was no nation but that was proud of its capital city. The Frenchman in the Pyrenees or by the sea coast of France was proud of Paris, while all Americans were proud of Washington. It would, therefore, be the endeavor of his Government to make Ottawa as far as was possible a capital of which Canadians should be proud. (Cheers.) It would be their aim to make Canada such a country that whenever a man left its shores it should be the pride of his heart to proclaim that he was a Canadian. (Cheers.)

The Premier, having spoken in French, the proceedings closed with cheers for the Queen, Mr. and Mme. Laurier and Sir Oliver Mowat.

OTTAWA GENERAL NEWS.

Distant Members Now Arriving at the Capital—The First Question Hon. Mr. Davies Will Have on Hand.

Ottawa, Aug. 5.—(Special.)—Hon. Mr. Davies, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, returned from Prince Edward Island to-day looking all the better for his trip to the Island Province. Naturally he is well-pleased at his re-election by acclamation. The demonstration which was tendered him last week afforded him the best opportunity he has ever had of meeting his constituents. On this particular occasion 1200 farmers and their wives sat down to the enjoyable repast prepared by the local committee. The gathering, Mr. Davies says, was most pleasant and will long be remembered by him as one of the brightest in his political career.

One of the first questions which the Minister of Marine and Fisheries will take up in connection with his department in the Behring Sea problem. The open season for sealing in the Behring Sea commenced on Aug. 1, and as the sealers will not be home until about the end of September the two commissioners, Mr. Justice King of our own Supreme Court and his American colleague, who was appointed to adjudicate upon the claims of Canadian sealers, will hardly get down to work before the first week in October. Meanwhile in official circles great satisfaction is felt at the recent decision given by Chief Justice Davie in the Beatrice case, in which the seizure was declared to be illegal and an allowance made for the prospective catch which the vessel would have made had her season's work not been interfered with. Judging from this decision, there is every likelihood of this case being a precedent in the matter of old-standing claims which are shortly to come up for adjudication.

H. W. Watts, a leading fish merchant of London, Eng., is at present visiting Canada investigating the possibilities of building up an export trade in frozen fish from the Atlantic provinces, chiefly in salmon and lobsters. Already a lucrative business is being done in the frozen fish trade from British Columbia, via Australia.

The first session of the eighth Parliament of Canada commences two weeks from to-day. Next week the members will be coming in from different parts of the country. Already a few are here from a distance, including Senator McInnes and Bostock, M. P.'s of British Columbia, and Senator McInnes from the same province. Senator Miller of Nova Scotia is rusticating at the Thousand Islands. The sergeant-at-arms of the House of Commons is here from Kingston, attending to some of the business that devolves upon him before Parliament opens. The chamber is in readiness and by the time that the session opens the entire extra staff that is required will be on hand. The statement that the new Premier has made leaves not the slightest doubt as to the programme that he proposes to follow. The Government will present very little business to Parliament and will urge that this be put through with the greatest possible dispatch. They will lay down the policy that they propose following and the legislation that they will bring in at the next session.

The expectation is that the debate on the Address will not last long, and then Parliament will settle down to supply. Mr. Laurier thinks the session will not exceed 45 days.

A press cable states that half a million rounds of ammunition purchased by the Dominion Government in England some months ago, is to be returned, owing to the defective character of the cartridges. The Deputy Minister of Militia, Col. Panet, says it is quite true that the cartridges are defective, and it was intended to lay the matter before the Imperial Government, from which the ammunition was purchased. None of the ammunition had been returned, and he did not know whether it would or not. Some of the packages were labelled 1894, and they were afterwards changed to 1896. The ammunition was bought as being of 1896 manufacture.

The Executive of the D.R.A. met to-night and decided the ammunition to be used at the forthcoming matches shall be the Royal Laboratory issue of 1895. This decision was come to upon report of Major Perley who made a thorough examination of the several qualities available for the shoot. Bycoln hogging G.T.R.), was elected executive officer, and Dr. James Grant surgeon, Major Walsh will again be statistical officer.

Nominations in North Grey and Queen's and Sunbury have been fixed for Aug. 18. Polling will take place week later.

Sir Roderick Cameron of New York and three daughters were in the city this morning on their way to Vancouver. Sir Roderick visited several places in the city to-day in company with Sir James Grant and Col. Tilton. The party expect to stop off a week at Sir Roderick's ranch near Strathmore, in Alberta. Stops will also be made at Banff and other principal points on the route. They expect to be in the west for some time.

MANITOBA CROPS REDUCED.

Saturday and Sunday Hailstorms Cut Down the Grain Crops This Year by Two Million Bushels.

Winnipeg, Aug. 5.—(Special.)—It is now stated in well posted quarters that the grain crop of Manitoba has been reduced by nearly two million bushels by Saturday and Sunday's hail and windstorm.

GREAT STRIKE OF ORE.

Eight Feet Solid Found at a Depth of Ninety Feet.

Rossland, B.C., via Spokane, Wash., Aug. 5.—(Special.)—A great strike has just been made in the Virginia mine. Eight feet of solid ore has been struck at a depth of 90 feet, at the end of the 200 feet tunnel. Virginia lies at the foot of Monte Cristo Hill, and belongs to the War Eagle group. This strike gives additional faith to everything in Monte Cristo. It now seems to be almost certain that the option held on War Eagle at the price of one million dollars will be taken up. If so, the property will go to London.

Messrs. T. G. Blackstock and Edmund Wragge of Toronto have returned from the boundary, and George Stimson, also of Toronto, has returned from the Slocan country.

Rossland is full of strangers.

A large collection of ores is being made for the Canadian Industrial Exposition at Toronto. The exhibit is now to be seen in the office of The Rossland Miner, and will be shipped in a few days.

ACCIDENTALLY KILLED.

No Blame Attached to the Railway Authorities for Hewitt's Death.

Hamilton, Aug. 5.—(Special.)—Accidentally killed; no blame attached to the railway authorities. This was in effect the verdict arrived at by the coroner's jury to-night, empanelled to enquire into the circumstances in connection with the death of Morrison Hewitt, a Grand Trunk Railway yardsman, who was crushed underneath a derailed car at the west end of the Stuart-street yard last Friday night.

Thomas Walsh, 80 John-street north, sustained a severe fracture to one of his thighs by falling from the roof of Judge Snider's residence at the corner of Queen and Jackson-streets this afternoon. He was taken to the hospital in the ambulance in a rather critical condition.

NATURE'S HANDIWORK.

Several Buildings in Western Ontario Fired by Lightning and Burned During the Electrical Storm.

Stratford, Ont., Aug. 5.—A very severe electrical storm hovered in this neighborhood between 11 p.m. Tuesday and 3 o'clock this morning, accompanied by heavy rain. Hogarth's flax mill in the city was struck by lightning and set fire to, but being discovered immediately was extinguished before much damage was done. Half a dozen or more barns with contents were destroyed, chiefly to the southwest of here, and several horses are reported killed. Reports from outside points indicate that the storm was confined to this vicinity.

Another Victim.

Cayuga, Ont., Aug. 5.—About 2 o'clock this morning the barn and outbuildings of Mr. Nelson Smith, in the township of North Cayuga, were struck by lightning and burned to the ground. The buildings, which contained most of the season's crop and some farm implements, were insured in the Grand River Mutual Fire Insurance Company for $600.

BOTH ESCAPED DEATH.

A Two-Year-Old Child Crawls Through a Car Window While Running at Full Speed—A Boy's Mishap.

Jackson, Mich., Aug. 5.—Children seem to have a penchant for walking off trains lately. Less than a week ago a 2-year-old baby crawled out of the window of a Michigan Central express running at a speed of 40 miles an hour near Kalamazoo, while its mother was asleep. It fell on a heap of sand and was found uninjured except for a few bruises.

Yesterday afternoon a boy 10 years old, traveling with his parents, walked out of the coach door in his sleep near Rives Junction. The train was going at full speed. Beyond a few bruises he was not hurt. His parents did not notice his absence until the train arrived here. The father is yardmaster at the West Detroit M. C. yards.

LOVE LED TO DEATH.

An Italian Blacksmith in New York Shot His Wife and Himself.

New York, Aug. 5.—Frank Lomeo, an Italian blacksmith, full of whisky and jealousy, shot his wife three times yesterday and then put a bullet through his own head, dying instantly. The woman may recover. Their 9-year old child witnessed the tragedy. The woman and child came from Italy to join Lomeo six months ago, and the man's jealousy caused their life to be very unhappy. He had threatened many times to shoot the woman. Lomeo was a good workman and was employed at the Brooklyn Navy Yard.

Cripple Charged With Housebreaking.

John Comisky, who is charged with breaking into the residence of Mrs. Lowe, a year ago and stealing some confectionery, was remanded till called upon, as he is a cripple requiring medical treatment, which he will receive at St. Michael's Hospital.

Shot Himself Without Reason.

New York, Aug. 5.—Michael Vix, aged 57, shot himself in Central Park yesterday because of rumors that the passementerie manufacturing firm of Seckel & Co., for whom Vix had worked 35 years, were going out of business. Vix was despondent at the prospect of being out of work, though it is said there was no ground for the rumor. The suicide had a comfortable home and lived happily with his family.

DR. BARNARDO'S WORK.

Mr. Stead, in his Review of Reviews, discusses the Barnardo plan of taking care of and educating the children of the state, namely, the children whose loss of parents forces them upon others. He says that for years hideous rumours were afloat in England, touching the Barnardo homes, rumours so startling in their character that Parliament was obliged to take notice of them and to have them enquired into by a committee of the Commons. The result was given to the public in a report last year, and to the effect that the stories were "utterly, horribly, shamefully, wrong," and that Dr. Barnardo was right in his theory of the way in which the children of the state should be treated. "So now," says Mr. Stead, "the district school is doomed, and in future the state, sitting at the feet of Dr. Barnardo, is to try to see whether by segregation instead of aggregation, by homes instead of barracks, by personal interest instead of official routine and official discipline, it may perhaps achieve, with all its resources eighty per cent. of the good results of the Barnardo homes." Such valuable testimony to the efficacy of a great movement for the rescue of children from nameless vice and raising and converting them into useful and happy citizens, is but simple justice, to a man who has through many discouragements and through evil and good repute, fought the battle for the helpless and suffering. We have in Peterborough evidences of the beneficence of the work of Dr. Barnardo. With such a multitude of children drawn from such unpromising sources it would be surprising if the influence of their early environments did not on occasion crop out unpleasantly. Yet the surprise is that so very large a percentage of the children rescued through Dr. Barnardo's instrumentalities, do credit to his noble philanthrophy.

BUSINESS ON BUSINESS PRINCIPLES.

SEVERAL Conservative papers, notably the Montreal Gazette and the Ottawa Citizen, have spoken out courageously and frankly in approval of Mr. Tarte's announcement that he proposes to run the Department of Public Works upon a business basis. If the Minister does as he has promised, said the Citizen yesterday, "he will earn the approbation of every right-minded man in the community, irrespective of party. Should he follow consistently and honestly the economical and strictly business methods which he promises to observe, he will strengthen both himself and the Government greatly. That is a hard course to pursue." Mr. Tarte has undertaken a great work and one surrounded with many difficulties. It will require great courage and tact to successfully carry out the programme he has so patriotically set himself. He should have universal sympathy and support in his task; the popular favour will set in strongly towards any attempt, such as the country has been a stranger to for the past dozen years at least, to conduct public business on business principles. A public administrator who applies the ethics and methods that characterize an honestly conducted private business should be assured of a "permanent job." We need its application as well in municipal as in Federal politics. Public business done on business principles means more effective service and lesser taxation.

Now is the winter of our discontent,
Made glorious summer by this sun of Tarte.

ACCORDING to the last census taken in New Zealand the education of 20.73 per cent. of the children is accounted for. Education is free and compulsory in that country.

TORONTO clergymen are writing disputatious letters on theology these dog days. If the subject were the future punishment of the wicked, with the thermometer at 95, they could throw a good deal of feeling into their writings.

FIELD Marshall Lord Wolseley is pitching into Britain's Indian Army. Lord Wolseley is the man who thought the Chinese were such terrible soldiers that they might overwhelm civilisation. Lord Wolsley appears to be better as a generaliser than as a general.

Now that there is so much talk about the Monroe doctrine, it is satisfactory to note that two of the larger South American Republics are willing to trust the solution of their little difficulties to the arbitration of Great Britain. The boundaries between the Argentine Republic and Chili have long been in dispute; treaties for their demarcation having been made in 1881, 1891 and 1893, but as it was feared difficulties might arise regarding the interpretation of their stipulations, a protocol was agreed to in April last in which Queen Victoria was requested to adjudicate as to their bearings, a task which it has been recently announced Her Majesty has undertaken "with much pleasure."

HON. WM. PATTERSON, Minister of Customs, will contest North Grey for a seat in the House of Commons. Mr. Patterson is consistent with his record, he is not afraid of a fight. He seeks a seat where there is no sure thing. Mr. Clarke, the late member, was elected at the last general election by a majority of only 60. There are, however, excellent chances that Mr. Paterson will represent North Grey. The Laurier-Mowat Government is gaining strength every day and commending itself powerfully to popular favour. North Grey was represented by Mr. Masson, pitchforked into a judgeship, for the last two parliaments, but Mr. Clarke redeemed the seat and Mr. Paterson will doubtless succeed him.

THE Montreal Star thus explains why a minister of the Crown, though a member of Parliament when appointed, has to seek re-election:—"As the law now stands, the independence of Parliament is pretty thoroughly guarded, and, generally speaking, the only men in the service and pay of the Crown who can hold seats in the House are the members of the Cabinet. They are the advisers of the Crown and the administrators of the public service; and they sit in Parliament to explain and defend before the people's representatives their ministerial acts. However, when they accept their portfolios they forfeit their seats. They were elected to represent the people of certain constituencies; they have now become servants of the Crown, and so they must return to their constituents and ask their approval. It is for these reasons that the members of a new Ministry have to seek re-election."

A Resident of St. John, N.B., Makes a Successful Trial of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

St. John, N.B., Aug. 3—Mr. Robt. Moore, residing in Indiantown, a suburb of this city, has recently made what is allowed by all who are acquainted with the facts to be a most remarkable recovery. He has been a sufferer from a serious complaint of the kidneys for over seven years, and during that time has suffered excruciatingly. He has also suffered considerably in pocket, having paid large sums for medical advice. Quite recently he happened to read of the many cures effected by Dodd's Kidney Pills, and with commendable promptitude made a trial of them, with the result that after taking three boxes of the remedy he was entirely restored to health.

Among the Flowers.

All flowers are earlier in bloom this season than usual. Roses were in all their glory early in the month, and should be pruned after they are done blooming. If cut back and the growth of new wood stimulated with a good fertilizer dug into the soil about the roots, many varieties will bloom at intervals throughout the summer. Spraying daily with water is helpful in keeping down insects. Kerosene emulsion will destroy rose bugs. One part of oil to nine parts of water. Apply at evening.

Geranium leaves are sometimes diseased when no insects can be discovered. Applications of fir-tree oil soap are beneficial. Defective drainage is a prolific cause of the tips of the leaves of potted plants turning brown. Peg down verbenas at the points with heavy hairpins. If the soil in close proximity is enriched, roots and new shoots will more quickly form. Do not make the mistake of forcing the fuchsia speciosa. It is one of the few fuchsias that will bloom freely in the winter. If buds appear pick them off. Do not encourage rapid growth. Keep the pot out of doors in a sheltered situation; take it in in the fall and with good care it will blossom in the winter.

Lawn clippings are a good mulch for roses and flower beds. The prevent the rapid evaporation of moisture, and are not unsightly.—Zoe, in Ohio Farmer.

Mrs. Henry E. Abbey Seeks Separation From Her Husband for Alleged Cruelty, Abandonment and Intoxication.

New York, Aug. 5.—Mrs. Florence G. Abbey, wife of the theatrical manager, Henry E. Abbey, is seeking a separation from her husband on the grounds of cruelty, abandonment and intoxication.

A notice was filed in the Supreme Court Chambers to-day to the effect that an application for $100 a week alimony and $500 counsel fee would be made on Aug. 10, to be paid by Mr. Abbey, pending the determination of the action. Mrs. Abbey is well known in theatrical circles. She was formerly a Miss Gerard, and her marriage with the theatrical manager took place in Boston in November, 1892. Mr. Abbey was then a widower.

The affidavit sworn to by Mrs Abbey states that her husband abandoned her on April 25, 1896, leaving her then in destitute circumstances. Since then she says he has contributed nothing to her support. When he went away from her it was on the pretense of taking his daughter by his former wife to Long Branch for a few days, but he never returned.

Korns. Korns.

There are more than one sort of korns. Some korn is planted in the ground and the other sort don't need planting; they grow quite naturally on men's toes and don't need hoeing. This kind of korn has two sorts—one gentle or tender like until Bill Jones steps on your foot, when it gets boiling and swears like everything; the other is hard headed and makes a row all the time, especially when your boots are on. I don't like korns and use the extracting medicine, Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor, which removes them painlessly in twenty-four hours.

THE TARIFF POLICY

Will be Framed in the Interest of the Masses.

SO SAYS THE FINANCE MINISTER.

Hon. W. S. Fielding Says the Government Will Promote Trade With All the World, But Particularly With Great Britain and the United States.

Shelburne, N.S., Aug. 5.—After Hon. W. S. Fielding, Finance Minister in Premier Laurier's Cabinet, had been declared elected by acclamation this afternoon, he addressed a large gathering of electors on the leading public questions. He said it had never been his practice in dealing with the electors to endeavor to please them by lavish promises. "Slow to promise, and sure to perform," was, he thought, a good motto for men in public life.

One question in particular had long occupied a foremost place in their minds, and that was the question of railway extension. While most of the counties of the province enjoyed the benefit of railway extension in some degree—some of these, perhaps only in a very small degree—it was a striking fact that the Counties of Shelburne and Queen's were totally without railway communication. He was glad to be able to assure them that one railway enterprise, of great importance to one of the counties, was likely to be vigorously carried on. He was glad to be able to say that one result of the recent election had been to clear the railway atmosphere, so far as that particular enterprise was concerned. The Coast Railway Company, being now satisfied that they would have all their consideration, not only from the local Government, but from the Dominion Government as well, had announced their intention of vigorously prosecuting their work.

Turning to questions of a general character, Mr. Fielding said he was glad to find that there was a widespread opinion throughout the country, even among many who had supported the late Government, that Mr. Laurier and his colleagues should not be embarrassed by factious opposition at present, but should be allowed a fair opportunity to carry out their policy. In the Liberal Prime Minister they had a man who, under circumstances of much difficulty, had proved his tact, his ability and his patriotism. Mr. Laurier had surrounded himself in the Cabinet with a number of able and experienced men, who could be relied on to do their utmost to give Canada a period of good government. He (Mr. Fielding) had observed with much regret, a disposition on the part of some Conservative papers, chiefly in the Upper Provinces, to raise an alarmist cry about what they were pleased to call "French domination." He wished to state that he believed there was not a shadow of cause for alarm.

The promotion of a French-Canadian to the office of Prime Minister, instead of being a cause for alarm, was from one point of view a cause for rejoicing. That our French-Canadian brethern had produced and placed in the front rank a man possessing the qualities of Mr. Laurier, and that that gentleman had been able to win unbounded confidence and esteem of the English-speaking Liberals throughout the Dominion, ought to be a source of much satisfaction to every well-wisher of our country. Mr. Laurier's elevation to the Premiership, especially under the circumstances which led to it, was a great object lesson, full of promise for the unity and harmony of the Canadian people. As to the attitude of Mr. Laurier's French supporters he (Mr. Fielding) was glad to say that he had found them moderate and reasonable. If the English-speaking provinces had done as much to win the Liberal victory as the Province of Quebec had done, it was quite possible that they would have been more exacting in their demands than our French friends had been.

Two questions above others have been discussed during the recent election campaign, the Manitoba school question, and the question of tariff reform. With respect to the Manitoba school question, he thought the judgment of the electors had relieved the Dominion from a great danger. It could not be denied that the manner in which that question had been dealt with during the last few years had produced religious differences to a degree that was deplorable. If the late Government had succeeded in the election, these differences would have continued with increasing bitterness. The success of Mr. Laurier, the advocate of investigation and conciliation, had opened up new channels for the settlement of the question, and he (Mr. Fielding) had strong reasons for believing that through these channels a satisfactory solution of this great question would be found. At all events, the attempt was worth making, and Mr. Laurier and his colleagues would make it earnestly and faithfully. Of the trade question, there was little or nothing new to be said.

The Liberal platform laid down by the Ottawa convention indicated the lines on which the commercial policy of the country was to be constructed. The new Government desired to promote as far as possible trade with the world at large, and particularly with Great Britain and the United States. We should be less anxious than we have been to shut out of our markets the wares of England, while England opens freely her ports to our products. A reciprocity treaty with the United States was desirable, if it could be obtained on fair terms. He had long believed, and he believed now, that there should be better trade relations between the two countries. A few extremists on both sides of the line said and wrote disagreeable things, which were not in friendly spirit. They would find the Government of Canada willing to meet them to make arrangements on the only possible basis, that of mutual advantage. Referring to tariff matters, Mr. Fielding repeated the assurance of Mr. Laurier that no changes would be made at the summer session of Parliament, soon to begin. The Government hoped, however, to have their tariff policy in good shape for presentation to Parliament early in the new year. He believed that such a tariff reform as was foreshadowed in the Ottawa platform would be acceptable, not only to thorough-going free traders, but also to a large portion of the people, who perhaps will not wish to be called free-traders, but who felt that the policy of high protection was doing harm to the country.

One of the evils of the protective system was that it encouraged manufacturers to rely too much on tariff assistance and thus place their business on a very unsound basis. Any revenue tariff that could be framed to meet the present circumstances of the country would probably afford incidentally a considerable measure of protection to manufacturing industries. So far as the incidental advantage might go, the country would be satisfied to have manufacturers enjoy the benefit of it. But manufacturers should be advised to rely less on tariff and more on their intelligence and enterprise, and on the skill and industry of their workmen. It would be the duty of the present Government, while guarding to a reasonable extent the interests of manufacturers, to frame the tariff in the interests of the masses. That did not mean that manufacturing interests were to be sacrificed. Such a tariff policy was not only in the interest of the consumers, but in the interest of legitimate manufacturing industries as well. The best thing the Government could do for the permanent success of manufacturing interests was to endeavor to frame a policy which would give a better chance of prosperity to the masses of the people engaged in developing the natural resources of the Dominion. If this foundation of prosperity could be laid there would arise upon it strong, healthy and prosperous manufacturing industries. These were the general ideas to be kept in mind in revising the tariff. But care must be taken that, while aiming at the carrying out of these views no rash or ill-considered measures should be adopted. We have to deal with present conditions of business and great care must be taken to see that the desired changes shall be brought about with the least possible disturbance. The interests involved were not those of manufacturers only, large and important though these were. The affairs of manufacturers and laborers and merchants and bankers were interwoven into a business fabric, which required very careful handling in order that there might be maintained that business confidence which was so important an element in the prosperity of the country. He had observed with much satisfaction that the efforts made in certain quarters to create an alarm among business men, consequent upon the change of Government had not been successful. Bankers, manufacturers and merchants, including many who had not supported the Liberal cause, had done much to prevent the success of these alarmist cries. Occupying as he did an office which required him to give special attention to the questions, he wished to publicly acknowledge the good services that these leaders of the business world had done in re-assuring the public mind. He would promise them that the whole subject of tariff reform would be taken up by the Government with the utmost care, that every representation that might be made to them with respect to any industry in the country would be received with dispassionate consideration, and that no effort would be spared to give the country a measure of tariff reform which, while keeping in view what the Liberals believed to be sound principles, would avoid everything that could justly be called rash or disturbing legislation.

Mr. Fielding, in concluding his address, said the important duty that had been assigned to him would make such demands on his time for the next few months that he could not expect to visit his constituents as much as he would like to, but subsequently he hoped to be able to meet them in the various districts of the two counties. In expressing his thanks to Mr. Forbes for having by his retirement, opened the way for his (Mr. Fielding's) election, the Finance Minister said that by taking this step Mr. Forbes had made a sacrifice which was fully appreciated and that he hoped at some time an opportunity would occur for a due recognition of Mr. Forbes' services and claims.

Mr. Fielding also expressed appreciation of the Conservatives in permitting him to be elected by acclamation. He thought he might fairly say that the two counties had given him their generous support in provincial affairs, because their people and representatives believed that he was desirous of advancing their interests. They had clearly shown that they entertained this opinion of him in respect of provincial affairs, and now they had given him a more direct mark of their confidence by electing him to be their representative in the House of Commons.

THEY DUG HIM UP.

A Hypnotised Man Comes to His Senses While Buried in a Grave—He Was Again Buried.

Indianapolis, Aug. 5.—Prof. Boone, a well-known hypnotist, put J. J. Wyatt under the mysterious influence and announced that he would bury his subject and revive him next Friday after an interment of three days. Wyatt had previously consented to the arrangements, and the burial took place at Fairview Park last night at 10.30, a tube being passed down to where he lay. He was buried four feet under the ground and a guard placed at the grave. Shortly before noon today Wyatt came out from under the influence, and, realizing his situation, began screaming like a wild man. He was hurriedly dug up, and it was some time before he could be cooled down. He protested against a second interment, but Prof. Boone soon got him under control, and Wyatt was again put down in the earth. The experiment is attracting much attention.

WINNIPEG, July 27th—The effects of the regular wave of sickness which sweeps over this portion of the Dominion in the spring are noticeable in the increasing amount of the druggists' sales. The recovery from Bright's disease of Mr. Arthur Coley, of Somerset, through their use, an account of which appeared in the papers, gave a considerable impetus to the sale, and the remedy has become indispensable in many Manitoba households, its fame having penetrated into the remotest parts of the province and Northwest Territories.

It will be a difficult task, says the Campbellford Herald, to gather the immense crop of apples, and thousands of bushels will serve as food for cattle and hogs. Every householder can fill his cellar at a little more than the cost of picking. Local dealers inform us that the cost of good fruit will be 50c. a barrel, while not more than 75c. or $1 will be paid for the choicest varieties.

THE C. P. & N. RAILWAY.

The Success is Now an Assured Fact.

We are in a position to state with some degree of certainty, says the Campbellford Herald, that the success of this new line of Railway is assured, and that in time it will afford an outlet for the vast quantities of iron ore and other mineral which have been discovered in Belmont township.

A few days ago we learned that Mr. John D. Evans, of Trenton, engineer of the Central Ontario Railway, who is also acting as engineer of the Ontario, Belmont and Northern Railway, made a trip on the locomotive from the C. O. Railway to Marmora village, over the new railway, and was satisfied with what had been done. Mr. Evans stated that all the grading was completed, the steel rails were on the ground ready for track-laying, and that trains would be running into Belmont iron mine on lot 19 on the 1st concession of that township, by the 15th of August.

With the completion of this enterprise the mining industry of that locality will now spring up afresh, and we expect in a short time to hear of the return of good times through the renewal of busy scenes in digging for iron, gold, marble and other mineral.

Mr. Fred Jones' running mare Nettie Wood took first prize in the three quarter mile dash at the Colborne races on Tuesday, beating a number of fast Toronto horses, including Money Musk and Meg Dinmount.

On the second day at Colborne, Nettie Woods took second money in the half mile race.

LACROSSE.

The old players of the Torontos are gradually drifting away from the fold, says the Toronto Star. As far as the C.L.A. is concerned, the Torontos are no more, for Harry O'Loughlin has received official notice of their disbandment, but they maintain that they will finish the series in the league games, although they are daily becoming more and more crippled. Archie Allan and Courtney Kingstone have virtually retired completely from lacrosse. Charlie Bark will finish the season with the Elms; Jackson is now playing with Georgetown; Sewell with Stouffville; Douglas and Brierly have gone to Windsor, and Nolan is not playing with any team.

The announcement is made of a game to be played on August 22 between a picked team of the Torontos and Elms against the Tecumsehs. The match will be for the benefit of Devergie and Bark. Kingstone, Allan and Nolan will figure on the picked team. For the same day a scheduled match is to be played in town between the Capitals and Torontos. Will it come off?

AQUATIC.

Belleville, Aug. 6.—The International regatta to be held here on the 11th, 12th, 13th and 14th of August promises to eclipse the Halifax carnival. Nearly all the noted professionals who took part in the event at Halifax are expected home this evening and to-morrow, and for amateur events many of the best men in Canada are entered. The monster grand stand will be completed this week. It is so situated on the railway wharf that a splendid view of the course can be obtained from every foot of it. No expense will be spared that will make it comfortable and safe. The course selected lies along a beautiful flat shore of the picturesque Bay of Quinte, and is well protected from wind. In most events the oarsmen will start from a point immediately in front of the grand stand, and row and return, giving everyone on the stand an opportunity to see the races in their entirety.

The attraction committee have provided amusement for mornings and evenings of Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, and there will not be a dull minute for those who attend the big regatta. Sailing skiffs and half-raters from Toronto and other places will be here to take part in the events set apart for them, and for which liberal prises are offered.

Several amateur crews from Montreal are expected here as soon as the C. A. A. O. regatta at Brockville is concluded. It has been decided that no gambling or games of chance will be allowed on the grounds over which the committee have jurisdiction. The Grand Trunk Railway and C. P. R. are running excursions from all points on their lines at greatly reduced rates. Belleville has ample hotel accommodation for the thousands expected. Excursions will also be run from Rochester, Oswego, Watertown, Clayton, and other cities and towns in the Northern States. Ed. Hanlan, who is the manager of the regatta, will be here to-morrow and will superintend all the final arrangements.

THE WHEEL.

The bad habits of beginners are absolutely endless. One that has many forms, and all of them reprehensible, is the habit of "askewness." Sometimes it appears in the leg, and the cyclist is seen to throw the lion's share of work on one limb, especially up-hill, making an ugly effect, and tending to swing the whole body sideways. Sometimes the trick is that of holding the head on one side, or sticking out one elbow more than another, or dropping one shoulder. The cyclist himself very seldom knows of his delinquencies, and it is usually necessary for a friend to point them out.—Irish Cyclist.

Champion Harley Davidson, according to his own assertions, will ride in only two more race meets this season, and then his retirement may be permanent. He will stay in training for the championship meeting in Montreal on Civic holiday, at which he will ride his last race. So, at least, he says, but his friends hope to prevail upon him to stay in the game for the remainder of the season.

The race meet of the Kingston Bicycle Club will take place on Monday, August 10. The entries close on the 8th with C. W. Farlane.

On his bicycle tour around the world Howard F. Hedden, the well-known artist and writer, reached Iowa City a few days ago. He illustrated the Japanese-Chinese war for Harper's, and on his present trip will interview the great officials of the Chinese Empire, Japanese Islands, Russia, Persia, India, Italy, France, Spain and other countries.

ASSESSMENT SYSTEM.

The Mutual Reserve Leads the Van

From the New York Insurance Journal.

The thirty-seventh annual report of the New York Insurance Department, shows that the eighty-seven co-operative associations or Societies combined doing business in this State during the year 1895 transacted the following business: We show what proportion of the total was done by the Mutual Reserve Fund Life Association:—

The eighty-eight Associations received payments from members amounting to $23,731,314, of which the Mutual Reserve received $5,256,194, the ratio being 22.16 per cent. of the total payments by members.

The total income of the eighty-eight Associations was $25,066,413, of which the Mutual Reserve received $5,572,282, the ratio being 22.24 per cent. of the total receipts.

The total paid for claims by the eighty-seven Associations was $16 867,537; the amount paid by the Mutual Reserve was $4,095,676, the ratio being 24.26 per cent.

The general average is: About 22 per cent. of the whole business is done by the Mutual Reserve Fund Life Association.

The old-line Company having the largest business had a premium income of 18.28 per cent. out of the total premium receipts of the 35 Companies doing business in New York. Its share of the total income was 18.21 per cent.; its proportions of claims paid was 16.55; its proportion of the total disbursements was 18.06 per cent.

The Mutual Reserve has, therefore, relatively a larger proportion of the business of the co-operative associations than the largest "old-line" company has of all the business of that class of companies.

HIGH RATE OF MORTALITY.

There Were Twenty-four Deaths in the Month of July.

The vital statistics of the month show that there were twenty-four deaths during July. The effect of this rather alarming statement concerning the mortality during the month is somewhat decreased when it is known that fully one-half of the deaths occurred amongst very small children. The excessive heat has proved too much for the small bits of humanity and accordingly a large number of them have been carried off. There were twenty-five births during the month and ten marriages.

PETERBOROUGH, AUGUST 1st, 1896.

August Prices.

August is the last month of Summer—the end of the clearing-out season when Summer Goods must give way to Fall Stocks. We cannot afford to carry over one season's goods to the next. We must keep a perennial freshness about our store. For these reasons, you can understand how it comes that you can buy anything in our summer lines just now with very little consideration for what it cost us. Take Wall Paper for instance. An ordinary Wall Paper advertisement in August is about as unlooked for as snow in August. People have almost stopped buying and trade is at low-water mark. But there's a way to stimulate activity even in Wall Paper, and by almost giving away the goods, and doing it agreeably, we think we can crowd this store with buyers during this last of the summer months.

Wall Paper.

Pretty Patterns, for ordinary rooms, that could never be bought for less than 5c. and 6c. per roll, our August price	.2½
Special lines in Art Patterns, for dining-rooms, bed-rooms, etc., that were cheap all summer at 7c and 8c, our August price	.5

Very pretty American Papers, with borders and ceiling papers to match, regular 12½c. and 15c. patterns, our August price	.9
Rich Gilt Papers, with border and ceilings to match, worth 20c and 25c. our August price	.15

Cornice Poles.

Complete set, with pair ends brackets, 10 rings and pole, suitable for bed-rooms, worth 25c, our August price	.16

"What's the matter" with papering the home now instead of waiting until fall? Many families have closed up their homes and are away summering, giving a better chance for the work to be better done and without confusion and discomfort. What a pleasure it would be to return to the brightness of the newly prepared home. Now's the time! when Wall Paper can be bought for half the price it will be in the fall and when it costs less to put it on.

BRADBURN'S OPERA HOUSE.

A New Drop Curtain and Five Complete New Sets of Scenes.

Mr. Will F. Clarke, the scenic artist, who has been engaged during the past five weeks in painting the new scenery for the stage in the opera house, completed his task last night. The result fully justifies the confidence reposed in the artist by Manager Bradburn, and cannot fail to be highly appreciated by our play-going people. Those of our citizens especially who have been regular in attendance at the opera house and who have witnessed the same old drop scene and the same old stage effects put on at every performance for years past will congratulate the manager for his enterprise and the artist for his skill in the producing of such a delightful change. The drop curtain is a beautiful representation of Windsor castle, showing the grand pile in all its splendour fringed with its summer verdue, the peacefully flowing river in front reflecting the scene on its waters. The effect of the varied colourings when the footlights are turned on, produces a charmingly realistic picture, and forms a pleasing study to while away the spare moments between the acts. Rich side and top drapery, well executed, gives a fit and graceful setting to this scene.

Among the new stage scenes specially worthy of note is a wood scene with many strikingly natural effects, which brings out the scope of the artist. A palace scene, also, which can be mechanically arranged in three combinations, is another clever production, calculated to give an effective setting to the play. Another well devised scene represents a plain chamber with changeable side wings, presenting bon e like surroundings in a very natural manner. New drapes, new borders, new foliage effects and other decorative pieces are introduced, which greatly enhance the whole effect of the new scenery.

THE WANDERERS COMING.

One of Toronto's Popular Bicycle Clubs to be Here.

It will be remembered that some of the Toronto Wanderers came down to Chemong on the last Civic Holiday and were most favourably impressed, so favourably, indeed, that by the appended paragraph taken from the Globe, there will be a big crowd down on Saturday night next:

"The G.T.R. and the Wanderers could not come to terms, and as a result the big three days' trip of the latter to Penetang has been abandoned, and the boys will go to Chemong lake, leaving via the C. P. R. at 5 p.m. on Saturday for Peterborough, wheeling from there to the lake, where they will spend the next few days' fishing, etc."

The local Bicycle Club should call a meeting without delay to make some arrangement for entertaining the boys in town or at the Park Saturday evening.

NORTH MONAGHAN.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

On the evening of Monday, July 27th, the young ladies of Mrs. J. K. Moore's Sunday school class called at her residence and presented her with an address, accompanied by a beautiful mirror, surrounded by a bronze frame. The address reads as follows:—

Mrs. J. K. Moore:

DEAR FRIEND AND TEACHER,—We the members of your class have decided to show our appreciation of your valuable services in our Sunday school. You have been faithful in your duty as a teacher, ever making the lessons both interesting and instructive, and we trust we have profited by them. Your excellent example as a Christian lady we will remember through life. We would like you to accept this mirror as a slight token of our regard for you. You have taken an interest in our temporal, as well as on spiritual welfare, for we recognize that our spiritual welfare is the aim and object of your teaching. We hope that the lessons have not been learned in vain, but when life is ended that each one of us may find a home in heaven. Hoping that you may have many future years of usefulness amongst us, and that the pleasant relationship as teacher and pupils, which we have borne to each other in the past, may continue in the future, we remain.

Your loving scholars,

MRS. FERGUSON,	JESSIE CAMPBELL,
EDITH TULLY,	JENNIE MAHOOD,
SADIE YOUNG,	LILLIE MIDDLETON,
IDA BARNARD,	LIZZIE MAHOOD,
MARY BROOKS,	LOTTIE MIDDLETON,

Healthy, happy children make better men and women of us all. A little care and a little planning before birth is often more important than anything that can be done after. On the mother's health and strength depend the life and the future of the children. A weak and sickly woman cannot bear strong and healthy children. Most of the weakness of women is utterly inexcusable. Proper care and proper medicine will cure almost any disorder of the feminine organism. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has been tested in thirty years of practice. It is healing, soothing, strengthening. It is perfectly natural in its operation and effect. By its use thousands of weak women have been made strong and healthy—have been made the mothers of strong and healthy children. Taken during gestation, it makes childbirth easy and almost painless and insures the well being of both mother and child. Send 31 cents in one-cent stamps to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N.Y., and receive Dr. Pierce's 1008 page "Common Sense Medical Adviser," profusely illustrated.

BISHOP O'CONNOR'S NARROW ESCAPE.

He Was Wrecked in a Canoe on the Rock of Missisoqua.

The Catholic Record contains the following account of an accident which recently befel Bishop O'Connor, whilst on his tour of the diocese:

His Lordship Bishop O'Connor left Sault Ste. Marie early on Wednesday for Missisoqua, and arrived at Blind River early in the afternoon, where he took a sail boat for Missisoqua. No sooner was the boat launched in the lake than a terrible windstorm come up, turning the lake into mountains of water, and lashed it into foam. The boat became unmanageable, and only after the narrowest escape from being capsized it drifted ashore on the rocks of the Missisoqua. His Lordship resolved to pursue his journey by land, or rather over the rocks, to Missisoqua. The Indians, however, fearing that an accident had happened, started out to find the wrecked. They found them about a mile from the village, and took them on board of their canoes, and landed all safe at Missisoqua. The people now became enthusiastic and flocked to the divine service in large numbers. Many were confirmed; and in the evening a concert was given in honour of his Lordship's visit. Thessalon was the next town to visit, which is a thriving village, and inhabited by industrious people. From here his Lordship took train to Massey, where he was met in procession by the Catholic Foresters, accompanied to the church and presented with addresses. The English address is as follows:

MASSEY, Ont., July 27, 1896.

To His Lordship the Rev. R. A. O'Connor, D.D., Bishop of Peterborough:

May it please your Lordship—My Lord—With great pleasure we hail your presence in our midst and we beg to congratulate you on your happy journey to and return from the Eternal City. With joy we expect to hear from your lips news from the Holy Father, the Vicar of Christ on earth, the prisoner of the Vatican, the pacifier of nations, the immortal Leo XIII.

To yourself, my Lord, we owe a great debt of gratitude. Although we are here but a small community, you have succeeded in giving us a resident pastor; you have furnished us with the means of building this neat church; every day we have Holy Mass offered; our children are taught and imbued with Christian doctrine; the sacraments are administered to us in health and sickness. Under your vigilant and paternal solicitude we possess every means of becoming a vigorous and devout people. May we become every day worthy of the love you have bestowed on us.

Well may we love to see you and always be happy to welcome you in our midst. Welcome, my Lord, a thousand times welcome in Massey.

WILLIAM DELANEY,
Chief Ranger.

His Lordship happily and appropriately replied.

A Graduate of Toronto University says:

"My children have been treated with Scott's Emulsion from their earliest years. Our physician first recommended it and now whenever a child takes cold my wife immediately resorts to this remedy, which always effects a cure."

Who does not know women and young girls who are continually in tears? Who always see the dark side? Who have frequent fits of melancholy without any apparent cause? But there is a cause. It is to be found by the intelligent physician in some derangement of the complicated and delicate feminine organs of generation. The woman who half understands herself, feels that she cannot always be complaining; she cannot always have the doctor in the house. The young girl suffers, bodily and mentally, in silence. The trouble usually comes so gradually it is attributed to some outside cause. There is undue weariness, unexpected pain, unreasonable tears and fits of temper. All these symptoms are simply protests of the silent, long-suffering nerves. The trouble shows in dark circles below the eyes, a downward curve of the mouth, a sallow, brownish-yellow neck.

Unregarded, the trouble grows. A few years of tortured invalidism, probably insanity, before merciful death comes. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the fruit of years of study. It is the product of an investigating mind united with a generous nature. When an intelligent person gives years of study to a subject there must be some good result. The "Favorite Prescription" is a compound of extracts of herbs that makes a strengthening, soothing medicine. It acts directly upon the distinctly feminine organs. It stops drains from lining membranes by healing diseased parts, thereby curing also the inflammation that is always present.

"I was in a critical condition. Often I was in despair. I experienced a great improvement by taking one bottle of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I have taken six bottles, and I am sure that it will not only cure ulceration but all diseases of females." Yours truly,

(Mrs.) R. T. Rudd

Neapolis, Virginia.

Should be of Steel.

The bursting of a fly-wheel is almost unheard of in England, notwithstanding the high-speed engines we now have running, yet in the United States the fly-wheel casualities have become a matter of weekly report, says The London Engineer. In England we have up to sixty tons weight, running with many thousands of high-speed, cast-iron fly-wheels, and very large wheels very high periphery speed, and they all run safely, and yet in the States they say: "The sudden advent of electrical apparatus and its high speeds found people making fly-wheels of cast-iron, with a narrow factor of safety, or, indeed, no factor of safety at all, if we consider the impossibility of detecting inherent strains and imperfections in this material. No one can know the value of material molded into form at a temperature of 2000 degrees and then cooled down to a fortieth of this temperature, nor can he judge internal structure by surface indications. The fact is that cast iron is not suitable material for fly-wheels that are to be driven at high speed, nor is it necessary to make them of this material. There is not even the claim of cheapness in their favor if the methods of making such wheels of wrought iron and steel were once worked out.

"Twenty years ago a Scotch firm, who had to make a large fly-wheel for a spinning mill riveted up a box rim, made from rolled plates, and filled it with cemented masonry or 'grout,' and did a very sensible thing."

Federation of Australia.

The proposed federation of the British colonies which occupy the island continent of Australia involves questions of great practical interest to the rest of the civilized world, writes Owen Hall in August Lippincott's. As a mere matter of political speculation, indeed, the future of this last of the continents presents problems which are like the country itself, unique in the history of human experience, while the vastness of its extent, the isolation of its position and the greatness of its apparent stores of mineral and other wealth render that future a matter of special importance to the rest of the world. It is a country which even more than America has its history yet to make, and every step that goes to the making of a country nearly as large as Europe must necessarily have importance, both political and commercial, for other nations. And of these nations none has more reason to feel interested than ourselves. It is not merely that the population of the Pacific continent is near of kin to ourselves, although, rightly regarded, that is much; it is not only that in language, laws, religion and literature the people of Australia inherit with ourselves all the advantages of our race; besides all this their geographical position brings them nearer to us than any other people of a European civilization, while their political destiny can hardly fail to assimilate their institutions to our own.

FOUND A JEWEL.

An Important Find by a Brockville Jeweller.

Mr. Joseph Lane, the well-known jeweller of Brockville, says: "For some years I have suffered with severe pains in my back and sides and flashes of heat between my shoulders. I had a tired, wornout feeling.

"The numerous medicines that I took gave me very little relief. Hearing of Doan's Kidney Pills I thought I would try a box, and got one at Curry's drugstore.

"After the first two or three doses I felt much relieved, and the longer I took them the greater the change for the better in my condition. I am much better in every respect and recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to all sufferers from kidney trouble as the best remedy I know of."

ENGLISH ROADSIDES.

FLORAL BEAUTIES ABOUND ALONG ENGLISH HIGHWAYS.

The Finest Turf That Grows—Some of the Many Dwarf Bushes That Make the Waysides in England so Ideally Picturesque.

The beauty and the vegetation of the road margin, though varying with locality and soil, conforms in each to a certain order. By the great high roads in the agricultural counties this roughly corresponds to the lawn, flower border and background of shrubs of the cultivated garden. The finest turf that grows, except that which has for 800 years been cropped by the cattle of the New Forest, fringes the highway. It owes its quality first to the passing travelers' feet, which have pressed it for centuries without wearing it away, and secondly to the constant powdering with road dust, the finest and most flourishing of grass fertilisers. The herbage consists mainly of the tiniest clovers and the best lawn grasses. Between the turf and the hedge lies the roadside flower gardens, to which the fence forms a background of shrubbery. On the level margin of the flint-bordered roads this is also a preserve of wild harbaceous plants.

Among the dwarf bushes of bramble, rest harrow and dog-rose, or on the rougher and less-tridden margin, where these do not flourish, grows the legion of roadside flowers. It is the ground sacred to the wild snap-dragon, the musk-thistle, crane's bill and speedwell, eyebright and white nettle, pink convolvulus and wild carrot, mallow and the big pink clover. Some plants seem to love the dust and sun nearest to the roadway. Aaron's-rod, pink nettles, gray scabious and the bright blue viper's-bugloss and pennywort thrive with a coating of dust, washed off by passing showers. On heavy soil the wayside needs a ditch to drain the road; therefore meadow-sweet, loosestrife, vetch and "cherry-pie" and all the ditch plants flourish there. When the road is bordered by a running stream, the floral wreath of this wayside garden is doubled or trebled. The refraction of the sun from the road, the confinement of the fences, the water, dust and light, here force the roadside vegetation to the utmost. There grow the largest marsh marigolds, the longest hart's tongues, the tallest teazles and the greenest burdocks. Butterflies and birds of certain species always prefer the roadside to any other haunt. The sociable yellowhammers and whitethroats seldom leave the road hedges, and partridges have a special liking for this dangerous nesting place.

Where the road is cut deep and the margins slope upwards, the character of the flower border changes. Loosely growing grasses take the place of the compact turf, and these are set in spring with beds of white and purple violets, star of Bethlehem, white nettle, speedwell and celandine and later with masses of mallows and ragged robin. The ants and bumblebees are the characteristic insects of these warm borders, the former piling their hills among the loose grasses, and the latter burrowing in the warm slopes. There the old country women, active and industrious to the last, come to gather the medicinal plants which seem to grow nowhere else except by the roadsides. No one but these old dames knows the plants by sight, though they all fetch their price when sent up in bundles to the dealers in Covent Garden.—London Spectator.

Somersaults Improve the Figure.

A Swedish woman in Chicago has started the somersault cure for women who desire to improve their figure. "Sometimes," she says, "it takes logic and patience to persuade a stout, dignified lady to turn a somersault, and in the preliminary trials a difficult object has to be helped over. At forty-five, you know, such an action seems an awful and awkward enterprise, but once you learn how to turn somersaults, even at fifty, the exhilaration of it grows on you, and its effects on one's girdle measure are simply astonishing. The somersault does more for a clumsy, fat woman than anything I can recommend."

The Kaiser to the Queen.

The German Emperor has sent Queen Victoria a fountain which represents an eagle flapping its wings, while water issues in a spray from a vent in the back, and so conveys the idea that the bird is flying through streams of water. It is to be set up in the little garden near the fountain which was presented to the Queen by the late Emperor William I., and which for some time stood in the conservatory at Windsor Castle.

Wonderful Changes in a Fish's Color.

In France they have a species of trout called the "black burn." He is almost pure black when taken from the water, but changes color to suit the receptacle in which he is put. In a white jar the creature changes to a pure albino in from two to three days, but changes back to black when put in a dark vessel. In a common pottery jar he becomes a brick color, and in a glass globe he becomes so transparent that he can scarcely be seen.

ONE HONEST MAN.

DEAR EDITOR:—Please inform your readers, that if written to confidentially I will mail, in a sealed letter, particulars of a genuine, honest home cure, by which I was permanently restored to health and manly vigor after years of suffering from nervous debility, sexual weakness, night losses and weak, shrunken parts. I was robbed and swindled by the quacks until I nearly lost faith in mankind, but thank heaven, I am now well, vigorous and strong and wish to make this certain means of cure known to all sufferers. I have nothing to sell and want no money, but being a firm believer in the universal brotherhood of man, I am desirous of helping the unfortunate to regain their health and happiness, I promise you perfect secrecy and as I do not wish to expose myself either, please address, simply: P. Charming Accessories.

Most charming things are done by accessories alone. I noticed four delightful girls that were remarkable only for their pretty belts, fichus, etc., yet they were to all eyes the best-dressed women of the day. Matrons and youngest grandmothers ought to revel in the dainty fichus, and all of the softening influences that are brought to bear these days on hardened faces and wrinkles. The shops show no end of these fichus in soft materials and soft colors.

THEY COUNT BY THE SCORE

Yea, By the Hundreds, Those Who Have Been Cured of Dire Disease By South American Nervine.

A Remedy Widespread and Universal in Its Application.

Where Other Medicines Have Failed and Doctors Have Pronounced the Cases Beyond Cure, This Great Discovery Has Proven a Genuine Elixir of Life.

The Same Verdict Comes From Old and Young, Male and Female, Rich and Poor, and From All Corners of the Dominion.

If it is the case that he who makes two blades of grass grow where only one had grown before is a benefactor of the race, what is the position to be accorded that man who by his knowledge of the laws of life and health gives energy and strength where languor, weakness and anticipation of an early death had before prevailed? Is not he also a public benefactor? Let those who have been down and are now up through the use of South American Nervine give their opinions on this subject. John Boyer, banker, of Kincardine, Ont., had made himself a hopeless invalid through years of overwork. At least he felt his case was hopeless, for the best physicians had failed to do him good. He tried Nervine, and these are his words: "I gladly say it: Nervine cured me and I am to-day as strong and well as ever." Samuel Elys, of Meaford, was cured of neuralgia of the stomach and bowels by three bottles of this medicine. Jas. Sherwood, of Windsor, at 70 years of age, suffered from an attack of paralysis. His life, at that age, was despaired of. But four bottles of Nervine gave him back his natural strength. A victim of indigestion, W. F. Bolger, of Renfrew, says: "Nervine cured me of my suffering, which seemed incurable, and had baffled all former methods and efforts." Peter Esson, of Paisley, lost flesh and rarely had a good night's sleep, because of stomach trouble. He says: "Nervine stopped the agonizing pains in my stomach the first day I used it. I have now taken two bottles and I feel entirely relieved and can sleep like a top." A representative farmer, of Western Ontario, is Mr. C. J. Curtis, residing near Windsor. His health was seemingly completely destroyed through la grippe. No medicine did him any good. "To three bottles of Nervine," he says, "I attribute my restoration to health and strength." Neither man or woman can enjoy life when troubled with liver complaint. This was the sentiment and feeling of W. J. Hill, the well-known bailiff of Bracebridge. "I was so bad," says he, "that one of my medical attendants said that I was dying, but, thank God, I am not dead yet. From the first few doses I took of Nervine I commenced to feel better, and am to-day restored completely to my usual health." A resident of the Maritime Provinces, in the person of S. Jones, of Sussex, N.B., says: "For twelve years I was a martyr to indigestion, constipation and headache. The treatment of several physicians did not help me. I have taken a few bottles of Nervine, and can truthfully say that I am a new man."

A shrewd observer of human nature has said: "The hand that rocks the cradle moves the world." How important it is, then, that health and strength should be made the lot of the mothers of this country. The women of Canada are ready by scores to tell of the benefits that have come to them through the use of South American Nervine. Mrs. R. Armstrong, of Orillia, wife of the colporteur, of the Bible Society of that town, suffered for six years from nervous prostration. Medical assistance did not help. "In all," she says, "I have taken six bottles of Nervine, and can truthfully say this is the one medicine that has effected a cure in my case." Mrs. John Dinwoody has been for 40 years a resident of Flesherton, and has reached the allotted three-score years and ten. Three years ago her system sustained a severe shock through the death of a daughter. Nervine was recommended. She perseveringly took 12 bottles of medicine, with the result that she is to-day again strong and hearty. Hundreds of women suffer from impoverished blood and weakened nerves. "All vitality," says Mrs. J. Ballis, of Brampton, "seemed to have forsaken my system. I was unable to get relief from any source until I commenced taking South American Nervine. The results are most satisfactory—greater far than I could have hoped for." It came within the way of Mrs. H. Stapleton, of Wingham, to treat under the best physicians, both in Canada and England, for heart disease and nervous debility, but she failed to get any relief. "I was advised," she says, "to take South American Nervine, and must say I do believe that if I had not done so I would not be alive to-day."

Newspaper space is too valuable to permit of further additions to these earnest words of testimony from those who know just what they are talking about. In the common language of the day, they have been there, and are speaking from the heart. The dozen or more witnesses that here speak have their counterparts by the hundreds, not only in the province of Ontario, but in every other section of the Dominion. South American Nervine is based on a scientific principle that makes a cure a certainty, no matter how desperate the case may be. It strikes at the nerve centers from which flows the life blood of the whole system. It is not a medicine of patchwork, but is complete and comprehensive in its application.

HOW THE SUN LIFE

FULFILS ITS PROMISES.

A Matured 10 Year Endowment.

Profits Paid by the SUN 21 per. cent more than the Estimates.

The following letter, which speak for itself, was received by the undersigned this morning from a gentleman in Brockville, whose ten year endowment which he held in the Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada matured last week and was paid him. The Sun is modest in promises but UNEQUALLED IN RESULTS. The public are benefitted by results, not by promises unfulfilled

BROCKVILLE, November 7th, 1895.

W. H. HILL, Mgr. Central Ontario Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada, Peterborough, Ontario:—

DEAR SIR.—I should have acknowledged the receipt of yours enclosing cheque for endowment policy No. 12,871 before, only I wanted to write something more than a mere receipt. I am pleased to hear of the continued prosperity of the "SUN" and it speaks well for your Company when the profits are greater (by 21 per cent.) than you as the Company's representative promised or rather estimated, as was the case with this policy.

I hope your Company will continue to prosper and I often regret that I do not carry more Insurance than I am doing. I might have carried twice as much as I do when at Minden without any great effort, still what little I do carry I feel is perfectly safe being in the "SUN."

I must thank you for your promptness and kindness regarding this policy just settled. I hope we will both be alive and well when the new one I now hold will be due in 1905 and assuring you of very best wishes, I remain

Yours Sincerely,

(Signed) F. R. C.

She Has Ever Known. Words of Praise from a New York Lady for

AYER'S PILLS

"I would like to add my testimony to that of others who have used Ayer's Pills, and to say that I have taken them for many years, and always derived the best results from their use. For stomach and liver troubles, and for the cure of headache caused by these derangements, Ayer's Pills cannot be equaled.

When my friends ask me what is the best remedy for disorders of the stomach, liver, or bowels, my invariable answer is, Ayer's Pills. Taken in season, they will break up a cold, prevent la grippe, check fever, and regulate the digestive organs. They are easy to take, and are, indeed, the best all-round family medicine I have ever known."—Mrs. May Johnson, 368 Rider Avenue, New York City.

LIFE'S CRISES.

Once to every man and nation comes the moment to decide.
In the strife of Truth with Falsehood for the good or evil side;
Some great cause, God's new Messiah, offering each the bloom or blight,
Parts the goats upon the right hand, and the sheep upon the right,
And the choice goes by forever 'twixt that darkness and that night.

We see dimly in the present what is small and what is great,
Slow of faith, how weak an army may turn the iron helm of Fate;
But the soul is still oracular; amid the market's din,
List the ominous, stern whisper from the Delphic cave within—
"They enslave their children's children who make compromise with sin."

Then to side with truth is noble when we share her wretched crust,
Ere her cause bring fame and profit, and 'tis prosperous to be just;
Then it is the brave man chooses, while the coward stands aside,
Doubt in his abject spirit, till his Lord is crucified,
And the multitude make virtue of the faith they had denied.

New occasions teach new duties; Time makes ancient good uncouth;
They must upward still, and onward, who would keep abreast of Truth;
Lo, before us gleam her camp fires; we ourselves must pilgrims be,
Launch our Mayflower, and steer boldly through the desperate winter sea,
Nor attempt the Future's portal with the Past's blood-rusted key.

—James Russell Lowell.

TO POLE BY BALLOON.

The Daring and Fascinating Attempt of Prof. Andree.

There are features of novel interest in the latest effort to reach the north pole. The explorer who is now claiming attention is Prof. Andree, and, although he proposes to make the trip by balloon, it cannot be said that his plans are any more impracticable than those of many of his predecessors. When last heard from Andree was on Danish island, off the northwest coast of Spitzbergen, and he may already be started on his aerial journey. If not he is expected to be under way between the present date and Aug. 24.

His starting point, Danish island, is located very near the line of the 80th parallel and is therefore about 690 miles from the pole. This, of course, is a considerable distance south of the latitude attained by the more successful explorers, but it is a reasonable probability that if Andree makes any headway at all he will at least advance into the region of the highest known exploration. His direction, if winds favor, will be in a straight line due north, and in a balloon 690 miles is not a very protracted journey. He will be amply supplied with provisions, carrying in addition ice sledges and a small boat in case his mammoth balloon collapses and he has to resort to other means of travel.

The adventure seems quite as daring and fascinating as are most of the polar explorations. Apparently, Prof. Andree will have the usual perilous lot of the pole-hunters if his balloon comes to grief, but if he succeeds his success should be won with considerably less than the ordinary hardships. With avering winds and no mishaps he might float across the pole and on into British North America, experiencing only a slight part of the perils and rigors met by those who go in boats and sledges to the arctic zone.

The letter was evidently hurriedly written, and does not give details. It does not intimate that the vessel is in immediate danger.

Reforms in the Transvaal.

Pretoria, Aug. 4.—The Volksraad has passed a bill allowing the children of foreign residents of the Transvaal who attend the Public schools to learn the language of their parents. This is a step in the direction of redressing one of the grievances of the Uitlanders, who energetically protested against their children having no school facilities for learning their own language. The only language that is recognized in the schools is Dutch.

Americans in Corea.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 4.—The Vladivostock correspondent of The Novoe Vremya telegraphs that a syndicate of Americans has obtained from the Government of Corea a concession to build a railway from Seoul, the Capital of Corea, which is an inland city, to Chemulpo, its port. The concession also gives the Americans the right to work the minerals along the line of the road.

Crops in the Southern States.

Washington, Aug. 4.—The weekly crop report of the Weather Bureau states that owing to excessive heat and lack of rainfall over the greater part of the Southern States the general condition of cotton is not as good as in the previous week. The general condition of corn in the principal corn States continues excellent. Grain, in shock and stack, has been much injured by excessive rains. Tobacco continues in good condition, except in the Carolinas.

Knocked Down by a Trolley.

London, Ont., Aug. 4.—While out wheeling with her husband last evening, Mrs. Robert Parsons, 760 Dundas-street east, collided with a trolley car and sustained very painful injuries. In turning off Colborne-street on to Dundas she was confused by a car approaching from the east, and, instead of turning short, attempted to cross in front of the car. In doing so her wheel was struck, and she was thrown to the side.

Burned by Electricity.

Niagara Falls, Aug. 4.—Frank Simpson, employed in the Cataract Construction Co. power-house, was burned terribly to-day. He was putting in a fuse under a transformer, when the electricity flashed in his face, burning the skin. He was picked up in an unconscious condition and can hardly live. His clothes were burning when he was picked up.

ABOUT THE LIVER.

A lazy, slow or torpid liver influences the whole system, causing biliousness, sick headache, sallow complexion, languor and dullness. Burdock Blood Bitters regulates the liver, purifies the secretions and cures all forms of liver troubles. We say so and here is the proof:—

I hereby wish to thank you for the great benefit derived by me from your Burdock Blood Bitters. For three years I was troubled with liver complaint and tried everything to no purpose. I had almost given up hope until one day I determined to try Burdock Blood Bitters. I can say now that marked improvement resulted from the use of the first bottle and at the end of the sixth bottle I discontinued its use, being completely cured.

How Manure Is Wasted.

To the question: "Does manure waste as ordinarily kept in open yards?" Prof. Roberts, before a Wisconsin institution, proceeded to show that each inch of rainfall was equal to 100 tons of water on an acre, the usual 32 inches of rainfall during a year making 3,200 tons of water to the acre. A barnyard with six 16 foot panels one way and seven the other to inclose it, he said, had almost exactly a quarter of an acre in it, and would therefore receive 800 tons of water in the usual rainfall of a year. He said he would as soon think of having hay out in the field all winter as of leaving manure in the barnyard all summer.

A Plan Worth Considering.

The North Carolina Experiment Station advocates a plan for buying and selling cows at prices based upon their milk yield. The rule is to pay $12 per gallon for the milk given per day when rich enough to show 3 1-2 per cent. of fat. To this price add or substract a dollar for every one fourth of one per cent. of fat, which the test shows the milk to be above or below 3 1-2 per cent.

FURTHER HONORS FOR CANADIANS

The Victors Were Warmly Cheered in Camp—Band Played "See the Conquering Hero" and the Sergeants Sang "They are Jolly Good Fellows."

London, Aug. 5.—In the competition at Shoeburyness under the auspices of the National Artillery Association today, the Queen's prize for garrison artillery was won by the Canadian team, which also secured the third prize in the No. 2 garrison competition.

The Queen's prize is valued at 110 sovereigns.

The announcement of the victory of the Canadians at the officers' mess was greeted with prolonged cheering. The successful teams were heartily congratulated, and the band played See the Conquering Hero Comes. A concert was in progress at the sergeants' mess when the result of the competition was made known, and immediately the entire audience rose and sang For They Are Jolly Good Fellows, and at the conclusion of the song cheered the Canadians heartily.

In No. 3 artillery competition the Canadians got 15th place; in the Harcourt Challenge Cup contest they were seventh, with a score of 74 points, the highest score being 78.

Sergt. Instructor Bridgeford has notified the officials that the team of Canadians entered in the Imperial Cup competition will not take part in the contest, the reason being that it would be impossible to accomplish the conditions imposed under the drill practised in Canada.

The true reason for the action of Sergt. Instructor Bridgeford in retiring his team from the Repository Badges competition, "B" shift, was that the stores were not supplied according to the regulations. The same reason is assigned for withdrawing the entry of the Canadian team from the Imperial Cup competition; and unless the conditions are changed for the Governor-General's prize, the Canadian team will only compete as far as the regulation stores supplied will permit and then retire.

SPRINGFIELD ALL THE WAY.

Pitcher Coughlin Fooled the Torontos and They Were Almost Shut Out.

The Torontos were unable to do anything with Coughlin's delivery yesterday, and barely escaped a whitewash. Only 18 men went to bat the first six innings. Delehanty got a base on balls in the fifth, but both went out trying to steal. Doubles by Freeman and O'Brien scored Toronto's only run. Dineen was taken out in the third on account of his illness. Moran was an improvement. The visitors fielded snarply and perfectly. Score:

What causes bad dreams is a question that has never been satisfactorily answered; but, in nine cases out of ten, frightful dreams are the result of imperfect digestion, which a few doses of Ayer's Sarsaparilla will effectually remedy. Don't delay—try it to-day.

He Wears It Straight Now.

Kaiser William has changed the trim of his mustache, which he no longer curls up at the ends, but wears perfectly straight. This gives him a more benignant and less ferocious aspect. They say that like his prototype, Ludwig II., of Bavaria, he is growing very fat, owing to overeating and too little exercise. When Ludwig saw that he was too obese he withdrew from the eyes of man.

Delicate Flattery.

While Li Hung Chang was in Berlin he occupied a suite of thirty-four rooms in one of the large hotels. They had been sumptuously decorated with special reference to the Viceroy's taste. In one room his portrait was hung side by side with Bismarck's, and each of the rooms occupied by him personally was supplied with a canary, a bird which he is very fond.

Rare in France as Elsewhere.

In an interview on the late Jules Simon, Rochefort said: "Although he was minister several times, he accomplished the feat—a rarity under the circumstances, which deserves emphasizing—of acquiring no fortune and dying poor."

GOOD ENDORSERS.

Every business man understands that no matter how valuable the signature on a note may be, his confidence is greatly increased if the note is well endorsed.

This is equally true of articles other than notes. It is particularly true of pianos. The musical public always likes to know if a piano is well endorsed.

The Mason & Risch Piano is undoubtedly endorsed by more eminent names than any other instrument made in Canada. Here are a few of them:—

Madame Albani	Franz Lizst
Sir A. C. McKenzie (Principal Royal College of Music)	F. H. Torrington
	S. P. Warren
Dr. Bridge (Organist Westminster Abbey)	Edouard Remenyi
	W. Waugh Lauder
Otto Bendix	Signor D'Auria
Frederick Archer	Watkins Mills
Mrs. Longmore	Edouard Scharff

These are but few of the many eminent admirers of our pianos. We could go on and fill a column but we think this enough to establish our claim to be well endorsed.

An examination of our instruments is cordially solicited no matter how remote your idea of purchase may be.

Our prices are reasonable, quality considered, and our terms elastic enough to suit anyone.

QUIET AT OTTAWA.

Ministers are Wading Through Their Correspondence.

CHAT WITH SIR MACKENZIE BOWELL

Dr. McEachran Says Live Stock in the Northwest is in Good Shape—Letter Cards are Letters—Bankers Report Business Satisfactory—Dead Meat Scheme.

Ottawa, Aug. 6.—(Special.)—Matters were quiet in ministerial circles to-day. There was no meeting of council and the members of the Government are consequently wading through the piles of correspondence which have accumulated during their absence from the city. There were, however, many politicians in town, including Major Sutherland, M.P.; Mr. Choquette, M. P.; and the batch of members who came in yesterday to attend the Laurier demonstration last night.

Sir Richard Cartwright arrived from Kingston this morning. The Minister of Trade and Commerce has been troubled with rheumatism a good deal recently.

Sir Mackenzie Bowell left for Toronto on the morning train. Last night he had a chat with Sir Charles Tupper in reference to the coming session. Sir Mackenzie expects to be in his place in the Upper House, but whether or not he will lead the Opposition there he has not determined, although Sir Charles Tupper is very anxious for him to assume that position. Sir Mackenzie's inclination is to quietly drop out of active politics, and consequently until such time as he has consulted his friends he will not announce his decision.

Dr. McEachran, Chief Veterinary Inspector of the Dominion, was in town to-day on departmental business. The Doctor has just returned from a trip to the Northwest. He says live stock in the Territories were never in better condition and returns this year will be quite up to the average. Shipments of cattle from the Northwest are being made to England this year with lucrative returns to the ranchmen.

A notice issued by the Postoffice Department states that some postmasters have fallen into the error of considering letter cards as postcards, and it is therefore necessary to repeat that a letter-card is in no sense a postcard, but a letter, and as such is subject to the ordinary letter postage. Any postmaster, therefore, at whose office a letter-card may be posted or who may receive such a card from another office, showing less prepayment than would be required in the case of a letter, should tax or collect, as the case may be, double the deficiency of postage, just as in the case of a short paid letter.

The department was lately under the necessity of removing from office and criminally prosecuting a postmaster for having opened a letter containing a remittance to a newspaper in order that he might deduct therefrom a commission to which he considered he was entitled. It is needless to say how serious a warning such a case conveys.

Experiments in stock feeding, which have been going on at the Experimental Farm for the past three years, have been brought to a conclusion for the present. The results will be published shortly in a report to be issued by the department. The experiments have demonstrated most conclusively that the best rations on which to feed either milch cows or steers for the market in the Robertson Ensilage, which is made of corn, sunflower seeds and beans.

Local bank managers to-day say that business is very satisfactory, settlements being a fair average. Several were enthusiastic as to the prospects, while others were more conservative, admitting that Canada has all the elements necessary to a successful trade, but were dubious as to the results of the silver question in the States.

The Bank of Ottawa reports a satisfactory business and states that most of the paper was met.

The Banque Nationale had a very successful day, the best in a long while. The collections were excellent. A large amount due a western bank, for which the Banque Nationale is agent, was all collected. The harvest promises to be an abundant yield and prospects for fall trade are very assuring.

At the Bank of Montreal the reporter was informed that the business was a fair average, nothing to boast of, but no complaint to make. On the whole, trade in the Ottawa Valley is good, and now that the election excitement has passed off a revival along all lines is anticipated.

The bank mangers without exception express hope that McKinley may lead the gold party to success in the coming presidential elections.

The Central News despatch in to-day's paper, stating that Edward Blake, at the request of Mr. Laurier, had been added to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, is incorrect. No request of such a character has gone to England.

Mr. E. F. Bender of dead meat scheme renown, was here to-day in company with Mr. Choquette, M.P., and Mr. A. T. Porter of London, England, with a view to asking Government assistance to establish abattoirs and storage in connection with the proposed opening up of the trade in dead meat with England. They are also seeking a subsidy of $12,000 a year of 10 years, and the establishment of a fast Atlantic freight service, and not a fast passenger service. The promotors point out that meat now sent from Canada to the British market nets our farmers three cents per pound, and is sold in London, England, at 10 cents to 16 cents. By the system of sending the animals to Quebec, getting them killed there, and placed in cold storage until forwarded by steamship. Mr. Porter does not see why the price of the meat to the farmers should not be raised to eight cents or even higher. Under the new system the animals would be slaughtered in Canada instead of upon arriving in England.

Martin O'Hara of Fitzroy, who shot his son on Saturday last, will be brought to the city to-morrow, a prisoner. O'Hara, in the opinion of Dr. Armstrong, the physician who is attending him, is now capable of being removed. High Constable Falls went to Galetta to night to put O'Hara under arrest.

It was stated some time ago that an investigation was to be made into certain complaints of the Indians on the Manitoulin Islands as to their being hampered by fishing regulations. As the Indian Department is not co-operating in the matter, as was anticipated, the Petrel, which had been ordered up from Lake Erie to enter upon the enquiry, has received orders to return to patrol Erie waters.

Anglers in the Eastern Townships are petitioning the Department of Marine and Fisheries to have the close season for pickerel and maskinonge extended to May 23, as they claim that the lakes and rivers are being fished out. At present the close season lasts for pickerel to May 15 and for maskinonge to July 1.

The Trades and Labor Council passed a resolution protesting against the proposal to abolish the Government Printing Bureau, and suggesting an enquiry into the comparative cost of printing at present with the cost under the contract system. Copies of the resolution will be sent to all labor organizations in Canada, soliciting co-operation.

J. Reville Doherty of Sherbrooke has been appointed private secretary to Hon. A. S. Fisher, Minister of Agriculture.

Sir Charles Tupper was served with a notice of his election being protested this morning.

Hon. Charles Fitzpatrick, Solicitor-General, took charge of his department to day.

The Marine Department was notified to-day that the outer light at Owen Sound was struck by lightning last night.

Mr. Elliott, Mayor of Kingston, was in the city to-day, looking up certain matters of Government patronage.

Hon. William Paterson left for Owen Sound this morning. He will accept the nomination in North Grey.

The Marine Department was notified to-day of the wreck of the barque William Greape of Bideford, Devonshire, England, on Bryan Island, Gulf of St. Lawrence. It is reported the crew are in need of assistance, and the department has telegraphed the captain of the Government steamer Aberdeen to bring the men to the mainland.

Charles Hayner, the lobster expert of Halifax, was in the city to day. He has just returned from British Columbia. While here he conveyed a carload of live lobsters and placed them in suitable breeding grounds on the Pacific Coast.

Mr. C. Schreiber, Chief Engineer of Railways and Canals, returned from Cornwall to-day, whither he had been inspecing canal works.

Application is made for incorporation by letters patent of the Capital Register Co., for the purpose of manufacturing in this city cash registers, computing machines, etc. The proposed incorporators are Ald. Morris, David McLaren, R. G Code, J Sharp and J. A. Banfield of Ottawa.

All oil selling firms in Ontario in which Samuel Rogers & Co are interested, have been consolidated under the designation of the Queen City Oil Co. The Rogers and Morris Co. of this city is absorbed in the new company.

ABBOTT'S BODY RECOVERED.

Young Milwaukee Lawyer Was Fond of Mountain Climbing and Went to the Northwest for That Purpose.

Winnipeg, Aug. 6.—(Special.)—The body of Philip Abbott, solicitor of the Wisconsin Central Railway, killed while attempting to climb to the summit of Mount Le Froy, near Laggan, N.W.T., was recovered to-day, after much difficulty. There will be an inquest at Banff on Friday, and the body will be sent to Boston, Mass., Saturday.

He Was Fond of Mountain Climbing.

Milwaukee, Aug. 6.—Mr. Abbott left Milwaukee ten days ago for an outing in the vicinity of Laggan, a mountain resort on the Canadian Pacific Railway, just west of Banff Hot Springs, in the Alberta District. With him were Professor C. C. Fay of Tufts College, Cambridge; C. S. Thompson, of Chicago, and another friend, whose name is not known here.

The object of the excursionists was to climb the mountains about Banff. They expected to make excursions from that point at intervals for a few weeks, and it was upon one of these perilous journeys that Mr. Abbott met his death. He was passionately fond of climbing, and for that reason selected the mountains of Alberta, which, in point of rugged beauty, much resemble the Alps, as the place in which to spend his vacation.

TOM WATSON HAS A SCHEME.

The Populist Candidate for Vice-President Wants a Straight Electoral Ticket Unless Sewall Drops.

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 6.—The Georgia Populist convention was called to order to-day by Thomas E. Watson, chairman of the State Executive Committee, and as he mounted the platform he was given a great ovation by the delegates and spectators. The convention assembled in the hall of the House of Representatives, and was largely attended. Chairman Watson made no extended remarks. The convention expended an hour in temporary organization. It can be announced positively that there will be no fusion of the electoral ticket with the Democrats, unless based upon the withdrawal of Sewall for Vice-President. The Populists will nominate a straight electoral ticket, and will authorize the State Executive Committee to negotiate for a fusion electoral ticket. Providing Sewall is withdrawn Bryan and Watson will be endorsed. It is Watson's policy to run a straight electoral ticket in every state, and to insist upon a fight at every point, unless Sewall is withdrawn.

LIONESS KILLED HIS CHILD.

The Horrible Scene Enacted Before an Audience in Ohio—It Was the Father's Carelessness.

Chillicothe, O., Aug. 6.—A shocking tragedy occurred here this afternoon at Hagenbuck's wild animal show, which is giving exhibitions at the fair grounds. The tent was crowded with a large audience and the performance was progressing when J. F. Hurd, the lion-tamer, walked across the space in front of the audience, with his son, 1 year and 6 months old, in his arms, and sat him down on the ground in close proximity to a large lioness, lying chained outside her cage. The next moment the audience was horrified by seeing the beast reach out, grab the child with her claws, and drawing it quickly back crushed the infantile skull with her capacious jaws. Several showmen rushed to the spot, where the lioness, snarling and growling, was devouring the child. It was with the greatest difficulty that the animal was driven back and compelled to relinquish her prey. The other animals, scenting blood, set up a hideous snarling and growling, and a 5-year-old girl, performing in a cage of wild beasts, was rescued after a hard fight. The child's mother is a snake charmer and was a witness to the terrible scene. She rushed forward with screams of agony, and attempted to hurl herself upon the lioness. The act of the father was purely a matter of carelessness. He is nearly insane at the fate of his child.

A Bicycle Firm in Trouble.

Toledo, Aug. 6.—The plant and downtown store of the Truman Bicycle Company were this afternoon taken possession of by the Northern National Bank, the company being financially embarrassed. It is involved in the failure of the Columbus Buggy Co. of Columbus, having had extensive dealings with that concern.

LOOKS SERIOUS IN CRETE.

A Massacre Reported to Have Occurred at Heraklion—Warships Have Gone to the Scene.

Athens, Aug. 6.—Advices from Heraklion (or Candia), Crete, say the situation there is becoming more serious. According to these advices bands of Moslems are breaking into the houses of foreign residents and the authorities are powerless to prevent the outrages. The rumors of pillage and massacre, however, lack confirmation. H.M.S. Hood and the French cruiser Linois have gone to Heraklion.

London, Aug. 6.—The Daily News will print to-morrow a despatch from Canea, Crete, under date of Aug. 5, saying that a body of 10,000 Mussulmans forced an entrance into Heraklion and ejected all the Christian residents from their houses.

The News will also publish a despatch from Athens dated Aug. 6, confirming the report that a massacre has occurred at Heraklion. The number of persons killed, the despatch adds, is not known. Hassan Pasha, the Governor of Heraklion, was seriously wounded.

BLAZE AT BUCKINGHAM.

Ross Brothers' Mills Destroyed—Loss Estimated at $50,000—350 Men Thrown Out of Work.

Buckingham, Que., Aug. 6, 10.45 p.m.—Ross Bros'. Mills are on fire. Will be a total loss. Origin of the fire unknown.

Later—The loss on the mills is estimated between $50,000 and $75,000, which is thought to be pretty well covered by insurance, but to what extent cannot be ascertained. About 350 men will be thrown out of employment.

Boils

It is often difficult to convince people their blood is impure, until dreadful carbuncles, abscesses, boils, scrofula or salt rheum, are painful proof of the fact. It is wisdom now, or whenever there is any indication of blood, to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, and prevent such eruptions and suffering.

"I had a dreadful carbuncle abscess, red, fiery, fierce and sore. The doctor attended me over seven weeks. When the abscess broke, the pains were terrible, and I thought I should not live through it. I heard and read so much about Hood's Sarsaparilla, that I decided to take it, and my husband, who was suffering with boils, took it also. It soon purified our built me up and restored my health so that, although the doctor said I would not be able to work hard, I have since done the work for 20 people. Hood's Sarsaparilla cured my husband of the boils, and we regard it a wonderful medicine." MRS. ANNA PETERSON, Latimer, Kansas.

THE CONSERVATIVE LEADERSHIP.

SIR CHARLES TUPPER may with optimatic oracularity prate of the united solidity of the Conservative party, but it will never be united unless it has a new leader. The rank and file of the party cannot stand Sir Charles as leader, and many members of parliament consider his leadership inconsistent with party success. For instance, Mr. J. Ross Robertson, M.P., in his organ, the Telegram, says :—

"It will not take longer than the date of the first Conservative caucus for the ex-premier to find that even if he be permitted to hold the post of leader of the opposition his occupation of the place will be merely temporary. The party's best friends acknowledge that a new leader is needed. They know more than that. They know that if any effective fight is to be made the Conservatives must take counsel together. Sir Charles aspires to a dictatorship. If he be successful in attaining his desire the Tories are doomed to ineffectiveness and futility. Young men are needed to fight the young men who are to sit in the seats of the ministers. Sir Charles believes that he can lead the opposition; a majority of his fellow oppositionists differ from him. They will be doing their duty to the Conservative party by letting him know as soon as may be that he now governs neither the country nor the party."

There is no mistaking that language. It is clear and direct. It is as positive a repudiation of Sir Charles Tupper as can be. It is the essence of what would be said at a party convention if the alleged leaders would only call it.

HUDSON BAY NAVIGATION.

The probability of making an outlet to Europe by way of Hundson Bay is not very great. From advance sheets of Payne's report on Hudson's strait we learn that the season of navigation there is not very long. The ice does not entirely leave the strait until about the first of July, and begins to form again about the first of October, leaving only about three months of navigation. Here is an interesting extract from the report :

"In 1885, when, according to the Eskimo, the season was normal, the ice was compact at Nottingham island on Oct. 3, at Cape Prince of Wales on Nov. 14, and Cape Chudleigh on Nov. 23. From these dates onward until about the end of December, 1895, the ice would often be quite open for a short period, the changes being apparently dependent altogether upon the wind and tides. After Jan. 1, until spring, it increased in compactness, and only occasionally when strong winds occurred would any open water be seen. In all cases the open water would very soon be frozen over, the ice thus formed being in turn broken up by the encroachments of the heavier ice upon it.

"With the approach of winter the long winter nights appear, and daylight becomes very precious; on Oct. 17 lamps were lit at 4.40 p.m., on Nov. 20 at 3 p.m., and on December 21 at 1 30 p.m. Fortunately the moon does not treat these regions in the same way as the sun, and with the help of the aurora, which may be said to occur on at least four days in ten during this season, the long absence of daylight does not appear such a hardship as might be supposed.

"Owing to the presence of the water of the strait, the temperature does not fall so low as it would many miles inland to the southward, the lowest recorded during the winter of 1895-6 being 45 degrees below zero, while 65 degrees was registered at Fort Chimo, Ungava Bay; nevertheless, the average winter temperatures are unpleasantly low, more especially at the western entrance, where in 1895 6, the means for the months December to March inclusive, were respectively 6 6, 24.4, 26.2, 11.0. At Cape Prince of Wales they were four or five degrees higher, and at Cape Chudleigh, the figures given for the same months are respectively, 4.8, 11.5, 10.4 and 0.1, showing a marked difference, this being doubtless owing to the contiguity of the Atlantic Ocean.

"Blizzards occur rather frequently, and then it is impossible to face the wind without fur clothing; on the other hand there are many calms when the cold is felt but little, and as a rule ordinary woollen clothing was found sufficiently warm. During the blizzards the snow packs very hard, and is easily cut into large bricks with which to build the Eskimos' houses, and large areas of exposed ground are often left completely bare. The snowfall generally is much greater in the strait than in Toronto.

"On Nov. 8th the ice on the lakes at Cape Prince of Wales was 20 inches in thickness, on Dec. 14 it was 28 inches, on the 27th, 27 inches, and on April 17th following it was 72½ inches. On May 3rd the sea ice in an almost land-locked bay was 66 inches, this being the maximum of the year."

EDITORIAL NOTES.

WHEN cake meets cake then comes the tug-of-war. Both Hon. Mr. Paterson, Minister of Customs, and his probable opponent in North Grey are manufacturers of biscuits.

THE butter exports from Montreal to Great Britain this season amount to over 9,500 packages, which is within a few hundred packages of double the amount shipped last year to the same date.

WHEN Mr. Laurier, as he probably will do this fall, pays a visit to England neither the Liberals nor the people of Canada at large will have any occasion to be ashamed of their Premier. He will do credit to both, and our English brethren will derive a new idea of Canada statesmanship.

THE people of the British empire are invited to celebrate on Oct, 21 next the ninety-first anniversay of Nelson's last and greatest naval victory, Trafalgar. The idea apparently is to have no special celebration at any one place, but for all British communities to celebrate at home, thus making the celebration universal throughout the empire.

SIR CHARLES TUPPER says that the Conservatives have now the strongest, the most compact and the most united Opposition that has sat on the Speaker's left in the House of Commons since Confederation. The ex-Premier is easily satisfied evidently. The Opposition is composed of Remedialists, anti-Remedialists, Tupperites and anti-Tupperites, quite the reverse of a compact body.

IT may be difficult, says the Globe, to stop all the avenues by which bonusing is carried on, but it will undoubtedly be to the advantage of the province as a whole if all municipalities were absolutely forbidden to give inducements other than exemption from taxation to industial establishments. If the bonus was utterly destroyed, industries would locate at the points best suited to their requirements, and not at those where "cash down" is expected to make up for natural disadvantages, and from which the factory generally removes in search of a new bonus after the expiry of the period set by the bonus during which it must be kept in operation.

THE paucity of protests entered by Conservatives is plausably explained by the Brantford Expositor. "Another reason is the want of funds. After each of the last four general elections money for contesting the seats of Liberal members was obtained by methods, the nature of which was revealed by the McGreevy investigation, the Caron charges, the Lachine bridge boodling, and the Goodwin claims. The Liberals had to raise their own funds for deposit and pay their own expenses. Now the Conservatives have to do this, and they have been so long unused to it that they find it very distasteful to meet the demands made on them. Liberals may now cheerfully contribute, as they have always done, knowing that their opponents must fight on fair terms and in the open.

UP to 1798 the taxation of Ireland never exceeded two millions per annum. It has now reached the enormous figure of twelve and a half million pounds. In the last fifty years the poll tax, that is the rates and taxes paid per head of the population, has risen from 17s. to 49s. per head. In the same time population has fallen to one half, and pauperism has doubled. On comparing the figures of Irish taxation during this century with those of England, we find that in the first sixteen years of the century imperial taxation was in England £4 13s. 4d. per head of the population, as against 14s. 6d. in Ireland, but by the end of the century imperial taxation in England has fallen to £2 4s. 10d. per head, while the amount paid in Ireland has risen to £1 8s. 10d.; thus in England imperial taxation has been halved, while in Ireland it has been doubled.

COMMENDABLE PROMPTITUDE.

A Resident of St. John, N.B., Makes a Successful Trial of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

St. John, N.B., Aug. 3—Mr. Robt. Moore, residing in Indiantown, a suburb of this city, has recently made what is allowed by all who are acquainted with the facts to be a most remarkable recovery. He has been a sufferer from a serious complaint of the kidneys for over seven years, and during that time has suffered excruciatingly. He has also suffered considerably in pocket, having paid large sums for medical advice. Quite recently he happened to read of the many cures effected by Dodd's Kidney Pills, and with commendable promptitude made a trial of them, with the result that after taking three boxes of the remedy he was entirely restored to health.

WATER WAS ROUGH

And Some of the Events Had to be Postponed

AT THE REGATTA IN BROCKVILLE.

Toronto Oarsmen Appear to Have Had Things Pretty Much Their Own Way —C.A.A.O. Annual Meeting— Robert J. Does Fast Work at Columbus Other Sports.

Brockville, Aug. 6.—When the time arrived for the opening of the C.A.A.O. regatta this afternoon between three and four thousand people were on the shore and in the stands erected for the occasion and occupying every point of vantage along the course, while the river was literally covered with steamers, yachts and small craft of every description. The steam launch Alaunl was placed at the disposal of the officials and press representatives by Mr. W. H. Comstock, and followed the races from start to finish.

The course was a mile and a half straight away up stream, finishing in front of the town, and for the first race the water was fair, but a light wind blowing from the west against the contestants combined with the current to make the course a very hard one.

The breeze gradually freshened during the afternoon, and when the senior singles were called the referee decided to postpone the balance of the events until 7 p. m., as a choppy sea was running and good sport was an impossibility. When 7 o'clock arrived the water was but little better and the second heat in the senior singles and the final in the intermediate were further postponed until 9 o'clock to-morrow morning. The program as far as carried out afforded some splendid racing, and the different events resulted as follows:

Junior singles, occupying positions in order from the shore S. Greenwood, Dons; R. Robinson, Torontos; W. Laing, Grand Trunks; W. Bright, Argonauts; H. W. Dixon, Argonauts. Betting—Dixon and Laing sold even favorites against the field.

All the scullers got away together a little after the gun, and Greenwood quickly took the lead, closely followed by Dixon and Laing and Bright were about on even terms a couple of lengths back. When a mile had been covered the positions were unchanged, except that Bright had moved up to third place. From that point on Dixon and Greenwood sparted continually, both rowing 36 strokes to the minute and striving hard to shake each other off, while Bright kept rowing a steady stroke of 28, about two lengths away, and when the leaders were within a couple of hundred yards from the finish Bright put on a remarkable spurt, passed both easily, and amidst a wild chorus of whistles and shouts took the lead and won a beautiful race by three lengths, with Greenwood half a length in front of Dixon. Time 14.58.

Junior doubles—Argonauts Hiron and Hoskin; Dons, Hogarth and Kennedy. Betting—Argonauts opened favorites in the pools, but at the close the Dons had been stalled in their place.

The crews hit the water together, rowing 30 strokes to the minute. When about 300 yards had been covered, Hoskin of the Argonauts missed a stroke and the Dons took the lead, which they held all the way, and at the mile led by three lengths, from which point they gained rapidly and finished easy winners by about eight lengths in 11.41.

Senior single, first heat—F. H. Thompson, Argonauts; E. Marsh, Vespers; J. O'Connor, Dons. Betting—no pools were sold for this heat.

From a good start the scullers traveled pretty evenly for the first quarter, when O'Connor drew a little in front, and at the mile had a length over Marsh, who was about half a length in front of Thompson. There the latter sparted and passed Marsh, but in doing so the nose of the latters boat put a hole in that of Thompson, and both scullers stopped for a few strokes. When they resumed rowing O'Connor had increased his lead by a couple of lengths, and Marsh gradually overhauled Thompson, whose boat was shipping considerable water as a result of the foul. Marsh continued to row a terrific stroke and pressed O'Conner hard, but the latter won by a narrow length in 13.01.

The foul was admitted by the umpire to have been committed by Marsh, who was in Thompson's water, but before the actual result of the foul had been made known to the officials they decided to award Marsh second place, on the grounds that the foul had not affected the result. Marsh and O'Connor consequently go into the finals to-morrow.

Brockville, Ont., Aug. 6.—The annual meeting of the Canadian Association of Amateur Oarsmen was held to-night at the Revere House, the headquarters of nearly all the visiting oarsmen. The president, Col. Revere, occupied the chair, and there were also present P. D. Crerar, vice-president; W. A. Littlejohn, secretary, and the following delegates: Messrs. Galt and Denison, Argonauts; Boyd, Dons; Meaney, Torontos; Mar and Jenkins, Grand Trunks of Montreal, and Buell and Loosemore, Brockville.

The reports of the secretary and treasurer were read and adopted, the latter showing a balance of $69. The election of officers resulted as follows:

President, P. D. Crerar, Hamilton; vice-president, George H. Gooderham, Dons; second vice-president, T. P. Galt, Argonauts; secretary, W. A. Littlejohn, Torontos; treasurer, James Hogg, Argonauts; committee, Messrs. Munta (Argonauts), Osborne (Hamilton), Jenkins (Montreal), Buell (Brockville). Mr. Littlejohn accepted the arduous position of secretary once more on the understanding that he be relieved of the duties of the office next year.

Several other items of importance, including the idea of changing the association's future races from the straightaway to those with a turn, were discussed and left over to the incoming executive. Votes of thanks were tendered the retiring officers of the association and to the members of the Brockville Rowing Club, Mayor Booth, and citizens of the town for the way in which the visitors had been received and taken care of.

CANADA WON AT ERIE.

Drew Away on the First Leg and Easily Outsailed the Fleet.

Erie, Pa., Aug. 6.—The annual regatta held by the Erie Yacht Association was an eminent success. The weather was perfect, and the attendance was a large one. The wind from the southwest blew a tenknot an hour breeze. The gun was fired at 10.30 and ten seconds later the Canadian cup defender, the Canada, crossed the line, and 1 minute later the Scorpion of Erie crossed. The yachts got away to windward, with every inch of canvas out and with spinnakers set. The car ferry Shenango and other craft carried the spectators. The Canadians was away most and Fife. Herreshoff and Watson were largely represented. A feature of the race was a dead heat between the Diana and Vivia, both Canadians.

In the 45-foot class Canada beat the Scorpion by 37 minutes. In the 40-foot class Diana won, beating the Vivia by a minute and 51 seconds.

In the 35-foot class, Eva, a Canadian boat, beat Miriam of Erie by 35 seconds. In the 30-foot class Hiawatha beat Myrna by 5 minutes and 4 seconds. The Hiawatha sailed away from her class, and with the time allowance was only beaten by the cup defender by 4 minutes.

The yachtsmen were banqueted this evening. The races to-morrow will be sailed in the bay course.

FAST MILES AT COLUMBUS.

Eleven Heats at an Average Speed of 2.07.— Robert J.'s Time.

Columbus, Aug. 6.—The free-for-all pace for which Robert J., Frank Agan and Rubenstein were entered drew an immense crowd to the Columbus Driving Park this afternoon. The weather and track conditions were perfect. In all eleven heats were shown and the average speed was 2.07¾. Never before were eleven heats paced and trotted successively in such fast time.

Robert J. paced the fourth and deciding heat of the free-for-all in 2.02¾, which is the fastest fourth heat ever paced. The quarters of this heat were made as follows: 30½, 1.01½, 1.31, 2.02¾.

In the first heat of the 2.16 pace Buford caught his feet in his hobbles as he was going for the start and fell backwards. The sulky was smashed and the driver, Hanson, narrowly escaped. The race was held while the horse was sent to the stable for a new sulky. Horse and driver returned and entered the heat, coming in a close second.

The four heats of the free-for-all pace were the fastest average four consecutive heats ever paced. The time made by Robert J. in the last heat of the free-for-all pace is within a quarter of a second of his fastest race record.

AWHEEL AT BUFFALO.

Canadian Riders Unplaced—Zeigler Won the Half Mile Open.

Buffalo, Aug. 6.—Buffalo's new bicycle ½-mile track was opened officially to-day with the first racing of the three days' meet. The Canadians did not fare very well in to-day's events. John Davidson ran second in the third trial heat, but was unplaced in the finals. E. D. Stevens, Buffalo, won; Longnecker, Buffalo, 2. Time 2.12 1-5.

There were 16 entries for the half-mile open professional, including F. W. Young, who ran unplaced in the second heat. Bald won the first heat in 1.00 3-5, and Werlick led Cooper to the tape in the second in 1.05 1-5. Bald, Zeiger, Newhouse, C. H. Callahan, Werick, Cooper, T. Butler and Hux were in the final. Bald's chain snapped and he went down under his wheel. All were called back, and after a delay of ten minutets a fresh start was made. Zeigler caught the pacemaker with Werick second. Bald was pocketed, and after a nerve-destroying finish Zeigler won, with Werick second and Butler third and Bald fourth, and Cooper was unplaced. Time 1.01.

The half-mile amateur handicap required four trial heats. Davidson at scratch in the fourth was beaten out by Horan (10 yards), Higgins (30 yards). In the final C. Y. Horan won, Higgins 2, De Temple 3 (all are Buffalo men). Time 1.02 1-5.

The two-mile handicap, professional, was the last event of the day. F. W. Young had 200 yards, but ran unplaced. Ray Macdonald and Tom Butler were scratch men, but were not in it. C. H. Callahan (140 yards) won, L. A. Callahan (110 yards) 2, E. F. Leonert 3. Time 4.21 1-5.

ITS FAME SPREADING.

A New Remedy in General Use in Manitoba and the Northwest.

WINNIPEG, July 27th—The effects of the regular wave of sickness which sweeps over this portion of the Dominion in the spring are noticeable in the increasing amount of the druggists' sales. There has been quite a run on the kidney remedy now so well known under the name of Dodd's Kidney Pills. The recovery from Bright's disease of Mr. Arthur Coley, of Somerset, through their use, an account of which appeared in the papers, gave a considerable impetus to the sale, and the remedy has become indispensable in many Manitoba households, its fame having penetrated into the remotest parts of the province and Northwest Territories.

Mr. Thos. Errett, Port Burwell, Ont., says: "I have been weak and miserable two years. I took Miller's Compound Iron Pills and never felt better than I do now."

THE FAMILY AWAY,

Yet the Residence of Henry Jamerson at St. Catharines and Its Contents Were Totally Destroyed by Fire.

St. Catharines, Ont., Aug. 6.—About 2.30 o'clock this morning fire was discovered at the residence of Mr. Henry James, in Haynes-avenue. The fire department responded with alacrity, but the flames had made good headway by the time they arrived. The blaze quickly enveloped the house, and though the fire appeared to have started in the rear part of the house it spread quickly to the front. The family of Mr. James are away at the present time in Goderich, and the house was locked up. Only a few articles of furniture were taken out of the parlor. The house was owned by Mr. Rogers of Homer. It was almost completely destroyed, and the contents are a total loss. No explanation is given as to the cause of the fire.

"Mamma, was that a sugar-plum you just gave me?" asked little Mabel. "No, dear, it was one of Dr. Ayer's Pills." "Please, may I have another?" "Not now, dear, one of those nice pills is all you need at present, because every dose is effective."

He was in the shop at the time of the storm, the lightning striking the chimney and passing down into the shop, severely stunned Mr. Griffin, who was rendered unconscious for some time.

AN HOUR WITH SHAKSPERE

Mr. Frank McNaughton's Clever Lecture in Oddfellow Hall.

Last night a very entertaining evening was spent in Oddfellow Hall, when Mr. Frank McNaughton, an old Peterborough boy, now resident in Cleveland, gave a clever and instructive lecture upon Shakspere. In spite of the exceedingly warm weather there was a large audience who listened with closest attention to the lecture of the evening.

Mr. Wm. Cowie occupied the chair and suitably introduced the lecturer, who began by giving a simple but most interesting sketch of the life of Shakspere, and paid an eloquent tribute to the universality and inclusiveness of his genius. His writings touched every point of human passion and aspiration. Some time was given to a clever disproof of the theory that Sir Francis Bacon was the author of Shakspere's plays, accompanied by a minute analysis of the great dramatist's works. The beauty of Shakspere's thoughts, his fidelity to nature, etc., were dwelt upon and illustrated by well chosen quotations, recited without any ambitious efforts at dramatic heroics, but so spoken as to give the full force of the spirit and beauty of the extract. Of course such a subject as Shakspere is inexhaustible, but the clever young lecturer showed admirable taste in selecting the salient points and much skill in their arrangement and logical sequence, and in the selection of simple but effective language in their expression. The treatment of the subject is largely original and gives evidence that a great deal of patient and intelligent study has been employed, while it is sufficiently of a popular character to secure the attention of other than enthusiasts on Shakspere. A pleasing feature of the lecture and one not usually dealt with was the development of the religious sympathies of Shakspere, and the inconsistency of Ingersoll, the agnostic, who, while professing to be a great admirer of the Bard of Avon, refuses credence to those great religious truths in which Shakspere was a firm believer. Altogether the lecture was a very entertaining and instructive one, and with continued study, which is certain to be given, Mr. McNaughton will make a great mark in the lecture field. As it is, he gives a very pleasing and finished entertainment, that is at the same elevating and diverting. THE EXAMINER has great confidence in predicting the bright future for "Frank," which it cordially wishes him.

A cordial vote of thanks, moved by Dr. Pigeon, was tendered the lecturer and suitably acknowledged.

During the evening Mr. Everett Hall and Miss Florence Hall contributed much appreciated musical selections.

THE CANOE CAMP

Of the American Canoe Association to Meet at Grindstone Island.

The canoeing interests of the North American continent will in a few days be centered in the annual camp of the American Canoe Association, which meets at Grindstone Island, six miles from Gananoque, in American territory, for two weeks beginning on Aug. 13th.

The interest in the general meet of this Association is increasing year by year and thousands of canoeists are hustling and straining every effort to be present at camp, and many of the members in Peterborough are preparing to leave for the annual outing.

Next year it is the privilege of the Northern Division of the Association, which comprises all Canada to hold the general meet in their territory, and as it is a long time since the camp has been held in Peterborough waters. It would be a splendid idea if the association could be induced to hold their camp on some of our northern lakes, either Stony or Pigeon. It would serve two purposes. First, it would bring a large number of the most desirable class of canoeists to our neighbourhood, and secondly it would greatly revive the interest in canoeing in our midst, it having been on the decline now for the last few years. A number of the members who will likely go from here should be interviewed at once in order to get them to advance Peterborough's advantageous facilities for holding the camp meeting, and if this is done we feel sure, with the support we would receive from Toronto and neighbouring clubs, that the centre of the Canadian canoe industry will be decidedly in evidence.

Never Cuts the Performance.

It is the custom with many shows to cut the night performance, that is, omit many of the acts, in order to get through early and hasten the tearing down and departure for the next town. The Great Wallace Show guarantees never to do this. Mr. Wallace is a most conscientious showman; he asserts that money received at night is worth as much on the dollar as the day money, and that his patrons are entitled to just as much for it; he maintains that he has no right to give them any less. Plenty of men are employed to tear down rapidly enough when the show is out, without having to pull the canvas down on the heads of the spectators. At Peterborough on Aug. 10.

ROUGH LACROSSE IN PORT HOPE.

THE PETERBOROUGHS ATTACKED BY THE SPECTATORS.

The Roughest Game in Which the Boys Ever Participated—Three Hundred Enthusiasts Go Down on a Special Train to See the Game.

There has never been any love lost between Peterborough and Port Hope, but the climax was reached yesterday when the local lacrosse team went to Port Hope and were forced to leave the field before the conclusion of the game on account of the rough treatment meted out to them by the players, which was supplemented by the continuous interference of the spectators. The referee was a Mr. Piercy, of Cobourg, and what he doesn't know about lacrosse would fill a very large book; at least, it is hoped so, as it is hardly probable that he was wilfully blind to the many transgressions of the rules made by Port Hope. Throughout the entire game the despicable was freely resorted to by the Ontarios in a vain effort to obtain by foul means what they never could expect to obtain any other way. The slugging was furious at times, but it was of little use for a Peterborough man to resent it, as the referee was too obviously biassed in his decisions to rectify any grievances of this nature.

Several of the boys from town were in Port Hope the evening before the game to see how the land lay, and by the expressions used they could easily gather that it would be useless for the Peterboroughs to expect a bloodless victory if they won the match. The referee was stated to be "fixed," and Peterborough would need the biggest of excursion crowds to help the northern players to win the match. In fact, as the boys put it, "nothing but scrap was talked in Port Hope all the day before." Milner, of the disbanded Torontos, was and proved a fast man on the home division, but Brown and Lynch played rings around him and he did not once have an opportunity of taking a shot on the flags as either of these men were on him in a twinkling if the ball came that way.

The two teams lined up in the following order:

PETERBOROUGH.		PORT HOPE.
Dobbia	goal	L Crowhurst
Brown	point	T Hayden
Mein	cover point	Raymond
Lynch	1st defence	Richardson
Borland	2nd defence	R Hayden
King	3rd defence	Marrin
Mollonough	centre	Tutton
Phelan	3rd home	Burt
Rubidge	2nd home	Milner
Lipsett	1st home	F Tutton
McCabe	outside home	Coleman
Hickey	inside home	Weir
Reilly	field captain	Hoey
Rutherford	umpire	Rogers

Mr. Piercy, of Cobourg, Referee.

THE BALL WAS FACED

at ten minutes to four and the beautiful combination work of the Peterborough's at once went into operation and for the first three minutes the attack on the Port Hope flags was furious, McCabe putting in several fast shots on goal which were cleverly stopped. Port Hope drew a long breath as their goal was finally relieved, but the ball never got further up the field than Borland, who quickly passed to Phelan, who ran in and tipped the ball to McCabe, who scored the first and only game of the day for Peterborough. Time, 3½ minutes.

The second game started out fast and some very neat passing was done by both teams. First the ball was carried in on Port Hope's flags, then it travelled up the field into Peterborough territory, where Mein secured it and sent it travelling away from the flags.

A LONG THROW

from the Port Hope defense was beautifully caught by Brown and the ball was quickly put out of harm's way. The checking on both sides was very close and fast and some good lacrosse was witnessed. The ball suddenly came up the field from Port Hope territory and was neatly taken by Lynch, who, however, when he was distancing his check was brought to the ground by that player, who, in his chagrin at losing the ball, wound his stick around Lynch's legs. The trip was one which called for a hiss even from the Port Hopers, but the referee was not noticing such things. It was at this juncture that Port Hope apparently gave up all hope of winning the game, as the Peterboroughs were now thoroughly warmed up to their work and

WERE PLAYING FAULTLESSLY.

The rough play was started by Weir, of the Port Hopes, whose dastardly style of play on the lacrosse field is too well known throughout the district to need enlarging upon. Weir is the man who makes the boast that his check generally has to be carried from the field before the game is over, so in watching him Chocky Mein had no snap. Both were after the ball, Weir slightly in the lead, when he turned and in order to prevent Mein from pressing him too closely after he picked up the ball, he gave that player a crack in the ribs with his stick. The referee should have stepped in just here but he didn't. However, he did come up just in time to see Weir lose his temper as both men were struggling for the ball, and dropping his stick grappled with Mein. The assault was one of which ever occurred on a lacrosse field and was the sign for general hostilities. Port Hope was thirsting for gore and as Peterborough is not noted for allowing itself to be run upon, a free fight ensued, and for fifteen or twenty minutes the scene was such that dozens of ladies betook themselves from the grounds in disgust. If a Peterborough man opened his mouth to venture an opinion half a dozen Port Hopers were around him in an instant to endeavour to find an excuse to attack him.

The referee ruled Mein off for the rest of that game, presumably to save him from Weir, as the Peterborough man was in no way to blame for the trouble. Shortly after the game was resumed it was but a few minutes before Weir committed another outrage, when he drew off with his stick when the ball was not within fifty feet of either man. Weir apologised for the act, but this was sufficient in itself to incriminate him, but once again the referee passed the matter over. Shortly after this Weir strained his knee and had to go off, Hickey going off with him. In a scuffle for the ball a few minutes later Weir, although supposed to be off, jumped in and used his body with good effect. During all this time fully a score of fights had taken place and the better class of spectators had all withdrawn from the field. Affairs were brought to a climax when Richardson, of Port Hope, stole up behind Lipsett and, in order to settle some old grudge, brought him to the ground by a fearful blow on the head with his stick, laying open the scalp for several inches. This was too much for Peterborough and they resolved to leave the field before any of the players received a permanent injury. In consequence of this action the referee awarded the match to Port Hope, but stated his intention of relating the circumstances under which he gave his decision. The game will be protested on the ground that Port Hope played a man with no certificate.

NOTES.

It would be a good idea if Port Hope and Peterborough could play off the tie in Toronto, where fair play would be assured both teams.

Some of Port Hope's ladies took a lively interest in the game. So lively indeed that two of them inflicted quite a chastisement with their parasols on one of our well known young canoe builders, when he got too enthusiastic over the Peterborough team.

Between two and three hundred from town went to Port Hope on the special train to witness the match, and fully a thousand were at the station to meet the returning train and learn the story of the game.

It is understood that an affidavit will be forwarded to the C.L.A. headquarters, proving that Piercy, the Cobourg referee, made a remark to the effect that he intended to "soak" Peterborough in his decisions. He did it all right enough.

Brown and Lynch are undoubtedly two of the fastest defense men to be picked up on any C.L.A. field to-day. Their work yesterday was grand. Dobbin did not have a stop to make and only had the ball on his stick once during the entire game.

Phelan played a clean fast game, and handled his stick splendidly. Although he has not been in town to have an opportunity of practicing for several weeks.

Jack McCabe is blossoming out into a very fast young player. He can work his stick in a smaller space than any man in the district.

Rubidge and Lipsett of course played their usual star game, and their passing was much admired.

WEDDING BELLS.

We clip the following from the Orillia Times:

A quiet but pretty wedding took place in the Methodist church, Orillia, on Wednesday, 29th ult., when Alma, the youngest daughter of Mr. John Hammond, Coldwater street, was married to Mr. Stanley Hendren, of Norwood. Rev. W. R. Barker performed the ceremony, Miss Maud Hammond, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and Mr. Fred Hendren, groomsman. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful presents from her numerous friends. The happy couple left for their home in Norwood, on the 4.20 train.

Mr. Hendren is well known and has many friends in Peterborough.

Good News Travels as Fast as Bad.

News spreads quickly, and when a good thing is found its merits are soon learned by everyone far or near. This accounts for the fast growing popularity of Fibre Chamois as an interlining which makes outdoor work possible in any weather. The first man who realized its wind and rain proof warmth quickly told his friends so that they too might enjoy this inexpensive comfort. It might seem impossible that this fabric, so light in weight and without bulk, should furnish so much healthful warmth; but when you realise that its merit lies in being a complete non-conductor of heat or cold, you understand why a layer of it through your clothing gives such warmth; it not only keeps out all cold, but keeps in the natural heat of the body.

The Most Economical ..House Warmer

The "Kelsey" Corrugated Warm Air Generator.

Any ordinary Hot Air Furnace will produce heat if you will only supply enough fuel. The "Kelsey" has several special and valuable features but most important is that it will give more heat with less fuel and is the most durable heater made.

The "Kelsey" fire pot being constructed of several upright, tubular, corrugated, cast iron sections (see cut) around which the fire passes and up through which the cold air passes while being heated, and this entire section being wrapped with a heavy steel casing which becomes heated by the fire striking it when passing down outside of upright sections towards smoke pipe, it in turn warms the air that passes up between this steel casing and the galvanized iron casing, this explains why the "Kelsey" has three times more radiating surface and warm air capacity than an ordinary Furnace. The "Kelsey" heats every room evenly, wheresoever located, with a nice, mild, healthful warm air that will not injure your furniture.

The "Kelsey" will heat rooms 60 feet distant.

The "Kelsey" does not heat your cellar.

The "Kelsey" is absolutely gas and dust proof.

August Prices.

August is the last month of Summer—the end of the clearing-out season when Summer Goods must give way to Fall Stocks. We cannot afford to carry over one season's goods to the next. We must keep a perennial freshness about our store. For these reasons, you can understand how it comes that you can buy anything in our summer lines just now with very little consideration for what it cost us. Take Wall Paper for instance. An ordinary Wall Paper advertisement in August is about as unlooked for as snow in August. People have almost stopped buying and trade is at low-water mark. But there's a way to stimulate activity even in Wall Paper, and by almost giving away the goods, and doing it agreeably, we think we can crowd this store with buyers during this last of the summer months.

Wall Paper.

"What's the matter" with papering the home now instead of waiting until fall? Many families have closed up their homes and are away summering, giving a better chance for the work to be better done and without confusion and discomfort. What a pleasure it would be to return to the brightness of the newly prepared home. Now's the time! when Wall Paper can be bought for half the price it will be in the fall and when it costs less to put it on.

A WHITBY GOLDEN WEDDING.

Fiftieth Anniversary of the Wedding of the Parents of Mr. Wm. Madill, Druggist, Town.

On Tuesday last the residence of Mr. and Mrs. James Madill, of Whitby, was the scene of an unusual festivity, the occasion being, the Chronicle says, the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding day. The happy couple, surrounded by children and grandchildren to the number of twenty-five, all giving unmistakable evidence of health and prosperity, had every reason to smile "contented and serene." While a kind providence has dealt most liberally with Mr. and Mrs. Madill, yet they have not been without their griefs and sorrows, and the angel of death has been permitted twice to enter their peaceful home and to carry off two of their beloved daughters. The beautifully festooned and brilliantly lighted dining room, with its grandly decorated tables surrounded by thirty-six happy guests, presented a "wedding breakfast scene" most pleasing to behold. The Rev. Mr. Abraham was the presiding genius and around the festive board sat the bride and groom, Mrs. Abraham, Mrs. Dr. Gunn, Mrs. Wm. Madill, sr., Mr. and Mrs. Horden and child, Miss Ketchen, Mr., Mrs. and Miss Nelson, Mr. Alex. Fraser and Miss Katie, and the following children and grandchildren: — Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Gadsby and son George, of Ceredo, West Virginia; Mr. Thos. Madill, D. and L. R. official, Syracuse, N.Y., wife and two children, Maggie and Ernest; Mr. John Madill, merchant, Hamilton, wife and daughter, Edna; Mr. Wm. Madill, druggist, Peterborough, wife and son, Stanley; Miss Mary Madill, Whitby; Mr. James Madill, clerk, and wife, Toronto; Mr. Benjamin Madill, Whitby, wife and daughter, Louie; Mr. Walter Madill, druggist, Toronto, wife and son, Ross, with baby Olga.

After ample justice had been done to the wedding breakfast the Rev. Mr. Abraham took charge of the toast list and in his felicitous way submitted the following: "The ancient bridegroom and bride," which was responded to by Mr. Jas. Madill, sr., who told, amidst the blushes of the bride and much to the amusement of the guests, how courtship, love and marriage were carried on half a century ago. Mr. and Mrs. Madill had been children together in their native country, Ireland, the former coming to this country with his parents and settling in Pickering in '37, and the latter, whose maiden name was Finney, coming in '45, and settling in Manvers. Mr. Madill did not permit his intended to remain long in this country before making her his bride, fearing no doubt that some sturdy Canadian might steal his Irish beauty and carry her off to bring sunshine and gladness to some backwoods home. The Rev. Mr. Lambie, Old Kirk minister, performed the requisite ceremony in '46, and Mr. Madill has been the happiest of men ever since. By sturdy industry and strict integrity Mr. and Mrs. Madill were enabled to raise and liberally educate a large family and lay by a competency for old age. In '73 they moved into town since which time by their unselfish devotion to all good works they have continuously added to their large circle of friends many of whom sent letters of congratulation accompanied by substantial tokens of esteem.

Various other toasts were responded to by members of the family, Mr. Wm. Madill, town, responding to the toast of "the grand children." Among the many tokens of esteem presented by the children and others was the present of a pair of gold spectacles by the Whitby W.C.T.U.

Mr. and Mrs. Mein of Ashburnham have returned home early in the week with Dr. Moffat of Norwood.

The Belleville Intelligencer says: Miss Eva Moore, Peterborough, is the guest of her uncle, Mr. S. A. Moore."

Mr. Hiram A. Calvin, ex-M.P. for Frontenac, with his two sons, passed through to-day on his way to join his daughter, Miss Calvin, at the Lakes.

The East Hastings Herald, of Tweed, says:—Mr. Louis Potvin, of Peterborough, is spending a few days in town, the guest of Mr. W. B. Huyck.

The Port Hope Guide says:—Fred. Ferguson, of Peterborough, son of the late W. B. Ferguson, of the Midland Railway, we noticed in town to-day.

Miss Horton, of Watertown, N.Y., who spent several months last summer as the guest of Mrs. Cooney, Ashburnham, is again spending a few weeks here.

Mr. Andrew Laidlaw has returned after spending a pleasant holiday in Montreal, where he had the pleasure of witnessing the great Cornwall Shamrock match.

Mr. D. H. Moore's family left for their Stony Lake cottage yesterday. Mr. Moore is not at present able to get away from his duties in connection with the local office of the Crown Lands Department.

Rev. W. R. Young left yesterday for his holidays and deciding not to go to Kingston on account of the heat, repaired to Mr. B. Shortly's cottage at Stony Lake where he will be joined next week by Mrs. Young.

Mr. Paul Stoeving has been spending a day or so with Rev. J. C. Davidson. Mrs. Stoeving arrives in town from Montreal to-day, when both will become guests at the residence of the latter's father, Mr. Wm. Lech, Hunter street.

Mr. Walter English has been asked to officiate as one of the judges of the canoe racing, which is one of the features of the big Belleville regatta this month. Walter ought to give good satisfaction as he is well posted on all that pertains to canoeing.

Mr. Dan Bolton, of Toledo, son of Mr. Michael Bolton, Park street, south, is home on a summer vacation. Dan is an "honour graduate" of the EXAMINER office, which partly accounts for the fact that the Toledo printers don't care to part with him longer than a few weeks once a year.

WESTLAKES LIVERY STABLES.

Commodious Stables and Barns—Well-Equipped, Well-Lighted, and Well-Ventilated Premises—Comfort and Good Health for Horses—Fitted with Modern Improvements.

Mr. Charles Westlake has moved into his new and commodious livery stables, which have just been completed for him on Water street.

These fine stable premises occupy a two-story brick building 33x106 feet, erected on the site of the old wooden structure which stood a short distance north of the post office. The premises have been laid out with good judgment, are well lighted and ventilated, and equipped with all the modern accessories of the day. The horse stables are situated back of the street, in the rear portion of the building. There are altogether sixteen single horse stalls and two box stalls fitted up with a view to the comfort, cleanliness and health of the horses. In the centre of the stall section, a large ventilating shaft is built up through the roof connecting with the outer air, for carrying off all foul odors that arise. Underneath the stalls an efficient system of drainage is introduced which will connect with the newly constructed sewer on Water street. To the left of the main entrance a smart business-like office is being fitted up, with a convenient harness room alongside. To the right of the entrance is the wash rack, where any size vehicle can be placed and thoroughly washed without any slopping, the surplus water being carried off by underground water pipes leading into the main sewer. The livery rigs occupy the middle portion of the barn and are conveniently arranged on both sides, making an effective display of vehicles, easy of selection. In both front and rear of the ground floor water hydrants with handy connections are made to be used for any of the many purposes necessary in a first-class livery barn. The walls and ceilings have all received a heavy coat of whitewash, presenting a clean and neat appearance. Electric light wires have been run through the whole building, and nothing seems to be wanting for securing good health, cleanliness and convenience for horses and attendants.

The second story gives abundant room for a huge hay loft, storeroom and hostler's quarters. From this story separate shafts for conveying oats, bran and other feed to the stall boxes below are arranged, and numerous other modern conveniences introduced.

The entire outfit is very complete and well arranged and is a credit to Mr. Westlake's enterprise and ingenuity.

These stables being off the main line of the street cars and in close proximity to the post office, will, no doubt, be found very convenient to the public. The popular hostler, Mr. Walter Head, continues to give the best of attention to the care of horses and rigs and is obliging and painstaking to all. Mr. Westlake's telephone is No. 56, as usual, and he desires the public kindly to remember this. The Telephone Company kindly arranged to have him continue the same telephone call which he has always used in the business while he occupied the old barn on Chambers street.

NEWS NUGGETS.

Paragraphs Picked Up and Pencilled for Public Perusal.

—The "insulting language" case at the police court was dismissed this morning.

—There was a heavy rainfall at Myrtle last night, but it didn't get as far as Peterborough.

—The Hockey Club's Idyl Wyld excursion yesterday was postponed on account of the lacrosse excursion to Port Hope.

—The Norwood Register says: Mr. Jas. Monegraw, from Peterborough, has leased the Queen's hotel on Colborne street and will take possession at once.

—Don't stay away from the Great Wallace show because the weather looks threatening. Its canvas is rain proof and will shed water for hours. Aug. 10.

—Fishing poles of all kinds, fishing tackle, tennis balls and tennis racquets, lacrosse and baseball goods, cheapest place in town, at Salisbury's Bookstore. d —A magnificent display of Northern Lights was to be seen in the heavens last night. About nine o'clock a broad belt of light extended from the eastern to the western horizon across the zenith. The unusual display was admired by all who witnessed it.

—The Provincial Board of Health is investigating a new kind of cattle disease which seems to be quite prevalent and is becoming serious. It is a disease of the eye, and if not attended to at once, ends in permanent blindness and in some cases has resulted in death.

—Messrs. George Williams and John Williams and family are two new additions to the population of Peterborough. They arrived here on Monday morning from London, Eng. Mr. George Williams is a stationary engineer, having just returned from Egypt, where he was engaged in erecting large buildings for the manufacture of artificial ice. He is at present conducting a grocery store at the corner of King and George streets.

—An exchange tells a story of a boy who went to market with a sack of rabbits and lingered around town all day. When asked by his mother why he had not sold the rabbits, he said no one had asked what was in the sack. How many merchants are like this boy? They have plenty of goods for sale, but fail to tell the people "what is in the sack." If you expect to sell goods in this day and age of the world, you must open your sack and keep shouting the merits of your stock in trade.

SPURIOUS TEA.

A Large Consignment Rejected in New York—A Possibility That it May be Brought Into Canada—A Delicious Tea.

In an interview with the "Salada" Ceylon Tea Company, in reference to an article which appeared in the New York Tribune of recent date about the refusal of a very large lot of low grade China teas at that port, and the report that these teas were likely to try for entry at Montreal, or some other Canadian port of entry, Mr. Larkin said:—"Well, we have been telling the people of Canada for years back that they should cease entirely the drinking of the spurious teas, or, if not spurious, at least the largely adulterated and coloured teas of China and Japan, when they can so easily get in these days the cleanly prepared and thoroughly pure teas of Ceylon and India. Teas in these countries are grown and prepared under the supervision of Englishmen, and no adulteration nor any colouring matter ever finds its way into them, and for this, and many other reasons, they are known to be much healthier to drink. After teas in Ceylon and India are packed they are never touched after by the hand, and not even the grocer can get at them. They are fired by machinery, and packed into sealed lead packets, thereby retaining all their delicious aroma until they go into the consumer's teapot; hence the wonderful popularity that "Salada" Ceylon tea has gained during the last few years. This popularity extends now from Victoria to Halifax, and in the border towns of Buffalo, Detroit and Rochester. In one shipment last week the "Salada" Ceylon Tea Company consigned over forty chests of this delicious tea to Buffalo.—Toronto Globe.

THE WHEEL.

Princess Maud must certainly be the envy of all those of her sex whose envy has been untempted by her other good fortune when they learn that among the presents at her wedding were not less than 48 bicycles. This at least is the figure given in a London letter. It is known that Princess Maud is an enthusiastic wheelwoman. There were wheels of almost every class, make and of the most varying constructions and executions, some adorned with engravings and others with inscriptions. Besides the wheels, the Princess was the recipient of several dozen motor carriages, some driven by steam, others by petroleum motors, compressed air and electricity. Since the exhibition of wedding presents is still fashionable in aristocratic England, the show of Princess Maud's wedding gifts must have looked very much like a cycle show or an exhibition of motor carriages.

Korns. Korns.

There are more than one sort of korns. Some korn is planted in the ground and the other sort don't need planting; they grow quite naturally on men's toes and don't need hoeing. This kind of korn has two sorts—one gentle or tender like until Bill Jones steps on your foot, when it gets boiling and swears like everything; the other is hard headed and makes a row all the time, especially when your boots are on. I don't like korns and use the extracting medicine, Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor, which removes them painlessly in twenty-four hours.

NOT THE CASE HERE.

People sometimes eye suspiciously the tempting bologna sausage when thoughts of slain dogs and other fresh meat present themselves; and if everything that is said about cheese is true, it becomes a question whether the composition of one is not occasionally flavoured as highly as the other. It has been reported of a certain farmer that lately the favourite cat of the family fell into the milk can unobserved by anyone, but the little fellow was fished out when nearing its last gasp, and saved from a milk and watery grave. An hour afterwards the seasoned milk was emptied into the cheese factory vats. Another instance is recorded which occurred in Seymour township. A can of milk was set to cool in a spring of water on the premises, and a little pig happened along and stumbled into it. He was rescued, but shortly afterwards another pig dropped in and was drowned. The milk that morning formed part of the cheese which was turned out later in the day at the factory in the neighbourhood.—Campbellford Herald.

SEEMS sometimes as if the world were all wrong. Seems as if all the things we like disagree with us, and all the things we don't like, agree with us. Dyspepsia lurks in most of the good things we eat, and indigestion follows the gratification of appetite. Of course, it isn't Nature's fault. Nature does the best she can, and if a man will only help her a little bit at the right time, he may eat what he likes and as much as he likes. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are for people who are troubled with indigestion. Particularly for those in whom it manifests itself in the form of constipation. The "Pellets" are quick and easy in their action. They are in perfect harmony with Nature. They effect a permanent cure. You need take them regularly only a little while. After that, use them occasionally when you need them—when you have eaten something that disagrees with you. They are not violent in their effect, do not derange the system at all, and may be taken just as freely as you would take water or any other necessity of life. Once used they are always in favor. You can get the "Pellets" at any drug store. If you are careless enough to let an unscrupulous druggist sell you something on which he makes more money, it is your own fault if you do not get well.

A GREAT BOOK —ABSOLUTELY— GIVEN AWAY!

Few books printed in the English language have reached so great a sale as has Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. It is written simply and concisely, and is indexed so that reference to it is made easily and quickly. Over 680,000 copies have been sold at the regular price of $1.50. The profits on this enormous sale enable the publishers to distribute 500,000 copies absolutely FREE. THE BICYCLE CHARACTER.

The Wheel Will Differentiate Our Aftercomers From Us.

According to a report from a neighboring town "the people have gone bicycle mad, and a pedestrian is rarely seen unless it is some one pushing a punctured wheel to one of the numerous repair shops."

Of course there is some humorous exaggeration in this, but it is clearly evident that the time is not far off when the use of the wheel will be almost universal, and it is equally evident that national character must be deeply affected by it.

If there is any marked tendency to excess in the character of a wheelman, his wheel is clips it at once. He will soon find himself riding ten miles where he intended to ride only five, and before long a hundred where he did not expect to exceed twenty five. His tendency to haste, if he has it, will also be developed and exaggerated. The suburban roads yesterday were thronged with bicyclers, many of them riding at their utmost speed, straining every muscle, as if it were a matter of life and death to pass everything else on the road.

The man who develops this character on a bicycle will not change it when he dismounts. There was too much of it in this country before wheels were invented. Fortunately bicycle riding must force the development of counteracting traits not less marked. The man who rides along a thoroughfare thronged with other riders as well as with horsemen and vehicles will have forced on him sooner or later the absolute need of caution, of coolness, of never relaxing presence of mind. It is only a question of time when those who attempt to ride in the streets of a city without these qualities will be killed or maimed and they are essential to riding everywhere. So that the general use of the bicycle must develop them in a high degree.

As the horse made the difference between the character of cavalier and pedestrian peoples, so the wheel will differentiate our aftercomers from us. It is to be hoped that it will cure them of our habit of rushing and of recklessness, but the chances are that it will not. It may even make it worse, if that be possible.—New York World.

Law and Justice.

The late lord chief justice of England used to tell his friends this anecdote at his own expense:

Driving in his coupe toward his court one morning, an accident happened to it at Grosvenor Square. Fearing he would be belated, he called a nearby cab from the street rank, and bade the Jehu drive him as rapidly as possible to the Courts of Justice.

"And where be they?"

"What! a London cabby and don't know where the law courts are at old Temple Bar?"

"Oh, the law courts, is it? But you said Courts of Justice."

On his way to the judicial seat the chief saw at once that a line was drawn in the common mind between law and justice. As if, for instance, while one was dispensed, the other was dispensed with.—Green Bag.

FOUND A JEWEL.

An Important Find by a Brockville Jeweller.

Mr. Joseph Lane, the well-known jeweller of Brockville, says: "For some years I have suffered with severe pains in my back and sides and flashes of heat between my shoulders. I had a tired, wornout feeling.

"The numerous medicines that I took gave me very little relief. Hearing of Doan's Kidney Pills I thought I would try a box, and got one at Curry's drugstore.

"After the first two or three doses I felt much relieved, and the longer I took them the greater the change for the better in my condition. I am much better in every respect and recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to all sufferers from kidney trouble as the best remedy I know of."

ONE HONEST MAN.

DEAR EDITOR:—Please inform your readers, that if written to confidentially I will mail, in a sealed letter, particulars of a genuine, honest home cure, by which I was permanently restored to health and manly vigor after years of suffering from nervous debility, sexual weakness, night losses and weak, shrunken parts. I was robbed and swindled by the quacks until I nearly lost faith in mankind, but thank heaven, I am now well, vigorous and strong and wish to make this certain means of cure known to all sufferers. I have nothing to sell and want no money, but being a firm believer in the universal brotherhood of man, I am desirous of helping the unfortunate to regain their health and happiness. I promise you perfect secrecy and as I do not wish to expose myself either, please address, simply: P. O. Box 388, London, Ont.

He Fooled the Hens.

Miles Gearhart's hens would not hatch, and that being his only way of incubating, he was quite at loss to know how to increase his stock of poultry. Finally he struck on rather a unique plan with flattering results. Selecting the biddies that did not lay and were inclined to hatch he made them a close fitting cap of heavy cloth, which completely blindfolded them and was impossible to shake off. When a chicken is blindfolded it will squat down and stay there. Thus reasoning, Miles altogether has set five hens, each day liberating them for food and exercise. To date three hens have brought out all the eggs entrusted to them except three and are as proud of their families as though they voluntarily contracted them.—Pittsburg Commercial-Gazette.

HOW THE SUN LIFE

FULFILS ITS PROMISES.

A Matured 10 Year Endowment.

Profits Paid by the SUN 21 per. cent more than the Estimates.

The following letter, which speak for itself, was received by the undersigned this morning from a gentleman in Brockville, whose ten year endowment which he held in the Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada matured last week and was paid him. The Sun is modest in promises but UNEQUALLED IN RESULTS. The public are benefitted by results, not by promises unfulfilled

BROCKVILLE, November 7th, 1895.

W. H. HILL, Mgr. Central Ontario Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada, Peterborough, Ontario:—

DEAR SIR,—I should have acknowledged the receipt of yours enclosing cheque for endowment policy No. 12,871 before, only I wanted to write something more than a mere receipt. I am pleased to hear of the continued prosperity of the "SUN" and it speaks well for your Company when the profits are greater (by 21 per cent.) than you as the Company's representative promised or rather estimated, as was the case with this policy.

I hope your Company will continue to prosper and I often regret that I do not carry more Insurance than I am doing. I might have carried twice as much as I do when at Minden without any great effort, still what little I do carry I feel is perfectly safe being in the "SUN."

I must thank you for your promptness and kindness regarding this policy just settled. I hope we will both be alive and well when the new one I now hold will be due in 1905 and assuring you of very best wishes, I remain,

Yours Sincerely,
(Signed) F. R. C.

The above voluntary testimonial is significant and shows in a most practical way the SUN'S standing as a profit paying institution.

She Has Ever Known. Words of Praise from a New York Lady for

AYER'S PILLS

"I would like to add my testimony to that of others who have used Ayer's Pills, and to say that I have taken them for many years, and always derived the best results from their use. For stomach and liver troubles, and for the cure of headache caused by these derangements, Ayer's Pills cannot be equaled.

When my friends ask me what is the best remedy for disorders of the stomach, liver, or bowels, my invariable answer is, Ayer's Pills. Taken in season, they will break up a cold, prevent la grippe, check fever, and regulate the digestive organs. They are easy to take, and are, indeed, the best all-round family medicine I have ever known."—Mrs. MAY JOHNSON, 368 Rider Avenue, New York City.

AYER'S PILLS

Highest Honors at World's Fair.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla Cures all Blood Disorders.

Hon. J. J. Ingalls' Poetic Tribute to This Beneficent Natural Covering.

Next in importanceto the divine profusion of water, light and air, those three physical facts which render existence possible, may be reckoned the universal beneficence of grass. Lying in the sunshine among the buttercups and dandelions of May, scarcely higher in intelligence than those minute tenants of that mimic wilderness, our earliest recollections are of grass, and when the fitful fever is ended, and the foolish wrangle of the market and the forum is closed, grass heals over the scar which our descent into the bosom of the earth has made, and the carpet of the infant becomes the blanket of the dead.

Grass is the forgiveness of Nature—her constant benediction. Fields trampled with battle, saturated with blood, torn with the ruts of cannon, grow green again with grass and carnage is forgotten. Streets abandoned by traffic become grass-grown, like rural lanes, and are obliterated. Forests decay, harvests perish, flowers vanish, but grass is immortal. Beleagured by the sullen hosts of winter it withdraws into the impregnable fortress of its subterranean vitality and emerges upon the solicitation of spring. Sown by the winds, by wandering birds, propagated by the subtle horticulture of the elements which are its ministers and servants, it softens the rude outlines of the world. It evades the solitude of deserts, climbs the inaccessible slopes and pinnacles of mountains and modifies the history, character and destiny of nations. Unobtrusive and patient it has immortal vigor and aggression. Banished from the thoroughfare and field it bides its time to return, and when vigilance is relaxed or the dynasty has perished it silently resumes the throne from which it has been expelled but which it never abdicates. It bares no blazonry of bloom to charm the senses with fragrance or splendor, but its homely hue is more enchanting than the lily or the rose. It yields no fruit in earth or air, yet should its harvest fail for a single year famine would depopulate the world.—Hon. J. J. Ingalls, as reported in the Old Kansas Magazine.

ABOUT THE LIVER.

A lazy, slow or torpid liver influences the whole system, causing biliousness, sick headache, sallow complexion, languor and dullness. Burdock Blood Bitters regulates the liver, purifies the secretions and cures all forms of liver troubles. We say so and here is the proof :—

I hereby wish to thank you for the great benefit derived by me from your Burdock Blood Bitters. For three years I was troubled with liver complaint and tried everything to no purpose. I had almost given up hope until one day I determined to try Burdock Blood Bitters. I can say now that marked improvement resulted from the use of the first bottle and at the end of the sixth bottle I discontinued its use, being completely cured.

Philologists agree that all languages are developed from one root.

The word "language" comes from the Latin "lingua," the tongue.

Since the beginning of this century the use of the Italian language has greatly increased; in 1801 it was spoken by 15,070,000 people, and in 1890 it was used by 33,400,000.

Cardinal Mezzofanti spoke 114 languages and dialects, fifty of them with such ease and fluency that he was sometimes mistaken for a native of the lands where they were used.

there are 3424 known languages and leading dialects not worthy to be classed as languages bring up the number to nearly 6000.

Max Muller teaches the imitative theory of language, that all language is an imitation of natural sounds, a theory which, in derision, has sometimes been called the "bow-wow theory."

Only about a dozen words of genuine English origin end with the letter "a," two dozen with the letter "o," and nearly 5000 with "y," ough has eight sounds, as up, ou, o, off, uff, oo, and aut.

The language of Greece to-day, allowing for the changes which would naturally be brought about during the centuries is substantially the same as the language used by Demosthenes and Pericles.

The Turkish language is said by scholars to be the softest and most musical language of modern times, being better adapted to the purposes of musical notion and recitative than even the Italian.

The great linguists have never been great, save in their specialty. No great linguist was also great as an author. The ability to learn languages does not seem to co-exist with talent in other lines.

It is said by philologists that there are thirteen original European languages, the Greek, Latin, German, Slavonic, Welsh, Biscayan, Irish, Albanian, Tartarian, Illyrian, Jazygian, Chaudin and Finnic.

In 1801 there were only 280,000 persons in the limits of the United States who spoke German as a mother tongue; now over 1,000,000 of our people, Germans, or descendants of Germans, read and speak that language.

During the reign of Queen Elizabeth the extension of English commerce resulted in a remarkable development of the English language and by association with foreign nations thousands of words unknown before in English were brought into common use.

The Chinese dictionary authorized by the Imperial Government contains 214 classes of words of which 150 include the more important. This famous dictionary, the most ancient of any recorded in literary history, was arranged by Pa-out-she, who lived about 1100 years, B.C.

Lepers in Europe.

Lepers are not so uncommon in Europe as is generally thought. One was picked up in Paris recently and sent to the St. Louis Hospital, where there were already six other patients with the same disease. There are isolated cases dotted all over France, while the lepers' hospitals at San Remo and in Spain and Portugal are never without patients. They are gaining ground in Turkey and the Ionian Islands. Crete has 500 of them. They are most numerous, however, in Norway, where there are 800, and are rapidly increasing in Sweden, which has already 462. In British India there are 100,000 lepers. The disease infests Indo-China, Tonquin, China and Japan, as well as Hayti, Trinidad, Guiana, Venezuela, Brazil and Paraguay.

Vessel Went Ashore on the Falkland Islands.

FUTILE EFFORTS TO RESCUE CREW

Fourteen English-Speaking Sailors Were in the Rigging, But the Vessel Broke Up Before Her Name Could be Learned — Young Girl's Body in the Wreck.

Washington, Aug. 6.—The Falkland Islands, off the east coast of Patagonia, were in May the scene of a marine disaster involving the loss of nearly 20 American lives, which as yet remains wrapt in mystery, as but few details of the disaster have been received from the United States Consul at Port Stanley, the capital of the Islands. Consul Miller reports that on the evening of May 16, news was brought to Port Stanley that a large ship, evidently of American build, had struck on the Billy Rock and was in danger of breaking up. The Falkland Islands Company's launch was impressed into service with a volunteer crew, commanded by Patrick McPherson, master of the barque Bankville of Liverpool, and went to the rescue. The sea, however, was running so heavily that Capt. McPherson found it impossible to get close to the ship. He got near enough to count 14 men in the rigging, who hailed him in English and begged him to rescue them. The vessel was a large wooden ship of about 1800 tons register.

Capt. McPherson put back to port for a lifeboat, and returned immediately, but before he reached the ship she had broken up, and quantities of her cargo were floating in all directions. Capt. McPherson and his rescuing party stayed all night in hope of picking up some of the survivors, but after 16 hours gave up the hope of saving life and returned to Port Stanley.

Late in May divers went down into the vessel, but were unable to ascertain its name or hailing place. The only trace of humanity found on board was the body of a young woman about 18 years of age, but there was nothing to furnish a clue to her identity. The body was buried according to the Episcopal service by the Government of Falkland.

Several articles were recovered from the wreck, but the only one giving a possible clue to the identity of the vessel was part of a lawn mower marked on the outside of the wheels, "Philadelphia Lawn Mower," and on the inside of one wheel "Philadelphia, style M, 1895."

The receivers for the condensers were marked "Manufactured for Holbrook, Merrill & Stetson, San Francisco and Sacramento."

HOO-DOOED BY THE UNION.

A London Mason Carrier, Ordered to Quit Work, Goes Home and Tries to Die by Cutting His Throat.

London, Ont., Aug. 6.—James Hayes, a bricklayer, journeyman-carrier, living on Lima-street, just off the Hamilton-road, east of Adelaide-street, attempted to commit suicide this morning. Hayes works for Gould & Stratfold, plasterers. This morning he went to work as usual, but he was notified by his union that, as he had got seriously behind in his dues, he would have to either pay up or quit work. He did quit work and went home to his wife, despondent and feeling that everything was going wrong with him. He announced his intention of going out of town to find work, and spoke generally in the gloomiest possible strain. Mrs. Hayes objected to his leaving, but he persisted and the two had some words. Then Hayes went into the front room. Hearing a noise his wife followed, and to her horror discovered him lying there with his throat cut from ear to ear. Doctors were called at once, and they found his throat so badly cut that a false tube had to be inserted in his throat. Everything that medical science could do or experience suggested was done for him, but his injuries were so serious and the loss of blood had been so heavy that he will likely die. Hayes came here from St. Thomas three years ago. He has two little children.

New Brunswick Court I. O. F. Passes a Resolution Condemning the Supreme Secretary for Dabbling in Politics.

Moncton, N.B., Aug. 6.—The High Court of Independent Foresters of New Brunswick, to-day unanimously adopted the following report from the Committee on State of the Order: "Your committee desires to express its disapproval of any salaried officer of the Supreme Executive, whilst retaining such office and drawing such salary, running as a parliamentary candidate, believing that such a course, if persisted in, will introduce into the order party political dissensions, from which hitherto it has happily been free.

"Therefore, this committee recommends that the high standing committee be instructed to communicate to the Supreme Executive its strong disapproval of the Supreme Secretary's action in the second time seeking parliamentary honors, and especially so as the special reason given for his candidature at the bye-election no longed existed."

SHOT HIS EYE OUT.

Pierre Lepine, a Reporter on the Staff of L'Electeur, Attempts to Take His Life at Quebec.

Quebec, August 6.—Pierre Lepine, on the staff of L'Electeur, was found outside of St. Valier tollgate on the Little River-road this afternoon in a secluded spot with three bullet holes in his head. The left eye was shot out and the nose was shattered. Lepine was conscious when found and asked to be driven to the Hotel Dieu Hospital or to the police station. An old rusty revolver of 32 calibre was found close by him. Lepine was conveyed to the Hotel Dieu, where two bullets were probed out, the third bullet having passed out through the left eye. At a late hour to-night he was in a fairly good condition, and his life is not in immediate danger. It is generally thought that Lepine shot himself in a moment of temporary insanity. He seems to have been ill for the past few days.

Healthy, happy children make better men and women of us all. A little care and a little planning before birth is often more important than anything that can be done after. On the mother's health and strength depend the life and the future of the children. A weak and sickly woman cannot bear strong and healthy children. Most of the weakness of women is utterly inexcusable. Proper care and proper medicine will cure almost any disorder of the feminine organism. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has been tested in thirty years of practice. It is healing, soothing, strengthening. It is perfectly natural in its operation and effect. By its use thousands of weak women have been made strong and healthy—have been made the mothers of strong and healthy children. Taken during gestation, it makes childbirth easy and almost painless and insures the well being of both mother and child. Send 31 cents in one-cent stamps to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N.Y., and receive Dr. Pierce's 1008 page "Common Sense Medical Adviser," profusely illustrated.

"Once for all, girl," he hissed, "once for all, will you marry me?" "Yes," she said, "I'll marry you, but I don't know about the once for all part of it. I guess you haven't lived here long enough to catch the spirit of our enterprising city."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

AN AWFUL WAY TO DIE.

Esau Tucker of Newfoundland Lashed a Gun to a Tree and Blew Himself to Pieces.

Halifax, Aug. 6.—A suicide of an elderly man named Esau Tucker is reported from Broad Cove, Nfld. He arose during the night feeling unwell, and took a gun from the house and put in an extra heavy charge of both powder and shot, and repaired to a grove back of the dwelling. Here he lashed the implement of destruction to a tree, and fixed a line to the trigger. The gun was blown to pieces by the explosion when it took place, and Tucker was found lying on his right side in front of the tree with his breast literally blown out.

Let Them Come to Canada.

The capitalists were to have paid nearly $17,000,000 for the mines.

GOOD ENDORSERS.

Every business man understands that no matter how valuable the signature on a note may be, his confidence is greatly increased if the note is well endorsed.

This is equally true of articles other than notes. It is particularly true of pianos. The musical public always likes to know if a piano is well endorsed.

The Mason & Risch Piano is undoubtedly endorsed by more eminent names than any other instrument made in Canada. Here are a few of them:—

Madame Albani	Franz Lizst
Sir A. C. McKenzie (Principal Royal College of Music)	F. H. Torrington
	S. P. Warren
Dr. Bridge (Organist Westminster Abbey)	Edouard Remenyi
	W. Waugh Lauder
Otto Bendix	Signor D'Auria
Frederick Archer	Watkins Mills
Mrs. Longmore	Edouard Scharff

These are but few of the many eminent admirers of our pianos. We could go on and fill a column but we think this enough to establish our claim to be well endorsed.

HE WENT TO DAKOTA

Now Glad to Find Himself Back In Canada.

FARMER ARMSTRONG'S EXPERIENCE

Thought He Would Better Himself in the Western States, But Now Hugging Himself Because He Didn't Sell His Canadian Farm—News From the Capital.

Ottawa, Aug. 7.—Last March Mr. William Armstrong, a well-to-do farmer of the Township of Huntley, rented his fine farm there and left for North Dakota, where he expected to do better. After putting in a very hard summer he has returned, and is now hugging himself with joy for not having sold out his old homestead. He says the wheat crop in the Glasston district of North Dakota will scarcely average five bushels to the acre. The day he left there a farmer was drawing oats five miles to an elevator, where he sold them for seven cents a bushel. Barley was bringing only 11 cents and wheat 42. Armstrong tells a touching story of hardships of the North Dakota farmers.

The brewing interests of Nova Scotia are moving to have the way made easier for the introduction of provincial ales into the market of St. Pierre-Miquelon. They contend that under a proper interpretation of the treaty with France Canadian ales would secure more favorable tariff treatment in these French possessions on the Newfoundland coast than is at present accorded. The brewers are confident that a considerable export trade could be done if the tariff were modified, but they contend that the terms of the commercial treaty with Canada are being interpreted at St. Pierre by French authorities with a view to discouraging any importations that might lessen the consumption of light wines and other liquors imported from France. It is believed that representations will be made through the proper channels to the Government of France in conformity with the request of the Nova Scotia brewers. Should this means fail to secure them more liberal treatment in French possessions, the brewing interests will probably agitate for a modification of the treaty in this regard.

It is not likely that the sedate precincts of the Senate will be disturbed by any such general change of seats as will characterize new arrangements in the lower chamber. Possibly Hon. R. W. Scott, the Liberal leader in the Senate, will cross the floor and take a seat on the right of the Speaker, erstwhile occupied by Sir Mackenzie Bowell and his predecessors in the Government leadership. Should Sir Mackenzie accept the Opposition leadership in the Senate, he will cross the floor also, and this is very likely to constitute the entire alteration brought about by the new regime. Indeed, to attempt to divide the Senate as the House of Commons is arranged, with the opposing parties on their respective sides of the Speaker, would be to make a rather unnecessary exhibition of the one-sided character of the Upper Chamber politically. There are not more than a dozen Liberal members in the Senate all told, and they would not constitute a very imposing array if constrained to flock by themselves after the manner of the Commoners. Sir Oliver Mowat will be the desk mate of the Government leader in the Upper Chamber.

The departmental procedure in cases of application from judges for leave of absence savors of the routine of the circumlocution office. It is something like this: The judge applies to the Justice Department, the Justice Department refers the application to the Department of State, the Department of State acquaints the Lieutenant-Governor of the Province of the request, His Honor duly refers it to his advisers, and from the Provincial Attorney-General it goes back, with the necessary observations, to the State Department. Through that channel it reaches the Department of Justice, where the Minister reports upon it. On this report an order in council is passed, granting application or refusing it, as the case may be, which action is finally communicated by the Justice Department to the judge in waiting, if he is still alive.

Sir Henri Joly de Lotbiniere will leave the Capital to-morrow for Peterboro, to spend Sunday with his daughter. Thence the Controller will proceed to Quebec, returning to Ottawa about the end of the week.

There was a meeting of council to-day, attended by the Premier and all but three of his Cabinet, namely, Messrs. Mulock, Blair and Fielding. The sitting was devoted mainly to the consideration of departmental matters and a discussion of the program for the approaching session of Parliament. The estimates, it is understood, will constitute the bulk of the sessional bill of fare.

It is stated here on unimpeachable authority that the report connecting Mr. Prendergast's name with the vacant portfolio of Interior is absolutely without foundation.

Of the members of the House of Commons in the present Parliament, Hon. John Costigan is the only one who has continuously held his seat since Confederation, and for the same constituency.

"You have heard the last of that list of Q.C.'s," said an interested party to your correspondent to-day. "I have it on good authority that the whole thing has been bundled into Sir Oliver Mowat's waste basket."

WAS THIS THE SHIP?

The Wreck Off the Falkland Islands is Believed to be the City of Philadelphia.

New York, Aug. 7.—It is now believed that the vessel mentioned in the Washington despatches of last night as having been wrecked on the Falkland Islands is probably the City of Philadelphia, which left this port Feb. 2 for San Francisco. She was spoken May 1 by the British ship Bromia off Cape Horn. She has been posted by Lloyds as long overdue and has been reinsured for 90 guineas premium. The young woman whose body was recovered from the wreck may have been the wife of the ship's skipper, Capt. W. F. Johnson. There was one passenger on the ship, Frederick Lowery, head bookkeeper of the Home Savings Bank of Brooklyn, who had been advised to take a long sea voyage to cure an ailment of the eyes. The City of Philadelphia carried cargo like that found on the wreck off the Falkland Islands.

AFTER THE LAND JUMPERS.

An Episode in Prince Albert That May Lead to Trouble—Mounted Police on the Scene.

Winnipeg, Aug. 7.—(Special.)—There is serious trouble in Prince Albert, N.W.T., caused by land jumpers. Yesterday 50 armed settlers proceeded to the house of one Louis Como, a land jumper, and tore it down, throwing both house and furniture into the lake. Inspector Snider took a small detachment of Mounted Police from Edmonton to quell the disturbance, but to-day he wired Fort Sackatchewan that the full detachment of police stationed there be despatched to the scene. A serious fuss is feared, and one result will be to put an end to land jumping, which has aroused much indignation throughout the Canadian Northwest. Further news from the scene of trouble is anxiously awaited.

POKER IN THE PAY CAR.

Harry Noad, Under Extradition in New York, Tells About Doings While Employed by the C.P.R.

New York, Aug. 7.—Harry Noad, who is wanted in Canada for the alleged theft of $5500 from the Canadian Pacific Railway while he was assistant paymaster on the line, and who has had frequent examinations before Commissioner Shields in extradition proceedings, got a chance to-day to tell his story before the commissioner. The object of his examination was to hear from him how he managed to accumulate the $3000 or more which he gave to the Cleverley woman, who came here with him as his wife, and who, when arrested, surrendered the keys to the vault where the money and papers were kept, to the police. The prosecution has sought to prove that this money was part of the proceeds of the alleged theft, while the Cleverley woman testified on Tuesday that Noad had given her $3000 several years ago, which she afterwards returned to him. Noad testified that he had been thirteen years with the company and was in the receipt of $65 a month. He said he had for some years bought and sold horses, traded with the natives along the lines of the railroad, sold and bought furs and made money in other ways. "I might state here," he said, "that I made a good bit of money playing poker on the pay car."

"How much did you win?" "Well, once I won $60, a gold watch and chain and a diamond ring. The money I won from a big ex official, and the watch, chain and ring from some of the others on the pay car. I was a pretty steady winner."

"What did you lose usually?" "Usually I did not lose at all. The most I ever lost at one sitting was $13."

Noad then detailed how the money for the pay car was drawn from the different banks by himself and a higher official. He said that business was done very loosely by the higher official, who was often "under the weather." He says that they would draw as high as $30,000 from the bank in Montreal, of which he had the custody, when they would meet the higher official's friends, who drank with them, and the higher official often drank too much.

"I never drank any liquor on those occasions," said Noad, "as I knew I would be responsible. I also want to state," he said, "that there has been carried on the books since 1884 a shortage of $668 by the higher official, who was frequently short in his accounts, and on two occasions I loaned him $600 and $400 to make good his shortage. The higher official also borrowed largely from other people, and there is some of his paper in Montreal now which the holders would like to collect."

Noad said he also made money by loaning amounts to the higher official and others. Noad told his story in a straightforward manner, being at times too anxious to talk, and was stopped by his attorney. He answered the questions put to him promptly, and seemingly made no effort to conceal anything.

At the conclusion of his testimony the case was closed, and Commissioner Shields said he would announce his decision as soon as possible after the testimony was written out.

WAS IT MURDER?

Enquiries in Progress Regarding the Death of Young Robinson at Braeside a Month Ago.

Arnprior, Ont., Aug. 7.—The death of young Robinson, which occurred at Braeside about a month ago, is assuming a very serious aspect. It is supposed now to be a case of murder. Drs. Ward and Armstrong of this town held a post-mortem examination this afternoon, confirming the suspicions of the authorities as to foul play. The inquest is now going on.

Every man should read the advertisement of Thos. Slater on page 3 of this paper

HOW HE MET DEATH.

Abbott Grasped a Boulder Which Was Rotten

AND IT FELL 1000 FEET WITH HIM

It Took His Companions Four Hours to Descend to Where the Body Lay—The Remains Had to be Put in Blankets and Slid Down the Mountain.

Calgary, N.W.T., Aug. 7.—Further particulars of Monday's tragedy at the Canadian National Park, when Philip S. Abbott lost his life by falling over a precipice, were received here to-day. Mr. Abbott and three other American tourists left their hotel at Banff on Monday morning, fully equipped for a long day's mountain climbing. They drove to Lake Louise, a beautiful resort among the peaks of the Rockies, about sixteen miles from Banff.

Taking ropes and other necessary equipments, they started early in the day to climb one of the highest peaks in the neighborhood. They reached a point about 2000 feet above the lake, when, further ascent becoming dangerous, the four adventurers tied themselves together with ropes. They climbed another 1000 feet, until they arrived at a difficult spot, which it was impossible for the four to pass together. The rope was therefore untied, and Abbott, being the best climber, volunteered to lead the way. All went well with him for a few yards, as he cautiously picked his way, inch by inch, up the steep and pathless declivity. At last, reaching upward to what appeared to be a solid projecting boulder, he grasped it with both hands and had almost succeeded in pulling himself up when the rotten boulder gave way, and, with a cry of horror, and wildly clutching at the air, he fell into the abyss below. His body bounded from rock to rock until it was stopped by a narrow, jutting crag, which was all that prevented a fall of 2000 feet more.

It took the three survivors four hours to descend to where it rested. They found Abbott still breathing, but unable to speak. As it was impossible to carry the burden down the slippery descent the party was compelled to leave the body where it lay, returning on Tuesday with a relief party. Then they wrapped the body in several blankets and let it slide down 3000 feet to the foot of the mountain, this being the only method of recovering it.

NOBLE GENEROSITY.

Lord Mountstephen and Sir Donald Smith Give $800,000 More to the Royal Victoria Hospital.

Montreal, Aug. 7.—(Special.)—The serious illness of the Cardinal Archbishop of Quebec has given rise to a good deal of talk as to whether the Roman authorities will give another prince of the church to French Canada, at the death of Cardinal Taschereau, which event cannot be many weeks remote. In one sense a cardinal has no successor, yet there is a strong party in the Quebec church in favor of conferring the dignity of the purple upon the Archbishop of Montreal. It is understood that if the distinguished prelate becomes a prince of the church that Mgr. Emard will be transferred to the See of Montreal, and Rev. Canon Bruchesi named Bishop of Valleyfield.

Once more Lord Mountstephen and Sir Donald Smith have remembered the sick and afflicted of the city in which a good part of their fortunes was made. In the first place, these noble-hearted gentlemen gave $1,000,000 to found the Royal Victoria Hospital. Of this sum $800,000 has been spent on the buildings, leaving $200,000 as an endownment fund. It was learned to-day that Lord Mountstephen and Sir Donald have given $800,000 more, bringing the endowment fund up to the handsome sum of $1,000,000, thus ensuring the success of the hospital for all time to come.

A YOUNG WIFE TORTURED.

Charles Whitney of Elmwood, Ill., Charged With Suspending His Wife From a Window by a Leg and Arm.

Cincinnati, Aug. 7.—Mrs. Catharine Whitney of Elmwood is seeking a divorce and the tale of woe recited in her petition indicates that, though married only a year, she has undergone torture enough for several years. Her husband is Charles Whitney. The most startling charge made by Mrs. Whitney against her husband is that he had held her out of a second storey window of their home in Elmwood by one leg and one arm and thus kept her suspended for some time threatening to drop her to the ground, while the people were passing along the street and gazing at her. Because of this act of her husband she was greatly frightened and her nervous system received a shock which made her ill, from the effects of which she did not recover for a long time.

But this is not all. She charges that for the past six months of their married life her husband has beaten and abused her almost continually. During that time he blackened her eyes by striking her, and on one occasion he tried to cut her with a butcher knife, and in defending herself she was cut on the right hand. She also charges that he has not spoken to her during the past two or three weeks except in ordering her to do something. He capped the climax on the 31st of last month by scolding her until 12 o'clock at night, refusing to permit her to retire to bed, but compelling her to remain in a chair. She left him the next day and has been away from him since. She wants her maiden name.

$36 PER HORSE POWER.

This is What the Power Company at the Falls Will Charge for Energy.

Niagara Falls, N.Y., Aug. 7.—The Power Company of this city, after months of cogitation and sphinx-like silence, has at last spoken. It announced yesterday that electric energy would be delivered to customers in Buffalo at $36 per horsepower per year.

The first 1000 horsepower to be taken by the Street Car Company of that city will cost it $40 per horsepower.

The above rates are considered very fair here, although it is understood that Buffalonians expected or at least hoped to get a much lower rate.

Another Fatal Cyclone.

Marion, Ind., Aug. 7.—A cyclone struck Swayzee, a small town west of here yesterday afternoon, where a fair was in progress. Two men were killed and several injured.

That

Extreme tired feeling afflicts nearly everybody at this season. The hustlers cease to push, the tireless grow weary, the energetic become enervated. You know just what we mean. Some men and women endeavor temporarily to overcome that

Tired

Feeling by great force of will. But this is unsafe, as it pulls powerfully upon the nervous system, which will not long stand such strain. Too many people "work on their nerves," and the result is seen in unfortunate wrecks marked "nervous prostration," in every direction. That tired ing is a positive proof of thin, weak, impure blood; for, if the blood is rich, red, vitalized and vigorous, it imparts life and energy to every nerve, organ and tissue of the body. THE LOW PRICE OF OATS.

Figures furnished by the Ontario Department of Agriculture go to afford an explanation of the prevailing low price of oats. They show that the area devoted to the growth of this crop in Ontario increased from 1,936,644 acres in 1893 to 2,373,309 acres in 1895, and that the yield increased from 58,584,539 bushels to 84,697,566 bushels in the same period. An increase in the land under crop by 436,665 acres, and of 26,113,027 bushels in the yield is sufficient to account for a considerable falling off in prices.

The figures given become more significant when the statistics relative to other crops are taken in account. The latter show that the acreage devoted to fall wheat has fallen off by one hundred and seventy thousand, and to spring wheat area by one hundred and thirty-three thousand acres in the two years under review. The large decrease in the number of horses due to the greater employment of electricity and the increasing popularity of the bicycle, is another factor in reducing the price of oats.

THE NEW HOUSE.

Complete returns give the following as the occupations of the members of the new House of Commons: There are 63 lawyers, 33 farmers, 26 merchants, 21 physicians, 19 gentlemen, 12 manufacturers, 10 journalists, 6 mill owners, 3 contractors, 3 real estate agents, 1 township clerk, 2 distillers, 1 financial agent, 1 insurance manager, 1 banker, 1 ship owner, 1 rancher, 1 oil refiner, 1 printer, and one civil engineer.

The lawyers and gentlemen combined form nearly two-fifths of the whole House, so that the lookout is poor for the honest toilers who make up the remainder. Mr. Fisher, Minister of Agriculture, Col. Domville, Mr. Bourassa, and Mr. Bostock are returned as farmers, and Messrs. Wallace, McMullen, Penny, Tucker, Bain, Charlton, Morin, Stenson, Hackett, Broder, Blanchard, Scriver, Sutherland, and Kaulbach as gentlemen. To these have been added Mr. Foster, Mr. Casey, Mr. Haggart, Mr. Beattie and Sir Richard Cartwright, who are not labelled with any occupation, and are therefore entitled to be classed as gentlemen.

THE ECONOMY OF GOOD ROADS

Toronto World.

The United States Department of Agriculture has just completed an elaborate series of statistics as to the cost of haulage of farm products. Returns were received from 1200 counties throughout the States, giving the average length in miles from farms to markets or shipping points, the average weight of load, and the cost per haul. The average cost of hauling per ton for the whole country has been deduced by the Department to be $3.02. Information in the hands of the department indicates that nearly two-thirds of this excessive cost can be saved by road improvement. That is to say, the average cost of delivering a ton of hay, or other produce, can be be reduced by good roads from three dollars to one dollar. Mr. John Hamilton, Secretary of the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture, submits a paper showing how good roads can be secured at the least possible cost. After impressing as strenuously as possible the essential requisite for a good road, that it be well drained, and the importance of keeping ditches and drains clear to carry off water. Mr. Hamilton asserts that where rocks are not too numerous the worst road can be put in good condition at a cost of from $15 to $20 per mile. Having properly ditched, drained and graded the roadway, a top dressing of broken stone, seven feet wide and six inches deep, can be put on at a cost of $441 per mile, wherever the proper kind of stone can be obtained. A crusher can be bought for from $600 to $750, and if no stones larger than such as will go through a ring one and one-half inches in diameter be used and a road has been correctly crowned, a roadbed can be correctly constructed, which, with proper care, will last forever. The suggestion of Mr. Hamilton, that a day labourer be permanently employed in each township, whose duty it shall be to work every day on such portions of the road is an excellent one. The cost of this attention would be slight, and its benefits are self-evident. The greatest enemy of the road is neglect.

The proverb, "What is worth doing is worth doing well," applies with peculiar force in the matter of road construction. In building a house or barn the farmer sees to it that the foundation is well laid and in this respect he has no trouble afterward. But the practice prevails of building roads without foundations and the result is perpetual repair with never satisfactory results, or in default of constant repair everlasting bad roads. What would be the life of the rolling stock of a railway if the road bed were comparatively as rough and iniquitous as the average country road? The locomotives and cars would be shaken to pieces in as many weeks as they last years on a correctly constructed roadbed. A farmer's horses and wagon would last much longer with good smooth, solid roads, with less bills for repairs, not to speak of the great saving of time resulting from the use of good smooth roads. Good roads pay best. The first cost would of course be greater, but the lessened expense for maintenance afterwards, not to speak of the lessened cost of wear and tear of tires and temper both of man and beast.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

THE temper of the Mail and Empire is seriously soured. It can find only Tarte remarks to make.

FROM the way the Mail and Empire shows the devouring hatred of Tarte, it looks as though the organ was qualifying for a pie-eating contest.

THE Mormon colonies in Mexico are prospering, owing to frugal and energetic business management. With one wife a man has generally to "get down to business;" with half a dozen he would have to literally "hump."

SINCE the general elections have gone wrong, to its mind, the Mail and Empire indites a column to prove that the aphorism, "every man has his price," is a libel on mankind. Evidently the game wouldn't work last June.

AN attempt is being made to deprive the "Cumberland war horse" of the small feed of oats that is left him. Sir Charles Tupper was personally served at Ottawa on Thursday with the notice of the fact that his election in Cape Breton has been protested.

NOMINATIONS in North Grey, where Mr. Patterson is the candidate, and in Queen's and Sunbury, N.B., where Mr. Blair is seeking a constituency, will take place on the day before the opening of Parliament, August 18th, and the election, if required, a week later.

A GREAT many good things are coming Canada's way this year. She has treated herself to a new government of which she has just reason to be proud. Her sons captured the Kolapore Cup; her artillery team scooped in the Queen's prize in the competition at Shoeburyness, and the Glencairn yacht showed her shapely heels to her competitors at Oyster Bay. Canada is also coming to the front strongly as a great gold producing country of the world, in whose ears before long the name Canada will be familiar as household words. Canada makes haste gently, but she forges ahead sturdily, and now that there is a good strong, steady hand at the helm, we may look for a new era of prosperity.

IT is reported on English authority that Hon. Edward Blake has, on the recommendation of Hon. Mr. Laurier, been appointed the Canadian member of the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council. If the report is correct the appointment of the great Canadian jurist is one that can be justified on the amplest grounds of fitness in every respect for this important responsible position. No more fitting selection could be made, and without political distinction every Canadian will feel proud that the abilities of one of her foremost sons has received such recognition. Mr. Blake will in attainments, judicial instincts and general fitness for office be the peer of any member of the greatest legal tribunal in the world.

THERE is evidently hope for the cause of Ireland yet. We see the Irish Land Bill introduced by a Conservative Government, which while not being anything like a finality, so far as the well-founded claims of Ireland go, still represents a fairly substantial instalment of justice to the Irish tenant farmer. This bill is said to embody the vital principles of Mr. Gladstone's bill of 1880, which prevents the tenant being taxed by the landlord for the improvements made by the former. It would be supposed that a principle that involves so thoroughly the principles of fairness and justice should meet with no opposition. The power of a landlord to tax a tenant's improvements is the operation of a vicious principle that is at the bottom of the pretty wide-spread tenant discontent. It places a premium on slatternly farming, and takes the life and ambition out of a tenant. But the patronage of the bill that seeks to remedy such a grievance is not enough for the House of Lords, which will doubtless bring about the death of it, but with the consolatory reflection that they are at the same time putting another nail in the coffin of their oppressive pretensions to the prerogative of over-riding the popular will.

COMMENDABLE PROMPTITUDE.

A Resident of St. John, N.B., Makes a Successful Trial of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

St. John, N.B., Aug. 3—Mr. Robt. Moore, residing in Indiantown, a suburb of this city, has recently made what is allowed by all who are acquainted with the facts to be a most remarkable recovery. He has been a sufferer from a serious complaint of the kidneys for over seven years, and during that time has suffered excruciatingly. He has also suffered considerably in pocket, having paid large sums for medical advice. Quite recently he happened to read of the many cures effected by Dodd's Kidney Pills, and with commendable promptitude made a trial of them, with the result that after taking three boxes of the remedy he was entirely restored to health.

Sick headache and constipation are promptly cured by Burdock Pills. Easy to take, sure in effect.

All Prize Goods

Coloured by the Diamond Dyes.

It is a fact worthy of note that all the best rag carpets, rug and mats shown at country fairs and exhibitions last year were dyed with the fast and brilliant Diamond Dyes.

This season we hear that even more extensive work is going on for the coming autumn fairs. The ladies who are expert in the art of carpet, rug and mat making are now buying Diamond Dyes in large quantities to colour their materials for the manufacture of exhibition goods.

At fall fairs, nine out of every ten exhibitors of home made carpets rugs and mats use the Diamond Dyes, knowing full well that the imitation dyes can never give satisfactory results.

If you are about colouring materials for exhibition goods, do not allow your dealer to sell you the imitation, crude dyes. He makes a large profit, but you suffer loss of your money, time and materials if you are unfortunate enough to use them.

BENT NEARLY DOUBLE.

THE STORY OF A WELL KNOWN DELHI MAN.

Tortured With Rheumatism for Nearly Twenty Years—Spent Large Sums in a Vain Search for Renewed Health—How He at Last Found it.

From the Delhi Reporter.

There are very few troubles more wide spread and none more difficult to eradicate from the system than rheumatism. The sufferer is racked with pains that seem unbearable, and frequently feels that even death itself would be a relief. Among those who have found much of their lives made miserable by this dread trouble is Mr. Michael Schott, of Delhi, and having found a means of release from its agonies he is anxious that other sufferers should profit by his experience. Mr. Schott is in the employ of Messrs. Quance Bros., millers, and has a reputation for sterling integrity among all who know him. When one of the staff of the Reporter interviewed him, Mr. Schott gave the facts of his illness and recovery as follows:—He had been a sufferer from rheumatism since about eighteen years of age. At times he was confined to bed but obtained no rest day nor night from the excruciating pains he was undergoing. Again he was able to go about and follow his employment, but even then frequently walked about in an almost doubled up condition. Then again he would have another relapse, and would be forced to take to his bed. During all these years he was almost continually doctoring, but never obtained anything more than temporary relief for the large sums he expended in this way. Having failed to obtain relief at home he went to Simcoe for treatment but received no permanent benefit and soon after coming home was as bad as ever. It will be readily understood that he was seriously discouraged and had come to look upon his case as hopeless. Finally he was urged to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and after hesitating at spending any more money, in what he now considered a vain pursuit of health, he at last consented to give them a trial. By the time he had used a half dozen boxes there was no longer any doubt in his mind that he was steadily improving, and the treatment was then gladly continued. When he had taken a dozen boxes he found himself entirely recovered, entirely free from pain and all stiffness of joints, and he is now able to do as hard a day's work as any man in the village. He has now been free from his old enemy for so long a period that he feels his cure is permanent, and is consequently an enthusiastic admirer of Dr. Williams' wonderful Pink Pills, and urges all who are similarly suffering to give them a trial, feeling confident that they will prove quite as efficacious as they did in his case.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills strike at the root of the disease, driving it from the system and restoring the patient to health and strength. In cases of paralysis, spinal troubles, locomotor ataxia, sciatica, rheumatism, erysipelas, scrofulous troubles, etc., these pills are superior to all other treatment. They are also a specific for the troubles which make the lives of so many women a burden, and speedily restore the rich glow of health to pale and sallow cheeks. Men broken down by overwork, worry or excesses, will find in Pink Pills a certain cure. Sold by all dealers or sent by mail postpaid, at 60c a box, or six boxes for $2 50, by addressing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont., or Schenectady, N.Y. Beware of imitations and substitutes alleged to be "just as good."

THE BULL GORED THEM.

A Farmer and His Wife Nearly Killed by a Vicious Brute.

Bridgeton, N.J., Aug. 7.—A ferocious bull attacked Mrs. Samuel Young on a farm near Deerfield yesterday. The cries of the woman brought her husband to her rescue, and both nearly lost their lives before the animal was driven off.

The bull pinned Mrs. Young to the ground, and when her husband approached the furious animal with a fence rail it turned on him and gored him until he was insensible.

Farm hands succeeded in driving the animal away. It is feared the couple cannot recover.

Father Point, Aug. 7.—The Allan liner Mongolian, from Liverpool, reported inward at 7 p.m. Among the passengers are: Lady Tupper, Miss Tupper, Mr. C. Tupper, Master W. Tupper, Hon. Dudley Gordon (son of Lord Aberdeen), and the following members of the Bisley team: Lieut. Bent, Lieut. W. C. King, Pte. Huggins, Langstroth, Lavers and Mitchell, Lieuts. Mitchell, Munro, Ogg, Ross and Runions, and Capt. Spearing. Col. Stevenson of Montreal was also a passenger.

ITS FAME SPREADING.

A New Remedy in General Use in Manitoba and the Northwest.

WINNIPEG, July 27th—The effects of the regular wave of sickness which sweeps over this portion of the Dominion in the spring are noticeable in the increasing amount of the druggists' sales. There has been quite a run on the kidney remedy now so well known under the name of Dodd's Kidney Pills. The recovery from Bright's disease of Mr. Arthur Coley, of Somerset, through their use, an account of which appeared in the papers, gave a considerable impetus to the sale, and the remedy has become indispensable in many Manitoba households, its fame having penetrated into the remotest parts of the province and Northwest Territories.

Mr. Thos. Errett, Port Burwell, Ont., says: "I have been weak and miserable two years. I took Miller's Compound Iron Pills and never felt better than I do now."

AN ATTEMPTED MURDER.

William Flynn Had a Narrow Escape From Being Shot at Toronto Junction Last Night.

Toronto Junction, Aug. 7.—(Special.)—At about 7.45 to-night William Flynn, who lives near Brown's Hotel on the Weston-road, rushed up to Policeman Graham and reported that a man named Joseph Moore a few minutes before had attempted to murder him on Dundas-street. Flynn said that Moore had fired at him from a revolver, and showed where the bullet had grazed his hand. Graham set out and, in company with Chief Royce, captured Moore at Dundas and Humberside-streets, after the man had made a spirited resistance. Moore was handcuffed and taken to the cells, where he became very despondent.

It appears that the shooting is the outcome of trouble of several years' standing. Seven years ago Flynn was manager of the Waterdown Agricultural Insurance Company, and Moore was a chief agent of the company. For some reason Flynn discharged Moore, and it is to this that the alleged shooting is attributed.

THE WAVE OF INSANITY.

A Plainfield, N.J., Doctor Tried to Take His Life by Many Methods at Poughkeepsie Yesterday.

Poughkeepsie, N.Y., Aug. 7.—Shortly after arriving in this city this afternoon, J. R. Glen, a prominent physician of Plainfield, N.J., made several attempts at suicide. He first threw himself in front of an approaching train, but was rescued. He then went to several hotels and demanded a room with large gas jets. He was refused accommodation by the clerks. He then tried to purchase prussic acid from two druggists. Failing in these attempts he went to a hardware store and purchased a revolver, but was arrested before he could bring it into use. At the station house over $200 and several cheques for small amounts were found on his person. He was committed to jail, charged with insanity.

SOUND MONEY DEMOCRATS

Will Hold a Convention on Sept. 2 at Indianapolis to Nominate Presidential Candidates.

Indianapolis, Aug. 7.—The Sound Money Democrats of the United States are called by the "regularly constituted committee" of the National Democratic party to meet in convention for the announcement of a platform and the nomination of candidates for President and Vice-President, and for the other business incident thereto. The date set for the convention is Wednesday, Sept. 2, and the place Indianapolis. The call is to those Democrats who believe in sound money and the preservation of law and order, and who are unalterably opposed to the platform adopted and the candidates nominated at Chicago.

A DEAD MAN CENSURED.

Engineer Farr Held Responsible for the Great Loss of Life in the Atlantic City Collision.

Atlantic City, N.J., Aug. 7.—The coroner's jury in the case of the victims of the railroad collision near this city on the night of July 30 returned three verdicts to-day. The first states the manner of death of the persons over whom the inquisition was held. The second finds Engineer Farr, who was killed by the collision, guilty of not following the rules governing approach to crossings, and censures Towerman George Hauser for not giving an express the right of way over an excursion train, and Engineer Greiner for not using greater care. The third verdict censures Engineer Farr for not obeying signals.

DIED FROM LOCKJAW.

This Young Man Received Only a Slight Wound While Cleaning a Revolver.

New Brunswick, N.J., Aug. 7.—William Lyons, 18 years old, a son of John J. Lyons of 25 Wyckoff-street, died early this morning from tetanus, after suffering great pain and having had convulsions for several hours.

On Thursday last the young man was cleaning an old revolver. The hammer would not work, and after pouring oil in the working parts he tried it again. He did not know the revolver contained a blank cartridge and when he finally did snap the trigger the cartridge exploded. A part of the wadding lodged in his hand. He had the wound dressed.

On Tuesday he went for a ride on his bicycle. As he was returning in the evening they stopped at Landing Bridge for something to eat. His hand was paining him, and when he complained he could not eat a companion offered to feed him, but the young man replied that he could not move his jaw.

That night he was worse, and Dr. Meacham was called. He found all the symptoms of lockjaw, and did what he could for the sufferer. It was useless, however.

HEART DISEASE IS CURABLE

Alfred Couldry of West Shefford, Quebec, Completely Cured of Heart Disease of Four Years' Standing by Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart—A Pembrooke Lass Cured of the Worst Form of Chronic Catarrh by Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder—Dr. Agnew's Ointment for Piles, and his Pills for Liver Ills.

Four Most Remarkable Remedies.

The development of science in recent years gives hope for the curing of many of the worst forms of disease that afflict humanity. Even so dreaded a complaint as heart disease is curable. This is being demonstrated almost daily by the use of Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart. It positively gives relief in any case within half an hour after the first dose, and this often means the saving of a life. Alfred Couldry, of West Shefford, Que., suffered from heart disease for four years. He found no relief until he made the acquaintance of Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart, and says: "After using eight bottles of this medicine I know nothing of this dreaded trouble."

Catarrh in its worst forms is deemed incurable. But here is what Mrs. George Graves of Ingersoll, Ont., says: "My little daughter Eva, aged 13 years, four years ago was taken with catarrh of the very worst kind. We used all known catarrh cures and doctored with the most skilful physicians for years, but with no avail. We considered her case chronic and incurable. Last winter I heard of the fame of Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder, and was persuaded to try a bottle, and I must confess for the sake of all suffering humanity, that after using two bottles my child was completely cured."

Dr. Agnew has given to the public four valuable specifics, and all alike do the most satisfactory work. His famous ointment will cure the worst case of itching piles in from three to six nights, and one application alone will bring comfort.

In an age when there is no end of liver pills, it says much for Dr. Agnew's Liver Pills that they win friends wherever known. Ten cents is the charge for a phial of forty doses.

Shiloh's Cure, the great Cough and Croup Cure, is in great demand. Pocket size contains twenty-five doses only 25c. Children love it. Sold by John Nugent, 249 George Street.

THE OLD, OLD STORY.

A Former Woodstock Woman Loses Her Life While Trying to Marry the Kitchen Fire With Kerosene.

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 6.—Mrs. George Mitchell, 24 years of age, poured kerosene on her slow-burning breakfast fire this morning. Before she knew how it happened the can exploded and she was horribly burned, her body being almost cooked. Her husband was badly burned in trying to save her. Both were hurried to Harper Hospital, where she died an hour later. The fire department soon put out the fire which spread to the house. Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell had been married a year. They came to the city from Woodstock, Ont., four months ago, when the husband secured work in the Peninsular Car Works.

"Mamma, was that a sugar-plum you just gave me?" asked little Mabel. "No, dear, it was one of Dr. Ayer's Pills." "Please, may I have another?" "Not now, dear, one of those nice pills is all you need at present, because every dose is effective."

The Breath of the Pines.

and all wasting diseases, should write to me for advice.

I have been a close student for many years of the subject of weakness in men, the fact is, I was a sufferer myself. Too bashful to seek the aid of older men or reputable physicians, I investigated the subject deeply and discovered a simple but most remarkably successful Remedy that completely cured me, and fully enlarged me from a shrunken, stunted condition to natural size and strength. I want every young or old man to know about it. I take a personal interest in such cases, and no one need hesitate to write me, as all communications are held strictly confidential. I send the recipe of this remedy absolutely free of cost. Do not put it off, but write me fully at once, and will always bless the day you did so. Address,

GOOD ENDORSERS.

Every business man understands that no matter how valuable the signature on a note may be, his confidence is greatly increased if the note is well endorsed.

This is equally true of articles other than notes. It is particularly true of pianos. The musical public always likes to know if a piano is well endorsed.

The Mason & Risch Piano is undoubtedly endorsed by more eminent names than any other instrument made in Canada. Here are a few of them:—

Madame Albani	Franz Lizst
Sir A. C. McKenzie (Principal Royal College of Music)	F. H. Torrington
Dr. Bridge (Organist Westminster Abbey)	S. P. Warren
Otto Bendix	Edouard Remenyi
Frederick Archer	W. Waugh Lauder
Mrs. Longmore	Signor D'Auria
	Watkins Mills
	Edouard Scharff

These are but few of the many eminent admirers of our pianos. We could go on and fill a column but we think this enough to establish our claim to be well endorsed.

An examination of our instruments is cordially solicited no matter how remote your idea of purchase may be.

Our prices are reasonable, quality considered, and our terms elastic enough to suit anyone.

A FISHING PARTY.

A Pleasant Outing on the Back Lakes For a Few Days.

A fishing party, taken out to the Lakes by Mr. T. Fitzgerald, last Wednesday, returned last evening, thoroughly pleased with their enjoyable outing and bringing with them about a hundred fine bass, which were caught at Buckhorn, where genial Tom Eastwood made everything comfortable and homelike.

The party was composed of Rev. J. J. Rae, the pastor of the Charlotte street Methodist church, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley and Mr. and Mrs. Mallett, of the Canadian General Electric Works, and Mr. and Miss Lee, of Toronto.

During the trip Sandy Lake was visited and under Mr. Fitzgerald's skillful guidance a number of nice bass were taken.

Yesterday Mr. Rae and his party were invited by Capt. Eden to take a trip on the pretty little steamer Undine, and all were conveyed from Buckhorn around the lakes to Lakefield, where the team, which was sent across country from Buckhorn, met them and brought them home. Capt. Eden's courtesy was greatly appreciated.

DROWNED AT LINDSAY.

Lost His Life in an Endeavonr to Save That of Another.

Word reached town Thursday morning of the sad drowing at Lindsay of Mr. Fred Hawkins, brother of Mr. J. A. Hawkins, of the Wm. Hamilton Mfg. Coy's. Works, whose father, Mr. J. H. Hawkins, and brothers, G. W. and S. S. Hawkins, reside in Port Hope. The sadness of the deplorable affair is intensified by the fact that Mr. Hawkins lost his life in an heroic endeavour to save the life of another, with the result that both were drowned.

From the particulars that reached town it appears that Mr. Richards, hostler of the Central House, at Lindsay, went in bathing with his two young sons, one of whom he was going to teach to swim. Mr. Hawkins was swimming some distance from the others when his attention was attracted by the cries of one of the Richards boys, who had got out beyond his depth and was struggling to save himself. Mr. Hawkins struck out for the lad, but as soon as he was up to him the boy threw his arms around Mr. Hawkins' neck and held him in such a manner that he was entirely helpless. In this condition both sank and did not rise.

The bodies were recovered shortly afterwards and efforts were made to resuscitate them, but to no purpose.

Mr. Hawkins was an expert swimmer, and thought nothing of a swim of a half mile or more.

The body passed through town Thursday evening, for interment in Port Hope.

Young men and old should not fail to read Thos. Slater's advertisement on page 3.

St. Luke's Garden Party.

The committee in charge are busy arranging for the garden party under the auspices of St. Luke's church on the afternoon and evening of Thursday, 13th of August, at the residence of Mrs. Sedgwick, Douro, on the Anson-Cartwright farm, about two miles from town, and promises to be "the leader" in events of this kind this season. Besides the ordinary sports and attractions usual on such occasions, there will be a sale of fancy and useful particles, a musical programme by the choir and the Fire Brigade band, as well as a supplementary phonographic entertainment. Refreshements will also be served and every effort put forth to make the event pleasing and entertaining. Busses will run from the postoffice corner for the convenience of the public. Mark down the date and don't forget it.

AN ARCHAELOGICAL EXPLORATION.

Mr. David Boyle, the Well Known Canadian Archaeologist, in Town—He Will Investigate the Archaelogical Importance of This District.

Mr. David Boyle, of Toronto, curator of the Ontario Archæological Museum, is in town and district for a few days, investigating the archæological importance of this district, and searching for remains of Indian weapons, implements, pottery, etc. Mr. Boyle will make his visit the subject of a chapter or section in the annual report issued by the Ontario Government from the department of the Minister of Education, who is giving very properly the greatest possible assistance in the research covered by the report. Continually increased attention is being bestowed upon the collection of historical materials relating to Canada, and the department of archæology is of the greatest interest as giving completeness to any historic record. There is reason to believe that this district played an important part in the almost pre-historic annals of the country and an exhaustive exploration will no doubt yield important results. Mr. Boyle's exploration will also include the Rice Lake region, which is regarded as a field promising good returns.

As complementary to Mr. Boyle's report, Mr. Hampden Burnham has undertaken to prepare a monogram upon the portage of this district as used by the Hurons and Iroquois in the palmy days of their feuds and forays. Mr. Burnham will collect the most reliable information and his paper, which will be illuminated by photograms furnished by Mr. J. M. Irwin, will be embodied with the report of Mr. Boyle. As both these reports will be considered by the British Association, it will be seen that it is important to have them as complete and comprehensive as possible. To this end the co-operation of all interested in the subject in this vicinity will be of much assistance. Any person having possession or knowledge of relics, remains or knowledge of the Indians and their movements are requested to co-operate. THE EXAMINER will be glad to receive any information bearing upon the subject and will be pleased to see that it is made available for use in the preparation of the reports in question.

TEACHERS APPOINTED.

The Committee on Appointments Hold A Meeting.

A meeting of the Committee on Appointments of the Board of Education was held last evening in the Board room. A general discussion as to matters concerning the schools took place, after which the resignation of Miss Robinson was accepted and Miss Might of Peterborough appointed in her place. Mr. Sorsoleil, of Cobourg, was appointed assistant principal of the South Central School. No appointment was made to fill Mr. Drope's recent position, the matter being left in the hands of the Principal of the Collegiate to secure a specialist. There are only twelve commercial specialists in the Province and it is presumed that the available one of the twelve will be chosen but no decision has been reached. The appointment of a janitor for the new Menzies school was considered but no action was taken.

A Shameful Practice.

Many tooth preparations contain substances that speedily destroy the enamel and beauty of the teeth. For this reason the greatest care should be exercised in the selection of a dentrifice. Ivorine for the teeth is offered with the assurance that it is absolutely free from any objectionable ingredients. An admirable cleanser is Ivorine, imparting dazzling whiteness to the teeth, firmness to the gums, and renders the breath sweet and fragrant.

August Prices.

August is the last month of Summer—the end of the clearing-out season when Summer Goods must give way to Fall Stocks. We cannot afford to carry over one season's goods to the next. We must keep a perennial freshness about our store. For these reasons, you can understand how it comes that you can buy anything in our summer lines just now with very little consideration for what it cost us. Take Wall Paper for instance. An ordinary Wall Paper advertisement in August is about as unlooked for as snow in August. People have almost stopped buying and trade is at low-water mark. But there's a way to stimulate activity even in Wall Paper, and by almost giving away the goods, and doing it agreeably, we think we can crowd this store with buyers during this last of the summer months.

Wall Paper.

Pretty Patterns, for ordinary rooms, that could never be bought for less than 5c. and 6c. per roll, our August price	.3½

Rich Gilt Papers, with border and ceilings to match, worth 20c and 25c. our August price	.15

"What's the matter" with papering the home now instead of waiting until fall? Many families have closed up their homes and are away summering, giving a better chance for the work to be better done and without confusion and discomfort. What a pleasure it would be to return to the brightness of the newly prepared home. Now's the time! when Wall Paper can be bought for half the price it will be in the fall and when it costs less to put it on.

STONY LAKE ITEMS.

Items of Interest from this Popular Summer Resort.

Stony Lake was never so well filled with cottagers and campers as it is now. Go where you will, a picturesque cottage or a white tent will peep out from among the foliage, and its occupants may be seen enjoying themselves in hammocks reading or in a canoe or skiff tempting the finny tribe from their lair with bait and spoon. By the way one of the best trolling grounds is in Clark's Bay, and a large number of lunge have been caught there and are being caught yet.

Saturday and Saturday night is one of the principal days of the week, as it is then a large number go to spend Sunday at the lake and the store on Juniper Island is generally crowded at this time. The lake presents a very pretty appearance on this night, nearly every cottage laying in an abundance of wood during the week to make a bonfire. Talking about fishing, a young gentleman at the head of Clear lake, went out one morning for a troll, and before long he got a monster (!) lunge on. All went well when drawing the fish up to the boat, and the fisherman was anticipating the surprise he would give his friends when he took it home, but alas, there is many a slip between the cup and the lip, for when he was just going to lift it into the boat it gave a kick with the tail and disappeared into the deep water, while a flow of language followed like this ——! ——! ——! ——!

Last Saturday there were about 250 campers went up on the boats, and a large number this week.

Rev. F. Bancroft, of Groveland, U.S., Rev. Dr. Boynton, of Genese, N.Y., Misses Clark, Peterborough, Mr. Turner, Montreal, Mrs. Platt and Mrs. Campbell and daughter, of Montreal, are at "Dulce Domum" cottage. Those registered at "Viamede" cottage this week are Mr. and Mrs. John Gartshore, Miss Minnie Gartshore, Miss J. Gartshore, and Messrs. Leslie, Charles and Stanley Gartshore, Mr. F. M. Pratt, Sec. Y.M.C.A., Toronto, Mr. W. Bryce, of Bishop Ridley College, St. Catharines, Mr. J. M. Charmock, and Miss Arnnott, of Peterborough. All are having an enjoyable time.

"One O'clock Rest" Camp have been camped at Jubilee Point for the past two weeks and are enjoying themselves in a thorough manner in fishing, boating, etc. Their camp call, "Rest! rest! rest! one o'clock rest, people from the west, were all right at one o'clock rest!" may be heard re-echoing over the lake at all hours of the day and night, and many are the blessings which are showered on their heads by those around. On Friday the party boarded the Golden City and had an enjoyable cruise around the lake.

Mrs. W. Cox, Miss M. Stabler and Mr. T. Ridpath spent Sunday at Jubilee Point.

A jolly party from Ashburnham are camped at Crawford's cottage, near Mount Julian. The camp is called Lan Hinda and consists of fourteen persons.

Mrs. Badcock and family are spending a few days at Mr. Grylls' island.

Messrs. George Baptie, W. Baptie and W. Sherin went up for a week's outing on Tuesday.

Miss Shaw's cottage on Hurricane Point is well filled with boarders, who are enjoying themselves in boating and fishing.

Mr. S. Henderson, of Port Hope, has completed a handsome cottage on Mount Julian.

On Friday evening a quiet hop was held at Mount Julian hotel. A good time was spent by those present.

Services will be held on Sunday at Mt. Julian, as well as at Otter Island.

You and Your Grandfather

Are removed from each other by a span of many years. He travelled in a slow going stage-coach while you take the lightning express or the electric car. When he was sick he was treated by old fashioned methods and given old fashioned medicines, but you demand modern ideas in medicine as well as in everything else. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the medicine of to-day. It is prepared by modern methods and to its preparation are brought the skill and knowledge of modern science. Hood's Sarsaparilla acts promptly upon the blood and by making pure, rich blood, it cures disease and establishes good health.

ELECTRIC LIGHT TENDERS.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR. — As there are so many rumours going round town regarding the tenders for street lighting, would you kindly give space in your valuable columns for the following statement:—

Tenders were asked for by the Town Council for the lighting of eighty 2,000 volt lamps for 300 nights in each year, for two years, three years and five years contract.

The Peterborough Light and Power Co's. tender for five years for 300 nights in each year was the sum of $72 per lamp per year, or for 80 lamps for five years, the sum of $5,760.

Our tender for five years for 300 nights in each year was the sum of $57.50 per lamp per year, or for 80 lamps for five years the sum of $4,600, a saving to the town in each year of the contract of $1,160, or a total saving in five years of $5,800 by the Council's acceptance of our tender. To the ratepayers in these hard times it is quite a consideration and would pay the interest on the sewer debentures without increase in the rate of taxation. There is another important factor which should not be lost sight of at this time, and that is—the time and opportunity has come when the town of Peterborough and its citizens can, if they so desire, get the benefits from the waters of the Otonabee river which naturintended they should have, by giving a loyal support to our company and enterprise in harnessing the waters at the Auburn dam for the transmission of power and light at a price that will enable not only our citizens and merchants to economise, but put our manufacturers in a position to compete with the world by giving them power at half the cost of steam. We are not going into this investment from philanthropic motives, but believe that by helping ourselves we at the same time can largely benefit the town in which we are largely interested. Thanking you for the space,

I am, yours truly,
W. H. MELDRUM.

Peterborough, Aug. 8th, 1896.

Healthy, happy children make better men and women of us all. A little care and a little planning before birth is often more important than anything that can be done after. On the mother's health and strength depend the life and the future of the children. A weak and sickly woman cannot bear strong and healthy children. Most of the weakness of women is utterly inexcusable. Proper care and proper medicine will cure almost any disorder of the feminine organism. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has been tested in thirty years of practice. It is healing, soothing, strengthening. It is perfectly natural in its operation and effect. By its use thousands of weak women have been made strong and healthy—have been made the mothers of strong and healthy children. Taken during gestation, it makes childbirth easy and almost painless and insures the well being of both mother and child. Send 31 cents in one-cent stamps to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N.Y., and receive Dr. Pierce's 1008 page "Common Sense Medical Adviser," profusely illustrated.

HYMENEAL.

The following is clipped from the Perth Expositor of July 30th, and will be read with interest:

"A pleasant event took place at the residence of Mrs. Bower, Craig street, on Wednesday, July 22nd, when her eldest daughter, Emma, was united in matrimony to Dr. J. A. Burgess of Lakefield, by the Rev. G. G. Huxtable, pastor of the Methodist church, in the presence of the bride's family and immediate friends. The bride was becomingly attired in her travelling dress of gray effect, trimmed with silk and passementerie, and carried a bouquet of cream roses tied with white ribbon. She was supported by her sister, Miss Cassie, who was attired in a sicilian costume of fawn and green effect, with silk and passementerie trimming and carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations. The house was prettily decorated with ferns and flowers, and in the centre of the drawing room hung a bell made of white waterlillies and moss, under which the newly-married couple received the congratulations of their friends. At the conclusion of the ceremony all sat down to a sumptuous wedding breakfast, after which the bridal couple left on the 3 p. m. train for Brockville, there to take the boat for Montreal, Ottawa and Quebec. The presents to the bride were numerous and costly, and well expressed the esteem in which she is held by her many friends.

Korns. Korns.

There are more than one sort of korns. Some korn is planted in the ground and the other sort don't need planting; they grow quite naturally on men's toes and don't need hoeing. This kind of korn has two sorts—one gentle or tender like until Bill Jones steps on your foot, when it gets boiling and swears like everything; the other is hard headed and makes a row all the time, especially when your boots are on. I don't like korns and use the extracting medicine, Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor, which removes them painlessly in twenty-four hours.

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH ANNUAL CHOIR CAMP.

THE 1896 OUTING OF THE BOYS AT RICE LAKE.

They Have a Merry Time on the Beautiful Shores of Hatrick's Bay and Return Well Pleased With Their Trip.

The choir camp appears to have grown to be regarded as a permanent and recognized item in the annual vicissitudes of the vested choir, as found in our Anglican churches of to-day.

An item of varying pleasure to the principals, we imagine, and not altogether free from responsibility to those in charge of a camp of twenty-five active and energetic youths of the present generation. On all sides we hear, at the present season of the year, some accounts of similar expeditions in other quarters of Ontario, and to day the choristers of St. John's church are full of the many incidents which contributed to the enjoyment of their camp just completed.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 29TH

proved in every respect a propitious day for the start. Accompanied by a large number of friends the choirs of St. John's church and St. John's mission building left the C.P.R. wharf at nine o'clock a.m. In charge of the campers was the Rev. E. V. Stevenson, having as his first lieutenant and manager of the commissariat department, Mr. H. Long. To Mr. Long's kindness and consideration in this department the boys are deeply indebted for every comfort, and many a tasteful repast. The Rev. Carl S. Smith, Dr. Boucher and others were also among the excursionists, while the absence of the rector, the Rev. J. C Davidson, at an important meeting, prevented his presence, but not his sympathy in the expedition.

AT JUBILEE POINT

a short stop was made for luncheon. Under the shade of many a friendly oak might be seen here and there groups of merry parties. From the mysterious recesses of covered baskets came forth such refreshments as only the deft fingers of our fairer sex are capable of producing. Cakes, pies, fruit, pickles of indescribable beauty of quality, greeted the eye and refreshed the palate of those who were fortunate enough to be welcomed amid such surroundings. Here also the kind consideration of our Commissioner of Supplies was in point, and the finishing touch was given to the repast by "the cup that cheers but not inebriates."

AT GORE'S LANDING

the party halted for half an hour's ramble through the village. The beauty of this locality can only be appreciated by those who have seen it. Resting amid the most fruitful country, on all sides surrounded by fields of varied hue, golden, green, and brown—all a beautiful harmony of nature—is a little village with its quaint little church, near it the large summer boarding house, and farther down its one place of business, a general store.

Once more the steamer proceeds to Hatrick's Bay, the scene of the ten days' camp. Judging from the exuberant spirits of the boys, not to mention the amount of baggage and incidentals conducive to comfort here discharged, a pleasant outing was evidently anticipated.

THE POSITION

chosen for the camp was a beautiful one. The kindness of Mr. Hatrick gave permission for the occupancy on his farm, situated on the shores of Rice Lake, directly opposite and between Harwood and Gore's Landing. Near the remains of a once comfortable home, the early residence of Capt. Anderson, four capacious tents were soon in place. From a prominent position in front of the camp a Union Jack floated to the breeze, while the tents were adorned with flags of a smaller and varied order. The dining-room and kitchen were securely moored to the shore. That is to say, a large covered scow was used for such necessary purposes. A pretty scene in all; but not so pretty as that which is offered on the shore opposite. There, day after day, is offered a picture rarely surpassed—a panorama of nature in its perfection. From the shore rises gradually the rich farm land of the county of Northumberland. The undulating ground stands out in relief as upon a canvas, marked in squares, as it is divided into fields, whose different crops, in various stages of maturity, give to the picture the beauty of colour, shown in rural scenery at the time of harvest.

The first night under canvas, as might be imagined, and not altogether unexpected, was not lacking in incident, or interest, to the boys. Sleep there was, but it came in the cool hours of morning, and was appreciated when it came.

THE DAILY ROUTINE

is varied. Directly after breakfast and tea morning and evening prayer, respectively, are said; and joined in, too, be it said, by a reverent and hearty congregation. During the morning and afternoon the entertainment is varied; boating, fishing, swimming and sometimes reading are resorted to, and latterly squads were detailed for preparing the meals under the direction of the officer aforesaid. The evening is, of course, brightened by the usual bonfire and enlivened by the ubiquitous mosquito, and about 10 p.m. Morpheus has claimed most of his victims.

SUNDAY, AUGUST 2ND

was observed just as at home. In the morning service was held in the camp; then came a long and pleasant walk to the Indian village. In the afternoon came visitors from town, in the persons of Mr. F. J. Rogers and Mr. George A. Smith. In the evening, by the kindness of Captain Harris, the choir were conveyed to Gore's Landing, where they assisted in the musical portion of the evening prayer. Their anticipated presence had become known throughout the country and an unusually large congregation was the result.

On Thursday evening the North Star once more visited Hatrick's Bay, an unwelcome visitor to some no doubt, and as she steamed away nothing but the well worn grass and the poor, lonely old scow, as she lay at her moorings, gave evidence of the days of pleasure and freedom, now things of the past.

The officers of the choir are gratefully indebted to many citizens who contributed in various ways to the success of this year's outing. On the whole, it was enjoyable. Only one serious grievance have the boys formulated, and they have not yet forgotten nor forgiven Mr. Stevenson for the way in which he "fooled" them out of their last night's fun.

Thos. Slater has a message for every man on page 3. Don't fail to read it.

NEAT JOB PRINTING AND BOOKBINDING DONE CHEAP AT THE EXAMINER OFFICE

WOMEN are not the only ones who are sensitive about their ages. A man doesn't like to be told that he is getting old. A man doesn't like to get old at all. But worse than getting old, is the appearance of age. Health keeps a man young. It doesn't make any difference if he has lived eighty years. If they have been healthy years, he will be hale and hearty and won't look within twenty years as old as he is. Good digestion and rich, red blood make people look youthful. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery makes rich, red blood. It makes health in the right way. It works according to the right theory, and in 30 years of practice, it has proved that the theory is absolutely correct. It begins at the beginning—begins by putting the stomach, liver and bowels into perfect order, but it begins its good work on the blood before it finishes with the digestive system. It searches out disease germs wherever they may be and forces them out of the body. It promotes the copious secretion of the digestive fluids, and assists in throwing off refuse matter. It makes the appetite good and the digestion strong. It isn't a violent medicine. It isn't strong medicine. It does nothing but good to every portion of the body. It doesn't do harm in one place while it is helping another place. It is meant to help the whole body and it does help it. Whenever a man feels himself failing in health, when he feels that he is getting old too fast, that his vitality is low, and that he is losing flesh, he should waste no time in getting the "Golden Medical Discovery." It will build up quicker than anything else in the world. It will give him rich blood and solid flesh. It will make him feel half as old and twice as strong. Druggists sell it.

Dr. Pierce's 1008 page book, the "People's Common Sense Medical Adviser," in Plain Language, tells all about the "Golden Medical Discovery," and is a complete family doctor book, profusely illustrated. It will be sent free on receipt of thirty-one (31) one-cent stamps to cover cost of customs and mailing only. Address, WORLD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, No. 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

FROM VICTORY TO VICTORY.

Fresh Triumphs of the Great South American Remedies—John Lee Made a New Man by South American Nervine—Twelve Years a Sufferer from Rheumatism—Mrs. F. Brawley is Cured by South American Rheumatic Cure—A Quebec Lady Tells of Relief in Six Hours by the Use of South American Kidney Cure.

In a practical, everyday sense it might be said that this is still the age of miracles. At least, in many cases, where people have looked upon death as imminent, the disease has been removed and they have been made whole.

Records like the following lead to this belief:—John Lee, of Pembroke, Ont., says: "I was run down in flesh, had lost appetite, suffered intensely from indigestion, and feared fatal results would follow. The skill of several physicians and the use of many patent medicines resulted in no beneficial results. I was induced to try a bottle of South American Nervine Tonic and, continuing its use, I am a new man to day."

For twelve years continuously Mrs. F. Brawley, of Tottenham, Ont., suffered from rheumatism. No remedies did any good until she used South American Rheumatic Cure. She says: "The first few doses entirely freed me from pain." She had spent almost a fortune in doctoring, when five bottles of this remedy cured her.

South American Kidney Cure is unique in its methods. It is not like pills and powders, a remedy that only gives temporary relief. As a liquid, it dissolves the hard stone-like particles gathered in the system that constitute kidney disease. Not the least that can be said for it is the quickness with which it cures. Mrs. A. E. Young, of Barnston, Quebec, says: "I found relief in the use of this medicine within six hours after the first dose had been taken."

THE IRISH LAND BILL

Seems to be Making Haste Through the House of Lords.

London, Aug. 7.—The House of Lords today passed the Irish Land Bill through committee after five hours' further debate. The hostility shown towards the measure was less marked than was expected. Several of the amendments offered were withdrawn. One amendment was rejected by a vote of 59 to 44, the announcement of the result being greeted with cheers, and one was carried, 61 to 46, in opposition to the Government. The report on the committee stage and the third reading of the bill are fixed for Monday next.

THE SMALLEST EQUINE.

This Little Colt is Carried Round in an Ordinary Market Basket.

Canandaigua, N.Y., Aug. 7.—This place has the honor of being the birthplace of the smallest living equine in the world, born here yesterday afternoon. The colt was borne by an Iceland pony mare belonging to a traveling circus. The animal weighs eight and one-half pounds, height two hands and three-fourths, or 11 inches. The colt was named "Canandaigua." It was conveyed from the show grounds to the train in a market basket.

IT IS ALL TALK.

Yes, but it is Norwood Talk—The Kind That Tells in Norwood.

Talk that tells.

Talk that is endorsed.

Every day talk by people that know.

City talk.

Kidney talk.

Do the kidneys talk?

Well, yes, both loud and long.

You are learning the kidney language.

Backache in kidney language means kidney ache.

Lame back means weak kidneys.

Weak back means weak kidneys.

The kidneys are talking trouble

Here is some Norwood talk:

Mr. George Taylor, well known in Norwood, has this to say about Doan's Kidney Pills:—

"For a great many years I have been a sufferer from kidney disease. Terrible pain in my side and back made my life a burden. The urine was a dark wine colour, and I was greatly troubled with frequent urination. My sleep was destroyed because of this annoying trouble.

"I have taken scores of medicines, but could get no relief, and thought that I would never be cured. Happily I heard about Doan's Kidney Pills, and got a box at J. C. Moffatt's drug store, and have continued their use for one month.

"I am thankful to say as a result that they have fixed me up. I feel like another person. I do not now have to get up at night, and in fact am entirely cured.

"I think they are the grandest medicine ever placed before the public, and I heartily recommend them to all sufferers from kidney disorder of any kind."

A NEW TELEPHONE IDEA.

The Plan Will Prevent Many of the Annoyances That Irritate Mankind.

One of the leading electric papers published an extended description of the new telephone exchange at Worcester, Mass., which is said to be the most complete yet established. The description of the new switchboard, while intended to interest electricians, will also interest the subscriber, who will appreciate that the delays that cause him to grow heartsick, the sudden, whirring sounds that assail his ears, the mysterious silence that descends upon the ear, and which will continue unbroken as long as he remains standing at the instrument with the receiver screwed into his ear; the discovery that he is talking to 4999 Brooklyn when he asked for 777 Harlem—all these are the fault of central's mechanical appliances, and not the result of any dislike the telephone girl has formed for you without reason, says the New York Journal.

The new switchboard is the first multiple ever constructed employing automatic signals, and it is unquestionably the most rapid operating board ever constructed. Not only is an operator enabled to complete the work of making a connection for a subscriber whose call she answers, but the signals are so skillfully arranged that she has constant knowledge of the several connections under her charge. It is not necessary for the operator to listen into the line to determine whether a subscriber has answered his bell, nor to find out whether or not he has finished talking, for all this and more is shown her by the lamp signals placed upon the keyboard.

When the subscriber removes his telephone from the hook it lights a lamp upon the switchboard, which indicates that the operator must place a plug in a jack close beside the lighted lamp.

The placing of this plug extinguishes the line lamp, and, on receiving the number wanted, the operator places the second plug of the pair in the jack of the subscriber to be called, which lights a lamp on the keyboard corresponding to that particular cord, which lamp remains lighted until the called-for subscriber removes his telephone from the hook.

This lamp then goes out and the connection is allowed to remain until both lamps in this set of cords light. The operator understands by this that both subscribers have replaced their telephones on the hook, and her duty then is to take down the cords and plugs which automatically extinguishes the lights.

Coal Oil Disinfectant.

Coal oil as a substitute for flushing by water in public urinals has proved highly successful after three years' trial in Paris, Vienna and Berlin. The clinging of offensive matter to the stone or cement walls is prevented by making a fatty substance soak into the stone. The stone work is first thoroughly cleansed with a solution of hydrochloric acid in water, then dried, and coal or other mineral oils applied with a whitewash brush. With renewed application of oil only once in two months the place can be kept perfectly sweet and clean. In practice, however, in all three cities, oil is applied every morning. The cost in two large institutions in France is proved to be very slight. At the Marine school at Bordeaux $5.50 of oil was used in three years, while at the Rambouillet infantry school $4 of oil sufficed for a year. This is out of all proportion to the cost of water for flushing in the same time. There seems to be no danger of the pipes freezing, for the urinals of Berlin open to the air have been exposed to a temperatur of zero Fahrenheit.

Sure to Win.

The people recognize and appreciate real merit. That is why Hood's Sarsaparilla has the largest sales in the world. Merit in medicine means the power to cure. Hood's Sarsaparilla cures—absolutely, permanently cures. It is the One True Blood Purifier. Its superior merit is an established fact, and merit wins.

Hood's Pills are easy to take, easy to operate. Cure indigestion, headache.

Air in Workshops.

An ingenious device for testing the purity of the air in workshops and other crowded places is on exhibition at Zurich. A closed vessel filled with a chemical solution, sensitive to carbonic acid gas, sends out a drop through a glass syphon every two minutes; the drop soaks through a cord hanging vertically from the end of the syphon. If the air is very bad, the drop changes its natural color, red, to white at once, at the upper end of the cord. It keeps its color along the cord in proportion to the purity of the air, not changing at all if the air is perfectly pure. A graduated scale fixed to the cord marks the degree of impurity.

A Scientist on Brown Bread.

At a recent meeting of the Paris Academy of Sciences a memoir was presented by M. A. Girard on the food value of bread from different specimens of screened flour. He arrives at the conclusion, from a comparative study of the amounts of phosphorus in various samples of bread, that there is no reason to recommend brown bread when the digestive organs are in a healthy state.

A New Bicycle Step.

Something new in bicycle steps is one of the most recent patents pertaining to the wheel. The steps assist the rider in starting the machine before his foot has reached the pedal in mounting. The steps are so arranged in connection with a spring, a pawl and a ratchet wheel secured to the axle of the rear wheel, that when the weight of the latter is thrown on the step the wheel receives a forward impulse.

THE PEARL WAS SAFE.

But an Unfounded Rumor That She Had Foundered Caused a Great Deal of Uneasiness.

Buffalo, Aug. 6.—Telegrams from various points along the Canadian border to-night made enquiry with respect to the steamer Pearl, which had been reported to have foundered with an excursion party coming here from Crystal Beach, a summer resort on the Canadian shore. The rumor of her loss had become current in the city also and created much uneasiness. It was found to be without foundation, as the Pearl reached her dock safely about 6.30, and left immediately for a trip down the river.

Gentlemen,—For the last ten years I had been troubled with kidney disease, being so bad at intervals that I could not lie in bed at night nor stoop to the ground.

I had tried all the remedies I could find without effect, but heard of Dodd's Kidney Pills and procured a box.

I am most happy to say it for my own sake as well as for others that I am perfectly cured after using four boxes.

FAMILY MEDICINE

She Has Ever Known. Words of Praise from a New York Lady for

AYER'S PILLS

"I would like to add my testimony to that of others who have used Ayer's Pills, and to say that I have taken them for many years, and always derived the best results from their use. For stomach and liver troubles, and for the cure of headache caused by these derangements, Ayer's Pills cannot be equaled.

When my friends ask me what is the best remedy for disorders of the stomach, liver, or bowels, my invariable answer is, Ayer's Pills. Taken in season, they will break up a cold, prevent la grippe, check fever, and regulate the digestive organs. They are easy to take, and are, indeed, the best all-round family medicine I have ever known."—Mrs. May Johnson, 308 Rider Avenue, New York City.

THE PRIZE IN GOOD HANDS.

London Daily News Congratulates the Canadian Team at Shoeburyness.

London, Aug. 6.—The Daily News tomorrow will publish an article congratulating the Canadian artillery team upon winning the Queen's Prize in the Shoeburyness competition. The article recalls with delight the message of loyalty sent to the British Government by Canada early in the present year, and concludes by declaring that the Queen's Prize is in good hands.

FOUR YEARS FOR ABDUCTION.

A Windsor Woman Sent Down for Entrapping a 15-Year-Old Girl.

Windsor, Ont., Aug. 6.—Mrs. Lillie Payne of Windsor, who was on trial for the abduction of 15-year-old Lillie Bissett, before Judge Horne this afternoon, was sentenced to four years in the penitentiary, and James Moore, the hunter of Malden Township, who assaulted Farmer Fearless because the latter informed on him for shooting game out of season, was given one year in the Central Prison.

Hood's Sarsaparilla purifies the blood, overcomes that tired feeling, creates an appetite, and gives refreshing sleep.

ABOUT THE LIVER.

A lazy, slow or torpid liver influences the whole system, causing biliousness, sick headache, sallow complexion, languor and dullness. Burdock Blood Bitters regulates the liver, purifies the secretions and cures all forms of liver troubles. We say so and here is the proof:—

I hereby wish to thank you for the great benefit derived by me from your Burdock Blood Bitters. For three years I was troubled with liver complaint and tried everything to no purpose. I had almost given up hope until one day I determined to try Burdock Blood Bitters. I can say now that marked improvement resulted from the use of the first bottle and at the end of the sixth bottle I discontinued its use, being completely cured.

If you want your pet canary to sing his best and look his prettiest, feed him occasionally with hard boiled eggs, chopped fine and mixed with cracker crumbs. Do not give him more than a thimbleful of the mixture at a time.

It is well to know that if you have a watermelon on hand and no ice you may still keep it cool by rolling it in wet cloths and placing it in the sun. As the cloth on the outside becomes dry keep wetting it. The process of evaporation will cool the melon.

You may have observed that to keep flowers fresh florists always exclude them from the air. To do this effectually wet them thoroughly, put them in a damp box and cover them with wet raw cotton or newspaper, and then place them in a cool spot.

A tin box is much better for holding bread than a stone crock. During the hot weather it requires special attention to prevent the contents from moulding. It should be scalded at least twice a week and aired in the sun before any fresh bread is put in it.

It is good to know that gilt frames may be freshened up when their condition would seem to warrant that they were only fit to be thrown away. A little gold paint to touch up the scraped patches and a washing with one ounce of soda beaten up with the whites of three eggs will revive them past recognition.

This is the season of cucumbers and waterbugs. They are placed thus in conjunction because it is said that the peeling from the former, if kept in water, and at night scattered around the pipes, and places frequented by this species of bug, will, on two or three applications, cause them to disappear.

Potato buttons are the newest and cheapest in the market. It is not generally known that the potato, if treated with certain acids becomes almost as hard as stone. It cannot be distinguished except by a careful examination and then only by experts. It is every bit as good looking as a button of bone or ivory.

The good old fashion of home weaving threatens to become a fad since the Princess of Wales and her daughters have turned their attention that way. Woolen homespun, cotton and silks are not only more durable, but more satisfactory from an esthetic point of view when handwoven.

George D. Kidder, of Plainfield, Vt., has a remarkable cat. It fishes nearly every day and catches enough suckers and horn-pouts to provide its own food, and, unlike other cats, it has little fear of the water. It is a common experience to see the cat swimming across the river with as little concern as a dog.

As one of us is apt to run out of clean handkerchiefs and an iron is not always convenient. If you will try rubbing them out with warm water and soap and then hanging them against a clean, sunny window to dry, they will come out quite as good looking as if sent to a laundry. The glass serves as an iron and the sun as a bleacher.

Out in Polk county, Nebraska, and in some of the adjoining counties they have a queer lot of wells. They are called "tide wells," because of a peculiar habit their waters have of ebbing and flowing, just as if they were connected with a great underground ocean. Polk county alone has between twelve and twenty of these queer roaring wells.

Hives and prickly heat are unpleasant summer annoyances. To arrest the former, all fish, pork, cheese, pickles, sauerkraut and strawberries should be stricken from one's menu. An excellent cure for prickly heat is simple enough to try. Mix a large portion of wheat bran with either cold or lukewarm water, and use it, two or three time a day, as a bath.

The usual source of pearls found within the oyster appears to be the intrusion of some small foreign body which sets up an irritation of cuticle. The only means of defence open to the mollusk is to deposit a layer of nacre around the irritating particle, and thus cut it off from the soft, tender skin. A grain of sand or a small crustacean may slip in between the lips, an exciting up irritation, provoke the cuticle to deposit around it a series of thin films of nacre. These are added to from time to time, the little nucleus is completely encysted and a pearl is the result.—August Ladies' Home Journal.

Its best use is before you fear consumption; when you begin to get thin, weak, run n; then is the prudent to begin to take care, and the best way to take care is to supply the system with needed fat and strength. Scott's Emulsion of cod-liver oil, with hypophosphites, will bring back plumpness to those who have lost it, and make strength where raw cod-liver oil would be a burden.

LACROSSE.

This is how the Port Hope Times speaks of Thursday's lacrosse game :—

The long talked of lacrosse match between the Athletics, of Peterborough, and the Ontarios, of Port Hope, resulted in a disgraceful display of brute force, that disgusted every right thinking person and drove hundreds of lady spectators from the grounds. Lacrosse in Port Hope received a severe set-back, and the prestige that the national game lost through the actions of both teams and their supporters will not be regained until the memory of yesterday's outrage upon decency and order has died away.

To any fair-minded individual to lay the blame solely upon either team would be an absurdity and an injustice. While naturally, the sympathies of Port Hope citizens and Port Hope press are with the local players, yet in all fairness the truth should be told, and when it is, the fact will be apparent that both the Port Hope and Peterborough lacrossists disgraced themselves and the towns they represented. In justice to the teams, however, let it be said that the trouble which arose during the progress the second game, in which a Peterborough player viciously assaulted his opponent and the opponent immediately retaliated, would probably have ended there and the game continued had it not been for the interference of the outsiders, who rushed upon the field and in a few moments created a riot, in which free fights, slugging and profanity became general, and occurred in a dozen places at the same time all over the field. The mob was not composed entirely of one faction by any means. The enthusiasts and supporters of both teams were about evenly divided and seemed bent on starting as many fights as possible. The scene that followed was one in which the bad blood and pent-up enmity which which has existed for several seasons between the two teams was given full outlet. The grand stand, which was packed with ladies, emptied very suddenly, showing very plainly that the spectators were disgusted by the bloodthirsty orgie going on in the field.

Although Peterborough scored the first goal it was generally admitted that the teams were about evenly matched, and that the game would be close. It was more by luck than good play that the first goal was scored. The Ontarios had hardly wakened up to the game, but had been sizing up their opponents, and during the interval that occurred before the second game was called, the members of the home team felt confident that they could reverse the result of the first. From the face off in the second game, it was plainly seen that the Ontarios were out to win and that Peterborough would have to work harder than ever to score again. The play was hot and furious, and rough. The rubber was constantly passing from one goal to another, although the play was oftener in the territory of the Peterborough's, and only their strong defence prevented the Ontarios from scoring. The struggle continued for nearly ten minutes, when the ball was sent up towards the Ontario's goal. Richardson went after it and was hotly pursued by Lipsett, of the Peterborough's, who was no sooner within reach of Richardson than he brought his stick with tremendous force upon Richardson's head, cutting open the scalp, and causing the blood to gush forth. Richardson turned on his assailant and returned the blow, striking Lipsett behind the ear.

At this juncture the row began. The outsiders rushed upon the field, surrounded the two players and in less time than it takes to write it a free fight was in progress. After the teams had withdrawn from the mob, the outsiders continued to fight among themselves and this was continued for fully half an hour.

In the meantime Peterborough's team had got together and decided not to play longer. The referee then gave the game to Port Hope. The teams gave three cheers for each other and the crowd moved towards town, the procession being interrupted at frequent intervals by fights and wranglings.

It is very much to be regretted that yesterday's game ended as it did. The Ontarios were in better form than they have been this season, and the Peterboroughs were in good condition. Had the rough play been eliminated, the spectators would have seen a good game of lacrosse. The two teams can play a splendid game and it is only when such teams come together that an exciting match can be had. It is to be regretted that these teams cannot come together without fighting.

The mistake was made in having the game played in Port Hope. Where such intense rivalry exists a neutral field should be chosen, and there should be sufficient police on the grounds to keep the outsiders from rushing upon the grounds on the slightest pretext. Any member of either team upon slugging or beating his check should be promptly placed under arrest, and charged with assault, the same as would be the case should an attack of a like nature be made on the street. This would soon do away with such brutal conduct as was displayed yesterday.

The Ontarios would likely have defeated their opponents had the game gone on, and had the play been gentlemanly and fair. As it is it is no honour to the Ontarios to have won the match given them, and both teams are in disgrace.

There is no doubt that the Peterboroughs came to Port Hope determined to win or fight. It is equally certain that the Ontarios had made up their minds to give blow for blow. This being the case, the result could not be otherwise than it was. Where such bitterness exists between teams they should not be allowed to come together. The Peterboroughs undoubtedly started the slugging and had several men ruled off on that account.

Peterboroughians who saw the game can judge of the correctness of the Times' remarks.

The Bicycle Club has arranged for a local race meet on the afternoon of Thursday, August 13th, on the Nicholls Park track. PISCATORIAL.

Anglers down in the eastern townships are petitioning the Department of Marine and Fisheries in Ottawa to have the close season for pickerel and maskinonge extended to the 23rd of May, as they claim that the lakes and rivers are being fished right out. At present the close season lasts for pickerel to the 15th of May, and for maskinonge to the 1st of July. The matter is receiving the attention of the Fisheries Commissioner.

They Deserve Pity.

Safety and Life Depend Upon Paine's Celery Compound.

We must sympathize with and pity the poor, weary and jaded sufferer whose life is made miserable and almost unbearable in the hot weather.

The healthiest of us have all we can do to withstand the enervating effect of scorching days and sweltering nights. The sick mortals—heaven help them—must suffer increased agony during these hots days.

The troubles that bring low the majority of people at this season are nervous prostration, nervous debility, dyspepsia, indigestion, headache, and a host of trials that result from impure and poisoned blood.

The above troubles attack men and women because their supply of nerve force is almost exhausted. Loss of this nerve force and feebleness is at the root of nearly every case of sickness.

A true nerve medicine is what is needed if health is to be restored, and the dark grave avoided. Paine's Celery Compound is a perfect and unfailing restorer of nerve force and power to weakened and debilitated system. It quickly cures prostration, sleeplessness, headache, dyspepsia indigestion ; it cleanses the poisoned blood and gives new life and permanent vitality and strength.

Paine's Celery Compound combines the most efficient alteratives, laxatives and diuretics, and soon restores the sick one to complete health. To day it is earth's most reliable medicine ; it is made for your special case, poor sufferer, and its use will implant that state of health you are so earnestly longing for.

As there are vile liquid imitations sold in many places, insist upon your dealer giving you "Paine's," the kind that cures.

To Tired Ladies.

When you are exhausted and feel played out take a glass of Calcutt's Porter ; it will freshen you up and make work a pleasure. Should be used by everybody during house cleaning. tf

RACE WAR IN POLK CO., ARK.

Three Negro Laborers Shot Dead by Whites Who Made an Attack Upon Their Camp.

Texarkana, Ark., Aug. 9.—The race war in Polk County has broken out in earnest and as a result of the first battle three negroes are dead, eight wounded and many have been run out of the county by the whites. The trouble is between white and black laborers employed on the grading of the Kansas City, Pittsburg & Gulf Railway near Horatio, Ark. The white laborers are determined that the negroes shall not work on the road and are being backed up by citizens of the county, who have armed themselves for the purpose of running the negroes out. Thursday night a lot of whites made a raid on a camp occupied by negro laborers and three of the latter were killed, several others wounded and a number fled in terror. The names of the killed are not known. Several of the leaders of the raid have been arrested.

THE FRENCH POPULATION.

Their New Census Does Not Make a Very Good Showing.

New York, Aug. 9.—Harold Frederic cables from London to The Times: The French are taking to heart the unpleasant showing of their new census much more than they did five years ago. Their republic, in the first throes of its ecstasy at the prospect of a Russian alliance, had consoled itself by the thought that if the French population did not increase, the Russian expanded at a tremendous rate. But now a good deal of gilt is off the ginger bread. Those multiplying Muscovite hordes by no means are so definitely under the French thumb as they were expected to be, and the Russian alliance itself is openly dependent on an unbroken station of loans from French savings. These savings still make France the richest country in the world, but they also make it a shining attraction to outside robbers. Germany has now 14,000,000 more people than France, and the disparity increases with tragic certainty yearly.

WAS BURIED THREE DAYS.

Hypnotic Subject Wyatt Disinterred After His Brief Season Under Ground.

Indianapolis, Aug. 8.—J. J. Wyatt was placed under hypnotic influence by Prof. Boone in this city on Tuesday last. At night he was taken to Fairview Park and buried under four feet of earth with a shaft extending from the surface to his face to give him air. Thousands of people visited the park to look upon the living dead man, and to-night fully 10,000 were present when the earth was dug away and Wyatt was brought out. When taken out of the ground Wyatt's form was rigid, and there was no appearance whatever of life.

Five men were selected to hold him and he was placed upon his feet. Boone waved his hands before his face and Wyatt began to struggle like a madman, and he threw several men to the ground. Much excitement prevailed, the crowd scattering, and three ladies fainted from fright. Others came to the assistance of the men holding him, and after a few moments he became quiet.

A half hour later he was provided with something to eat, and with water he ate and drank heartily. He had been under ground since Tuesday night at 9 o'clock, and during that time had had neither food nor water.

A STRONG-WILLED PRINCESS.

Did Not Take Queen Victoria's Hint to Stay Away From England.

New York, Aug. 9.—A London special says: The Cowes regatta has suffered greatly in brilliancy this year from two causes—the court in mourning for Prince Henry of Battenberg and the absence of the Kaiser, whose visits in the last few years had given great eclat to the gathering, by compelling the Queen to provide certain semi-State court entertainments at Osborne. The only royal visitor this year has been the Crown Princess Stephanie of Austria, who again insisted on coming, although it had been hinted to her that the Queen would rather be relieved of the duty of seeing any foreign royalties there on this occasion. The Crown Princess has a very strong will, and her reply to this intimation was to engage rooms at the chief hotel at Ryde. Hearing this the Queen had no option but to invite her to sleep one night at Osborne. The vagaries of the Crown Princess are becoming as remarkable almost as those of her mother-in-law, the Empress of Austria.

A TRAMP WITH A RECORD.

The Steamer Lady Furness Sails 8000 Miles for a Cargo.

Quarantine, S.I., Aug. 9.—The British tramp steamer Lady Furness arrived this morning from Delagoa Bay, South Africa, in ballast, making one of the longest voyages on record for a steamer in ballast. The distance traveled was a little over 8,100 miles. There was no cargo of any nature to be had for this port and as the vessel was chartered to load again from this port for South Africa, she was obliged to come empty-handed.

DROWNING RECORD.

A Number of Persons Found Watery Graves.

TWO TORONTONIANS WERE VICTIMS

James McMaster Met His Fate in the Murray Canal—A Young Man and His Fiancee Lost at Montreal—Other Cases on Saturday and Sunday.

Toronto, Aug. 10.

Russell Pollard, aged 23, who lived with his widowed mother at 11 Argyle street, was drowned in the bay yesterday afternoon, while bathing, off the sand bar, opposite Brock street. The young man is supposed to have got beyond his depth. As soon as he was missed, Arthur E. Rutherford, 141 Peter-street, dived for him and recovered the body in a few minutes. Dr. Wood and others worked for three hours trying to revive him, but without success. The body was taken home in the patrol wagon. Coroner Greig was notified, and decided that an inquest was unnecessary. The remains will be taken to Port Perry. The young man's father dropped dead about six months ago at Toronto Junction, while running to catch a street car.

JOHN CATTON'S FATAL HOLIDAY.

The Sad Drowning of a Young Man Who Supported His Widowed Mother.

John Catton, a young fellow of 17, who resided at 147 DeGrassi-street, was drowned on Saturday afternoon at Rosebank, near Whitby. He had just commenced a short holiday and was to have met there three friends named Walter and Wallace Haney and Harry Ellis, all of whom live on De Grassi-street, with whom he intended to have two or three days' sailing. While awaiting their arrival he engaged a rowboat, and in the act of stepping from the wharf to the boat, it capsized, and he fell into the lake, which at this spot is very deep. He was in the water ten minutes before he was recovered, and although then still alive, and a doctor was promptly on the spot, all efforts to maintain vitality proved unavailing.

The sad news was brought to his home by two cyclists. The Rev. J. W. Blackler of St. Matthew's, was at the house at the time making a customary parochial visit. The grief of the mother was terrible to witness. Exactly three weeks ago her husband died from consumption, after a prolonged illness, and the young man was the principal bread-winner in the family. Four years ago he nearly lost his life by drowning in the same neighborhood on the occasion of the Sunday school picnic.

The funeral takes place this afternoon at 3 o'clock, from St. Matthew's Church.

DROWNED AT KINCARDINE.

Aleck Roe, Ten Years of Age, Loses His Life Swimming to the Breakwater.

Kincardine, Aug. 8.—At Kincardine this afternoon about 2 o'clock, while in bathing with two boys about his own size, Aleck Roe, 10 years of age, fifth son of Lat Roe of this town, was drowned. He was trying to swim from the shore to a breakwater about half way out on the south pier, but became tired out, and before assistance could be rendered him was drowned. He had been under water about fifteen minutes before his body was recovered, and all efforts to restore him to life were fruitless.

THEIR WEDDING WAS DEATH.

Fred Organ and His Future Bride Drowned at Montreal.

Montreal, Aug 9.—(Special.)—While four young people were boating near St. Helen's Island yesterday, the craft upset, and Fred Organ and Miss Hughes, who had been engaged for some time, were drowned. The other two were rescued. The young lady's body has not yet been recovered.

Later.—The body of the young girl Hughes, who was drowned at St. Helen's Island yesterday, has been recovered. She was the daughter of Mr. Hughes, a prominent grocer, and at one time President of the Dominion Commercial Travelers' Association

DROWNED IN THE MURRAY CANAL.

James McMaster Follows His Father to a Watery Grave Eight Years After.

Brighton, Ont., Aug. 9.—This morning James McMaster, a young man about 17 years of age, living with his uncle, George Evans, was drowned in the Murray Canal. It appears he and another young man went in bathing. Being unable to swim, he got beyond his depth and was drowned. The body was recovered about an hour after. Some eight years ago his father met the same fate in the Skeena River, B.C.

DISASTER AT DETROIT.

Many Yachts Were Capsized in the Storm and Three Were Drowned.

Detroit, Mich, Aug. 9.—A terrific rainstorm broke over this city to-night after a day of intense heat. The storm was accompanied by a high wind which swept over the river and Lake St. Clair, upsetting a dozen yachts which were on the river at the time. There were a number of daring rescues. Three persons are so far known to have been drowned—W. J. Thiemar, Frank Hughes and John Heika, jr. There are reports to-night that several persons are missing who are known to have been on the water. Henry Henkel, aged 42, was killed at Port Huron to-day on his yacht the Analla.

Dinner to Minister Fielding.

Halifax, N.S., Aug. 9.—The dinner to Hon. W. S. Fielding, Minister of Finance, at the City Club last night, was a quiet affair. George A. Pyke, vice-president of the club, was at the head of the table and 37 others were present. Short speeches were made by Hon. Mr. Fielding, H. Russell, M.P., T. G. Forbes, ex-M.P., and W. B. Wallace, M.L.A.

HON. EDWARD BLAKE

One of a Committee Appointed to Make Enquiry

INTO SOUTH AFRICAN MATTERS.

A Hope That the Committee May be Able to Extend the Good Feeling Now Existing Between Great Britain and the Transvaal—Cable News.

New York, Aug. 9.—Mr. Ford cables from London: The committee of 15 appointed to investigate South African affairs in general, and Cecil Rhodes and the Chartered Company in particular, is fairly representative, and will probably stand. Threats are made that Mr. Labouchere's appointment will be challenged on account of his fierce hostility to Rhodes, but it will be an unusual and extreme measure for his opponents to object to his service for that reason. The Parliamentary committee is supposed to represent all sections of opinion in the Commons, and Mr. Labouchere is an exponent of the most critical and hostile opponents of Rhodes, and is entitled to serve. It is not likely that the Commons will adopt the unprecedented course of displacing him, nor will the Irish members object seriously to Mr. Blake's appointment as their representative. He is not a Redmondite, nor a Healyite, but he is connected with the largest section of Nationalists, and is well adapted for committee work, having a peculiar talent for the examination of witnesses and the conduct of a legal enquiry. As an orator and debater, Mr. Blake has disappointed his friends, but he is among the best committeemen in the House of Commons. This committee will not be likely to turn over much new soil in its investigation.

The facts are now well known, and merely require to be re-stated with the authority of Parliament. The chief function of the committee will be to satisfy the just demands of the Boers upon the British sense of justice and right, and thereby lead to the reconciliation of the two races upon whose co-operation the future welfare of South Africa depends. Whether Jameson and his gentleman raiders eat prison rations and enjoy hours of elegant indolence in jail is a matter of slight importance in comparison with the real problems in South Africa, affecting the relations of antagonistic and suspicious races, and the methods of dealing with and utilising the natives.

The quality of mercy is not strained in the Transvaal, and with justice done in England to law breakers who have defied the authority of the Crown, a way has been opened for a new era of peace and good feeling in and beyond the Rand, and the committee may be able to enlarge and extend it.

THE IRISH LAND BILL.

Several Tory Opponents Claim That the Amendments Made by the House of Lords Bettered the Bill.

London, Aug. 9.—A statement signed by the Duke of Abercorn, the Marquis of Londonderry, Col. Edward J. Saunderson, M.P., and other Tory opponents of the Irish Land Bill, has been issued. It repudiates the idea that the amendments made to the bill by the House of Lords are calculated to destroy the character of the measure and to wreck it unless the House of Commons rejects the amendments with the consent of the Upper House. The statement claims that the amendments improve an ill-drawn and an ill-arranged measure.

BUTCHERED 30 CHRISTIANS.

The Horrible Work of Mussulmans in the Island of Crete.

London, Aug. 9.—The Athens correspondent of The Daily News telegraphs that a body of Mussulmans yesterday butchered 30 unarmed Christians within the precincts of the monastery at Anapolis, near Candia. One priest was burned alive. The correspondent adds that Col. Abdullah, a Kurd, who is now in Macedonia, will supercede Hassan Pasha, Governor of Candia.

WOLSELEY IS IN HOT WATER.

His Indiscreet Statement About the Indian Army Causes Trouble.

New York, Aug. 9.—Mr. H. R. Chamberlain cables from London to The New York Sun: There is no end to the rumpus caused by Lord Wolseley's remark a few days ago before the Investigating Committee that he would not like to lead Great Britain's Indian troops against any European soldiers. The storm of indignant protest that is already coming from India has seriously embarrassed the Commander-in-Chief, who deeply repents his indiscretion. The matter is made worse rather than better by an explanation made on his behalf to-day, in which he says that for the purposes for which it is designed the Queen's Indian army could not be better fitted.

WHO IS MRS. MARY ROGERS?

A Woman From Canada Charged With Attempting to Burn a Buffalo Hotel.

Buffalo, Aug. 8.—Mrs. Mary Rogers, a young woman hailing from Canada, who has been employed at the State Park Hotel on Delaware street as a domestic for a few days, was arrested this afternoon by Officer Thomas Mahoney and locked up on a charge of arson. Mrs. James W. Hanavan, wife of one of the proprietors, found a pile of rags saturated with grease and with an incipient fire in them, in a store room, and, knowing that no one else had been in the room this morning made a complaint against Mrs. Rogers, who was soon to leave the hotel. Mrs. Rogers denies the charge, but it is stated that she has conducted herself in a peculiar manner. Her examination was set down for Monday morning.

ROBBED THE POSTOFFICE.

Burglars Break Open the Safe of W. A. Cole at Hampton.

Bowmanville, Aug. 9.—At an early hour the postoffice and general store kept by Mr. W. A. Cole at Hampton was broken into and the safe robbed. The thieves, who procured the tools from Clark's blacksmith shop, after cutting the safe open, carried off all the cash and postage stamps, amounting to nearly $30, besides some clothing. Chief Jarvis of Bowmanville has the case in hand, but, as yet, there is no clue to the robbers, further than that they were tracked to the town. No one was sleeping in the building last night.

THE NEW MINISTER OF AGRICULTURE.

An earnest of the interest of the Laurier-Mowat Government in the farmers of Canada is afforded by the fact of a practical farmer being selected for the important position of Minister of Agriculture. The Farmers' Advocate prints a fine portrait of our handsome Minister of Agriculture, with the following information as to his qualification and endorsation of his selection:—

"As most of our older readers are aware, he is the owner of Alva Stock Farm (comprising some four hundred fertile acres, near Knowlton, P.Q.), whose Guernseys have won distinction in the show rings for their owner and breeder. It ranks among the most beautiful and best-managed farms of that thrifty agricultural district, and its dairy and other products, as well as its live stock, attest the practical skill and enterprise of its owner.

Hon. Mr. Fisher was the son of Dr. Arthur Fisher of Montreal, whose grandfather came to Canada from Dunkeld, Scotland. He was born on June 13th, 1850, so that now he is in the very heyday of a vigorous manhood. Educated in the High School and McGill University, he graduted in Trinity College, Cambridge University; hence his attainments in that respect are of the very highest order. For twenty-three years past he has devoted his whole time and abilities to the study and practice of agriculture, which he very properly regards as a science as well as a business, the principles of which men must observe if they would succeed. Connected with no other business or profession, he once bluntly and modestly described himself as "only a farmer." He was first elected M.P. for his present seat (Brome) at the general election of 1882, and was re-elected in 1887. In 1891 he sustained a reverse, but in the recent election he was again triumphant. During his nine years of Parliamentary service in the House of Commons he interested himself especially in whatever concerned the interests of farming. His long residence and active interest in the affairs of his county caused him to be made Justice of the Peace for Bedford district. For a number of years he has been a director and vice-president of the Quebec Provincial Dairy Association, director and vice-president of the Provincial Fruit Growers' Association, and a director of the Agricultural Society of his own county, so that both locally and provincially he has earned the confidence of his fellows.

When the British Association for the Advancement of Science assembled at Montreal in 1884, he was asked to write a paper, which was presented to that learned body on behalf of farming in the Province of Quebec.

The new Premier in casting about for a representative of agriculture in his Cabinet accorded to Mr. Fisher the honour for which his experience and attainments alike seem to have pre-eminently fitted him. Canada being essentially an agricultural country, we long ago took the ground that the time had arrived when the necessities of the situation demanded that the Agricultural Department should have such a man at its head. In this connection it is also satisfactory to note the presence of Hon. Mr. Joly in the Ministry, who, though not a farmer, has always taken a personal interest in the agricultural progress of his Province, especially in the matter of forestry, which is with him a great hobby. Then the new Postmaster-General, Hon Mr. Mulock, though eminent as a lawyer and a scholar, is likewise a farmer on a large scale in the County of York, Ont. Breeders will remember the vigorous and helpful way in which he brought before the last session of Parliament the matter of outrageous freight rates on breeding stock, which some overreaching railway officials sought to impose last winter.

Mr. Fisher is to be congratulated upon this distinction, which we believe will command general favour; but it is a position imposing many and serious responsibilities, and we safe in bespeaking for him the co-operation of all who have at heart the interests of farmers and breeders, feeling certain that whatever promises to promote their interests will have his most careful and enthusiastic aid.

IN New Zealand the known deposits in the savings banks reach an average of $35 6s 11d per head of the population, exclusive of Maories.

IN New Zealand education at the public schools is free and purely secular. The attendance of the children between the ages of 7 and 13 is compulsory, except when special exemptions are granted, or a child is being otherwise sufficiently educated.

THE Loan Companies doing business in Canada, loaned in 1895 the large sum of $13,902,186, as against nineteen millions and three quarters in 1892, and seventeen and a half millions in 1893. The average annual loans made the years 1887 to 1895 was 17 millions per year.

ACCORDING to the last report of the Ontario Bureau of Industries the total number of renewals of chattil mortgages on record and undischarged on Dec. 31st, 1895, in Peterborough county, were 243 to secure $207,110. Of these 187 were against farmers for the total sum of $79,066.

REFERRING to the formidable charges made by the Minister of Public Works against the late Conservative administration in his recent speech at St. Johns, the Electeur says:—'Conservatives themselves state that if Mr. Tacte has not been deceived by his employees and there is no reason to suppose so—his charges against the late government are most serious, and should be investigated next session.' Others again say:—'If our leaders have thus acted, then let them be punished as they deserve.' This is perhaps what will happen before long.

MR. LAURIER'S oration on the occasion of his Ottawa triumph was, says the Montreal Witness, noble and memorable. He proclaimed the birth of a nation. He rightly claimed for his own race the honours of the victory of honesty and popular independance, and denounced those who, after having in vain done their utmost to rouse the prejudices and passions of that race to secure a victory for selfish interests, were now doing what they could to rouse the passions and prejudices of the other race by cries of French domination and Quebec rule. The loyal Canadians will join Mr. Laurier in the hope that they may be as utterly unsuccessful in the one case as in the other. The victory that was celebrated last night was a victory over race prejudices; it was a wiping out of race lines; it was the making of a united people, proud of its completed nationality. The time has come when the Canadian nation must take bold steps ahead, feeling that confidence which rests in a sense of mutual loyalty. The time has come, as Mr. Laurier proclaimed, when the Canadian abroad of whatever origin will everywhere boast himself a Canadian.

THE CHEESE SITUATION.

The New York Produce Review says: It has been difficult for many of the cheesemakers of Canada to understand why the foreign demand for cheese has been so slack this summer at the low prices that have been ruling, but some facts are coming out in recent correspondence with English operators that throw light on the situation. It appears that an unusually heavy stock of cheese, largely Canadian, was carried into the summer, and the pressure to dispose of this old stock gave but a small place for the new crop.

"I believe," said a prominent exporter, after looking over a mass of correspondence, "that if all the old cheese in England alone were gathered together there would be upward of 100,000. I do not mean that there is that much cheese in first hands, but what must be consumed this season." A very heavy operator on the other side writes that it is "a shocking wind up—about the worst ever known." Another writer says "new cheese is blocked by an inexhaustible quantity of old cheese."

The report of the Canadian High Commissioner has the following to say regarding cheese prospects:

With regard to the American and the Canadian cheese business, the season of 1895 opened with exceedingly low prices, and owing to the losses which have been sustained, all holders of fall-made cheese have acted with the greatest caution, but certainly the caution was justified, for, taking the whole season through, the demand has never yet come up to the supply. The summer make of Canadian cheese has not been considered by the British public up to the average quality, and there are heavy stocks on hand, which it is probable there will be further losses on. There are also large stocks of cold-storage cheese. These cold-storage cheese have not kept anything like as well as in previous years, and will have to be cleared out at low prices. The fall made cheese has been much more satisfactory, and the public have appreciated it, but even the demand for this high class article is at the present time of a very uncertain character.

The great feature of competition which is springing up around the Canadian cheese trade is the magnificent quality of the cheese which begins to arrive here from New Zealand about the months of January and February. At the present time really magnificent goods are being offered at 40s, as against Canadian Septembers at 46s, or 47s, and unquestionably, the quality of the New Zealand is exceedingly fine. Another factor that the Canadian cheese makers will have to take notice of is that a fortnightly service of steamers direct to Liverpool and Manchester is being inaugurated for the carriage of Australian and New Zealand produce, and this will help the northern trade of England, which is carrying the war into the stronghold of Canadian cheese on the British markets.

Healthy, happy children make better men and women of us all. A little care and a little planning before birth is often more important than anything that can be done after. On the mother's health and strength depend the life and the future of the children. A weak and sickly woman cannot bear strong and healthy children. Most of the weakness of women is utterly inexcusable. Proper care and proper medicine will cure almost any disorder of the feminine organism. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has been tested in thirty years of practice. It is healing, soothing, strengthening. It is perfectly natural in its operation and effect. By its use thousands of weak women have been made strong and healthy—have been made the mothers of strong and healthy children. Taken during gestation, it makes childbirth easy and almost painless and insures the well being of both mother and child. Send 21 cents in one-cent stamps to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N.Y., and receive Dr. Pierce's 1008 page "Common Sense Medical Adviser," profusely illustrated.

FOR HORSE STEALING.

Charge Upon Which Frank Blair was Arrested.

Last night the Port Hope chief of police arrested a young man about twenty-two years old, by name Frank Blair, on request of the Lindsay chief of police, charged with stealing a horse and rig. Blair, who works in Williams' harness shop, Lindsay, hired the horse yesterday morning for a day and a half, and drove away. He was noticed passing through Peterborough at one o'clock, and arriving in Port Hope in the evening put up at the American Hotel, about eight o'clock.

Chief Douglas received a telephone message from the Lindsay police early last night, with a description of Blair, and requesting him to look out for him and arrest him. The prisoner was arrested at the American, where he was in bed. The horse and rig were discovered in the stable.

The prisoner was seen this morning, and states that he is an American by birth, and has been working for some time in Williams' harness shop, Lindsay. "I hired the rig," he says, "for a day and a half, and asked the livery stable keeper how much it would cost me if I kept the horse longer. It was my intention to drive to Port Hope to look for work and if I obtained it to drive the rig back to Peterborough and have it taken from there to Lindsay. I was going to stay here for half a day and then if work was not obtainable drive back to Lindsay myself. I have only had the rig for a day, and yet they have arrested me. No. I have not paid for the rig as it is not customary to do so until you return it."

COMMENDABLE PROMPTITUDE.

A Resident of St. John, N.B., Makes a Successful Trial of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

St. John, N.B., Aug. 3—Mr. Robt. Moore, residing in Indiantown, a suburb of this city, has recently made what is allowed by all who are acquainted with the facts to be a most remarkable recovery. He has been a sufferer from a serious complaint of the kidneys for over seven years, and during that time has suffered excruciatingly. He has also suffered considerably in pocket, having paid large sums for medical advice. Quite recently he happened to read of the many cures effected by Dodd's Kidney Pills, and with commendable promptitude made a trial of them, with the result that after taking three boxes of the remedy he was entirely restored to health.

MET THEIR MASTERS.

Toronto Tecumsehs Beaten by the Capitals.

THE SCORE WAS FIVE TO ONE.

An Immense Crowd Saw the Game at Toronto Island Oval — Englishmen Beaten at Their Own Game— Bicycle Cracks at Buffalo— Other Sports on Saturday.

Toronto, Aug. 10.

The great game of lacrosse is over and the Tecumsehs are beaten.

It may have been that the absence of one man broke up the combination on the home, or perhaps they could never beat the Capital defence; anyway, the champions from Ottawa won Saturday afternoon by the score of 5 goals to 1.

The Tecumsehs did not show their Cornwall or Montreal form when the ball went past centrefield and it was indeed lamentable the way they falled in the proximity of Tommy Crown. The Caps. were a little anxious when Jim Bailey faced the ball, but after Powers notched the initial tally they were easy and their backers offered 10 to 1 on the result.

Then the Tecumsehs had to hustle to save a Waterloo, and they sprinted with a vengeance after the ball. Frequently they chased in vain, in marked contrast to the action of the Capitals, whose energy was rarely ever misplaced. Thus spectators noted how the Ferry twelve puffed on coming in for their ten minutes' rest between games, while the Ottawas scarcely turned a hair.

All credit to the Tecumsehs' defence, and Barney Quinn did not scintillate unduly. To Patterson, Grimes and Davis fell the bulk of the play and they did it nobly, while the field work of Macdonald, Hartley and Yorke was superb. They played just as well as the Caps'. defence men, although they had a harder home to deal with. The visitors' checking was fast and hard, and how they marked their men! They stuck to checks like glue and when a Tecumseh got away with the ball there was a Cap somewhere around.

Now, Barney Quinn made his bow in a Tecumseh uniform and he was up against a hard game, Powers and Smith were all the time hot foot after him and their old-time chum did not come our second best. It was in the second game that the Deputy Chief of Police went on the field to warn the belligerents, but he accepted the referee's word that rough play would not be tolerated, and so in the next Smith got Quinn ruled off and he went with him. Again, in the fifth, these two were sent to the wall, and in every case the Capital was the aggressor. They chopped and kicked the big defence man, and what else could he do but slug back? Elsewhere the game was free from roughness and except for the awful muffing on Tecumsehs' home it was uniformly scientific lacrosse.

The Capitals' five games all came alike. After the ball had hovered for some time at the other end, but not in dangerous proximity to the goal, it would return and suddenly a lightning combination would give one of the Caps. his opportunity.

Little Jimmy Macdonald was responsible for the Tecumsehs' only point. He beat big Carson and was applauded, and after McVey and German had handled the ball Murphy accepted an easy chance.

There was gambling galore on the game. About 200 Capital supporters were at the Island. Before they left Yonge-street they wanted even money, but accepted 10 to 9 and even money that the Caps. would double the Tecumsehs' score. When the start was made the odds were 2 to 1. A few bets were registered that the Tecumsehs would not score and this was all the Ottawa money left behind.

Over 6000 were around the Island oval and about one-sixth of these were visitors from Ontario towns. President O'Loughlin was here from St. Kitts, Secretary Vance from Ingersoll, McFadden from Stratford, Doc. Roberts from Brampton and these places were also represented: St. Mary's, Orangeville, Stouffville, Uxbridge, Beaverton, Richmond Hill, Owen Sound, Barrie, Orillia, Peterboro and Uxbridge. The games were scored as follows:

First—Capitals, Powers, 9½ minutes.
Second—Capitals, Powers, 9½ minutes.
Third—Capitals, Carson, 17 minutes.
Fourth—Tecumsehs, Murphy, 4 minutes.
Fifth—Capitals, Carleton, 7 minutes.
Sixth—Capitals, Carson, 20 minutes.

The teams and officials were:

Tecumsehs—Goal, Davis; point, Patterson; cover, Quinn; defence, Grimes, Yorke, Hartley; centre, Macdonald; home field, Peaker, Murphy, McVey; outside, Cross; inside, German; captain, P. Knowles.

Capitals—Goal, Crown; point, Griffith; cover, Shea; defence, Devine, Carson and James; centre, Carson; home, Carleton, Westwick, Murphy; outside, Powers; captain, Bissonnette.

Referee, J. D. Bailey; umpires, Dr. Roberts, Brampton; Carruthers, Ottawa; timers, D. A. Rose, W. E. Young.

SUICIDED ON SUNDAY.

George Messer, an Old Man, Ended His Existence by Hanging Himself in His Cellar.

Toronto, Aug. 10.

Yesterday afternoon George Messer, 75 years old, who kept a small confectionery store at 705 Yonge-street, hanged himself.

Messer lived with a married daughter, who kept house for him, and a son, aged about 5. She was out visiting yesterday, and Messer sent the boy out early in the afternoon. When he returned at 5 o'clock he found the body of his father hanging in the cellar. The lad notified the police at No. 5 station, and Sergt. Lobb and P.C. Dynes cut the body down. Dr. Boultbee was called in, and found the man had been dead two hours.

In order to end his life, Messer climbed on a chair, and after adjusting the rope, kicked the chair from under him. No reason is assigned for the deed.

BROCKVILLE, November 7th, 1895.

W. H. HILL, Mgr. Central Ontario Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada, Peterborough, Ontario:—

DEAR SIR.—I should have acknowledged the receipt of yours enclosing cheque for endowment policy No. 12,571 before, only I wanted to write something more than a mere receipt. I am pleased to hear of the continued prosperity of the "SUN" and it speaks well for your Company when the profits are greater (by 21 per cent.) than you as the Company's representative promised or rather estimated, as was the case with this policy.

I hope your Company will continue to prosper and I often regret that I do not carry more Insurance than I am doing. I might have carried twice as much as I do when at Minden without any great effort, still what little I do carry I feel is perfectly safe being in the "SUN."

I must thank you for your promptness and kindness regarding this policy just settled. I hope we will both be alive and well when the new one I now hold will be due in 1905 and assuring you of very best wishes, I remain,

Yours Sincerely,
(Signed) F. R. C.

The above voluntary testimonial is significant and shows in a most practical way the SUN'S standing as a profit paying institution.

W. H. HILL,
Manager for Central Ontario.

TO THE MARK.

In all diseases that affect humanity there is some weak link in the chain of health, some spot that is the seat of the trouble. It may be the liver, it may be the stomach; perhaps it is the bowels or the kidneys; most likely it is the blood. Burdock Blood Bitters goes straight to that spot, strengthens the weak link in the chain, removes the cause of the disease, and restores health, because it acts with cleansing force and curative power upon the stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels and blood.

With good red blood health is assured, without it disease is certain to come and Burdock is the only remedy that will positively remove all blood poisons. In ulcers, abscesses, scrofula, scrofulous swellings, skin diseases, blotches, old sores, etc., B.B.B. should be applied externally, as well as taken internally according to directions.

The East Hastings Herald, of Tweed, publishes the appended communication in its last issue:—

To the East Hastings Herald:

MR. EDITOR.—Please allow me space in your valuable journal for a few remarks in reply to the Review of last week, referring to Belleville and Peterborough matches with Tweed club. We wish to make a few corrections.

The Review says: "C. Kirk, Dick Collinge, Jas. Kirk and G. Ray, who usually played with Madoc club played with Tweed." Chas. Kirk has worked in Tweed since May 1st, and has played in all our matches. Dick Collinge was working here at the time of our first match with Belleville, and it was understood then that he was to play with our club in the return match to which Belleville club did not make objection.

We did not try to "ring in" Jas. Kirk at Peterborough as he is well known there and Peterborough club did not object in the least. The Review also says that Tweed club had Peaker, Garman, McVey and McDonald of the "Tecumsehs" which is not true.

As a further evidence in our behalf we would refer them to the Peterborough EXAMINER of July 28, which says:

"Tweed certainly deserves credit for the team which represents the village. Being young on the lacrosse field and not having a large area to draw from, the team has been strengthened by some outsiders, who, however, have now come to be looked upon as permanent members of the Tweeds, and clubs who are downed by them need not try to awaken sympathy by the cry of "ringers," as everyone knows or should know in lacrosse circles that the Kirk and Collinge boys of Madoc and a few others are to be recognized as an element of the Tweed team, and it is an element, too, which can give an account of itself, as all put up a splendid article of lacrosse.

We cannot understand why the Review tries to find so much fault with us. We did not object when Charles Kirk, of our club, played with Madoc in two matches against Kingston July 1st and 13th, nor did we say anything about the "ringer" (whose name we will not mention) that played with Madoc club in the last match with Kingston.

The greater majority of the Madoc club and the Tweed club are on the best possible terms and we would like to remain so and why try to make it otherwise?

The EXAMINER also gives its opinion of the game as follows:—

"The play had waxed faster and faster as the match proceeded and the spectators were well wrought up by this time. The combination work of both teams was pretty to watch and seldom has there been cleaner lacrosse seen on the field than was now witnessed.

The game was one of the cleanest ever played on the grounds. There was no rough play and not a single dispute arose."

A LACROSSE PLAYER.

YACHTING.

It begins to look as if in yachting on the great lakes United States yachtsmen were outclassed, so to speak, by Canadian yachtsmen. On their own side of the lake the northern Anglo Saxons easily beat in the few events in which their southern cousins were entered, and that was not unlooked for; but yesterday in the regatta at Erie, the Pennsylvanian port of Lake Erie, the Canadians probably surprised even themselves by winning every event against the United States yachtsmen. In every class of yachts the Canadian boats won, and in two out of four events by extremely large margins. The probable Canadian champion, 'Canada,' which will sail against the American yacht 'Vencedor" for the challenge cup, seems to have beat the crack American yacht, 'Scorpion,' by thirty-seven minutes in a ten-knot breeze. Through the performance of one of the smaller American competitors, which has been in races with the 'Vencedor,' yachtsmen think they have got a line upon the 'Vencedor's' capabilities, and they seem to have come to the conclusion that the 'Canada' is a safe winner. Certainly, the crew of the 'Canada' are having lots of practice, and they ought to know all about their boat by the time the Toledo event is to be sailed and to bring her in perfect condition to that race. Canada is having a series of triumphs in all branches of sports and games this summer.

DROWNED AT HASTINGS.

A Peterborough Boy Meets a Sad End Whilst in Bathing.

Word was received in town this morning by Mr. Charles Brewer, of the death of his son in Hastings yesterday.

It seems that young Brewer and a companion were bathing at the second island below Hastings when the former who was unable to swim got beyond his depth and was drowned before assistance could reach him. Both were wading out to see how far they could go when Brewer tripped over some weeds never to rise again alive. The cries of his companion called some men to the spot who dived to recover the body but were unable to locate it.

The body was recovered this morning by Charles Huycke a few yards east of where the drowning occurred.

The remains will be brought to Peterborough for interment, the funeral taking place from the residence of the deceased's father on Albert street. Young Brewer was 18 years of age and was living with his grandfather, Mr. Andrew Pickens, at Hastings.

THEY ARE GIVING WAY.

Physicians Commence to Realise the Value of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

OTTAWA, Aug. 10.—The inveterate reluctance to admit the success of patent medicine usually evinced by physicians is rapidly giving way, so far as Dodd's Kidney Pills are concerned. The cases of Dr. Rose and Dr. McCormick, who published details of their recovery from diabetes and Bright's disease through the agency of this remedy, were the first attacks on the citadel of their skepticism and now it appears as if the remarkable recovery of Mr. G. H. Kent, of this city, the details of which have been transmitted to the press, would complete what has been so auspiciously begun. The published interviews with Mr. and Mrs. Kent and the sworn statement of the former leaves no foothold for disbelief.

Fruit Jars.

China Hall has received a full carload, 1440 cases, of fruit jars. Do not buy a jar till you have seen their jars and got their price. Their jars are guaranteed not to crack in filling and will be replaced in case they do. Prices the lowest in town. See the "Beaver" or the "Bees" before buying the ordinary jar.

A LUNATIC IN THE CELLS.

He Was Found in the Little Lake Cemetery—Nothing Can be Learned About Him.

Last night the whole south end of the town in the vicinity of the Little Lake cemetery was aroused by the most ear piercing shrieks, following one another with the utmost rapidity.

The noise caused Mr. Foord, the caretaker of the cemetery, to hurry out to investigate, when he found a man running around through the tombstones emitting the most unearthly cries.

Mr. Foord finally succeeded in quieting him and in persuading him to leave the grounds, but whilst he was conducting him to the gate the stranger suddenly broke away, rushed down to the lake shore, and waded out into the water.

A telephone message brought Constables McGinty and Stewart to the scene, when they found the man clinging to a boom. He was gotten into a canoe with difficulty as he had no wish to go with the officer.

On the shore being reached the prisoner was handcuffed and taken to the cells, where he gave his name as Pierre D. Demuy of Hochelaga. He was so evidently demented, and his answers were given so much at random, that nothing much can be ascertained about him. He states that he wishes to take his own life and has tried to cut his throat on a previous occasion. Both his eyes are blackened and it is thought that he may have gotten into a fight with some rough characters, thereby disturbing a weak intellect and making him for the time being not accountable for his actions.

The case has been enlarged for a week at the police court.

HEN ROOSTS ROBBED.

Residents near Jackson Park have a Complaint.

During the past month the residents in the vicinity of Jackson Park have been greatly annoyed by the visits paid their henroots by tramps, who systematically robbed everyone in the neighbourhood. The tramps, it appears, have abandoned Burnham's Point, and now camp at the Park and subsist by begging and stealing. The attention of the police is called to the matter, and it is hoped that the nuisance will soon be speedily abated by the clearing out of the unwelcome visitors to the vicinity.

The appearance of the tough characters in the Park keeps many children away, where otherwise the place would be resorted by large numbers of little ones during the hot weather.

THE GAME WARDEN IN TOWN.

Mr. H. K. Smith Looking After the Law Breakers.

Mr. H. K. Smith, game warden, of Belleville, was in town Saturday and went down to Gore's Landing and the Rice Lake waters. Mr. Smith was brought here through letters containing certain indefinite charges to the effect that ducks were being shot out of season in the waters tributary to the lake. Mr. Smith left for home to day having placed several special assistants to supply information and prosecute in case of any further infractions of the law. He reports that Mr. Thos. Wallace, of Gore's Landing, took a gun from a man who had been shooting ducks and who gave his name as M. Stewart, Peterborough. The name appears to be a fictitious one and no trace of any such party can be found here. However, he is minus a gun, whoever he is.

ANTHRAX.

Last year Mr. Robt. Kittle of Verulam, lost six head of cattle from a disease known as anthrax and on Tuesday last he brought to Dr. Mason at Fenelon Falls a tubercle taken from a cow he had found dead in the field in which the cattle died last year, and had opened—an operation the doctor told him not to repeat, as it is very dangerous if there be even an almost imperceptible scratch upon the operator's hand. Mr. Kittle said that of the five companions of the cows he had found dead, one had disappeared and might have gone to some retired spot to die, but that the other four appeared to be all right at the time he left home. Dr. Mason thinks that the prolonged drought in Mr. Kittle's section of country may have had something to do with the recurrence of the disease, which is generally fatal, and runs its course so rapidly that an affected animal may die within a very few hours of the appearance of the first symptoms.

August Prices.

August is the last month of Summer—the end of the clearing-out season when Summer Goods must give way to Fall Stocks. We cannot afford to carry over one season's goods to the next. We must keep a perennial freshness about our store. For these reasons, you can understand how it comes that you can buy anything in our summer lines just now with very little consideration for what it cost us. Take Wall Paper for instance. An ordinary Wall Paper advertisement in August is about as unlooked for as snow in August. People have almost stopped buying and trade is at low-water mark. But there's a way to stimulate activity even in Wall Paper, and by almost giving away the goods, and doing it agreeably, we think we can crowd this store with buyers during this last of the summer months.

Wall Paper.

Pretty Patterns, for ordinary rooms, that could never be bought for less than 5c. and 6c. per roll, our August price 3½

Special lines in Art Patterns, for dining-rooms, bed-rooms, etc., that were cheap all summer at 7c and 8c, our August price 5

"What's the matter" with papering the home now instead of waiting until fall? Many families have closed up their homes and are away summering, giving a better chance for the work to be better done and without confusion and discomfort. What a pleasure it would be to return to the brightness of the newly prepared home. Now's the time! when Wall Paper can be bought for half the price it will be in the fall and when it costs less to put it on.

Funny Things Come to Pass.

Perhaps the idea of wearing wooden socks might seem ridiculous, but its just what some people in Germany are doing, and very nice socks they are, too. The wood is reduced to a long silky fibre and made into a yarn out of which the socks are knit, making a warmer, more durable and just as soft protection as woollen ones. In a similar way the pure spruce fibre is made into the interlining called Fibre Chamois, which provides for clothing an absolute protection against raw air and cold winds, because it is an absolute non-conductor of heat and cold, keeping in the natural heat and keeping out every breath of cold. This fabric has also been made waterproof, so that the rain never penetrates it, and is so light in weight and inexpensive that a layer of it provides the acme of comfort for all outdoor clothing.

FAREWELL SERMON OF REV. J. E. TROTTER.

THE MURRAY STREET BAPTIST CHURCH PASTOR LEAVING.

A Very Large Congregation Assembled to Hear the Last Words of This Very Popular Divine, Last Evening, Ere His Departure for His New Charge at St. Catharines.

The Murray street Baptist church was so crowded last evening that chairs had to be utilized to accommodate the congregation. The extremely large attendance was occasioned by the fact that Rev. J. E. Trotter, the pastor, was about to preach his farewell sermon, prior to his departure for St. Catharines, where he has accepted the pastorate of a church in a larger field.

Mr. Trotter's Peterborough charge is exceedingly sorry to part with him but hold him in such great esteem that they would not allow their appreciation of his talents to stand in the way of his advancement. During his ministrations in Peterborough he has greatly endeared himself to his congregation and was acknowledged as one of the cleverest and most interesting who has ever occuped a pulpit here.

In addressing his congregation last evening, Mr. Trotter stated that since he first came to Peterborough to be the pastor of the Murray street Baptist church and to minister to the wants of the congregation it had been his object to preach of the unsearchable riches of Christ and what he could do for poor, sinful man, and upon the occasion of his last words he did not propose to depart from this rule. He, therefore, would not speak of what he had done since coming to Peterborough or of the advance which the church had made, but he would confine his remarks to speaking of the grace of God.

As the text of his discourse Mr. Trotter took the last two verses of the Epistle of Jude, "Now unto Him that is able to keep you from falling and to present you faultless before the presence of His Glory, with exceeding joy. To the only wise God, our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and forever, amen."

These words, he explained, formed the doxology of the Epistle. In the foregoing verses Jude warns his brethren against the sin of presumption, of which he mentions so many are guilty. Then after urging them to guard themselves, lest any despair, he to the God, who can aid them and so closes with what may be termed the doxology. Jude warns his brethren against despairing fears and heartens them with those last few words.

God, he said, is able to guard you from stumbling. You are in constant danger from the snares and toils of the devil. David speaks of these, of the wells and cisterns which are covered over and from which escape is only possible by trust in God. If he had not had God for his guide, he would often have been taken by the snares.

The ivy, without something stable to cling to, would run wild; just so with the human being; without God's strong right hand to guide he will wander afar.

After we feel our fears awakened, we can turn to the words of the text, which assures us that God will keep us from stumbling. Trust Him and His strong right hand will never let you slip.

As Christians, continued the speaker, we are living in the hope of the glory of God. The glory of God—what are we to understand by this expression? Is it not the glory of His own personal presence. The sun is glorious. It is the most brilliant thing of which we can think. The moon is glorious. It is the Queen of the Night. If these are glorious, how much more glorious must be their Maker!

THESE ARE BUT SUGGESTIONS,

but do they not suggest to you the glory of God? But who can describe the glory of the all-glorious God? Then the glorious surroundings must be considered. With the hundreds of redeemed standing in the home of the angels, the glory must indeed be heightened. The glory of the place must be considered too. We are told of the walls of jaspar, the gates of pearl and the streets of gold. These expressions are figurative but the reality is there infinitely richer. The shadow never equals the substance.

Think of it—ye who are steeped in and ruined by sin—continued the speaker, God is able to transform you, and present you to this glorious presence faultless, without blemish. As the filthy, diseased rags which the rag-picker collects are transformed into the most beautiful ivory cream laid paper, so can the blackest of sinners be transformed into a glittering jewel for His kingdom.

When the soul is so transformed we are assured that it will also be adapted to its new surroundings and heaven will be a congenial place. He performs the transformation by awakening first a sense of need, then He fills the same with His presence and adapts it to its glorious surroundings. This is what God can do—nay, will do, for a Christian; and, dear sinner, this is what God offers to do for you. All you have to do is to realize the need and yield to the sweet and mighty drawing to the Holy One.

I will not be able to see many of you again, concluded Mr. Trotter, and on this last occasion of addressing you I wish to bear no uncertain testimony on the subject. God is able to save the most sinful. He is more ready to give than to receive. Is there one here who can give a reason why he should perish when God offers to every one salvation in His name? Come, then, to him.

Rev. J. E. Trotter will conduct the Young People's meeting at the Murray street church to night. The meeting is open and the teachers and officers of the Sunday school and members of the church and congregation are particularly requested to be present. Refreshments will be served and an informal half hour spent at the close when all may have an opportunity to say good-bye to the pastor.

THE BEECH AS A WATER FINDER

To the Editor of the Examiner:

A few weeks ago there appeared in a Montreal paper a statement regarding the location of minerals and springs by the use of a small forked branch, mostly of hazel. It says scientists regard this divining power of the rod a delusion.

Now, sir, about thirty-eight years ago I went to live in Eanismore. During my first few years there some of the settlers got their springs located through this process. Of minerals I know nothing. In connection with this allow me to give you truths and facts. Over twenty years ago, requiring a new well, I thought I would try the crutch, believing it wrought only with a few. After considerable travelling around, unknown to anyone, my crutch readily turned at the same place. Asking a gentleman who had used the crutch, but not letting him know what I had done, with a fresh crutch his also turned on the same place as my own. I dug a well where both our trials indicated and at thirteen feet came on the finest spring any would require. Although only fifteen feet from top of platform, I have never less than six feet of water and deeper. There might not be one in a thousand with whom it would have effect, and also that no tree will have the power of turning but only the beech. Respecting the attraction of the electricity, we cannot tell, but there is one simple, certain fact remaining—lightning was never known to strike a beech tree. I have never tried it since, but am perfectly satisfied with its effective power.

Yours, etc.,
THOMAS TELFORD.

MRS. PERRY LEFT SUDDENLY.

Sent Her Husband Out of Town and Departed Quietly for England.

Hamilton Aug. 9.—(Special.)—About five years ago, Mrs. J. E. Perry, about 65, good-looking and well educated, left England for Canada, settled at Niagara Falls, and then went to Guelph. She owns an estate across the water, which gives her a comfortable income, and while in Guelph, won the affections of Perry, who five weeks' ago became her husband. He is 35. After the nuptial knot was tied they came to Hamilton and resided at 268 Wellington-street north, but about a week ago the bride took her departure for England, after sending the husband to Guelph to cash a cheque. When he returned he was surprised that she had gone, and that her place in the home was vacant. Yesterday the furniture of the house was sold.

"Sixteen to One."

This phrase which is so common nowadays, since the Democratic party have made it their shibboleth, means, in practice, that sixteen ounces of silver shall be held as worth as much as one ounce of gold. One ounce of gold, American coin, standard of fineness—that is, 900 parts of pure gold to 100 of alloy, will coin, in gold dollars, $18.60. Sixteen ounces of silver, American coin standard of fineness—that is 900 parts of pure silver to 100 of alloy, at the rate of 412 1-2 grains to the dollar (the weight of the present standard silver dollar), will coin $18.60 in silver dollars.

Like Whittington's Record.

The story of the fortunes of T. H. Rogers, one of the new sheriffs of London, reads as if Whittington's days were back again. He began to make shirts years ago in a small room in London, where he cut the garments out himself, and now he employs 1800 persons in that business.

A Graduate of Toronto University says: "My children have been treated with Scott's Emulsion from their earliest years. Our physician first recommended it and now whenever a child takes cold my wife immediately resorts to this remedy, which always effects a cure."

HORSES FROM AMERICA.

It is Said by The Field That 10,000 of These Animals Were Sold Last Year in London Alone.

London, Aug. 9.—The Field this week expresses natural surprise and alarm over the large number of American horses which it says it has discovered "in our midst." During the past year no less than 10,000 American horses have been sold in London alone. A large number are used for the omnibusses and street cars, but The Field adds: "The cab master and smaller dealer profess not to touch them, the former believing, and possibly rightly, that the majority of foreign horses are somewhat soft, while, as a rule, he declares that at his price he can get plenty of well bred English horses, and that they do his work very well. The fact is, however, that there are almost as many American horses drawing cabs as American subjects riding in them. After American and Canadian horses have changed hands under the hammer they are resold without anything being said about their nationality. They get into the country and add to the difficulties and perplexities of the breeder."

ESCAPED THE GRAVE.

Mrs. Mary Albertson Had Been Placed in a Casket and She Knew She Was to be Buried Alive.

Portland, Ore., Aug. 9.—Mrs. Mary Albertson, living at Columbiaslough, has just recovered from a trance which lasted a week, during which she would have been buried alive had not a friend noticed what he thought were signs of life. The was was prepared for the tomb and put in a casket. Then, at her friend's solicitation she was taken out, and in a week, partially through natural and partly by artificial means, she was restored to consciousness. Everything was a perfect blank to her except the placing of her body in the casket. She says she was conscious that she was to be buried alive, but was unable to give any sign to prevent the horrible fate.

ATTACKED BY BEES.

Six Swarms Made it Hot for Nick Van Patten in Michigan.

Vassar, Mich. Aug. 8.—Nicholas J. Vanpatten, a bee-keeper, got out of bed, partly dressed, this morning, to drive a neighbor's calf out of the yard. The calf had knocked six swarms of bees over. They completely covered Mr. Vanpatten's body, and stung him terribly. He was in a critical condition, but will recover.

Nervous debility is a common complaint, especially among women. The best medical treatment for this disorder is a persistent course of Ayer's Sarsaparilla to cleanse and invigorate the blood. This being accomplished, nature will do the rest.

ADVERTISE IN THE "EXAMINER."

One reason why women are so generally troubled with some derangement of the distinctly feminine organism is that as girls they learn nothing about their own physical make up. Parents are waking up to the importance of education of this kind, and young women are becoming more and more able to take care of their health.

Carelessness in girlhood causes the greatest suffering and unhappiness in after life. Little irregularities and weaknesses in girls should be looked after promptly and treatment given at once. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription promote regularity of all feminine functions, make strength and builds up a sturdy health with which to meet the trials to come. The "Favorite Prescription" is not a universal panacea. It is good for but one thing. It is directed solely at one set of organs.

"I have been a sufferer from 'female weakness' for six years. I grew worse; had severe cutting pains in left ovary, also in left side and stomach. The pain in left side was constant. I would have light spasms previous to monthly period and when the spasm would cease I would suffer from severe soreness all over and could bear nothing to touch me. I also suffered from severe headaches; burning pressure on brain which almost caused me to be insane. I could not lay my head down without smothering. My face was poor; eyes looked dead; wasted in flesh. I was constipated and suffered severe pain when bowels would act. I could not eat for the fullness in region of stomach. I had tried three of the best doctors here but they only gave me temporary relief. I had given up all hope of ever getting well again. At last I concluded to give Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription a trial. I have taken two bottles, one of the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and one of 'Pellets.' I have not felt any signs of my old disease; headache all gone; menses regular without ache or pain. Indeed I feel like a new person." Yours truly,

THE SPORTING WORLD

Winnipeggers Won the Fours at Brockville.

CLOSING DAY OF THE REGATTA.

"Cannon Ball" Bald Makes a Great Shot at the Buffalo Bicycle Meeting—Blayney and Fred Young Not in It—Baseball and Other Sports.

Brockville, Aug. 7.—(Special.)—The 17th annual regatta of the Canadian Association of Amateur Oarsmen closed to-day, and the verdict of oarsmen generally was that it was the most successful held in Canada in many years, both in the quality of the racing and in attendance by competitors and spectators.

When the second heat in the senior singles, which was postponed from yesterday, was called, the water was smooth, with very little wind, the contestants taking positions in this order from the shore: Bush Thompson, Argonauts; L. Marsh, Dons; F. Cressar, Vespers, Philadelphia; J. A. Rumohr, Toronto. Rumohr and Marsh sold favorites in the pools.

At the gun fire Cressar and Marsh were first to catch the water, but after traveling a quarter of a mile Cressar fouled Marsh, and all were called back for a re-start. In the second attempt all were away together, and Thompson and Rumohr at once took a lead, with Marsh third. At the quarter-mile Thompson gradually drew ahead, and had clear water between him and the field at the half, where Marsh and Cressar began to close rapidly on Rumohr. When the mile was reached Thompson led Marsh by three lengths, with Cressar third and Rumohr beaten. From there on Thompson won as he pleased by four lengths, Marsh getting the place by a narrow margin from Cressar. Time 11.09½.

Intermediate Singles—Burritt of the Argonauts did not start, fearing he might prejudice his crew's chances in the senior fours, and the following faced the line: F. E. Russell, Torontos; F. Allward, Torontos; P. Kenny, Dons. Kenny got away first, and led by three lengths when the half-mile had been reached, with Russell second. Allward passed Russell at the mile, and started after Kenny, and when he looked a winner suddenly stopped rowing and made for the club house. Russell also gave up, and Kenny crossed the line alone in 12.17½.

The afternoon's sport was excellent throughout, the breeze had somewhat freshened, and the water was fairy smooth. Mr. Fulford's steam yacht Dorothea carried the officials over the course, which was kept clear and well looked after by Jimmy Rice, one of Toronto's professional oarsmen.

Junior fours—The first race on the card the junior fours, which brought out five crews, was a splendid one, and was fought out all the way by three of the boats. The starters were:

Dons—J. Stuart, bow; J. Larkin, 2; J. Delaney, 3; J. Nicholson, stroke.

Argonauts, No. 2—A. Morson, bow; D. G. Cole, 2; M. G. Lightbourne, 3; A. L. Eastmuir, stroke.

Argonauts, No. 1—P. E. Richie, bow; J. Mackenzie, 2; D. R. Mackenzie, 3; L. C. Hoskins, stroke.

Torontos—F. W. Nye, bow; A. N. Holtzman, 2; F. M. Russell, 3; F. Allward, stroke.

Grand Trunk Club of Montreal—A. McKellar, bow; F. Auburn, 2; F. Scott, 3; P. Raymond, stroke.

The Dons got away first, and led at the quarter by a length, with Argonauts No. 2 second. The Grand Trunks spurted and took the lead at the half-mile, and increased it to two lengths when a mile was covered, with the Dons second and Argonauts No. 2 bringing up the rear of the first division. The Dons started after the leaders, who were steering too far out, and by the time they were within hailing distance of the finish took the lead again, eventually winning by four lengths over Argonauts No. 2, while the Grand Trunks finished well up, but outside the line, among the numerous small craft crowded there. Time 10.36.

Senior Doubles—The race for double-sculls brought out three crews, the Argonaut pair, composed of the Thompson brothers, not starting, as Bush was to row in the final single-sculls, and had already rowed in the intermediate. The competitors were:

Vespers of Philadelphia—Ed. Marsh bow, F. Cressar stroke.

Toronto, No. 2—A. Russell bow, J. J. Ryan stroke.

Toronto, No. 1—A. Jury bow, J. A. Rumohr stroke.

The Vespers sold favorites in the pools. The Torontos were the quickest away, and at once took the lead, followed closely for the first half-mile by the Torontos No. 1. At the mile the Vespers had gained three lengths over the Toronto pair, who were almost on even terms, and the race for second place occupied the attention of the crowd, the Vespers eventually winning by four lengths, with Toronto No. 1 a length in front of the other Island double. Time 10.12½.

Pair oars:

Argonauts—R. G. Munts bow, G. H. Munts stroke.

Torontos—J. R. Bennett bow, J. Smyth stroke.

Both pairs went away together, the Argonauts taking a short lead after a few hundred yards had been covered, but they were splashing badly and steered too far in following their regular line of the shore, and losing a lot of ground, which enabled the Torontos to draw even at the half. The race to the mile was a good one, but from there on the Argonauts drew away, rowing the last half in splendid form, and winning as they pleased by about five lengths. Time 12.15.

Senior Fours—The race for double-sculls and Dons faced the starter, as follows:

Dons—J. Stuart bow, J. Larkin 2, J. Delaney 3, J. Nicholson stroke.

Argonauts—W. H. Bunting bow, P. M. Mackenzie 2, A. J. Boyd 3, M. S. McCarthy stroke.

The Dons caught the water first, but the Argonauts quickly drew ahead, and at the half-mile had two lengths to the good, rowing throughout a steady, regular stroke, and winning easily by three lengths in 11.24.

Senior singles, final—E. A. Thompson, Argonauts; J. O'Connor, Dons; L. Marsh, Dons; Ed. Marsh, Vespers.

Thompson sold favorite in the pools. The scullers got away together, but Thompson took a lead before 50 yards were traveled, with O'Connor second. The former followed the crooked shore line, and rowed several lengths further than was necessary, but gradually drew further ahead, and at the mile had two lengths to the good, O'Connor still second, with Marsh of the Dons close up. At this point the Vesper sculler, who had been laboring hard to keep up, fell out of his boat from exhaustion, and certainly would have drowned but for the ready assistance of the official boat, which was very close to him when the mishap occurred. The positions of the other scullers remained unchanged to the finish, Thompson winning by three lengths, with O'Connor two lengths in front of Marsh. Time 11.54.

Senior fours:

Winnipegs—J. C. Armytage bow, W. J. Osborne 2, C. Johnson 3, G. L. Marks stroke.

Argonauts—H. W. Dixon bow, R. W. Hoskin 2, O. Heron 3, A. P. Burritt stroke.

Dons—J. Sullivan bow, W. Nelson 2, C. Rame 3, J. Hedley stroke.

The Argonauts caught first water, and for a short distance held a slight lead, but were soon overtaken by the Winnipegs, who rapidly went to the front, the Dons going up to second position at one half. At the mile the Northwesters had increased their lead to three lengths, and the Dons and Argonauts were fighting it out for second. The Winnipegs pulled a short, quick stroke throughout, with very little swing, but were a very powerful lot of men, and won easily by six lengths, with the Dons second, a length and a half in front of the Argonauts. Time 10.02. The race was a surprise to many, as the Winnipeg stroke was not lauded by the talent, though the crew sold favorites in the pools.

The prizes were presented to the winners in the evening at the Revere House by Mr. W. S. Buell of the Brockville Boat Club. Visiting oarsmen are much pleased with their reception here, and with all the arrangements, which were successfully carried out. The Winnipeg four and the Argonaut single-scull champion go on to Saratoga to compete at the National regatta there next week.

BALD BEAT COOPER.

A Sensational Finish in the Open Professional at Buffalo.

Buffalo, N.Y., Aug. 7.—There was no great improvement in the attendance at the second day's meet of the Buffalo Cycling Association, but there was some sensational racing and Canada made a better showing. The event of the day was Bald's sensational win in the mile open, professional, in which he lowered the track record from 2.07 4-5 to 2.01 4-5, beating Cooper, Butler and other cracks.

The first event was the quarter mile open, amateur. The first heat was a contest between Silker and T. B. McCarthy, the former winning in .32 3-5. In the final heat of this race, C. A. Silker, Buffalo, won; W. H. DeTemple, Buffalo, 2, and T. B. McCarthy got third prize, a diamond stud. Time .32 3-5.

The one mile open, professional, was the event of the day. For the first heat Jenny, Bald, Ziegler, Stone, the Callahan brothers, Newhouse and Mosher lined up, four to live. They finished as follows: Bald, L. A. Callahan, Jenny, C. H. Callahan. Time 2.09 2-5. The second heat had F. W. Young, Tom Cooper, Con Baker, Tom Butler, Ray McDonald and F. H. Allen; Cooper, Butler, Young and Baker finishing in a leading race in order named. Time 2.14 4-5.

Now came the great race, in which a record went to pieces. Mosher and Newhouse did the pacing. Bald had the pole and kept the place until the pacemakers quit at the last quarter. Then Cooper shot to the front and Butler also passed Bald. It looked like a defeat for the Buffalo boy, hands down, as the time for the three laps was phenomenal, but Bald showed that his title of "Canon Ball" had been fairly earned. Cooper, Butler and Bald were well together in order at the eighth, when, like a shot, Bald brushed away and to the front, winning in a killing finish in 2.01 4-5, Cooper, Butler and L. A. Callahan coming in the order named, Cooper a full length and a half behind Bald.

The next event was the one mile amateur handicap, four diamonds, prizes; 14 starters; first heat—T. B. McCarthy (scratch), won; E. C. Haynes, Buffalo (30 yards), 2; C. J. Miller, Buffalo (50 yards), 3; time 2.12 3-5. Second heat, 12 starters—J. T. Davidson, Toronto (20 yards), won; A. F. Mundle, Tonawanda (scratch), 2; Ben Cleveland, Tonawanda (50 yards), 3; time 2.10 4-5. Eleven started in the third heat; J. F. Higgins, Buffalo (50 yards), won; M. Cornwall, Buffalo (40 yards), 2; John Pennoyres, Buffalo (30 yards), 3; time 2.16. Blayney of Simcoe, Ont., started, but failed to make a show. The final was a beautiful race and was won in a close finish by T. B. McCarthy, Toronto, in 2.10; B. Cleveland, Tonawanda, N.Y., 2; C. J. Miller, Buffalo, 3.

The next event was the half mile professional. F. W. Young in the first heat failed to get a place. Tom Butler, L. A. Callahan, Con Baker and Howard Mosher living in the first heat; time 1.03 3-5. Jenny, Davis (Buffalo), Newhouse and Leonart survived the second heat, in which Werick and McDonald were beaten; time 1.06 1-5. Newhouse, Buffalo, won the final; L. A. Callahan, F. J. Jenny and H. F. Leonert in the order named; time .58 4-5.

ONE HONEST MAN.

DEAR EDITOR:—Please inform your readers, that if written to confidentially will mail, in a sealed letter, particulars of a genuine, honest home cure, by which I was permanently restored to health and manly vigor after years of suffering from nervous debility, sexual weakness, night losses and weak, shrunken parts. I was robbed and swindled by the quacks until I nearly lost faith in mankind, but thank heaven, I am now well, vigorous and strong and wish to make this certain means of cure known to all sufferers. I have nothing to sell and want no money, but being a firm believer in the universal brotherhood of man, I am desirous of helping the unfortunate to regain their health and happiness. I promise no perfect secrecy and as I do not wish to expose myself either, please address, simply: P. O. Box 388, London, Ont.

THE BEST

FAMILY MEDICINE

She Has Ever Known. Words of Praise from a New York Lady for

AYER'S PILLS

"I would like to add my testimony to that of others who have used Ayer's Pills, and to say that I have taken them for many years, and always derived the best results from their use. For stomach and liver troubles, and for the cure of headache caused by these derangements, Ayer's Pills cannot be equaled.

When my friends ask me what is the best remedy for disorders of the stomach, liver, or bowels, my invariable answer is, Ayer's Pills. Taken in season, they will break up a cold, prevent la grippe, check fever, and regulate the digestive organs. They are easy to take, and are, indeed, the best all-round family medicine I have ever known."—Mrs. MAY JOHNSON, 358 Rider Avenue, New York City.

ABOUT THE LIVER.

A lazy, slow or torpid liver influences the whole system, causing biliousness, sick headache, sallow complexion, languor and dullness. Burdock Blood Bitters regulates the liver, purifies the secretions and cures all forms of liver troubles. We say so and here is the proof:—

I hereby wish to thank you for the great benefit derived by me from your Burdock Blood Bitters. For three years I was troubled with liver complaints and tried everything to no purpose. I had almost given up hope until one day I determined to try Burdock Blood Bitters. I can say now that marked improvement resulted from the use of the first bottle and at the end of the sixth bottle I discontinued its use, being completely cured.

GEO. NICHOL, Seaforth, Ont.

I can certify to the above in every particular.

W. G. MCLENNAN, Seaforth, Ont.

Burdock Pills do not gripe or sicken. They cure constipation and sick headache.

For Weak Backs, Lame Backs, Painful Backs or any kind of Bad Backs, Manley's Celery-Nerve Compound is the Great Back Strengthener.

Wm. Rogers, 8 Ottawa Street, Toronto, Ont., writes:—"For a number of years I have been troubled with a lame back. Some of the doctors I consulted called it Lumbago; others, Kidney Disease. I received no benefit from their treatment. Nine months ago I was lucky enough to try Manley's Celery-Nerve Compound, and, after taking two or three bottles, the pain entirely left me, and I have had no return of it for 6 months now."

The Latest Fashions

EARLY AUTUMN FROCKS.

The Smartest Suits Shown Are of Black Broadcloth.

The materials for early autumn frocks shown by the importers are the smooth-faced cloths, the loosely-woven Scotch homespun, the smooth, light-weight cheviots and the light-weight tweeds. The tweeds almost invariably show, on a light background in contrasting colors, hair-lines, line plaids or a narrow stripe that looks so like a herring bone stitch that one wonders if the thread was really sewed to position or printed; the mixed cloths show a fine plaid with a distinct line running through it here and there. This design is specially good in a cloth that has a brown and white check background with a hair-line of bright scarlet crossing it in plaid fashion.

Mohairs in black, golden-brown and steel are liked for utility dresses. They are made with the simplicity of the tailor-made frock of four years ago and are commended for any one who has much traveling, shopping or business to attend to that will call her out in the busy world. The smartest suits shown up to date are those made entirely of black broadcloth. Occasionally, the gleam of a steel button is seen upon them, sometimes a satin waistcoat brings out their sombre elegance, but quite as often the entire gown is of black broadcloth, decorated only with black.

Zouave Kilts For Little Boys.

Little boys from three to four years old wear either sailor kilt or zouave kilt suits. Unless a child is unusually large of his age, or there is some special reason for doing so, it is best not to put him into trousers until after he is four years old. The skirts are kilt-plaited at the back and sides, and have a broad boxplait extending across the whole front, edged with four buttons on either side These buttons are as distinctive a feature of the new costume as the three large buttons have been on the blouses of the boys' mothers and sisters. The little blouses are made with sailor collars, rolling low to a point in front, showing an anchor, embroidered shield, or one crossed with bars of braid to match the trimming on the collar. In some patterns the collar closes at the throat in front and a black silk sailor tie is worn. The zouave jacket is open in front with lapels that turn back, faced with a contrasting material, over a plain or full vest. Below the lapels are three buttons on each side of the short jacket. The kilt skirts come just below the knee. The suits may be made of Galatea, or any striped cotton washing material, of navy blue, dark red, or cream flannel or serge, or brown and gray mixture in a very light tweed and of cheviot or any suitable light-weight, all-wool fabric. The same blouses may be worn with short trousers reaching to the knee, if desired.

The Popular Watteau Coats.

The Watteau effect in coats continues in vogue, and while it cannot be spoken of as having the natty air peculiar to a close-fitting jacket, it possesses, in its looseness, a special style of its own, particularly when worn by a slender woman. One of the Watteau coats has a double box-plait starting from the neck; another has two box-plaits that come from under a fitted yoke, while one occasionally sees the double box-plait flaring from under a yoke, though when this style is chosen for the back of a jacket the front is a simple sacque shape with no plaits. Sleeves are sufficiently large to slip easily over those in the new bodices, and this means that the sleeves are rather smaller than they were. The box-plaited sleeve—that is, the one with its fullness arranged in a double box-plait on the shoulder—is given the greatest vogue, as it can be made, even in the heaviest cloths, to fit well.

Stylish Autumn Coats

The cloths best liked for the autumn coats are the smooth-surfaced ones in mode, heliotrope, stem and hunter's green, dull olive, Mazarin, deep garnet, tobacco brown, dove gray steel, dull red, and, occasionally, black. In the rough cloths navy blue, hunter's green, golden-brown and black are noticed. The autumn coats is both made and trimmed simply. Strapped seams, although a few are seen, are not given the seal of approval by the best tailors. Large buttons of smoked pearl or gutta-percha, are used for the actual purpose of fastening, but on the plain cloth jackets few fancy buttons are noted.

The Popular Military Jacket.

A popular jacket is of blue cloth and fitted both in the back and front, fastening in front with hooks and eyes that are, of course, invisible. An elaborate braiding in black soutache is down each side of the front and extends well across the bust, shaping in toward the waist, while seven rows of soutache braid are the edge finish. The high collar is the usual military one of blue cloth overlaid with seven rows of the black braid. The sleeves are full puffs gathered in to fitted cuffs, on which is the braiding pattern in long designs to harmonize with that on the front.—August Ladies' Home Journal.

The Russian Crash.

All of the Russian crash used so extensively for toweling is made on hand looms by the peasant women of Russia. Not only is it hand woven, but also hand spun. It is an everyday occurrence in the small towns of Russia for a peasant to enter a store with a roll of crash, which she trades off for provisions. When the dealer sells a case of fifty rolls of crash that case represents the work of just so many Russian women.

A Neat Bicycle Jacket.

A slightly fluted coattail, reaching from hip to hip on your bicycle jacket, gives a very neat finish to a costume for the wheel, and also helps give an effect of narrowness to a woman's back between the hips, which invariably appear abnormally large while riding. Have the fluted coattails nearly a quarter of a yard long, so that it will reach nearly to the saddle.

Their Special Feature

The special feature of the new summer fabrics is the transparent effect, and grenadine, gauze crepe de chine, etamine and canvas are all the vogue. Etamine was in fashion ten years ago, and quite as popular then as crepon last year.

Karl's Clover Root will purify your blood clear your complexion, regulate your bowels and make your head clear as a bell. 25c, 50c. and $1.00.

A Consistent Foe.

"Mrs. Rafferty do be gettin' very shtuck up, now thot she's roidin' a bicycle," said Mrs. Dolan.

"Oi notice yez hoppin' to git out av her way whin she comes wheelin' around the corner," replied her husband.

"Phwat ud yez hov me do?"

"Shtand yer ground."

"An' help her collect 'er accident insurance? Nivver!"

Dirty Tramp—Then if you don't mind, mum, I'd rather eat the soap and scrub myself with the cake!—Fun.

ENGLAND STILL STANDS ALONE.

She Would Take No Part in the Blockade of Crete and the Nation Backs Salisbury.

New York, Aug. 9.—Mr. I. N. Ford, in his special cable to The Tribune, says: England has declined with dignity to do police duty for the Sultan in Crete. The proposal for international action there, like the project for a concert of the powers on the Armenian question, came from Vienna, but the proud nation which was duped then is now on the alert. Lord Salisbury, in refusing to commit England to the senseless and immoral policy of taking part in a blockade of Crete, has the moral sense of the nation behind him. Public opinion is well expressed by that staid, conservative journal, The Standard, which tells the Sultan, with the utmost plainness, that a series of amputations is necessary to the treatment of the malady from which his empire is suffering, and that it will be a clear gain to civilization and peace if the Cretan Christians establish their independence. This line of comment, which is clearly inspired by the Foreign Office, is worthy of the best traditions of English diplomacy. The German press declaims against it as a betrayal of the European concert, but the diplomatic burlesque to which international action regarding the Armenian outrages was reduced, disclosed how valueless and powerless concerted diplomacy really was. England has ceased to be a good European in Talleyrand's sense, and is again completely isolated in continental diplomacy, but her reason is exercising an effective veto upon the immoral action of remaining European powers. There has been nothing in the recent diplomatic action of England more creditable than her dignified and emphatic refusal to take part in this fantastic game of blind man's buff in the East.

It is a logical sequence to England's decisive defeat on the Armenian question, when the Foreign Office was baffled by the treachery and indifference of its European allies. It now stands alone, but on the highest possible moral ground.

WATER FAMINE IN LONDON.

The Death Rate Advances and Diseases Are Almost Epidemic in the East End.

London, Aug. 9.—The water famine in the east end of London has developed into a great calamity. Water is supplied to 1,250,000 people only from two to five hours daily. There being no cisterns or other means of collecting a supply, grave evils have arisen and are rapidly spreading. The death rate has advanced about 30 per 1000, and dirt diseases are almost epidemic in some districts. The cause, in spite of all denials, is the avarice and inefficiency of the local water company. The same condition of things existed a year ago, but it is pretended that the unprecedented drought is the cause. Unless rain in great abundance comes soon, there will be such wholesale sacrifice of human life that, perhaps, public opinion will grow strong enough to insist on the Government assuming control of the water supply of all London.

McCARTHY FELL AT BUFFALO.

Buffalo, Aug. 8.—The third and final day's racing under the auspices of the Buffalo Cycling Association to-day ended a brilliant if not financially successful meet. There were 5000 people present to-day when the first event, the half mile open for amateurs, started. After four trial heats, in which the best time was made by T. B. McCarthy, Toronto, the final was reached with a big field. McCarthy, who had the pole, fell just outside the tape and Higgins went down a little farther on. Horan, Buffalo, won; Mosher, Buffalo, 2; Davidson, Toronto, 3; time 1.04 2-5.

The one mile invitation, professional, the event of the day, held second place on the program. Cooper and Dahl had a hard fight in the first heat, but Dahl took it in 2.03 3-5, Cooper second, Tom Butler third, Zeigler fourth and McDonald last. Butler took the second heat in 2.06 1-5, Cooper ran second, with Dahl third, Zeigler fourth, McDonald fifth. The third and deciding heat resulted as follows: Butler 1, Dahl 2, Cooper 3, Zeigler 4. The time was 2.02 3-5. The second victory of Butler gave him the race.

The one mile handicap, professional, brought out a good field. F. J. Jenny, Utica, N.Y., 40 yards, won, in 2.07 3-5; H. P. Mosher, Cold Spring, N.Y., 80 yards, 2; F. A. Foell, Buffalo, 150 yards, 3; L. A. Callahan, scratch, finished in 2.08 1-5. The one mile Buffalo amateur championship was won by C. J. Miller in 2.14 2-5.

THE TERRIBLE HEAT.

Twenty-One Deaths in Philadelphia—Record Breaking Weather in the West—Thermometer Away Up.

Chicago, Aug. 9.—Despatches received from various points throughout the west show that no point is exempt from the terrible weather. At Elgin, Ills., yesterday three persons died and several others were prostrated. For three days the mercury has been above 100 at Evansville, Ind., and two deaths have been reported.

At Kansas City yesterday 102 was reached, the highest point since the bureau was opened, eight years ago. Despite the intense heat few prostrations were reported.

At Anderson, Ind., there was intense suffering among the men in the nail factories. There were three prostrations.

Despatches from Alton, Hillsboro, Springfield and Belvidere, Ills., indicate the hotest weather on record. At Alton the mercury ranged from 105 to 112 in the shade.

Milan, Mo., reported yesterday 106 in the shade and much mortality among animals.

At Chicago the heat, while not as intense to-day as yesterday, was almost unbearable. At 4 o'clock the thermometer registered 96. But one fatality was reported to-day.

21 Deaths at Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Aug. 9.—With each days' continuance of the terrible heat the mortality has increased until to-day 21 deaths were reported by the police. The thermometer to-day reached a maximum of 96.2 degrees, the highest point touched by the mercury this summer. Besides the deaths there were half a hundred heat cases taken to the hospitals.

Baltimore, Aug. 9.—The thermometric record was about the same to-day as it has been for the past four. The maximum was not reached until half-past 4 this afternoon, when 97.2 was recorded. Fifteen deaths and twice as many prostrations were reported up to midnight.

Washington, Aug. 9.—The heated term that has been almost without precedent in this city continues, and the general impression is that to-day has been beyond all doubt the hottest and most uncomfortable of the season. The highest point reached by the official thermometer at the weather bureau was 97.4 at 3 o'clock this afternoon. One death resulted.

Sleeplessness, Mental and Physical Fatigue

Go hand in hand. The waste of the body that ought to be restored by rest and sleep suffers increasing diminution; then loss of strength and vigor of body and mind follows. It is in this class of diseases that the marvellous properties of Maltine with Coca Wine are most markedly exhibited. It penetrates to the very sources of vital action, inasmuch as the nerve centres are impressed by its medicinal power and the digestive functions stimulated to increased and more efficient action. This imparts to the whole system the much needed impetus, the nerves are soothed from a state of irritability to one of repose—sleep with all its beneficent influences, comes back to land its aid in the process of restoration. Digestion keeps pace with the improvement of appetite, and in a short time the nervous, miserable sufferer regards his old-time vigor and the capability to enjoy life and all it affords. Maltine with Coca Wine is sold by all druggists.

GUNS LOADED WITH FOOD.

Why an Old Negro Thought His End Had Come.

Maj. Thomas Q. Farquhar of Anniston, Ala., on a visit to Buffalo recently, told a Buffalo Express reporter a humorous story of the war. During the siege of Vicksburg he was in command of a Confederate regiment outside of Gen. Grant's lines.

"We had plenty of food," he said, "it was a fertile territory that we had to draw from and there was no difficulty in getting enough to eat. We intercepted a poorly-guarded supply train of the Yanks and had enough to feed a regiment for a month stored right in our little camp. In spite of Yankee vigilance spies would now and then steal out of the city and we saw and talked with several of them. Each had a pitiful story to tell of how the inhabitants of Vicksburg suffered for food, and we ransacked our brains to devise some means of sending them a portion of our plenty.

"An old negro who was acting as a gunner under me was the one to suggest what looked at first like a feasible plan. His idea was to load supplies into the four cannon which we had and fire them boldly over the heads of the Yankees into the city itself. It was a great idea, and after some study we decided that it was worth while making the experiment. The supplies which we had contained consisted of hardtack in tins, that would go into the guns like grape shot, and we calculated that by giving them plenty of elevation we could send the food directly into the city, where even such morsels would be welcome. I was in command of the detachment, and gave my consent to what an older and more experienced officer would probably have frowned upon as being contrary to all rules of war.

"Next morning at sunrise we loaded the guns. We put a plentiful charge of powder in each and then rammed home as many cans of hardtack as would equal in weight an ordinary cannon ball, and that was not a great many, I assure you. In one of the guns we put four cans of tomatoes. This we considered an experiment, as we had little hopes that such fluid stuff would survive the impact of falling in the city, but it was worth trying. We pointed the guns and just before the lanyard of the first was pulled the old negro gunner ran a few rods down the hill, where he would be below the line of smoke and able to see where our novel shot struck.

"The first gun fired happened to be the one we had loaded with tomatoes. The gunner pulled the lanyard, there was a roar and a puff of smoke that obscured our sight for an instant; then it blew away and we saw running up the hill toward us our old negro, covered from head to foot with what looked like blood, while he waved his arms wildly and shrieked, 'I'm killed! I'm killed! O Lord have masy on my soul!' We were alarmed and ran down toward him. He still screamed and shrieked and fell down in a faint as he saw us. We rushed up to him and then every man of us burst into a laugh that would have waked the dead.

"It roused old Tom, who opened his eyes and shrieked the louder when he saw our apparently inhuman levity. As soon as we were able to speak or move we picked the old negro up, stood him on his feet to assure him that he was still alive, and then ordered him to scrape the tomatoes off himself. He was the most thoroughly bedaubed specimen I ever saw. You see the heat of the discharge of the cannon melted the solder in the tomato cans and they had simply dropped to pieces on leaving the gun, while their contents had been propelled just far enough down the hill to spatter all over the old negro." The major paused and chuckled again.

"How did the hardtack work?" asked the reporter.

"We didn't get a chance to try it," was the reply. "The Yanks, thinking that we were about to bombard them from the rear, started up the hill after us, and as there would have been no use in making any resistance against so superior a force, we spiked the guns and retreated. What they thought when they found the hardtack in them I never learned, but I suppose it only confirmed their idea that we were going to attack them."

Her Latest Whims.

Fruits promise to replace flowers for early autumn wear, and red is likely to be a most popular color, combined with either cherries or currants.

The most popular midsummer wrap is the box cloth cape, short to the waist, putty tinted and lined with white satin. This small arrangement seems to be just enough for an emergency of wind and not too much for fair weather.

The Sting Within.

It is said there is a rankling thorn in every heart, and yet that none would exchange their own for that of another. Be that as it may, the sting arising from the heart of a corn is real enough and in this land of tight boots a very common complaint also. Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor is a never failing remedy for this kind of heartache, as you can easily prove if afflicted. Cheap, pure, painless.

GOOD ENDORSERS.

Every business man understands that no matter how valuable the signature on a note may be, his confidence is greatly increased if the note is well endorsed.

This is equally true of articles other than notes. It is particularly true of pianos. The musical public always likes to know if a piano is well endorsed.

The Mason & Risch Piano is undoubtedly endorsed by more eminent names than any other instrument made in Canada. Here are a few of them:—

Madame Albani	Franz Lizst
Sir A. C. McKenzie (Principal Royal College of Music)	F. H. Torrington
Dr. Bridge (Organist Westminster Abbey)	S. P. Warren
Otto Bendix	Edouard Remenyi
Frederick Archer	W. Waugh Lauder
Mrs. Longmore	Signor D'Auria
	Watkins Mills
	Edouard Scharff

These are but few of the many eminent admirers of our pianos. We could go on and fill a column but we think this enough to establish our claim to be well endorsed.

An examination of our instruments is cordially solicited no matter how remote your idea of purchase may be.

Our prices are reasonable, quality considered, and our terms elastic enough to suit anyone.

A BOW-ON COLLISION

Between Steamers Vancouver and Lake Ontario.

BOTH VESSELS BADLY DAMAGED.

Captain Campbell of the Beaver Liner Tells the Story From His Standpoint —The Vancouver on Her Way Back to Quebec—No Lives Endangered.

Father Point, Que., Aug. 10.—The R. M. S. Vancouver that sailed from Quebec Sunday morning at 9.20 received the British mails and some passengers off here and proceeded for Liverpool at 10.30 p.m. Sunday. A dense fog prevailed, and the Father Point fog signals was fired steadily from 7 p.m. until 3 this morning. The Vancouver had to feel her way in here by the use of her lead, aided by the fog signal. About an hour and a half after passing here, while she was proceeding slowly with her whistle sounding regularly, all at once she was run into, bow on, by an inward bound steamer, her bow on the starboard side being badly smashed in, almost down to the water line. Both her anchors were carried away, with hawse pipe and her windlass broken, but her collision bulkhead remained intact. Commodore Williams maintained perfect discipline among the passengers and crew, and had lifeboats immediately ready to launch in case they had been required, but this was found to be unnecessary, and the Vancouver was turned back to Father Point, where a pilot was immediately taken to her by Mr. McWilliams, and she proceeded to Quebec for repairs. No lives were lost and the vessel is in perfect safety, though proceeding slowly. The name of the vessel collided with is unknown.

Struck the Lake Ontario.

Quebec, Que., Aug. 10.—The Beaver Line steamer Lake Ontario, Captain Campbell, arrived here shortly after 4 o'clock this afternoon and proceeded to her berth at the G.T.R. wharf, Levis. The ship bears evidence of having sustained a pretty hard shock. She has a hole extending from a distance of ten feet on the port side to about 20 feet on the starboard side. The cut water is gone at that place. The hole is just under the forecastle deck and leaves open the anchor-weighing apparatus. Piled just within the hole under the forecastle deck is a mass of iron plates, iron chucks, pieces of derrick pulleys, huge iron bars, all of which were wrenched from the bows of the Vancouver. Below the gap mentioned above is another opening, measuring about 20 feet, and extending entirely on the starboard side. This opens the bows in the fore peak in the twin deck. Of the forecastle deck the rails, davits, crane and mooring chucks are gone.

Captain Campbell was seen, but was very reticent; he disliked speaking of the collision, which bothers him very much. He blames Captain Williams of the Vancouver for, having kept so close to shore in the way of inward bound steamers making for the pilot grounds. The accident occurred after 11 o'clock, during a thick fog. The Lake Ontario was kept steaming at about a four-knot rate, while her whistle was kept going, with the "Beaver Line pilot signal," which is a long blast and three short ones. The Vancouver was sighted on the starboard bow nearly ahead; she crashed right in, but the Lake Ontario's bows are pointed and those of the Vancouver are nearly perpendicular. The latter's forward deck with anchors, chains, windlass and everything was moved down. Perfect order reigned on the Lake Ontario, while the Vancouver appeared to swing out the lifeboats. Shortly afterwards, however, the Vancouver headed up stream. This occurred off Father Point. Captain Campbell puts the entire blame on the Dominion Line steamer. He reported foggy weather during most of the voyage and a great number of icebergs off Belle Isle.

Due at Quebec at 6 a.m.

Quebec, Aug. 11.—The Vancouver passed Grosse Isle at 1 o'clock this morning and is due at Quebec about 6 this morning.

NEARLY OVER THE FALLS.

The Thrilling Experience of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Douglas While Crossing Goat Island Bridge.

Niagara Falls, Ont., Aug. 10.—A lively experience on Goat Island bridge, above the American Falls, at Niagara Falls, took place yesterday afternoon, which no doubt will be a memorable one to Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Douglas of that place. It seems that shortly after noon, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas were crossing the bridge from the mainland in a buggy drawn by a team of carriage horses. Just before reaching Bath Island one of the horses was taken with blind staggers and began to prance wildly about, throwing the carriage alarmingly near one edge of the bridge. Many held their breath, expecting to see the horses, carriage and occupants thrown into the seething rapids, but Mr. Douglas sprang nimbly from his seat and assisted Mrs. Douglas out of the rig. In the meantime the stricken horse broke loose from the harness and sprang into the rapids. The water was swift but not deep at this point, and the effect of the cooling was instantaneous. The horse became frantic to get out and was assisted to land on the Bath island shore not much the worse for his experience.

THE CANADIAN PACIFIC.

Directors Met in Montreal Yesterday and Declared the Half-Yearly Dividend —They are Wary.

Montreal, Aug. 10.—(Special.)—The meeting of the Canadian Pacific directorate, which took place to-day, had been looked forward to with a great deal of interest. There was a full attendance, and after the meeting was over the secretary handed your correspondent the following official statement:

"At the meeting of the Board of Directors of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company to-day, the usual half-yearly dividend of two per cent. on the preference stock was declared and a dividend of one per cent. for the half-year on the ordinary stock. Although the results of working for the half year have been satisfactory, the directors deemed it prudent to take a conservative course in dealing with the interim dividend on the ordinary stock, in view of the disturbed commercial and financial condition of this continent.

ANOTHER BIG STRIKE.

This is at the East End of the Josie Works —Lieut.-Governor Patterson at the Rossland Camp.

Rossland, B.C., Aug. 10.—(Special.)—A big strike has been made in the east end of the Josie works, recently commenced through the Poor Man's tunnel, of three feet of ore. Soon after the Josie ground was entered its ore body commenced to widen and is fully six feet wide at a depth of 100 feet. The ore is of a high grade.

A party, composed of William Whyte, superintendent of the C.P.R.; Lieut.-Governor Patterson of Manitoba, and J. A. M. Aikins of Winnipeg, arrived Saturday and are visiting the mines. They are greatly astonished at the wonderful extent and showing of the camp.

Blaze at Bradford.

Bradford, Ont., Aug. 10.—About 3 o'clock last night fire did about $500 damage to the interior of the Roman Catholic Church in this village. The vestry of the church with its contents, including the priests' vestments, was entirely consumed. The fire had made considerable headway before it was discovered, and had it occurred later in the night the church would undoubtedly have been consumed.

DROPPED DEAD.

Mr. George L. Maver, a Former Torontonian, Was Called Away Suddenly at Pickering.

Pickering, Aug. 10.—On Saturday at 3 o'clock Mr. George L. Maver died very suddenly of heart failure. He was walking in the grounds surrounding his beautiful residence, Kinnaird House, when he suddenly dropped dead. Mr. Maver will be well remembered by many of Toronto's residents. For 20 years he carried on a successful confectionery business on Yonge-street. Previous to this time he was a partner with Mr. Christie of Christie, Brown & Co., in the confectionery business in Yorkville. Some years ago he retired from active business life and built himself a beautiful residence in the village of Pickering, where many of his relatives are now living. He was 73 years of age, a native of Aberdeenshire, Scotland, and leaves a widow to mourn his sudden demise.

THE TERRIBLE HEAT.

Over One Hundred and Fifty Deaths Reported

IN ST. LOUIS AND NEW YORK.

Reliable Thermometers Show 104 Degrees in the First-Named City—Suffering and Sweltering in Chicago—Mortality in Many Other Cities of the Union.

New York, Aug. 10.—The hot weather of last week continues with no immediate indications of relief. The rate of mortality has increased alarmingly, and unless cooler weather develops soon a still greater death rate is probable. The total deaths directly attributable to the heat from Tuesday of last week until yesterday are 75.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 10.—There is no abatement in the frightful heat from which this city has suffered during the past ten days. Yesterday, according to the Government reports, St. Louis was the hottest city in the United States, the official temperature being registered at 99 degrees. Reliable surface thermometers registered 104. There were 49 cases of heat prostration reported to the health authorities in the past 24 hours. Of these nine were fatal. Deaths from the effects of the heat since Monday are placed at over 75.

Sweltering at Chicago.

Chicago, Aug. 10.—This has been another terrible day at Chicago. In poverty-stricken districts the agony was awful to contemplate. All night the miserable wretches sweltered and panted in vain for a breath of refreshing air. They slept, or tried to sleep, by thousands on the sidewalks or the paving stones. The city ambulance and patrol wagons from the police stations were kept on the run all night long, bearing the victims of the heat to hospitals. This morning men walked through the streets without coat or vest and panted and sweat and suffered for want of fresh, cooling air. Prostrations from heat began to be reported as early as 8 o'clock. Animals overcome by the heat lay dead in almost every ward in town. The first death from heat reported to the police was that of Fred Retter, a laborer, at 959 Seminary-avenue. He died at 8.55 o'clock.

Sixty-Three at Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Aug. 10.—The maximum reached by the Weather Bureau today was 92.9 degrees, 4 degrees lower than yesterday. There was also a falling off in the fatalities and prostrations from yesterday, when 23 deaths occurred and 50 people were overcome by the heat. The deaths reported to-day were 14, and the prostrations 30. In the past six days 63 people have died here from the heat, and nearly 200 have been admitted to the hospitals suffering from exhaustion.

Other Deaths From Heat.

Providence, Aug. 10.—Four deaths from the heat have been reported here.

Hartford, Conn., Aug. 10.—Two persons died from the effects of the heat here to-day.

Baltimore, Aug. 10.—Since the present hot spell began in this city there have been 24 deaths directly attributed thereto and 67 prostrations.

Jersey City, N.J., Aug. 10.—There were numerous prostrations this morning, and four more died from the heat.

Factories Closing at Troy.

Troy, Aug. 10.—There are five cases of prostration in the hospital. Work in factories is being suspended on account of the heat. Temperature at 11 a.m., 88 in the shade.

YELLOW JACK IN CUBA.

Over Two Thousand Persons Sick in the Hospitals of the Island.

Havana, Aug. 10.—A Government force under command of Gen. Godoy, while conveying a supply train from Minas to Guayamaro, was attacked three times by 2000 rebels under Aveline Rosas. Each time, according to Gen. Godoy, the insurgents were repulsed with a total loss in the three fights of 19 killed. The Spaniards lost four killed, and two captains, a lieutenant and 23 privates wounded.

Capt.-Gen. Weyler has announced his intention of decorating all the members of the column who took part in the "brilliant action" at Guatao in February last. The "brilliant action" at Guatao, for participation in which decorations are to be conferred on the Spanish officers and men, occurred on Feb. 22. The town is only seven miles from Havana. A detachment of Spanish troops who were pursuing a small band of rebels from Punta Brava entered Guatao after the rebels had passed through it on their retreat, and murdered 22 non-combatants, among whom were some Spaniards, sick men, and a number of boys. The "brilliant action was, according to accounts from several different sources, simply a massacre of defenceless persons who had nothing to do with the rebellion.

Over 10,000 sick soldiers are in the various military hospitals. Of this number 2200 are suffering with yellow fever.

WAS THE YACHT LOST?

Twelve Men and Boys Who Left Camden, N.J., on the Christian Lloyd are Missing.

Camden, N.J., Aug. 10.—Twelve men and boys boarded the sloop yacht Christian Lloyd here yesterday for a sail on the Delaware River. They intended to return last night, but up to this afternoon nothing had been heard from the boat or her passengers, and anxiety is felt for their safety. The objective point of the party was Chester, Pa. In view of a storm last night, it is feared that the yacht was capsized before sail could be taken in. Inquiries were sent to Chester and other points on the river to-day, but no news of the yacht could be obtained.

Frank Conroy Must Die.

Watertown, N.Y., Aug. 10.—At Canton, St Lawrence County, to-night, Frank Conroy was convicted of murder in the first degree for having killed his wife Kate at Ogdensburg last May in a fit of jealous rage. Justice Russell sentenced him to be executed during the week beginning Sept. 28 at Dannemora.

Sour

Stomach, sometimes called waterbrash, and burning pain, distress, nausea, dyspepsia, are cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla. This it accomplishes because with its wonderful power as a blood purifier, Hood's Sarsaparilla gently tones and strengthens the stomach and digestive organs, invigorates the liver, creates an appetite, gives refreshing sleep, and raises the health tone. In cases of dyspepsia and indigestion it seems to have "a magic touch."

"For over 12 years I suffered from sour with severe pains across my shoulders, and great distress. I had violent nausea which would leave me very weak and faint, difficult to get my breath. These spells came oftener and more severe. I did not receive any lasting benefit from physicians, but found such happy effects from a trial of Hood's Sarsaparilla, that I took several bottles and mean to always keep it in the house. I am now able to do all my own work, which for six years I have been unable to do. My husband and son have also been greatly benefited by Hood's Sarsaparilla—for pains in the back, and after the grip. I gladly recommend this grand blood medicine." MRS. PROTECTING THE DAIRY INDUSTRY.

The Conservative press is wailing over the dismissal of Government employees. But except to the office holders themselves there's nothing to complain about. Mr. Tarte dismissed a herds of officials who had nothing to do but get their pay checks cashed—a very proper step in the interests of economy. And now Mr. Fisher, Minister of Agriculture, has vetoed a batch of Dr. Montague's election appointments.

On the 18th June last, the day before nomination day, Dr. Montague, as Minister of Agriculture, appointed 130 veterinary inspectors for different counties in the Dominion, to be paid by fees, and to inspect horses and cattle and detect and prevent the spread of contagious diseases, and generally to perform other useful duties. They were appointed hastily, in the midst of the election campaign, and started to work without any instructions from the department, although Mr. McEachran, the chief veterinary inspector, had prepared very strict instructions and explanations of the duties to be performed. At the time Mr. McEachran was in the Northwest, and so these 130 officials set to work in ignorance of their duties, and very many of them were ignorant of a great many other things besides, as they were appointed upon party grounds, and not from any qualifications possessed by themselves for the discharge of the duties appertaining to the position. The department has, therefore, had considerable trouble arising through their want of capacity, and officious and unwarranted action in many cases, and from other causes. The payments being made by fee had apparently acted as an inducement to many of these inspectors to be officious and interfering. The cancellation of these appointments is in the interests of the most important branch of Canadian husbandry. The dairy interests of Canada represent the most valuable of our national interests, and it is of the greatest moment that the most capable available persons should alone receive such appointments. It stands to reason that men appointed upon the eve of an election were appointed for political purposes. Now a man may be a first class party hack and as such deserving of a political appointment but that by no means qualifies him to be appointed an inspector of horses and cattle. The soundness of our cattle is of the greatest importance. The indifference of the late government upon this point has led to the British cattle embargo, which has been made permanent, entailing actual and prospective loss of millions of dollars to the stock growers and shippers of Canada. Under these circumstances Mr. Fisher is perfectly justified in sending Dr. Montague's political inspectors to the right about, and as he will do, appointing capable men. Our stock interests have been gravely enough imperilled in the past to make the utmost care and circumspection in the matter of inspection justifiable. Mr. Fisher is looking after the interests of the farmers, and his step in dismissing necessarily incompetent inspectors will be endorsed by all those who desire that no obstacle should be placed in the way of the most prudent and thorough development of the great dairy industry.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

THE Brantford Expositor says "our Willie" Paterson will ride back to parliament on a grey mare.

THE bad Rhodes problem is troubling South Africa.

SIR MACKENZIE BOWELL says Sir Charles Tupper is an Opposition in himself. Doubtless Sir Charles feels that way.

JAPAN'S Diet voted $45,000,000 for the construction of railroads, telegraphs and cables at its last session, and $97,000,000 for the construction and purchase of war materials and ships. Since January, 1895, $000,000,000 has been invested by Japanese in banks, railroads and other companies. Japan is showing wonderful progressiveness.

"MISS JANE HARRISON, of England who is said to be the first woman to receive the degree of LL.D., has just been made a member of the Archæological Society of Berlin." Spiteful "buds" will say that an archæological society is the proper place for ladies whose virginal maturity puts them out of the matrimonial race.

FRUIT IS PLENTIFUL.

Fruit-growers are congratulating themselves on the unprecedentedly large yield of most fruits, although the large crops have resulted in low prices. Still the prices paid are remunerative to the growers, and the latter are not complaining. Peaches are very abundant, but so far are not of first-class stock, and are selling lower than for many seasons back. Apples are extremely plentiful. They are being received in carloads daily, and are of excellent quality. A peculiar feature in the berry trade is that Lawton berries, or brambleberries, as they are sometimes called, are meeting with more favour than the red raspberries, and are actually bringing a higher price than the latter. Black currants have never before been so low in price as this year, or so plentiful. While gooseberries are being received by carloads, the popular taste for them has fallen off. The plums now on the market are of good quality, with no mildew. It is yet too early for grapes, but reports are that there will be an enormous crop. In the Niagara peninsula the prospects are magnificent, the vines literally hanging to the ground. The grapes in Essex county and on Pelee Island are said to have suffered from rains. The railways are reaping the benefit of the enormous fruit crop, and are shipping daily as far east as Halifax.

LIVE STOCK PROSPECTS.

Live stock exporters have met with better success recently, late cables showing an improvement in the British markets. The competition of American cattle had been severely felt earlier in the season, but English butchers appear to be making a distinction in favour of Canadian animals. Prices for live stock here are low, but this is no doubt due to the poor quality of the cattle marketed. The dry weather has made feed short, and in many instances farmers have been unable to stall-feed their cattle, but have had to market them early.

HOW CHADBURN ESCAPED.

A Twelve-Year Sentence Man Dons Citizen's Clothing and Walks Out With Visitors.

Leavensworth, Kas., Aug. 10.—William Chadburn escaped from the Kansas penitentiary yesterday. During the preaching in the chapel he obtained permission to go to the toilet room; instead of doing so he went to the guards' dressing room and put on a suit of citizen's clothing. There were many visitors at the chapel, and Chadburn fell in with them and marched out, passing three sets of guards. Chadburn is a Coffeyville desperado, and was committed two years ago under 12 years' sentence for highway robbery.

London, Aug. 10.—The Canadian Artillery men were entertained at lunch at Woolwich to-day as the guests of the Third Kent Artillery Volunteers. Entertainments have been provided for the Canadians throughout the rest of the week. They will be banqueted tonight by the National Artillery Association at the Holborn Restaurant, on which occasion 250 persons will be present, including the Earl of Stradbroke, Lieut.-Col. of the First Volunteer Brigade, Eastern Division, Royal Artillery; Sir Donald Smith, the Canadian High Commissioner, the Marquis of Lorne, Col. Middleton and Gen. Herbert.

AMERICAN SILVER.

Halifax Bankers are Getting Tired of the Glut of This Coinage in Canada—Taken at a Discount.

Halifax, N.S., Aug. 10.—The Halifax bankers have not yet decided to make any more than the usual discount on American silver and silver certificates, but have considered the matter, and, also, of making all drafts on American banks payable in gold.

The cashier of one of the lagest bank said to-day:; "We are not taking American silver at all except at a heavy discount, but silver notes payable in the States are equal to gold as yet, and we are taking them at a small discount as usual, though we are considering whether it would not be advisable to accept them only at a substantial discount, and thus keep them to some extent out of the country. All the Halifax banks will possibly enter into an arrangement of this kind.

American bankers do not wish drafts from Canada to be made payable in gold under the existing circumstances, and this fact is causing comment in banking circles here.

A prominent broker said he was taking American silver at the usual discount, as it was worth as much as ever in the United States, and he believed it would hold its value for another year at least.

COMMENDABLE PROMPTITUDE.

A Resident of St. John, N.B., Makes a Successful Trial of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

St. John, N.B., Aug. 3—Mr. Robt. Moore, residing in Indiantown, a suburb of this city, has recently made what is allowed by all who are acquainted with the facts to be a most remarkable recovery. He has been a sufferer from a serious complaint of the kidneys for over seven years, and during that time has suffered excruciatingly. He has also suffered considerably in pocket, having paid large sums for medical advice. Quite recently he happened to read of the many cures effected by Dodd's Kidney Pills, and with commendable promptitude made a trial of them, with the result that after taking three boxes of the remedy he was entirely restored to health.

HARLEY DAVIDSON IN THE RUCK

A New Flyer Comes Up in C. Wilson, Aged 15 - Young Scholes Cuts the Boys' Record—Bicycle Races at Kingston Baseball and Other Sports.

Toronto, Aug. 11.

The bicycle races attracted nearly 2000 spectators to the Island oval yesterday afternoon, who witnessed several well-contested events.

T. B. McCarthy made a successful debut as a pro, winning the professional mile open and the two-mile championship in clever style. Harley Davidson made a poor showing in both of these contests, and also finished in the ruck in the quarter-mile heat race that was won by McIntosh with Greatrix second.

Fred. Moore captured the two-mile amateur championship of Toronto in good form. R. Thompson finishing ahead of John Davidson. The time in this race is a new record for Canada.

A surprise was furnished in the handicap, the winner turning up in C. Wilson, a 15-year-old lad, who was on the 150-yard mark. He finished third in his heat, and ran away from the field in the final, winning by 1-10 of a mile. Had Moore and Davidson, the scratch men, not come to grief, the youngster would likely have been pushed at the finish.

Lou Scholes, the young son of John F. Scholes, paced by Tucker and Roake, reduced the boys' record from 2.24 to 2.17, and showed up as a coming racer.

The two-mile tandem furnished a close contest, and was won by Moore and McGill.

A high wind blew from the west, which made hard for the riders coming around the north turn, and the records made are therefore all the more creditable.

This was another well-conducted meet, like all the Fairy Co.'s bicycle events. George H. Orr was starter and referee. Summaries:

Half-mile novice, amateur—First heat: F. V. O'Connor, Q.C.B.C., 1; J. Hutchins, Wanderers, 2; C. C. Robb, Wanderers, 3. Time 1.06 3-5. Also started: G. Shepherd, W. J. Stewart, A. Snape, G. H. Banks. Second heat: F. W. Sparling, Wanderers, 1; A. Murray, Hamilton, 2; E. A. Laver, T.A.C., 3. Time 1.07 3-5. Also started: H. Craig, A. W. Laing. Final heat: Sparling, Wanderers, 1; Hutchins, Wanderers, 2; Robb, Wanderers, 3. Time 1.21 4-5.

Quarter-mile, professional (heats)—First heat: W. McIntosh, 1; A. Young, 2; F. Young, 3. Also started: Harley Davidson, Chris Greatrix. Second heat: Greatrix 1, McIntosh 2, Davidson 3. Time 29 2-5. A. Young and F. Young unplaced. McIntosh won first place and Greatrix second.

Challenge half-mile match race between E. Cockburn and W. Shepherd—The former won in straight heats as he pleased in 1.05 2-5 and 1.07.

Two-mile amateur championship of Toronto—R. Moore, T.A.C., 1; R. Thompson, W.A.A.C., 2; John Davidson, Wanderers, 3. Time 4.29 3-5 (record). Herb Cassidy was the only other starter to stay with the pacing tandem. Mould, Meehan and McEachern also started.

Record trial, to beat boys' record of 2.24—Lou Scholes. Time 2.17.

One mile handicap, amateur—Dave Wilson, Wanderers, 1; E. Meehan, Wanderers, 2; J. Smith, Q.C.B.C., 3. Time 2.15 1-5. Also started: F. Moore, R. Thompson, John Davidson, W. Sparling, A. Murray, T. Hogan, D. Craig, F. W. O'Connor, R. Cockburn, G. Shepherd, G. H. Banks, A. McEachern, R. Gardiner, G. Gooch, S. Secord, C. C. Robb, A. W. Laing, W. J. Stewart, E. A. Laver. Davidson, Moore and Thompson, after qualifying in the preliminaries got mixed up in the stretch in the final, and were badly bruised. The winner, who started from the 150-yard mark, is a 15-year old, and promises to be a record-breaker.

Two-mile tandem, amateur—Moore and McGill, T.A.C., 1; Tulloch and Sparling, Wanderers, 2; Roake and Tucker, Wanderers, 3. Time 4.50 4-5. Meehan and Gardner, Wanderers, also started.

Two-mile professional championship of Toronto—T. B. McCarthy 1, C. Greatrix 2, F. Young 3. Time 4.31 2-5. Also started: A. Young, H. Davidson.

One mile, open, professional—T. B. McCarthy 1, C. Greatrix 2, F. Young 3. Time 2.18 2-5. Also started: A. Young, H. Davidson, W. McIntosh.

EAST RIDERS AT KINGSTON.

Kingston, Aug. 10—The bicycle races were hotly contested to-day. There was a very large audience, and they keenly enjoyed the sport. There were several accidents. McCall, Toronto, was thrown in the one mile professional, and received a bad cut over the eye and a bruised shoulder. In the half-mile open Avon's wheel was smashed and he should have been by a catch in a wire netting. Lade had his right leg slit open by a fall while on a curve. The results were:

One mile novice, two heats and final—Final: J. H. Barnett, Toronto, 1; C. A. Murphy, Kingston, 2; W. C. Macdonald, 3. Time 3.02.

Half-mile open, amateur (two heats and final)—H. G. Beemer, Toronto, 1; Morrison, Smith's Falls, 2. Time 1.15.

Amateur, 6-mile on wheels—A. McIntosh 1, F. G. Hinz 2. Both of Kingston.

One mile open, professional—Angus McLeod, Sarnia, 1; J. H. Coats, Toronto 2. Time 2.31 3-5.

One mile, 2.30, amateur—H. G. Beemer, Toronto, 1; T. A. Murphy, Kingston, 2; W. C. Macdonald Kingston, 3. Time 2.40.

Two-mile, Quinte district championship, amateur—G. B. McKay, Kingston, 1; H. C. Martin, Kingston, 2. Time 5.50.

Two-mile club amateur, Herald trophy—G. F. Smith, Kingston. Time 5.40½.

Three-mile open, professional—Angus McLeod, Sarnia, 1; J. H. Coats, Toronto, 2; Cecil Elliott, Toronto, 3. This was a fine finish; a blanket would have covered the three at the last lap. Time 7.36 4-5.

Mile open, amateur—R. O. Blayney, Toronto, 1; Morrison, Smith's Falls, 2; H. G. Beemer, Toronto, 3. The first time they raced was disallowed, as the men exceeded the time limit. The second time the mile was covered in 2.38.

Two-mile amateur, lap, pool, open—R. O. Blayney, Toronto, 1; H. C. Martin, Kingston, 2; H. G. Beemer, Toronto, 3. No time down for this.

Hunt won the bandsmen's race. The band tunes procession in the morning was decidedly unique.

Mr. H. H. Brownley of Smith's Falls has been placed in the professional class by the chairman of the Racing Board.

A MILE IN A MINUTE.

Anderson Was Within Three Seconds of It in a Remarkable Ride at St. Louis.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 10.—E. E. Anderson rode a mile in 1.03 behind a locomotive here yesterday, making the fastest mile ever ridden on a bicycle. He attempted to ride the distance in one minute, and that he was unsuccessful was due to his pacemaker which did not keep up regular speed. At times the speed indicator in the engine registered 61 miles an hour, but it was only going at 58 miles when the starting point was struck. Anderson showed no ill effects from his great ride but that his tongue was thickly coated from the intense heat.

The rider pedaled steadily and kept well up to the engine, though he admitted afterward that his 92-gear was even too low for such rapid traveling. The crowd cheered as "Andy" flew by, and when the torpedoes signaled that the ride was over the two watches and one on the engine registered 1.03.

The intense heat did not permit Anderson's making another trial, and he will make his final trial on Aug. 23. If he did not accomplish his purpose he proved that he could ride a mile a minute. Anderson's pacemaker was the most ponderous machine that has been employed to aid a cyclist in covering ground and beating Father Time. It consisted of a locomotive, tender and a coach. The engine and tender weighed 80 tons, and the coach tipped the railroad scale at 15 tons. To this weight had to be added that of the spectators who were allowed the privilege of riding as fast as the intrepid wheelman, though on a safer basis.

The track over which the bicycle made the fastest time ever negotiated on a man-propelled vehicle was smooth as carpenter's work could make it. It was composed of two-inch white pine planks laid end to end for a distance of two miles. The *lumber did not arrive until last Wednes*day, and by Thursday afternoon it was all laid. The track was three feet wide between the rails and all joints were planed smooth. Every edge and every nail were carefully inspected by the chief engineer of the road Friday afternoon and pronounced as safe as human skill could make it. Sunday morning a gang of men were sent over it and swept it clean, and a guard saw that no one was allowed on it for five hours before the test was made.

LEND YOUR EARS

To Your Back and Listen to its Talk—A Peterborough Man Tries It.

Did you know the back could talk ;
Tell you why it aches and pains ;
Tell you why it's lame and weak ;
Warn you of the kidney's ills :
Tell you of Doan's Kidney Pills ?
Listen to them when they speak.
Relieve the kidneys, cure the ache.
Bad back, acute pains and kidney ills,
Are quickly cured by Doan's Kidney Pills.

Here is proof of it at home. The testimony of Mr. George N. Graham, the genial host of the Oriental Hotel, Peterborough, is as follows :—

He says :—"I have been a great sufferer for some time with pain across the back, extending up between the shoulders, swelling of the limbs, dizziness, loss of appetite, and in fact felt completely broken up.

"I had lost 17 pounds in three months, and thought that I would never get better. I have taken many kinds of patent medicines, and have also been treated by medical men, but did not seem to get any better at all, in fact was constantly growing worse.

"I saw Doan's kidney Pills advertisement and got a box of them at Lynch's drugstore, and by the time I had taken one box noticed a marked change for the better.

"I have taken seven boxes altogether, and am now free from pain ; the swelling in the limbs has disappeared, and my appetite is good. In fact, I feel that I am completely cured.

"I can heartily recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to those suffering from any form of kidney trouble. They are the best kidney medicine I have ever used.

Signed, GEO. N. GRAHAM.

A FUNNEL-SHAPED CLOUD

Passed Over the Town of Amherstburg and Picked the Roof Off a Hotel.

Amherstburg, Aug. 10.—About 2.30 to-day the heavens in the west became suddenly dark, and a few minutes later a funnel-shaped cloud came down the river with great velocity. It turned to the east and passed over the town, and carried the roof of the Lakeview House across the street as an ordinary wind would pick up a piece of paper off the street. Fortunately it did not descend. It was accompanied by heavy rain. There were a number of pleasure boats capsized in the river, but no lives were lost. One large yacht, sailed by Leo Keena of Detroit and two companions, was capsized in the river and was carried five miles out into the lake. They were picked up by the tug LP.Smith in an exhausted condition in the bottom of the boat.

LOCAL NEWS.

Barns Destroyed.

Several valuable barns and outbuildings in Canada were destroyed last night, having been struck by lightning.

Is Your Piano in Tune?

The change of season affects pianos as well as anything else. Mr. Geo. Gumpricht, practical piano maker and tuner, with 28 years experience, attends to all orders left at Mr. H. S. Macdonald's drug store.

T. Fitzgerald's Coal Yard.

I advise all customers to place their orders for season's coal as prices will likely advance 1st September. No. 1 hard Scranton, Pylmouth or Lehigh, Egg, Stove or Nut, $6 00. Also in stock, best Charcoal. All kinds of mill wood in stock.

New Business.

Mr. Fred Wesley, for some years manager of the Gendron Manufacturing Company, Toronto, will open a general store in September, to be known as "The Fair," in the premises at present occupied by Armstrong & Co., drygoods, adjoining the Bank of Toronto.

Peterborough House Changes Hands.

Mr. Philip Crough, of Euniskore, has purchased the good will, license and furniture of the Peterborough House, from Mr. A. O'Brien, the present proprietor, and will take possession as soon as the necessary arrangements are completed probably during the coming week. Phil will no doubt run a good house and be popular with the travelling public.

New Confectionery and Bakery.

Mr. J. Williams, from London, England, has become a resident of Peterborough and commenced business as confectioner and baker in the corner store on George and King streets. The location is a good one for business and should be a great convenience to residents of this busy part of the town. Mr. Williams will no doubt meet with encouragement in his new venture and in his new home.

Crawford Peaches.

It is very probable that consumers will have to content themselves with few Crawford peaches this year. Crawfords are almost a total failure in the Niagara District this year, and those put on the market will be supplied from Essex county where the crop is better. But there is a heavy crop of later varieties, inferior in appearance to Crawfords, but yellow in flesh and of good quality. Mr. Robert Walton, town, is agent for the Niagara District Fruit Growers' Stock Company, and handles, besides peaches, all sorts of fruits and of the highest quality. Plums are a great crop, and the company has Bradshaws and Washingtons about ready to ship.

Where Brock Fell.

"We climbed the Heights, on foot; passed the Monument House. Talking the while of that great day when Brock led his handful of men to drive back the invading foe, and fell, giving his life for the flag and the country he loved. Living again the grief of his brave 49th and feeling the fire in our veins which won for them the fear of the foe in after battles, we stood a moment to look at Brock's monument, and to point out the cliff over which the enemy were driven and the day won." These are the stirring words of one of a party of excursionists who visited this historic spot the other day. You can go with the Foresters' excursion on Peterborough's Civic Holiday, August 20th, and "feel the fire in your veins." At the same time you can take in Niagara and all its wonders. See posters and folders.

ALMOST A DROWNING IN THE OTONABEE.

A Son of Mr. James Gobeen Rescued From the River.

This morning a large number of young boys, as is their custom, were enjoying themselves in the river, just east of the lower end of the C. P. R. spur line, which runs north from the railway bridge.

Amongst the number was a young son of Mr. James Gobeen, and being somewhat more venturesome than the others he attempted to swim across the river. Being an excellent swimmer for a lad of his years he was doing well, when his companions shouted for him to "bottom it," that is to go down and ascertain the depth. The little fellow tried to do so, but it was too deep for him and he failed in the effort. The idea that the river was so deep had never occurred to him, and he lost all courage and gave up trying to make the other bank and drifted helplessly about, shouting for aid. Messrs. Rummings and Odette, of the Peterborough Canoe Company, heard the cries of distress, as they were working at the water's edge, and procuring a boat rowed hastily to the spot and just succeeded in rescuing the boy before he sank for the last time. To their promptitude in responding to his cries the young lad owes his life.

north country, and stated that he had no conception, previous to his visit, of the beautiful scenery which abounds on the back lakes. So favourably, indeed, was Sir Henri impressed that his return is looked for at an early date, when a longer visit from him is expected.

On Monday the government steamer Empire was placed at his disposal, and a tour of the lakes was made. Through this medium, also, Sir Henri was able to come down from the lakes last night and leave on the midnight train for home. The visit was a purely personal one to his daughter, Mrs. H. S. "Mikado" Still in the Market.

We take pleasure in informing the public that we have completed arrangements by which we can supply our old brands of flour manufactured with every care to suit the requirements of our trade. Stick to the Old Customers.

"A bird in the hand is worth two in the bush," any day. Hang to your old customers. When one of them gets in a huff and thinks he is an injured party, look into the matter and see where the trouble lies. Don't let him get out to air his opinions among his friends, until you have tried to bring him back into the fold. Usually incidents of this sort are based on grounds that are two frivolous for a quarrel, and certainly not sufficient for a retailer to lose trade over. If you are at fault make amends. If the customer is the guilty party, meet him half way. Independence is a valuable quality, but pigheadedness is enough to ruin any business. Independence does not prohibit a man from getting at the truth and illustrating it, by any means. Every old customer who transfers his patronage elsewhere must be replaced by a new one, and it is easier to hold the old one, if the proper means are employed at the right time.—Exchange.

POLICE COURT.

Wm. Tully, on a charge of drunkenness, was discharged.

Wm. Hanlon, a tramp, arrested on Saturday night, was allowed to go.

Funny Things Come to Pass.

Perhaps the idea of wearing wooden socks might seem ridiculous, but its just what some people in Germany are doing, and very nice socks they are, too. The wood is reduced to a long silky fibre and made into a yarn out of which the socks are knit, making a warmer, more durable and just as soft protection as woollen ones. In a similar way the pure spruce fibre is made into the interlining called Fibre Chamois, which provides for clothing an absolute protection against raw air and cold winds, because it is an absolute non-conductor of heat and cold, keeping in the natural heat and keeping out every breath of cold. This fabric has also been made waterproof, so that the rain never penetrates it, and is so light in weight and inexpensive that a layer of it provides the acme of comfort for all outdoor clothing.

Brockville will Most Likely be the Place of the Dairymen's Convention next January.

Brockville Times.

The meeting of the Executive Board of the Eastern Ontario Dairymen's Association will be held on Sept. 8th, not on Aug. 8th as some thought. It will be held at Toronto, and one of the chief matters to be decided will be the place of the next annual meeting in January next. The claims of Brockville have been ably and energetically set forward by Mayor Culbert, Mr. Daniel Derbyshire, the Brockville Cheese Board and otherwise. The following is the letter which Mayor Culbert sent to the Executive Board:

R. G. Murphy, Esq., Secretary of the Eastern Ontario Dairymen's Association, Elgin, Ont.:

Dear Sir,—I hereby invite the Eastern Ontario Dairymen's Association to hold their next annual convention at Brockville. We have splendid halls, good hotels and are centrally located in the finest dairy section in Canada, and can assure you that the meeting will be a success. I will personally do all I can to make your members comfortable, and trust that you will favourably consider this invitation.

Yours truly,
JOHN CULBERT.
Mayor.

It is hard to see how such an invitation can be resisted, especially when it is a recognized fact that Brockville is, is the eternal fitness of things, the natural place for the meeting of the Association.

REAL, GENUINE SWIMMING.

THIS IS WHAT PETERBOROUGH GIRLS ARE NOW ENJOYING.

This Pleasant Sport is Good for One's Health—It is a Splendid Exercise.

Have you managed to keep cool during this dreadful weak? If you have you deserve to be exhibited as a curiosity and freak of nature. The dreadful heat which we have been having has astonished Peterboroughans beyond measures; it is something so entirely new. Let us sincerely hope and pray that it may not last much longer and that we may enjoy once more our old-time bright and glorious summer weather.

Some of our Peterborough girls have been wisely going in for swimming out at the lakes this summer — real, genuine swimming, not dabbling about in the water in a fetching bathing suit, but swimming and diving with the sang froid of their brothers. What a sensible thing for Peterborough girls to do. They, who almost live upon the water four months of the year, should be expert swimmers. Unless overdone, it is a most healthy pastime and sport for women. This is what an authority on the matter says about it:—"There is perhaps no form of athletic pleasure that gives more perfect action for the development of the body than swimming. It has, moreover, the advantage of affording active exercise for nearly every muscle, without any accompanying jar or strain. I do not mean by this that the imprudent swimmer cannot overdo or strain muscles or over-estimate his powers, but, taken in a rational way, the exercise, despite its supposed perils, presents, on the whole, fewer elements of danger than almost any other. For women it is particularly desirable sport. In a peculiar way it comes within the limits of feminine powers, and curiously enough, while few women have attempted the showy feats which men have accomplished in the water, they have, as a matter of fact, more endurance as swimmers than men. They float more easily, and are far less liable to chills and cramps, and despite their inferior strength, make quite as good swimmers as do men." It is very encouraging to hear that such a pleasant sport is good for one's health. We are always a little bit thankful when somebody, whose word may be taken for good authority, comes along and tells us that some one enjoyable sport is not more or less hurtful, physically. We have all heard about the "bicycle back," the "tennis arm" and all the rest of the horrors, until the stories of them are quite commonplace. The bathing girl is coming quite into fashion, and the bathing girl of to-day is quite a different creature from the one we knew ten years ago. To-day's bathing girl would be as much ashamed to say that she could not swim and dive as she would to admit that she had dyspepsia or the toothache—things which the wholesome, well-groomed daughter of to-day looks upon as the results of the ignorant neglect of unpardonable plebianism. The sunburnt beauty of muscular, slender proportions and perfectly disciplined nerves does not think of good health only as a comfort and a boon, but she regards aches and pains (the sort that come from imagination, want of exercise and patent drugs) as decidedly bad form. The day of vinaigrette clubs is dead.

The bathing girl, as one sees her at the watering places, is first of all energetic. She could not dress and undress so quickly and with such professional perfection if she were not. She could not swim out to the raft, dive off, battle with the outrolling breakers, get tossed about by the ingoing rollers, go up the beach at a stiff trot and come back prime for another dip, if she were not. No lassitude, vapours or mooning for this maiden; her brain is too busy to admit of any dreaming, and her body is too thoroughly oxygenated by wind and air to permit her blood any slower mode of progress than the hop, skip and jump. That is why a red rose blossoms shyly in the brown garden of her cheek, which throws the rouge of the piazza-girl completely in the shade.

Sleeplessness, Mental and Physical Fatigue

Go hand in hand. The waste of the body that ought to be restored by rest and sleep suffers increasing diminution; then loss of strength and vigor of body and mind follows. It is in this class of diseases that the marvellous properties of Maltine with Coca Wine are most markedly exhibted. It penetrates to the very sources of vital action, inasmuch as the nerve centres are impressed by its medicinal power and the digestive functions stimulated to increased and more efficient action. This imparts to the whole system the much needed impetus, the nerves are soothed from a state of irritability to one of repose—sleep with all its beneficent influences, comes back to lend its aid in the process of restoration. Digestion keeps pace with the improvement of appetite, and in a short time the nervous, miserable sufferer regains his old-time vigor and the capability to enjoy life and all it affords. Maltine with Coca Wine is sold by all druggists.

SPORTING PASTIMES.

Wheel Talk and Items of Local and General Interest to Sportsmen.

THE WHEEL.

A large number of local riders will take part in the Port Hope bicycle races on Wednesday.

The relay race between Campbellford and Cobourg bicycle clubs is off, the Cobourg club being unable to get a team which would have any chance with the Campbellford team. The cup as a result goes to Campbellford. The cup was to have gone to the first club winning three times. Last fall two races were run, each of which was won by the Campbellford representatives. The default of Cobourg in the third race leaves the cup with Campbellford. It will be in order to get on a road race now with some other club.—Campbellford Gazette.

London, Aug. 10.—At Catford Saturday, the 100 mile bicycle record was broken by bicyclists Palmer and Frost. The former's time for the distance was 3 hours 37 minutes and 57 4-5 seconds, and Frost's 3 hours 38 minutes and 10 4-5 seconds. The last forty miles of the hundred was covered in less than the record time for that distance.

The following committee will look after the bicycle races at the Nicholls Park on Thursday afternoon:—

Referee—R. Neill.
Judges—J. S. Knapman, R. H. Kells.
Timers—Alex. Gibson, R. D. Hamilton, Chas. Richor.
Starter—Herb Walker.
Clerk of Course—Lionel King.
Handicappers—A. Gibson, Herb Walker, Chas Rischor.

Entries can be make to F. H. Dobbin at Review office.

E. E. Anderson tried to ride a mile on a bicycle yesterday in one minute, paced by a locomotive, in St. Louis yesterday. He failed by three seconds. The trial was made on the track of the Bluff Line Railway, nine miles north of East St. Louis. His wheel was geared to nineto-two to which he attributed his fast time. Another trial will be made on Aug. 28, when Anderson will have a wheel geared to 120.

A WHEEL SONG.

Some time ago a prize was offered for the best bicycle poem, and the competition resulted in an avalanche of bicycle lyrics—good, bad and indifferent. The following from the Looking Glass, Atlanta, by Evaleen Stein is going the rounds, and has been classed in the first-named category:

O, the ships have sails for the swelling gales,
The falcon flies in the wake of the wind,
In the speed of the steed of the Bedouin breed
The blood leaps high to the hoof-beats' lead,
As the leagues are left behind.
But what care I
For the skirls that fly,
Or the vessels that sail the sea;
The blasts that blow
Till the trees bend low,
Or the barbs of Araby!

Nor wish I more for the wings he wore,
The fleet-foot one, of the fables old!
For the feathered rod of the messenger god,
Or the winged sandals wherein he trod.
In the happy age of gold
Let poets mourn
For the days outworn.
But the winged mornings are still divine!
These flying feet,
Were they half so fleet
As the speed that springs from mine!

Then ho! for the wheel with its strength of steel,
Yet blessed buoyance of sky-born things!
And the rush of the near and crystaline clear
Sweet breath of the summer that sings in the ear
Like harps of a thousand strings!
O wild and free
Is the joy to me
To breast the breezes and whirl along!
To skim the ground
Till the pulses bound
And the heart bursts into song!

CRICKET.

Last Friday afternoon the Hastings cricket club came to Campbellford, says the Campbellford Gazette, and succeeded in defeating the local club by six wickets and one run. For their victory, Hastings can thank Messrs. Horkins and Stocker of Peterborough, and Mr Ashe, who together made the majority of their runs, and the two former bowling made 15 out of the 20 wickets taken. In their first innings Campbellford scored 69 runs, C. Colville making 12, E. Nancarrow, 23, R. Bonnycastle, 8, and W. Shannon, 13. In their second they made 30 runs only, good scores being made by W. Nancarrow, who made 11, and E. Platt, 9. Hastings in their first made 47—T. Lancaster making 10, G. Horkins, 11 and Mr. Stocker, 18. In their second they made 53 for 5 wickets, Mr. Ashe making 25, and G. Horkins, 17. Horkins and Stocker's bowling was exceptionally fast.

THE TURF.

The Cobourg Post says: It is said that the judges at the Colborne races robbed Nettie Woods of the second heat and beat the mare out of a chance to win first money on the second day. It is time that some men who pose as judges should step down and out of the stand and be content as spectators. Nettie Woods is the running mare owned by Mr. Fred Jones, of Peterborough.

BASEBALL.

Baltimore leads the National Baseball league, and are looked upon as pennant winners. Cincinnati is only six points behind for second place.

LACROSSE.

The Port Hope papers are still harping about that lacrosse match, and the Guide says:—

"If the Peterborough Lacrosse Club came in here on Thursday, August 6th to play Lacrosse why did they donate some seventy sickets to as many toughs to come in here and fight for them? No wonder they were $70 in the hole. We received information of the above from gentlemen whose veracity is unquestionable, as the Peterborough Times would say. The Review says that their team could play all around the Ontarios. The Peterborough's were being beaten, they knew it, their crowd availed them nothing. For slugging and fouling their men were being ruled off, they knew they would be beaten and were satisfied with the decision of the referee. It was Mein that struck Weir not the reverse, and the latter did not leave the field on account of sickness, but because of soreness from blows and gashes administered by his check. "Lipsett was struck over the head." Another unquestionable statement of veracity. There was not a man on the Peterborough's that received a wound and if any received a scratch, Lipsett was not one of them. Richardson and Lipsett were both ruled off, not the latter only, as the Review, with its veracity would lead one to believe. Anyone who witnessed the game would easily see by the report of the Peterborough papers, that in very bad form they were trying to shield the specimens that came here on the 6th and in so doing confess by their "veracity" that the specimens were three quarters to blame."

[If the Port Hope sports think their team can win against the Peterborough's on neutral ground, man for man as the teams were composed on the sixth, a chance will be given them to play for $500 a side, whenever they wish it. In fact at the conclusion of the match a prominent local merchant who was down offered to back the Peterborough's to that extent but could find no takers. The offer is still open, and a line to the EXAMINER will have the effect of sending a man to Port Hope to arrange the preliminaries. Now Port Hope, either "put up or shut up."

Ivorine for the Teeth

Asks only a trial. Boasting will not whiten teeth; Ivorine for the teeth does. Extravagant claims will not render the breath sweet and fragrant; Ivorine never fails to do this. Ivorine for the teeth asks you for an opportunity to demonstrate its value. Dentists have affirmed it and the public corroborate professional opinion, but do you know as every tooth loving man or woman ought to know, Ivorine for the teeth is the best.

The camel is a beast of great strength and endurance. Nothing hurts it until the proverbial "last straw" is added to its burden. The human digestive system is very much like a camel. You can impose on it to a wonderful degree. It is really astonishing how much abuse it will stand before it breaks down. "The last straw" doesn't break it down, but it makes it stop work. Continually put the wrong things into your stomach, and digestion will get weaker and weaker. Before long, something worse than usual will be eaten, and will go through the stomach into the bowels, and there it will stick—that's constipation. Let it continue, and there is nothing bad that it will not lead to. Nine-tenths of all human sickness is due to constipation. Some of the simplest symptoms are coated tongue and foul breath, dizziness, heartburn, flatulence, sallowness, distress after eating, headaches and lassitude. A little thing will cause constipation, and a little thing will relieve it. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are a certain cure for constipation. They are tiny, sugar-coated granules, mild and natural in their action. There is nothing injurious about them. You can take them just as freely as you take your food. There is no danger that you will become a slave to their use. They will cure you and then you can stop taking them. Send for free sample package of from 4 to 7 doses. NEW VIEW OF THE WHEEL.

The Owner of a Horse and Buggy Is Much Disgruntled

He is a handsome man with a graceful mustache and lordly imperial, just turning gray, and many's the fair woman who has noted him on the avenue or along F street at the hours when women do most congregate in those localities.

On one occasion he was looking listlessly into a window of a bicycle store when a Washington Star reporter ran across him.

"Great Ceasar!" exclaimed the reporter, starting back in horror, "you don't mean to tell me that you, the Adonis, the Apollo and the rest of them, are contemplating acquiring the bicycle habit?"

"I don't see why I shouldn't," he said. "My horse is out on pasture, and I don't have any heart to bring him in and drive him."

"Why not?" and the reporter was surprised at this state of affairs, for he happened to know that the horse in question was not only speedy, but handsome, and the wagon that went with him was a beauty in every particular.

"What's the good of the turn-out?" he replied, lugubriously. "If I want to take a man along he can't go, owing to a previous engagement to go wheeling, and I hate to drive around alone. Besides, there are so many bicycles flying around on the streets and the roads that driving is becoming an annoyance rather than a pleasure."

"What's the matter with taking a girl along for company?" suggested the reporter.

"Worse and more of it," continued the lugubrious horse owner. "If I am lucky enough to get a girl to go with me, either because she hasn't an engagement to go wheeling or because she has just been wheeling till she is so tired she wants to rest, I have no peace of mind or pleasure in the drive. In the old times, you know, there wasn't anything quite so near heaven as to take a pretty girl out Rock Creek way on a soft and sweet moonlight night and drive through those shaded dells, where the rippling waters made melody to the music of her voice, and then when the moon hid behind a cloud for an instant, when we two were alone with the stars, to kiss her rosy lips and float out upon a moonshine sea of rapture."

"Gee, whizz!" exclaimed the reporter, apologetically, "I beg your pardon, but continue."

"And after that," he continued, "to drive along those beautiful roads through Woodley, over the bridges down into the hollows, along the ridges spicy with the perfume of the woods, with your arm around her taper waist, was something that could only be fitly expressed in poesy and music."

"Well?" said the reporter, inquiringly, when he seemed unable to proceed.

"It's all busted wide open," he said, in tones of the utmost disgust. "Now the roads are full of bicyclers, men and women, chasing along everywhere, as silent in their approach as death or taxes, and as certain, and when a man in a buggy undertakes anything like that I was speaking about he doesn't more than begin to bend over toward her or to slip his arm along the back of the buggy seat until out of the darkness and stillness behind him comes a rasping voice saying: 'Break away, there; break away.' That's the condition now, my dear fellow, and I am afraid the man with a horse and buggy has lost his occupation."

THEY ARE GIVING WAY.

Physicians Commence to Realise the Value of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

OTTAWA, Aug. 10.—The inveterate reluctance to admit the success of patent medicine usually evinced by physicians is rapidly giving way, so far as Dodd's Kidney Pills are concerned. The cases of Dr. Rose and Dr. McCormick, who published details of their recovery from diabetes and Bright's disease through the agency of this remedy, were the first attacks on the citadel of their skepticism and now it appears as if the remarkable recovery of Mr. G. H. Kent, of this city, the details of which have been transmitted to the press, would complete what has been so auspiciously begun. The published interviews with Mr. and Mrs. Kent and the sworn statement of the former leaves no foothold for disbelief.

A MODEL MODERN BARN.

How the Question of Ventilation Was Satisfactorily Settled

Recently the London Farmers' Advocate gave a description, with extensive plans, of the commodious modern barn of Mr. E. D. Tillson of Tillsonburg, which is rated as the model building of its kind in Canada. It was built in 1893, when no pains nor expense was spared to make it the best possible structure for convenience and durability. The farm upon which it stands is a choice 400 acres, most of which is in a high state of cultivation. The fields are of convenient size and each provided with hydrants connected with an excellent waterworks system. All sorts of grains and fodders are grown, and a considerable acreage is devoted to test plots of different crops.

The barn, which is slate roofed, is of white brick, having two-foot walls up to the very peak. The main portion which stands east and west, is 125 feet long by 60 feet wide. Joining the southwest is a 45x45 addition, which is to all intents and purposes a portion of the main structure. The entire flooring of the basement is of cement, which has gutters, 14 inches wide by 8 deep, behind each row of cattle. The mangers are 2 1-2 feet wide, the back board of which projects a few inches into the passage to receive the feed. There are water boxes and salt boxes in each stall. Each water box is of iron and supplied with a pipe leading up through the bottom. There is a continuous stream running through these which cannot reach higher than within half an inch of the top of the boxes. By turning a certain stop-cock and opening another, the whole of the boxes can be emptied in five minutes. By this means the pipes are flushed and kept clean.

Mr. Tillson seems to have mastered the question of ventilation. The fresh air is drawn through an underground pipe which leads out a few rods, where it opens in the shape similar to that of a flow pipe of a steamboat. The mouth of this pipe is provided with a tail, which keeps it facing the breeze. The entrance of the fresh air is shown in the figure, showing a side view of stall. The foul air escapes by chimneys in the walls, by openings near the floor, and also near the ceiling. The silos have a capacity for about 1,000 tons of ensilage, of which there is a considerable quantity now on hand to feed when the pasture becomes dry. The passage leading through between the silos is itself used as a silo, being filled last and fed first. The north silo, 13x19 feet, is a feed room in the lower flat. The silo above it is supported by strong iron posts. The silos are like the barn walls, of white brick lined with cement.

A Scientific Failure.

Occasionally science must admit failure. One night a young man in Divinity Hall, at Yale, undertook, with a toy rifle, to hit a lamp. But his aim was poor and the ball passed through the window of an eminent and venerable professor of science and embedded itself in the wall. This was the opportunity for the professor and for science. He, too, set to work and computed the curve, and with the exact skill of infallible figures, he traced the ball right back to the room of an innocent colleague, who didn't even know the rifle had been fired. The unfledged minister flatly denied all knowledge of the affair. But men, even a minister, have been known to make denials in self-defense, and the professor had the proof with him. There was the bullet, there were the marks of its course, and there was the computation worked out. It looked as if a pulpit career was to be nipped in the bud. But the guilty student heard what was going on. He called on the professor, confessed the offense, pointed out that the man of science was 200 feet out in his computation, and advised that the matter be dropped right where it was. And that was done.—Hartford Courant.

Tall Chimnies.

The highest chimney in England is supposed to be that of Barlow & Dobson's mill at Bolton; it is 368 feeth igh, and is built of 806,000 bricks and 122 tons of stone. It is excelled by at least two in Scotland—the St. Rollox chimney in Glasgow is 445 feet, and the Townsend chimney in the same city is said to be 468 feet high. But the steeplejacks make no more of climbing such chimneys than one a third of their height, though the vibration is more serious at times. All chimneys vibrate, especially in a gale—it is a condition of their safety—but the oscillation at the top is a serious matter for anyone at work there during a high wind, and in such conditions the job is postponed to a calmer season. Lancashire also boasts one of the crookedest chimneys in the country—a shaft at Brook Mill, Heywood—which is nearly 200 feet high, but is more than six feet out of plumb. It has been belted with iron bands, and is considered secure.—Chamber's Journal.

ONE HONEST MAN.

DEAR EDITOR:—Please inform your readers, that if written to confidentially will mail, in a sealed letter, particulars of a genuine, honest home cure, by which I was permanently restored to health and manly vigor after years of suffering from nervous debility, sexual weakness, night losses and weak, shrunken parts. I was robbed and swindled by the quacks until I nearly lost faith in mankind, but thank heaven, I am now well, vigorous and strong and wish to make this certain means of cure known to all sufferers. I have nothing to sell and want no money, but being a firm believer in the universal brotherhood of man, I am desirous of helping the unfortunate to regain their health and happiness, I promise you perfect secrecy and as I do not wish to expose myself either, please address, simply: P. THEY HID THE GOLD BAR.

James E. Garrett, Formerly of Montreal, Caught Unearthing $12,000 Worth of Stolen Gold.

San Diego, Cal., Aug. 10.—James E. Garrett and three companions were caught in the act of unearthing the famous Ensenada gold bar, valued at $12,000, which was stolen from the office of M. Rivoli at Ensenada on the night of March 20, 1895. The captors of the party were Mexican officials, headed by Gov. Sanguines in person. After his arrest Garrett showed the officers where the bar was buried, and the precious metal was recovered.

Garrett spent 16 months in the Ensenada jail under suspicion of the robbery, but it could not be proved against him, and he was released July 15 last. During his confinement, Garrett, who is an Englishman and has wealthy relatives in Montreal and England, made a strong complaint to the British Government because of his alleged wrongful detention. The case at one time threatened to provoke a serious complication between Mexico and Great Britain, and is still a subject of diplomatic correspondence.

We've all met people who looked well no matter how old their clothes were, and envied them their happy knack. But now any of us can have gowns and wraps in which we can move around and enjoy ourselves freely, at all kinds of games or sport, and yet they will keep stylishly chic and graceful through it all if we interline them with Fibre Chamois. This popular interlining can't possibly lose its stiffness no matter what hard usage it receives or how long it is in service. And it is so light in weight that it adds no burden on hot summer days. Wouldn't it be foolish not to look for the label bearing the name on each yard. Articles of sterling merit always have cheap and worthless imitations.

BUILT UP THE SYSTEM IN A WONDERFUL MANNER.

James A. Bell, of Beaverton, Ont., brother of the Rev. John Wesley Bell, B.D., prostrated by nervous headaches A victim of the trouble for several years.

South American Nervine effected a complete cure.

In their own particular field few men are beter known than the Rev. John Wesley Bell, B.D., and his brother Mr. James A. Bell. The former will be recognized by his thousands of friends all over the country as the popular and able missionary superintendent of the Royal Templars of Temperance. Among the 20,000 members of this order in Ontario his counsel is sought on all sorts of occasions. On the public platform he is one of the strong men of the day, battling against the evils of intemperance. Equally well known is Mr. Bell in other provinces of the Dominion, having been for years a member of the Manitoba Methodist Conference and part of this time was stationed in Winnipeg. His brother, Mr. James A. Bell, is a highly respected resident of Beaverton, where his influence, though perhaps more circumscribed than that of his eminent brother, is none the less effective and productive of good. Of recent years, however, the working ability of Mr. James A. Bell has been sadly marred by severe attacks of nervous headache, accompanied by indigestion. Who can do fit work when this trouble takes hold of them and especially when it becomes chronic, as was, seemingly, the case with Mr. Bell? The trouble reached such intensity that last June he was completely prostrated. In this condition a friend recommended South American Nervine. Ready to try anything and everything, though he thought he had covered the list of proprietary medicines, he secured a bottle of this great discovery. A second bottle of the medicine was taken and the work was done. Employing his own language: "Two bottles of South American Nervine immediately relieved my headaches and have built up my system in a wonderful manner." Let us not deprecate the good our clergymen and social reformers are doing in the world, but how ill-fitted they would be for their work were it not the relief that South American Nervine brings to them when physical ills overtake them, and when the system, as a result of hard, earnest and continuous work, breaks down. Nervine treats the system as the wise reformer treats the evils he is battling against. It strikes at the root of the trouble. All disease comes from disorganization of the nerve centers. This is a scientific fact. Nervine at once works on these nerve centers; gives to them health and vigor; and then there courses through the system strong, healthy, life-maintaining blood, and nervous troubles of every variety are things of the past.

AYER'S PILLS

"I would like to add my testimony to that of others who have used Ayer's Pills, and to say that I have taken them for many years, and always derived the best results from their use. For stomach and liver troubles, and for the cure of headache caused by these derangements, Ayer's Pills cannot be equaled.

When my friends ask me what is the best remedy for disorders of the stomach, liver, or bowels, my invariable answer is, Ayer's Pills. Taken in season, they will break up a cold, prevent la grippe, check fever, and regulate the digestive organs. They are easy to take, and are, indeed, the best all-round family medicine I have ever known."—Mrs. MAY JOHNSON, 308 Rider Avenue, New York City.

PRACTICAL ARCTIC EXPLORING.

Establishing a Base of Operation in the Far North.

The expedition to Jones Sound, planned for 1897, is intended to initiate a system of continuous scientific exploration. Its object is scientific research, and to this all else will be subordinated. Special attention will be paid to geology. Disasters having been plainly due to lack of a secure and always accessible base, the first object will be the establishment of a base at the mouth of Jones Sound, which Julious von Payner calls "the one spot most suitable for such a base."

Being assured of annual communication through the Scotch and Newfoundland whalers, a well-housed and well-provisioned party with some Eskimo families will be as safe there as anywhere on earth, and will have before it a field unequaled in richness and extent. To the north the west coasts of Ellesmere Land and Grinnell Land are to be explored; to the northwest the triangle between those coasts and the Parry Islands is to be rescued from the unknown; to the west the interior of North Devon is an interesting problem; to the southwest Prince Regent Inlet may present an avenue to the magnetic pole; to the south Baffin Land—with its Eskimo settlements, its herds of reindeer, its wealth in fishes and birds, its fossils and minerals—offers a tempting field, larger than the British Isles. Even Greenland may not be beyond the sphere of that strategic point, says Popular Science.

Such a system, once initiated, will cost very little. Lecturing tours and the sale of collections will defray a large part of the cost. Considering the enormous sums spent on arctic exploration in the past by governments and by individuals, it seems probable that when the system is once in running order it will not lack patrons. The cost of the initial expedition is estimated at $5,000. Much smaller sums will probably suffice in subsequent years.

ABOUT THE LIVER.

A lazy, slow or torpid liver influences the whole system, causing biliousness, sick headache, sallow complexion, languor and dullness. Burdock Blood Bitters regulates the liver, purifies the secretions and cures all forms of liver troubles. We say so and here is the proof :—

I hereby wish to thank you for the great benefit derived by me from your Burdock Blood Bitters. For three years I was troubled with liver complaint and tried everything to no purpose. I had almost given up hope until one day I determined to try Burdock Blood Bitters. I can say now that marked improvement resulted from the use of the first bottle and at the end of the sixth bottle I discontinued its use, being completely cured.

ARCHITECTURE.

SANITARY PLUMBING.

Most Important Thing to be Considered by House Builders.

In the general regret of the passing of artisanship and fine handwork to make room for cheaper and more pretentious machine work, there is little of this feeling toward plumbing. It is true that the old journeymen were splendid workmen and turned out jobs that are a pleasure to look at. But sanitary science was not understood until a few years ago, and not the most perfect workmanship can make up for a lack of traps that cannot be siphoned, or a lack of adequate ventilation. Within the limit of ten years past, plumbing has made wonderful strides in advance. In the "modern houses" no feature receives more attention from architects and house builders than does the sanitary arrangement.

When a man makes up his mind to build almost his first temptation to cheapen his estimates comes when he gives out his plumbing contracts. It is one of the main items of expense, and he reasons that much of it will be out of sight and evidence, and he is strongly tempted to put the money on aesthetic adornment rather than on a matter of pure utility. But if this reasoning prevails the builder will never cease to reproach himself. It is to be taken for granted that no one would so lower the plumbing estimates as to provide a menace to health. But if lightweight and cheap materials are used troubles are never ending—cheap closets, hoppers and faucets are a constant abomination. Laymen do not seem to understand that lead pipe which is subject to constant changes of temperature will decay so that it may be broken almost like decayed leather. The thinner it is the quicker it goes out of all proportion. For this reason, to say nothing of bursting from sudden pressure, cheap lead pipe is the most expensive of all economics. The general adoption of iron instead of lead pipe is a most important improvement, only excelled by what it naturally led to—exposed plumbing.

On the ground of sanitary safety, cleanliness, attractiveness and economy, in the long run there is no comparison between exposed plumbing and the old system, where everything was boxed in with wainscoting. It is true that the first cost is rather more, but this should deter no one from adopting it. Closets, washstands and bath tubs that are boxed in form a lurking place for filth and vermin that defy the most thorough housekeeper. The inner surface of the wood, which is always damp and never exposed to fresh air, rots and decays slowly. Although no careful experiments have yet been made nor statistics been compiled, medical observers have recently determined that decaying wood is a prolific source of disease. Where the plumbing is exposed there is absolutely no chance for lurking disease germs. The initial cost is a small price to pay for this immunity. Boxed-in plumbing calls for constant renewal, but that which is exposed has practically as long life as has the house that shelters it.

To secure immunity at all times from sewer gas, and to prevent any subsequent annoyances, have the system of fixtures, traps, supply and waste pipes well planned and arranged in accordance with the best rules. The constant grouping and concentrating of fixtures will materially reduce the cost of the work. Avoid a useless multiplication of plumbing fixtures, also locating fixtures in sleeping-rooms. Plumbing fixtures, especially water closets, must always be located in well-lighted and well-ventilated apartments. In small cottages plan the bathroom as nearly as possible over the kitchen, in order to reduce the amount of piping. Numerous and elaborate plumbing appliances are useless and expensive. The above design is an example of economical and concentrated sanitary plumbing.

The pipes are all exposed so as to be easily accessible in case of leakage. The wash bowls are porcelin with marble slabs, back and sides, and are in the lavatory and bathroom; galvanized iron sink and drainboard, set on iron legs are in the pantry, a copper boiler in the kitchen and two soapstone wash trays in the laundry in the cellar.

Healthy, happy children make better men and women of us all. A little care and a little planning before birth is often more important than anything that can be done after. On the mother's health and strength depend the life and the future of the children. A weak and sickly woman cannot bear strong and healthy children. Most of the weakness of women is utterly inexcusable. Proper care and proper medicine will cure almost any disorder of the feminine organism. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has been tested in thirty years of practice. It is healing, soothing, strengthening. It is perfectly natural in its operation and effect. By its use thousands of weak women have been made strong and healthy—have been made the mothers of strong and healthy children. Taken during gestation, it makes childbirth easy and almost painless and insures the well being of both mother and child. Send 31 cents in one-cent stamps to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N.Y., and receive Dr. Pierce's 1008 page "Common Sense Medical Adviser," profusely illustrated.

NEWS FROM OTTAWA.

Hon. Robert Watson's Visit Has Nothing to Do With the Interior Portfolio—The Estimates.

Ottawa, Aug. 10.—Hon. Robert Watson, Minister of Public Works in the Manitoba Cabinet, in an interview to-day said:; "You may say that my trip east has nothing whatever to do with the portfolio of the Interior. I am not after it and my business lies in an altogether different direction, being wholly with the Public Works Department. The school question, too, is not in it with me just now; there are new phases looking up in that connection at present. It was suggested to him that probably something would be made known about it by the first of the session, but he thought that it was a little early to expect anything definite. It would probably be dealt with in the Speech from the Throne. At least it would be considered of sufficient importance, he supposed, to merit attention in the Queen's Speech. Regarding Manitoba's prospects for the year, he thought that they would be well up to the mark. The crop would be one-third less than last year, but it must be remembered that last year was an exceptionally good one in the western part of the province, where there would be a falling off. It is the east that has suffered from too much rain early in the season, and hail storms did some local damage to crops. Mr. Watson will be here for a few days.

Hon. Mr. Tarte, Minister of Public Works, went to Alexandria on Saturday to inspect the Reformatory works there. It appears that a difference of opinion arose between Mr. Joseph Bourque, the contractor, and Mr. Fuller, chief architect of public works, regarding the foundation which is now being laid, and the contractor asked for an outside authority to be called in. This was accordingly done, and Mr. Perreault of Montreal was asked by the Department of Public Works to examine into the dispute and decide between the parties. He accordingly visited Alexandria on Saturday, and, in company with Mr. Tarte and the Government architect, went over the work. The report will be prepared at once and forwarded to the department here.

The report is current in town that Bourque, who has made little progress with his contract so far, finds that at the figure at which he took it he is going to lose money unless he can work in on extras. His price was $95,000, while the departmental estimate was $140,000.

The estimates to be laid before Parliament will be taken into consideration this week by the Ministry. In several of the departments the Ministry were busy upon them last week. The statement is reported that there will be very little change from the estimates that were brought down in January, but there must necessarily be some changes, says one Minister, from the fact that several months have elapsed since the estimates were prepared in the first place.

The Marine Department has sent a number of sign boards to British Columbia to be placed along the southwest coast of Vancouver Island. They are in the nature of directions to shipwrecked mariners, informing them where they can reach different Indian villages in case they want assistance.

The Minister of Marine has ordered the Government steamer LaCanadienne to proceed to Bryan Island to rescue the crew of the wrecked barquentine William Geake. This course was adopted as the Government steamer Aberdeen was not available.

A break has occurred in the Government cable, extending between Anticosti and the North Shore of the St. Lawrence. As there is an alternate line, however, the accident is not likely to cause any break in communication, and the authorities in this city have sent a vessel to locate the break and repair the damage at once.

Hon. Dr. Borden, Minister of Militia, has brought with him to Ottawa as his private secretary Mr. Harry W. Brown of Halifax, who is a cousin of the Minister and has practised law at the Halifax bar for the last three years.

A consignment of new Lee-Enfield rifles has been received here. The rifles will be given a trial at the Dominion Rifle Association matches.

Mr. Tarte leaves for Montreal tomorrow, and will speak on Wednesday at the demonstration at St. Eustache for Mr. Ethier, the new member for Two Mountains.

Hon. Mr. Fielding, Minister of Finance, has telegraphed he will be in Ottawa on Wednesday.

Mr. S. F. Perry, ex-M.P. (Lib.), has been appointed Acting Fishery Inspector for Prince Edward Island. The Inspector resigned to run as a Conservative candidate.

The Sting Within.

It is said there is a rankling thorn in every heart, and yet that none would exchange their own for that of another. Be that as it may, the sting arising from the heart of a corn is real enough and in this land of tight boots a very common complaint also. Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor is a never failing remedy for this kind of heartache, as you can easily prove if afflicted. Cheap, pure, painless.

SAW THE ECLIPSE.

The Observations of Old Sol in Darkness Were a Success in Norway and Japan.

London, Aug. 10.—Miss Mary Proctor of Ney York, daughter of the late Prof. Richard A. Proctor, the well-known astronomer, telegraphed to-day from Trondhjem, Norway, to the United Associated Presses that a fine view was had yesterday of the total eclipse of the sun from the deck of the American Liner Ohio, which was then off the Island of Stot, Norway. The sky was absolutely cloudless and the atmosphere clear, affording a perfect view of the eclipse in all its phases. The duration of the eclipse was one minute and 25 seconds. Miss Proctor, who is well known in astronomical circles, is a passenger on the steamer Ohio, which sailed from New York June 27, on a cruise to Russia, Norway, and the "Land of the Midnight Sun." The trip will occupy about two months.

New York, Aug. 10.—A special despatch was received in this city to-day from Mr. Arthur Curtiss James of the yacht Coronet, from Myanoshita, Japan, which reads as follows: "Eclipse observations only partly successful."

London, Aug. 10.—Despatches received here from Yokohama and Tokyo, Japan, say that the observations of the eclipse of the sun yesterday were very successful. The sky was clear and all of the conditions for observations were favorable. In the northern part of Japan the sky was obscured by clouds, and no observations were possible there.

Advices from Bodo, Norway, say that the observations of the eclipse at that place were perfect.

THE IRISH LAND BILL

Passes Its Third Reading in the House of Lords Lord Salisbury's Silence a Matter of Comment.

London, Aug. 10.—There was an atmosphere of compromise in the House of Lords to-day when the Irish Land Bill came up on its third reading. The Marquis of Lansdowne, Secretary of State for War, submitted three amendments, which were somewhat in favor of the landlords, and these were accepted by the House. About a dozen amendments were offered by landlords, but after brief debates they were withdrawn. Speaking on the motion that the bill be passed on its third reading, Earl Spencer (Liberal) contended that if the measure was passed as it had been altered, it would be a serious damage to Ireland, and would also damage the strength and independence of the House of Lords.

The bill then passed its third reading.

Lord Salisbury's silence regarding the measure continues to be much commented upon.

A TALK WITH SEWALL.

The Democratic Candidate for Vice-President Arrives in New York—The Chances in Maine.

New York, Aug. 10.—Arthur Sewall, the Democratic Vice-Presidential candidate, arrived here at 3 o'clock this afternoon. Mr. Sewall was immediately driven to the Fifth-avenue Hotel.

When a representative of the United Associated Presses interviewed him tonight, he said:

"I had an uneventful trip, and except for the heat I might add I fairly enjoyed the trip. I have no news of moment just now. Up our way we are making converts to the cause which we represent. You see the trouble down east is that the silver question is not thoroughly understood there. The people have not had the question presented to them as fully as those of the west have. They must be educated.

"I think we will carry Maine, because I think the people do not yet understand our movements. When Mr. Bryan makes two or three speeches up in New England the people will think better of the silver movement.

"I expect Mr. Bryan to reach New York to-morrow night. Mr. Jones will meet both of us in conference to-morrow evening. Until that conference is had I have no idea what will be done. The National Executive Committee will meet at noon to-morrow, when no doubt the selection of National headquarters will be decided upon. Mr. Bryan favors Chicago, I understand, and if some very good reason is not given against it I think the committee will defer to his wishes in that respect."

HOLLYHOCKS.

In the garden's fragrant way
Through the drowsy summer day
Which the robin's merry lay
Ripples through,
They adorn the flower bed
With their blooms, which, be it said,
Glow in tones of dainty red,
White and blue.

Oft the booming bumble bee
With his customary glee
On the noonday's golden sea
Gayly rocks,
And, according to his whim,
Lights serenely or with vim
On the petals of the prim
Hollyhocks.

In the sun they gaily nod
While their shadows on the sod
Dance, as if with music shod,
Zephyr-blown,
For of course they cannot hear
Happily the locust near Rattling madly on his queer Xylophone.

In their vanity supreme,
While in gems of dew they gleam,
They most likely to this dream
Fondly cling:
That they're fairer than the white
Roses climbing with delight
In the day and in the night
Up a string.

So its natural that they Should be happy all the day—
Sweet Sultanas blithe and gay,
Rare and tall.
Soon they'll flutter here and there
To the realms of Otherwhere,
From the garden o'er the fair
Garden wall.

GOOD ENDORSERS.

Every business man understands that no matter how valuable the signature on a note may be, his confidence is greatly increased if the note is well endorsed.

This is equally true of articles other than notes. It is particularly true of pianos. The musical public always likes to know if a piano is well endorsed.

The Mason & Risch Piano is undoubtedly endorsed by more eminent names than any other instrument made in Canada. Here are a few of them :—

Madame Albani	Franz Lizst
Sir A. C. Mckenzie (Principal Royal College of Music)	F. H. Torrington
	S. P. Warren
Dr. Bridge (Organist Westminster Abbey)	Edouard Remenyi
	W. Waugh Lauder
Otto Bendix	Signor D'Auria
Frederick Archer	Watkins Mills
Mrs. Longmore	Edouard Scharff

These are but few of the many eminent admirers of our pianos. We could go on and fill a column but we think this enough to establish our claim to be well endorsed.

An examination of our instruments is cordially solicited no matter how remote your idea of purchase may be.

Our prices are reasonable, quality considered, and our terms elastic enough to suit anyone.

THE MILITARY CAMPS

Are to be Held This Season After All.

THAT IS THE WORD FROM OTTAWA

Indians in British Columbia Think They Saw Prof. Andree's Balloon—Sir Charles Tupper and the Premier Both Quartered at the Russell.

Ottawa, August 11.—The Minister of Militia has decided to hold camps of exercise in the different military districts, as far as is practicable, next month. This is in accordance with the views of the militia, as forwarded to the Department by the Deputy Adjutants General. In Ontario camps will be held in districts 1, 2, 3; in Quebec in 5, 6 and 7, and in the Maritime Provinces in 8, 9 and 12. The camp in district No. 4, the Ottawa district, will be held next spring.

An interesting announcement was conveyed in a telegram received by the Government to-day from Mr. Vowell, Indian Superintendent for B.C. The message reads as follows: "Credible information has been received by Agent Lomas from two Indian parties separated by long distance, at the time of observation, that the Andree balloon had been sighted, lat. 55.15, longitude 127.40, pursuing a nearly northerly course."

Agent Lomas is stationed at Quamichan, in the northerly part of Vancouver Island, but his jurisdiction extends to a portion of the mainland. The Andree balloon expedition to the North Pole has been greatly discussed in the public press. In May last, at the request of the King of Sweden and Norway, a notice was published on this continent, asking that the balloon, if sighted, be immediately reported to the Swedish Government. Andree and his adventurous companions were waiting at Amsteruam Island, Spitzbergen, at the extreme north of Norway, last week for a favorable wind, but no information has reached here that the balloon had actually started. If they had left and the balloon reported is theirs, instead of being nearer the North Pole, they are 16 degrees further south of it in B.C. than when they left Amsterdam Island. Further tidings will be eagerly awaited.

The point at which the balloon is said to have been seen is about 100 miles up the Skeena River and nearly 500 miles north of Victoria, B.C. On the other hand news has been received from Spitzbergen to the effect that Prof. Andree has discovered four holes in his big airship and had not started. —Ed. World.

Li Hung Chang, the great Chinese statesman, has not been asked to visit Canada as the guest of the Dominion Government, but to utilise the Canadian route on his way home, for which purpose our Government will furnish him with the necessary transportation.

Mr. Otto J. Klotz, of the Surveyor-General's staff, has a party of topographers at work on the coast line of Lake Erie, from the Grand River to Point Pelee. It is many years ago since the Canadian shore of Lake Erie was surveyed, and, in view of the determination to strenuously protect Canadian fisheries, it has been thought prudent to run the boundary line again through Lake Erie, and for this purpose an accurate topographical map of the shore line is necessary. In this way there can be no question of territorial jurisdiction.

Application was made to the Fisheries Department to-day through the Collector of Customs at Charlottetown, by the captain of an American fishing vessel, having a modus vivendi license, for permission to land a cargo of herring and dispose of it at Charlottetown, on payment of duty. The request was refused, as there is nothing in the convention of 1818 or terms of license entitling vessels to such a privilege.

The Premier and ex-Premier of Canada slept under the same roof last night. Sir Charles Tupper had been down to Quebec meeting Lady Tupper, who is returning from the Old Country, and arrived at the Russell last night. With him are Lady Tupper and Miss Tupper, also Mr. Stewart Tupper of Winnipeg and Master Chas T. Tupper of Winnipeg. The two latter left for Winnipeg this afternoon. Sir Charles and Lady Tupper will be domiciled at the Russell for a few days until their new dwelling is ready.

An excellent bon mot of Sir Charles is going the rounds here just now. The other day he was accosted on the street by a leading citizen of Ottawa, a Liberal by the way, who congratulated the ex-Premier on his apparent good health. "Yes," remarked Sir Charles, "I must say I have had a good outing."

A suggestion has been made to the Minister of Militia to furnish free ammunition for the D.R.A matches. As this will be the last year for Martini-Henry ammunition, this would be one way in which to dispose of any surplus on hand. It would, however, materially change the complexion of the D.R.A. meeting, as doubtless the number of competitors would be greatly augmented, necessitating a longer time in which to fire matches.

The analytical staff of the Inland Revenue Department have been engaged for some time on samples of maple sugar this spring in different parts of the country. The result will form the basis of an interesting bulletin to be issued shortly. Much adulteration has been found, glucose syrup being mixed with the maple very largely. Then birch and hickory extracts are employed to flavor the product and give it a taste like the proper article.

An analysis is also being made of infants' foods for sale in the Dominion, and the results will be made known shortly. The waters of the Banff Springs have been tested, and many new points have been discovered about them that were not known before.

Pepper is one of the food products that is found to be greatly adulterated, and a sample that has come into the possession of the department this week will probably lead to prosecution of the manufacturers.

CLIFFORD SIFTON HERE.

The Politician From Manitoba Dwells in Golden Silence When Political Matters are Touched Upon.

Toronto, Aug. 12.

Hon. Clifford Sifton of Winnipeg, Attorney-General of Manitoba, registered at the Queen's last evening. He informed a reporter that he had come east by boat down the lakes to Buffalo, and that he would remain in Ontario for some days.

Mr. Sifton is lately, like some other politicians, cultivating the sphinx attitude. As long as the talk was on general topics he was fairly communicative, but as soon as politics were touched he became as silent as the great Egyptian mystery or Alex Smith.

Asked who he thought would be made Minister of the Interior, the politician of the Prairies observed: "I have nothing to say."

Queried as to whether he had a cinch on the sit himself, he wouldn't talk at all.

The scribe bombarded the hon. gentleman with a running fire of questions concerning the prospects of Mr. Laurier's settling the school problem, but none of the shots penetrated.

Finally, one item of information was elicited from the Western statesman, and that was to the effect that he was going down to Ottawa to see the Premier in a day or two.

Mr. Sifton is, for a constitutionally thin man, growing rather stout. His face is much rounder and healthier-looking than when he spoke at Massey Hall some months ago.

MAY CLAIM INDEMNITY.

The Italian Government Making Official Enquiries Into the Circumstances Surrounding the Louisiana Lynchings.

Washington, Aug. 11.—Baron Fava, the Italian Ambassador, who is summering at Bar Harbor, has telegraphed the State Department in accordance with cabled instructions from his Government, asking for official information regarding the lynching of three alleged Italian subjects in Louisiana as reported in the newspapers yesterday. The State Department has promptly called on the Governor of Louisiana for a full report of the occurrence in order that a suitable reply can be made to the Ambassador. If it can be found that the Italians were naturalized American citizens the enquiry will stop as the Italian Government can no longer take any interest in the affair, but if, as in the cases of a similar lynching of Italians in Louisiana and Colorado, the men are shown to be aliens to the United States, an indemnity will undoubtedly be demanded and Congress asked to appropriate for that purpose as it did in former instances. Secretary Olney's policy is to readily grant to foreign powers exactly the same treatment as he insists upon when American citizens meet with indignities abroad.

A Ten Per Cent. Reduction.

THE BOLT OF DEATH.

Young Man Struck Down at His Sweetheart's Side.

THE YOUNG WOMAN WAS AFRAID

And Her Betrothed Put His Hand on Her Shoulder in an Effort to Quiet Her Fears—That Arm Undoubtedly Saved Her Life.

Bangor, Me., Aug. 11.—Dr. Wilmer L. Pressey, a Harvard medical student, was killed by lightning at his mother's summer cottage at Islesboro yesterday afternoon, while his right arm rested on the shoulder of his fiance. His body was peculiarly marked by the lightning bolt, and a bright red scar was left over his heart.

Mr. Pressey, who was 21, left the public schools of Bangor to study medicine in Baltimore, later going to Cambridge to continue his course. Meantime he had become betrothed to Miss Brown, whom he met at Islesboro, down the bay. This summer the young woman's family decided to come to the hotel at Ryder's Cove, attracted there as much by the beauty of the place as by the fondness for it which their daughter had conceived. Dr. Pressey left a hard winter of work and study in Cambridge to come to Islesboro, and he brought with him his yacht Mallard, for a cruise about the bay with Mr. Brown and his daughter. The Browns stayed at the hotel and the Presseys were in a cottage on the shore front, north of the hotel and the steamer pier.

Yesterday afternoon all the residents along Penobscot Bay were treated to an unusually severe electrical storm. Miss Brown was in the Pressey cottage passing the afternoon, and the rest of the family were at the hotel. In the Pressey cottage there were four other persons, Dr. Pressey, his mother, his brother Frank, and a servant, Margie Bissell. They were indoors, but had no reason to fear the shower, and went about preparing a light lunch. Dr. Pressey was making a lemonade with the wooden squeezer. Mrs. Pressey, her son Frank, and Margie Bissell were in the dining room in the front part of the house. Dr. Pressey and Miss Brown were in the living room, adjoining and opening out of the front of the house by a wide door.

As the shower appeared to grow in intensity, Miss Brown became timid. She stood by the table and Dr. Pressey stood beside with the lemon squeezer in the right hand. As she expressed some terror at such a brilliant display of lightning he threw his right arm about her shoulders to reassure her.

While Dr. Pressey and his betrothed were thus conversing, the air was suddenly filled with a dreadful flame, the house and all about it were shaken by the deafening crash, every inch of air seemed to be crammed with blaze and noise. When the first shock had cleared away Dr. Pressey lay on the floor, while over him kneeled the distracted girl to whom he had just been offering assurances of safety, trying with bare hands to beat out the flames that burned his clothing.

Dr. Pressey had died instantly on the striking of the bolt. The lightning had struck the right hand, which lay as a shelter on the shoulder of Miss Brown, and which also clutched the lemon squeezer. This latter instrument was crushed to splinters by the contact. The lightning struck the back of the young man's head and ran down his arm. Then it went into his right side and then to his left, leaving a bright red mark on his breast, and passed out of the body near the heart, which it stilled forever. The flame of the fluid must have been intense, for it burned the hair and eyebrows on the body severely.

Without doubt the presence of Dr. Pressey's arm on his fiance's shoulder saved her life. The shattered house was a sorry sight. The lightning had wholly perforated its every part, and signs of its terrific force were to be seen everywhere. In the kitchen, the cooking utensils were piled up in disorderly heaps and punctured through and through by the electricity, while every joint of the building seemed to be wrenched apart.

Large kettles in the kitchen were bored through as if by a steel projectile and from one side of the house to the other passed an enormous bolt which, measured by the hole it made, must have been several inches in diameter. The ledge on which the house stands was struck by the departing lightning, which cut a piece as large as a washbowl out of the solid rock. The other occupants of the building were affected by the shock, which deafened all of them for many hours.

INTERVIEWED THE POPE.

Archbishop Langevin Has Consulted His Holiness Regarding the Manitoba School Question.

Winnipeg, Man., Aug. 11.—(Special.)—A letter received from Archbishop Langevin in Rome states that he has had a satisfactory interview with Pope Leo on the Manitoba school question. His Grace returns to Winnipeg in September.

Keep Up Your Policies.

Orillia, Aug. 11.—The frame building on Mississaga-street, occupied by Mr. George E. Whiten as a photo gallery, was gutted by fire about 9 o'clock this morning. There was a small insurance on the building, but Whiten's stock was uninsured, his policy lapsing two weeks ago, after having been in force for 20 years. The firemen did excellent service in controlling the flames.

New York Hotelkeepers.

Niagara Falls, N.Y., Aug. 11.—The New York State Hotelkeepers' Association met in annual convention to-day, with about a hundred delegates present. James Haverson, an attorney of Toronto, delivered an interesting address, comparing the Canadian troubles with the American in regard to the liquor traffic. Mrs. Julie de Ryther and Col. A. B. Dettrees of New York, Mayor Green of Binghamton and Mr. Haverson of Toronto were elected honorary members of the association.

10,000 Deaths From Cholera.

Cairo, Aug. 11.—The official cholera returns show that on Sunday and Monday there were throughout Egypt 323 deaths from cholera. Since the outbreak of the disease there have been 12,908 deaths.

Anxiously watch declining health of their daughters. So many are cut off by consumption in early years that there is real cause for anxiety. In the early stages, when not beyond the reach of medicine, Hood's Sarsaparilla will restore the quality and quantity of the blood and thus give good health. Read the following letter:

"It is but just to write about my daughter Cora, aged 19. She was completely run down, declining, had that tired feeling, and friends said she would not live over three months. She had a bad and nothing seemed to do her any good. I happened to read about Hood's Sarsaparilla and had her give it a trial. From the very first dose she began to get better. After taking a few bottles she was completely cured and her health has been the best ever since." MRS. ADDIE PECK, 12 Railroad Place, Amsterdam, N. Y.

A CHANGE OF BASE.

Conservative organs and orators are very plentiful in accusations of changes of policy on the part of the Liberals, but the change of front of the Conservative party since the last general elections is a mighty sharp curve. They have struck remedial legislation off the list entirely. Yet it will be remembered that they went to the country with that as the main plank of their platform. They repelled, with the most virituous indignation, any insinuation that their attitude on this question was simply a device to catch votes. They stood upon the lofty grounds of constitutional principle and of justice to the minority. They asseverated that parliament was bound by a compact with the people of Manitoba. The Conservative party, in the person of their great leader, the great Tupper, were ready to die for remedial legislation. Sir Charles Tupper and his party really did die politically, and now he and they are perfectly willing to let remedial legislation die, that is, for all they are disposed to do for it. In view of the lofty ground Sir Charles and the party took one would have thought that they would have fought to the last ditch. But no; they were fighting for office in the name of remedial legislation; they lost office, and they now are again fighting for office and remedial legislation may look out for itself, so far as they are concerned. The bye-election in North Grey is being fought out now, and the Conservative party haven't a good word to say for remedial legislation. Mr. George Taylor, Conservative whip, boldly declares that the Remedial Bill "is no longer a part of the Conservative policy." They need the Remedial Bill as a stepping stone, but when they are unable to fool the people into a belief in their sincerity, remedial legislation is kicked aside—they have no more use for it than the people have for them. If the Conservative party had any faith in the value of political consistency as a factor in commending them to the public favour, they would adhere to their policy whose abandonment is proof that they were not sincere in advocacy of remedial legislation, and that their only object was to fool the people into retaining them in office. Not only have the Conservatives abandoned remedial legislation, but they are insulting and denouncing that portion of the electorate which was supposed to be most anxious for the passage of the Remedial Bill. The chief Conservative organ, which but as yesterday took the electors of Quebec to its heart, can now hardly find words strong enough to express its detestation It raises the cry of "French domination," and shows its willingness to help its party in any way which it thinks will secure the favour of the majority. But the new departure will not prevail. The curve is too sharp; the apostacy too patent. The Conservative party, judged by its present attitude contrasted with that of last June, demonstrates its unfitness to be trusted. Remedial legislation was declared the only panacea for healing the Manitoba trouble. Mr. Laurier's "sunny ways" of conciliation were scoffed at. The people wisely refused to trust their counsellors; they put their faith in Mr. Laurier, and his course will thoroughly vindicate the wisdom of their choice. He promised before the elections that, if given the chance, he would speedily settle the question; and now that he is in power, he repeats his promise and declares his ability to fulfil it. And we believe that he will keep his promise, and that a vexed question which, in the hands of designing and trimming politicians, threatened to not only destroy the national harmony, but to even disrupt the national fabric, will be amicably settled and the various peoples of the country will be left free to work out the greatness which under the rule of a Liberal government is sure to be achieved.

With the Remedial bill the Conservatives made a big bid for office—office was the only thing they were in earnest about. Now that the implement they so clumsily used did not do its designed work it is contemptuously thrown aside and we are assured that the Remedial bill is no longer the policy of the Conservative party, which, having shown that it was stirring up the dangerous element of creed and race discord for the mere sake of a party gain, will hereafter have great trouble in making the people believe in its sincerity in any other clap-trap cry it may raise for the purpose of gaining access to the coveted goal of office.

CANOEING.

A letter from Mr. E. B. Edwards published in the Globe, in respect to making canoes safe by supplying them with air tanks has a monitory as well as practical side. Its practical aspect looks to the prevention of accidents from canoes filling with water, while this very fact points to the dangers of canoeing. The word "dangers" is used advisedly. In experienced hands the element of danger is reduced to so narrow a minimum as to make a canoe as safe as an ordinary skiff. But in inexperienced hands the canoe is responsible for a great many of the drowning accidents that sadden our summer outing season. A young man that knows as much about the management of a canoe as he does about sailing a warship, embarks with a giddy girl or two as companions. The thoughtless youngsters, not knowing the danger, act, of course, without regard to it, and, the first thing one knows, they are over in the water and there are two or three funerals to be provided, two or three homes darkened and even the benefit of the warning is not an element in ameliorating the catastrophe. Next day the same thing is likely to happen and so long as persons ignorant of canoeing take these risks the fatal is more liable than not to happen.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

MR. TAILLION who resigned the Premiership of the Quebec local government to accept a position in the Tupper Government, has been appointed representative of the Province in place of Judge Girouard in the settlement of the Provincial claims against the Federal Government.

A letter from Premier Laurier to Rev. E. H. Burgess, of Stellarton, concludes with the following paragraph:

"With regard to the fear of dismissal which is entertained by some of the railway employees, I firmly endorse your statement as you put it. Those who have been good and faithful employees have nothing to dread. I would not say as much of those who have been offensive partizans."

THE announcement for next session of the Ontario Dairy School in connection with the Ontario Agricultural College at Guelph is issued from the College. It will open January 15 and continue for ten weeks. The course includes both lectures and practical instruction.

This part of the Province is one of the sections of Ontario said to be specially well adapted to dairy farming, and it would be of much advantage to some of the farmer's sons of the County of Peterborough to take a term at the Guelph Dairy School. Full information can be had by anyone interested from Prof. H. H. Dean, Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph.

NORTH HARVEY.

From Our Own Correspondent.

There was a heavy thunder storm passed to the north and south of here last Wednesday, but as usual we did not get any of the rain that fell. The storm was accompanied by a very high wind which raised quite a commotion whilst it lasted. It is reported that Davis' mill had to stop as nothing could be seen for sawdust flying whilst the storm lasted, which fortunately was not long.

Several parties of tourists who are holding out at Bobcaygeon for the season have been up at Long Lake for a few days fishing. They report the fishing very good. This lake has got to be quite a favourite resort for summer visitors.

Mr. W. D. Ventress has a few tourists stopping with him at Spring Cliff Farm, and we understand that he is expecting more soon.

Mr. D. Lavery has taken to the road again after a rest of a month. He is confining himself to the purchase of hides and eggs for which he pays the highest market price, and to judge by the look of his rig on his return trip he is doing a roaring business.

Miss F. Crowe, who has been visiting friends in Peterborough, has returned home.

Several parties from Verulam were here last week in quest of thimbleberries, but they got badly disappointed, as that kind of berry is rather scarce this season, at least that is the case around here. However, the parties had a very pleasant drive over fairly good roads and through a very picturesque part of the country and if they did not appreciate the beauties of nature as displayed in North Harvey we pity them indeed.

The Rev. Mr. Shire, senior Methodist minister, of Bobcaygeon, was down here on Friday evening to attend the weekly prayer meeting. He gave a very able and lucid discourse on the Sabbath School lesson and was listened to very attentively by an appreciative audience and we feel sure that every one profited by what they heard. Mr. Shire has a very good flow of language and seems to be thoroughly master of the subject he has in hand. He speaks clearly and distinctly. He does not wander from his subject like many do, but keeps the point aimed at in view of his audience all the time, so that all can follow him, which makes it very interesting indeed, and all can understand. We wish Mr. Shire every success in this new field of labour and if he continues as he has commenced we have no doubt but he will be the means of doing a lot of good in stirring up the people to a more spiritual life.

We are glad to say that the health of the people around here is keeping excellent, and considering the heat we have had, is something remarkable. Doctors' visits are like angels' visits, few and far between, for which are very thankful.

We were very much disappointed here that our popular member, Mr. Stratton, did not get the appointment to the Cabinet vacancy, as his worth to the party and to the eastern portion of the province entitled him to it, but we hope the time will not be long until there is an opening to the Cabinet, a position he is well qualified to fill both with honour to himself and constituents and benefit to the province at large.

The new voters' lists have just been issued. We see several new names have been added and a few old ones dropped. We hope that amongst the sweeping reforms that Mr. Laurier's Government contemplates that doing away with the revising barristers will be one of them.

Mr. M. M. Boyd, of Bobcaygeon, has sent about twenty-eight head of Hereford cattle down to James Ward's to pasture owing to scarcity of feed on his stock farm; the cattle were all looking well.

CRISIS IN THE STATES.

The Security Bank of Duluth Closes Its Doors to Claimants.

Duluth, Minn., Aug. 11.—The Security Bank of Duluth, one of the largest state banks in Minnesota, closed its doors this morning. The following notice was posted on the door: "Heavy and unlooked for withdrawals of deposits and the impossibility of making speedy collections have compelled us to close our doors. We think depositors need have no fear regarding the ultimate safety of their funds. (Signed) W. P. Lardner, cashier."

The failure has caused considerable excitement, and further failures are feared. The bank was organized in 1889, with Joseph Sellwood president and J. W. Paine cashier. The capital stock is $100,000; surplus $40,000, and average deposits $425,000.

The Republican Campaign.

New York, Aug. 11.—The Republican campaign in this city will be formally opened on the night of Aug. 27 with a big indoor mass meeting, at which ex-President Harrison will be the principal speaker. General Powell Clayton, who is in charge of the speaking arrangements of the National Committee, to-day received a letter from General Harrison saying he would be willing to make a speech here on Aug. 27.

COMMENDABLE PROMPTITUDE.

A Resident of St. John, N.B., Makes a Successful Trial of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

St. John, N.B., Aug. 3—Mr. Robt. Moore, residing in Indiantown, a suburb of this city, has recently made what is allowed by all who are acquainted with the facts to be a most remarkable recovery. He has been a sufferer from a serious complaint of the kidneys for over seven years, and during that time has suffered excruciatingly. He has also suffered considerably in pocket, having paid large sums for medical advice. Quite recently he happened to read of the many cures effected by Dodd's Kidney Pills, and with commendable promptitude made a trial of them, with the result that after taking three boxes of the remedy he was entirely restored to health.

Mrs. A. B. Saxton, of Port Burwell, Ont., says:—"I have been troubled with sick headache for years and two boxes of Miller's Compound Iron Pills cured me." For sale by Wm. Madill, druggist, Hunter street.

WON BY METEOR.

London, Aug. 11.—The Royal Victoria Club regatta began at Ryde to-day. There was a fine wholesale breeze from the north. The match for yachts exceeding 40-rating was contested by the Britannia, Curess, Satanita, Alba and Meteor. The boats sailed over the long course, about 50 miles. The race was won by the Meteor, which finished at 4.24.41.

Nervous debility is a common complaint, especially among women. The best medical treatment for this disorder is a persistent course of Ayer's Sarsaparilla to cleanse and invigorate the blood. This being accomplished, nature will do the rest.

AFTER THE COLLISION.

The Steamship Lake Ontario Reaches Montreal All Right After Her Encounter With the Vancouver.

Montreal, Que., Aug. 11.—The steamship Lake Ontario of the Beaver Line, which vessel came into collision with the Vancouver on Sunday night, arrived in port shortly after 2 o'clock this afternoon. The blow which the vessel received in the starboard bow from the Vancouver has torn an ugly gash in the Lake Ontario, which will take both time and money to repair. From the stem, back at least 15 feet on the starboard bow, are two great rents. Here the half-inch plates of which the vessel is constructed are bent and twisted out of all resemblance of their original shape. The holes in the vessel are both fortunately several feet above the water line. It is said that permanent repairs mean the opening up of the entire bow. What will be done with the vessel is not yet decided upon, though in all probability she will be placed in the dry dock at Quebec as soon as that structure is vacated by the Vancouver.

WHO IS THE SUICIDE?

The Remains of a Man Found Near Courtright—Evidently an American From the Description.

Courtright, Aug. 11.—About noon yesterday the body of a man was found in Jenkyn's woods, one mile east of here. He was about 35 or 40 years of age, height about 5 feet 5 inches. There was nothing much but skeleton left. His hair was mostly grey, and he seemed partly bald. One tooth in each side of the lower jaw was gone. The teeth of upper jaw seem to be all gone. He was dressed in black gaiter square-toed shoes, No. 7; grey woolen pants; small light-striped white woolen socks; black worsted coat and vest, with silk binding. They appeared to be American goods. He wore a dark soft felt hat, white linen shirt and stand-up collar. No laundry marks are visible. An American bulldog 32-calibre revolver was found near the right hand, with two chambers empty.

JUST LIKE HER MAJESTY.

The Queen Does Not Believe in Commemorating Her Sixty Years' Reign in Advance of the Time.

London, Aug. 11.—The Queen on June 20 next will have reigned for 60 years, a reign longer than that of any previous British sovereign, and lately many schemes have been mooted for a proper observance of the occasion. Most of the plans advanced provided for the commemoration of the event before the full 60 years had passed, but they have all been disposed of by an official intimation from Her Majesty, who makes it known that while she is gratified by the evidences of loyalty and affection displayed by her subjects she wishes that should she be spared to rule for 60 years any celebrations shall be reserved until that period shall have been actually completed.

DID HE JUMP OFF?

The Terrible Injuries Which Robert Dixon of Brantford Received While Getting Off a Train in Motion.

Brantford, Ont., Aug. 11.—Robert Dixon, a laborer in W. Buck's foundry, was found about 7.30 last evening alongside the G.T.R. track, about half a mile from town, in a very critical condition. He was removed to the hospital, and, after examination, it was found that Dixon had received a very serious scalp wound, broken shoulder, broken back and other injuries. Dixon, it is said, was on the outgoing special excursion train last evening, but whether he fell off or jumped off the train it is not at present known, but it is supposed he jumped off.

ABOUT THE LIVER.

A lazy, slow or torpid liver influences the whole system, causing biliousness, sick headache, sallow complexion, languor and dullness. Burdock Blood Bitters regulates the liver, purifies the secretions and cures all forms of liver troubles. We say so and here is the proof:—

I hereby wish to thank you for the great benefit derived by me from your Burdock Blood Bitters. For three years I was troubled with liver complaint and tried everything to no purpose. I had almost given up hope until one day I determined to try Burdock Blood Bitters. I can say now that marked improvement resulted from the use of the first bottle and at the end of the sixth bottle I discontinued its use, being completely cured.

REALISTIC UNTO DEATH.

A Fatal Accident Which Occurred on the Stage of the Novelty Theatre, London.

London, Aug. 11.—A fatal accident occurred last night at the Novelty Theatre, where the play "The Sins of a Night" is being played. Mr. Crozier was playing the part of the villain, and the plot provided that he should be stabbed in the last act. The play ran along as usual until the stabbing scene, when, in some manner unexplainable, instead of a harmless blow being delivered, the dagger penetrated Crozier's breast, inflicting a wound which caused his death in a few minutes. Consternation prevailed among the members of the company. A physician was hastily summoned, but his services were of no avail. The spectators were not aware of the terrible mistake that had been made, and Crozier's realistic fall was greeted with applause.

THEY ARE GIVING WAY.

Physicians Commence to Realize the Value of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

OTTAWA, Aug. 10.—The inveterate reluctance to admit the success of patent medicine usually evinced by physicians is rapidly giving way, so far as Dodd's Kidney Pills are concerned. The cases of Dr. Rose and Dr. McCormick, who published details of their recovery from diabetes and Bright's disease through the agency of this remedy, were the first attacks on the citadel of their skepticism and now it appears as if the remarkable recovery of Mr. G. H. Kent, of this city, the details of which have been transmitted to the press, would complete what has been so auspiciously begun. The published interviews with Mr. and Mrs. Kent and the sworn statement of the former leaves no foothold for disbelief.

Falling Stars.

There were a large number of shooting stars observed in the heavens last evening. One in particular, having a long tail like a comet, was particularly remarked. After the star passed from sight in its fall a lurid streak marked its passage through the sky for over half an hour.

Fruit Jars.

China Hall has received a full carload, 1440 cases, of fruit jars. Do not buy a jar till you have seen their jars and got their price. Their jars are guaranteed not to crack in filling and will be replaced in case they do. Prices the lowest in town. See the "Beaver" or the "Bees" before buying the ordinary jar.

Boat Upset.

Mr. Grant, of Peterborough, and Mr. Bruce McBurney, of Lindsay, met with an upset while sailing Monday on Scugog Lake. The handling of the boat was not according to the latest up-to date sailing methods, and the result was a spill and a rescue opposite Sandy Point by Messrs. Knowlson and Pepler.—Lindsay Post.

The Fire Record.

On Monday night during a heavy rain and electric storm the barn of Mr. Allan Cathcart, near Springville, was struck by lightning, and consumed, together with contents. The barn was full of this season's crop, and besides this there were some fifteen hogs burned. The loss is a heavy one, and there was no insurance.

A COTTAGE HOP.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry LeBrun Entertain at Belle Chasse.

Charming Belle Chasse the beautiful summer residence of Mr. and Mrs. Harry LeBrun, at the head of Stony Lake, was brilliantly illuminated last evening, and as the sounds of bright music were borne out upon the water it was made apparent that the island was the scene of festivities on a larger scale than usual.

During the earlier portion of the evening skiffs and canoes found their way to the island by twos and threes, and by nine o'clock the majority of the young people at the lakes had gathered to participate in an informal hop to which they had been biddden.

Quite a number went up from town on the noon boat to attend the affair, and as the islands are crowded with young people at this season of the year, the attendance was large and the hop proved to be such a success as could only result through the fact that Mr. and Mrs. LeBrun were the host and hostess of the evening. Their kindly hospitality and efforts to make everyone present enjoy themselves were fully appreciated, and the evening proved to be one of the most pleasant given at the lake this season. The cottage is particularly adapted for entertaining, the entire lower floor being in one apartment, whilst spacious verandehs give ample room to the dancers.

Guests were present from the American camp, from Bells Island, and even from remote Siberia, so that all sections of the lake were represented. The Misses Hurley had charge of the music, and dancing was kept up until the stars began to fade as Old Sol peeped over the hills, when the canoes, freighted down with jolly couples, were reluctantly paddled away homewards as the occupants made the lake ring with song and laughter. The evening at Belle Chasse will not soon be forgotten on Stony Lake.

SEVENTEEN MILLS THE RATE.

The Finance Committee has Figured it Out.

At a meeting of the Finance Committee, last evening, it was decided that the rate of taxation for Peterborough this year would be about seventeen mills on the dollar—one mill more than last year.

The increase is caused principally by the need to raise extra moneys to meet the requirements of the sinking fund and interest in connection with the $21,000 needed for the construction of the outfall sewer, as well as to cover the expense of the erection of the George street bridge and the glance pier and concrete bottom in connection with it.

The outfall sewer proper only runs as far north as Townsend street. The town as a whole bears the expense of the construction of this portion, but for the rest of the sewerage system a frontage tax is to be levied on the property-holders benefitting by the same.

WHISTLING LOCOMOTIVES.

They Disturb the Morning Slumbers of South End Citizens.

Residents in the south end are almost up in arms against the Grand Trunk on account of the uproar made by the early freight train in the morning.

It is said that it is totally impossible for those having nerves to get a wink of sleep after 4 o'clock a.m., and unless an immediate abatement of the nuisance takes place, the Town Council will be petitioned to act in the matter. A bylaw regulating the whistling of locomotives is understood to have been passed some time ago, but violations of its provisions take place every day within the town limits.

St. Peter's Cathedral Ladies' Aid Excursion to Jubilee Point, To-Morrow Afternoon Per "City of Peterborough." Boat leaves wharf at 1.30. Tickets 50c. Children half fare. Orchestra on board.

POLICE COURT.

Many Abusive Language Cases Before the Court These Days.

A couple of citizens had a dispute over the payment of an election wager, on Monday last, and as the result of the disagreement some hard language and some equally hard blows were applied to one of the principals by the other. The case was settled in the Police Court this morning on the payment by the aggressor of $2.00 and costs, amounting in all to $9.45

A citizen charged another with using grossly insulting and abusive language to him. The latter was fined $5.00.

Charlotte street was represented in the court by a bevy of the female sex, who were mixed up in an abusive language case. As it was the first offence of the principals they were discharged, sentence being suspended.

YOU CAN HAVE A SEWER—

If the Property Holders on your Street Help Pay for it.

At the meeting of the Sewerage Committee of the Town Council last night, it was decided to notify the solicitor to publish the necessary notice in order that, if two-thirds of the residents in each block on Water and George streets above McDonel street, desire to have the sewerage system extended past their premises, the contractor can at once proceed with the work. Petitions and counter petitions are now in order.

ADDRESS TO REV. J. B. TROTTER.

The Young People's Expression of Esteem for Their Pastor.

At the last meeting of the Young People's Union in connection with the Murray street Baptist church, the following address was presented to Rev. J. B. Trotter, by Mr. E. A. Stanley, the President of the Union:—

DEAR PASTOR,—We, the teachers and officers of the Sunday School and members of the Young Peoples' Union, desire to take this opportunity of expressing in some slight degree our esteem for you, and our since e regret that the ties which have bound us so closely for the past five years as pastor and people are so soon to be broken.

Your pastorate has been one to which all can look back with pleasure. It has been a period of advancement from the first. Those of us who were here when you came can, perhaps, best understand and appreciate just what the advancement consists of. We well remember the difficulties you had to face. But you met them fairly, firmly and successfully, as the subsequent history of our church testifies. Our earnest prayer is that the ground then so dearly gained may never be lost.

We wish here to put on record a testimony of the blessing that has come to us personally through your faithful ministry of the Word. We know that your proudest boast is and always has been that you desire to preach the pure and simple Gospel at all times and under all circumstances. Hence your preaching has ever been such as that referred to by the Apostle Paul when he said: "Preach the Word; be instant in season, with all long suffering and doctrine," and it has not been without due reward. Because of it we have been led to a deeper spiritual life. Many of us realize that our love of the Word has been increased and our faith strengthened. We have a truer and fuller conception of the necessity and worth of these New Testament doctrines, which we all love so much, and which form the solid foundation of our denominational life. Some of us can look back to a time within these years when, in obedience to the Master's call, through you, we have been led to give our hearts to Him. Many of us have great reason to be thankful for the profit received from the educational work so efficiently led by you in connection with our union. As teachers and officers of the Sunday school we can praise God heartily for the number of scholars who have been led to the saviour through your instrumentality and have joined with us in church fellowship. In many other directions also, not necessary to specify in detail here, important and permanent results have been attained during this period.

Not only as our pastor, however, would we miss you, but as one who at all times has been a ready and a wise counsellor, a faithful and a true friend, a helpful sympathiser with us in our sorrows, and a cheerful and pleasant companion in our joys. The example of your life has been an inspiration to us, and the confidence with which we could at all times look up to you with the utmost trust in your stability, has always been a gratifying satisfaction. But while your removal from our midst will alter your relationship to us as pastor and people, we have confidence in believing it will not change in these latter respects, and what you have been to us in the past as a friend and Christian brother, you will continue to be in the future. With this assurance, let us ask that though absent from each other, we may still have a place in your prayers.

We know that the effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much, and we believe that the blessings which have been ours many times because of your earnest pleading before the Throne of Grace in our behalf, may still continue to be ours.

Not only will we miss you, dear pastor, but we will in like manner miss your estimable wife, in whom we have ever found a sincere friend and Christian sister. Her stay amongst us has indeed been one of pleasure to us, and the intercourse we have had together will long remain one our brightest and pleasantest remembrances. As a faithful, yet unassuming worker in the Master's work, in connect on with the church, Mrs. Trotter will be missed, and her place in our hearts, not only as our pastor's wife, but as a true and worthy sister of Christ, will not readily be taken by any other. Because of the removal of your family we are reminded also that our Sunday school and our junior union will suffer loss, and the familiar and happy face of your daughter Helen and your little girls will be absent from their accustomed places in class and in union and their absence will be noticed with regret by us and by their companions.

We recognize that the words of this address are but a feeble effort, and are not really necessary in order to assure you of our love and fellowship. These had a deeper root and are infinitely more abiding at times to have visible proof of an inward experience, and as such we offer this written address.

And now, as pastor, we bid you farewell. As friends we will not say good-bye here, because we hope to have you with us yet a little while, and to meet you a welcome guest in our homes. May the God of all grace bless you and yours, may He continue to honour you in the future as in the past in the high calling of your profession, may your labours in your new field be abundantly blessed by the Master, whom it is your greatest joy to faithfully and humbly serve, and may the Lord Jesus give unto you long life and physical strength, temporal happiness and prosperity, ever increasing spiritual blessing and power, and may He grant unto you your heart's desire and prayer in seeing those under your pastoral care coming to Him and accepting Him as their Saviour.

The Sting Within.

It is said there is a rankling thorn in every heart, and yet that none would exchange their own for that of another. Be that as it may, the sting arising from the heart of a corn is real enough and in this land of tight boots a very common complaint also. Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor is a never failing remedy for this kind of heartache, as you can easily prove if afflicted. Cheap, pure, painless.

MAKING GOOD ROADS.

The importance, the necessity, of good country roads, is so great, that no apology is needed for keeping the subject before the farmers; and the Ontario Government is so impressed with the importance of good roads, that it has placed valuable assistance at the disposal of township municipalities. Mr. A. W. Campbell, C. E., of St. Thomas, a gentleman who has taken a great interest in road construction, and who was a member and officer of the Good Roads Association, was recently made inspector of road making for the Province of Ontario. He has valuable ideas on road making, and their practical application would be of great benefit to farmers.

The question of road-making is still in the educational stage, though any person who thinks upon the subject cannot help recognizing its urgency in the interests of the development of the country. But Mr. Campbell, the Inspector, is anxious that his knowledge may result in something more than theoretical instruction. The other day Mr. J. R. Stratton, M. P. P., the representative of West Peterborough, met Mr. Campbell and suggested that the latter should give a practical illustration of his system of constructing permanent highways. Mr. Campbell replied that he should be only too pleased to do so, but that he could not do so without the co-operation of the townships. It is proposed, therefore, as a result of the above conversation, that some township of this County—North Monaghan, Otonabee, Asphodel, Smith, or any that they chose, set apart an appropriation for the purpose of constructing a portion of permanent highway according to the best practice, this money to be expended under the instruction and supervision of Mr. Campbell, the township of course supplying the labour and material—to be paid for out of the appropriation. This would be a valuable object lesson and would permit the authorities of municipalities to carry on the work afterwards. There is a proper way of building permanent highways and practical demonstration is the best way of learning this proper way. Besides the municipality that elects to make the experiment will have not only value received for the money expended in the shape of a properly built stretch of roadway, but would also be possessed of the knowledge necessary to extend it to any distance desirable or practicable. In view of the importance of the matter, it is hoped that one or more or all of the municipalities, if they so desire, will take advantage of the offer mentioned.

Mr. Stratton has also made arrangements for meetings in any municipality that wishes them, when Mr. Campbell will address the farmers in a practical way on the advantages of good permanent roads. A mile or ten miles of properly built roadway is practically built for all time; all that is needed is care and attention in keeping it in repair; so that the first cost, which is necessarily rather large, is offset by the merely nominal sum required for subsequent maintenance in a perfect state of repair. Good roads pay. Bad roads are a double loss; the money spent in spoiling roads, which is largely the case under the present system, is in reality a dead loss, while the loss in wear and tear of vehicles and horses and loss of time in going to and from market are another loss. "What is worth doing is worth doing well."

A GOSSIPPY LETTER FROM THE TRANSVAAL.

MR. WILL H. CROWE GIVES HIS IMPRESSIONS AND EXPERIENCES.

No Place there for any but Live Men—A Mechanic must be a Mechanic to Succeed—The Prices and Hours of Labour—The Social and Political Condition of Johannesberg—Other Items of Interest.

The following letter from Mr. Will H. Crowe, at present of Johannesberg in the Transvaal, was sent to Mr. James Maud, with instructions to hand it over to THE EXAMINER. It will be found to be well worth reading:

JOHANNESBURG, July 12th, 1896.

You will pardon my delay in writing to you as I promised; I thought it would be just as well to get the lie of the land first so as to get a better idea of the subject I am to write about—the mechanical line of labour. Now the first question to answer will be, "What chance does a machinest stand in Johannesburg for work?" Well a machinist, or as they are called here, "fitters," has a good chance to make money if he is a first class mechanic, otherwise I would not advise him to come here. It is the worst place in the world for a novice or botch mechanic to strike. There are thousands of them here that would get out of this city if they had the money to get out, and are consequently obliged to do anything sooner than starve, which a good many of them are doing. A good mechanic will get at the least $30 per week, and no trouble to hold his situation. A man has got to be a huetler and not let the cobwebs grow on him. There are lots of men here out of employment but they are not first class men as mechanics. I have yet to see a first class man out of work. Now, I would not advise any one to come here without he had the confidence in himself that he could take a hold of anything in his line of work and do it in a mechanical way, and do it quickly, and not take all day to think about it. A man has got to think quick and act accordingly; such a man will have no trouble to get employment here. You will say now that such a man in Canada is never out of employment, and always has a good situation, and I will agree with you, but I will say that he has more chances of bettering himself here than in Canada.

When I came here I went to work for the Robinson Gold Mining Co., for my brother, but I did not like the work I was placed at, so as soon as I got a chance to better myself I did so. I am now employed at my own line of work, such as store-fittings, office-fittings, hotel and bar fittings. I have charge of the machine work in a large factory employing 60 white men and about 125 Kaffirs or negroes. I went to work for this company "Oates, Stein & Co," about the middle of May. I WENT TO WORK ON FUNNY CONDITIONS.

I will tell you my agreement with them. I was to start work Monday morning and work two (2) weeks, and at the end of that time if I was of no use to them they were to pay me nothing and give me the G. B. besides. Well I thought this is just the way I want to go to work for any concern and it just suited me. I worked the two (2) weeks and went into the office to get what? The G. B.? Well, no, not any; I went there expecting the highest wages paid in the factory and I was not disappointed I am pleased to state. I only worked a few more weeks when I was offered the position of foreman which I very reluctantly accepted, as I am sick of being foreman. I would rather any day be one of the workmen, but it seems to be my lot to have charge of men. However, as it is not fun I came to Johannesburg for, as I could get plenty of that in Peterborough, is fast too much sometimes for my own good, and I do not look for it, I assure you; it is money we are all after, and that's what I am going to have, providing my health holds out. This is not to say a healthy place, but it does not bother me in the least. I have had better health since I came here than I ever had. When I left Peterborough my weight was 147 pounds; I now tip the beam at 172 pounds; so you will at once see I am not at all unwell. What seems to affect the people here most is typhoid fever and the lagrippe. The weather at this time of the year, which they call their winter, is quite cool at night, in fact, cold enough to form ice in the little puddles by the sides of the streets; but the ice does not remain very long; after the sun gets up a little it is quite warm; July weather is something similar to the latter part of April and fore part of May in Peterborough. What looks funny to me is to see the dudes ("yes, dudes; we have them here as well as in Peterborough), wearing straw hats and large overcoats, thick fur-lined gloves, and muffled all up as if it were 30 below zero; now, just contemplate the scene; how do you think it looks? Do you think a straw hat is becoming to a suit like this? When I go down to the factory in the morning I will see the men, as many as can get into the boiler room, all cuddled up and complaining of the cold weather, and after they get started to work they keep their coats and mits on, while I have to take mine off, I feel it so warm. I have not worn an overcoat since I came here, but I am told that after I am here a year or so I will feel the cold as much as other people.

THE HOURS WE WORK

in the factory are eight—eight hours constitutes a day's work. We go to work at seven o'clock in the morning, go to breakfast at eight, and go to work again at nine and work till one, when we go to dinner, and return to work at two and then quit at five, and on Saturdays we have a half holiday; any overtime is counted as time and a half, and we are paid up in full every Saturday morning. I must confess I am very sorry I did not come here a year ago, and I must give you the credit for urging me to go to South Africa. I understand Dr. Brennan, late of Peterborough, but now here in Johannesburg, is writing a series of letters to a local paper, and that he recommends anyone to come here. Now, the doctor may think that anyone is all right in coming here, but he has not the opportunity to know as well as I do, and my advice to anyone intending to come here would be to consider well before he leaves a position; for the old saying holds good—"a bird in the hand is worth two in the bush." If the party intending to come here has "sand" enough to take hold of anything in his line of mechanical work, then I say he will make no mistake in coming here, but he must be a

FIRST CLASS MAN.

If he calls himself a carpenter he must be a carpenter, and not a carpenter because he has a hammer, a saw and a jack plane. If a cabinet maker, he must be a cabinet maker in the proper sense of the name, and not an abortion. If a machinist he must be a mechanist, able to run a lathe, planer or milling machine and do vice work also, and not a machinist just because he knows how to run a lathe.

* * * * *

I have seen lots of ideas since I came here that I never dreamt of, and very simple ideas too, and I do not at all pretend to be a first class man at my work. A man can board here for $7.50 per week but he has to rent a room besides and that will cost him about $12 per month. A fellow can get a cheaper place to board and lodge in, but it is not fit for a white man. Washing costs 12½c each article—if you have six pairs of socks to get washed they will cost 25c each pair, or exactly what you can buy new ones for. If you have half a dozen handkerchiefs it will cost you 12½c each to get them washed, and white shirts 12½c each. I am boarding at a hotel with Dr. Brennan and the doctor and I occupy the same room at his office. We each pay $10 a week for table board, but $7.50 board would suit us just as well, only it is not in quite so fashionable a quarter of the city. I might mention here that the doctor is working up a large practice and is doing very satisfactorily. We have here and have about one hundred members. We celebrated Dominion Day in grand style and had a banquet in the evening, which cost us $5 a ticket, but it was a grand affair I assure you. We cabled Earl Aberdeen at Ottawa, "Greetings of Canadians in the Transvaal," and got a pleasant reply from His Excellency also by cable. This city has a population of about 170,000 people. There is no mayor or council. The government at Pretoria, 34 miles distant, runs the whole of the Transvaal; the same way none of the towns have any councils or mayors. In this city alone there are 500 policemen on foot and 200 mounted, and they are all Dutchmen. One-half of them cannot speak a word of English, and I doubt very much if any of them could tell the name of the street that he has to patrol; they are the biggest know-nothings I ever came across. You never see one of them alone, there is always two, three or more of them together. When they arrest an Englishman it takes about a dozen of them to take him to the "cooler."

Now, out of the 170,000 people here, two thirds of them are English-speaking people from England, Ireland, Scotland and America, and just imagine 113,332 people not having a word to say in running this city, and you will not blame the Uitlanders—as we are called—for the row they kicked up last January. And I tell you if the Uitlanders don't soon have a hand in running the affairs of this city there will be another row in which the Dutchmen will be run out of the country altogether.

This city is very quiet on Sundays. All drinking places and stores are closed, and the law is very strict on this point.

The drinking water is very bad here, and that encourages the habit of indulging in whiskey, which costs 1 shilling, or 25c. in our money, a drink. Beer costs 6d., or 12½c. in our money. There is nothing to be got here less than 3d., or 6c. in our money, and that is the daily papers. If I go to the post office with a letter to mail, whose stamp costs 2½d., or 5c., they will not sell me one stamp—I have to buy a shilling's worth of stamps, that is the least they will sell. They do not deliver the mail here; everyone has to go to the post office for any letters and papers and before we get a chance to ask the office clerk if there is any mail, when ten chances to one he will not look but will tell you there is nothing, and probably at the same time the notice is in the daily papers that there are letters in the office for you, and requesting you to call for them.

If a man is arrested here for being drunk he is fined as a general thing $25 to $100; so we don't get drunk very often.

All the coloured people must be off the streets at 9 o'clock every night, and the negroes are not allowed to walk on the side walk, they must keep to the roadway. Sometimes they are most frightfully abused by the policemen, who use them worse than dogs. Negroes do all the heavy work, such as shovelling, carrying brick and mortar, carrying lumber, etc.—in fact they are servants to all the white men.

The streets are very dark at night, as the electric lights are not yet introduced. The street cars are drawn by horses and are same as they used to have in Toronto. The hacks, carriages and cabs are nearly all only two-wheeled carts with a team of horses attached to them. If I wished to get a 1000 feet of lumber moved from the factory to a place up town, I would have to hire a truck, and every truck has about twelve horses, and the wagon is the heaviest part of the load. Every wagon has two drivers also.

I believe this is the most immoral city on the face of the earth; Sodom and Gohmorrah of old could not compare with it. Ninety per cent. of the females here are immoral, and I am not exaggerating one iota when I say there are fully 2,000 houses of ill fame here. Why, Paris of France, and Chicago of America, are not to be compared with this place. And talk about gambling—there is more gambling to the square inch in Johannesberg then the remainder of the earth put in one place.

I cannot think of much more to write just now, but at some future date will drop you another letter.

MIDNIGHT PEACE BROKEN.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—I would be obliged if you would call the attention of the Chief of Police to a certain quarter of the town. There is a residence in the western portion of the town which seems to exercise no little attraction to a certain class of our Jeunesse doree, especially during the silent watches of the night. Last night, or, to be more exact, this morning about two o'clock, there was a cab drawn up under the shelter of the maples in the vicinity. Shortly after a house nearly opposite the one in question received a shower of stones on the roof, greatly alarming the inmates. Three young men were seen to scurry off on Brock street. Now, Mr. Editor, respectable citizens in the vicinity, who do their work in the daytime and wish to devote the night to sleep, think it a shame that persons who congregate in the quarter in question, and on no very worthy mission, should be allowed to molest them by such horse play as that referred to. I would like to have the authorities investigate, with a view to putting a stop to what is both a nuisance to law-abiding citizens and a disgrace to the community.

Yours very truly,
VICINITY.

Peterborough, Aug. 12th, 1896.

"Canst thou minister to a mind diseased?" asks Macbeth. Certainly, my lord; the condition of the mind depends largely, if not solely, on the condition of the stomach, liver and bowels, for all of which complaints Ayer's Pills are the "soverreignest thing on earth."

Sleeplessness, Mental and Physical Fatigue

Go hand in hand. The waste of the body that ought to be restored by rest and sleep suffers increasing diminution; then loss of strength and vigor of body and mind follows. It is in this class of diseases that the marvellous properties of Maltine with Coca Wine are most markedly exhibted. It penetrates to the very sources of vital action, inasmuch as the nerve centres are impressed by its medicinal power and the digestive functions stimulated to increased and more efficient action. This imparts to the whole system the much needed impetus, the nerves are soothed from a state of irritability to one of repose—sleep with all its beneficent influences, comes back to lend its aid in the process of restoration. Digestion keeps pace with the improvement of appetite, and in a short time the nervous, miserable sufferer regaids his old-time vigor and the capability to enjoy life and all it affords. Maltine with Coca Wine is sold by all druggists.

Sick headache and constipation are promptly cured by Burdock Pills. Easy to take, sure in effect.

THE BUSH FIRES.

They are Raging Back in Harvey, Smith and Dummer.

The bush fires are still raging in the back country and doing a great deal of damage, not only to the timber but in many instances to the stables and farm buildings of the settlers.

The scene, as viewed from Stony Lake last night, was a weird one, as the fires could be seen raging in Harvey, Smith and Dummer. In many places the flames could be plainly seen after nightfall, though the thick, black smoke from the green bush in the generality of cases completely screened the fire from the eye.

The cottagers do not apprehend any serious danger, but still are uneasy whilst the bush fire lasts. A heavy rain is much needed.

FELL DOWN STAIRS.

Mrs. Thornes Head Was Badly Cut Through the Mishap.

Mrs. Thorne, of Reid street, met with a serious accident a few evenings ago, through which she received a bad cut in the head, besides being severely shaken up.

Mrs. Thorne states that she went up stairs in the evening to put down a window, on account of the storm, when she suddenly missed her footing and fell down the flight of steps, meeting with the above mentioned injuries. Dr. Moher put several stitches in the scalp wound and the patient is now convalescing.

Ivorine for the Teeth

Asks only a trial. Boasting will not whiten teeth; Ivorine for the teeth does. Extravagant claims will not render the breath sweet and fragrant; Ivorine never fails to do this. Ivorine for the teeth asks you for an opportunity to demonstrate its value. Dentists have affirmed it and the public corroborate professional opinion, but do you know as every tooth loving man or woman ought to know, Ivorine for the teeth is the best.

THOMAS TIMMINS.
No. 283 Corner Aylmer and Simcoe Sts. Peterborough.

THE sick man knocking at the door of health gets in if he knocks the right way, and stays out if he doesn't. There are thousand of ways of getting sick. There is only one way to get well. Do whatever you will, if you do not put your digestion in good order, and make your blood rich and pure, you will not get well. Rich, pure blood is the only thing that can bring perfect health. A large part of all the diseases that afflict mankind are traceable directly to impurities in the blood, and can be cured by eliminating these impurities. That most dreadful of all diseases, consumption, is a disease of the blood. The disease shows in the lungs because of some inherited or acquired weakness there. If the blood were always pure and without germs, the disease would never develop and in time weakness itself would be overcome. Germs and impurities in the blood float along through the body until they find a weak spot for lodgement. They stick there and develop and people call the disease by the name of the organ afflicted. As a matter of fact, the disease is always a disease of the blood, and if the blood be purified, the disease will be cured. That is a perfectly natural, rational conclusion, endorsed both by common sense and the highest medical authority. It is in accordance with these facts that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery works. The first thing it does is to put the whole digestive system into perfect order. It stimulates the appetite, excites the copious secretion of the digestive fluids and promotes assimilation. It searches out disease germs wherever they may be, kills them and forces them out of the system. The "Golden Medical Discovery" has been used with unvarying success for over 30 years.

If you care to know more about it, and more about your own body, send 31 one-cent stamps to cover cost of customs and mailing only, and you will receive absolutely free a copy of Dr. Pierce's 1008 page book, Common Sense Medical Adviser. Address, World's Dispensary Medical Association, No. 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

THE NEW REPORTING

JULIAN HAWTHORNE AS A NEWSPAPER WRITER.

A Pen Picture of the Atlantic City Railway Horror From His Trained, Cultivated Pen—An Abstract View That Is Very Effective With Readers.

Atlantic City, N. J., July 31.—The scene of the catastrophe was but four miles distant, and the news of it was at the hotel before me. I heard it as I entered. Hundreds, perhaps thousands, of the inhabitants of Atlantic City were already on their way thither.

Atlantic City consists of hotels, lodging houses and buses. It was easy to scramble into one of the latter and join the procession.

The sun sets at a quarter past 7 this week, and before we were clear of the town his last rays had shone across the meadows. The moon, in her last quarter, would not rise for hours. Diaphanous clouds softened the evening sky, and upon all things rested a tender, misty light. We rumbled along the dusty road, already dry again after the storms of the previous night. Each man and woman had his or her half-digested, agitated version of the calamity. We passed scores of people hurrying along on foot, and were passed by many others on bicycles. Scores of vehicles of all sorts were behind us and before us. We could see other crowds approaching along other roads, all converging toward one point. All were going to look on death, and on agony of body and mind, in one of its most appalling and hideous forms. But, from a distance, the concourse looked like a throng of merrymakers hurrying to a festivity. Only when you were near enough to see their faces and hear the strange tones of their voices, hushed or excited, would you realize that this was no holiday occasion.

All the world knows the conditions of the event. The tracks of two railways intersect at an acute angle on the meadow; near their point of junction stands a wooden signal tower. The excursion train, going west, was behind its schedule time; the express from Camden, going east, was running fast and on time. Either the signal man blundered, or one or other of the engineers mistook the signal. Both thought they had right of way, and the westbound train dashed into the other, loaded with returning excursionists. In an instant a slaughter had taken place scarcely paralleled in railroad history.

A few stars had begun to appear as the thickening of the crowd showed that we were nearly at our goal. Looking forward, a smoke was visible, rising sluggishly from an indistinguishable mass of wreckage, and drifting northward. The bus stopped; we were on foot, hastening forward, colliding with one another, dodging vehicles, plunging in morasses, leaping ditches, most of us, I think, with a sickening and sinking of the heart that would have made us turn back again but for the fierce nervous excitement that compelled us to push onward. The crowd was, in a sense, silent, and yet the air was full of voices and cries. The sounds were detached and incongruous; they did not melt together like the ordinary hum of a mass of people. Each one of us was isolated in the stress and tension of his own emotion. No one was precisely aware of what he spoke or did. Yet a common horror bound us together.

As yet I had seen nothing but an indescribable and violent confusion of things and people; and even that I had scarcely seen; I had confusedly apprehended it. A reddish, flickering flame; a rising smoke; a huddling, shifting, calling, lamenting crowd; a heap of something black and broken, and amorphous fragments of I knew not what scattered widely round the heaped up centre. I caught the gleam of railroad tracks in the fading twilight, and the sheen of water in the ditches. But as yet I had not recognized any actual form of death.

I recognised its presence, first, in the countenances of the living, who had beheld it, and upon whom it had left its stamp in a strange expression of the eyes and a drawing of the face. Yes, death was here, filling the air, as well as covering the ground. I breathed it, I felt it, and at last I saw it.

What I saw first, so far as I can remember, was a man's legs sticking upward from a ditch, in which his body was buried, head foremost. The knees were bent oddly; one of them seemed broken. I glanced at this in passing. In doing so I stumbled upon something lying on the slope of the embankment in an easy attitude, reminding me of the pose of a girl on the beach that afternoon. It may have been the same girl. One arm was thrown above her head, the other lay at her side. She wore a dark skirt and a white waist. But her face—that was obliterated. It had been dashed into a nameless, ghastly nothing.

Now I was in the midst of the horror. At such times one sees things with a hideous distinctness and particularity, and yet in a bewilderment, so that the memory of them is disjointed; nothing is grouped; each is apart in its own dreadfulness. I cannot compose a proportioned picture of this spectacle. I cannot repeat the words I heard uttered, or convey the tones in which they struck my ears; such tones as are never heard save in times like this. Anguish, despair, terror, insanity, deadly pain—all these found voice, and in all that was said and done there was a new and appalling sincerity; instinct, passion, nature, in short, usurping the place of all shows and artificialities. Our race does not easily express emotion; but it declares itself, when it does burst forth, with a force and directness all the more harrowing. I think, in looking back, that I was more impressed by the cries and gestures of the living, than by the sight of the dead—of the awful piles and shreds of butchery that were strewn and mounded there, impaled, gashed, crushed, torn and twisted. These fragments of mortality hardly seemed real; but the cries, the moans, the desperate callings, the wringing hands and stumbling feet and waving arms—they expressed the very marrow of reality.

The most fearful sight of all, perhaps, was a little child, not more than eighteen months or two years old, sitting beside a mass of bloody ruin, wholly unharmed, playing with the fingers of a dead hand protruding from the wreck. It was a woman's hand; was it the mother's? The child seemed to be crooning to itself, and gazed up contentedly in my face as I stared down at it.

There were many men hard at work all this while, sweating and grimy, tugging and hacking at beams and pieces of iron, heaving them up and aside, and revealing at every moment new forms of death. Some cars stood beyond the confusion, resting upright and motionless after that fatal crash. Something that was said to have been an engine, though one could hardly believe it, was the centre of effort of several toilers, and as piece after piece was removed the body of a man came into view, grasping in his right hand a handle of the machinery. His face was scorched and blackened, but it still wore a look of frowning sternness. It was the face of a hero, as that hand showed—the engineer who had died at his post.

It had grown dark, except for the red flickering of lanterns. Fire engines came galloping from the city; the flames were extinguished. Long lines of buses and other vehicles were returning, laden with corpses and mangled creatures. Man's pity and tenderness to his fellow gave a touch of beauty to the scene. But oh, the fathers, the mothers, the little children!—Julian Hawthorne, in New York Journal.

THE WOMEN TOO.

Back Talk Not Man's Monopoly.

Mrs. Jemima Cole, Havelock, told the following wondertul story :—"For a great many years I have suffered from disease of the kidneys. The pains in my back and side were sometimes excruciating.

"My limbs were so swollen that I could scarcely lift my feet from the floor, and I was in great agony nearly all the time. I thought that I would surely die from the pain.

"I have taken dozens of advertised remedies, aut got no better during their use. I was also treated by several doctors, but am sorry to say they did me little or no good. In fact they stated that they could do me no good, which made me despair of ever getting better.

"When I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised I sent to W. H. Jeff & Co's. drugstore and got a box thinking I would try them as a last resort.

"The change from the start was very great and now after one month I am free from all pain. The swelling has gone down and I feel quite strong and healthy.

"I was also troubled with rheumatism and neuralgia which have completely disappeared, thanks to the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. In fact I do not think there is a medicine in the world that in such a short time could have taken me from the almost dying condition in which I was to the healthy and vigorous state that I am in now.

"I recommend Doan's Kidney Pills for their wonderful virtues in curing kidney troubles."

Introducing people is neither difficult nor occult, and it requires no special training, says Harper's Round Table. There are a few very simple rules to be observed. You present a gentleman to a lady, and a younger to an older person. You are careful to speak clearly and distinctly, for nothing is more embarrassing than to have a stranger's name mumbled so that it remains unknown, thus defeating the end of the introduction. You do not say, "Mamma, let me present my classmate," leaving your mother to guess at the part of your speech which was really the most important; you say, "My classmate, Miss Leonard." And, equally, when you are introducing Miss Leonard to your friend you do not say, "Alice, may I introduce my cousin Sophie," in which case neither young woman would have the least idea of more than the other's Christian name. If a person is a personage—a professor, or doctor, or clergyman, or in any way noted or famous—the tactful young girl makes the title a part of her introduction, so that the people presented to him are aware that they are honored by the new acquaintance.

Frivolous Fashions

The flowers on this season's millinery are almost smothered in their leaves.

Linen gowns have been so much reduced in price that they are now as much within purse reach as the shirt waist.

A very good idea is to have several sets of ribbons for one gown, as changing the ribbons will make it look like a different gown each time.

Large leghorn hats still retain their old and popular favor. When artistically trimmed nothing is so airy or becoming to the summer girl.

ONE HONEST MAN.

DEAR EDITOR :—Please inform your readers, that if written to confidentally will mail, in a sealed letter, particulars of a genuine, honest home cure, by which I was permanently restored to health and manly vigor after years of suffering from nervous debility, sexual weakness, night losses and weak, shrunken parts. I was robbed and swindled by the quacks until I nearly lost faith in mankind, but thank heaven, I am now well, vigorous and strong and wish to make this certain means of cure known to all sufferers. I have nothing to sell and want no money, but being a firm believer in the universal brotherhood of man, I am desirous of helping the unfortunate to regain their health and happiness, I promise you perfect secrecy and as I do not wish to expose myself either, please address, simply : P. "Going to Insure."

THE Man who is simply "going to insure" is usually no better than the man who has'nt made the decision. In fact he is usually worse, because he has considered the subject and been convinced of his duty, but has not done it. "Nothing is done so long as anything remains undone." HOW "THE SUN LIFE"

FULFILS ITS PROMISES.

A Matured 10 Year Endowment.

Profits Paid by the SUN 21 per. cent more than the Estimates.

The following letter, which speak for itself, was received by the undersigned this morning from a gentleman in Brockville, whose ten year endowment which he held in the Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada matured last week and was paid him. The Sun is modest in promises but UNEQUALLED IN RESULTS. The public are benefitted by results, not by promises unfulfilled

BROCKVILLE, November 7th, 1895.

W. H. HILL, Mgr. Central Ontario Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada, Peterborough, Ontario :—

DEAR SIR,—I should have acknowledged the receipt of yours enclosing cheque for endowment policy No. 12,871 before, only I wanted to write something more than a mere receipt. I am pleased to hear of the continued prosperity of the "SUN" and it speaks well for your Company when the profits are greater (by 21 per cent.) than you as the Company's representative promised or rather estimated, as was the case with this policy.

I hope your Company will continue to prosper and I often regret that I do not carry more insurance than I am doing. I might have carried twice as much as I do when at Minden without any great effort, still what little I do carry I feel is perfectly safe being in the "SUN."

I must thank you for your promptness and kindness regarding this policy just settled. I hope we will both be alive and well when the new one I now hold will be due in 1905 and assuring you of very best wishes, I remain,

Yours Sincerely,
(Signed) F. R. C.

The above voluntary testimonial is significant and shows in a most practical way the SUN'S standing as a profit paying institution.

She Has Ever Known. Words of Praise from a New York Lady for

AYER'S PILLS

"I would like to add my testimony to that of others who have used Ayer's Pills, and to say that I have taken them for many years, and always derived the best results from their use. For stomach and liver troubles, and for the cure of headache caused by these derangements, Ayer's Pills cannot be equaled.

When my friends ask me what is the best remedy for disorders of the stomach, liver, or bowels, my invariable answer is, Ayer's Pills. Taken in season, they will break up a cold, prevent la grippe, check fever, and regulate the digestive organs. They are easy to take, and are, indeed, the best all-round family medicine I have ever known."—Mrs. May Johnson, 308 Rider Avenue, New York City.

Experience With a Round Silo.

I have read with much interest during the past five years many articles in your paper on forms of siloes and different opinions regarding advantages of round ones. Last year we built one 18 feet in diameter and 24 feet high on one of our farms. A circular wall was built 8 inches above ground and 2 feet across, on top of which the staves were set. The basin was made of concrete and was raised around the inside and next the staves 2 inches. The hoops are of flat iron 2 by 1-4 inches, six in number and are heavier than needed. When the hoops were drawn tight, the inside was covered with tarred sheathing paper. Common laths were put around 18 inches apart and ends were kept separate 2 inches to allow an air space. Then tongued and grooved pine flooring was nailed on. As this silo was outside and exposed to very cold weather, we left this air space with an idea of preventing freezing. We never lost a particle by frost, and the thermometer was 3 degrees below zero on several occasions. The rafters are hooked over staves, and common sheathing boards covered with tarred paper and fine gravel gave us as cheap a roof as we could build. When all was completed we raised concrete 2 inches next the outside of staves and slanted to outer edge of wall, which made the bottom absolutely rat proof and air tight, both very important points.

As the material and men had to be ferried across the Bay of Quinte, the cost of the silo, $140 complete, was more than it would have been to erect on one of our farms here.

It held the product of six acres of corn, and when done settling we had some five feet to spare. It was opened on November 29, and 22 yearlings had two full feeds per day to March 2. We then found we should have to feed more in order to empty, and so gave the yearlings all they could eat up clean. Also two feeds per day to eleven colts. By April 15 the grass in pastures had become well started, and after that date the stock would eat only a feed in the morning. We then had four feet of ensilage left, when we soaked the top thoroughly with about 20 pailfuls of water and sowed thereon half a bushel of oats. I find that their roots have made a perfect fibrous mat, and on digging down three inches, July 4, I found contents as sound and sweet as at any time during the winter, I expect to put this year's crop right on top after removing the matted covering referred to.

I may add that if any of our Canadian friends are desirous of building a silo, I should be pleased to give any further information as to staves, sheathing, hoops, cements and cost on cars already to set up. The silo I have described, which can hold from five to eight acres of corn, will afford 40 pounds of ensilage per day for six months to 25 milch cows. To guard against our summer drouths, a dairy farm should have one for summer feeding and one for winter to ensure full results from a herd of milkers.—J. J. Keator, Deseronto, Ont., in Country Gentleman.

A Graduate of Toronto University says: "My children have been treated with Scott's Emulsion from their earliest years. Our physician first recommended it and now whenever a child takes cold my wife immediately resorts to this remedy, which always effects a cure."

NORTH CAROLINA ROAD.

Splendid Macadamized Highway Built Mainly By Convicts.

While in Georgia last summer, I had an opportunity of examining a road made by convicts. Half way out from Fort Valley to the Hale's peach orchard we came upon the "chain gang" at work. The first thing we saw was a white man sitting under a tree with a loaded rifle in his hands, while up the road at some distance sat another similar armed. Between them worked a squad of 12 to 15 colored convicts. Each wore a striped suit, and had an iron ball chained to his leg. While they worked, this ball and chain were fastened around the waist. Several were driving mules and scrapers, while others worked with pick and shovel. They were all hard at work and apparently good-natured and happy. Later we saw where they spent the night. A large tent was pitched at the edge of a wood, with small open fires burning near it. After their supper of corn bread and molasses, salt pork and fruit, the convicts crawled into the tent where they were chained together for the night. And an hour of singing and talking, they fell asleep and snored contentedly till daybreak, when they were crowded out for breakfast and another day o athe road.

It was said that all the roads in Houston county were made by convicts. There were no jails for petty offenders; but as fast as convicted, they were sent out to the chain gang and put to work. At first thought, the sight of that armed guard and the stories of whippings that were told, made the whole thing seem like a relic of a barbarous age. Yet, I saw enough to convince me that those convicts were better off working on that road than they would have been cooped up in a hot jail, and subject to all the evils of idleness. I would be glad to see the fat and lazy inmates of our northern jails out on the roads at work. If a drunkard, a thief or a wife-beater were made to understand that jailing meant hard and constant labor on the road, such people would think a good many times before they duplicated the crime that forced them into such service.

As to the character of the work done by these Georgian convicts, there can be no doubt of its value. I have never seen neater work done on a country road. They went straight through a rough country, cutting through hills, and filling low places in a thoroughly workmanlike manner. The cost to the county was ridiculously small as compared with the usual system of contracting. In the cut is shown a picture of a road in North Carolina made chiefly by convict labor. The load of cotton shown weighs 6000 pounds. Many a farmer has had a hard struggle to haul two bales into a southern town. This road is macadamized with three layers of broken stone of different sizes well spread and packed.—Rural New Yorker.

Built For Eternity.

The Roman road was built for eternity. When the roadbed had been prepared by excavation it was carefully refilled, regardless of expense, with layers of sand, stones and cement. The surface was so solidly dressed that the wear and tear was reduced to a minimum. Investigations with regard to the preparation of the roadbeds were made years ago by Bergier on Roman roads that are still in use in France, and with the following results: In one road the excavation down to hardpan was three feet deep. This trench was filled up first with a layer of sand and cement an inch thick; then came a foot layer of flattish stones and cement; then a foot layer of small traveled stones and cement. These two last layers were so hard and firmly knit together that tools could break off fragments only with great difficulty. The next layer consisted of a foot of cement and sand, covered with a top-dressing of gravel. In another road in France the foot layer of cement and sand changed places with the layer of cement and traveled stones. A third road in France was examined at a point where it had been raised 20 feet above the level of the surrounding country, and a vertical section revealed a structure of five layers. First came the great fill of 16 1-2 feet; on top of this fill they placed first a foot layer of flattish stones and cement, then a foot layer of flattish stones without mortar of any kind, then a half-foot layer of firmly-packed dirt, then a half-foot layer of small gravel in hard cement, and, lastly, a half-foot layer of cement and large gravel.

Paved roads were exceptional. An example of paved roads is the Via Appia, whose pavement consists of a hard kind of stone, such as is used for millstones. The stones of this pavement are carefully hewn and fitted together so precisely that the road often appears to be solid rock, and has proved to be so indestructible that after 2000 years of continuous use it is still a magnificent road. Ordinarily, however, the top dressing of the road consisted of gravel and hard cement, and when, in the countless inscriptions such and such a governor is said to have restored a given road, reference is made to this top dressing of gravel and cement. The width of the military road is usually 60 feet; the raised center being 20 feet wide, with side tracks each of the width of 20 feet. In some roads the raised center was paved, while the side tracks were dressed with gravel and cement.

The viae privatae an the feeders of the military roads were usually dirt roads. They were much narrower than the military roads; sometimes they had a width of only ten feet and, indeed, the feeders of the Via Appia were only two feet wide, but paved. The width of the Roman roads, all told, varied therefore, from two to 120 feet.—N.Y. Independent.

Shakespeare Indorsed.

Entering the library she discovered her lover asleep on the lounge. Pausing long enough to assure herself that his coma was not feigned she momentarily allowed a smile to play with such portions of her complexion as would resist the shock, then, bending over the defenseless features, she exclaimed in a tone of ill-concealed triumph:

"Little did you think, Llewellyn, when last night you ruthlessly stole a kiss from me that fate would so soon give me opportunity for reprisal."

She paused as if to purse her lips for the premeditated pilfer, and then, while in the very act of swooping, and probably with intent to make the bard of Avon accessory before the act, she added:

"Ah! how well William of Startford knew what he was talking about when he wrote that 'sleep is balmy nature's sweet restorer!' "—New York Telegram.

OUR MAIL.

B.B.B. CURES

Our mail brings us every day dozens of letters about Burdock Blood Bitters. Some from merchants who want to buy it, some from people who want to know about it, and more from people who do know about it because they have tried it and been cured. One of them was from Mr. J. Gillan, B.A., 39 Gould Street, Toronto. Read how he writes:

GENTLEMEN,—During the winter of 1892 my blood became impure on account of the hearty food I ate in the cold weather. Ambition, energy and success forsook me, and all my efforts were in vain. My skin became yellow, my bowels became inactive, my liver was lumpy and hard, my eyes became inflamed, my appetite was gone, and the days and nights passed in unhappiness and restlessness

For some months I tried doctors' and patent medicines of every description, but received no benefit. Being advised by a friend to try B.B.B., I am glad to have the opportunity of testifying to the marvellous result. After using three bottles I felt much better, and when the fifth bottle was finished I enjoyed health in the greatest degree, and have done so from that day up to date. Therefore I have much pleasure in recommending B. B. B. to all poor suffering humanity who suffer from impure blood, which is the beginning and seat of all diseases.

WORLD'S CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOUR PRAYER CHAIN.

Subject of prayer for August—"For Young Christians.

"Pray that as they are scattered by the vacation season the knowledge of Christ may be spread abroad by them, and that their consistent lives may everywhere tell for the Master."

NOW 'TIS OTTAWA, '96.

Although this county has not heard the reports of the Washington convention, yet they have another convention almost upon them. This, to some, may seem a multiplicity of conventions. Generally speaking this is not the case. The distance to Washington meant that our country could not have many representatives there and although they will soon have Washington echo meetings, it will not be out of place to consider our own provincial convention to be held at Ottawa on Oct. 6th to 9th inclusive. There is no good reason why every society in this county should not be represented at this convention. The expense will be light while the inspiration given to the delegate will surely prove helpful to the society sending him. It seems so hard to get the societies of the county to take up the question of this kind, that our words will be entirely lost unless the vice-presidents of each district see that the matter be presented before the society in their district. With this suggestion we will leave the matter entirely with them. Ottawa '96. This is to be the first Interprovincial convention. The eastern provinces promise to send a goodly number of delegates, while Manitoba has signified her intention to do likewise. The committee at Ottawa are preparing to receive 1000 delegates. Some of the most eloquent speakers in the Dominion will be present, and Secretary Baer, of Boston, has signified his willingness to attend. The junior rally this year promises to be a great event. The Auditorium has been secured for the occasion, the seating capacity of the building is 4,000. The exercises of the junior rally will be patriotic in nature. The Ottawa Endeavourers are planning how they can make the stay in Ottawa most pleasant. An excursion will be arranged to take the delegates to Aylmer, eight miles from Ottawa, the birthplace of Dr. Clark, the father of the Endeavour movement. Electric cars will convey Endeavourers to and from Aylmer. This line runs along the Ottawa river all the way and is a most delightful trip. An important feature of this convention will be the committee rallies and denominational conferences. While the spiritual and practical features will be prominent there will be room for patriotism and enthusiasm. The programme has not been all arranged yet. We will publish it later on. In the meantime give this your most serious consideration.

THE LOCAL SOCIETIES.

Although many are away during the holiday season the societies of town still continue to hold their regular meetings. The attendance is generally small, but the spirit is good. The report of the Washington convention will be given on the second or third Monday in September, at a rally of all the societies in town. The Charlotte street society intend holding a moonlight excursion on Tuesday, August 15th, down the river. The boat leaves the wharf at 8 o'clock p.m.

REPORT OF WASHINGTON CONVENTION.

The vice-presidents of each district are now arranging for rallies in their district, to hear the report. So far it is expected the report will be given in Smith on the first week of September. A rally at Springville of the societies in North Monaghan will be arranged. Coldsprings and Salem will rally at Salem. Keene, Norwood, Havelock and Lakefield districts have not been arranged yet. The local societies will rally in town the second or third week in September.

BETHEL—KEENE CIRCUIT.

Although we have not reported for some time, we are still endeavouring to work for Christ and the Church. At last Wednesday's meeting Miss Louisa Fife read an interesting paper on the topic, "Little Kindnesses," showing how acceptable little deeds of kindness were in the eyes of God, and asked that we, as Christian workers, should try to help those around us by trying to do some little deeds of kindness and not wait until we had an opportunity of doing something great. Mr. Oliver Fife conducted the prayer and consecration service. Many bright and cheering testimonies were given, showing God's goodness in the past month. Our plan of systematic giving is working nicely. We would advise other societies to try it.

LASSWADE.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Mrs. A. Palmateer, of this place, died the first of August and was buried on Monday, the third. Mr. Palmateer has the sympathy of the community in his sad bereavement.

Haying is nearly all done around here except beaver hay. Some of that is not cut yet. The most of it has gone up in smoke, as fire got in one marsh and followed from one to another till hundreds of tons of hay were consumed. It is going through the woods at a rapid pace, it being so dry the fire is doing great damage to the bridges on the Government road.

Mrs. Gould has her sister, Mrs. O'Brien, from Michigan, on a visit at present.

The mica mines at the head of Stony Lake are doing a rushing business. Three mines are in operation and nearly a hundred men are employed now. They have two stores and a large three-story boarding house. They will soon have a village.

Mr. A. McFadden and Messrs. Harry and Edward Wilson have gone to the far north to work.

When any part of the body isn't doing the work that nature intended it to do, it puts the whole system out of tune—out of harmony. When children stand a row of bricks on end, they knock the whole row down by upsetting one brick. That is exactly what happens to the health when the bowels fail to perform their proper function. Constipation makes trouble all along the line—puts the liver out of order, is bad for the kidneys—bad for the stomach. It holds in the body poisonous matter, and because it cannot go any place else, it gets into the blood. The blood carries it all over the system. That makes sluggishness, lassitude, bad breath and foul taste in the mouth, fills the stomach with gas and causes windy belching, stops digestion in the stomach, causes sour stomach, heartburn and headache. You can avoid all such trouble, for Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets CURE constipation and its attendant evils.

WHAT WAS THE WEAPON?

John McCarthy of Montreal Seriously Hurt in a Fight Over a Dog.

Binghamton, N.Y., Aug. 11.—John McCarthy, aged 21 years, of Montreal, became engaged in an altercation over his dog in the United States Express Office at the D., L. & W. Depot, in this city, at an early hour this morning, and was finally struck by Peter Hensbury, one of the employes. Later he was picked up on the street in a dazed condition and removed to the hospital, suffering from a badly broken nose and concussion of the brain. Hensbury was arrested and will be held awaiting developments. He claims he struck McCarthy with his fist, though McCarthy says he was hit with a piece of baggage.

LI WANTS RAILROADS.

The Chinese Envoy Believes in Advocating Progress, Industry and Commerce in His Native Land.

London, Aug. 11.—A reception and banquet were given by the London Chamber of Commerce in honor of Li Hung Chang, the Chinese statesman, who appeared in the picturesque garb of his native rank, including the famous yellow jacket and peacock feathers. He wore, in addition, the decoration of the newly-instituted Victorian Order that has been conferred upon him by the Queen. Li Hung Chang made a speech, which was interpreted to his hearers. In the course of his remarks, he declared that as long as he lived he would advocate progress, industry and commerce in his native land, and that he would specially urge that the remotest corner of China be made accessible by railroads.

THE WHEEL.

Peterborough will be well represented at the Port Hope bicycle meet to-day. Besides entering two teams in the team race, the town will have contestants in almost every open event. Gordon and Bradburn will try for their novice records.

THE BICYCLE RACES.

To-morrow (Thursday) afternoon at the Nicholls Park the local Bicycle Club will run off a programme of races, and hope that in view of the usual weekly half-holiday there will be a good attendance. As the park is fairly open, as far as fences are concerned, badge tickets will be provided and given on paying the admission fee of 15c. for gentlemen, and 10c. for ladies. The races will begin at 2 30 p. m., and our local riders will have a chance to try their speed on the track.

A telephone from Port Hope this morning brought the news that a number of outside fast riders, who are riding to-day at the Port Hope races, would come out to Peterborough and take a hand in the races to-morrow. While the races were got up with the idea of having a purely local trial of speed, if the foreigners come they will be welcomed.

Mr. R. J. Nelson of Kingston, chairman of the Racing Board of this district, will be present and give a hand in getting off the events in good style. The match race between Lytle and Gordon has brought out some special interest, and will be run in fast time, and afford a good trial of speed as far as the facilities of the track afford. The list of prizes is a good one and fairly liberal. Be sure and spend your half-holiday at the Nicholls Park.

To Tired Ladies.

When you are exhausted and feel played out take a glass of Calcutt's Porter; it will freshen you up and make work a pleasure. Should be used by everybody during house cleaning. tf

WRECKAGE

From the Big Sale

In the shape of Remnants, Odd Lots and Tail Ends from every department, have been rooted out, ticketed and marked at prices to close them with a rush. It's a fitting wind-up for the biggest selling event in our history. A few days will do the business, and sharp's the word.

Remnants of Cloths.

Nothing wrong with them. The last few yards of the piece cost us just as much as the first. Going to sell them at a sacrifice though; they litter the stock. Good picking here for the Boy's Fall School Suits. Why not look ahead a bit and by so doing save a dollar? Price of each remnant in plain figures. They're all spread out on the counter and you can make an easy selection.

Broken Lots of Men's Pants.

Good sizes and lengths among them. Some at about one-half regular prices. They'll move quick when the news gets out.

Good-by to Summer Ties.

The left-overs are going to be turned into money at short notice. The prices are absurd, but we don't want to winter them.

Men's and Boy's Suits.

Not a question of worth, but what price will sell them. It will pay you to be among the first. The pick is worth something. 300 Suits to pick from, well made and finished, the products of some of the best known makers. A lot of our own make included.

Broken Lots of Hosiery and Underwear.

Odd dozens and half-dozens, all out on the counter, and they're not going back into the shelves with our consent. Can you use them? If so, help us to get rid of them.

Summer Suits and Separate Pants.

Some made of Wool Serge, some of Cricketing Flannel, some of Silk and some of Lustre and Alpaca. Only about a dozen of each, but we want the room more than the goods.

Summer Boots & Shoes.

The Fall Styles will be about the same as these; they're all new this season. Not many shelves full, but you save just half. Not often that 50c does the work of $1.00 but we need the room.

Shirts and Underwear.

They might as well go with the rest. We won't profit financially on the sales, but that makes no difference, so long as we can clean up the overplus.

Last Call on Felt and Straw Hats.

And a loud call it is. Mostly broken lots, but none the worse for that. If your size, style or kind is among them then you're in luck, for the prices are cut loose entirely from the values.

GOOD ENDORSERS.

Every business man understands that no matter how valuable the signature on a note may be, his confidence is greatly increased if the note is well endorsed.

This is equally true of articles other than notes. It is particularly true of pianos. The musical public always likes to know if a piano is well endorsed.

The Mason & Risch Piano is undoubtedly endorsed by more eminent names than any other instrument made in Canada. Here are a few of them:—

Madame Albani	Franz Lizst
Sir A. C. McKenzie (Principal Royal College of Music)	F. H. Torrington
	S. P. Warren
Dr. Bridge (Organist Westminster Abbey)	Edouard Remenyi
	W. Waugh Lauder
Otto Bendix	Signor D'Auria
Frederick Archer	Watkins Mills
Mrs. Longmore	Edouard Scharff

These are but few of the many eminent admirers of our pianos. We could go on and fill a column but we think this enough to establish our claim to be well endorsed.

An examination of our instruments is cordially solicited no matter how remote your idea of purchase may be.

Our prices are reasonable, quality considered, and our terms elastic enough to suit anyone.

THE OTTAWA BUDGET

Regulations in Regard to the Horse Trade

COLLECTORS NOTIFIED OF CHANGES

Sir Charles Tupper Calls a Caucus to Decide Upon the Conservative Leadership and the Policy on the School Question—Mutiny on the Lansdowne.

Ottawa, Aug. 12.—The regulations respecting the importation and exportation of horses have been amended by a recent order in council, and notice has been sent to Collectors of Customs of changes embodied in it. The proposed inspection at Quebec of horses imported from Europe is made subject to the direction of the Minister of Agriculture, so that on his special order such horses may be inspected at Montreal. Horses in transit through Canada from one part of the United States to another part must be accompanied by a certificate of health, signed by a qualified veterinary surgeon. Settlers' horses entering Canada are to be subject to such inspection as the Minister of Agriculture may direct, and entry shall be prohibited of any "settlers'" horses found, on inspection, to have contagious disease. The scale of fees for the inspection of "settlers'" horses is to be determined by the Minister of Agriculture.

Sir Chas. Tupper has caused an urgent circular to be sent out to Conservative Senators and members of the Commons asking them to attend a party caucus, to be held in this city next Wednesday morning. At this meeting the question of the party leadership will be decided, and the future policy of the party, especially on the school question, will be discussed.

The local newspapers have much to say on Mr. Taylor's statements at Owen Sound last Monday. The Free Press thought puts the matter thus: "Great surprise is expressed at the statement made by Mr. George Taylor, chief whip of the late Government, in North Grey, to the effect that Remedial Legislation is no longer a part of the Conservative policy. It was distinctly announced as such by Sir Charles Tupper in the statement that he published after the overthrow on June 23, and local politicians are wondering when and by whom the change was made. The fact of the matter is that there is nobody to authorize any statement of the party policy. The party is without a head, and Mr. Taylor's announcement bears no more force than the assertion of any other individual Tory."

The Journal puts the matter as follows: "After delivering his message, Mr. Taylor urged the electors of North Grey to rebel against French domination, as he pictured Mr. Laurier's rule. He supported his appeal by repeating misstatements which The Journal once before corrected, namely, that Quebec has seven Ministers in the Laurier Cabinet and Ontario four. The actual facts are that Quebec has six Ministers and a Solicitor-General; two of the Ministers, however, being without offices or salaries, and that Ontario has five Ministers, all full-fledged. Mr. Taylor thus is in the position of a man who not only attempts to arouse bigotry and sectional prejudices, to serve party ends, but who bolsters up the attempt by false statements."

The newspaper despatch that there had been trouble on board the Government cruiser Lansdowne was the first intimation which the Department had received of the affair. Much annoyance has been caused by the publication of the news in advance of its reaching the department and the Minister has caused enquiries to be made on the subject. From all that can be learned here, eight of the crew were charged with mutiny and were sentenced to various terms of imprisonment. The trouble arose over the quality of food supplied to the men.

The Lansdowne has sailed for the Straits of Belle Isle, with W. B. Dawson, tide surgeon for the Department, on board. Mr. Dawson is about to spend some weeks between the eastern end of Anticosti and the Straits of Belle Isle, making observations on the tides and currents.

A sad accident occurred to-day on the occasion of a fire alarm from box 23, which is situated in a dangerous locality in the vicinity of the lumber piles. At the corner of Bridge and Duke-streets there is a bad hole on the roadway. Reel No. 7 got a fearful shaking-up in its dash over the hole, and Guardian John Lowry, who was driving, was thrown from the box seat. He fell under the wheels of the reel, which passed over his chest, inflicting such injuries that he died in a few minutes. Lowry was greatly esteemed and his death has caused quite a gloom in the community.

Ernest J. Wood, ex-member of the Manitoba Legislature, who has been acting as special emigration agent for the Dominion Government in the Midland counties of England, arrived in the city last evening from the North-west. Mr. Wood brought out to Canada the first of the personally conducted parties of this year. It consisted of 120 persons, with an average capital of $1500. About 40 of these were located in Ontario and Quebec, a like number in Manitoba, 20 in the Territories and 20 in British Columbia. Mr. Wood has since 1893 delivered several hundred lectures in various parts of England, and with excellent success, as in three years he has sent out about 1100 persons, with an aggregate capital of one million dollars. Mr. Wood leaves for England on Saturday.

Professor Robertson, Agricultural Commissioner, left for the Maritime Provinces to-day.

Mr. Tarte, Minister of Public Works, is addressing a public meeting in St. Scholastique, Que., to-day.

The Postoffice Department, rather than keep the Vancouver's mails over for a week, sent them by the Teutonic, leaving New York to-day.

Hon. N. Clarke Wallace went up to Shawville to-day to address a large gathering of Orangemen. He was accompanied by Major Armstrong of St. John, N.B.

Arrangements were made yesterday for an interview between Dr. Ryson of Montreal and several others with the Premier on immigration questions. They will be up on Friday.

The Department of Railways and Canals issued notice to-day, stating that the time for receiving tenders for the Simcoe and Balsam Lake division of the Trent Canal, fixed for the 7th inst., has been indefinitely postponed.

Mr. Fielding, Finance Minister, arrived here to-night, his first appearance in Ottawa since his accession to the Ministry.

THEY WANT COLD STORAGE.

Mr. Laurier and His Colleagues Heard a Number of Delegations at Montreal Yesterday.

Montreal, Aug. 12.—(Special.)—Hon. Wilfrid Laurier, Sir Richard Cartwright, Hon. Sidney Fisher and Hon. R. Dobell arrived in the city to-day, and were interviewed by several organizations regarding cold storage on rail and steamers. Those who took part in the conversation with the Ministers are as follows: D. M. Macpherson of Lancaster, President of the Dominion Dairy Association; Mr. David Rogers, M.P., Frontenac, representing the Board of Patrons of Industry of Ontario; Mr. McDonald, representing Patrons; Mr. John Mackergow, representing the Butter and Cheese Association; Mr. J. De LaFaun, director of the Quebec Dairymen's Association; Mr. Dunlop, secretary of the Fruit Growers' Association of Quebec; Mr. Henry Wade, Toronto, President of the Eastern Dairymen's Association of Ontario; Mr. D. Derbyshire, President of the Ontario Creamery Association; Mr. R. G. Murphy, secretary of the Eastern Dairymen's Association; Mr. M. K. Everett, representing Brockville Dairymen's Board of Trade; Mr. J. Lockie Wilson, representing the Board of Patrons of the Province of Quebec and P.E.I.; Mr. Walter Smith, representing the Grand Board of the Patrons of Industry of the Province of Quebec.

Strong pleas were entered for cold storage in cars and on board of ocean steamers. The Premier and his colleagues listened to all that was said, and informed the members of the deputation that their representations would have the serious consideration of the Ministry.

ANOTHER CRASH IN THE FOG.

The Steamer Neptune Driven Against the Bow of the Scandinavian in the St. Lawrence.

Quebec, Aug. 12.—Another disaster has occurred in the St. Lawrence below Quebec. The accident is entirely due to the heavy fog prevailing on the river. The S.S. Neptune, Captain Allen, which cleared from Montreal and Quebec, coaled with the Allan Line steamer Scandinavian, Captain McAdam, which left here yesterday, bound for Glasgow. The Neptune arrived here at about 8 o'clock to-night, and the correspondent interviewed Pilot Godbout.

The pilot states that the collision took place at 10 o'clock in the Lower Traverse, a channel running east and north half a mile wide. The Traverse is about three miles long with a six-knot current, and during springtide, which prevailed to-day, the current is much swifter. Pilot Godbout thought it advisable to anchor, but he would not make up his mind to let go anchor in such a strong current. Fog came on at the upper entrance of the channel as he was passing the upper lightship. He at once caused the engine to slow down and the vessel proceeded at very slow speed.

When the Neptune had run down about three-quarters the distance of the channel, the look-out man reported a bell off the starboard bow. As it is well known a bell is rung on board vessels at anchor during a fog to prevent collision, the vessel's course was altered to port and the vessel, a Black Diamond boat, lying at anchor, was passed. Another bell again off the starboard bow was reported, and Pilot Godbout ordered the helm to be put astarboard, but before the vessel had gone fifty feet distance a steamer's bow appeared about the starboard forerigging of the Neptune. This was the Scandinavian riding with two anchors out. The current carried the Neptune broadsides across the bows of the Allan Liner with a terrific force. Both vessels quivered from stem to stern. The engines of the Neptune were full speed astern when the vessel was sighted, but headway could not be slackened in time to avert the crash.

The Neptune has a cut fully fifteen feet wide and extending below the water line. The collision was so heavy that it caused the port side opposite the cut to bulge out about six or seven feet. The Neptune kept on her stern way and dropped astern of the Scandinavian, where she came to anchor. The Scandinavian appears not to have sustained any damage beyond forcing the windlass out of its bearings. Shortly afterwards, the weather having cleared up, the Scandinavian weighed anchor and proceeded on her voyage. The Neptune has two compartments full of water. She has settled by the head about three feet. Her lower decks are bent out of shape, and she is considerably damaged.

She was docked in the Louise basin, and a gang of ship laborers will unload her at daylight, and repairs will be commenced at once. She may delay on account of the Dominion Line steamer Vancouver, which will occupy the dry dock for a considerable time, as soon as she is unloaded.

Set an Electric Mark.

Waterloo, Aug. 12.—And still another very severe electric thunderstorm broke over this district last evening about 11 o'clock. Lightning struck and totally burned the barn, wagon shed and pig pens belonging to Mr. Valentine Otterbein. Most of the cattle were saved excepting four calves, which were burned. Loss $300, covered by insurance in the North Waterloo Farmers' Mutual.

THE MONEY METALS

Discussed by Mr. Bryan in New York

A GREAT NOTIFICATION MEETING.

The Free Silver Orator Gives Arguments in Support of the Chicago Platform—Claims That Bi-metallism Will Help the Farmer, Laborer and Manufacturer.

New York, Aug. 12.—William Jennings Bryan and Arthur Sewall were formally notified to-night that they were the choice of the Democratic party for the highest offices in the gift of the people of the United States. The occasion was one to which the entire country had been looking forward for many weeks, and interest had risen to the boiling point, through repeated promises and hints that the speech the young Nebraskan would deliver would exceed in eloquence, vigor and magnetism his effort before the Chicago convention. Whatever might be the political inclination of any person who attended the ratification of the Democracy at Madison-square Garden, he must have been permeated with the blindest prejudice not to have been thrilled by the excitement and the enthusiasm which prevailed during the entire time the notification ceremonies lasted. The presence of so stupendous a crowd of human beings was in itself an eloquent tribute to the importance attached to the occasion.

The opening of the doors was followed by a hurrying, scurrying rush of feet, and in they came, shouting, jumping, shoving, pushing, all intent on reaching the places best available to see and hear. Outside the Garden the wildest excitement had been prevailing. Over 1000 uniformed policemen were stationed in and about the hall. The crowd began to assemble shortly after 6 o'clock and an hour later the avenues leading to the Garden were literally thronged with the waiting multitude. At 7 o'clock the doors were thrown open, and, despite the efforts of the police to restrain them, the crowd on either side made desperate rushes for the entrances. In the struggle there many women fainted and had to be carried away. The police finally began using their clubs in an effort to restore order. A wild scene of turmoil ensued at the main entrance. From floor to roof the Garden was crowded with human beings before the exercises began.

It was just 8 o'clock when the principal acter of the evening entered. When he stepped on the stand and was recognized by many in the audience, a great cheer went up. At 8.15 o'clock Senator Jones (Ark.), chairman of the National Committee, nominated as chairman of the meeting. Hon. Elliott Danforth of New York.

Mr. Danforth presented Governor N. W. A. Stone, Missouri, chairman of the Committee on Notification.

Mr. Stone made a brief speech, full of jingoism, and giving a twist to the British lion's tail, and depending the participants in the Chicago convention, after which he formally notified Mr. Bryan of his nomination. Then a man began to wave a big flag over Mr. Bryan's head. Cheer followed cheer and pandemonium broke loose.

Although the cheering thousands in the hall were hot of body and hoarse of throat, they rose as a man when the chairman stepped forward and introduced Mr. Bryan. Then came a demonstration that far exceeded those that followed the mention of Mr. Bryan's name previously in the evening. Men and women rose to their feet and cheered. On the platform, in the boxes, up in the galleries, people were shouting like mad. Men waved their coats and their hats, while women fluttered fans and handkerchiefs. Mr. Bryan held up his hand for silence. It was like an incentive to yell louder. Mr. Bryan made an effort to speak. His voice was drowned in the wild howl. Again he held up his hand and again the cheering rose to its might. Finally the nominee began to speak slowly, but was obliged to stop several times, for the demonstration had sporadic spasms before it died. His voice was firm, but it showed signs of hoarseness.

Mr. Bryan read from manuscript but occasionally he dropped the sheets of paper, and spoke earnestly and vehemently, without looking at them. The peroration was spoken without a glance at the manuscript, and for that reason it had greater effect.

MR. BRYAN'S SPEECH.

The Young Orator Read From Manuscript But Made a Good Impression.

"I shall at a future day formally accept the nomination which is now tendered by the Notification Committee, and shall then touch upon the issues presented by the platform," said Mr. Bryan. "It is fitting that at this time I speak at some length in regard to the campaign upon which we are now entering. We shall defend with all possible vigor the position taken by our party(Our campaign has not for for its object the reconstruction of society. We cannot insure to the vicious the fruits of a virtuous life; we would not invade the home of the provident in order to supply the wants of the spendthrift; we do not propose to transfer the rewards of industry to the lap of indolence. Property is and will remain the stimulus to endeavor and the compensation for toil. We believe, as asserted in the Declaration of Independence, that all men are created equal; but that does not mean that all men are or can be equal in possessions, in ability or in merit; it simply means that all shall stand equal before the law, and that Government officials shall not, in making, construing or enforcing the law discriminate between citizens. I assert that the property rights as well as the rights of persons are safe in the hands of the common people.

"Those who stand by the Chicago platform believe that the Government should not only avoid wrong-doing, but that it should also prevent wrong-doing, and they believe that the law should be enforced alike against all enemies of the public weal. They do not excuse petit larceny, but they declare that grand larceny is equally a crime; they do not defend the occupation of the highwayman who robs the FOREST FIRES.

In view of the circumstance of the prevalence of bush fires, destroying millions of dollars worth of property in all parts of province, and in view of the additional fact that in a great many cases these fires are due to preventable causes, it would seem important that the authorities should take steps to make operative the provisions of the general statute law enacted for the prevention of bush fires. In 1889 an Act (52 Victoria, cap 46) was passed authorizing the municipalities of townships to pass by-laws to secure, as far as possible, immunity from the destructive ravages of bush fires. These are the provisions of the Act —:

1.—(1) The council of the township municipality may, on the petition of one-third of the ratepayers of the municipality, at its first meeting in any year hereafter, or at a special meeting to be called for the purpose, within two months after the passing of this Act, appoint by by-law not less than two resident freeholders for each polling sub-division within the municipality to carry out the provisions of this Act.

(2) The persons so appointed shall be called and known as "fire guardians," and shall hold office until the first meeting of a new council elected after their appointment, and until their successors are appointed.

2. No person shall, after the passing of a by-law appointing fire guardians under this Act, in any township, set out or set fire to any brush heap or other combustible material in any field, clearance or place in such township where the same would be likely to spread, between the first day of July and the first day of October in any year, without having first obtained leave in writing from one of the fire guardians.

3. The obtaining of such leave or permission in writing of the proper fire guardian shall not be pleaded or given in evidence in any action for negligently setting out fire, or in extenuation of, or in mitigation of damages; but the absence of such leave or permission shall, in such an action, be deemed prima facie evidence of negligence.

4. It shall be the duty of a fire guardian appointed as aforesaid, on being requested to grant leave and permission to set out fire, to examine the place at which it is intended to set out the fire and the adjoining lands, and the timber trees and other property thereon, and to refuse such request, and decline to grant leave and permission if, in his opinion, it would not be safe by reason of the danger of fire spreading therefrom or otherwise.

5. The council of any township municipality may, in and by the by-law, make provisions for the payment to the fire guardian for his services, and fix the penalty to be imposed upon fire guardians and others refusing to perform or neglecting their duties under this Act or the by-law, or contravening any provision thereof.

6 Any person setting out fire as aforesaid without leave and permission as aforesaid, shall be subject to a penalty not exceeding $100 for each offence, which penalty may be imposed and recovered on information of any resident ratepayer in the municipality before a Police Magistrate or two Justices of the Peace sitting together, and in default of payment of the fine or penalty and costs, the offender shall be liable to be committed to the common gaol of the county with hard labour, for any period not exceeding six months, unless the fine or penalty and the costs of enforcing the same be sooner paid.

7. The plaintiff or complainant shall be entitled to one moiety of the penalty, and the other moiety shall be paid over to the treasurer of the municipality.

8. This Act shall not apply to any portion of the Province which under chapter 219 of the Revised Statutes of Ontario, 1887, may have been declared a fire district.

Considering the immense damages being done in the country by bush fires, it would seem to be the urgent duty of municipalities affected, or likely to be affected thereby, to pass a by-law putting the provisions of the Act in force. Large numbers of fires are due to carelessness of campers or tourists, and to that of farmers who exercise little judgment in the placing out of fires to clear lands. If the former knew that fire guardians were on the alert, they would be more careful. It is unfortunate that thousands of dollars of damages are done by the neglect to take the most ordinary precaution that common sense would suggest must be taken to prevent widespread loss. It is hoped that township corporations will take prompt measures to put the Act of 1889 into force. The Ontario Government spends large sums of money in order to preserve our forest growth, and certainly our local councils should second their efforts for the protection of a growth whose rapid disappearance, to no small degree, accounts for the drouths that prevail yearly and contribute so largely to not only the failure of farming operations, but the development of grasshoppers, whose ravages are the greatest in dry seasons. In the older settled portions of the province farmers are trying to remedy the results of forest removal by tree planting, and it becomes the duty of the more unsettled townships to preserve the forest growth they still possess.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

THE manuscript of Gray's "Elegy" remained in the author's hands seven years, receiving touches here and there, and would not have been printed then had not a copy loaned to a friend been printed. If the average amateur poet would take this plan he would need have no fear of anybody committing petit larceny.

THE chemists of the Department of the Interior have been employed for some time back on the analysis of maple sugar samples, which were collected this spring in different parts of the country. There was found to be much adulteration, glucose syrup being mixed with the maple very largely.

"CANADA is not yet a great country," said Mr. Laurier the other day, "but it will become so in time. I am of the French race, and I am proud of my birth, but, in spite of that, I do not dream of a small French republic on the banks of the St. Lawrence. I want a great Canadian nation, in which all the different elements will be united." This is the true Canadian sentiment. There are a few French-Canadians who dream of an independent French nationality, but Mr. Laurier has no hesitation in declaring that he is not of them.

IT is being said in the United States that the managers of the McKinley forces have given the assurance that in case Mr. McKinley is elected with the aid of sound money Democratic votes, his Administration will content itself with a tariff for revenue, protection being incidental only. Those high in the councils of both parties, while skeptical at first, now believe this programme can be carried out. The tariff is certainly being made a secondary issue, and it is not improbable that by Nov. 4th the whole people will be divided, not into Democratic and Republican camps, but into sound money and free silver parties.

THE volunteers of Canada have been so long neglected that they will appreciate the attention the new Minister of Militia, Hon. Dr. Borden, is bestowing upon, and the friendly interest he takes in, their proficiency. He is anxious that the volunteers should go into camp this fall, and especially that some of the battalions which have not been out for drill for two years should have the benefit of the exercise and training which can be got only by going into camp for a couple of weeks. In order to this it is necessary that the supplies for the purpose shall be got through as soon as possible after the session opens next week, and Dr. Borden, counting upon the good will of both sides of the House towards the volunteer service, hopes to get them through in time. But the Ottawa correspondents of the Opposition journals seem to hope and believe that he will be disappointed, and that the Opposition will delay the passage of the supplies for two or three months, until it is too late to hold the camps. But it is hardly probable that the Opposition will add to their culpability in the past by assuming so unpatriotic an attitude.

IN the course of his speech at the Dominion Day banquet in London Principal Grant said :—"We admit that the mother of Parliaments is first, but I think we Canadians hold that the Canadian Parliament comes a very good second. We do so not merely because Canada is the greatest of the colonies, but because it has triumphed over more difficulties and more varying and apparently insuperable obstacles than any other English-speaking country. (Cheers.) In England, with a homogeneous people, it is easy to get a representative Assembly. In Canada we had to work together two races who had fought each other for centuries—races differing not only in race but in religion, and we have succeeded in doing that with an extraordinary amount of success. (Cheers.) There are few spectacles so picturesque as that presented by this Parliament of Canada that is to meet this month —a parliament to be presided over by a French-Canadian, elected as Prime Minister by his countrymen from ocean to ocean. Mr. Laurier is a man of such virtues that every Canadian looks forward to his Premiership not only with joy but hope, because, while he has many virtues, he has especially that virtue that commends a man to Englishmen. 'Laurier,' said Sir John Macdonald, 'could not break his word if he tried. (Cheers.) And then we have as his lieutenant Sir Oliver Mowat, who for twenty-three years has given an absolutely pure administration to the premier Province of the Dominion, a man of the keenest constitutional insight. (Cheers.) What, then, can we look for but a continuation of the past history of Canada, just as sound, just as true to all that makes the British Empire great. (Loud cheers.)"

THE JOYS OF PREMIERSHIP.

(Toronto News.)

Hon. Mr. Hardy is tasting the joys of being a Premier. Formerly in a more onerous department than the one he at present conducts he worked just as hard as he does now and worried just as much, but he could come and go as he pleased and no one held up the train to present addresses to him, no brass bands trumpeted in his honour. Now that he is Premier all is different. The event of his going on a fishing trip to Parry Sound is made the occasion of an outburst of enthusiasm, addresses are presented, the very fish in the water are made to feel what an honour it would be to be caught and eaten by the Premier of Ontario.

The sorrows of a Premier have been pointed out in these columns previously. Let us not forget in the holiday season that a Premier has joys as well; the joys of being met at the station by shouting electors, of having illuminated addresses flung into your lap, of being privileged to speak to enthusiastic throngs. Premier Hardy ought to feel happy.

The Sting Within.

It is said there is a rankling thorn in every heart, and yet that none would exchange their own for that of another. Be that as it may, the sting arising from the heart of a corn is real enough and in this land of tight boots a very common complaint also. Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor is a never failing remedy for this kind of heartache, as you can easily prove if afflicted. Cheap, pure, painless.

St. John, N.B., Aug. 3—Mr. Robt. Moore, residing in Indiantown, a suburb of this city, has recently made what is allowed by all who are acquainted with the facts to be a most remarkable recovery. He has been a sufferer from a serious complaint of the kidneys for over seven years, and during that time has suffered excruciatingly. He has also suffered considerably in pocket, having paid large sums for medical advice. Quite recently he happened to read of the many cures effected by Dodd's Kidney Pills, and with commendable promptitude made a trial of them, with the result that after taking three boxes of the remedy he was entirely restored to health.

HOW THE SUN LIFE
FULFILS ITS PROMISES.

A Matured 10 Year Endowment.

Profits Paid by the SUN 21 per. cent more than the Estimates.

The following letter, which speak for itself, was received by the undersigned this morning from a gentleman in Brockville, whose ten year endowment which he held in the Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada matured last week and was paid him. The Sun is modest in promises but UNEQUALLED IN RESULTS. The public are benefitted by results, not by promises unfulfilled

BROCKVILLE, November 7th, 1896.

W. H. HILL, Mgr. Central Ontario Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada, Peterborough, Ontario :—

DEAR SIR,—I should have acknowledged the receipt of yours enclosing cheque for endowment policy No. 12,671 before, only I wanted to write something more than a mere receipt. I am pleased to hear of the continued prosperity of the "SUN" and it speaks well for your Company when the profits are greater (by 21 per cent.) than you as the Company's representative promised or rather estimated, as was the case with this policy.

I hope your Company will continue to prosper and I often regret that I do not carry more Insurance than I am doing. I might have carried twice as much as I do when at Minden without any great effort, still what little I do carry I feel is perfectly safe being in the "SUN."

I must thank you for your promptness and kindness regarding this policy just settled. I hope we will both be alive and well when the new one I now hold will be due in 1905 and assuring you of very best wishes, I remain,

Yours Sincerely,
(Signed) F. R. C.

The above voluntary testimonial is significant and shows in a most practical way the SUN'S standing as a profit paying institution.

THE MONEY METALS.

unsuspecting traveller, but they include among the transgressors those who, through the more polite and less hazardous means of legislation, appropriate to their own use the proceeds of the toil of others.

"Now let me ask you to consider the paramount question of this campaign—the money question. It is scarcely necessary to defend the principle of bi-metallism. No national party during the entire history of the United States has ever declared against it, and no party in this campaign has had the temerity to oppose. The gold standard has been weighed in the balance and found wanting. Take from it the powerful support of the money-owning and the money-changing classes, and it cannot stand for one day in any nation in the world. It was fastened upon the United States without discussion. There can be no sympathy or co-operation between the advocates of a universal gold standard and the advocates of bi-metallism.

"What is the test of honesty in money? It must certainly be found in the purchasing power of the dollar. An absolutely honest dollar would not vary in its general purchasing power; it would be absolutely stable when measured by average prices. A dollar which increases in purchasing power is just as dishonest as a dollar which decreases in purchasing power.

"It cannot be successfully claimed that mono-metallism or bi-metallism or any other system gives an absolutely just standard of value. Under both mono-metallism and bi-metallism the government fixes the weight and fineness of the dollar, invests it with legal tender qualities, and then opens the mints to its unrestricted coinage, leaving the purchasing power of the dollar to be determined by the number of dollars. Bi-metallism is better than mono-metallism, not because it gives us a perfect dollar, but because it makes a nearer approach to stability, to honesty, to justice, than a gold standard possibly can. Any legislation which lessens the world's stock of standard money increases the exchangeable value of the dollar; therefore the crusade against silver must inevitably raise the purchasing power of money and lower the money value of all other forms of property.

"Our opponents err in supposing that we have reached the end of the evil results of the gold standard; we have not reached the end. The injury is a continuing one, and no person can say how long the world is to suffer from the attempt to make gold the only standard money. The same influences which are now operating to destroy silver in the United States will, if successful here, be turned against other silver-using countries, and each new convert to the gold standard will add to the general distress. So long as the scramble for gold continues prices must fall, and a general fall in prices is but another definition of hard times.

"The farmers are opposed to the gold standard because they have felt its effects. Since they sell at wholesale and buy at retail, they have lost more than they have gained by falling prices, and besides this they have found that certain fixed charges have not fallen at all. The farmer has thus found it more and more difficult to live. Has he not a just complaint against the gold standard?

"The wage-earners have been injured by the gold standard and have expressed themselves upon the subject with great emphasis. In February, 1895, a petition, asking for the immediate restoration of the free and unlimited coinage of gold and silver, at 16 to 1, was signed by the representatives of all, or nearly all, the leading labor organizations and presented to Congress. Wage-earners know that, while a gold standard raises the purchasing power of the dollar, it also makes it more difficult to obtain possession of the dollar; they know that employment is less permanent, loss of work more probable, and re-employment less certain. A gold standard encourages the hoarding of money, because money is rising; it also discourages enterprise and paralyzes industry. On the other hand, the restoration of bi-metallism will discourage hoarding, because when prices are steady, or rising, money can not afford to lie idle in the bank vaults. The farmers and wage-earners together constitute a considerable majority of the people of the country. Why should their interests be ignored in considering financial legislation? A monetary system which is peculiarly advantageous to a few syndicates has far less to commend it than a system which gives hope and encouragement to those who create the nation's wealth.

"It is only necessary to note the increasing number of failures in order to know that a gold standard is ruinous to merchants and manufacturers. These business men do not make their profits from the people from whom they borrow money, but from the people to whom they sell their goods. If the people cannot buy, retailers cannot sell, and if retailers cannot sell, wholesale merchants and manufacturers must go into bankruptcy.

"Those who hold as a permanent investment the stock of railroads and of other enterprises are injured by a gold standard. The rising dollar destroys the earning power of these industries without reducing their liabilities, and as dividends cannot be paid until salaries and fixed charges have been satisfied, the stockholders must bear the burden of hard times. Salaries in business occupations depend upon business conditions, and the gold standard both lessens the amount and threatens the permanency of such salaries.

"The professional classes, in the main, derive their support from the producing classes, and can only enjoy prosperity when there is prosperity among those who create wealth. Hence it will be seen that a large portion of those who may find some pecuniary advantage in a gold standard will discover that their losses exceed their gains."

Mr. Bryan then quoted Senator Sherman's speech, delivered in 1869. When Mr. Sherman describes contraction of the currency as disastrous to all the people, except the capitalists, out of debt and those who stand in a position similar to his, he is stating a truth which must be apparent to every person who will give the matter careful consideration. Mr. Sherman was at that time speaking of the contraction of the volume of paper currency, but the principle which he set forth applies, if there is a contraction of the volume of the standard money of the world.

The Chicago platform presents a clear and emphatic demand for the immediate restoration of the free and unlimited coinage of silver and gold at the present legal ratio of 16 to 1, without waiting for the aid of the consent of any other nation. When we ask that our mints be opened to the free and unlimited coinage of silver into full legal tender money, we are simply asking that the same mint privileges be accorded to silver that are now accorded to gold.

Under the bi-metallic system, gold and silver are linked together by law at a fixed ratio, and any person or persons owning any quantity of either metal can have the same converted into full legal tender money. If the creditor has the right to choose the metal in which payment shall be made it is reasonable to suppose that he will require the debtor to pay in the dearer metal, if there is any perceptible difference between the bullion values of the metals.

This new demand, creating a dearer metal, will make that metal dearer still, while the decreased demand for the cheaper metal will make that metal cheaper still.

If on the other hand the debtor exercises the option, it is reasonable to suppose that he will pay in the cheaper metal, if one metal is perceptibly cheaper than the other; but the demand thus created for the cheaper metal will raise its price, while the lessened demand for the dearer metal will lower its price. In other words, when the creditor has the option, the metals are drawn apart; whereas when the debtor has the option the metals are held together. Society is therefore interested in having the option exercised by the debtor. Indeed, there can be no such thing as real bi-metallism, unless the option is exercised by the debtor. The right of the debtor to choose the coin in which payment shall be made extends to obligations from the Government as well as to contracts between individuals. A Government obligation is simply a debt due from all the people to one of the people, and it is impossible to justify a policy which makes the interests of the one person who holds the obligation superior to the rights of the many who must be taxed to pay it.

It is assumed by some that greenbacks and treasury notes are responsible for the recent drain upon the gold reserve; but Mr. Bryan denied this and declared that the true cause was that they were redeemed at the option of the holder of the notes and not at the option of the Government, and it is impossible to estimate the amount which may hereafter be issued if this policy is continued. The Bank of France exercises the right to redeem all bank paper in either gold or silver, and yet France maintains the parity between gold and silver at the ratio of 15 1-2 to 1, and retains in circulation more silver per capita than we do in the United States.

There is an actual necessity for bi-metallism, as well as theoretical defence of it. The restoration of bi-metallism in the United States will take away from gold just so much of its purchasing power as was added to it by the demonetization of silver by the United States. The silver dollar is now held up to the old dollar by legal tender laws and not by redemption in gold, because the standard silver dollar is now redeemable in gold, either in law or by administrative policy.

We contend that free and unlimited coinage by the United States alone will raise the bullion value of silver to its coinage value and thus make silver bullion worth $1.29 per ounce in gold throughout the world. Any purchaser who stands ready to take the entire supply of any given article at a certain price can prevent that article from falling below that price. So the Government can fix a price for gold and silver by creating a demand greater than the supply. Bi-metallists believe that several nations by entering into an agreement to coin at a fixed ratio all the gold and silver presented can maintain the bullion value of the metals at the mint ratio.

If our mints are opened to free and unlimited coinage at the present ratio, merchandise silver cannot come here, because the labor applied to it has made it worth more in the form of merchandise than it will be worth at our mints. Many fear that the opening of our mints will be followed by an enormous increase in the annual production of silver. This is conjecture. Silver has been used as money for thousands of years, and during all that time the world has never suffered from an overproduction. Since the gold price of silver has fallen more during the last five years than it ever fell in any previous five years in the history of the world, it is evident that the fall is not due to increased production. Prices can be lowered as effectually by decreasing the demand for an article as by increasing the supply of it, and it seems certain that the fall in the gold price of silver is due to hostile legislation, and not to natural laws.

The American people now owe a large sum to European creditors, and falling prices have left a larger and larger margin between our net national income and our annual interest charge. There is only one way to stop the increasing flow of gold from our shores, and that is to stop falling prices. The restoration of bi-metallism will stop falling prices by reducing the world's demand for gold.

Perhaps the most persistent misrepresentation that we have to meet is the charge that we are advocating the payment of debts in 50-cent dollars. Under bi-metallism, silver bullion will be worth as much as silver coin, just as gold bullion is now worth as much as gold coin, and we believe that a silver dollar will be worth as much as a gold dollar.

We are told that the restoration of bi-metallism would be a hardship upon those who have entered into contracts payable in gold coin, but this is a mistake. The money which is by law made a legal tender must in the course of ordinary business be accepted by 99 out of every 100 persons. Why should the hundredth man be permitted to exempt himself from the general rule? Have not the people a right to say that a comparatively few individuals shall not be permitted to derange the financial system of the nation in order to collect a premium in case they succeed in forcing one kind of money to a premium? The people who in 1776 rejected the doctrine that kings rule by divine right will not in this generation subscribe to a doctrine that money is omnipotent. We are not opposed to an international agreement looking to the restoration of bi-metallism throughout the world, but we are unwilling to await the pleasure of other Governments.

The gold standard has compelled the American people to pay an ever-increasing tribute to the creditor nations of the world. National honor requires the United States to secure justice for all its citizens, as well as do justice to all its creditors. For a people like ours, blessed with natural resources of surpassing richness, to proclaim themselves impotent to frame a financial system suited to their own needs, is humiliating beyond the power of language to describe.

Mr. Bryan closed with a greeting from the West to the East, and said he expected co-operation in the effort to bring about freedom of conscience, freedom of thought and freedom of speech. The United States should, he said, be an example in all that is good, and the leading spirit in every movement which has for its object the uplifting of the human race.

Governor Stone then formally notified Mr. Sewall of his nomination for the Vice-Presidency, and spoke briefly, after which the meeting closed.

A WHITE-HAIRED OLD SINNER.

Colin McIntosh Goes to Kingston Penitentiary for Two Years Reuben H. Tisdale Bilks.

St. Catharines, Aug. 12.—Colin McIntosh was this morning adjudged guilty of the crime charged against him and sentenced to two years in the Kingston Penitentiary. McIntosh is a white-haired old sinner, and he took his sentence stoically. When he was led downstairs he remarked to friends that he was innocent. "I will never get out of there," he said. "My health is very bad."

Reuben H. Tisdale was then placed in the prisoners' box and charged with the same crime on which McIntosh was convicted. The girl, Alice Marjoram, again took the stand, and testified positively that Tisdale attempted a criminal operation. Her evidence was not shaken by cross-examination. Three or four witnesses said Alice Marjoram had accosted them on the street and told them of her condition. The girl denied this, and Judge Senkler said he doubted the evidence of these men, and was tempted to order the arrest of one man, John Macdonald, for perjury. The Judge then sentenced Tisdale to two years in Kingston Penitentiary.

Tisdale was mixed up in the famous wheat-stealing case a few years ago, but got off.

Physicians Commence to Realise the Value of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

OTTAWA, Aug. 10.—The inveterate reluctance to admit the success of patent medicine usually evinced by physicians is rapidly giving way, so far as Dodd's Kidney Pills are concerned. The cases of Dr. Rose and Dr. McCormick, who published details of their recovery from diabetes and Bright's disease through the agency of this remedy, were the first attacks on the citadel of their skepticism and now it appears as if the remarkable recovery of Mr. G. H Kent, of this city, the details of which have been transmitted to the press, would complete what has been so auspiciously begun. The published interviews with Mr. and Mrs. Kent and the sworn statement of the former leaves no foothold for disbelief.

TEN YEARS TROUBLED

With Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia---Suffered Greatly and Found No Relief in the Scores of Medicines Prescribed.

South American Nervine Was Recommended, and Before Half a Bottle Was Taken Relief Came.

Have Since Improved Rapidly, and Am Now Completely Cured—So Says Mr. David Reid, of Chesley, Ont.

What ills come to humanity from a disordered liver! Henry Ward Beecher has said that it was impossible for a man to hold correct spiritual views if his liver was out of order. The liver is so important a part of the mechanism of man that when it ceases to work with ease the whole man is unable to do his work aright. Can we not appeal to thousands, nay, tens of thousands, for a verification of this fact? Certainly it is, that Mr. David Reid, of Chesley, Ont., felt that the enjoyment of life had been taken from him, through the unhealthy condition of his liver. For ten years he says he was troubled with liver complaint and dyspepsia. Employing his own language: "At times my liver was so tender I could not bear it pressed or touched from the outside. Had tried a great many remedies without any benefit. Was compelled to drop my work, and being worse than usual, I decided as a final resort to try South American Nervine, which had been recommended to me by friends who had been cured by it. I got a bottle from A. S. Goodeve, local druggist, and commenced taking according to directions. Before I had taken half a bottle I was able to go to work again, and I have improved steadily since. I can conscientiously recommend South American Nervine to any suffering from dyspepsia or liver complaint." This is Mr. Reid's story as he tells it in his own words. Were it thought necessary it could be corroborated by a host of witnesses. Mr. Reid has lived a long time in Chesley, and his case was known to be a very bad one. But that makes no difference to Nervine. This great discovery rises equal to the most trying occasions. Let it be indigestion, the most chronic liver trouble, as with Mr. Reid, nervous prostration, that makes life miserable with so many, sick headaches, that sap all the effort out of man or woman, Nervine measures to the necessities of the case. It is a great medicine and thousands to-day in Canada are happier and healthier men and women, because of its discovery. There is no great secret about it, and yet there is an important secret. It operates on the nerve centers of the system from which emanate all life and healthfulness, or if disordered, sickness, even death. Nervine strikes promptly at the nerve centers, hence, as with Mr. Reid, where ten years' use of other medicines had done no good, less than a bottle of Nervine brought about encouraging results, and a few bottles cured.

Stolen Property Restored.

Some weeks ago the EXAMINER recorded the fact that during the absence of the family in the old country, Mr. Geo. Dunford's residence, Simcoe street, was entered by thieves. All that the police could at the time discover had been taken was some cutlery. However, upon his arrival home, Mr. Dunford found that some wearing apparel had been stolen; though it had been discarded the clothing was not at all bad. However, this morning the clothing was found in a bundle at the back door, the thief's or thieves conscience or the fear of discovery if found wearing it, evidently suggesting the restoration of the purloined wearing apparel. If the play of conscience would bring about the return of the cutlery, Mr. Dunford would willingly allow the thief or thieves to keep the old clothes.

PORT HOPE BICYCLE RACES.

The Peterborough Boys do Well—Little Won From Blayney.

Port Hope's first bicycle meet proved to be a success. The three-mile handicap was the event of the day, Blayney winning from scratch in the fast time of 7.46, which is pretty close to record. As will be seen Peterborough did well. In the morning a baseball game between Cobourg and Port Hope resulted in favour of Port Hope by 9 runs to 2. Summaries:—

Novice, 1 mile—C. Richardson, Toronto, 1; W. Gordon, Peterborough, 2; C. A. Foot, Cobourg, 3. Time, 2.58 1 5.

1 mile, open—A. F. Little, Peterborough, 1; R. O. Blanyney, Simcoe, 2; M. G. Walker, Peterborough, 3. Time, 2.50 1 5.

3 mile handicap—R. O. Blayney, Simcoe, scratch, 1; H. E. Beemer, W.B.C., Toronto, 65 yards, 2; A. F. Little, Peterborough, 75 yards, 3. Limit man, 250 yards. Seventeen entries. Time, 2.46 2 5.

1 mile, open, amateur—H. G. Beemer, W. B. C., Toronto, 1; A. F. Little, Peterborough, 2. Time, 1.16.

Two-mile, professional — Entries, Roy Gordon, Cecil Elliott, J. H. Gratz and Angus McLeod—McLeod, 1; Gordon, 2. Time, 5 27. In the first heat of this race the riders all had a spill, but Gratz got on his wheel and finished, and as the time was over the limit the race had to be run over, and in the second Gratz and Elliott being hurt could not enter. Cecil Elliott of the Gendron team was taken very sick on the track and is now confined to his room at the Queen's Hotel.

The Toronto Globe, in reference to the spill, says:—

"It was a bad spill that Elliott, McLeod and Gratz had in the two-mile open at Port Hope, and the first-named was rather severely cut up and shocked. The track is a five and one-half lap affair, insufficiently banked and at the turn out of the home stretch on the last quarter of the race the trio got going at a high rate of speed and all fell. McLeod mounted and tried to finish on one pedal, but was passed by Gratz, who was placed on his wheel by bystanders. Elliott had to be assisted off the track.

AN AUGUST WEDDING.

Celebration of the Douglas-Cunningham Nuptials.

A pretty wedding took place last evening at the residence of the bride's uncle, Mr. Adam Thompson, Otonabee, when Miss Jennie Douglas, daughter of the late Mr. Thomas Douglas, of Algoma, formerly of Peterborough, was united in marriage to Mr. John J. Cunningham, of 13 Division street, son of Mr. John M. Cunningham.

Rev. J. J. Rae performed the ceremony and the bride was assisted by Miss M. McWha, of Ashburnham, and Miss Jennie Thompson, of Hiawatha.

The groomsman was Mr. W. H. Cunningham, brother of the groom.

The bride was most tastily costumed in a pretty steel grey silk gown with garniture of cream lace and ribbons and wore a hat to match.

A very dainty repast followed the ceremony, after which the wedding party drove into town and an informal reception was held at No. 13 Division street, their future residence.

INDEPENDENT ORDER OF ODDFELLOWS.

Meeting of the Grand Lodge at Sarnia.

RECORD OF THE ORDER.

Reports of the Various Executive Officers—One of the Most Important Meetings that the Society has yet Held—Full List of Representatives in Attendance.

The forty-second annual session of the Grand Lodge of Ontario, Independent Order of Oddfellows, was opened in Sarnia yesterday, and the city is offering a royal welcome to the hosts of representatives in attendance. No more fitting place could have been selected in which to hold the meeting, and the members of the Grand Lodge are assured of an enjoyable as well as a profitable time during the continuance of their labours. Many of the buildings have been gaily decorated in honour of the occasion, and with the presence of so many visitors the thoroughfares are more than usually lively and populous. Yesterday's session, which was concluded at 12 o'clock, was occupied with preliminary business, and the afternoon was spent in a pleasant excursion on the water aboard the steamer O. D. Conger, at the invitation of the local lodges. Thursday morning the business to be transacted will be taken up in earnest, and Grand Lodge will adjourn on Friday night. The present will be one of the most important, if indeed, not the most important, yet held in the history of the order in this Province. A large amount of business work, much of it affecting the of the organization, will be done. The order has attained such dimensions and has become so important, financially and otherwise, that a vast amount of labour and responsibility rests with the officers, and the admirable manner in which they have conducted the affairs entrusted to their charge shows the life and energy which animates this powerful body and the skill and judgment possessed by the men who form its head. Never were the officers of organizations in better order than they are to day; never did Oddfellowship in America give a better account of itself than it will at its present convention. Its progress, numerically and financially, during the past year is in accord with the splendid history of its progressive march. The following Grand officers are in attendance, together with 330 representatives:—Thomas Woodyatt, Grand Master, Brantford; Henry White, Deputy Grand Master, Port Hope; J. A. Young, Grand Warden, Thamesford; J. B. King, Grand Secretary, Toronto; William Badenach, Grand Treasurer, Toronto; John Donogh, Grand Representative, Buffalo; Rev. T. W. Jolliffe, Grand Representative, Campbellford; R. Mead, Grand Marshall, Port Dover; Alex. McFarlane, Grand Conductor, Otterville; Fred Gallagher, Grand Guardian, Ottawa; Stephen Springer, Grand Herald, Elora; Rev. James McFarlane, Grand Chaplain, Warkworth; W. H. Hovle, Junior Past Grand Master, Cannington; Joseph Powley, Journal Secretary, Napinee.

THE REPORT OF THE GRAND MASTER

is important in many respects and not least so because it contains so many decisions given during the year on matters of interest to subordinate lodges. It states that five new lodges were added to the roll. The Rebekah branch of the order had also been prosperous, as was evidenced by the establishment of seven new lodges. The official visits made during the year to subordinate lodges were then referred to. Among the decisions rendered attention is directed to the following:—If a brother is in arrears and not entitled to sick benefits, he is only entitled to attentive benefits, and the lodge fund cannot be drawn upon to pay for nurse hire. There is no provision, nor have I any discretion, to admit any person under twenty-one years of age to membership in a lodge. A Grand Lodge cannot confer upon Rebekah assemblies power to institute and charter Rebekah lodges. A brother is eligible for representation to the Grand Lodge when he has completed his term as Noble Grand and was installed as Sitting Past Grand. Any member holding a visiting card shall have the privilege of applying for membership in any lodge without first applying for a withdrawal card from the lodge in which membership is held. I am of the opinion that it would not be a contravention of the regulations requiring lodges loaning funds to members by making a loan to the wife of a member on the security of mortgage on real estate owned by her, although I question the advisability of so doing, as it might give rise to questions of diverse interest in the event of default being made in payment. Question—Is a man who owns a building used as a hotel eligible for membership, whether he conducts the business himself or not? Answer—Yes. Question—If he attends his own bar occasionally is he eligible? Answer—Yes. I think that if a man's business or occupation is that of a bartender or saloonkeeper he is excluded, but the restriction does not apply where the business or occupation is occasional only. The enactment being new, there is a wide field for difference of opinion on its interpretation. The report says in reference to the resolution adopted at the last session of the Grand Lodge to the effect that endeavours should be made to have it unnecessary that the words "assessment system" be printed on the lodge papers—that Dr. J. Howard Hunter, Registrar of Friendly Societies, had declared the words necessary. It was further stated that an appeal has been taken in the case of Dale v. Weston Lodge. In this case the widow made a claim against the lodge for benefits which the lodge would not recognize, claiming that as the husband was not in good standing at the time of death, being in arrears for dues, they were not liable. Suit was entered in the High Court of Justice for Ontario, and the action resulted in a judgment being rendered for the full amount claimed by the widow. As the decision was one which would affect all lodges, an appeal was taken after consultation.

Reports of districts were then submitted and the recommendations made then will be discussed during the progress of the session.

The reports of the Grand Secretary, Grand Treasurer and Committee on General Purposes were then submitted, as follows:—

SECRETARY'S REPORT.

The report of the Grand Secretary, J. B. King, Toronto, was a highly satisfactory and encouraging document. It was with pleasure, he said, that he presented this annual report at the close of his thirtieth year as Grand Secretary. He had to return his hearty thanks for the kindnesses and courtesies extended to him in the discharge of his duties in those thirty eventful years of the order. From a handful, as it was then, it has grown, until now it was an army. During last year the exchange of journals of proceedings with sister jurisdictions had been conducted as hitherto, and nearly all journals received indicated that the year had been more than usually prosperous to the order. The report then deals with many matters of detail and routine. Continuing it states that during the year six subordinate lodges and seven Rebekah lodges had been instituted. Several amendments to the bylaws were suggested. Among the recommendations was the following: "The Deputy Grand Master shall act as the assistant of the Grand Master during the absence of the Grand Master from this jurisdiction, or when he may be under charges duly preferred, or during the incapacity of the Grand Master arising from illness, or any other cause, the Deputy Grand Master shall be invested with all his powers. In the event of his death, resignation or removal from office of the Grand Master, the Deputy Grand Master shall become Grand Master, until the next regular session of the Grand Lodge thereafter, and he shall be entitled to the honours of the office for that term."

A design for an emblem to be used exclusively by the order was submitted for approval. The total expenditure, the report stated, of the order in Ontario by all its branches for sick benefits, death indemnity, special relief, widows' and orphans' benefits, since 1856 up to 31st December, 1895, 39 years, aggregated the great sum of $1,007,859.89, and is made up as follows:—Paid by subordinate lodges, benefits and relief, $1,067.-289 32; paid by subordinate encampments, $41,332.66; Oddfellows' Relief Association, death claims paid, $4,34,937; Oddfellows' Relief Association, disability claims paid, $8,400; Mutual Aid Association of London, death claims paid, $703; Oddfellows' Funeral Aid Association of Lincoln and Welland, death claims paid, $5,157.91. The Oddfellows' Relief Association was granted a renewal of its certificate, having paid the required fee, $10, and submitted all the reports and statements required by law. The Grand Secretary was pleased to state that the relief association was doing and has done great service to the order, not only in providing insurance for its members at the most reasonable rates, but by its liberality in admitting new members to the benefit of the association.

THE FINANCES.

The report of the Grand Treasurer, Wm. Badenach, presented a statement of the receipts and disbursements for the year ending 31st December, 1895, and also a supplementary report of receipts and orders paid from Jan. 1st, 1896, to July 30th, 1896, the balance on hand at the last date named being $10,393. The receipts for the fiscal year were $14,077,02, and the expenditure $12,409.18, leaving a balance of $1,667.84. The receipts during the period from December 31st, 1895, to July 30th, 1896, were $14,041 18, and the expenditures, $3,648.00. Tables accompanying the report give an epitome of the results of the year 1895, with totals and averages in groups of 24 lodges, and is a striking example of the fact of increasing demands for sick benefits as the lodges and their members grow older; the first 24 lodges having an average of more than a week's sickness per member. It cost on the average $2 35 per member to pay $3.62½ per week sick benefits during 1895.

STATISTICS.

The statistical report of the Grand Encampment showed the following state of affairs:—

Number of members as per last report, 3,472; initiated during the year ending December 31, 1895, 252; admitted by card, 28; reinstated, 27. Total, 3,779. From which deduct:—Withdrawn by card, 33; suspended for non-payment of dues, 509; expelled, 2; deceased, 36. Total in membership December 31, 1895, 3,499. Number of patriarchs relieved, 324; number of weeks sickness for which benefits were paid, 1,759; amount paid for burying the dead, $35; amount paid for special relief, $166; amount of relief to widowed families, $15; amount paid for the relief of patriarchs, $3,087.44. Total amount of relief, $3 584.19. Invested funds of subordinates, $20,567.41; total amount of annual revenue, $10,326.77.

Ivorine for the Teeth

Asks only a trial. Boasting will not whiten teeth; Ivorine for the teeth does. Extravagant claims will not render the breath sweet and fragrant; Ivorine never fails to do this. Ivorine for the teeth asks you for an opportunity to demonstrate its value. Dentists have affirmed it and the public corroborate professional opinion, but do you know as every tooth loving man or woman ought to know, Ivorine for the teeth is the best.

Sleeplessness, Mental and Physical Fatigue

Go hand in hand. The waste of the body that ought to be restored by rest and sleep suffers increasing diminution; then loss of strength and vigor of body and mind follows. It is in this class of diseases that the marvellous properties of Maltine with Coca Wine are most markedly exhibited. It penetrates to the very sources of vital action, inasmuch as the nerve centres are impressed by its medicinal power and the digestive functions stimulated to increased and more efficient action. This imparts to the whole system the much needed impetus, the nerves are soothed from a state of irritability to one of repose—sleep with all its beneficent influences, comes back to lend its aid in the process of restoration. Digestion keeps pace with the improvement of appetite, and in a short time the nervous, miserable sufferer regains his old-time vigor and the capability to enjoy life and all it affords. Maltine with Coca Wine is sold by all druggists.

THE WHEEL.

The engine and tender which paced Anderson at St. Louis on Sunday is given as Bluff Line, No. 7, the fastest engine that runs out of St Louis. It record is 80 miles an hour. It is virtually a double engine, as the two sides are operated independently. Two smoke stacks are necessary for the big iron horse. The driving wheels are over six feet in height. The coach is an ordinary one, and such as is used in every day traffic over the road. It was taken out of regular service for this event only. Down the centre of the track was painted a white line on a black ground, as a mark for the rider to guide himself by. The white line was four inches wide, and could be plainly seen by Anderson even while going at his greatest speed. Fastened to the car's special platform was an iron guard of half an inch in diameter, which projected out about two feet. This was arranged so that if Anderson rode too near the coach the steering post of his bicycle would hit it, and he would be held back, thus avoiding the certainty of an awful accident should his front wheel strike the planks. The track over which the test was made was two miles long and was made of two inch pine planks, rendered as smooth as carpenters' work could make them, laid end to end between the rails. The reasons for Anderson's failure to accomplish the feat is attributed entirely to the pacing. The engine, it is said, did not mainain regular speed for the mile.

T. B. McCarthy will run up against all the cracks at the Sarnia meet on Wednesday, and then he will have an opportunity to prove the truth of the extravagant statements that his friends have been making about him on the strength of his performances at the Island last Monday. McCarthy is easily the best all-round rider in the country, if not in America. There are few riders that can get out and reel off twenty miles on the road in record time and on the next day show his heels to all the fast sprinters on the track, as McCarthy has done in the past.

Many riders have started into training for the R. Q. T. road race next month. This event this year will bring out all the road pluggers in the country to fight for the piano and horses and other trophies which will be hung up.

Believing that he has overtaxed his powers, Harley Davidson will lay off for a week to recuperate. He was plainly not himself on Monday, and the rest will undoubtedly do him a world of good. He will probably put in his time at Sarnia.

The outcome of the match race between Loughead and McLeod at Sarnia on Wednesday is puzzling all the wiseacres. Loughead will ride at the Louisville meet to-day and to morrow, and as he will have to make quick connections to arrive at Sarnia in time to keep his engagement, McLeod ought to beat him, as the travelling is not calculated to do him any good.

THE TURF.

No less than four trotters gained new records below 2.10 at the Columbus meeting, while nearly every pacer that won a heat during the week was forced to beat this once wonderful rate of speed. Bessie Wilton, who gained a record of 2.09¼ in the 2.19 class for trotters, is a four year old by Wilton. Kalamath cut his Cleveland record of 2.08¼ to 2.07½, Kentucky Union lowered her Joliet mark of 2.09¼ to 2.08¼, and the California horse, James L. by Dexter Prince, entered the 2.10 list by trotting a mile in 2.09½. His previous record was 2.11¼, made in 1895.

When any part of the body isn't doing the work that nature intended it to do, it puts the whole system out of tune—out of harmony. When children stand a row of bricks on end, they knock the whole row down by upsetting one brick. That is exactly what happens to the health when the bowels fail to perform their proper function. Constipation makes trouble all along the line—puts the liver out of order, is bad for the kidneys—bad for the stomach. It holds in the body poisonous matter, and because it cannot go any place else, it gets into the blood. The blood carries it all over the system. That makes sluggishness, lassitude, bad breath and foul taste in the mouth, fills the stomach with gas and causes windy belching, stops digestion in the stomach, causes sour stomach, heartburn and headache. You can avoid all such trouble, for Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets CURE constipation and its attendant evils.

Send 31 cents in one cent stamps to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N.Y., for his "Medical Adviser." It is a book of 1008 pages, profusely illustrated.

THE ELECTION PROTESTS GO ON.

Justice Ferguson Decides That They Were Entered with the Proper Officer—An Appeal to the Supreme Court.

(Special to the Examiner.)

TORONTO, Aug. 13.—Justice Ferguson this afternoon gave judgment on the preliminary objections to the election protests in West Toronto and London. He found that Mr. Holmstead, registrar of the Chancery Division, with whom the petitions were filed, was the proper officer with whom to file the petitions, and therefore dismissed both motions to have the petitions set aside.

LATER.

Mr. Bristol, for the respondents in the petitions, gave notice that he would appeal to the Supreme Court of Canada against the decision.

[NOTE—If the judgment of Mr. Justice Ferguson is sustained, all the eleven protests entered in Ontario will go to trial. The Toronto and London cases were brought as test cases and the decision in regard to them will affect all the others which were similarly entered, that is, with Mr. Holmstead, of the Chancery Division.—ED. PREPARE TO SHIVER.

Mr. E. Stone Wiggins Talks About the Weather.

"Cold winds and rains" are now in order within the next few days, according to the prognostication of Professor E. Stone Wiggins.

Mr. Wiggins so expressed himself yesterday morning.

He does not think that there is anything unusual about the present hot weather. It is just one of the usual hot spells that come every summer, and is no hotter, and the heat has not been more prolonged

"The public have very poor memories about weather at least," said Mr. Wiggins. "They were shivering in a cold rain only a few days ago, and now, when there has been hot weather for a few days people think that they have been sweltering in abnormal heat for a long time. But we will have a change within the next couple of days, with cold rains and winds.

"No," replied Mr. Wiggins to the reporter's query, "there are no unusual causes for the present heat—just an ordinary hot spell."

Mr. Wiggins thinks that on the whole the summer has been a rather cool one.

IN MEMORIAM

Of Thos. Humphries, who Died July 26th, 1896.

We laid him in his narrow bed,
Our friend and brother dear,
The parting word has now been said,
We'll see him no more here.

Only a few short days he stayed
After that cruel fall;
We prayed the stroke might be delayed
That took him from us all.

But God in His own wisdom knows
Whatever is, is best,
And in His special care are those
Who are so sore bereft.

His little son will never know
A father's loving care,
But his poor wife feels keen the blow
And weeps in her despair.

Dear Tom, we mourn for him each day
On life's temptuous road,—
His cheerful smile and pleasant way
Has lightened many a load.

But though our hearts are filled with woe,
And tears oft dim our eyes,
We hope, when Jesus bids us go,
To meet him in the skies.

GOOD ENDORSERS.

Every business man understands that no matter how valuable the signature on a note may be, his confidence is greatly increased if the note is well endorsed.

This is equally true of articles other than notes. It is particularly true of pianos. The musical public always likes to know if a piano is well endorsed.

The Mason & Risch Piano is undoubtedly endorsed by more eminent names than any other instrument made in Canada. Here are a few of them:—

Madame Albani
Sir A. C. McKenzie (Principal Royal College of Music)
Dr. Bridge (Organist Westminster Abbey)
Otto Bendix
Frederick Archer
Mrs. Longmore
Franz Lizst
F. H. Torrington
S. P. Warren
Edouard Remenyi
W. Waugh Lauder
Signor D'Auria
Watkins Mills
Edouard Scharff

These are but few of the many eminent admirers of our pianos. We could go on and fill a column but we think this enough to establish our claim to be well endorsed.

An examination of our instruments is cordially solicited no matter how remote your idea of purchase may be.

Our prices are reasonable, quality considered, and our terms elastic enough to suit anyone.

MICKS & COX,

Froebel, the great promotor of the kindergarten system of teaching children said: "Let parents not live for their children, but with them." The mother who understands this sentiment lives with, even her unborn child. She studies to be wise about herself and the little life she is fostering. She does all she can to give her child a fair start in life, by giving it a strong well developed body. All through babyhood, childhood and youth she lives with her son or her daughter. Especially her daughter she will keep near her. She will allow no false modesty to stand in the way of that daughter's knowledge of herself, of her possibilities, of her perils. She will teach her that happy, healthful motherhood is an honor, a blessing. That sickness is a mistake, a breaking of nature's law. But there are times of unavoidable overdoing when the system becomes run-down.

For over thirty years Dr. Pierce has used his "Favorite Prescription" as a strengthener, a purifier, a regulator. It works directly upon the delicate, distinctly feminine organs, in a natural, soothing way. It searches out the weak spots; and builds them up. It is beneficial in any state of the system. A woman who would understand herself will find an able assistant by sending 31 cents to the World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y., for Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. It is a book that has reached its 680th thousand. It contains in its 1008 pages an immense store of information in plain words that any person will readily understand.

Ma. O. G. Spear, of Sand Bank, Oswego Co., New York, testifies in this wise: "Our first child was born before my wife was sixteen years old. Afterward her health was very poor. She tried Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. She gained flesh and strength by using two bottles. During the last few weeks of her second pregnancy she again used the "Prescription." Her confinement was a rapid and easy one, and she got up strong and well."

DID 20 MEET DEATH?

A Disastrous Fire in New York—Explosions Cut Off All Possible Means of Escape.

New York, Aug. 11.—It is believed that about 20 persons were burned to death in a fire which broke out shortly before 3 o'clock this afternoon in the six-storey brick building at 465 and 467 Greenwich-street, occupied by the A. K. Warren Electrical Works. What caused the fire is not known, but a few minutes after the outbreak several explosions occurred, which cut off the escape of many of those in the building. A man's body could be seen on the fire escape of the fourth floor. About 50 men were working in the building, and it is not believed that more than 30 escaped. Two men who got out of the building were so badly burned that they had to be taken to the Hudson-street Hospital.

CROPS IN THE STATES.

The Cotton Crop Has Suffered Greatly From Hot Winds.

Washington, Aug. 11.—The weather bulletin for the week ended yesterday says: Intense heat and general lack of rain, conditions which characterized the preceding week in the Southern States, have continued during the week ending Aug. 10, and have affected the principal crops in that section very unfavorably. While the week has been excessively warm throughout most of the country east of the Rocky Mountains, the injurious effects of the heat upon crops have been largely confined to the Southern States, and cotton is the crop that has suffered to the greatest extent. Late corn has been injured to some extent by hot winds in portions of Kansas and Southwest Nebraska, and in the southern portions of Missouri and Illinois it is suffering from drought. Generally throughout the Southern States corn has not made favorable progress during the week, but in the great corn states of the central valleys and northwest, the crops are maturing rapidly under most favorable conditions, and much of the early planted corn as far north as Iowa will be made by Sept. 1, much earlier than usual. The general condition of tobacco is promising. The crop is much in advance of the season and cutting is now in progress in Ohio, Pennsylvania and New England.

Opposition to Mr. Blair.

St. John, N.B., Aug. 11.—At a Conservative convention at Gagetown to-day, R. D. Wilmot was chosen to oppose Hon. Mr. Blair, Minister of Railways, in Queen's-Sudbury. George F. Baird, the late Conservative member, opposed opposition to Blair at the present time, but Hon. Mr. Foster insisted on a contest and carried the day. Mr. Baird then left the convention.

ABOUT THE LIVER.

A lazy, slow or torpid liver influences the whole system, causing biliousness, sick headache, sallow complexion, languor and dullness. Burdock Blood Bitters regulates the liver, purifies the secretions and cures all forms of liver troubles. We say so and here is the proof:—

I hereby wish to thank you for the great benefit derived by me from your Burdock Blood Bitters. For three years I was troubled with liver complaint and tried everything to no purpose. I had almost given up hope until one day I determined to try Burdock Blood Bitters. I can say now that marked improvement resulted from the use of the first bottle and at the end of the sixth bottle I discontinued its use, being completely cured.

DO THE PROTESTS DRO?

Justice Ferguson Will Give His Decision on Lawyer Bristol's Application at Osgoode Hall To-Day.

Toronto, Aug. 12.

At Osgoode Hall yesterday Barrister Edmund Bristol pleaded to have the protests against Major Beattie of London and Messrs. Osler and Clarke of West Toronto set aside. Mr. Douglas appeared for the London petitioners, and Mr. F. K. Denton for Librarian Preston's backers.

Mr. Bristol based his motion on the ground that the petitions were filed with Mr. Holmested, a registrar and accountant of the High Court of Justice, and that he was not the proper person, not the "Clerk of the Crown," within the meaning of the statute, provided for the presenting of petitions.

The arguments, which were elaborate and occupied several hours, centered upon the statutes and rules of the court.

Hon. Justice Ferguson had not prepared his judgment last night, but he will read his written decision on the cases this afternoon.

No matter what the finding is this will not be the end of the cases, for both sides say if the judgment goes against them they will appeal to the Divisional Court.

THEY WANT McCARTHY TO SAY

Whether He Intends to Resign His Seat for Brandon Mr. Sifton's Name Still Mentioned for a Portfolio.

Winnipeg, Aug. 11.—(Special.)—The Brandon Liberals, who elected D'Alton McCarthy, are eager to discover whether he intends resigning the Brandon seat, but can get no satisfaction from him. Attorney-General Sifton, who in reality won Brandon for Mr. McCarthy, has gone east to have a consultation with him and after this conference there may be some announcement.

The impression still prevails that Mr. Sifton will stand for Brandon as Minister of the Interior.

BILLY BRYAN IN NEW YORK.

The Free Silver Shouter Receives a Cordial Reception From Many Admirers in Gotham.

New York, Aug. 11.—Candidate W. J. Bryan arrived in this city to-night. He reached Jersey City over the Pennsylvania Railway at 8.10 o'clock, and was driven to the residence of William P. St. John, 121 East 34th-street, where he and Mrs. Bryan passed the night. Although Mr. Bryan had expressly requested that there should be no public demonstration, he was received by a large crowd, both at Jersey City and on the New York side. Long before the hour at which the train was scheduled to arrive the Pennsylvania station in Jersey City was crowded with persons anxious to catch a glimpse of the apostle of free silver. Sixty policemen took charge of the crowd, and were busy in keeping them from crowding against the gates. As it was, many of them climbed on the gates and cheered for Bryan.

THE TURKISH DEVILS

Are Now Wreaking Their Vengeance on the Unfortunate Cretans—8000 Refugees Flee From Their Fury.

London, Aug. 11.—The Daily News will to-morrow publish a despatch from Athens saying that there are now about 9000 Cretan refugees at the Piraeus, the port of Athens whither they fled to escape the fury of the Turks. These people are fed by the Government, which also finds quarters for them. Arrangements are being made to distribute them among the provincial towns. The despatch adds that six more villages in the vicinity of Canea, the principal town of Crete, are reported to have been sacked and burned by the Turks.

To Protect the Unfortunates.

London, Aug. 11.—The Chronicle will to-morrow say there is reason to believe that Great Britain and Russia have arrived or are arriving at an understanding to save the Armenians and Cretans from further outrages by the Turks. France, it is said, concurs in the arrangement, which provides that a British fleet shall protect Crete, and that Russia will send military residents to the principal towns of Armenia, keeping an army within their call.

TWO INSTANTLY KILLED.

A Hand Car Carrying Five Men Jumped the Track on a Trestle and Fell Fifty Feet.

Winchester, Ky., Aug. 11.—A hand-car on the Lexington & Eastern Railroad, containing Section Foreman J. H. Quinlan and four men, jumped the track on the Walker Creek trestle yesterday and dropped on the rocks 50 feet below. Edward Sparks and Marion Chattman were instantly killed. John Chattman was horribly mangled and cannot live. Foreman Quinlan and his son Michael Quinlan were seriously injured.

FOR THE PUBLIC GOOD.

Mrs. Liscumbe Makes a Statement for the Benefit of Others.

Mrs. Liscumbe is well known in Havelock and this is how she spoke to our representative:—

"I have been troubled for some time with severe pains in the side and back. I took many medicines of various kinds, but got no relief.

"The box of Doan's Kidney Pills which I got at W. H. Jeff & Co's. drugstore gave me wonderful relief from the start. The improvement in my general health is not the least of the benefits which I have derived from the use of this remarkable kidney remeny.

"I can recommend them very highly to anyone troubled with any form of kidney disease."

ONE HONEST MAN.

DEAR EDITOR:—Please inform your readers, that if written to confidentially will mail, in a sealed letter, particulars of a genuine, honest home cure, by which I was permanently restored to health and manly vigor after years of suffering from nervous debility, sexual weakness, night losses and weak, shrunken parts. I have nothing to sell and want no money, but being a firm believer in the universal brotherhood of man, I am desirous of helping the unfortunate to regain their health and happiness, I promise you perfect secrecy and as I do not wish to expose myself either, please address, simply: P. THE MACHINE WENT WRONG

And Herr Lilienthal, Who Thought He Could Fly, Met His Death.

Berlin, Aug. 11.—Herr Lilienthal, an engineer, who for many years was experimenting in the building of flying machines, met with an accident to-day that resulted in his death. He started with one of his machines to fly from a hilltop at Rhinow, near Berlin. The apparatus worked all right for a few minutes and Lilienthal flew quite a distance, when suddenly the machine got out of order and man and machine fell to the ground. Lilienthal was so badly injured that he died soon afterwards.

London, Aug. 11.—Sir Donald A. Li Hung Chang accepted the invitation, and added that he had been looking forward to a visit to Canada with great interest.

Nervous debility is a common complaint, especially among women. The best medical treatment for this disorder is a persistent course of Ayer's Sarsaparilla to cleanse and invigorate the blood. This being accomplished, nature will do the rest.

It certainly spoils half the pleasure of a boating trip of any kind when the dampness or crushing ruins the style of your once jaunty suit. This never happens when a Fibre Chamois interlining is used because no amount of moisture, creasing or hard usage can take the stiffness out of it. Skirts and sleeves made on it have all the style and grace of the first day of wear right through the whole season. These points, as well as its extra light weight, have made it the only popular interlining for all kinds of outing suits.

But buy Fibre Chamois, the genuine goods, with the label on every yard, because its many worthless imitations always give disappointing results.

Nervous Prostration

Complete Recovery by the Use of

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"Some years ago, as a result of too close attention to business, my health failed. I became weak, nervous, was unable to look after my interests, and manifested all the symptoms of a decline. I took three bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, began to improve at once, and gradually increased my weight from one hundred and twenty-five to two hundred pounds. Since then, I and my family have used this medicine when needed, and we are all in the best of health, a fact which we attribute to Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I believe my children would have been fatherless to-day had it not been for Ayer's Sarsaparilla, of which preparation I cannot say too much."—H. O. Hixson, Postmaster and Planter, Kinard's, S. C.

BY ROYAL AUTHORITY.

The Law Regarding Tradesmen's Display of the Arms.

Every Canadian who has visited Europe will recall to mind the fact that a large number of the shops in the leading thoroughfares of the various cities are adorned with coats of arms of royal personages. Thus, in London there are at least sixty of the stores in Bond street that have either the three feathers of the Prince of Wales or the armorial bearing of Queen Victoria emblazoned on their windows and on their billheads, while the same coats of arms are to be found over the entrances of many of the principal stores of Unter den Linden, at Berlin, and on the Graben at Vienna.

A very widespread impression prevails even in Europe that any tradesman who pleases may ornament his shop and his billheads in this fashion, while there are others who imagine that a mere chance visit and a single purchase on the part of a royal personage is sufficient to authorise the shop keeper to assume the coat of arms of the illustrious customer in question, and to entitle himself "purveyor to his or her royal highness."

This belief has been rudely dispelled in London by the arrest of a large number of tradesmen for having assumed and used the royal arms so as to deceive and lead to the belief that the businesses were carried on under royal authority. The magistrate let them off with a fine of $100 apiece and costs, intimating to them that on the next offence of the same kind the penalty would mean imprisonment. In Berlin and in Vienna the authorities are even still more severe and the fines, which are much heavier, are invariably accompanied by a sentence of imprisonment.

The only people in trade who have the right to use the royal arms are those who have received from the chief of a royal household a duly stamped and sealed warrant appointing them purveyors to the royal personage in question. Thus, all the shop-keepers who are authorized to use the crest and armorial bearings of the Prince of Wales have warrants signed and sealed by the comptroller of his household, Gen. Sir Dighton Probyn. In the same way the warrants of purveyors to Emperor William are signed and sealed by Count Eulenburg. These warrants are usually framed and hung up in the shop windows, and when ever the royal or imperial arms are used without the display of the warrant, it may be taken for granted on general principles that the shopkeeper is intentionally deceiving his customers, and as such is unworthy of confidence.

IN THE ENGLISH WAY

LEGISLATION AS INITIATED IN THE "TIGHT LITTLE ISLAND."

Interesting Comparison Which Throws Light on British Conservatism—An Apparent Change of Method Becomingly Being Introduced by Trades Unions.

If we perceive an abuse we make just sufficient change to get rid of it, not caring in the least, for example, that the monarch possesses a legal veto, but only making it impossible that a minister should on any occasion advise the monarch to exercise his legal power. Powers, in fact, do not frighten us at all, and we never withdraw them until they are misused. It would drive a Frenchman frantic to think that an Archbishop of Canterbury could, merely as archbishop, make doctors of medicine at discretion; but as the archbishops never misuse that very funny prerogative the Englishman does not care.

This temper, of course, produces conservatism of a kind, a conservatism, however, consistent with great boldness in experiment. The Englishman gropes his way very cautiously, sometimes even timidly, but if his object is far off he will go on steadily for very long distances. He wanted in 1688 to put Parliament above the throne once for all, and so, though he refused to modify the prerogative, and would not even hear of a Republic, he in the most commonplace way, as if he were modifying copyhold tenure, just invented a legal fiction, and—changed the dynasty.

He would not for worlds declare that women ought to have all the legal freedom of men; but the other day it occurred to him that it was "a great shame" that marriage should dispossess women of their property; so almost in silence, without the slightest idea of doing anything dramatic, he made women, as regards property, the equals of men—perhaps the greatest social revolution ever carried without a fight. Yet he will not admit women to all the professions, or allow them to claim university degrees; but opens one door after another when passage is strongly asked for, and allows the women to obtain the "equivalent of degrees"—that is, allows them intellectual rank without the power of governing universities, which might be inconvenient. As regards property, the end could not be reached without a big change, so he made the big change; but as regards the professions, the end can, he thinks, be reached by piecemeal reforms, so he doles out rights by the cup.

He has, in fact, none of the discontent with intellectual imperfectness which marks the Frenchman, but just remedies the concrete abuse, leaving the abstract wrong to sulk if it likes in the corner, where it is in nobody's way. The truth is he considers that the one test of an institution, or a law, or a line of action is result, and if he approves the result is perfectly contented. So fixed is this idea in his mind that he even applies it to creeds, and considers Macaulay perfectly sensible when he exhibits, as proof positive that Protestantism is more right than Catholicism, the fact that a Protestant canton in Switzerland is usually more prosperous than a Catholic one. How can there be better evidence, says the Englishman, though he hears every week of places where the wicked flourish like a green bay tree.

We wish very much that the Bishop of Peterborough, with his unsurpassed knowledge of English history and his obvious interest in the recesses of the English character, would tell us what he thinks have been and are the usual English ends. He seems to say all through his lecture that the principal end of an Englishman is, not to be interfered with; but is that quite true as regards the nation? We are not quite sure. The people, no doubt, invented the phrase, "An Englishman's house is his castle," they have never borne for long a disciplinary church, and they have always appeared intolerant of police supervision, while they reject with anger that claim of "the family" to interfere with the individual which is the very basis and buttress of the continental systems of social life.

All the same the English bore for years the most interfering system of taxation ever devised—nobody under sixty now knows what the old laws of taxation were or their pressure on general life—they submit to the most abominable interference from their trade unions, and they are betraying, as power passes to lower and lower strata of the people, a perfect passion for the "inspection" and "supervision," that is interference, which on the continent they denounce. They like to be independent, we allow, but there are sharp and sometimes narrow limits to that desire, which, indeed, they give up whenever they feel that they want protection. We should say ourselves, if we were compelled to define the essence of the English character in a phrase, that they "wanted to be comfortable with a clear conscience"—the reason why they have invented their queer secondary creed, respectability.—London Spectator.

Ingenuity of Ants.

A lady in town who has recently been very much annoyed over the colonies of small red ants that infest the house, making themselves particularly obnoxious by taking possession of everything in the form of eatables, devised a scheme which she thought would baffle the little pests. She took four bowls, filled them nearly full with water, then placed the legs of a table in them, and on this table whatever she wished to keep from them. This worked all right for a while, but a few days ago she was astonished to find several ants on the table, apparently quite at home. On investigating she found a line of ants crawling up one of the bowls, walking down into the water, swimming across to the table leg, and so on up into clover. While some were going, others were returning by the same route, apparently joyful at having stormed and taken the citadel. A sprinkling of black pepper on the water in these bowls has for the present routed the enemy. With swimming out of the question, it will be a wonder if they do not bridge the chasm and attain their ends in that way.—Kingsville Reporter.

Dirtiest City in the World.

Amoy, in China, bears the unenviable reputation of being the dirtiest and most unhealthful city in the world, says the Pittsburg Dispatch. What is a more unpleasant fact is the promise of the present tendency of affairs to a lower and worse condition. The reasons are obvious to a newcomer at a glance.

The city is built on the edge of a mountainous island, and is exceedingly old. Inscriptions on ancient tombs run back as far as the beginning of the Christian era, and coins found in accidentally discovered graves date to dynasties from 1000 to 500 B.C. During all this period the hillsides of the city have been used as burying grounds. As the population increased the houses encroached upon the cemetery land, until the two became hopelessly mixed.

Near the Lampaw-do joss house 30,000 bodies are said to have been buried vertically to save space. They lie, or stand, on a plat of ground of as many square feet. Amoy proper and its suburbs have a living population of about 1,000,000, and a dead one of four and a half times as many. The wells are shallow, and are sunk on the edges of the graveyards, and even among the tombs themselves. I have not seen one whose water is not muddy and discolored by the turning up of the soil.

The city is a relic of the past. It is walled still, as it was in the time of Confucius. It has no sewers whatever. The streets vary from two to six feet in width; no wheeled vehicle can use them. An equestrian would experience great difficulty in turning a corner. Here and there is an open space or plaz, dug out so as to be a huge receptacle, into which the streets discharge their refuse.

AMERICAN SILVER.

The U.S. Treasury Department Officials Say the Canadian Banks are Acting Within Their Rights in Discounting It.

Washington, Aug. 12.—There was some talk at the Treasury Department about the action of the Canadian banks in deciding not to accept our silver certificates except at a discount of 10 per cent. In the past a considerable amount of United States bills have been circulated beyond the border, concurrently with Canadian money. They have been receivable for taxes and have been interchangeable. The present action of the banks in Canada, it is presumed, is the result of a fear that this country may be forced to a silver basis. Treasury officials called attention to the fact that in their refusal to accept our silver the Canadian banks were simply exercising a discrimination which we exercise, as our banks will not accept Canadian or any other foreign silver coin at par. European countries pursue a similar policy. The French franc or the German mark, when it crosses the border, is received at a discount. Any talk of retaliation by this Government against Canada for the action of her banks is pronounced absurd by the officials of the Treasury Department.

VENCEDOR AND VIVIA

Had a Little Brush Yesterday at Cleveland

THE WESTERN BOAT IS SPEEDY.

Canadian Yachts Won All the Races—Cycling at Port Hope—Hamilton Beat Guelph and London Shut Out Brantford at Baseball—Detroit Races.

Cleveland, Aug. 12.—(Special.)—Vencedor, which is lying quite close to Canada in Cleveland harbor, went out with the racers to-day, and from the way in which she walked to weather of Vivia showed that she is no mean opponent for the Canada. The latter defeated Zelma not too easily.

Vencedor and Vreda sail to-day in the fifty-five foot class, and a line may then be taken on the former as the relative merits of Vreda and Canada are well known to Toronto yachtsmen. Vencedor was measured late last evening, and her dimensions have not yet been made public, but so far as one can tell by her appearance she is a much larger and more powerful boat than Canada.

Three classes of yachts were entered in the races to-day—40, 40 and 25-footers. In the 40-foot class the Canada won, Zelma second. The Vivia won in the 40-foot class and the Sybil in the 25-foot.

ENGLISHMEN WIN THE FOURS.

Belleville, Aug. 12.—The weather to-day was admirable for the sailing races, but the stiff southwester which blew this afternoon was too strong for the sculling races to be called on time, being in this respect almost as bad as yesterday. As the undecided events on yesterday afternoon's program and the sailing race set for this morning were again postponed until this afternoon, these with the scheduled events made a very long bill of fare. A skiff race between local craft and a punt race were sailed.

The only race rowed was the four-oared professional for a $100 purse, in which the entries were the English and Canadian crews. The water was rough over the greater portion of the course. The Canadians reached the turn about a length ahead, but the Englishmen made the best turn and got a slight advantage, which they held to the close, winning in 11.16 2-5. The losers' time was 11.21.

The races were witnessed by about 3000 people, the great majority of whom were on the steamers, sailing crafts and rowboats. Some of the events will be pulled off to-morrow morning.

Detroit Races.

Detroit, Aug. 12.—The track at Grosse Pointe was heavy to-day, with weather cool and the attendance small. C. Reiff piloted his mounts to victory, none of them being favorites. The latter fared badly, favorites winning only the third and sixth races. Results: First race, 6½ furlongs—Santa Maria, 5 to 1, 1; Hanlon, even, 2; Stinnsen, 10 to 1, 3. Time 1.29. Second race, 6 furlongs—Mollie, 7 to 1, 1; Charms, 2½ to 1, 2; Friends, 6 to 1, 3. Time 1.23. Third race, 1⅛ miles—Sykeston, 10 to 3, 1; Font d'Or, 15 to 1, 2; Wolsey, 6 to 1, 3. Time 2.08. Fourth race, 7 furlongs—Omaretto, 6 to 1, 1; The Princess, 7 to 1, 2; Kowalsky, even, 3. Time 1.38. Fifth race, for maiden 2-year-olds, 5 furlongs—Arlington, 2½ to 1, 1; John Carr, 15 to 1, 2; Prosecutor, 4 to 1, 3. Time 1.08.

Winnipeg Four Won at Saratoga.

Saratoga, Aug. 12.—The opening day of the 24th annual regatta of the National Association of Amateur Oarsmen drew a good attendance to Saratoga Lake, where seven events on the program were rowed under fairly good weather conditions. The New York A.C. carried off two firsts—the intermediate eight-oared shell race and intermediate doubles. All the races to-day except the eight-oared were rowed one and a half miles, with a turn, both start and finish being opposite the blind at the north end of the lake, and the whole course in plain view of the spectators.

Single-sculls, first heat—Bush Thompson, Argonaut Rowing Club, Toronto, 1; Jos. J. Whitehead, Riverside B.C., Massachusetts, 2; W. S. McDowell, Delaware B.C., Chicago, 3. Time 10.18⅘.

Second heat senior single-sculls—J. B. Juevenal, Pennsylvania Barge Club, 1; Fred Cresser, Vesper B.C., Philadelphia, 2; C. E. Bulger, Albany B.C., 3. Time 10.49.

Eight-oared shell, intermediate—New York A.C., 1; Laureate B.C., Troy, 2. Time 9.20.

Four-oared senior shell—Winnipeg R.C., Winnipeg, 1; Institute R.C., Newark, N.J., 2. Time 8.50⅘.

Intermediate double sculls—New York A.C. 1, Pennsylvania Barge Club 2. Time 9.21.

"Canst thou minister to a mind diseased?" asks Macbeth. Certainly, my lord; the condition of the mind depends largely, if not solely, on the condition of the stomach, liver and bowels, for all of which complaints Ayer's Pills are the "sovereignest thing on earth."

Foreign Notes.

The Czar has postponed until November the reception of the deputations from the municipalities and the rural and other representative bodies wishing to offer their congratulations on his coronation.

Two churches in London that have been open every day in the week, so that people might go to rest and pray, have found, to their cost, that many went to pray in another sense. Ornaments were stolen, and, as the authorities could not afford to provide a regular attendant, they found it necessary to close the churches.

The Politische Correspondens learns from St. Petersburg that the transportation of convicts to Siberia is about to be brought to an end. Gen. Duchovski, the governor-general of Siberia, has urged in high quarters the acceleration of this measure, and it is expected that an imperial order to this effect will be issued shortly.

The British Navy League has decided to organize a general celebration of Trafalgar day, Oct. 21, and to commemorate the anniversary of the death of Nelson throughout the empire. Communications are being sent to the mayors of all the principal towns in the united kingdom with the view of enlisting local support to the movement.

A correspondent living in Pekin, China, writes: "The Emperor's real mother died last Friday, after an illness of several weeks. If his adopted mother, the empress dowager, wife of the Emperor Tung Chih, had died, the whole nation would be in mourning, and the unpleasant sight of unshaven heads would be universal. As it is, the woman who has given birth to an emperor will be interred with only the ceremonies due to the wife of a prince, and will be unmourned by the nation."

WRECKAGE

From the Big Sale

In the shape of Remnants, Odd Lots and Tail Ends from every department, have been rooted out, ticketed and marked at prices to close them with a rush. It's a fitting wind-up for the biggest selling event in our history. A few days will do the business, and sharp's the word.

Remnants of Cloths.

Nothing wrong with them. The last few yards of the piece cost us just as much as the first. Going to sell them at a sacrifice though; they litter the stock. Good picking here for the Boy's Fall School Suits. Why not look ahead a bit and by so doing save a dollar? Price of each remnant in plain figures. They're all spread out on the shelves and you can make an easy selection.

Broken Lots of Men's Pants.

Good sizes and lengths among them. Some at about one-half regular prices. They'll move quick when the news gets out.

Good-by to Summer Ties.

The left-overs are going to be turned into money at short notice. The prices are absurd, but we don't want to winter them.

Men's and Boy's Suits.

Not a question of worth, but what price will sell them. It will pay you to be among the first. The pick is worth something. 300 Suits to pick from, well made and finished, the products of some of the best known makers. A lot of our own make included.

Broken Lots of Hosiery and Underwear.

Odd dozens and half-dozens, all out on the counter, and they're not going back into the shelves with our consent. Can you use them? If so, help us to get rid of them.

Summer Suits and Separate Parts.

Some made of Wool Serge, some of Cricketing Flannel, some of Silk and some of Lustre and Alpaca. Only about a dozen of each, but we want the room more than the goods.

Summer Boots & Shoes.

The Fall Styles will be about the same as these; they're all new this season. Not many shelves full, but you save just half. Not often that 50c does the work of $1.00 but we need the room.

Shirts and Collars.

They might as well go with the rest. We won't profit financially on the sales, but that makes no difference, so long as we can clean up the overplus.

Last Call on Felt and Straw Hats.

And a loud call it is. Mostly broken lots, but none the worse for that. If your size, style or kind is among them then you're in luck, for the prices are cut loose entirely from the values.

Emigration Agent Wood Has Left for England.

GREAT FAITH IN THE NORTHWEST

A Lightkeeper's Son, Aged 12, Who Has Just Seen Horses for the First Time—Crops in Manitoba and the Salmon Catch in British Columbia.

Ottawa, Aug. 13.—Mr. E. J. Wood, Emigration Agent for Canada in the Midland counties of England, left for home to-day, after an interview with the Deputy Minister of the Interior. Mr. Wood has great faith in the future of the Northwest and thinks that a splendid class of emigrants could be sent out, provided the Government would reconstruct the system on which the branch experimental farms in Manitoba, Territories and British Columbia are run. Mr. Wood would like to see them converted into agricultural colleges, under Government supervision, and a fairly good premium charged to students. He believes that in this way a larger number of young men from the middle and upper classes of England would be sent out to Canada than is the case at the present.

Several newspapers have made the assertion that the Government will tax Li Hung Chang the usual capitation tax of $50 on his entry into Canada. This statement implies complete ignorance of the educated Chinese, such as diplomats, professional men, teachers, etc., being exempted under the provisions of our statutes.

A telegram was received at the Marine Department from Capt. Wakehorn of the Government steamer La Canadienne to-day, stating that he had visited Bryan Island and had found that the English barque William Geake, together with the cargo, is a total loss. The crew had left for the mainland by a sailing schooner before the arrival of the Government steamer.

Mr. Anderson, Chief Engineer of the Marine Department, has just returned from an official visit to all the lighthouses in the Gulf of St. Lawrence, extending from Bicquette, below Rimouski, to the Straits of Belle Isle. At the latter point, Mr. Anderson made a careful investigation as to the most suitable point at which to locate a steam siren. He found all the lights in excellent condition, with only one exception. It may not be generally known that Canada maintains four lights on the Island of Newfoundland, and when Mr. Anderson arrived about August 1, Cape Norman light, which is on the northwest coast of Newfoundland, the men at the light station had not then heard the result of the Dominion elections of June 23rd. Mr. Anderson says that light-keepers in isolated spots in the Gulf seem to enjoy life. They have comfortable homes, and generally manage to till a few acres of ground. They get kindling free, plenty of fish, and procure their supplies of flour, etc., in bulk. Returning to Sydney on the Government steamer Lansdowne, Mr. Anderson brought over with him the 12-year-old boy of one of the light-keepers on the Newfoundland coast for the purpose of getting some schooling. When the boy reached Sydney he saw for the first time in his life a horse. A railway locomotive had no attractions for him, but the boy could not keep his eyes off what were to him the wonderful quadrupeds traveling along the streets of Sydney.

A statement made by The Free Press to-night, apparently on official authority, respecting the postponement indefinitely of the time for receiving tenders for the Simcoe and Balsam Lake division of the Trent Canal, has more behind it than appears on the surface. The Free Press says that, as the contract is a large one and involves the expenditure of a large amount of money on a scheme that is not yet thoroughly understood in all its details by the new Administration, it is thought as well to let the matter stand for the present.

Hon. Robert Watson characterized the recent despatch from Winnipeg in a Toronto paper as rot. He was well acquainted with the facts and held to the statement made before, that the crop of this year would not be more than one-third behind that of last year's thirty million bushels of wheat, by far the largest yield on record. So far as the story of damage by hail is concerned, if, as the article states, there were stretches of 30 miles wide, not more than 30 farmers would have suffered loss of crops.

The salmon catch in British Columbia is below that of last year. The close season begins on Saturday, so that the season's operations are practically concluded, and full reports will be looked for very shortly at the department here. It seems difficult to find a satisfactory reason to assign for a poor catch. Last year it was far beyond expectations and the canners on the coast look for a poor season every three or four years.

The Imperial authorities have agreed to publish this year a digest of the Canadian statistics in what is known as their colonial series. The matter is at present being prepared by the Dominion Statistician for distribution in the Old Country, and will be employed as an advertising medium for the Dominion.

Hon. J. Israel Tarte was shown this morning a paragraph in a Toronto paper to the effect that he was dismissing Tories from the public service and taking on Liberals in their place. He gave the slander his most emphatic denial. He had not made a single appointment in his department, and further, in the case of every dismissal, he had acted on the recommendations of various chiefs.

Hon. Clifford Sifton, Attorney-General of Manitoba, arrived in the Capital this morning from the West. He had a lengthy interview with the Premier and also met his colleague, Watson.

The Manitoba census returns are yet incomplete. There are about five reports still missing and the Dominion Statistician is patiently awaiting their arrival. The reports ought all to have been in long ago, but possibly accidents have occurred, as they did on the last census-taking in Manitoba, when one collector of figures got lost in the woods and had to kill his horse that he might use the animal's flesh for food.

The Minister of Finance has made arrangements so that he will remain in the Capital without requiring to go east again before the session is over. His family still remain in Halifax, but will likely remove to Ottawa in the near future.

Father Laporte of Maniwaki had an interview with the Minister of Public Works to-day. He wants the Government to give some assistance towards the building of a bridge across the Gatineau River, near Maniwaki. The Quebec Government has already granted a subsidy to the scheme, and now the Dominion is being asked to subscribe towards it. Mr. Tarte said that he would look into the matter.

The Journal says that a fight that has been going on for the place of barber to the House of Commons between the old occupant, Mr. Nap Audette, and Mr. F. St. Louis, was brought to a close this morning by the victory of Mr. St. Louis, the city members having put his claims very forcibly before Hon. Mr. Laurier.

The total number of vessels which passed through the Canadian Soo Canal from date of opening, on May 7, to July 31, is 1190, representing a tonnage of 2,721,019 tons and 7981 passengers.

Hon. Dr. Borden left for Halifax this afternoon.

There was a four hours' session of the Cabinet this afternoon, at which the estimates were under consideration.

Mr. Costigan leaves for Ireland next Monday.

THE YAQUI INDIANS MAKE WAR.

When Pursued by the Mexican Police They Killed the Captain.

Nogales, Ariz., Aug. 13.—After the Yaqui Indians were run out of town yesterday morning Captain P. Sanchez of the Mexican police and a company of men pursued them. The party was accompanied by Juan Fernandes, cashier of the Mexican Custom House. They overtook the Indians five miles west of Nogales, near the lake. The Indians opened fire, killing the captain and the horse ridden by Fernandes. The Indians fled into the mountains near by, where they are encamped and burning signal fires. Col. Kosterlitsky arrived last night with 60 picked men, Mexican gendarmes, and left for the mountains.

Horse Cholera in Colchester.

Windsor, Ont., Aug. 13.—Dr. Jones of the Board of Veterinary Inspectors has returned from Colchester South, where he looked into the recent outbreak of horse cholera. He finds it to be merely local and that it is dying out. About 100 horses were affected altogether and about 25 of them have died. The others will probably recover.

VENCEDOR IN FRONT.

Vreda Beaten Easily by the Chicago Yacht.

FAST WHEELMEN AT LOUISVILLE.

Tom Cooper Best Said for the Two-Mile Championship and Tom Butler Downed Sanger—Winnipeg Crew Add to Their Laurels at Saratoga Other Sports.

Cleveland, Aug. 13.—(Special.)—The decisive victory which Vencedor obtained over Vreda to-day in a fresh breeze and lumpy sea will put the former's stock away up in her forthcoming races with Canada at Toledo.

Whether the Vreda was sailed for all that was in her may be open to question, but it is generally admitted that Canada could not have administered such a defeat to her as did Vencedor. The Chicago challenger looks to be under-canvassed for a light wind, but in fresh to heavy weather, judging by her performance to-day, she is a flyer. In addition to the interest which her easy victory over Vreda will lend to the challenge races at Toledo, her success was very popular here, as she is the first American yacht, so far, except Sybil, to win a race on the Lake Erie circuit.

Thirteen seconds ahead of the Say When the Enquirer crossed the finish line just before sundown to-day in the Cleveland regatta, the winner of the grandest steam yacht race sailed in recent years on the Great Lakes. The Enquirer took the lead from the start and held it for the entire course. The Say When is owned by Hon. W. J. White of this city and the Enquirer by W. J. Connors, owner of The Buffalo Enquirer. The Say When had a record of 24 miles an hour and the Enquirer was a new boat to the racing world. The course was from Fair Port to Cleveland, a distance of 30 miles, and the time of the Enquirer was one hour and 35¾ minutes.

In the 55-foot class, the Vencedor, which will race for the American Cup at Toledo next week, showed what she could do in a stiff wind, and established her as one of the best yachts afloat on inland waters. The entries were the Vreda of the Royal Canadian Yacht Club, the Venna of the Lincoln Park Yacht Club and the Neva of the Cleveland Yacht Club. From the start the Vencedor drew away and kept the lead of the boats in her class, nearly beating the Priscilla, a boat of a larger class. The Vencedor won in 2.51.51 elapsed time and 2.48.08 corrected time.

The 35-foot class was won by the Eva in 3.48.43 corrected time.

THE TWO TOMS, COOPER AND BUTLER

They Secure the Honors on Opening Day at the L.A.W. Meet.

Louisville, Aug. 13.—Tom Cooper and Tom Butler this afternoon secured the honors in the first day's races held in connection with the L.A.W. meet. Cooper lauded the national championship at two miles, and Bald had to be content with second place. Butler won the money in the mile professional and Sanger was the one to finish in the next position. Over 6000 people filled the stand at Fountain Ferry track and they saw racing that was gilt-edged in every particular.

John S. Johnson did not appear in the contests, but rode a half mile, paced by a triplet, in :53 2-5. Nat Butler won the mile handicap from the 30-yard mark in 2.06, and J. A. Newhouse took first money in the 2.15 class.

Interest was centred in the championship event, for it meant an argument in which Bald, Cooper and Butler would meet, Sanger being the only one of the big four missing. Eleven men lined up, with Cooper at the pole. Single pacing was used, and Bald and Cooper had an interesting struggle to get the rear wheel of the rider who took the men the first two laps. The Bison was successful and with Cooper next, Bliss third, and the others strung out, the race remained uneventful until the bell rang. Nat Butler started from the rear on the back stretch and Jay Eaton followed him. It was a compact bunch at the head of the straight and when Bald emerged cries of "Bald wins" were shouted in chorus. But Cooper was not beaten, and on the outside he came like a flash, locked with his rival, and jumped away from him not ten yards from the line, winning by half a length. It was a beautiful finish, but the applause was not generous, for Bald is the favorite in Louisville, and Cooper is not liked on account of his avowed preference for the new track at Cincinnati over the circle at Fountain Ferry.

Nat Butler, last year's two-mile winner, ran unplaced to-day. Tom Butler's victory in the professional mile was not altogether unexpected, after the success scored last week at Buffalo by the same rider in the invitation event, but the thousands were surprised when they saw the youngster emerge from the bunch in the straight tackle with Sanger, who looked all over a winner, and lead the big fellow across the line by a clean length. Cooper was the only star missing, and he had remained out in order to save himself for the championship race. Thirteen had qualified in the heats of the morning for the final. Jack Coburn had the pole, with Ziegler next, Tom Butler third, Bald fourth, Nat Butler fifth and Sanger near the outside. In the scramble to obtain the place behind the tandem, Louis A. Callahan of Buffalo was the winner, Tom Butler following. When the line straightened out Bald was fifth and Sanger eleventh. Schrein tried the trick of running ahead of the double machine, but failed to oust Callahan. At the three-quarters the tandem dropped out, but before this happened Sanger started a long sprint from the rear, passing the others and one by one the Milwaukeean forged to the front, and at the head of the straight was in advance of all. Bald was unable to extricate himself from a poor position, and when he did get moving it was too late. Tom Butler shot out at this juncture and reached his big rival with a sprint that was perfection itself; then moved ahead and was a yard to the good at the finish. The other Butler was third, with Bald and Callahan at his rear wheel. The time was only fair for tandem pacing, the watches registering 2.03 for the winner. The summary:

One-mile novice—Won by C. R. McCarthy, St. Louis. Time 2.37 2-5.

Quarter-mile, Kentucky State championship—Won by Karl Thom, Louisville. Time .36 3-5.

Two-mile handicap, amateur—K. E. Dupree, Louisville (50 yards), 1; W. R. Lum, Montgomery, Ala. (60 yards), 2; E. W. Penholy, Chicago (80 yards), 3; C. Hammond, St. Louis (50 yards), 4. Time 5.4 3-5.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

A man who is not in some degree smitten with the gold mining fever is a rarity these days.

There seems to be no doubt of British Columbia being on a gold basis. The foundations of the everlasting hills are underpined with gold bricks.

A city like London the Less, that steals elections, creates no surprise when it furnishes vandals who will prise up the angle of a church to steal the coins from the corner stone. What a wicked city London must be!

At the pan-Conservative caucus to be held at Ottawa on August 17th the question of a leader of the party will be considered. From the party point of view the Liberals would be delighted to see Sir Charles Tupper elected leader. Such a choice would add several degrees of temperature depression to the "cold shades" of opposition.

The Buffalo Express calls the refusal of Canadians to accept American silver at par "a petty scheme to fleece American tourists," which is a petty way of putting it. In declining to accept American money at par Canadians are simply exercising a discrimination which Americans themselves, as well as other countries, exercise in regard to foreign coin.

The lion and the lamb are lying down together in North Grey. The Conservatives have announced a campaign meeting to be addressed by Hon. G. E. Foster and George Taylor, the champion champions of coercion, and N. Clarke Wallace and W. F. McLean, champion anti-coercionists. Thus we see the miracle of mixing oil and water. If the Conservative party had a leader and was not drifting, the spectacle of such illogical political absurdities would not be presented.

The report that Mr. Blake was appointed a member of the Judicial Committee of the British Privy Council was at the least premature, for Mr. Chamberlain's proposal that the colonies should be represented on the committee has not been worked out in detail. The Committee is composed of the Lord President, the Lord Chancellor, (salary $50,000), the three Lords of Appeal in Ordinary, (salary $20,000 each), the Lord Chief Justice of England, (salary $40,000), the Master of the Rolls, (salary $30,000), the five Lords Justice of Appeal, salaries $20,000 each), and persons holding "high judicial offices," being Privy Councillors; and all Privy Councillors who shall have held any of the offices before mentioned, also five nominated judges and one paid judge, (salary $25 000).

There are 8,839 post offices in Canada. The number of letters and post cards carried last year was one hundred and thirty-five and a half millions, and the number of papers ninety-three millions. The number of parcels, letters or circulars that failed of delivery was 479,000. There were 3,183,900 registered letters sent through the post in 1873, and of these only 164 failed to reach their destination. The number of free letters carried last year was nearly four and a half millions. The revenue of the post office department in 1895 was $3,815,000, and the expenditure $4,616,000.

The Conservative journals sneer at Mr. Laurier's and Mr. Mowat's partiality for commissions. Their late policy for arriving at the rights of a question was a club, otherwise named "Coercion." Now that they have dropped that plan, and left the Remedial Bill to its fate, we would like to know what their present policy is. Now as to commissions: These have been found to have worked well in Great Britain, and Mr. Laurier's taking advantage of British precedents, provokes the sneers of the small wits of the Conservative press. The British Government has appointed a commission to inquire into South African affairs, and the fact that Hon. Mr. Blake is to be a member of the Commission does not add to the weakness of it. It is said that a commission will be sent by the Government to report on the gold mining interests of British Columbia. This will be a practical move, and better calculated to develop our country than Mr. Foster's trip to the West Indies or Sir Mackenzie Bowell's visit to Australia. The report of such a commission will form the basis of intelligent legislation in the direction of promoting the development and settlement of the Pacific Province. Legislation that was not based on a knowledge of the facts was a specialty of the late Government, and the experiment in the matter of remedial legislation was a fatal one. The jobbery and bungling in connection with the clap-trap Prohibition Commission of the late Government doubtless accounts, if it does not justify, the Conservative hostility to commissions.

LAKEFIELD.

From our own Correspondent.

Mrs. George Adams, of Peterborough, has returned home after a pleasant visit to Mrs. Roseborough.

Miss Flossie Wade, of Peterborough, is visiting Mrs. Wm. Cox.

Rev. A. C. Reeves and wife are off on a holiday trip visiting friends at Kalabogie.

Rev. John McEwan occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian church last Sabbath and will also preach next Sabbath, during the absence of the pastor.

Mrs. Whitfield, of Port Perry, is the guest of Mrs. A. Fairbairn.

Miss Harky, of Stouffville, is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Wagner.

Miss Effie McWilliams has returned from a visit to friends in Lindsay.

Sir Henri Joly, Minister of Inland Revenue at Ottawa, passed through here on Saturday evening with Mr. H. P. Greenwood and wife to spend a few days at Sandy Bay, Stony Lake.

Mrs. Christy and Miss Rae, of Peterborough, are the guests of Mrs. S. Nelson.

The Misses McMillan, of Lindsay, and Miss Patterson, of Peterborough, spent a few days here, the guests of Mrs. Tanner.

Mr. W. A. Shaw, of Peterborough, was in the village on Tuesday in the interests of the Newcombe piano.

Mrs. J. H. McWilliams is visiting in Lindsay.

Miss Maud Cox has returned home from her trip to Dakota.

The new arrivals at Viamede cottage, Mount Julian, Stony lake, this week are: Rev. D. M Kirkpatrick, Rochester, N. Y.; Rev. Canon McNab, Toronto; Dr. and Mrs. Carveth, Toronto; Miss Chalk, Toronto; Misses McArthur, Rochester, N. Y.; Miss Dutcher, Rochester, N.Y. Fishing is very good here, a number of bass being caught by the guests of Viamede.

R. Graham & Son have a large number of remnants of prints and dress goods which they are offering very cheap.

The "J. E." Camp have returned after spending a most pleasant time at "Oaklands," Stony lake, the guests of the Misses Gordon. The following parties were in the camp: The Misses Gordon, Miss M. Hendren, Miss B. Ferguson, Miss Carveth, Miss G. Wallace, Lakefield; Miss Bently, Marmora; Mr. F. Stubbs, G. G. Gordon, L. Tanner, Lakefield; Mr. M. G. Jones, Port Perry; Mr. C. D. Allen, Bethany; Mr. F. W. Tanner, Toronto; Mr. J. Ridpath, Kirkfield. The camp call was: "One, two, three! Who are we? Don't you see? We are the camp 'J. E.' Te, he, hee."

The steamers have now arranged to leave Stony Lake each morning according to the following time table:—Breeze's at 5.30 a.m., Mount Julian at 6, Juniper Island store at 7, and Sheriff Hall's at 7.15, arriving at Lakefield at 9 o'clock. This is necessitated by the fact of the mail being carried, and parties going down on this boat will require to be up promptly in the morning and meet the steamer sharp on time.

The Golden City this week comes down in the morning and goes up on the arrival of the 2 o'clock train. Next week she will meet the morning train.

A round trip through Stony Lake makes a very pleasant holiday.

The work on the Canal is still going on. The cut is now made across Caroline street. Mr. Wm. Ash has taken down the barn remaining on his lot and gives a fine view now across the river to the residences in that vicinity. The whole appearance of the west side of the river is now being rapidly changed.

Mr. D. Smith is having his shop swung around to face on Bridge street, instead of Caroline street, as at present.

The Sting Within.

It is said there is a rankling thorn in every heart, and yet that none would exchange their own for that of another. Be that as it may, the sting arising from the heart of a corn is real enough and in this land of tight boots a very common complaint also. Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor is a never failing remedy for this kind of heartache, as you can easily prove if afflicted. Cheap, pure, painless.

A Resident of St. John, N.B., Makes a Successful Trial of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

St. John, N.B., Aug. 3—Mr. Robt. Moore, residing in Indiantown, a suburb of this city, has recently made what is allowed by all who are acquainted with the facts to be a most remarkable recovery. He has been a sufferer from a serious complaint of the kidneys for over seven years, and during that time has suffered excruciatingly. He has also suffered considerably in pocket, having paid large sums for medical advice. Quite recently he happened to read of the many cures effected by Dodd's Kidney Pills, and with commendable promptitude made a trial of them, with the result that after taking three boxes of the remedy he was entirely restored to health.

OFFICE—FURNITURE WAREROOMS

AUGUST CROP REPORT

Issued by the Ontario Bureau of Industries.

WHEAT YIELD UNDER THE AVERAGE

Oats About an Average and Corn Coming on Satisfactorily—Hay Light West and East But Heavy in the North An Abundance of Fruit on the Whole.

The crop bulletin issued by the Ontario Bureau of Industries, Aug. 8, reports as follows:

Cereals.

Fall wheat came out in the spring in a very poor condition. A considerable area was plowed up in all parts of Ontario, the two counties most noticeable in this respect being Prince Edward and Haldimand. The reports of the final outcome of the crop are variable and conflicting, but on the whole rather under than over the average. In Essex and Kent, where harvesting began as early as June 26, the reports are rather poor. There are numerous complaints of damage by Hessian fly, though some say also, "or some other insect." In Elgin and Lincoln the condition was fair. In Haldimand the situation is summed up thus: "The worst feature for many years;" Welland gives yields from 5 to 14 bushels per acre. Lambton sends good reports, Huron fair, Bruce poor, Grey variable, Simcoe good. In the West Midland Counties, from Middlesex to Dufferin, the situation may be summed up as a fair yield, with good quality, Winter-killing, drought and grasshoppers were causes in various localities for decreasing the yield below what was expected. In the east most of the crop was harvested from July 10 to 20. There are many reports of injury, yet on the whole the crop turned out well, the quality being very good. While from the east, where the acreage is much less than in the west, there are some reports of complete loss, there are others of extraordinary yield.

Spring wheat is still on the decline; reports are no more encouraging than they have been for several years. The principal complaints are as to inferior quality, though a few sections in the east give good yields, and first class quality. Most reports are of moderate yields.

Rye is on the whole quite up to the average for quality.

The condition of oats in the west was fair. Some injury by rust, and here and there the army worm is reported. In the latter cases individual farmers have suffered severely, but the effect upon the total yield of the province has been very small. From the east we get reports of a large acreage and good condition. The hot weather has caused rapid filling, and some report light grain.

Barley along Lake Erie is a fair yield, but the late rains have discoloured a large portion. In the West Midland district the quality is better, with a fair yield. In the east the loss by insects is no greater than usual. In the east the indications point to a crop above the average in quality. There are prospects of a good yield.

In peas, late sowing, "to avoid the bug," is more common than ever, and as a consequence there had been little harvesting done by Aug. 8. There are very poor reports; many report a heavy growth of straw. Mildew has been found here and there. The reports of "bugs" are not so numerous as formerly. The following are fair samples of correspondents' comments: "An excellent crop;" "our best crop;" "very few bugs;" "never had better;" "one of the best crops of Ontario;" "grasshoppers don't eat peas," etc. A good crop may be looked for.

Beans.—The late rains in the south-western part of Ontario injured the beans on low land; otherwise the crop is in good condition. The yield on well-drained land promises to be extra good.

Corn.—An increased area is reported. Grubs and grasshoppers did some injury, and a few correspondents feared the army worm, but the crop was not seriously affected by insect pests. In many sections, more particularly in the Lake Erie district, considerable damage was done by rain, but the splendid corn weather of the last two or three weeks had brought the plant along grandly; and although a considerable portion of the seed was put in late, to supplement the anticipated poor crop of hay, the main crop of corn was spoken of as earing in a most satisfactory manner.

Only a few correspondents report regarding flax. The crop is said to be a good one, and the supply appears to be fully up to the demand.

Very little is said by correspondents concerning hops, and the few references made are far from encouraging. A correspondent in the County of Victoria writes: "Within the last week a caterpillar of a pea-green color has attacked the leaves and bids fair to destroy the season's crop."

Hay and Clover.

The reports regarding red clover are, on the whole, not very favorable. Alsike is somewhat better, but still hardly up to the average. Several speak very favorably of mammoth red clover. Timothy has turned out better than in 1895. In Essex and Kent the reports are from one to two tons per acre. Elgin and Norfolk also had fairly good crops. Haldimand and Welland had very light crops; in some townships a failure. Lambton was fair; Huron and Bruce were under the average; Grey was light, drought and grasshoppers both being injurious; Simcoe rather light; Middlesex, Brant, Oxford, Wellington, Waterloo and Dufferin gave varying yields from one to two tons. Throughout the Niagara Peninsula the crop was short. From York along Lake Ontario the yield increased, and the crop was well saved. Along the St. Lawrence the yield is very good; Carlton good; Prescott fair; Russell extra good. In Lanark and Victoria the yield is up to the average. In the northern districts the crop was fair. The Rainy River country has probably the heaviest yield per acre in Ontario.

Potatoes and Roots.

While reports regarding potatoes do not fully agree, it looks as if there will be a fair yield in most sections. Early planted are small in size, owing to the drought, but those put in later promise a better return. Rot was reported in low lying places in the Lake Erie counties, but other districts have so far been comparatively free from it. The bug was reported as numerous by some correspondents, while others stated that this pest was not nearly so bad as usual.

Reports regarding the root crops are somewhat contradictory, even in the same townships. However, the prospect on the whole for roots is encouraging, and at present turnips promise better than mangels or carrots.

Fruit is Abundant.

Not for many years has there been so great a yield of apples as in the present season. Such terms as, "An extraordinary crop," "An enormous yield," and "Largest ever known" are frequent in our returns, these expressions applying more especially to summer and fall sorts. The fruit is also remarkably free from worm and scab. Pears give a fair yield, but many trees are suffering from blight. Peaches are also abundant, and plums are up to the average, although in one or two sections a tendency to rot is reported. Grapes promise a large return in most localities, and small fruits have been abundant.

Pastures and Live Stock.

Between the drought of June and grasshoppers, pastures were rather brown and bare until the more showery weather of the last fortnight enabled the fields to pick up. Live stock generally are in a healthy condition, although perhaps a little on the lean side. But little disease has been reported, and nothing of an epidemic nature. The horn fly has not yet disappeared, but, except in Perth and a few other western counties, it has caused but small annoyance this summer. The milk supply has fallen off greatly, and a number of factories have closed up for lack of patronage, while the low price of cheese has had a depressing effect upon patrons. Hay will be scarce, but such supplementary fodder as corn and straw will be abundant, and live stock, from present appearances, can be easily carried through the winter.

The Apiary.

Not for many years have beekeepers had so much to encourage them. There has been an abundance of nectar, and the flow of honey has been liberal. While a few correspondents mention only 10 or 20 pounds of honey per hive, a number speak of extracting fully 100 pounds. The average yield is about 55 pounds, and this will likely be augmented, as buckwheat was in bloom as correspondents wrote. Colonies have been about doubled by swarming, and no disease is complained of.

Labor and Wages.

There is a surplus of farm laborers, and wages have been lower than usual. Farmers are trying to do without hired help, and are relying more upon improved machinery for help. Harvest hands have got from 75 cents to $1 a day, and from $13 to $20 per month.

Statistics of Live Stock.

The following gives the number of live stock on Ontario farms on hand on July 1, 1896 and 1896. The figures are from the returns received direct from farmers:

	1896.	1895.
Horses	624,749	647,696
Cattle	2,181,950	2,150,103
Sheep	1,849,348	2,022,738
Hogs	1,269,431	1,299,073
Poultry	7,734,167	7,752,840

Crops in General.

From the table of statistics accompanying this bulletin, which it must be remembered are estimates of probable yields at harvesting time, the following comments may be made:

Fall wheat shows a large increase in acreage; the yield is only 16.6 bushels per acre, making the total yield a little larger than last year.

Spring wheat, with a slight increase in acreage, owing to the partial failure of fall wheat, gives with decreased yield per acre about the same total yield as in 1895.

Barley has a smaller acreage, but larger yield per acre than in 1895, and thereby gives about the same total yield.

Oats, with an increased area, and slightly lower yield per acre, gives but a small increase over 1896.

Rye has an increased acreage, and a yield per acre exactly the same as in 1895.

Peas, with an increased area of 30,000 acres, gives a crop of 3,000,000 bushels over that of 1895.

Beans are somewhat less in yield than in 1895.

Hay and clover promise 400,000 tons more than in 1895, but still 1,000,000 tons below the average.

The area of corn shows an increase of nearly ten per cent. over that of 1895, and is now more than double the average of the previous 14 years.

Buckwheat shows an increase in area, potatoes a slight decrease, and field roots a drop from 199,191 acres to 196,648 acres.

Physicians Commence to Realise the Value of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

OTTAWA, Aug. 10.—The inveterate reluctance to admit the success of patent medicine usually evinced by physicians is rapidly giving way, so far as Dodd's Kidney Pills are concerned. The cases of Dr. Rose and Dr. McCormick, who published details of their recovery from diabetes and Bright's disease through the agency of this remedy, were the first attacks on the citadel of their skepticism and now it appears as if the remarkable recovery of Mr. G. H. Kent, of this city, the details of which have been transmitted to the press, would complete what has been so auspiciously begun. The published interviews with Mr. and Mrs. Kent and the sworn statement of the former leaves no foothold for disbelief.

WRECKAGE

From the Big Sale

In the shape of Remnants, Odd Lots and Tail Ends from every department, have been rooted out, ticketed and marked at prices to close them with a rush. It's a fitting wind-up for the biggest selling event in our history. A few days will do the business, and sharp's the word.

Remnants of Cloths.

Nothing wrong with them. The last few yards of the piece cost us just as much as the first. Going to sell them at a sacrifice though; they litter the stock. Good picking here for the Boy's Fall School Suits. Why not look ahead a bit and by so doing save a dollar? Price of each remnant in plain figures. They're all spread out on the shelves and you can make an easy selection.

Broken Lots of Men's Pants.

Good sizes and lengths among them. Some at about one-half regular prices. They'll move quick when the news gets out.

Good-by to Summer Ties.

The left-overs are going to be turned into money at short notice. The prices are absurd, but we don't want to winter them.

Men's and Boy's Suits.

Not a question of worth, but what price will sell them. It will pay you to be among the first. The pick is worth something. 300 Suits to pick from, well made and finished, the products of some of the best known makers. A lot of our own make included.

Broken Lots of Hosiery and Underwear.

Odd dozens and half-dozens, all out on the counter, and they're not going back into the shelves with our consent. Can you use them? If so, help us to get rid of them.

Summer Suits and Separat Parts.

Some made of Wool Serge, some of Cricketing Flannel, some of Silk and some of Lustre and Alpaca. Only about a dozen of each, but we want the room more than the goods.

Summer Boots & Shoes.

The Fall Styles will be about the same as these; they're all new this season. Not many shelves full, but you save just half. Not often that 50c does the work of $1.00 but we need the room.

Shirts and Collars.

They might as well go with the rest. We won't profit financially on the sales, but that makes no difference, so long as we can clean up the overplus.

Last Call on Felt and Straw Hats.

And a loud call it is. Mostly broken lots, but none the worse for that. If your size, style or kind is among them then you're in luck, for the prices are cut loose entirely from the values.

ALWAYS GOOD AT GOUGH'S.

Only Half a Crop.

Damage to the Manitoba crop is referred to in a letter from Mr. E. Peplow, formerly of the Hillyard Flouring Mills, now a member of the milling firm of George McCulloch & Co., Rapid City, Manitoba. The letter says:—"We expect to have about half of last year's crop of wheat as it now stands in Manitoba. The storms on Saturday, Sunday and Monday nights have done great and widespread damage through the province."

The Modern Knight.

These are certainly not the days of chivalry and romance; of long-haired poets and clinging females. The tendency is toward practical, and even the inventions nowadays are mostly objects of utility, something which saves time and gives comfort and ease. We are quick to appreciate and use anything which increases our comfort, especially if it be in the way of clothing. Let anybody once realise the magnificent healthful warmth which Fibre Chamois will add to his clothing and he will certainly be provided with this inexpensive equipment against all freaks of the weather. This interlining is made from pure spruce fibre and is a complete non-conductor of both heat and cold, so that a layer of it through clothing keeps out the fiercest winds and preserves the natural heat of the body.

A FLORAL WEDDING.

Celebration of the Dumble-Eck Nuptials Yesterday.

A very pretty and interesting wedding ceremony was performed on Thursday afternoon by Rev. Mr. Warren, of Lakefield, at Ballyragged cottage, the summer residence of Mr. D. W. Dumble, Police Magistrate, Stony Lake, when the marriage took place of Mr. Frank Dumble, of St. Paul, and Miss Nellie Eck, of Preston.

The cottage was most handsomely decorated for the occasion with a profusion of flowers and foliage of every variety, golden rod waterlilies, rushes and mosses predominating. The reception room in which the ceremony was performed was transformed into a floral bower of surpassing beauty. Rev. Mr. Warren stood behind a low screen composed of interwoven branches of pine, whilst for a back ground the wall of the room was one solid mass of verdure. Waterlilies abounded on every side and the dark green of the pine was admirably relieved by the bright beauty of the yellow golden rod. The blinds were drawn, and, as the room was illuminated with Chinese lanterns, the appearance of the interior of the cottage can be more easily imagined than described. It was fairyland. The exterior of the cottage was not neglected either, and that busy fingers had been at work on its beautification was apparent from the fact that the pillars and railings of the verandah were all wound with wreaths of evergreens.

The bride, who was given away by Mr. W. F. Johnston, was attired in simple white, and as she stood, holding a magnificent wreath of water lilies, she looked most daintily attractive. The bridesmaid was Miss Beth Dumble, sister of the groom, and Mr. Fred, Dumble supported his brother, the groom.

After the beautiful and impressive service was concluded refreshments were partaken of and the wedding party then adjourned to the regatta.

A large number of the friends of the groom were present from Cobourg for the occasion.

The wedding was not to have taken place until the fall, but on account of the dullness in business circles in the United States the groom made arrangements to come to Canada in August. As the bride's friends are all at present in Scotland, the ceremony, therefore, took place at the residence of the groom's father, where the honeymoon will be spent, after which Mr, and Mrs. Dumble will take up their residence in Denver, Colorado.

Mr. Frank Dumble, the groom, is well known in town, being the son of Mr. D. W. Dumble. He has for many years been travelling out of St. Paul, but still has friends numerous in Peterborough, who will join with the EXAMINER in congratulating him on bearing away so winsome a bride.

WEDDED AT BOWMANVILLE.

Miss Marion Allen United to Mr. R. Crookshank, of St. John, N.B.—Bride and Bridesmaids Prettily Costumed.

Bowmanville, Aug. 13.—A pretty wedding took place at St. Paul's Presbyterian church last evening, when Miss Marion Allen, daughter of Mr. W. F. Allen, ex-Mayor, was united in wedlock with Mr. R. Crookshank, wholesale dry goods merchant of St. John, N.B. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. Douglas Fraser, M.A., pastor of the church. On account of the serious illness of her sister only the immediate relatives of the bride were invited. The bride was handsomely attired in a gown of white satin, embroidered in pearls and trimmed with chiffon, and she wore a pearl and diamond star, gift of the groom, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaids were Miss Carrie Allen, sister of the bride, and Miss Mary Reid, of Toronto, who wore white brocaded silk, with chiffon fischus and pearl crescents, the gifts of the groom, large black hats, trimmed with feathers and chiffon rosettes, and carried bouquets of pink roses. Two little children attended the bride—Miss Diana Fowler and Master Kerr Cronyn, of Toronto, dressed in white, the little girl wearing a gold chain and heart set with pearls, and the little boy gold cuff links, gifts of the groom. The groom was ably supported by Mr. W. L. Allen, Peterborough, brother of the bride. The ushers were Messrs. C. P. Blair, Arthur and Howard McMurtry and Arthur McLaughlin. After the wedding dinner was served at the beautiful residence, Beech avenue, the happy couple left for their home in St. John, N.B., by way of Montreal and Boston. The bride received a very handsome collection of valuable presents, which testified to her popularity among her numerous friends in this town and elsewhere. Mrs. Crookshank has been a very active worker in St. Paul's church, being a member of the choir, and in the Y. P. S. C. E. she has held many responsible offices and will be much missed.

YESTERDAY'S BICYCLE RACES WELL ATTENDED.

Fast Time Made at the Nicholls Park Track — Corney Meehan's Fast Work.

The attendance was large at the bicycle races yesterday on the admirable track which has been fitted up through the kindness of the trustees of the Nicholls estate. Although it is impossible to bank the track as high on the corners as is usual, as it is used for driving purposes, yet it is very fast, as was proven by the good time which was made in the final heat of the mile open event, it being run off in the fast time of 2 11 4 5, which is very close to the Canadian competition record. Little Corney Meehan, of the Toronto Wanderers, won the race in a grand stand finish from Walker and Little, who were the only ones who could attempt to hold the fast little rider down. This event had to be run off in heats, as there were eleven entries, viz.: W. Lytle, R. O. Blayney, Frank Moore, R. H. Bradburn, G. B. Gordon, C. H. Dawson, Corney Meehan, E. B. Philp, G. Packenham, A. F. Little and W. G. Walker. Neither Blayney, of Simcoe, or Moore, of Toronto, turned up. Lytle, Meehan, Packenham and Walker were in the first heat, which was won by Meehan in 2.18 2 5, Lytle and Walker also qualifying for the final. In the second heat Bradburn, Little, Dawson, Gordon and Philp faced the mark. Dawson made a tremendous spurt in the back stretch and won easily in 2.22 1 5. Gordon and Little also qualified. In the final heat Meehan won by only a couple of feet from Little, with Walker's wheel also lapping, but as a time limit of 2.30 had been set, a run over was ordered, which Meehan again won. Philp and Hutchins were put in as pacemakers and the mile was covered in 2.11 4 5. Walker was a good second and Little was third.

The Novice Race was the first on the card. There were seven starters, viz:—R. H. Bradburn, G. B. Gordon, Bruce Rickey, S. Gillespie, W. Wilson and A. L. Giroux, of Peterborough, and J. Hutchins, of the Wanderers, Toronto. The riders were well bunched until the last lap, when Rickey jumped the bunch in the back stretch and made his spurt. Hutchins was quickly in pursuit but was not good enough to catch his man, who crossed the tape in the good time of 2.21 1-5.

The Boys' Race had for starters F. McKee, Norman Bell and M. Hallihan. They finished in the order named, the last two falling on the track. When Bell fell he was in the lead and on the home stretch having the race well in hand.

The three-mile handicap was most interesting. Young Meehan, who by his good work had made himself a great favourite with the crowd, was the only man on scratch. Lytle and Hutchins were on the 75 yard mark, Philp and Dawson at 100 yards, Bradburn and Packenham at 125 yards and W. Wilson at 150 yards. At the end of the first mile Lytle, Bradburn, Pakenham and Phelps were leading the crowd, which was bunching up. At the end of the second mile Meehan had caught his field and the eight riders crossed the tape in a bunch. Meehan pulled away from the field on the last lap, but Dawson and Pakenham gave him a good race to the end. The finish would have been even closer if Dawson had not lost a good deal of ground by making a very wide circuit of one of the turns. Time, 7.11.

The ride and run race, in which the riders ran once around the track with their wheels and then rode them around, was easily won by Young. The following started:—R. H. Bradburn, C. N. Dawson, Bruce Rickey, S. Gillespie, A. F. Little, R. Young and M. Galvin. Young, Rickey and Bradburn finished in the order named.

The summary of the races is as appended:—

Novice, one mile—Bruce Rickey, Peterborough, won; J. Hutchins (W.B.C.) Toronto, 2nd. Time, 2.21 1-5.

Mile, open—(1st heat)—Meehan won; Lytle, 2nd; Walker, 3rd. Time, 2.18 2-5.

Second heat—Dawson won; Gordon, 2nd; Little, 3rd. Time, 2.22 1-5.

Final—Meehan won; Walker, 2nd; Little, 3rd. Time, 2.11 4 5.

Boys' race, one mile—F. McKee, Peterborough, won; N. Bell, Peterborough, 2nd. Time, 2.53.

Three-mile handicap—Corney Meehan, Toronto, (scratch) won; C. N. Dawson, Peterborough, (100 yards), 2nd; G. Packenham, Peterborough, (125 yards), 3rd. Time, 7.11.

Riding and running, one mile—Richard Young, Peterborough, won; Bruce Rickey, Peterborough, 2nd.

The match race between Gordon and Lytle was not finished. Lytle won the first heat in 2.41.

LADIES' AID EXCURSION.

A Most Enjoyable Outing Down the River Yesterday.

The excursion, yesterday afternoon, to Jubilee Point under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of St. Peter's Cathedral was one of the most successful outings of of the season, and one that was thoroughly enjoyed by the three hundred souls who boarded the City of Peterborough.

The Catholic Literary Association Orchestra furnished excellent music during the day, and the ladies in charge of the excursion did everything in their power to add to the day's enjoyment. The refreshment booth, in charge of Mesdames M. McFadden, P. Begley and Mrs. (Dr.) O'Sullivan, was well patronized during the trip. Ven. Archdeacon Casey, who was on board, took advantage of the occasion to treat the sanctuary boys to a sail, an act of kindness thoroughly appreciated and enjoyed by the youngsters. The excursionists reached home shortly after 10 o'clock.

Ivorine for the Teeth

Asks only a trial. Boasting will not whiten teeth; Ivorine for the teeth does. Extravagant claims will not render the breath sweet and fragrant; Ivorine never fails to do this. Ivorine for the teeth asks you for an opportunity to demonstrate its value. Dentists have affirmed it and the public corroborate professional opinion, but do you know as every tooth loving man or woman ought to know, Ivorine for the teeth is the best.

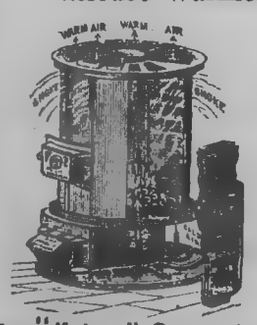
The Most Economical ...House Warmer



The "Kelsey" Corrugated Warm Air Generator.

Any ordinary Hot Air Furnace will produce heat if you will only supply enough fuel. The "Kelsey" has several special and valuable features but most important is that it will give more heat with less fuel and is the most durable heater made.

The "Kelsey" fire pot being constructed of several upright, tubular, corrugated, cast iron sections (see cut) around which the fire passes and up through which the cold air passes while being heated, and this entire section being wrapped with a heavy steelcasing which becomes heated by the fire striking it when passing down outside of upright sections towards smoke pipe, it in turn warms the air that passes up between this steel casing and the galvanized iron casing, this explains why the "Kelsey" has three times more radiating surface and warm air capacity than an ordinary Furnace. The "Kelsey" heats every room evenly, wheresoever located, with a nice, mild, healthful warm air that will not injure your furniture.

The "Kelsey" will heat rooms 60 feet distant.

The "Kelsey" does not heat your cellar.

The "Kelsey" is absolutely gas and dust proof.

ST. LUKE'S GARDEN PARTY.

It Proved a Grand Success—The Grounds Were Crowded.

Through the kindness of Mr. J. A. Sedgewick a garden party was held at his farm, last evening, on the Warsaw road, under the auspices of St. Luke's church.

The farm is that known as the Anson-Cartwright place and is well adapted for affairs of the nature of that which passed off so successfully last evening. The grounds are well shaded and a large orchard immediately adjoins the house.

Tea was served at six o'clock and a large number drove out from town in private carriages, whilst dozens of wheelmen, as well as quite a few ladies, rode out on their bicycles. The busses were running until nine o'clock and came out loaded on every trip. The country people drove in from every direction during the evening and by eight o'clock the garden party was in full swing and the smiling faces of the ladies in charge, as the receipts steadily grew, was indicative of the fact that the affair was proving a great success.

The band was present and played a number of selections most acceptably. As long as there was sufficient light Messrs. Fred Mitchell, Geo. Giroux and Fred Foote gave an exhibition of quoit pitching, which proved most interesting. Mr. H. S. Pendleton was present with his graphophone, and his large audience at all times of the evening showed that he was raking in many shekels for the church.

At the refreshment table Mr. R. J. Weir's voice could be heard proclaiming the merits of lemonade and other things, and business throve with him. He was assisted by Mrs. Weir and Miss Bysche.

At the supper table were Mrs. Charles Curtis, Mrs. Ball, Mrs. Kemp, the Misses Armstrong, Misses Hettie and Effie Benner, and Miss Runnings. Misses Maggie and Katie Calcutt looked after a Jack in the Box.

During the evening the choir, which was present in full force, gave a number of very pleasing choruses, and Miss Eva Tivey also sang several pretty solos, which were greatly appreciated.

During the evening the indefatigable rector was here, there and everywhere, encouraging the quoiters by his interest one minute, and brightening the supper tables by his genial presence during the next.

St. Luke's congregation is greatly indebted to Mrs. Sedgewick for her kindness in granting the use of her home for the occasion, which without doubt was one of the most pleasant affairs of the kind ever held in connection with the church.

SCHOOL OPENINGS.

Rural Schools Re-open on the 17th and the Local Ones on the 31st.

The schools in the rural districts open on Monday next, August 17th, but those in the towns and cities do not re-open until two weeks later. This latter regulation also applies to the Collegiate Institutes, though, of course, the Boards of Education in charge can, if they see fit, prolong the holidays at their discretion, as is often done in cases of extreme hot weather or when sickness is becoming epidemic.

Public School Inspector J. Coyle Brown states that the rural schools in this district will open on the 17th according to the provisions of the Act, and inquiry results in the statement that the local Public Schools and Collegiate Institute re-open the 31st.

Sleeplessness, Mental and Physical Fatigue

Go hand in hand. The waste of the body that ought to be restored by rest and sleep suffers increasing diminution; then loss of strength and vigor of body and mind follows. It is in this class of diseases that the marvellous properties of Maltine with Coca Wine are most markedly exhibited. It penetrates to the very sources of vital action, inasmuch as the nerve centres are impressed by its medicinal power and the digestive functions stimulated to increased and more efficient action. This imparts to the whole system the much needed impetus, the nerves are soothed from a state of irritability to one of repose—sleep with all its beneficent influences, comes back to lend its aid in the process of restoration. Digestion keeps pace with the improvement of appetite, and in a short time the nervous, miserable sufferer regains his old-time vigor and the capability to enjoy life and all it affords. Maltine with Coca Wine is sold by all druggists.

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION.

Mrs. (Rev.) Trotter Remembered by the Mission Band Ere Her Departure.

At the close of the regular Wednesday evening prayer meeting in the Murray street Baptist church, Miss Ada Bradshaw, the Secretary of the Mission Band, stepped forward and read the appended address, whilst Miss Annie Croley presented Mrs. (Rev.) Trotter with a handsome autograph quilt, upon the squares of which were the names of fully 150 of the members:—

To Mrs. J. E. Trotter.

The Mission Band of the Murray street Baptist church, Peterborough, planned some months ago to make a missionary autograph quilt. Our aim was not only to interest our Band in missions by working in this way, but also to give you, Mrs. Trotter, a little surprise by giving you the article when finished.

The work went on, and when we heard that you would soon be leaving us we made more haste to finish it and to-night we have much pleasure in asking you to accept this missionary quilt.

We feel sure you will be gratified to know that each name on the quilt represents a small gift to mission. Therefore we are satisfied that you will enjoy this slight token of regard.

Signed on behalf of the Mission Band,

ADA ALDRIDGE, President.
ANNIE CROLY, Vice-President.
ADA BRADSHAW, Sec.-Treas.

Mrs. Trotter was completely taken by surprise but made a most appropriate acknowledgement of the gift in a few remarks.

STONY LAKE REGATTA.

The Races all Most Keenly Contested on the First Day.

The Stony Lake Regatta brought to Juniper Island yesterday, such an array of canoes, row boats, yachts and steamers as was never seen congregated in Stony Lake waters before. It was a beautiful sight to witness the gathering of the immense crowd. First a canoe or two could be seen putting its nose around the corner of an island, then another and another until the scene was lively beyond description and the lake re echoed with the merry laughter of the campers as they hallooed to one another when recognizing a friend. A pretty sight was to see the little tugs bringing in a dozen or more canoes all towed one behind the other, and as it wound in and through the channel reminded one of a huge snake. It is estimated that fully 1000 people witnessed the regatta, and as there were not a great many up from town an idea may be gained of the extent to which Stony Lake has become popular as a camping ground and summer resort.

The races were most evenly contested and were very exciting, some of the close finishes arousing the greatest enthusiasm. There were no mishaps of a serious nature. The officials gave every satisfaction. They were

INDEPENDENT ORDER OF ODDFELLOWS.

MEETING OF THE GRAND LODGE AT BARNIA.

Record of the Order—Reports of the Various Executive Officers—One of the Most Important Meetings that the Society Has Yet Held.

BARNIA, Aug. 13.—The Grand Lodge of Ontario, I. O. O. F., which is holding its annual meeting here, held three sessions to-day and accomplished a large amount of work; indeed, they laboured to such good purpose that they will probably wind up their business half a day ahead of the time they allowed themselves for its disposal.

After roll call, the receiving of the report of the Committee on Election Returns was the first order of business. This report showed that the following officers had been elected by acclamation: Grand Master, Henry White, Port Hope; Deputy Grand Master, J. A. Young, Thamesford; Grand Secretary, J. B. King, Toronto; Grand Treasurer, Wm. Badenach, Toronto; Past Grand Masters W. H. Hoyle, Cannington, and R. W. Bell, Peterborough, were the candidates for Grand representative to the Sovereign Grand Lodge. Mr. W. H. Hoyle was elected. Mr. J. E. Farewell, Whitby, was elected Grand Warden.

WIDOWS' ANNUITIES.

The report on annuities was then submitted and will be the first business at to-morrow morning's session. This report of the special committee appointed to obtain information as to the payment of annuities to widows of deceased members, the number of claims of such widows which are unadjusted, the reason for the payment of annuities, and other matters connected therewith, is one of extreme interest to the order as a whole. The report states that the Grand Secretary by direction of the Grand Master, addressed a circular to the various subordinate lodges asking information as to the number of widows of deceased members having unadjusted claims, and the reason for the non adjustment of such claims. First, the number of widows receiving annuities; second, the number of widows who have refused to compromise for a reasonable amount; third, the number who are paid annuities by the voluntary wish of the lodge; fourth, the number still paid annuity because of the inability of the lodge to raise the funds necessary to a satisfactory compromise of widows' claims. From replies to these inquiries it was found that the number of unadjusted claims of widows of deceased members was 45, though it is feared that full returns from all the lodges would have shown the number to be much larger. The number of widows at present receiving annuities in the subordinate lodges was reported at 30; there were 15 widows who had for a reasonable amount; the number of widows who were being paid an annual sum by the voluntary wish of the lodge was 22; as to the number of widows who were being paid an annuity because of the inability of the lodge to raise the funds necessary to a satisfactory compromise, it was reported at six, but from other information received by the committee it appeared quite probable that a greater number was being paid annuities for this reason. Regarding the amounts payable by lodges to widows and the mode of adjusting the claims there was a most refreshing variety. As an illustration of how the system of annuities has been working, and what its effect would have been but for the action of the Grand Lodge at the Barrie session, 1888, and the Ontario insurance act, the case of one lodge, where there was only one widow of a deceased member to be paid, was given. She had received $830 during the past seventeen years, "and assuming," the report said, "that her deceased husband had belonged to the lodge for a time equal to the average age of a generation of men (33 years), this lady has received $605 more than her husband ever paid to the lodge; her husband, besides, had his medical attendance paid during all this period, and, assuming his death was not a sudden one, he probably received a considerable sum for sick benefits and his widow the funeral benefit in addition to the $830 which she has received. The committee," the report continues, "had spent much time in examining the returns made by the subordinate lodges to the Grand Secretary and comparing their former and present financial condition."

IT REGRETTED

to notice that many lodges which once had a large surplus and undertook to pay very large annuities to widows or large sums in gross were now making steady though philanthropic progress towards that position when they would be unable to meet the claims upon them, unless there was a radical change in the amount of their dues or in the amount of benefits. The committee felt it a proper, but an unpleasant, duty to report to the Grand Lodge that their investigations had convinced them that the lodges under the present system of independent payments of sick, funeral and widows' benefits had undertaken to pay more money than their income could warrant them in paying; that the experience of all the societies of this kind had demonstrated that the lodges were either receiving too small an amount from their members or had undertaken to pay too much for benefits. Instances were given where the expenditure of lodges in consequence of this was some hundreds of dollars in excess of the receipts. "If this system," the report continues, "of small receips and large expenditures for benefits continues, how long will it be before lodges are compelled to repudiate altogether the claims of widows of deceased members? As soon as it becomes known that lodges cannot perform their promises and must disappoint the just expectations of widows and orphans in the hour of their need and affliction, they may as well write 'Ichabod' on the doors of their lodge rooms." After on the subject of annuities, the report strongly urges that there should be adopted a uniform system of dues and benefits. It says:—"A careful investigation must demonstrate to the most sincere advocate of 'things as they are' the folly of the conclusion that because a society has contrived to meet all its demands and saved a little money during the earlier portion of its existence it is necessarily in a solvent condition. A much larger sum than is generally imagined is required to be placed out at interest during the earlier period of membership if the heavy claims for sickness which past experience shows must be expected after the recipients have reached the age of 60 are to be faithfully liquidated." Vital statistics were quoted to prove that there was on the average less sickness experienced during the first forty years after manhood than in the ten years between 60 and 70. In spite of this and of warnings a very large number of the lodges continued to charge a uniform rate for all ages.

After referring to opinions as to the power to change a contract after the death of a member, the report closes as follows: "Your committee submits, in view of the many cases in this jurisdiction where no reasonable compromise can be effected and of the fact that it is probable that there will be in the near future many more of such cases, that it is expedient that the Registrar of Friendly Societies be respectfully requested to ask for legislation as to the following matters: (1) For providing a means of determining the amount, if any, which shall be paid to widows who claim annuities from lodges; (2) legislation declaring that when bylaws provide that all changes made in the bylaws of subordinate lodges as to the payment of benefits to widows or members shall be valid whether made during the life or after the death of a member; (3) that in any action for widows or other benefits commenced in a Division or County Court, the same shall be removed upon the ex parte application of the defendants into the High Court of Justice upon the filing with a registrar or the local registrar of said High Court affidavits setting out that it is possible that the total claims of the plaintiffs, including subsequent claims, may amount to a sum beyond the jurisdiction of the court in which the action is brought."

Rev. T. W. Jolliffe presented the report of the Advisory Committee of the Oddfellows' Relief Association. It showed a membership in the association of 8,819, an increase of 751 for the year. Death claims, to the extent of $94,000, and $2,500 in disability claims had been paid out during the year.

The Committee on Mileage and Per Diem submitted its report, which was adopted. According to the report the rate will be $2 a day and five cents per mile one way.

It was moved by Past Grand Master Cole, seconded by Past Grand Master Gibson, that the representatives to the Sovereign Grand Lodge be and are hereby instructed to procure such legislation from the Sovereign Grand Lodge as will permit the veteran jewel to be worn by those entitled to wear them, in lieu of regalia in all places where it is proper to wear regalia. The motion was adopted.

Past Grand Master Oliver presented the report of the Committee on Finance, which was adopted clause by clause. It recommended that Bro. W. A. Rawlings, Chairman of the Committees on Laws and Subordinates, be paid the sum of $75 for his services during the year, that the sum of $500 be placed at the disposal of the Grand Master to meet necessary expenses, that the auditors be paid $25 each for their services, that the application of New Westminster Lodge, B.C., for permission to appeal to the lodges of Ontario for help to pay off a debt be not granted.

In accordance with a notice of motion given at the last session of Grand Lodge, Representative Smoke introduced a motion to abolish the district system as at present in force. The matter called for a spirited discussion on the part of the members. W. H. Hoyle, P.G.M., ably defended the present system and moved in amendment that the question lie on the table for one year. The amendment was carried.

GOOD ENDORSERS.

Every business man understands that no matter how valuable the signature on a note may be, his confidence is greatly increased if the note is well endorsed.

This is equally true of articles other than notes. It is particularly true of pianos. The musical public always likes to know if a piano is well endorsed.

The Mason & Risch Piano is undoubtedly endorsed by more eminent names than any other instrument made in Canada. Here are a few of them:—

Madame Albani	Franz Lizst
Sir A. C. McKenzie (Principal Royal College of Music)	F. H. Torrington
	S. P. Warren
Dr. Bridge (Organist Westminster Abbey)	Edouard Remenyi
	W. Waugh Lauder
Otto Bendix	Signor D'Auria
Frederick Archer	Watkins Mills
Mrs. Longmore	Edouard Scharff

These are but few of the many eminent admirers of our pianos. We could go on and fill a column but we think this enough to establish our claim to be well endorsed.

An examination of our instruments is cordially solicited no matter how remote your idea of purchase may be.

Our prices are reasonable, quality considered, and our terms elastic enough to suit anyone.

The dyspeptic carries a dreadful load on his back. It seems as if he were really made up of two men. One of them ambitious, brainy and energetic; the other sick, listless, peevish and without force. The weak man weighs the other one down. The dyspeptic may be able to do pretty good work one day, and the next day because of some little indiscretion in eating, he may be able to do nothing at all. He isn't capable of continuous and vigorous effort. His bodily discomfort affects his mind. Even when he knows just what is the matter, he neglects the simplest precautions and the simple treatment that would cure him. Most of dyspepsia starts with constipation, and constipation can be cured. Constipation is the cause of nine-tenths of all human sickness. Some of its symptoms are sick and bilious headache, dizziness, sour stomach, loss of appetite, foul breath, windy belchings, heartburn, pain and distress after eating. All these are indicative of derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels, and all are caused by constipation. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the quickest, easiest and most certain cure for this condition. They are quick, but not violent in their action. There is nothing about them that will give the system any shock. They not only relieve immediately, but if taken according to directions, they will absolutely cure. "You do not become a slave to their use." They are different and better than any other pill or preparation offered for the same purpose. Almost all druggists understand this, and are conscientious enough to tell you so. The druggist who tries to sell you a substitute is not a safe man from whom to buy medicine. If you will send your address, we will send you a sample package, containing from 4 to 7 doses, and you can see exactly what the "Pellets" will do for you.

If you will send 21 one-cent stamps to cover cost of customs and mailing only, we will send you FREE the most useful medical book ever presented to the public. This is Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, in Plain Language; a book of 1008 pages, profusely illustrated, the great expense of preparing which has been covered by a sale of 680,000 copies at the regular price, $1.50 per copy. Address, World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

A Scientific Failure.

Occasionally science must admit failure. One night a young man in Divinity Hall, at Yale, undertook, with a toy rifle, to hit a lamp. But his aim was poor and the ball passed through the window of an eminent and venerable professor of science and embedded itself in the wall. This was the opportunity for the professor and for science. He, too, set to work and computed the curve, and with the exact skill of infallible figures, he traced the ball right back to the room of an innocent colleague, who didn't even know the rifle had been fired. The unfledged minister flatly denied all knowledge of the affair. But men, even a minister, have been known to make denials in self-defense, and the professor had the proof with him. There was the bullet, there were the marks of its course, and there was the computation worked out. It looked as if a pulpit career was to be nipped in the bud. But the guilty student heard what was going on. He called on the professor, confessed the offense, pointed out that the man of science was 200 feet out in his computation, and advised that the matter be dropped right where it was. And that was done.—Hartford Courant.

FOUND A JEWEL.

An Important Find by a Brockville Jeweller.

Mr. Joseph Lane, the well-known jeweller of Brockville, says: "For some years I have suffered with severe pains in my back and sides and flashes of heat between my shoulders. I had a tired, worn-out feeling. "The numerous medicines that I took gave me very little relief. Hearing of Doan's Kidney Pills I thought I would try a box, and got one at Curry's drugstore.

"After the first two or three doses I felt much relieved, and the longer I took them the greater the change for the better in my condition. I am much better in every respect and recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to all sufferers from kidney trouble as the best remedy I know of."

THE FOREST FOLK.

Interesting Tales of the Birds and Animals of the Woods.

One of the sauciest little chaps in the woods is the chipmunk. He becomes quite easily wonted to the ways of civilization if he only has half a chance to meet people.

A family which lived in a large log house in the woods near to one of the lumber towns received a visit one day from a friend from a far distant city. He went to bed in one of the rooms where the sweet pine logs were wall and plaster and paper all in one. The inside of the room was yellow with the color of the logs, which had been stripped of their bark. You can't know how fresh and sweet a room of this kind is until you have tried it.

It was summer time, and he raised his window to let in the cool air. In the middle of the night, when it seemed to him he had just fallen asleep, he was awakened by a queer feeling—something was tickling his ear. He brushed and struck out in a sleepy sort of a way and went off to sleep again. Soon he was tickled on the nose in the same way, and he awoke with a start. He couldn't see anything in the dark room, and thought he must have been dreaming, so back again he went to sleep. All night long he was disturbed in this way, and when he awoke for the last time the sun was shining full in his window. There on the headboard of his bed, looking at him in a saucy manner, was the cause of all his sleeplessness—a twinkling-eyed chipmunk. He had been frisking around all night at the head of the bed, tickling the gentleman's nose and ears with the tip of his tail.

The gentleman had brought up some fresh peaches from the city—a rare treat, too, to people so far away in the vast woods—but when they came to look for them in the morning they found only the stones—the chipmunks had come out of the woods in the night and eaten up all the peaches. The little chipmunk which had so disturbed the gentleman in his sleep was a pet in the family, and many a provoking prank was overlooked.

One of the Bird's Grandfathers.

After looking closely at the picture, can you tell what kind of an animal it represents? A bird never has four legs nor teeth, but this odd animal has both. A lizard never has feathers; this animal has. Nor is it a bat or a curious fish.

The fact is, this strange creature is the "missing link" between the reptile and the bird. It lived thousands of years ago, and the picture you see was drawn by a clever scientist from the fossil skeletons which have been found in Europe.

It is called the archaeopteryx, and it has the body and tail of a lizard, the wings of a bird and a queer head, half lizard and half bird. It was about the size of our crow, and it probably flew about in the trees of those wonderful forests that grew long before there were any men on the earth. It was probably bright colored, and it must have looked odd as it whirred about. It was one of the earliest ancestors of the present bird family, but scientists have not yet made up their minds whether to call it a birdlike lizard or a lizardlike bird.

A Root-a-Toot.

Look carefully at the picture. It represents a root-a-toot, which is small to fit easily inside of your mouth. A root-a-toot is made of two pieces of wood whittled in the shape shown and fitted together with a piece of fine tape stretched very tight between. When the tape is stretched the two pieces may be fastened together by winding stout thread around them lengthwise on the outside.

When the root-a-toot is placed in the back of the mouth the breath causes the tape to vibrate and send out all sorts of queer noises. In place of the tape you may use rubber bands for a variation. Try it.

ONE HONEST MAN.

DEAR EDITOR:—Please inform your readers, that if written to confidentially will mail, in a sealed letter, particulars of a genuine, honest home cure, by which I was permanently restored to health and manly vigor after years of suffering from nervous debility, sexual weakness, night losses and weak, shrunken parts. I was robbed and swindled by the quacks until I nearly lost faith in mankind, but thank heaven, I am now well, vigorous and strong and wish to make this certain means of cure known to all sufferers. I have nothing to sell and want no money, but being a firm believer in the universal brotherhood of man, I am desirous of helping the unfortunate to regain their health and happiness. I promise you perfect secrecy and as I do not wish to expose myself either, please address, simply: P. O. Box 388, London, Ont.

Animal Antipathies.

Darwin gives several instances of inherited animal antipathies which appear equally striking. The excessive fear shown by young rabbits which for the first time smell a ferret and of young turkeys which hear the shrill cry of a hawk they have never heard or seen before, are proved examples of the strength of these instinctive antipathies.

Nervous Prostration
Complete Recovery by the Use of
Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"Some years ago, as a result of too close attention to business, my health failed. I became weak, nervous, was unable to look after my interests, and manifested all the symptoms of a decline. I took three bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, began to improve at once, and gradually increased my weight from one hundred and twenty-five to two hundred pounds. Since then, I and my family have used this medicine when needed, and we are all in the best of health, a fact which we attribute to Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I believe my children would have been fatherless to-day had it not been for Ayer's Sarsaparilla, of which preparation I cannot say too much."—H. O. HINSON, Postmaster and Planter, Kinard's, S. C.

Built For Eternity.

The Roman road was built for eternity. When the roadbed had been prepared by excavation it was carefully refilled, regardless of expense, with layers of sand, stones and cement. The surface was so solidly dressed that the wear and tear was reduced to a minimum. Investigations with regard to the preparation of the roadbeds were made years ago by Bergier on Roman roads that are still in use in France, and with the following results: In one road the excavation down to hardpan was three feet deep. This trench was filled up first with a layer of sand and cement an inch thick; then came a foot layer of flattish stones and cement; then a foot layer of small traveled stones and cement. These two last layers were so hard and firmly knit together that tools could break off fragments only with great difficulty. The next layer consisted of a foot of cement and sand, covered with a top-dressing of gravel. In another road in France the foot layer of cement and sand changed places with the layer of cement and traveled stones. A third road in France was examined at a point where it had been raised 20 feet above the level of the surrounding country, and a vertical section revealed a structure of five layers. First came the great fill of 16 1-2 feet; on top of this fill they placed first a foot layer of flattish stones and cement, then a foot layer of flattish stones without mortar of any kind, then a half-foot layer of firmly-packed dirt, then a half-foot layer of small gravel in hard cement, and, lastly, a half-foot layer of cement and large gravel.

Paved roads were exceptional. An example of paved roads is the Via Appia, whose pavement consists of a hard kind of stone, such as is used for millstones. The stones of this pavement are carefully hewn and fitted together so precisely that the road often appears to be solid rock, and has proved to be so indestructible that after 2000 years of continuous use it is still a magnificent road. Ordinarily, however, the top dressing of the road consisted of gravel and hard cement, and when, in the countless inscriptions such and such a governor is said to have restored a given road, reference is made to this top dressing of gravel and cement. The width of the military road is usually 60 feet; the raised center being 20 feet wide, with side tracks each of the width of 20 feet. In some roads the raised center was paved, while the side tracks were dressed with gravel and cement.

The viae privatae an the feeders of the military roads were usually dirt roads. They were much narrower than the military roads: sometimes they had a width of only ten feet and, indeed, the feeders of the Via Appia were only two feet wide, but paved. The width of the Roman roads, all told, varied therefore, from two to 120 feet.—N.Y. Independent.

GUNS LOADED WITH FOOD.

Why an Old Negro Thought His End Had Come.

Maj. Thomas Q. Farquhar of Anniston, Ala., on a visit to Buffalo recently, told a Buffalo Express reporter a humorous story of the war. During the siege of Vicksburg he was in command of a Confederate regiment outside of Gen. Grant's lines.

"We had plenty of food," he said. "It was a fertile territory that we had to draw from and there was no difficulty in getting enough to eat. We intercepted a poorly-guarded supply train of the Yanks and had enough to feed a regiment for a month stored right in our little camp. In spite of Yankee vigilance spies would now and then steal out of the city and we saw and talked with several of them. Each had a pitiful story to tell of how the inhabitants of Vicksburg suffered for food, and we ransacked our brains to devise some means of sending them a portion of our plenty.

"An old negro who was acting as a gunner under me was the one to suggest what looked at first like a feasible plan. His idea was to load supplies into the four cannon which we had and fire them boldly over the heads of the Yankees into the city itself. It was a great idea, and after some study we decided that it was worth while making the experiment. The supplies which we had contrived consisted of hardtack in tins, that would go into the guns like grape shot, and we calculated that by giving them plenty of elevation we could send the food directly into the city, where even such morsels would be welcome. I was in command of the detachment, and gave my consent to what an older and more experienced officer would probably have frowned upon as being contrary to all rules of war.

"Next morning at sunrise we loaded the guns. We put a plentiful charge of powder in each and then rammed home as many cans of hardtack as would equal in weight an ordinary cannon ball, and that was not a great many, I assure you. In one of the guns we put four cans of tomatoes. This we considered an experiment, as we had little hopes that such fluid stuff would survive the impact of falling in the city, but it was worth trying. We pointed the guns and just before the lanyard of the first was pulled the old negro gunner ran a few rods down the hill, where he would be below the line of smoke and able to see where our novel shot struck.

"The first gun fired happened to be the one we had loaded with tomatoes. The gunner pulled the lanyard, there was a roar and a puff of smoke that obscured our sight for an instant; then it blew away and we saw running up the hill toward us our old negro, covered from head to foot with what looked like blood, while he waved his arms wildly and shrieked, 'I'm killed! I'm killed! O Lord have masy on my soul!' We were alarmed and ran down toward him. He still screamed and shrieked and fell down in a faint as he saw us. We rushed up to him and then every man of us burst into a laugh that would have waked the dead.

"It roused old Tom, who opened his eyes and shrieked the louder when he saw our apparently inhuman levity. As soon as we were able to speak or move we picked the old negro up, stood him on his feet to assure him that he was still alive, and then ordered him to scrape the tomatoes off himself. He was the most thoroughly bedaubed specimen I ever saw. You see the heat of the discharge of the cannon melted the solder in the tomato cans and the lead simply dropped to pieces on leaving the gun, while their contents had been propelled just far enough down the hill to spatter all over the old negro." The major paused and chuckled again.

"How did the hardtack work?" asked the reporter.

"We didn't get a chance to try it," was the reply. "The Yanks, thinking that we were about to bombard them from the rear, started up the hill after us, and as there would have been no use in making any resistance against so superior a force, we spiked the guns and retreated. What they thought when they found the hardtack in them I never learned, but I suppose it only confirmed their idea that we were going to attack them."

Her Latest Whims.

Fruits promise to replace flowers for early autumn wear, and red is likely to be a most popular color, combined with either cherries or currants.

The most popular midsummer wrap is the box cloth cape, short to the waist, putty tinted and lined with white satin. This small arrangement seems to be just enough for an emergency of wind and not too much for fair weather.

ABOUT THE LIVER.

A lazy, slow or torpid liver influences the whole system, causing biliousness, sick headache, sallow complexion, languor and dullness. Burdock Blood Bitters regulates the liver, purifies the secretions and cures all forms of liver troubles. We say so and here is the proof:—

I hereby wish to thank you for the great benefit derived by me from your Burdock Blood Bitters. For three years I was troubled with liver complaint and tried everything to no purpose. I had almost given up hope until one day I determined to try Burdock Blood Bitters. I can say now that marked improvement resulted from the use of the first bottle and at the end of the sixth bottle I discontinued its use, being completely cured.

Care of Horses in Summer.

The basement barn ought never to be used to keep horses in in summer. It is a cool place, but it is made so by being kept too dark and by a lack of ventilation. The odor from the urine is constantly rising from their evacuations, and as this contains much ammonia, it is doubly injurious, first to the health, and secondly to the eyesight. Many horses have been blinded by being kept in dark stables, with perhaps a light shining from a small window over the horse's head.

CANADIAN LEAGUE RUMORS.

There is some talk in London and Guelph of the possibility of the Canadian League disbanding, owing to Brantford's inability to fill the vacancy caused by Galt's withdrawal. The London News says a proposition has been made to drop Hamilton and have the Alerts and Maple Leafs play a series of two games a week for the balance of the season. Secretary Col. Davis of the Canadian Baseball Association thinks there is little probability of the league disbanding this season, and that baseball will boom in Hamilton next year. Indeed, there is more likelihood of The Spectator's idea being brought about: "If London is not careful it will find that the Hamiltons and Guelph will arrange a series of games and leave the Alerts in the cold. Ever since the league was formed the London club has been a kicker, even going so far as to hog all the holiday games."

Winnipeggers Again Won.

Saratoga, Aug. 13.—The second and concluding day of the national regatta finished some excellent races, which were witnessed by a good-sized crowd from the bluff overlooking the course. The day was an ideal one for aquatics. The terrible rays of the sun were veiled by fleecy clouds and a gentle breeze from the northeast cooled the atmosphere without being sufficiently strong to interfere with the oarsmen.

The honors to-day were evenly distributed. Joseph J. Whitehead of Cambridgeport, Mass., won the senior singles. The race was protested by E. A. Thompson, who claimed that Whitehead had entered his water and crowded him out of his course. Referee Ballantyne ordered the race to be re-rowed, but Whitehead refused to row again, when the referee weakened and the race was awarded to Whitehead.

In the intermediate singles Edward H. Ten Eyck of Worcester, Mass., won quite handily. The New York A.C. won the senior double shell race in great shape, but were beaten by the Baltimores in the senior eights. The latter rowed in fine form and had a length and a quarter to the good at the finish. The great event of the day was the international four-oared senior shell race. The famous Winnipeg crew from Manitoba pulled away from their competitors, the Riversides of Massachusetts, the Staten Islands, the Institutes of Newark, and the Detroits, and crossed the line with four open lengths to spare. The Riversides, who finished second, were disqualified for having fouled the Winnipegs at the turn and second place was given to the Staten Islands. The Institutes were third and the Detroits fourth. The prizes were distributed at the United States Hotel this evening. Summaries:

Final heat of senior singles—Won by Joseph J. Whitehead, Riverside B.C., Cambridgeport, Mass.; E. A. Thompson, Argonaut R.C., Toronto, 2; J. B. Juvenal, Pennsylvania Barge Club, Philadelphia, 3; Fred Crosser, Vesper B.C., Philadelphia, 4. Time 10.11.

Intermediate singles—Won by H. Ten Eyck, Wachusett B.C., Worcester, Mass; Edward F. Schultz, Narragansett B.C., Providence, R.I., 2; R. C. Lockwood, Philadelphia B.C., 3; B. Nall, Detroit B.C., 4. Time 9.50.

Senior eight-oared shell—Won by Baltimore A.C., Baltimore; New York A.C. 2. Time 7.48½.

Senior double sculls—Won by New York A.C., Toronto R.C. 2, Pennsylvania Barge Club 3. Time 9.10¾.

International four-oared senior shell—Won by Winnipeg B.C., Winnipeg; Staten Island B.C. 2, Institute B.C., Newark, N.J., 3; Detroit B.C. 4, Riverside B.C. disqualified. Time 8.35¾.

DURNAN AND ROGERS WIN.

Belleville, Aug. 13.—This afternoon at 2 o'clock the conditions for shell racing were perfect, the water being as smooth as a mirror in places, with streaks of wind, which blew across the course. The skiff races were first on the program.

In the 20-foot class the starters were: Chance, Toronto; Tiza, Picton; Chance nine seconds. Tiza, which had all the luck, won by a long distance.

The starters in the 16 and 18-foot class were: Quinte, Picton; Vampa, Picton; Mohawk, Belleville; Viva, Picton; Roma, Belleville; Mabelle, Belleville. Vampa was first, Quinte second and Viva third.

A local skiff race was won by Emmoma.

Junior singles, ¾ mile with turn—Greenwood of the Dons, Robertson of the Torontos, Alward of the Torontos were the starters. Alward dropped out after rowing a quarter of a mile, being then far behind. Robertson went ahead at first, but Greenwood beat him by about five lengths. Time 11.41 3-5.

The professional double sculls, ¾ mile dash, was contested by Bubear and Barry, Rogers and Durnan, Hackett and Hanlan. The water had become jumpy before this race, and it was against wind and sea. Bubear and Barry dropped out half way and Rogers and Durnan won, 5.10 3-5, Hackett and Hanlan 5.20 2-5.

The junior double scull, ¾ mile dash, followed. The starters were: Robinson and Greenwood, Alward and Marsh. This was a hard and closely-contested race, which the latter pair won by a few feet. Time 6.22 3-5.

The last race of the day was the single-scull race for professionals, 1½ miles with a turn, prizes $300, $150, $50. Hackett, Rogers, Hanlan, Durnan and Bubear were the starters. There was a very light wind and some swell on the bay. Hanlan and Hackett sprinted for the lead, which the former got and led to the turn, where he started for home three lengths away. Rogers drew up to him, and at the half distance Hanlan claimed a foul and rowed on to the finish, where Rogers was first in 20.32 3-5, with Hanlan 10 secs. later, Durnan third, Bubear fourth, Hackett last. Hanlan's claim is that Rogers crossed into his water. The referee will hear the testimony before deciding.

When any part of the body isn't doing the work that nature intended it to do, it puts the whole system out of tune—out of harmony. When children stand a row of bricks on end, they knock the whole row down by upsetting one brick. That is exactly what happens to the health when the bowels fail to perform their proper function. Constipation makes trouble all along the line—puts the liver out of order, is bad for the kidneys—bad for the stomach. It holds in the body poisonous matter, and because it cannot go any place else, it gets into the blood. The blood carries it all over the system. That makes sluggishness, lassitude, bad breath and foul taste in the mouth, fills the stomach with gas and causes windy belching, stops digestion in the stomach, causes sour stomach, heartburn and headache. You can avoid all such trouble, for Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets CURE constipation and its attendant evils.

WORK SUSPENDED ON TRENT VALLEY CANAL.

OPERATIONS TO BE SUSPENDED ON ONE OF THE SECTIONS.

The New Minister Wants to Know More About the Work Before They Will Allow it to Proceed.

Special to the Examiner.

The receiving of tenders for the Balsam Lake Division of the Trent Valley Canal has been postponed indefinitely by order of the acting Minister of Railways and Canals. Tenders were to have been in by Monday of next week, and enquiry at the department elicits the information that none have yet been sent in.

As the contract is a large one and involves the expenditure of a large amount of money on a scheme that is not yet thoroughly understood in all its details by the new administration, it is thought as well to let the matter stand for the present. Besides this the new minister is yet to arrive in the Capital and assume the management of his department. While others of the ministry have been attending to their duties here ever since the swearing in, Mr. Blair has had no opportunity of following this course, and accordingly everything that can stand over in his department till his arrival will do so.

The postponement does not therefore mean the abandoning of the scheme. Two other new contracts this season are being worked and must go ahead, but the completion of the system which is still a very long way off is something that must of necessity call for close attention before further steps are taken in the matter.

The Ottawa Free Press says: "Mr. Perkins, Sparks street, has already finished for Messrs. Corry & Laverdure, contractors, twelve big cast iron pipes for the Trent Valley canal. Each pipe is eight feet long and four feet in diameter, and weighs eight thousand pounds. The firm are at present casting two such pipes every week. This kind of work has always been a failure in this city, but in this instance it is proving a perfect success so far. The work is done by an apparently very simple method. A cast iron frame is made four feet long and sheeted with brick on the inside, upon which a composition of clay and sand is plastered until it is made to the right size and a smooth surface. This part is then sunk into a hole in the ground, and another exactly the same placed on top of it, after which there are two others finished on the outside and placed inside of the first two sections, then the eight thousand pounds of iron is melted and all poured into the mould at once using only one ladle."

"Canst thou minister to a mind diseased?" asks Macbeth. Certainly, my lord; the condition of the mind depends largely, if not solely, on the condition of the stomach, liver and bowels, for all of which complaints Ayer's Pills are the "sovereignest thing on earth."

SALE OF BURNT TIMBER.

A quantity of pine timber, estimated at about four million feet, B. M., situated on lot 4 in the 2nd con. and lots 3 and 4 in the 3rd con. of the Township of Rathbun, north east of Wahnapitae Lake, in the District of Nipissing; and a quantity estimated at four and one half million feet, B.M., situated on the shore of Lake Biscotasing, in the District of Algoma, on the main line of the Canadian Pacific Railway, having been damaged by fire, the undersigned hereby calls for tenders for the right to cut the same.

Tenders will be received up to and including the Seventh day of September next, and must state the rate per thousand feet board measure, if made into saw logs, or per thousand feet cubic, if made into square timber, which the tenderer is willing to pay as bonus or in addition to the ordinary Crown dues of one dollar per thousand feet board measure, on saw logs, and twenty dollars per thousand feet cubic on square timber. Separate tenders should be made for each quantity, and must be accompanied by a marked cheque for $300. The party awarded the right to cut will have to give a bond, with satisfactory sureties, for the performance of all the terms and conditions which may be required by the Department.

Mr. F. Sinclair, Forest Ranger at Sudbury, will give information respecting the timber, etc., and further particulars as to conditions may be obtained from this Department.

The figures as to quantity represent the Department's estimate only, and intending purchasers must satisfy themselves as to quantities and purchase upon their own estimates. The Department does not bind itself to accept the highest or any tender. Tenders should be marked "Tenders for Burnt Timber," and addressed to the Hon. the Commissioner of Crown Lands, Toronto.

NEST EGG MINING COMPANY

LIMITED LIABILITY.

CAPITAL - - $500,000

In Shares of $1.00 Each, Fully Paid and Non-Assessable Stock.

Head Office, Victoria, B. C. Mines, Trail Creek, W. Kootenay.

TRUSTEES.

G. A. Kirk, President; A. B. Erskine and P. A. O'Farrell.

Among the list of stockholders are the following well-known gentlemen: Lieut.-Governor Dewdney, the Hon. J. H. Turner, Premier of British Columbia; R. P. Rithet, M.L.A.; Hon. D. W. H. Higgins, Speaker of the Provincial Legislature; Capt. John Irving, A. J. McColl, Q.C., E. V. Bodwell, William Wilson, Simon Leiser, C. A. Holland, and other well-known citizens of Victoria.

The Nest Egg Mining Company was formed to acquire and operate the famous Nest Egg mine in the Trail district of West Kootenay, within a half mile of the centre of Rossland. It is a 1500-foot location and covers fifty acres and is Crown granted. It has three well-defined ledges all trending in an easterly and westerly direction, like the old figures of the camp. The main ledge on the Nest Egg is one of the strongest and best defined ledges of the district and has been traced from the Sunset and Gold Hunter on the west to the Commander on the east. A shaft has been sunk for fifty feet on this main ledge, and this shaft is all in ore and ledge matter from top to bottom. On the central vein three shafts have been sunk, and the vein traced for 800 feet. The west shaft is 16 feet deep and the ore in this shaft assays from $7 to $48 in gold and 4 per cent. copper. The central shaft is down 40 feet, and the clean ore taken out of this shaft averages over $30 in gold. Number 3 shaft on this vein is about 300 feet east of No. 2 and is down 30 feet, with 3 feet of solid clean ore in the bottom of the shaft that assays $35 to the ton.

The cost of mining, smelting and treatment for this ore averages $13, so that the Nest Egg is now mining ore that will net it a profit of from $16 to $20 a ton.

The Nest Egg Company has purchased the adjoining mineral claim, the Fire Fly. The Fire Fly has a fine strong, well-defined ledge running through the entire claim, and development work is now being done on this ledge.

The railroad from the Trail smelter to Rossland runs through the company's ground for 2000 feet, affording every possible facility for the shipment of ores from these mines.

The company has placed upon the market 50,000 shares of stock in the Nest Egg Mining Company, which are to be sold at 25 cents a share, and the proceeds are to be devoted to the development of the mines and the purchase of machinery. An additional 50,000 shares will be placed subsequently upon the market at an advanced price should further money be required for the development of the property.

Mr. Miller, an eminent mining engineer, in his report, says: "After careful examination of the Nest Egg mine and the fine ledges that are exposed on that claim, I am satisfied that the Nest Egg mine should develop into one of the rich mines of Trail Creek," and Col. Burke, a mining man of twenty years' experience in Utah, Montana, Idaho and British Columbia, states:—"The Nest Egg, with its great surface showing and mineral ore, with its fine development and with the rich ore in sight, has all the earmarks of a big mine."

The capitalization of this company is 50,000 shares, with one-fifth of the stock in the Treasury, and the sale of this Treasury stock at 25 cents a share is remarkably cheap, for most of the mining companies capitalize for $1,000,000 and upwards, and this fact must be taken into consideration in estimating the value of the Treasury stock of this mine.

The Palo Alto mine was bought by Victoria capitalists on reports made to them by Mr. Frank Loring, Col. Burke and Mr. Harry Howson. Mr. Howson had the ores carefully sampled and assayed, and they averaged $38 to the ton. The Palo Alto vein is a well and clearly defined ledge running through from the Florence mineral claim on the west to the San Joaquin on the east. This vein, called the Palo Alto, is known to be one of the richest in Trail Creek. The walls of this vein are almost perfect, and near the surface are from three to six feet apart, and where depth has been attained valuable shipping ore has in every instance been found.

The Palo Alto is a 1,500 square location and covers over fifty acres of ground. There are two ledges or veins. Very little development has been done on the south ledge. On the main ledge a shaft 30 feet deep has been sunk between two walls, all in ledge matter and ore. The ore from this shaft runs from $18 to $48 in gold. The pay chute in this shaft is increasing as depth is attained, and so is the value in gold.

To the west of this shaft the vein has been traced over 600 feet by surface pits and cuts, showing it to be not only a strong, well-defined vein, but demonstrates the fact that the shaft was sunk on the tail end of this chute of ore, and that the vein as well as the ore gets stronger and larger as you go west from the shaft.

The Palo Alto, judging it from the work that has been done the croppings that come to the surface, and the fact that it is situated in one of the best mineral belts that was ever discovered in the Northwest, is almost certain to make a good paying mine.

The claim lies on low ground, where it would be impossible for it to be a slide, and must be in its original position and a true fissure.

The latest assay values in this vein have run from $25 to $280 in gold, and these values were the best ever taken out of any of the veins in the Trail Creek country at a like depth.

At the end of May, Lieutenant-Governor Dewdney visited Rossland and made a careful inspection of the Palo Alto, in which he was personally interested. On his return to Victoria, the Colonist of May 30th published an interview, in which Gov. Dewdney spoke about the Palo Alto as follows:—"I visited the Palo Alto and examined that claim most carefully. I was exceedingly pleased to find so much development done. Towards the east end of the Palo Alto is a shaft 30 feet deep, with very fine looking ore upon the dump. I had this ore sampled and assayed at the Trail Creek smelter, and found it to be good shipping ore. About 200 feet west of the main shaft is another about 15 feet deep, and the bottom of the shaft is all in ore; 400 feet further west the vein has been stripped and the cuts made expose a fine strong vein. You can say for me that I am more than thoroughly pleased with my inspection of the Palo Alto, and I believe that the Victorians have got a very valuable property in that mine."

The property is paid for in full, and 100,000 shares of stock are to be sold immediately at 15 cents a share for the development of this mine. Another 100,000 shares are reserved in the treasury, to be afterwards sold as the needs of the company require.

These two mining properties, owned and controlled and operated by the leading business men and the best known citizens of the Province of British Columbia, is a guarantee that investors in these two mines have great chances of realising big profits from a small investment. These mines have been recommended and reported on by excellent mining men and by the best mining engineers of the Trail Creek country, and I have no hesitation in recommending investment in these properties as among the safest in that country. For this reason, myself and others have made a contract with the management of the Nest Egg and the Palo Alto companies for the entire treasury stock of both mines, and I cheerfully recommend the purchase of this treasury stock by the investors of Canada who desire to share in the extraordinary rich promise of the Trail Creek mines.

I have come to the conclusion that British Columbia, and Trail Creek in particular, is about to develop into the greatest gold producer that this continent has ever known, and that Trail Creek will rival, and most probably surpass, the wonderful gold fields of South Africa. English capitalists have already begun to find out the wealth of this favoured region, and they have begun to buy some of the mines in Trail Creek. When London has once fairly started to buy these mines there will be no chance for Canadian capital to get mining properly at low figures. I therefore think that if the people of this province desire to share in the enormous profits that are certain to be realized in British Columbia mines they must invest at once, and for this reason I offer to my clients mining stocks in which, after most careful consideration and investigation, I believe they will have an excellent chance of realising big profits.

Stock in both mines supplied on application.

GRIST FROM OTTAWA

The Speaker Will be Elected on Monday.

SIR HENRY STRONG WILL PRESIDE

Proceedings on That Day Will Not Call for the Presence of Lord Aberdeen—Tourists and Their Bikes—Annual Report on Insurance—Notes.

Ottawa, Aug. 14.—The Governor-General will arrive in town on Monday or Tuesday. The preliminary proceedings at the opening of Parliament on Wednesday will not, as usual on such occasions, call for his presence. Deputy Governor Sir H. Strong will preside. The Speaker, having been elected, will present himself to the Governor-General on Thursday, and Parliament will be opened with the customary Speech from the Throne.

The Department of Customs has had prepared a form of application for permission to import bicycles (not new) when brought into Canada by tourists or others. The new regulation applies to cyclists who may come from Europe and who are not consequently members of the L.A.W. In the case of members of the League of American Wheelmen, no money deposit is required when a bicyclist brings his wheel into the country. All that he is required to do is to deposit his L.A.W. certificate at the nearest Custom House. In the case of tourists, either from Europe or the United States, if they be not members of the L.A.W. a deposit is exacted equal to the amount of duty upon the retail price of the bicycle. The new permit just out has to be filled up by the tourist, and when his wheel is re-manifested out of the country the amount deposited on it is refunded to the party who may have brought the wheel into Canada.

A special militia general order issued this morning states that the annual gun practice of detachments from field batteries of active militia in Ontario and Quebec will be carried out at Laprairie, near Montreal, from August 31 to September 8. Detachments of "A" and "B" Field Batteries will arrive at camp at Laprairie on the dates given below and will remain for two days' practice. Each detachment will consist of from two to four combatant officers and twelve non-commissioned officers and gunners, six of whom at least must be non-commissioned officers. The dates are: Montreal, Aug. 31; Quebec and Shefford, Sept. 1; London and Welland Canal, Sept. 2; First Brigade, Guelph, Sept. 3; Ottawa and Durham, Sept. 4; Hamilton and Toronto, Sept. 5; Kingston and Gananoque, Sept. 7.

Detachments may arrange to arrive at camp on the evening before the above date or on the morning of the dates given.

Lieut.-Col. Wilson, R.C.A., has been appointed camp commandant, while Capt. O. Pelletier will act as camp adjutant.

Field Batteries not in the foregoing list will perform their annual practice at local headquarters.

A return of comparative efficiency for the field batteries which performed their 12 days in camp in June, this year, showed that none of them touched the Ottawa battery, which was at that time only allowed eight days. The Guelph battery scored 510 points to the Ottawa battery's 519, Toronto 509, Welland Canal 477.

In the matter of militia equipment, it is learned that something has been done towards securing a new outfit, but nothing definite, and it is said that a modification of equipment, known to the force here as the invention of Surgeon-Major Oliver of Halifax, may have a chance of being selected.

The annual report of the Superintendent of Insurance has been issued. During the year 1895 the business of fire insurance in Canada was carried on by 35 companies. The amount paid for losses was $4,393,758, which is greater than that paid in 1894 by $404,387. The gross amount of policies, new and renewed, taken during the year by fire companies was $567,639,643, showing an increase of $14,049,620 over the amount taken in 1894. The increase in the amounts of insurance taken in 1895, as compared with 1894, among Canadian companies, is $9,006,528. Among British companies there is an increase of $1,527,870, and among American companies there is an increase of $3,516,283.

The total death list rate was 11,092 in 1895, compared with 10,340 in 1894. The total amount of policies in Canada, taken during the year 1895, was $44,341,193, which is less than the amount taken in 1894 by $3,184,959. The Canadian companies show a decrease in 1895 of $760,682, whilst in 1894 they had an increase of $586,927. The American companies have a decrease of $4,543,789, while in 1894 they had a decrease of $3,495,122; and the British companies have an increase of $123,422, whilst in 1894 they had an increase of $246,361. the total decrease in 1895 being $5,184,029.

Sam Barnett of Toronto has secured the House of Commons restaurant for the coming session. He has managed it well for the past two or three years. He will have the Senate restaurant as well.

The Journal says the Ottawa Liberals, who were applying for the Commons restaurant, are going to make a protest to Mr. Edgar when he reaches here, against Mr. Barnett's appointment. Toronto is sometimes called "Hog-town," but verily in matters of Government pap Ottawa seems to be wanting everything.

The Free Press (Liberal) says the Q.C. list was considered by Sir Oliver Mowat, whose able report to council against the document brought about its cancellation by order in council.

A party of car accountants of New England railways was in the city today, seeing the sights.

The Minister of Trade and Commerce is looking into the question of trade between Canada and the West Indies and Australia. Since 1891 there has been a systematic effort on the part of Canada to build up trade with the West Indies, but results so far have not been encouraging. This is held to be due to the difference in freight rates as between Canadian ports and New York, plus the rates for internal transportation in Canada to the seaboard.

THUGS IN TORONTO.

Three Bandits Robbed a Cyclist, Got Drunk and Refused to Pay and Tackled a Constable.

Toronto, Aug. 15

Three desperadoes made things very lively for a short time in East Toronto late last night, and one of them is now in the cells at Police Headquarters. The men went east from the city, and on reaching the village held up a bicyclist named John Garbutt, taking his valuables. They then proceeded to the hotel, where they ordered drinks and refused to pay for them. The men were all big, muscular fellows, and formidable enough to get whatever they wanted. Sallying forth from the hotel, they stopped a horse and rig coming down Main-street.

County Constable Burns, who occupied the vehicle, was much surprised to be ordered to get out and give up all his immediately available assets. The men were going through his pockets, when he showed fight, but was rolled down across the road, the three men being too many for him. He hung on to one, however, and Constable Wilson came to render assistance.

The prisoner was handcuffed after a vast amount of difficulty and taken to East Toronto lockup, where he butted Constable Tidsberry with his head so forcibly as to knock the officer down.

Fearing that their prisoner would devise some means of getting out or that rescue might be attempted, Constables Burns and Wilson brought the highwayman to the city in a butcher cart.

At Police Headquarters he is registered as Alex Barry, 28 years of age, and his home as Hamilton.

Barry fought all the way from East Toronto to Headquarters, and was fagged out when taken into the cells.

Constable Burns is pretty badly bruised and scratched as a result of his connection with the affair. The two officers had an awful time getting Barry to the city in the butcher cart.

The two associates of the prisoner made good their escape and ran towards the city.

WINNIPEG ITEMS.

Manitoba Creameries Shipping Butter to China and Japan—Railway Man Cut to Pieces.

Winnipeg, Aug. 14.—The Manitoba creameries have just begun their shipment of butter to China and Japan, and they are likely to build up a big and profitable trade.

Winnipeg people are indignant over the statement that Manitoba will have no wheat for export this year. Members of the Grain Exchange say there will be from twelve to fourteen million bushels of wheat for export.

Andrew Maher, railway laborer of Portage la Prairie, while drunk, fell asleep on the railway track. A passing train cut him to pieces.

Hon. Hugh John Macdonald, M.P., leaves for Montreal in a few days. He will attend the Conservative caucus at Ottawa. He may take a hand in the North Grey election.

At a meeting of the Liberals held at Portage la Prairie, strong resolutions were passed urging Mr. Laurier to appoint Joseph Martin as Minister of the Interior.

Drowned While Hunting.

Port Colborne, Aug. 14.—A young man named Roy Stone, about 19 years of age, son of ex-Reeve Stone of Ridgeway, was drowned this morning in the lake opposite Sugar Loaf. He was employed as night watchman at the Humberstone Club resort. He started out along the shore with his gun, and, killing a bird a short distance out, undressed himself, attempting to swim out for it. He is supposed to have taken a cramp, and he went down before assistance could get to him. The body was recovered.

Young men and old should not fail to read Thos. Slater's advertisement on page 3.

HIS WIFE ARRESTED ON SUSPICION

For 36 Years Edward Wilson Had Supported His Wife and Then His Health Failed Left in Care of the Woman, He Mysteriously Disappeared.

New York, Aug. 14.—Mrs. Phebe Wilson, an old resident of Flushing, L.I., was arrested yesterday on suspicion of having murdered her invalid husband and hidden his remains in a cellar cesspool for many months.

The woman's arrest followed soon after the discovery of the badly decomposed body which, headless and almost fleshless, was found in a noisome pool under her kitchen. She denied guilt, stoutly at first, afterward hysterically, but the evidence against her seemed so strong that no hesitation was manifested in taking her into custody, and all formalities were waived.

The crime, if crime it be, is the most brutal and cold-blooded in the history of that district.

Edward Wilson, a hard-working railroad carpenter, after over forty years' toil, rendered helpless by acute inflammatory rheumatism, became dependent upon the poor bounty of his wife, whom he had supported to the best of his ability.

He was carried back to his home in September last, after he had been obliged to give up his position on the New York & Northern Railroad on account of his physical disability. His wife received him coldly and made no attempt to conceal her annoyance at having to provide for him during the remainder of his natural days. However, she took him in and allowed it to be understood by her townsmen that she would take care of him as best she could.

The day Edward Wilson was lifted into the dingy little two-storey frame house at No. 94 Pine-street, that day he disappeared from the face of the earth. Never since has he been seen by any of his kind, save only his wife, until yesterday, when his mutilated body was dragged from the black water of his own cellar by Inspector Roff.

Rightly to understand the enormity of the murder of which she is suspected, it must be borne in mind that Mrs. Wilson is about 55 years of age, had been the wife of the man for nearly 40 years, and so far as could be learned, had always borne a good reputation

The mystery deepens when it is noted that no wound was found upon the body, say, rather the skeleton, for only enough flesh remained upon the face and trunk to make possible the identification of the remains as those of Edward Wilson. The head was detached from the body, but whether it had been cut away immediately after death, or eaten off by the action of the water, not even the most skilful physician in Flushing could say. No cause of death was revealed by the autopsy.

The history of the mystery is interesting, and altogether out of the ordinary line of criminal work.

A few days ago the following letter was handed to Constable Slavin:

"Dear Sir,—Will you please investigate the mysterious disappearance last September of Edward, better known as 'Pony' Wilson of Pine-street, Flushing.

"He was sick and unable to leave his bed at that time. Mrs. Wilson confronts every enquiry at the house with contestable stories, and will not give his address. If alive, where is he?

"Citizen."

Imediately upon the receipt of this letter Constable Slavin began an investigation.

He visited Mrs. Wilson and asked for information of her husband.

"He is with his relatives in the east," said the woman, halding the door of her house in such a manner that Slavin could not well enter without forcing his way.

Slavin plied her with many further questions, but all he could elicit from her was the statement that Wilson was "in the east, she couldn't say just where, and she didn't know when he would return." So he interviewed the neighbors, and from them he obtained much more satisfactory information.

They told him they had at one time heard moans and groans coming from the Wilsons' home, and that those sounds plainly were not uttered by Mrs. Wilson. The bedridden husband, they said, had not been seen since the preceding September, and there was nothing to prove that he was still alive further than that of his wife's statement. Furthermore, they informed him, Mrs. Wilson had long ago refused to admit any one to her house on any pretext, and that, they hinted, looked very suspicious.

Inspector Roff went to the Wilson home about 9 o'clock yesterday morning and told Mrs. Wilson he wished to inspect her premises. She was feeding her chickens and cats in the back yard and appeared to be much annoyed by the Inspector's intrusion.

He found the place encumbered by large quantities of refuse, which, however, did not account to him for the odor that seemed to come from the house. He traced this to the cellar and said he must go downstairs.

Mrs. Wilson protested that her cellar was clean, but Roff, who was looking for something more than mere rubbish, persisted.

Roff groped his way down the cellar stairway, closely followed by Mrs. Wilson. He found everything reeking with filth and warned her she must institute a thorough reform at once.

Roff pulled down the pile of boards that covered the pool, and as fast as he did so, Mrs. Wilson tried to replace them unobserved.

Finally he struck something that made him start. With the crook of his stick he brought it to the surface. Then he fell back, almost overcome.

"Never mind that; it's only rubbish the rats have carried into the cellar," said Mrs. Wilson, anxiously.

Roff drove her out of the cellar, and turned her over to a man he had stationed outside. Then he returned to the cesspool and dragged his find out of the water. It was a headless body.

The left foot, too, was missing, and there was little flesh on any of the bones. Plainly it had been in the water for a long time.

The arms were bound tightly to the sides with several coils of three-quarter of an inch rope.

Of ill health, despondency and despair, gives way to the sunshine of hope, happiness and health, upon taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, because it gives renewed life and vitality to the blood, and through that imparts nerve stren gth, vigor and energy to the whole body. Read this letter: "Hood's Sarsaparilla helped me wonderfully, changed sickness to health, gloom to sunshine. No pen can describe what I suffered. I was deathly sick, had sick headaches every few days and those terrible tired, despondent feelings, with heart troubles so that I could not go up and

PARTY VS. PRINCIPLE.

When the Montreal Star, in view of Sir Charles Tupper's promissory senatorship, abandoned its independance and went over to the Conservative party it evidently did not do so by halves. It is now doing the work of that party with a lack of scrupulosity that would do justice to a Conservative journal "born in the purple," and not a recent prevert. In an article on the coming session, the Star refers to Sir Charles Tupper's position and asserts in the matter of Remedial Legislation that his government took its political life in its hands—"he staked the existence of the Government on that issue, and was defeated by the votes of the Roman Catholics, in whose interests the government risked its life." The Star goes on to propound the vicious doctrine of opportunism. It says: "That being the case, both he (Sir Charles) and his party are clearly free from any further responsibility in the matter." Does the Star, does Sir Charles Tupper, does the Conservative party forget that there is such a thing as principle? During the election campaign Sir Charles and his party advocated the doctrine of Remedial Legislation—even going to the length of force—because it was right; the constitution demanded it, the Privy Council ordained it, the rights of the minority called for it. Now because the Roman Catholics, as the Star in effect says, had no confidence in Sir Charles and his party, does that fact destroy the principle of right which the advocates of remedial legislation claimed underlay it? This is a monstrous doctrine and only shows that the Conservative party last election considered their course right because it promised them office. Why, Mr. Laurier at half a dozen elections failed to get the support of the Canadian people for Reform principles of good government. Did he on that account consider himself "free from any further responsibility?" By no means; what he fought for was right. He was patriotic enough to insist upon the adoption of a policy which he believed would be in the interest of the country. He and the Liberal party fought for what was right in spite of repeated ingratitude on the part of the electors, firmly believing that principle would result in the triumph that has come at last. It shows a sad state of political depravity when the chief organ of a great party has the assurance to boldly declare that the party it speaks for entered and fought a general electoral campaign for the mere sake of office, independently of principle; with what they made a clap-trap cry, but which they declared was in reality a battle for the right, for justice, undying principles that must survive, no matter how much or how often those in whose behalf they are urged fail to respond to the crack of the party whip. The Conservatives assured the Roman Catholic minority that they were willing to die to give the latter justice, but when they find that their assurances were distrtused and that the electors saw through their schemes for the sake of gaining power, all that was right and demanded before became as nothing the class the Conservative party was professing to serve is dropped and there is "no further responsibility." The Conservatives have thus prepared the way for the popular unbelief in any future claim they may make of acting in the interests of the country.

APPOINTING AND ELECTING JUDGES.

The Buffalo Express says: "There was an exciting fist-fight at a Democratic convention in Huntington, W. Va., called to nominate a Supreme Court judge. The people must expect to get very worthy judges from such influences." The people can expect almost as good results, in the way of judges, from such conditions as they can expect from the system of electing judges by the popular vote. Under ordinary circumstances, the same elements that entered into the "fist fight" mentioned are present under various forms in all elections by the people of such important officials as judges. The appointive system of Canada, though liable to the unfavourable influences arising from the limitation of human knowledge and the impossibility of always subordinating bias, is infinitely preferable. Though the appointing power is sometimes abused and judges are appointed on other and lower grounds than their fitness for the position, yet as a general rule the judges selected in Canada are the best men for the place and their after life proves them to be above reproach in their judicial capacity.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

PREMIER FLYNN, of Quebec, seems to appreciate and foresee the result of the coming provincial elections in that province, and he is said to be going to adopt the tactics of the recent Federal Administration and allow the Government to die by effluxion of time. The vacant seats are not being filled, and the Government is simply drifting. Sooner or later the electors must be given an opportunity to express an opinion, and the results will be satisfactory to the Liberals and honest government.

THE revision of the Dominion tariff, it is understood, will be entrusted to a committee of the Government, which will include the Ministers of Finance, Trade and Commerce and Customs. A thorough enquiry will be had before any attempt is made to go into details, and all classes will have an opportunity of presenting their views. The Manufacturers' Association will no longer be able to point to the tariff as a creation of its hands, or to thank the Finance Minister for his attention to their wishes, or at the pistol's point demand Mr. Foster to discover "clerical errors" in his bill for the revision of the tariff. Under a Liberal rule the interests of all classes will be consulted.

THE London News says: "To the rank and file of people it makes little difference which party is in power so long as the country is governed wisely and economically. But it does make a difference if the day's supply of bread and butter is not forthcoming. To keep the supply up to mark business must be brisk, and every nerve and every effort must be exerted to keep business brisk by developing the country's possibilities in every way and keeping money moving, so that we all may have a chance to turn some of it over and make a little in the turning. The change of Government is not going to plunge the country into bankruptcy or cause a general smash. Enthusiastic partizans, indeed, profess to believe that it is going to make times better for everybody, and we may all hope that this will turn out to be the case, not because of the prestige it will give the Reform party, but for our own selfish interests. The depression in trade has lasted long enough. Let us all turn in with a will and help to make to make things hum."

A MONTREAL BUSINESS MAN

Won the Battle Through His Wife's Advice.

A short time ago a Montreal business man returned from a New York private hospital, to which institution he had gone last February for treatment.

The case was a serious one—kidney disease—and had baffled the skill of the local doctors. The New York specialist, after a month's close attention could not hold out very strong hopes of a complete cure, but advised patience and continued treatment.

The sick man, hoping for better results, remained for some weeks longer, but finally left for home sick, unhappy and despondent. Upon his arrival in Montreal, friends were alarmed when they found his condition had not improved, and some recommended a sea voyage.

The sick man's wife having heard of the wonders accomplished by Paine's Celery Compound in cases of kidney disease, urged her husband to give it a trial. A supply of the medicine was procured and used faithfully, and the diet list—prepared specially for those afflicted with kidney troubles—was closely followed.

After three week's use of Paine's Celery Compound, a blessed and happy change was observed. The patient was brighter and stronger, no constipation, no backaches, urine was more natural in colour, and appetite was healthy and established.

After due care and attention, and the use of Paine's Celery Compound, this Montreal merchant is well and attending to business to-day.

Poor sufferer from kidney trouble, what think you of this Montreal case? Will not the same treatment bring you the health and freedom from disease that you so much desire? Yes, we are certain it will. Paine's Celery Compound will quite renew your life, and give you a long lease of happy days. Use the kind that cured the Montreal merchant; remember there are imitations, and very worthless ones, too. 'Tis "Paine's" that makes people well.

COMMENDABLE PROMPTITUDE.

A Resident of St. John, N.B., Makes a Successful Trial of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

St. John, N.B., Aug. 3—Mr. Robt. Moore, residing in Indiantown, a suburb of this city, has recently made what is allowed by all who are acquainted with the facts to be a most remarkable recovery. He has been a sufferer from a serious complaint of the kidneys for over seven years, and during that time has suffered excruciatingly. He has also suffered considerably in pocket, having paid large sums for medical advice. Quite recently he happened to read of the many cures effected by Dodd's Kidney Pills, and with commendable promptitude made a trial of them, with the result that after taking three boxes of the remedy he was entirely restored to health.

DOCTORS GAVE HER UP.

REMARKABLE EXPERIENCE OF MRS. SALOIS OF ST. PIE.

Lagrippe, Followed by Inflammation of the Lungs, Left Her on the Verge of the Grave—Her Whole Body Racked With Pain—Her Husband Brought Her Home to Die, But She is Again in Good Health.

In the pretty little town of St. Pie, Bagot county, is one of the happiest homes in the whole Province of Quebec, and the cause of much of this happiness is the inestimable boon of health conferred through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Mrs. Eva Salois is the person thus restored, and she tells her story as follows:—Like a great many other Canadians, my husband and myself left Canada for the States, in hope that we might better our condition, and located in Lowell, Mass. About a year ago I gave birth to a bright little boy, but while yet on my sick bed I was attacked with lagrippe, which developed into inflammation of the lungs. I had the very best of care, and the best of medical treatment, and although the inflammation left me I did not get better, but continually grew weaker and weaker. I could not sleep at night, and I became so nervous that the least noise would make me tremble and cry. I could not eat, and was reduced almost to a skeleton. My whole body seemed racked with pain to such an extent that it is impossible for me to describe it. I got so low that the doctor who was attending me lost hope, but suggested calling in another doctor for consultation. I begged them to give me something to deaden the terrible pain I endured, but all things done for me seemed unavailing. After the consultation was ended my doctor said to me, you are a great sufferer, but it will not be for long. We have tried everything; we can do no more. I had therefore to prepare myself for death, and would have welcomed it as a relief to my suffering, were it not for the thought of leaving my husband and child. When my husband heard what the doctors said, he replied then we will at once go back to Canada, and weak and suffering as I was we returned to our old home. Friends here urged that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills be tried, and my husband procured them. After taking them for some weeks I rallied, and from that on I constantly improved in health. I am now entirely free from pain. I can eat well and sleep well, and am almost as strong as ever I was in my life, and this renewed health and strength I owe to the marvellous powers of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and in gratitude I urge all sick people to try them.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills create new blood, build up the nerves, and thus drive disease from the system. In hundreds of cases they have cured after all other medicines had failed, thus establishing the claim that they are a marvel among the triumph of modern medical science. The genuine Pink Pills are sold only in boxes, bearing the full trade mark, "Dr. William's Pink Pills for Pale People." Protect yourself from imposition by refusing any pill that does not bear the registered trade mark around the box.

WHISKY AND DISEASE

Are Causing the Indians of Canadian Labrador to Disappear.

Quebec, Aug. 14.—Rev. Fathers Goyer and Lacoste, who have just returned from the Canadian Labrador, say that the Indians are suffering severely from lack of sufficient food. There is general complaint against Newfoundlanders, who are destroying the eggs of the birds, which should be a source of revenue to them. The missionaries complain of the outrageous abuse on the part of traders who deal out whisky to the Indians with most deplorable effects. This abuse has given rise to a serious loss of life, and is spreading poverty, disease and misery throughout the Labrador peninsula. Diseases, such as pneumonia, consumption, etc., are rapidly increasing among the poor Indians, who are fast dying out.

BELLEVILLE REGATTA.

Hanlan and Rogers Divided—Englishmen Won the Professional Fours—Baseball Record.

Belleville, Aug. 14.—The protest in the single scull race was arranged between Hanlan and Rogers. The referee ordered the men to row over, but Rogers was averse and they divided first and second money. The referee afterwards gave the race to Rogers on the protest being withdrawn.

Hanlan now offers to row any man in America from one mile to five miles for from $1000 upwards.

The water this afternoon was rougher than in the morning and in the professional single scull dash of three-quarters of a mile all declined to contest excepting Hanlan and Durnan. The ex-champion won by several lengths in 4 min. 50 4-5 secs.

After Hanlan had given an amusing exhibition of eccentric oarsmanship, the senior double scull race for amateurs, three-quarters of a mile with a turn, was called. The starters were Russell and Ryan v. Greenwood and Marsh. The former crew, who pulled a very fast stroke, soon got the lead, but their boat filled with water and forced them to retire. They rowed into a shallow place, freed their shell of water, leaving Greenwood and Marsh to finish at their leisure.

The final race was the professional four for the $500 purse, one mile and a half with a turn. This was between the English and Canadian crews and was rowed in rough water. The wind faced the oarsmen on their return. The English crew, who led strictly after the start, turned a short distance ahead, and after a desperate race finished 30 seconds ahead, winners. Time 18.50.

WINNIPEG'S BIG AD.

Winnipeg, Aug. 14.—(Special.)—Winnipeg rowing enthusiasts are determined that the four oared crew which won and beat all records shall go to Henley next year. They will ask the City Council and Local Government for a grant towards expenses. They urge that such grant would be justified in that the appearance of the crew at the great Henley regatta would give Winnipeg and Manitoba a bigger advertisement than all the immigration agents can.

GAUDAUR IN ENGLAND.

London, Aug. 14.—Several well-known sporting men met Jake Gaudaur, the oarsman, at Waterloo railroad station on his arrival here to prepare for his match with James Stanbury, the Australian champion, involving the championship of the world and a purse of from $250 to $7500, which will be decided during the afternoon of Sept. 7. Gaudaur was heartily welcomed, and proceeded to Putney, where Clasper is building a new boat for him. The oarsman said he never felt in better condition.

ISOLDE BEAT METEOR.

London, Aug. 14.—The Royal Victoria Yacht Club regatta was continued at Ryde to-day. The principal race was for the Commodore's Cup, course round the Isle of Wight, 50 miles. The weather was rainy and the breeze westerly. The starters were Meteor, Isolde, Alsa, Britannia, Satanita and Cirrus. The 40 rater Isolde won the first prize on time allowance, and the second prize was won by Meteor. The Isolde finished at 5.02.12 and the Meteor at 4.23.10.

A HARD GAME TO LOSE.

After Fourteen Innings Scranton Defeats the Torontos.

Scranton, Aug. 14.—Scranton and Toronto battled for 14 innings to-day before a victory came to the locals. A base on balls, a triple by J. O'Brien, and Eagan's single gave Scranton two in the first. Toronto tied the score in the fifth on Wright's triple, a hit by pitcher and Tenny's single. T. O'Brien's double and Wright's single gave Toronto one in the 12th. Scranton tied the score on Moss' single and Kiester's triple. Scranton won out in the 14th on O'Brien's single and Massey's double, which came after two were out. The fielding on both sides was very brilliant. Score:

ROBERT J. IN 2.08.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Aug. 14.—Fine weather and an attractive program drew the largest attendance of the meet to the big circuit races to-day. Five thousand people were present. The temperature was high until 3 o'clock, when a cold wave swept suddenly from the northeast, chilling the crowd and the horses and having a marked effect on speed. The track was in superb condition. The paramount attraction of the day was Robert J., the pacing king, who was sent to beat the track record of 2.03¾, made by himself Aug. 31, 1894, when he first put the mark for harness speed below 2.04. At 4 o'clock he started, with Ed. Geers up. Paced by a thoroughbred, the son of Hartford was given the word, and left the wire at a pretty clip, keeping his strides all the way round and finishing in 2.05. The time by quarters was: .31½, 1.02, 1.32, 2.03.

The Sting Within.

It is said there is a rankling thorn in every heart, and yet that none would exchange their own for that of another. Be that as it may, the sting arising from the heart of a corn is real enough and in this land of tight boots a very common complaint also. Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor is a never failing remedy for this kind of heartache, as you can easily prove if afflicted. Cheap, pure, painless.

The Breath of the Pines.

Coughs, colds, asthma, bronchitis, sore throat and lung troubles are cured by Norway Pine Syrup. Price 25 and 50 cents. It breathes out the healing virtues of the pine forests.

THEY ARE GIVING WAY.

Physicians Commence to Realize the Value of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

OTTAWA, Aug. 10.—The inveterate reluctance to admit the success of patent medicine usually evinced by physicians is rapidly giving way, so far as Dodd's Kidney Pills are concerned. The cases of Dr. Rose and Dr. McCormick, who published details of their recovery from diabetes and Bright's disease through the agency of this remedy, were the first attacks on the citadel of their skepticism and now it appears as if the remarkable recovery of Mr. G. H. Kent, of this city, the details of which have been transmitted to the press, would complete what has been so auspiciously begun. The published interviews with Mr. and Mrs. Kent and the sworn statement of the former leaves no foothold for disbelief.

Mrs. T. S. Hawkins, Chattanooga, Tenn says: "Shiloh's Vitalizer 'Saved my Life.' I consider it the best remedy for a debilitated system I ever used." For dyspepsia, liver or kidney trouble it excels. Price 75c. Sold by John Nugent, 389 George Street.

Burdock Pills do not gripe or sicken. They cure constipation and sick headache.

and all wasting diseases, should write to me for advice.

I have been a close student for many years of the subject of weakness in men, the fact is, I was a sufferer myself. Too bashful to seek the aid of older men or reputable physicians, I investigated the subject deeply and discovered a simple but most remarkably successful Remedy that completely cured me, and fully enlarged me from a shrunken, stunted condition to natural size and strength. I want every young or old man to know about it. I take a personal interest in each cases, and no one need hesitate to write me, as all communications are held strictly confidential. I send the recipe of this remedy absolutely free of cost. Do not put it off, but write me fully at once, you will always bless me the day you did so. Address,

WRECKAGE

From the Big Sale

In the shape of Remnants, Odd Lots and Tail Ends from every department, have been rooted out, ticketed and marked at prices to close them with a rush. It's a fitting wind-up for the biggest selling event in our history. A few days will do the business, and sharp's the word.

Remnants of Cloths.

Nothing wrong with them. The last few yards of the piece cost us just as much as the first. Going to sell them at a sacrifice though; they litter the stock. Good picking here for the Boy's Fall School Suits. Why not look ahead a bit and by so doing save a dollar? Price of each remnant in plain figures. They're all spread out on the shelves and you can make an easy selection.

Broken Lots of Men's Pants.

Good sizes and lengths among them. Some at about one-half regular prices. They'll move quick when the news gets out.

Good-by to Summer Ties.

The left-overs are going to be turned into money at short notice. The prices are absurd, but we don't want to winter them.

Men's and Boy's Suits.

Not a question of worth, but what price will sell them. It will pay you to be among the first. The pick is worth something. 300 Suits to pick from, well made and finished, the products of some of the best known makers. A lot of our own make included.

Broken Lots of Hosiery and Underwear.

Odd dozens and half-dozens, all out on the counter, and they're not going back into the shelves with our consent. Can you use them? If so, help us to get rid of them.

Summer Suits and Separat Parts.

Some made of Wool Serge, some of Cricketing Flannel, some of Silk and some of Lustre and Alpaca. Only about a dozen of each, but we want the room more than the goods.

Summer Boots & Shoes.

The Fall Styles will be about the same as these; they're all new this season. Not many shelves full, but you save just half. Not often that 50c does the work of $1.00 but we need the room.

Shirts and Collars.

They might as well go with the rest. We won't profit financially on the sales, but that makes no difference, so long as we can clean up the overplus.

Last Call on Felt and Straw Hats.

And a loud call it is. Mostly broken lots, but none the worse for that. If your size, style or kind is among them then you're in luck, for the prices are cut loose entirely from the values.

ALWAYS GOOD AT GOUGH'S.

Fall Apples for Export.

The London Free Press gives advice which without confirmation we should hesitate to follow. It says that for exportation our summer and fall apples should be treated like lemons and oranges, picked green; that it is no use to ship them ripe, as they will neither stand the voyage nor keep, and so must be picked fully three weeks before they are ripe. We know that it is well to pull pears ahead of ripening, but doubt its being the case with apples. Experiments are needed.

Mr. Andersen united in marriage Miss Hannah Parker and Mr. Robert Howland, town. The bride was assisted by her sister, Miss Jennie Parker, and the bride's brother, Mr. W. Parker, performed the duties of best men. The marriage was a quiet one, still the happy pair cannot escape the congratulations of their many friends. Mr. and Mrs. Howland will take up residence in town.

LIGHTING THE TOWN.

The Light and Power Company's Tender Will be Recommended.

At a meeting of the Fire, Water and Light Committee last evening the Peterborough Light and Power Company were allowed to revise their tender and to reduce their figures to those of Mr. W. H. Meldrum for the lighting of the town, viz: $57.50 per light. As Mr. Meldrum's tender was for a five year contract, and the Light and Power Company were willing to take a two-year contract, the tender of the latter, it is understood, will be recommended to the council for acceptance.

As the council expects to generate electricity from power of its own in a few years from the Trent Valley Canal system, it is not thought advisable to make a contract covering a term of more than two years.

AN ASSAULT CASE.

The Accused Does Not Appear and a Warrant is Issued.

When the name of William Chapman was called in court this morning there was no response, although a summons had been issued for him on a charge of assaulting George Foley.

Foley's story is that when Chapman left town some time ago, he (Foley) was in his debt for a small amount for bread. Chapman returned a few days ago and going to the sewer, where Foley was at work, asked him for the money. Foley had none with him, but promised to settle on pay day. This did not suit Chapman, who wanted an order for the money on a man named Pogue, who was with him and was willing to cash it. Foley says he never does business in that way and refused. He states that Chapman waited until he was through work and meeting him on the way home, said that if he couldn't get the money, he would take the worth of it out of Foley's hide. He is stated to have then set upon Foley and thrashed him.

It is said that Chapman has left town and a warrant has been issued for his arrest.

AT THE COURT HOUSE PARK.

Fire Brigade Band Music Greatly Enjoyed.

Last night at the Court House Park, the Fire Brigade Band, under the direction of Bandmaster F. W. Miller, rendered the following programme:

Quick March—Selvad ..... Franklin
Song and Dance—Orange Blossoms. Schroeder
Valse—Lee D'Armour ..... Hartman
Overture—Eclipse ..... Williams
Schottische—Lil and Lou ..... Hall
Quadrille—Jolly Company ..... Kara
Valse—Incognito ..... Ivanovici
Galop—Four in Hand ..... Beyer

That the band is steadily improving is apparent to those versed in musical matters, and the variety of the selections played and the taste with which they are chosen places the organization in the front ranks of the Provincial bands.

Telfordian Temperature Topics.

Saturday, Aug. 16.—A change of weather, I believe, has taken place. On Thursday the thermometer went to 90 degrees, yesterday to 88, and at this morning's observation the self registering thermometer indicated only 50 degrees, chilly and cold. I believe there will be frost in some localities.—Thomas Telford.

Ivorine for the Teeth

Mr. Hooper has also kindly tendered his services in aid of the society and will look after the sale of refreshments. Where Brock Fell.

"We climbed the heights, on foot; passed the Monument House. Talking the while of that great day when Brock led his handful of men to drive back the invading foe, and fell, giving his life for the flag and the country he loved. Living again the grief of his brave 49th and feeling the fire in our veins which won for them the fear of the foe in after battles, we stood a moment to look at Brock's monument, and to point out the cliff over which the enemy were driven and the day won." These are the stirring words of one of a party of excursionists who visited this historic spot the other day. You can go with the Foresters' excursion on Peterborough's Civic Holiday, August 20th, and "feel the fire in your veins." At the same time you can take in Niagara and all its wonders. See posters and folders.

Harvest Excursions.

In order to give everyone an opportunity to see the grand crops in the Western States and enable the intending settler to secure a home, the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul R'y has arranged to run a series of harvest excursions to South and North Dakota and to other States in the West, Northwest and Southwest on the following dates:—August 4 and 18, September 1, 15 and 29 and October 6 and 20, at the low rate of two dollars more than one fare for the round trip. Tickets will be good for return on any Tuesday or Friday within twenty-one days from date of sale. For rates, time of trains and further details apply to any coupon ticket agent in the East or South, or address A. J. Taylor, Canadian Passenger Agent, 2 King street E., Toronto, Ont. law

CORPORATION SIDEWALK BUILDING.

A Sample of the Work Done—How the Public Money is Wasted—Carelessness and Indifference of Those Charged With the Work.

The new stretch of so-called sidewalk recently laid on Dalhousie street, westward to Aylmer, would indicate that neither brains nor consideration of the interests and convenience of residents whose property abuts upon the new walk, were elements in its construction. It would appear that the walk was begun without any idea as to the grade which was to be adopted, for upon laying a few feet it was found too high or too low, and a sudden change was made in the level to avoid the walk joining Aylmer street, in the neighbourhood of the electric wires or several feet under ground. The result is that the surface of the walk undulates like the waves of choppy sea. Printers who are botches are called "blacksmiths," and some "blacksmith" must have had the doing of this walk—in fact a genuine blacksmith, though such work is not in his line. If he laid a walk like that just pat down on Dalhousie street deserves to be "hanged, drawn and quartered."

Nor is this the worst. The residents on Dalhousie street take pride in their boulevards, and had them in splendid smooth condition, on a level with the old walk which was itself level and infinitely preferable to the present wooden abortion which cannot be called a sidewalk any where else than in a street inspector's report. In the construction of the lumber pile referred to and the excavation for the new pavement nightmare, the sod, smooth, velvety and green—for it had been kept watered and shaven at considerable expense—was dug and gouged in jagged outline, and the earth thrown out, left in unsightly heaps on the grass and ugly irregular holes left alongside the planks. The so-called carpenter work was not only a botch of the first water, but all the accompanying work was done with a carelessness and disregard of the beauty of the street, which could hardly be surpassed if an attempt had been made, with direct intent, to do malicious injury to property.

The public would like to know if those ratepayers and residents who spend money and care in making our streets beautiful for the benefit of the general public and the good name of the town, are to be treated as trespassers, and to have the results of their labours destroyed and defaced by wooden-headed corporation walk builders.

There does not seem to be any direct responsibility in such matters. It was the understanding with the street authorities that the walk in question should be laid on the outside of the boulevard, but this was not done, and in this respect, as in the manner of constructing the walk, the most gross stupidity and indifference were manifested.

The fact is the whole system of street improvement (?) and walk building should be thoroughly reorganized. Indeed, it is no system, but a haphazard way of wasting lumber by persons who are not qualified to do such work. The rights of a citizen are ignored, and if he remonstrates at the ruthless destruction of the street improvement he has made, he is treated like a tramp without rights by the servant his money is helping to pay. Employees on the streets are the public servants and their work should be done with a reference, as far as is possible, to the interests of those who pay them their wages.

The hap-hazard system, or rather lack of system, of performing street work in Peterborough is only paralleled by the notorious inefficiency of the statute labour system in its average administration. We have not only bad work but inordinate expense for such bad work. A first-class contractor said this morning that if he were given the appropriation for street purposes he could do better work with less destruction of boulevards, etc., and have a handsome margin of profit. This profit represents the money actually wasted under the present system, not to speak of that wasted by being transformed into botch work that is a perpetual eyesore and a disgrace to mechanical skill.

HAMILTON EMPLOYEES' ANNUAL OUTING.

INITIAL PICNIC OF THE PETER HAMILTON MANUFACTURING COMPANY'S EMPLOYEES.

A Happy Day at Idyl Wyld—Rapid and Pleasant Voyage Down the River—Happy Relations Between Employees and Employer—Roll Call of Veteran Workmen.

Yesterday the employees of the Peter Hamilton Manufacturing Company held their first picnic at Idyl Wyld. The men had unanimously agreed to co-operate this year in turning out as a body and having one day off among themselves, away from the heat and noise and grind and work of the foundary. The steady hum of these old established works, year in and year out, during the past half century, has not permitted of many of the employees being laid off for holidays, and the large proportion of them who wanted to work could always get all they wanted. It was natural, therefore, and well suggested, that they should have their annual summer outing, like other large establishments, when they could meet together to play instead of to work—where they could talk and think of less intricate things than reapers and mowers, castings and machinery.

The commodious steamer City of Peterborough had been chartered for the occasion and by 7 o'clock in the morning the employees with the wives and families could be seen wending their way with light steps and cheerful faces to the wharf, as thrifty, as intelligent and as respectable a lot of citizens as could be met anywhere. Shortly before 8 o'clock the boat was let loose and steamed out into the lake with about 250 souls on board. The day was a most delightful one for the trip down the river. And the fireman and engineer put on an extra spurt, just to show the boys of the machine shops how the City could run when she liked. And they did make her "hump," for the excursionists were all safely landed at Idyl Wild at eleven o'clock, the fastest trip of the season.

The sail down the river was a very interesting one in many ways, but to one more so than it was to the respected head and senior member of the company, Mr. Peter Hamilton himself. It was a pleasure to note the unrestrained affability and friendliness of the popular "boss" as he walked and talked with his men and the different members of their families, and the general interest he took in their having a good day out. On the other hand, it was equally a pleasure to witness the admiration of the men for their employer and the general freedom they could make with him. It told plainly the reason for the harmony which has always characterized the dealings between employer and employees in this old establishment, and the good understanding which has so long existed without a strike or a quarrel. It told also how it come that so many of the men present could boast with pardonable feelings of pride of being so many years in Peter Hamilton's employ. A talk with some of them elicited the fact that they had worked in the shop their while lifetime since they were able to work. Mr. William Miller, a blacksmith, has been an employee of the shop for thirty-six years. This sturdy follower of Vulcan heads the list for long service. He wielded the anvil in the days when Mr. Peter Hamilton's father was laying the foundation of the present prosperous industry, back in 1860. Among the numerous instances of long services are the following: Alex. Gillespie, the general superintendent, entered Mr. Hamilton's employ 30 years ago, John Gillespie 25 years ago, George Minorgan 24 years ago, Jas. Louden 24 years ago, John Brownlee 24 years ago, Wm. Barrie 24 years ago, Thos. Gillespie 23 years ago, Mort Mowry 21 years ago, John Mowry 21 years ago, Thos. Hickey 21 years ago, Robt. Logan 21 years ago, Robt. Drury 20 years ago, Wm. White 19 years ago, Robt. Mulligan 18 years ago, Jos. Craig 18 years ago, John Hart 17 years ago, Thos. Theobald 15 years ago, Clem. Guerin 15 years ago, John S. Logan 15 years ago, John Logan 15 years ago, Wm. Lang 15 years ago, Steve. Roadhouse 14 years ago, George Scott 14 years ago, Thos. Distin 14 years ago, Jos. Lagrandeur 13 years ago, W. Savigney 13 years ago, Geo. Milne 13 years ago, Robt. Scott 12 years ago, D. Harper 12 years ago, Alf. Plummer 10 years ago.

This is not given as a full list of all who have served ten years and upwards in the employ of the Peter Hamilton Company, but enough to show what a large number of the employees present at yesterday's excursion can show a good record for long service.

Idyl Wild is a pretty, cool spot for an excursion, and the island was all alive when the excursionists disembarked and made preparations for dinner. This task accomplished, everyone partook themselves to their most congenial amusement. Time did not lag heavily on their hands, and as the sports, fishing, dancing, boating and and courting went on the hour for departure came all too soon. The merry-go-round on the island was engaged for the amusement of the children, but lots of the old folks joined in the fun as well.

The commitee in charge of the events of the day was composed of the foremen of the different departments as follows:—Messrs. Alex. Gillespie, superintendent; Geo. Minorgan, for the moulders; James Maude, for the machinists; Robt. Logan, for the blacksmiths; Thos. Gillespie, for the wood workers; Steve. Roadhouse, for the painters.

The success of the first picnic of the employees of the company will no doubt lead to making the holiday an annual one. Praise is due to the committee for the judicious management of the trip in every detail. Everything passed off happily and everyone was jolly. The social opportunities it afforded of making the employees and their families better acquainted was alone worth the effort.

The steamer left Idyl Wild about 4 30, and reached Peterborough about eight o'clock.

During the return journey Mr. Thomas Fitzgerald moved, seconded by Mr. James Mulholland, a hearty vote of thanks to the foremen of the several departments for their excellent management, which resulted in the picnic being such a very pleasant and enjoyable success.

Mr. Peter Hamilton, on behalf of the firm, returned thanks, referring to the pleasure of the occasion and the excellent behaviour of all who attended. He hoped that this would not be the last picnic of the kind.

Sleeplessness. Mental and Physical Fatigue

Go hand in hand. The waste of the body that ought to be restored by rest and sleep suffers increasing diminution; then loss of strength and vigor of body and mind follows. It is in this class of diseases that the marvellous properties of Maltine with Coca Wine are most markedly exhibited. It penetrates to the very sources of vital action, inasmuch as the nerve centres are impressed by its medicinal power and the digestive functions stimulated to increased and more efficient action. This imparts to the whole system the much needed impetus, the nerves are soothed from a state of irritability to one of repose—sleep with all its beneficent influences, comes back to lend its aid in the process of restoration. Digestion keeps pace with the improvement of appetite, and in a short time the nervous, miserable sufferer regains his old-time vigor and the capability to enjoy life and all it affords. Maltine with Coca Wine is sold by all druggists.

LACROSSE.

The secretary of the Peterborough Juniors is making arrangements for a week's trip for the team, and it is expected that the boys will have an A 1 time. The members of the team will make arrangements to have their holidays at the same time, and it is expected that a large number of spare men will also go along for the pleasure of the outing. The team, according to the present schedule will leave Peterborough on the Grand Trunk train at noon on Monday, August 24th, and play in Oshawa that afternoon. The team will then give games to the following places on the dates mentioned, the schedule of course being subject to change:

Bowmanville, Tuesday, Aug. 25.
Cobourg, Wednesday, Aug. 26.
Belleville, Thursday, Aug. 27.
Madoc, Friday, Aug. 28.
Tweed, Saturday, Aug. 29.

These clubs have all been communicated with, but if arrangements cannot be made with all of them the boys may go on down to Kingston and coming back by the Kingston and Pembrooke R. R., through Tweed play there, and give Madoc the last day, coming home on the Grand Trunk.

Either Geo. Horkins or Alf. Terrill will go along to look after the finances, etc.

WHEEL LINGO.

The following is condensed from an article in the New York Herald: "In far away New Zealand, the awful word 'cyclodonna' has been coined as a substitute for wheelwon. In many eastern towns the fair rider is called a 'bloomer,' without regard to her costume. The word 'scorcher,' as indicating a speedy cyclist, is fairly ingrated upon the language. In Chicago, however, the 'scorcher' is called a 'scoot.' The technicalities of the machine have led to attempts upon the part of the young men to coin expressions, 'your tire is punctured' indicates that the story you are telling lacks the probable element of truth. Reckless statements are called 'coasting.' A very ancient yarn is not a 'chestnut,' but a 'century.' A young couple showing a mutual fondness are riding 'tandem.' A man leading a fast life is 'geared too high.' An old fogy is referred to as a 'high wheel.' A chaperon is known as a 'pacemaker.' A cheap machine is called a 'gaspipe' machine. A professional is called a 'pro.'

Dr. W. H. Fenton, an eminent medical authority, says on cycling for women: "The diseases of women take a front place in our social life, but, if looked into, ninety per cent. of them are functional ailments, begotten of ennui and lack of opportunity of some means of working off their superfluous muscular, nervous and organic energy. Cycling is an extraordinary and sovereign boon in this way for the sex."

It is the decision of a German court of justice that "when the roads, in consequence of innundations of great downpour of rain, are too soft, or when deep snow, dirt or frost offer to the cyclist exceptional difficulties in moving on the road, then will the cyclist be permitted to use the footpath.

IT IS ALL TALK.

Yes, but it is Norwood Talk—The Kind That Tells in Norwood.

Talk that tells.
Talk that is endorsed.
Every day talk by people that know.
City talk.
Kidney talk.
Do the kidneys talk?
Well, yes, both loud and long.
You are learning the kidney language.
Backache in kidney language means kidney ache.
Lame back means weak kidneys.
Weak back means weak kidneys.
The kidneys are talking trouble.
Here is some Norwood talk:

Mr. George Taylor, well known in Norwood, has this to say about Doan's Kidney Pills:—

"For a great many years I have been a sufferer from kidney disease. Terrible pain in my side and back made my life a burden. The urine was a dark wine colour, and I was greatly troubled with frequent urination. My sleep was destroyed because of this annoying trouble.

"I have taken scores of medicines, but could get no relief, and thought that I would never be cured. Happily I heard about Doan's Kidney Pills, and got a box at J. C. Moffatt's drug store, and have continued their use for one month.

"I am thankful to say as a result that they have fixed me up. I feel like another person. I do not now have to get up at night, and in fact am entirely cured.

"I think they are the grandest medicine ever placed before the public, and I heartily recommend them to all sufferers from kidney disorder of any kind."

Health and strength carry us through dangers and make us safe in the presence of peril. Disease germs do no harm in a healthy body. A germ is not a big thing, and it is only physical weakness that makes it dangerous. A perfectly strong man with rich, pure blood, has nothing to fear from germs. He may breathe in the bacilli of consumption with impunity. Nature is continually working to throw off any impurities that may come into the body, but if there is a weak spot where the germs may find an entrance to the tissues, then the trouble begins. Disease germs propagate with lightning-like rapidity. Once in the blood, they quickly fill the whole body. The only way to get rid of them is to kill them. This is what Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is for. It purifies the blood. That means that it kills the germs, but that is only part of what it does. It assists in the digestion of food and puts the digestive organs in a perfect condition. It stimulates the secretion of digestive fluids, so promoting assimilation and nutrition. It fills the blood full of healthy red corpuscles. It purifies and enriches every drop of blood in the whole body and so supplies the tissues with the food they need. It builds up strong, healthy flesh and puts the whole body into a disease-resisting state.

Nine-tenths of all human ailments come from the same cause—impurity in the blood. Take almost any disease you please and trace the cause of it—you will find it in the blood. Purify and enrich the blood and you remove the cause, and so you cure the disease inevitably and infallibly. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all diseases depending upon poor, impoverished, thin impure blood.

CLEVELAND DECLINED.

The President Was Invited to Bryan's Ratification Meeting in New York—His Letter Not Made Public.

Washington, Aug. 14.—On what appears to be excellent authority, it is asserted to-day that President Cleveland was invited to attend the Bryan notification meeting in New York and declined by letter. This letter has not yet been made public. Further than this, it is said that he has notified the leaders of the Democratic sound money movement that he is in part, if not altogether, in sympathy with their position. It is understood, however, that Cleveland does not favor the selection of an independent ticket at Indianapolis, but prefers that the convention decide that every sound money Democratic voter use his own judgment in casting his vote, either for McKinley or Bryan. It is added by men who ought to know Cleveland's position that he favors a strong sound money platform at the Indianapolis convention, one which will denounce the Populist planks in the Chicago Democratic platform, believing that an arraignment of these planks from beginning to end will be necessary in order to give the voters of the country an idea of the course they should pursue at the polls. Some even hint that Cleveland, if he finds it necessary, would not object to placing an independent ticket in the field. His only purpose, it is said, is to prevent the Democrats from casting their votes for Bryan, rather than McKinley.

"SAVED MY LIFF."

It's no Hopeless Wail, but Testimony With a True Ring to it for the Great South American Cures.

WONDERFUL TESTIMONIALS.

RHEUMATISM.—The Great South American Rheumatic Cure is safe, harmless and acts quickly. Gives instant relief and an absolute cure in one to three days; works wonders in the most acute form of rheumatism and neuralgia. "I was crippled so that I had to use a stick to get about," writes James A. Anderson of Calgary, N.W.T. "At times I suffered untold misery. I tried every medicine under the sun—spent six weeks in the hospital under special treatment, without any relief. I was induced to try South American Rheumatic Cure. After using two bottles I threw away my stick and went to work, and have worked every day since, and that was two and a half years ago."

KIDNEYS.—"I believe it saved my life," is the positive testimony of Mr. James McBrine, of Jamestown, Huron Co., Ont., in speaking of the miraculous cure of a complication of Kidney troubles by the Great South American Kidney Cure. This gentleman was so severely affected that his physician had to attend him daily to take the urine from him. The first dose gave him relief, and half a bottle cured him completely, dissolving all obstructions, and healing and strengthening the parts. South American Kidney Cure is a kidney specific only, and it does all that is claimed for it every time.

STOMACH AND NERVES.—Two-thirds of all chronic diseases are due to disordered nerve centres. Cure the nerves and you will control the disease. South American Nervine has proved this thousands of times. It is a powerful nerve builder and, in cases of acute indigestion and dyspepsia, has effected marvellous cures. Geo. Webster, of Forest, writes: "For a number of years I suffered greatly from nervousness, twitching of muscles and sleeplessness. I tried almost every known remedy without relief. I was induced as a last resort to try South American Nervine. The first bottle benefitted me, and five bottles cured me. It is a grand medicine, and I owe my life to it." Sold by H. S. Macdonald, druggist, Peterborough.

Why Lightning Sours Milk.

A German scientist states that lightning, being either a sudden current or an oscillating one, induces currents in all neighboring conductors and as the current strength is enormous, the inductive action extends to thousands of metres, thus inducing currents that have appreciable chemical action; it is the chemical action of these currents that causes milk to become sour by the decomposition of the soluble components of the milk, which produces acids and these in turn cause the milk to curdle.

Nervous debility is a common complaint, especially among women. The best medical treatment for this disorder is a persistent course of Ayer's Sarsaparilla to cleanse and invigorate the blood. This being accomplished, nature will do the rest.

THE QUEEN'S SPEECH

At the Prorogation of the Imperial House.

FRIENDLY WITH GREAT POWERS.

Success of the Movement Against the Dervishes in the Soudan and the Rebels in Matabeleland Delimitation of the Indian Frontier.

London, Aug. 14.—The Queen's Speech proroguing Parliament was delivered to the House of Commons at 6.15 o'clock this afternoon. The speech says:

"My relations with the powers continue to be friendly.

"The hostile movements of the Dervishes in the Valley of the Nile against the positions occupied by Italy east of that river convinced me that it was necessary for Egypt to take steps towards arresting their advance. By my advice and sanction an expedition has undertaken to restore to the Government of the Khedive, as far as Dongola, the territory which was lost a decade ago. The operations of the expedition are proceeding, and by the brilliant action at Ferket a large proportion of the territory has already been recovered.

"The condition of portions of Turkey continues to cause anxiety, and at present Crete is the principal centre of the disturbances. I have observed strict neutrality, but, in conjunction with the powers, I endeavored to reconcile the contestants by proposing a system of government which should be equally acceptable to Christians and Mussulmans.

"I regret that a serious rebellion, signalized with cruel murders, has broken out in Matabeleland, the rising having extended into Mashonaland. The work of defence and repression has been undertaken, the settlers displaying great courage. They have since been reinforced by Imperial and other troops."

The speech referred to the Matabele country, and expresses hope that the rebels will shortly accept the clemency which has been offered to them.

Referring to the matter of the delimitation of the Indian frontier, the speech says that the agreements between the Shah of Persia and the Ameer of Afghanstan upon the subject are friendly to the Chitrals. Relief garrisons sent to Chitral have received the co-operation of the tribesmen.

Her Majesty expressed her thanks to the House of Commons for their provisions and services for the year, and concluded by saying that she has given her consent, with pleasure, to the measures for naval defences, for lessening the agricultural taxes, for the protection of the cattle import from disease, and measures for various other purposes, including the Irish Land Bill.

In bidding farewell to the members of the House, Her Majesty prays that they may receive the blessings of Providence and rest from their labors.

Parliament was formally prorogued to Oct. 21.

First in the Estimation of Canadian Women.

Diamond Dyes the World's Leaders

The women of Canada many years ago selected the Diamond Dyes as the standard dyes for home dying. This selection has proved a wise one. The quality of the Diamond Dyes has never deteriorated; they still stand first as the brightest, strongest and fastest colours, and never fail to do what is promised for them.

Many inexperienced buyers are put to great loss and inconvenience by using the crude and imitation dyes.

If every buyer insisted upon having the "Diamond," profit and pleasure would always result from the dysing operation. Beware of imitations; ask for the Diamond Dyes; take no other make.

OLD WOMAN'S TRAGIC DEATH.

Fell From the Third-Storey Window of the House of Providence Last Night.

Toronto, Aug. 15.

Eliza Brown, a Devonshire woman, who was an inmate of the House of Providence, Power-street, fell from a third storey window of that institution shortly before 9 o'clock last night and was instantly killed.

The old woman had only been an inmate a month or so and very little is known about her or where she came from. She was very feeble and it is supposed that while sitting on the sill of the window, which is in her sleeping room, she overbalanced and fell a distance of about 30 feet.

Coroner Johnson has issued a warrant for an inquest on Monday, but it is hardly likely that it will be held. It is not supposed that it was a suicide, as the police of No. 4 division knew nothing of the occurrence up to 1 o'clock this morning, nor was the Coroner aware of the facts of the case.

THE WAVE OF SUICIDE.

W. H. Nelson, a Prominent Kingsville Grocer, Shoots Himself in a Cemetery

Windsor, Ont., Aug. 15.—A Kingsville, Ont., despatch says that W. H. Nelson, a prominent grocer of Kingsville, at 2 p.m. to-day, left his business, walked up to Greenhill Cemetery, sat down by a grave and deliberately shot himself through the lungs, very close to the heart, with a revolver. He now lies in a very critical condition with slight hopes of recovery.

Hanged Himself at Buffalo.

Buffalo, Aug. 14.—Michael Daley, a switchman in the employ of the New York Central road, killed himself early this morning by hanging. Daley's wife has been sick for several months and this fact evidently made him despondent. At 5.30 this morning his children found him dead. He had fastened a rope around his neck, attached it to the bed post and sat down, slowly strangling.

TO FIRE KICKERS OUT.

Members of the Democratic National Committee Not in Sympathy With Bryan Must Go.

Washington, Aug. 14.—Despatches from New York to the effect that Senator Jones, Chairman of the Democratic National Committee, had declared open war on those members of the National Committee not in sympathy with the election of Mr. Bryan, and had determined to oust them and substitute men more zealous in the cause, attracted a great deal of atention about headquarters to-day. While there was no one present authorized to speak for the chairman, there was a general opinion that the reported position he had assumed was the only one he could hold, and that it was absolutely essential in order to bring the party machinery in working harmonious condition. Senator Faulkner, chairman of the Congressional Committee, took the ground that the chairman had the authority to oust such men as declined to follow the behests of their party and substitute others, that in doing so he acted for the National Committee, which was the sole representative of the National convention, and the only organization that lived over from one convention to another. Should Chairman Jones, he said, find that the policy he has outlined meets with too much opposition, he could easily accomplish the same result by appointing the men from the states in "rebellion," with whom he desires to supplant the regular members of the committee, to places on the Executive Committee, which will have the active management of the campaign.

Many Feet Sore.

New York, Aug. 14.—It is said that nearly all the Southern and Western men who came to New York to attend the meeting of the Democratic National Committee and the notification meeting, have left for home very much disgusted with the treatment they received from New York Democracy. Many of them, it is asserted, declared before going that they were in favor of letting New York go by default in this campaign and devoting their energies to the West and South. It is further stated that they made urgent appeals to Senator Jones to refuse to establish even a branch headquarters in New York.

Nervous Prostration

Complete Recovery by the Use of

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"Some years ago, as a result of too close attention to business, my health failed. I became weak, nervous, was unable to look after my interests, and manifested all the symptoms of a decline. I took three bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, began to improve at once, and gradually increased my weight from one hundred and twenty-five to two hundred pounds. Since then, I and my family have used this medicine when needed, and we are all in the best of health, a fact which we attribute to Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I believe my children would have been fatherless to-day had it not been for Ayer's Sarsaparilla, of which preparation I cannot say too much."—H. O. HENSON, Postmaster and Planter, Kinard's, S. C.

NANSEN RETURNS

He Arrived at Vardoe Yesterday—He Left the Fram to Go Further North.

Vardoe, Aug. 13.—Dr. Nansen, the Arctic explorer, arrived here to-day. He says that his expedition attained one of its objects in traversing the Polar Sea to a point northward of the New Siberian Islands, namely, to lat. 80 degrees, 14 minutes north. No land was sighted north of lat. 82 degrees. After reaching the parallel of 80.14 the expedition went south to Franz Josef's Land, where it spent the winter, the members subsisting on bear's flesh and blubber.

Dr. Nansen arrived here on the steamer Winward, which is conveying provisions to the Jackson-Harmsworth expedition. The explorer is perfectly well. The Fram is expected to arrive at Vardoe or Bergen in a short time. All were well aboard of her when Dr Nansen left her.

The News in London.

London, Aug. 13.—Advices from Malmo confirm the report that Dr. Nansen is returning from his attempt to reach the North Pole by drifting to it in a steamer. He is, as The St. James Gazette despatches states, at Vardoe. He is accompanied by Lieut. Hansen. They left the steamer Fram, in which Dr. Nansen expected to be carried by the drifting ice to and across the Pole, last autumn. The expedition failed to reach the object of its search, but it got four degrees further north than did any previous expedition.

According to the report received here, Dr. Nansen's object in leaving the Fram was to push further north than the steamer was able to penetrate the ice. This was in March, 1895. The reports at hand at present are somewhat conflicting.

You'd Give All You Have of Both to be Restored to Health—Dr. Agnew's Great Cures are Specific Cures for Specific Ailments.

HEART DISEASE.—Relief in thirty minutes in most alarming cases of heart trouble: A strong statement to make for Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart, but it is borne out by the testimony of thousands who to day proclaim themselves snatched from the grave by its wonderful curative powers. If the heart flutters, palpitates, tires easily, it indicates heart disease. Be warned in time. Use this surest and quickest cure; it never fails. James Allen, of St. Stephen, N.B., writes:—"I was troubled with very severe pains in the heart, pain in the side, and shortness of breath. I became completely exhausted with the least exertion. Doctors said my case was a hopeless one. I procured a bottle of Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart. A few doses gave me permanent relief—six bottles entirely cured me, and to day I am well, and strong as I ever was. I think it the best medicine on earth for heart trouble."

CATARRH.—It goes right to the seat of the trouble, attacks the disease, removes the cause, cleanses out and heals the parts, quickly and permanently. Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder does all this, and it's no hearsay. The slaves who are freed from this loathsome malady by this positive cure are singing its praise day in and day out. "I am 80 years old. I have had catarrh for 50 years. Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder cured me, and I look upon my cure as almost a miracle," says Geo. Lewis, of Shamokin, Pa. A simple cold in the head may be the first step to chronic catarrh. Stop the cold and prevent the catarrh. Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder is harmless and easily applied.

PILES CURED IN THREE TO SIX NIGHTS.—Dr. Agnew's Ointment will cure all cases of itching piles in from 3 to 6 nights. One application brings comfort. For blind and bleeding piles it is peerless. Also cures Tetter, Salt Rheum, Eczema, Barber's Itch and all eruptions of the skin. 35 cents.

TEN CENTS CURES CONSTIPATION AND LIVER ILLS.—Dr. Agnew's Liver Pills are the most perfect made. Sick cure, like magic, Sick Headache, Constipation, Biliousness, Indigestion and all Liver ills. 10 cents a vial—40 doses. Sold by H. S. Macdonald.

HIT THE PATRONS, TOO.

Grand Trunker Wilson Says Their Representation in the House is Reduced by the School Question.

Montreal, Aug. 13.—(Special.)—Mr. J. Lockie Wilson, Patron candidate in Glengarry at the last election and grand trustee of the Patrons of Industry, who came to town to attend the butter and cheese conference with Mr. Laurier and his colleagues, thinks that the proposal of the abattoir and cold storage syndicate, represented by Mr. Porter of London, England, should be given serious consideration by the Dominion Government. It was more important, he thought, for the farmer than was any fast service, limited to passengers and freight. The abattoir would charge two cents a pound for slaughtering, freight, commission on beef, lamb and mutton. The Government might also allow the farmer a drawback duty, as is done in Australia.

"Our representation in the House," said Mr. Wilson, "was reduced, owing to the Manitoba school question. Otherwise, had it not been for this side issue, it would have been larger. As it is, we have these: David Rogers, Frontenac; John Tolmie, Bruce; W. B. Pettit, Prince Edward, and W. Douglas, Selkirk. These men are pledged to vote for Patron principles."

What will they do for the vote on the Speaker?

"They will vote with the Government," replied Mr. Wilson.

Mr. Wilson says that the chief questions to be brought up by the Patrons will be the free pass system and the compelling of the Governor-General and Lieut.-Governors to maintain their official residence on their own salary. Mr. Wilson attributed his own defeat largely to the interference of the clergy in the Manitoba school question. The present membership of the order, he says, is about 200,000, chiefly in Ontario, Prince Edward Island and Manitoba. The strongest contingent in Quebec is the Counties of Soulanges and Vaudreuil.

BILLY'S SUGARY SILVER WORDS.

The Westminster Gazette Says British Investors Now Desire to Withdraw Their Money From the U.S.

London, Aug. 13.—In its financial article to-day The Westminster Gazette refers to the speech of Mr. William J. Bryan, made yesterday evening in Madison-square Garden, and says: "Mr. Bryan's speech will certainly not increase confidence in the minds of investors. It is replete with financial heresies, and will cause investors everywhere to desire to withdraw their money from the United States while they are able to obtain gold in payment of debts.

"Should the free silver party be elected, gold will undoubtedly be driven out of circulation and a substantial premium would at once be demanded by those possessing it. We do not believe the individual Americans will take advantage of the political dishonesty proposed by the Democratic Committee, whereby even existing contracts calling for payment in gold will not be valid when free coinage is carried.

"It is, however, certain that railroads owing large amounts of gold debts would, with the premium on gold, be unable to meet the interest obligations, temporarily, at any rate, and would be forced to pay some of their debts in currency or become bankrupt. The fear of such a contingency renders it extremely difficult to sell any but the highest class of American railway bonds at the present time. Still it is hoped that the Eastern electors appreciate the dangers abroad and will support the candidates pledged to maintain the gold standard, otherwise we are likely to witness a crisis of unequalled severity.

"On the Stock Exchange Americans opened weak, owing to strong disapproval of the speech."

A Half-Mile Man.

London, Aug. 13.—The evening newspapers here this afternoon reproduce copies and extracts from Mr. Bryan's speech at Madison Square Garden yesterday evening. The Pall Mall Gazette has a column leading editorial on the subject, headed: "The Bubble Burst Itself," and saying: "His managers have discovered that it is unsafe to estimate him at more than fifty cents to the dollar," concluding with the remark that "The gold standard may breathe freely."

The St. James' Gazette, referring to the income tax feature of the speech, says: "If Mr. Bryan collides with the Supreme Court he will frighten away ore citizens than he would by threat or economic excesses."

Guide Boards on Country Roads.

There is one highway improvement which may be made without involving taxpayers in any great expense. We refer to the placing of signboards at the intersection of the principal country roads, explaining the direction, distance and names of contiguous villages or towns. In England, from time immemorial, these guide boards have been in use, and any person driving along a country road there needs not be under the necessity of enquiring the road to any place. This guide board gives the direction, number of miles and the name of the place. Whoever has had occasion to drive much through rural districts, with which he was not familiar, has experienced the embarrassment of coming to the parting of the ways and not knowing which to take. Often one has to waste much time in hunting for some one who can give information needed or in retracing steps erroneously taken. A suitable signboard conveying the intelligence specified above, planted at that junction of highways, would have saved all that trouble in one case. Multiply that case by the scores who may be misled in the course of a year, and one can see how valuable such a bulletin is.

ABOUT THE LIVER.

A lazy, slow or torpid liver influences the whole system, causing biliousness, sick headache, sallow complexion, languor and dullness. Burdock Blood Bitters regulates the liver, purifies the secretions and cures all forms of liver troubles. We say so and here is the proof:—

I hereby wish to thank you for the great benefit derived by me from your Burdock Blood Bitters. For three years I was troubled with liver complaint and tried everything to no purpose. I had almost given up hope until one day I determined to try Burdock Blood Bitters. I can say now that marked improvement resulted from the use of the first bottle and at the end of the sixth bottle I discontinued its use, being completely cured.

Buckwheat as a Weed Killer.

The quick growth of buckwheat and its broad leaf completely shading the ground, fits it to suppress most of the annual weeds. It has even been said to kill the Canada thistle, but this is more probably due to plowing the thistle under in June as preparation for the buckwheat than the crop which followed. But there is a better reason for the belief that growing buckwheat clears the land of wire worms and insects that destroy vegetables. So far as we know, there is no insect that will eat either the root or stalk of buckwheat, and sowing it on any piece of land for two years will kill the wire worms by furnishing nothing for them to eat.

STONY LAKE ITEMS.

Items of Interest from this Popular Summer Resort.

The campers and cottagers at Stony Lake this week were treated to various attractions. On Wednesday a concert was held at H. LeBrun's cottage at Boschink, and the place illuminated with lanterns, etc. The first annual regatta was held on Thursday and Friday, a report of which was given.

The steamers Golden City and Mary Ellen have decided to have regular places to call on the morning trips hereafter, as the way they have been running, that is calling at the islands, makes them lose a great deal of time. The mail has to be down at 9 a.m., and in order to do this the boats have a regular time to leave the appointed places. The steamers will call at Breeze's wharf Boschink at 5.30 a.m., Mount Julian at 6 a.m., Juniper Island 7. This will leave time to call at Burleigh if needed, and Sheriff Hall's at 7.15. In future the steamers will make no other calls on the morning trips and parties not at the places appointed will have to paddle out to the steamers when passing.

On Monday Wm. Snowden's party, which will occupy the house boat Lotus, which was towed up to Stony Lake. The party is composed of a jolly lot of fellows who know how to put in a good time.

"Que Paado" camp, who went up on Wednesday, will stop at their usual place, Mr. W. McDonald's cottage, for a week or so. The party is composed of Mrs. S. Ridpath, Miss Stabler, Miss G. Galvin, Miss V. McIlmoyl, Messrs. R. Burgess, T. Ridpath, John Isbister and James Isbister.

The merry party of Ashburnhamites, who were camped at Crawford's cottage, broke up on Wednesday, and the lake will know "La Hinda" camp no more this summer.

Dulce Domum seems to be a favourite place for those who like the lake. This week there are stopping there Mr. Wright, of London; Mr. and Mrs. Finnimore and son and Miss Finnimore, Peterborough; Mrs. Gowans, Peterborough; Mr. and Mrs. Jones, Misses Jones, and Master Verner and Harry Jones, Toronto; Miss E. M. Brown, New York; Messrs. E. A. and F. W. Tanner spent Sunday.

One day last week a young lady from Peterborough and a young gentleman staying at "Black Rock," met with an amusing experience. Wishing to go fishing, they got some young people to row them out to a[illegible] Boschink and leave them there [illegible] return for them in a short time. [illegible]utes passed into hours, and the two fishers sat out in the boiling sun angling for the finny tribe, but no luck. Pretty soon they thought it was time to return home, but on looking for the boat no boat was in sight, and after staying on the hot rock nearly all the afternoon, the boat came back and took them off, the two vowing that never again would they go out in such a way.

The new arrivals at Viamede Cottage this week are Rev. D. M. Kirkpatrick, Rochester, N.Y., Rev. Canon McNab, Toronto; Dr. and Mrs. Carvett, Toronto; Miss Clark, Toronto; Miss McArthur, Rochester, N.Y., and Miss Detcher, Rochester, N.Y. The fishing is excellent around Viamede, a number of fine bass being caught.

Mayor Yelland and wife are spending a few days at Oaklands.

"One O'clock Rest" camp broke up on Friday last and the merry party betook themselves to their several homes, to the sorrow (?) of the surrounding campers. The muse of the camp, on arriving home, could not rest until he relieved himself of the following appropriate lines, as a souvenir of the camp:—

CAMP "ONE O'CLOCK REST."

Away dull care! let worry flee,
And business plans forget;
Fill up the baskets plentiful
And join our jovial set.

For the merriest crowd that ever you saw,
Set sail from Lakefield town,
Laughing and jesting merrily—
"Don't tread on the tail of my gown."

Two Roses had we there with us:
One dark, the other fair,
Madcap Rose, brimful of life,
And Rose with the golden hair.

Fair Lizz'e F——, with eye so sly,
The gay young man to see;
And stately Min, so tall and dark
With a twinkle in her e'e.

Alma! thy name is kindness,
Forgetting self in others' pain,
Making us wish that we, something
Might do for other's again.

Johanna! thou soul of patience,
Suffering in silence, pain severe;
While Mary scolds for all she's worth
Then laughs till comes the tear.

So much for the sex so fair and dear,
Without them what e ulo we do—
With them worried to death we are—
But our hearts to them are true.

Do not my friends for a moment think,
That the party was only of girls,
For a man was there with each damsel fair,
And one to brush their curls.

Harry Frise from Brighton town,
I'm Solomon in his wake.
Wm. Cox, the man of the house,
And W. J. Kent as thin as a rake.

These four men, with the Ridpaths three,
The girls and our auntie dear,
Were the jolliest party to be found
From stony Lake 'way down to Clear.

Time passed by on fleeting wing,
And each day brought its joys
To the girls who seemed to take delight
In tormenting and teasing the boys.

For not content with keeping us
Up o'nights and breaking our rest,
They nightly parade to the tune of the harp,
The fiddle, the horn and like behest.

Patience soon worn threadbare thus,
Itself no longer can contain,
The boys from out their tent now steal
While the girls make a rush for the house again.

No rest for the wicked, so says the book,
And never was truer speech;
For whenever one tried to steal away
The others hung on like a leech.

The week of fun drew to a close,
And Saturday eve came 'round,
To McCracken's Landing we had to go
For home-made bread, both sweet and sound.

But the cooks that night said "wait awhile,
For tea it is near ready,
We'll give you pancakes, my dear boys,
And be sure you come home steady."

But on looking for flour and other things,
Nothing so earthly could be seen;
So out of nothing the cakes were made,
Nor were they fat, nor were they lean.

"Great credit to those who managed so well,"
Was echoed with right good will,
For out of nothing they evolved
Enough to feed us. That filled the bill.

On Sunday morn with breeze so fair,
To service with faces long!
An hour spent quite peacefully
With preaching, prayer and song.

The fame of our camp spread far and wide,
Other camps came o'er to see;
The fun to join; to laugh and share
Our hospitality so free.

Bonfires built and lanterns hung,
Lit up our point as well,
The visitors cried, as the light they spied
"Oh holy cricket! say, do tell."

Came all too soon the time for parting,
The word "good-bye" we had to say;
When next year comes may one and all
Make up their minds for a longer stay.

And now my friends, my jolly friends,
Good wishes to you all,
May the time soon come when once again
We answer the camping call.

Prepare yourselves for a jovial time,
A time both jolly and free;
And say to yourself that time doth fly,
But standeth still for me.

Farewell my friends for one short year,
May time go well with thee,
Whatever you do, avoid this thing,
"Don't hang your harp on a willow tree."

—W. J. K.

When any part of the body isn't doing the work that nature intended it to do, it puts the whole system out of tune—out of harmony. When children stand a row of bricks on end, they knock the whole row down by upsetting one brick. That is exactly what happens to the health when the bowels fail to perform their proper function. Constipation makes trouble all along the line—puts the liver out of order, is bad for the kidneys—bad for the stomach. It holds in the body poisonous matter, and because it cannot go any place else, it gets into the blood. The blood carries it all over the system. That makes sluggishness, lassitude, bad breath and foul taste in the mouth, fills the stomach with gas and causes windy belching, stops digestion in the stomach, causes sour stomach, heartburn and headache. You can avoid all such trouble, for Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets CURE constipation and its attendant evils.

Send 21 cents in one cent stamps to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N.Y., for his "Medical Adviser." It is a book of 1008 pages, profusely illustrated.

ELOPEMENT.

One of the dashing young men of the Purdy settlement, on the ninth line of Dummer, distinguished himself on Wednesday of last week by clandestinely carrying away the daughter of one of the enterprising business men of the same locality. This modern Romeo and Juliet drove to Lakefield, where they were united in marriage by an Episcopal clergyman of that place.

We have not heard whether the irate parents have forgiven the daring young son-in-law, but, at any rate, he has the grit and the girl, the girl has the "hubby," and the parents have an addition to the family register.

This section is gaining notoriety by its elopements, this being the third during the past year.—Norwood Register.

Is Kearney Insane?

A petition signed by some four hundred residents of Lindsay and neighbourhood, has been forwarded to the Minister of Justice at Ottawa, protesting against the infliction of the death penalty in the case of John Kearney. The latter is the 18-year-old lad who was sentenced to be hanged in October for the murder of an old farmer named James Agnew, who was shot down by Kearney at his barn on the night of March 17th. The evidence pointed clearly to Kearney as the murderer, and the defence was that Kearney was not responsible for his acts. Two of the doctors testified that Kearney was insane, but Justice Street charged against the prisoner and the jury brought in a verdict of guilty. Mr. John Barron, Q.C., whose firm defended the prisoner, is going to Ottawa in a few days to lay the case before Sir Oliver Mowat, Minister of Justice.

GOOD ENDORSERS.

Every business man understands that no matter how valuable the signature on a note may be, his confidence is greatly increased if the note is well endorsed.

This is equally true of articles other than notes. It is particularly true of pianos. The musical public always likes to know if a piano is well endorsed.

The Mason & Risch Piano is undoubtedly endorsed by more eminent names than any other instrument made in Canada. Here are a few of them:—

Madame Albani	Franz Lizst
Sir A. C. McKenzie (Principal Royal College of Music)	F. H. Torrington
Dr. Bridge (Organist Westminster Abbey)	S. P. Warren
Otto Bendix	Edouard Remenyi
Frederick Archer	W. Waugh Lauder
Mrs. Longmore	Signor D'Auria
	Watkins Mills
	Edouard Scharff

These are but few of the many eminent admirers of our pianos. We could go on and fill a column but we think this enough to establish our claim to be well endorsed.

An examination of our instruments is cordially solicited no matter how remote your idea of purchase may be.

Our prices are reasonable, quality considered, and our terms elastic enough to suit anyone.

NEWS FROM OTTAWA

The Wonderful Development of B.C. Mines.

WHAT OFFICIAL RETURNS SHOW.

A Great Crowd Expected at the Opening of Parliament—Festivities at Government House Will be Void of Formalism—Free Ammunition at the D.R.A.

Ottawa, Aug. 16.—(Special.)—No better proof of the wonderful mining development which is taking place in British Columbia could be forthcoming than the official returns prepared by British Columbia authorities and forwarded to the Dominion Government. In 1894 the aggregate value of the precious metals mined in British Columbia was $1,000,000. Last year it reached the grand total of $5,038,375, and this year the output promises to be still greater. For the period in 1896 ending July 15, practically only three months from the opening of the season, the total quantity of ore produced in Kootenay was 56,910 tons, of which 14,797 was exported. The estimated value of ore smelted and shipped to July 15 was one million and three quarter dollars. Owing to the boom now in progress, the suggestion comes from the west for the organization of a Dominion Bureau of Mines. The Geological Survey Department is devoting attention to the wonderful Rossland country and is sending two skilled surveyors there.

For some years the Geological Survey Department has had geologists engaged in making topographical and geological surveys of parts of British Columbia. The examination of the rocks has been very thorough, and the results have been set forth in voluminous reports illustrated by maps showing the rich formation and configuration of the country. Each of these maps represents a tract of country fifty miles square. The last to be published was that of Kamloops and vicinity, and last year the work on the Shuswap district was completed, though the maps and report will probably not appear for another year.

Mr. J. McEvey, B.A.Sc., of the survey staff, who received his training under Dr. Dawson, has just arrived in Rossland preparatory to beginning work from the Columbia River westward. He will be met there by R. G. McConnell of the same staff, who has been engaged for two years in the Slocan, and the two will work together for the remainder of the season. An accurate contour map will be made, showing the distribution and formation. The work will occupy more than one season.

The opening of Parliament this week will bring to the Capital a larger crowd of visitors than have attended any similar function in recent years. Special rates are given on all lines of railway running into Ottawa, and it is said that from Montreal alone will come four excursions. Seven hundred people from Kingston and along the St. Lawrence to Prescott are coming through for the occasion.

Their Excellencies the Governor-General and Lady Aberdeen have come to the conclusion that it is too hot for the holding of formal entertainments at Government House during at least the early part of the session. There will therefore be no State dinner at Government House on the night of the opening of Parliament, and no State reception as in other years. The men who are obliged to appear in their heavy Windsor uniforms or in military uniform at these State receptions must be rather gratified than otherwise.

Numerous entertainments at Government House of an informal character are on the cards. Everybody knows what pleasant garden parties the present occupants at Government House have given, and the comfortable and unceremonious style of costume His Excellency and the members of the staff adopt at these garden parties. His Excellency has invited all his masculine guests to follow his lead and do away with the formality of top hat and frock coat, coming to his garden party in flannels or tweeds as they would go to a picnic. There are to be two garden parties a week during the session and of course some dinners.

A lesson to the civic contractors is conveyed in a case just reported to the Customs Department. Two or three weeks ago the City Council of Victoria, B.C., awarded to a local contractor, J. W. Keller, the contract for supplying a quantity of sewer pipe. There were only two tenders, Keller and the British Columbia Pottery Company. Both quoted prices for 9-inch pipe, while for 10-inch pipe Keller quoted 35 1-2 cents and the British Columbia Pottery Company 38 cents. Though there was only this small difference of 2 1-2 cents in one class of pipe, the City Council decided to give the contract for the foreign-made pipe. Ten days ago a consignment of pipe was brought in by Keller from Seattle for the city contract and Collector Milne found that while the smaller size had been entered at the Customs it was the larger size that was being brought in. Accordingly he had the pipe seized, and on its being measured up it was found that the value was $200 more than that which Mr. Keller had put on the article. The duty at 35 per cent. on the article came to $70, so that Mr. Keller had to pay to the Customs $270 before the pipe was handed over. This means that he had to buy his pipe twice over, once at Seattle and once from the Customs.

As foreshadowed two or three days ago by your correspondent, the Minister of Militia has authorized the free issue of ammunition to competitors taking part in the Dominion rifle matches commencing here on the 31st inst. This free issue is to be made for this year only, as it will use up the stock of Martini-Henry ammunition on hand. The Minister, in making this concession, apart from recognizing the importance of the association, considers that in all probability this will be the last year in which the Martini-Henry, rifle and ammunition will be shot with.

Mr. Tarte is being urged to renew his demand for an enquiry into the conduct of the partisan political character of certain Quebec judges. The present Minister of Public Works submitted a motion to this effect in the House in 1894, but nothing was done. The Free Press says it is rumored there are one or two judicial officers whose conduct calls for investigation, and as the name of the entire bench is besmirched by the bad behavior of one, the innocent and well-doing will no doubt be very glad if Mr. Tarte takes the hint. The interests of the Province of Quebec require that the bench should be unimpeachable.

J. H. Ross, a member of the Executive of the Northwest Assembly is in the city and had an interview with Mr. Laurier yesterday. Mr. Ross is here in connection with affairs pertaining to the Northwest and will have an interview with some of the members of the Government on Monday. He will remain in the city for a couple of weeks. Mr. Ross says crops all over the Territories are in excellent condition.

Arpaul T. Dumas, D.L.S., arrived yesterday from Lake Temiscamingue, where he was engaged by the Hudson Bay Company and the Oblat Fathers in sub-dividing into village lots some lands around the fort. Mr. Dumas says some of the crops in the Temiscamingue are exceedingly good. All the lands surveyed by the Quebec Government are already taken, and there are even some settlers on lands not yet surveyed.

An order in council passed authorizes the Canada Atlantic Railway Co. and the Ottawa, Arnprior and Parry Sound Railway Co. to fix and regulate the tolls on the respective roads through the boards of directors.

Last year about this time parties who came from Labrador reported destitution among the Indians, and the Department of Indian Affairs did all that was possible to alleviate their sufferings. Instructions have just been issued to similar effect this year.

Hon. William Stevens Fielding of Halifax is gazetted Minister of Finance.

Dr. Andrew Smith of Toronto was here yesterday and had an interview with the Minister of Agriculture.

Hon. J. A. Cameron, Provincial Secretary of Manitoba, arrived here today.

Our genial friend, Registrar Peter Ryan of Toronto, and John J. MacIntyre of Niagara Falls were in town yesterday on business with some of the local lumber firms. Peter was asked what The World might say about his mission to Ottawa, and he replied: "Say I was fishing in the Rideau Canal." His business, it appears, was entirely non-political.

Hon. L. H. Davies, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, has instructed Capt. Smith of Halifax to make an investigation and report into the loss of the Guinare while on her way from Cape Breton to Halifax.

Mr. J. D. Edgar, the nominee of the Government for the Speakership of the Commons, has arrived in the city, and was busy yesterday making arrangements for the opening of Parliament.

Hon. Robert Watson, Commissioner of Public Works in the Greenway Government, left for Quebec yesterday.

Collector Bown at Port Morien, Cape Breton, has reported to the Department the seizure of $1000 worth of liquor, being part of the cargo smuggled in by an unknown vessel.

SAFE BLOWERS AT HAMILTON.

Professional Cracksmen Do a Lot of Work for Little Gain.

Hamilton, Aug. 16.—(Special.)—About 4 o'clock yesterday morning burglars successfully cracked the safe of the Hamilton Engine Packing Company in Alanson-street, but got away with only $5, the same amount of postage stamps, a gold and a silver watch, a revolver and a number of valuable papers. The explosion awakened the family of Alex Grant, who lives close by, and upon looking out saw smoke in the factory and heard men hammering. Mr. Grant aroused J. H. Clappison, who lives some distance away, but when the men returned the night artists had decamped. The police were telephoned for, but it was some time before the patrol arrived. When it got there the officers endeavored to trace the footprints, but were thrown off by four tramps in a barn, whom they thought were the burglars, and arrested them. The tramps were discharged at the Police Court. The artists were evidently experts, as they first tried to drill the safe, but then decided to blow it.

BURNED TWO GATES.

War Against the Toll-Takers in York County.

NO CLUE TO THE INCENDIARIES.

Toronto Fire Brigade Called Out to Quench the Flames—New Lessees Adopt a More Stringent Policy, and Their Action is Resented by Some People.

Toronto, Aug. 17.

The tollgate on Yonge-street, just beyond the city limits, and what is known as the check gate at Deer Park, were set on fire by parties unknown at 3.30 o'clock on Sunday morning. Policeman Crowley of No. 5 Precinct saw the flames issuing from No. 1 tollgate, and summoned the fire brigade, who extinguished the blaze. The check gate, however, was burned to the ground.

High Constable Jones was notified of the occurrence, but so far there is no clue to the identity of the firebug. At about 3 o'clock Policemn Crowley saw a man come from the direction of the gates and turn along Wickson-avenue, but it is not known who he was.

It appears that there has been some dissatisfaction existing on the part of parties passing through the gates for some time past. Until a short time ago Mr. Mowat was lessee of No. 1 gate, but it has lately passed into the care of Mrs. Atkinson. Gate-keeper Mowat was easy on the patrons of the road, giving some people credit and allowing others the privilege of single fare. Since Mrs. Atkinson has taken hold, she and her two sons have been running the gate in a more businesslike manner, and this has not been agreeable to some of Mr. Mowat's delinquents. Until a couple of months ago it was possible for those desirous of doing so to evade payment of toll by going around the gate via Reservoir Park-avenue-road and St. Clair-avenue, but since the erection of the check gate at Deer Park this evasion of the toll is not feasible. This may have had something to do with yesterday morning's incendiarism.

Mr. Atkinson intimated last night that it was probably some sorehead, owing to the determination on the part of the lessee that toll should be paid. Often people driving through have referred to the demolition of other tollgates, and have hinted that these gates would, perhaps, suffer, but Mr. Atkinson cannot recollect any particular person having said this.

The places were set on fire through holes being made near the bottom, and the ignition of coal oil, which had been poured through the apertures.

No. 1 tollgate was burned down before, about four years ago.

TO CLEAR THEM OUT OF ESSEX.

Warning Has Been Given That the Remaining Two Gates Will be Fired.

Windsor, Ont., Aug. 16.—Another tollgate outrage is reported from Essex county. Some men went to the gate at Ouellette's Corners and partly tore it down, but left after notifying Mrs. Smith, the tollkeeper, that next week they would return and burn this gate and the gate at Grand Marais, the only gates left standing at present. The gates destroyed during the recent riots are not rebuilt.

BLOWN OUT INTO THE LAKE.

Mr. A. Peate and Miss Darch of Bowmanville are Supposed to Have Been Lost.

Bowmanville, Ont., Aug. 16.—This afternoon Mr. A. Peate and Miss Darch went out on the lake in a small skiff. Shortly afterwards a heavy wind sprang up, and they were noticed outside the harbor, drifting outward. As they did not return shortly after another boat went out to assist them, but could get no trace of them. Fears are entertained for their safety, as a heavy sea is rolling.

$50,000 DAMAGE

Was Done at Barrie and Allandale on Saturday by a Sudden Cloudburst—G.T.R. Train Service Thrown Out.

Barrie, Ont., Aug. 16.—Not since the flood of June 5, 1890, have the citizens of Barrie witnessed such a storm as visited here Saturday. Until 1 o'clock the day seemed perfect, large excursions being brought in by steamers Enterprise and Islay. About 1.30 thunderclouds gathered from the south and the wind became very fierce, tearing down many large trees, also the roof of Anderton's Brewery. About 4 o'clock the rain began to fall in torrents, washing out the roadway along Peel-street. The worst flow was down Cumberton-street, which was also badly damaged by the flood of 1890. The current turned at the Five Points, and ran along Dunlop-street. At 6 o'clock a stream fully a foot deep was running along the pavement on the south side of Dunlop-street. The cellar of Cashman & Perry's store, along the north side, was filled with water, and even the store to the depth of several inches. Shortly after 6 the rain ceased, leaving the marks of its work on nearly every street of the town.

It is hard to believe that yesterday's storm could cause such serious loss to the Grand Trunk Railway. The yards at Allandale are in a state of turmoil, tracks being ripped up, cars thrown on end and some buildings completely destroyed.

Residents say had the storm continued half an hour longer the G.T.R. station and restaurant would have been washed away, the track in many places being washed away, causing much delay to traffic. The train leaving Toronto at 5.15 for here could get no further north than Lefroy, the passengers being brought from there to Barrie by boat. The damage to the town and Grand Trunk will be at least $50,000.

At the Union Station last night The World learned that the storm came up with great rapidity about 5 o'clock, and burst over the Northern yards at Allandale, washing away, it is estimated, some three hundred yards of track and burying several freight cars which were lying in its path. The town is somewhat of a railway centre, and, consequently, plenty of men were on hand to repair the damage without outside assistance. Everything is expected to be in good running order late to-night, so that trains will probably run to-morrow morning on schedule time. Passengers by the morning train for Barrie and the north will arrive at their destination all right, but those leaving in the evening will not get past Craigville.

For the convenience of local traffic a special went out to the latter place at 3 o'clock this morning. Arrangements have been made to accommodate all passengers, however, as the Midland train that is to leave at 9.30 will go at 8.30 this morning, and will reach Barrie and all points north via Georgetown, while a special will leave for Craigville at the same time. The damage cannot as yet be ascertained.

Gloom

Of ill health, despondency and despair, gives way to the sunshine of hope, happiness and health, upon taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, because it gives renewed life and vitality to the blood, and through that imparts nerve strength, vigor and energy to the whole body. Read this letter:

"Hood's Sarsaparilla helped me wonderfully, changed sickness to health, gloom to sunshine. No pen can describe what I suffered. I was deathly sick, had sick headaches every few days and those terrible tired, despondent feelings, with heart troubles so that I could not go up and down stairs without clasping my hand over my heart and resting. In fact, it would almost take my breath away. I suffered so I did not care to live, yet I had much to live for. There is no pleasure in life if deprived of health, for life becomes a burden. Hood's Sarsaparilla does far more than advertised. After taking one bottle, it is sufficient to recommend itself." MRS. J. E. SMITH, Beloit, Iowa.

COMING TO CANADA.

In the month of July there was a considerable increase in the immigrants leaving Great Britain for Canada. If the newcomers, remarks the London Advertiser, are farmers, ready to go on new lands, and make homes for themselves, or men of means, bent on opening up and developing our splendid mineral resources they are heartily welcome. Of all other classes we have plenty. Our immigration managers in future must steadily keep this fact in mind.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

THE Bryan silver dollar will drop into the ballot box with a dull thud.

APROPOS of the present disintegrated condition of the Conservative and the search for a leader, the famous recipe for cooking a hare is suggested—"first catch the hare"—first find the party.

IT looks, says the Ottawa Journal (Conservative), as though the Conservative party, like some of the lacrosse teams in the senior league, needs to start over with a number of colts in training for leadership.

THE London News claims that the western metropolis is one of the healthiest cities in Canada, and with more doctors to the square foot. That explains it. The sick apply to the doctors and naturally only the healthy remain.

THE Conservative party in their late course on the question on which they appealed to the country, suggest the answer of Artemus Ward, who, in relating an interview, said: "He asked me what was my prinserpals. I told him I hadn't any; nary prinserpal. I was in the show business."

WE are told, says the Globe, by our esteemed Bay street contemporary (The Mail) that "Mr. Bryan's dash to New York to a certain extent resembles Sir Charles Tupper's dash to Winnipeg at the beginning of the recent campaign." Yes! And very probably, like Sir Charles Tupper, Mr. Bryan will wind up the contest by a dash up Salt Creek.

THE Evening Telegram says: "Most Torontonians will hear with pleasure of the election of James D. Edgar as speaker of the House of Commons. In the camp of the Philistines Mr. Edgar has many friends. He is not more popular with the Grits than he is with the Conservatives. Years of Parliamentary life, much study and a minute acquaintance with Parliamentary forms have qualified Mr. Edgar to be one of the best Speakers the Canadian Parliament has ever seen. It may be necessary for party purposes for the House to divide on the election of a Speaker. If this course be taken, many a man will vote against Mr. Edgar who will be genuinely pleased to see him conducted to the chair after the voting is over."

THE Conservative party, by dropping remedial legislation from its programme for the purpose of winning back Clarke Wallace and Wallace McLean, may gain two votes, but they stand to lose many more by the move. Not, perhaps, on the merit of the question itself, for, thanks to Mr. Laurier, that vexed question will, by speedy settlement, be forever removed from the arena of practical politics; but people will have no confidence in a party that can thus show its facility in playing fast and loose with the most serious question that has arisen since confederation. A party that will thus practically confess that it made a mere party cry of such a question, to be abandoned when it fails to land them in office, cannot be trusted, and will not be trusted.

ONE of the bad effects of the school embroglio in Manitoba, is that no prominent Manitoban can come east without having his steps dogged and his purposes misinterpreted. An Ottawa newspaper says it is understood at the capital that no appointment to the portfolio of the Interior will be made till after the school question has been settled. We have no hesitation in saying, says the Brantford Expositor, that none ought to be made until it is seen whether Manitoba is willing to aid in securing an amicable and permanent settlement of a question that is fraught with danger to the whole Dominion. The Canadian Parliament has power to legislate for the redress of Catholic grievances. Any member of either house may bring in a bill for the purpose. If the matter is referred to in the House of Commons where and when will it end? The sooner it is disposed off the better for all parties to the bitter and injurious controversy.

"SOME of the richest placer-mines in Alaska have, says the Buffalo Express, "been transferred to British territory by a resurvey made by a British agent and the American miners in the district are forced to pay taxes to Canadian officials. The settlement of the Alaskan boundary was left to a commission which has not yet reported. If the Canadians have undertaken to enforce any change in the existing boundary pending a decision by that commission they have committed a gross breach of international courtesy and will be compelled to recede from their position." Our Buffalo cotem is unduly excited and argues from premises wide of the facts which are these. After Mr. Ogilvie, on the part of our Government, had run the boundary line referred to in the Port Townsend telegrams respecting the gold mines in Glacier and Miller Creeks, his survey was checked by the United States chief of survey. The two coincided almost identically. Where the line crosses the Yukon River there was a difference of but six hundred feet between the two, and that difference was conceded to the Americans. At Forty Mile Creek the two surveys actually tallied to within six feet. Where the offence referred to by the Express comes in it is difficult to see.

MR. TARTE'S PROGRAMME.

Ottawa Journal (Independent Conservative.)

To all appearance the Hon. J. I. Tarte seems in earnest in his desire to run the public service on a business basis. There have been a considerable number of dismissals from the Public Works Department, ouside of Ottawa, with some dismissals here, and a large number to follow. These dismissals, Mr. Tarte says, are made because there is not work to do for all who have been employed. He is not making dismissals on political grounds, but upon the answers of the heads of departments as to the requirements of the public service. It follows as a logical sequence that the Minister of Public Works does not intend to fill the places of those who are dispensed with.

If Mr. Tarte were dismissing Conservatives to make room for Liberals he would have an easier and pleasanter job than the one he announces himself to have undertaken. If he were merely dismissing Conservatives to make room for Liberals, the Conservative politicians and press would howl, but the Liberal politicians, at least the lower order of them, would applaud. But Mr. Tarte seems to simply intend to run his department on business principles. This remarkable intention will not lessen the Conservative outcry much—partisans will not give an opponent any credit they can help—and it will dissatisfy a considerable number of Liberals who expected themselves or their friends to step into Government berths. Mr. Tarte, if he carries out his announcements, can look for reward to the approval and support of intelligent citizens in the future, but meanwhile he must face not merely political abuse from his opponents but a great amount of harassing pressure from office-seekers professing to have always been among the faithful on the Liberal side. But it is earnestly to be hoped that he will stand firm and succeed in carrying out his programme. Surely the country can and will appreciate something better than it has had of late years, some public principle other than the continual loading up of all the public departments with employees for whom there is no real work.—Ottawa Journal (Ind. Con.)

Campbellford, (Special) Aug. 17.—An unlooked for and remarkable recovery from advanced stage of dropsy is just made public here. It is the case of Mrs. John Weese, wife of the widely known veteran stage proprietor, whose life for months, had been despaired of. She claims that after all other means had failed she thanks Dodd's Kidney Pills for her unexpected cure.

Light in Asia—It Shines Clearly.

MESSRS. T. MILBURN & CO., TORONTO:

Dear Sirs,—There is light in Asia after all and the man that advised me to try your Heart and Nerve Pills was a friend indeed and truly a friend in need. Before I started to take them I was languid, weak, sleepless and nervous. My brain was beclouded and I could not collect my thoughts, I had gone through an operation in the hope of relief, but still remained generally broken up, my appetite was gone and I was almost without hope or ambition.

But I feel thoroughly rebuilt through the use of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and it took only three or four weeks to do the work. I often think of the years of suffering I might have escaped had I only known of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills in time; but I am grateful to be restored to health at last and gladly recommend the medicine that cured.

MR. BLAKE AS LEADER.

Delegates to the Dublin Convention Say That is the Only Solution to the Irish Problem.

Montreal, Aug. 16.—(Special.)—It looks as if the Canadian delegates to the Irish pacific conference, to be held so soon in Dublin, have about made up their minds that the only solution of the vexed question will be found in the choice of the Hon. Edward Blake as leader and consolidator of the different Irish factions now represented in the Parliament at Westminster. A leading Irish-Canadian told your correspondent to-day that the feeling at home was so bitter between the Parnellites, the McCarthyites and the other sections into which the Home Rule party were divided as to make it absolutely necessary to select a leader on side of the ranks of the Irishmen proper and that Edward Blake was the man for the position. The same gentleman is also authority for the statement that Hon. Mr. Costigan, Archbishop Walsh and other leading Canadian delegates were most anxious that Mr. Blake should accept the leadership of the Irish Parliamentary party.

THEY ARE GIVING WAY.

Physicians Commence to Realize the Value of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

OTTAWA, Aug. 10.—The inveterate reluctance to admit the success of patent medicine usually evinced by physicians is rapidly giving way, so far as Dodd's Kidney Pills are concerned. The cases of Dr. Rose and Dr. McCormick, who published details of their recovery from diabetes and Bright's disease through the agency of this remedy, were the first attacks on the citadel of their skepticism and now it appears as if the remarkable recovery of Mr. G. H. Kent, of this city, the details of which have been transmitted to the press, would complete what has been so auspiciously begun. The published interviews with Mr. and Mrs. Kent and the sworn statement of the former leaves no foothold for disbelief.

TECUMSEHS 6 TO 1.

Shamrocks of Montreal Badly Beaten in Toronto.

THE PLAY WAS FAST AND FURIOUS

Montreal Irishmen Only Scored One Goal—Four Thousand People Saw the Game—The Fast Wheelmen at Louisville—Connoisseur Won at Detroit.

Toronto, Aug. 17.

The Tecumsehs made a run-away game of it Saturday with the Shamrocks at Hanlan's Point, and wound up with a 6-to-1 victory No one would have thought it, but that's the result, and the big crowd wondered at the close how the Capitals won by 6to 1 a week before. Burns was back, and the Ferrymen's home showed up superbly, although they lacked accuracy and speed in shooting at times, notably in the first game.

There was very little wagered on the result, Shamrock money being generally out of sight. Thus the Montreal Irishmen were not confident before the start. They figured that with O'Brien and Murray off the defence, and O'Meara, Lumsden and Tansey of the home, they would be in the air and totally unable to show their old-time combination. Still, with 40 men at practice every night, it was expected the places of the veterans would be easily filled with livelier and just as reliable men. And none of the visitors showed up individually weak. It was the team play of the Tecumsehs that was vastly superior to that of the green-shirted Shamrocks, and the score just about represents the play.

On the Islanders' side, Little Macdonald was replaced at centre by Speaker, while Quinn went between the flags and Davis played cover-point. Barney has a bad leg. Some Toronto Irishmen say that he never did like to run up against Wall. The sprints during the game were generally in favor of the visitors.

At the start it was fast and furious. The men stuck to their checks in desperate fashion, and a killing pace was set. Tecumsehs' great combination work soon asserted itself, and the ball went north to stay. Half a dozen times they had it right in the mouth of goal, but Stinson and Sparrow worked heroically and effectively, and it was not until they had struggled 17 minutes that Cross accepted the easy chance that had so often been missed before.

The lightning speed continued, with the locals still forcing the play, and Murphy scored in short order. It was in the third game that the Shamrocks showed superior form, and it looked as if they would surely score. But, instead, the ball went through at the other end. The Tecumsehs had the advantage in the fourth, but in the fifth the Shamrocks again pressed, and Wall sent in a shot that just grazed the stick on the outside. Then the ball went down and the score was 5 to 0. Just as time was up, McKeown swiped the ball past Quinn at close quarters and broke the Shamrocks' goose-egg.

To the wonderful work of Patterson on the defence and Burns on the home is mostly due the lopsided score, while all along the line the locals played like winners.

About 4000 gathered around the oval in perfect weather. They cheered when Pete Knowles won the toss, and kept it up for two hours. Even they had enough Irish in them to applaud Erin's sons for their lucky stroke at the close. The games were scored as follows:

First—Tecumsehs, Cross, 17 min.
Second—Tecumsehs, Murphy, 4 min.
Third—Tecumsehs, German, 5½ min.
Fourth—Tecumsehs, Cross, 3 min.
Fifth—Tecumsehs, Cross, 10 min.
Sixth—Tecumsehs, Burns, 5 min.
Seventh—Shamrocks, McKeown, 19 min.

The teams and officials were:

Shamrocks—McKenna, goal; Stinson, point; Sparrow, cover; Dwyer, Moore, Hinton, defence; O'Brien, centre; Kelly, Murphy, McKeown, home; Wall, outside home; Tucker, inside; M. J. Polan, captain.

Tecumsehs—Quinn, goal; Patterson point; Davis, cover; Grimes, Yorke, Hartley, defence; Peaker, centre; Murphy, Burns, Cross, home; McVey, outside; German, inside; P. Knowles, captain.

Referee—Dr. Roberts. Umpires—J. J. Manning and Fred Killer. Timers—Messrs. Cook and Rose.

CORNWALL IN GREAT FORM.

Cornwall, Aug. 16.—The Cornwall Lacrosse Club added another victory to their string to-day by turning the tables on the Montreal team, by whom they were defeated in the beginning of the season. Yesterday they shut the Montreal team out with a score of 7 games to 0, with about 85 minutes to play. The first three games were very closely contested, especially the third, which lasted 15½ minutes. Cornwall scored the first game in 2¾ minutes, the second in 13, the third in 15½, the fourth in 1½, fifth in 1, the sixth in 2½ and the seventh in 3½. Although there was nearly 35 minutes to play, the visitors did not care to have a larger score piled up against them and withdrew from the field. The Cornwalls, with the exception of McLennan, Crites, Reviere, Turner and Jack Adams, are all of home production, and bid fair to lowering the Capitals' colors when they meet them here in September. They are training hard and will endeavor to once more demonstrate their superiority over the Shamrocks in Montreal next Saturday.

OPENING DAY AT SHEEPSHEAD.

Ogden Captures the Rich Futurity—Connoisseur Wins at Detroit.

Sheepshead Bay, Aug. 15.—The Futurity was run here to-day and was won by Ogden. The horses were called to the post at 4.50 o'clock. They finally got away in good order, with Rhodesia and Ornament a trifle in front. Tuberville rushed Ogden, the colt from Montana, to the front and set a merry clip, followed by Rhodesia, Ornament and Bastian. They ran in this order for a quarter, where Sloane became anxious on Ornament and moved up into second place, Rhodesia dropping back to third and later out of it altogether. Bastian took Rhodesia's place, and so they ran to the dip. There Ogden was leading and going easy, while Sloane was making Ornament up a trifle. As they run to the bend Sloane sent Ornament along, and in a twinkling he was at Ogden's head. The crowd began to yell "Ornament wins." Others cried, "Newsgatherer," mistaking Ogden's colors for those of McCafferty. The two colts came on together head and head for a sixteenth of a mile. Then Sloane suddenly went to the whip. Tuberville redoubled his efforts and drew away slowly but surely, and finally crossed the line a winner by a length and a half from Ornament, who was four lengths in front of Rodermond. Scottish Chieftain was fourth, five lengths back. The time was the fastest Futurity ever run. The best previous time, 2.11, was made by The Butterflies in 1894. The race was worth in the neighborhood of $48,000 to the winner and the aggregate value was nearly $60,000.

Detroit Results: First race, 7 furlongs—Tremor, 20 to 1, 1; Ragador, 11 to 5, 2; Sprinte, 2 to 1, 3. Time 1.32. Second race, 6 furlongs—Arapahoe, 6 to 5, 1; Equator, 3 to 1, 2; Sir Play, 9 to 5, 3. Time 1.17¾. Third race, 1⅛ miles—Boone, 6 to 5, 1; Pepper, 2 to 1, 2; Docksader, 50 to 1, 3. Time 1.57⅛. Fourth race, Gobel Stakes, handicap, 1 1-16 miles—Connoisseur, 3 to 5, 1; Ramiro, 8 to 5, 2; Lobengula, 2 to 1, 3. Time 1.51½. Fifth race, 5 furlongs—Lady Callahan, 8 to 1, 1; Robalo, even, 2; Pan Grass, 20 to 1, 3. Time 1.01⅘. Sixth race, 5 furlongs—Lauretta G., 5 to 1, 1; Needah, even, 2; Fred Barr, 2 to 1, 3. Time 1.34.

THE L.A.W. RACES.

Some of the Professionals Have a Scrap on the Track.

Louisville, Aug. 15.—The last day of the races of the L.A.W. National meet ended with a quarrel among the racing men on account of fouling, the equal of which has not been seen on the national circuit this year. The trouble arose in the five-mile national championship race, in which were entered all the cracks in attendance at the meeting. Cooper started the fouling by trying to push Bald off the pole with his hand. Bald retaliated, and after that example from the leaders nearly every man who wanted the pole got it by pushing. Protests were entered with President Elliott of the league by Bald against Cooper; Cooper against Bald; Coburn against Cooper and Gardiner against Callahan. The finish was: Cooper, 1; W. E. Becker, St. Paul, 2; E. S. Acker, Philadelphia, 3. The time was 12.18 2-5. The officials disqualified Cooper for fouling, and the race was given to Becker, with Acker second and Nat Butler third. There is no appeal from this decision. A heavy rainstorm prevented the running of the last race on the card, the professional trial for one mile, unpaced, and that event was called. Fully 10,000 people were in attendance. There was no meeting of the Racing Board to-day, as had been expected, and the matter of charges, almost all the amateurs that were entered in the national meet race, that they were in the pay of manufacturers, will be investigated at a called meeting, if at all. Summaries:

Half-mile, national championship—First semi-final—Tom Cooper, Detroit, 1; Arthur Gardiner, Chicago, 2. Also started: C. R. Coulter, J. F. Starbuck, W. Coburn. Time 1.12 2-5. Second semi-final—E. C. Bald, Buffalo, 1; Tom Butler, Boston, 2; F. H. Allen, Syracuse, 3. Also started: Ray McDonald, A. D. Kennedy, Louis Challenger, Con Baker. Time 1.08. Final—Tom Butler, Boston, 1; E. C. Bald, 2; Arthur Gardiner, Chicago, 3. Also started—Tom Cooper, F. H. Allen. Time 1.15. 3-5.

One-mile handicap, amateur—Final—J. J. Howard, St. Louis (20), 1; O. C. Ingraham, Dixon (scr.), 2; W. E. Lum, Montgomery (15), 3; S. J. Bornwasser, Louisville, 4; F. R. Wattersly, St. Louis (30), 5. Time 2.14 2-5.

Two-mile state championship, amateur—W. H. Sexton, Louisville, 1; F. D. Michener, Louisville, 2; V. E. Dupre, Louisville, 3. Time 5.01 3-5.

One-mile open, professional—Final—W. Coburn, St. Louis, 1; F. H. Allen, Syracuse, 2; E. C. Bald, Buffalo, 3. Time 2.10 2-5.

One-mile, amateur, 2.30 class—Final—C. R. McCarthy, St. Louis, 1; Lou Coburn, St. Louis, 2; Stuart Leathers, Louisville, 3. Time 2.15.

Two-mile handicap, professional—Final—W. C. Sanger, Milwaukee, 1; A. D. Kennedy, Chicago (20), 2; L. A. Callahan, Buffalo (20), 3. Time 4.25 2-5.

One-mile, open—C. C. Ingraham, Dixon, 1; R. Samberg, Port Huron, 2; J. J. Howard, St. Louis, 3. Time 2.24.

Five miles, national championship—W. E. Becker, St. Paul, 1; E. S. Acker, Philadelphia, 2; Nat Butler, Boston, 3. Time 12.18 2-5. Cooper, winner, and Callahan, third, disqualified for fouling.

An Age of Substitution.

Keenness of competition is the characteristic of the age. Not in old channels of routine is trade permitted to flow, but in channels newly hewn out of the solid rock of opposition by brains and energy. Good, in its way, is this. If, however, it gives rise to dishonest methods, then an evil does it certainly become. An eminent physician had occasion recently to prescribe that well-known nutrient and tonic, Maltine with Coca Wine. His patient, an active public man, had gone all to pieces; nerves unstrung, sleepless, appetite and digestion sadly impaired—almost a total wreck. By unfailing experience the doctor knew it to be the right thing. Well, the patient made no progress, and investigation established the fact that the druggist had substituted another preparation—"just as good" of course—to secure slightly increased profit. The doctor soon saw that his patient secured the genuine Maltine with Coca Wine, with the expected result, for his patient improved from the start.

The L. A. W. Championships.

Louisville, Aug. 14.—The races of the National L.A.W. meet to-day in the finishes and the time made bordered on the sensational. One of the most important world's records, the one mile competition, was broken.

The one mile national championship was decided so far as the present progress of the circuit is concerned. It was won by Tom Butler, Arthur Gardiner did the record-breaking in the mile open, paced by John S. Johnson and J. W. Parsons, the Australian champion, with 13 starters in the race. Gardiner rode the mile in 2.01, beating the record of 2.01 4-5 established by Bald just a week ago at Buffalo. He won by a phenomenal sprint in the stretch, which he entered ten lengths behind Sanger, who led the field. Cooper was not entered in this race.

In the third-mile national championship, Cooper, who won, had the closest call of the year. He beat Owen Kimble across the tape only half the diameter of his front wheel. Bald was third, a length behind Kimble. The others were bunched behind.

The first serious accident of the meet occurred in the five-mile State championship. J. C. Mitchell's chain broke and he fell. Karl Thom, the Kentucky one-mile champion, fell over him and three other riders landed on Mitchell before he could rise. The latter's collarbone was fractured in two places.

WRECKAGE

From the Big Sale

In the shape of Remnants, Odd Lots and Tail Ends from every department, have been rooted out, ticketed and marked at prices to close them with a rush. It's a fitting wind-up for the biggest selling event in our history. A few days will do the business, and sharp's the word.

Remnants of Cloths.

Nothing wrong with them. The last few yards of the piece cost us just as much as the first. Ought to sell them at a sacrifice though; they litter the stock. Good picking here for the Boy's Fall School Suits. Why not look ahead a bit and by so doing save a dollar? Price of each remnant in plain figures. They're all spread out on the shelves and you can make an easy selection.

Broken Lots of Men's Pants.

Good sizes and lengths among them. Some at about one-half regular prices. They'll move quick when the newness gets out.

Good-by to Summer Ties.

The left-overs are going to be turned into money at short notice. The prices are absurd, but we don't want to winter them.

Men's and Boy's Suits.

Not a question of worth, but what price will sell them. It will pay you to be among the first. The pick is worth something. 300 Suits to pick from, well made and finished, the products of some of the best known makers. A lot of our own make included.

Broken Lots of Hosiery and Underwear.

Odd dozens and half-dozens, all out on the counter, and they're not going back into the shelves with our consent. Can you use them? If so, help us to get rid of them.

Summer Suits and Separat Parts.

Some made of Wool Serge, some of Cricketing Flannel, some of Silk and some of Lustre and Alpaca. Only about a dozen of each, but we want the room more than the goods.

Summer Boots & Shoes.

The Fall Styles will be about the same as these; they're all new this season. Not many shelves full, but you save just half. Not often that 50c does the work of $1.00 but we need the room.

Shirts and Collars.

They might as well go with the rest. We won't profit financially on the sales, but that makes no difference, so long as we can clean up the overplus.

Last Call on Felt and Straw Hats.

And a loud call it is. Mostly broken lots, but none the worse for that. If your size, style or kind is among them then you're in luck, for the prices are out loose entirely from the values.

The excavations for the two abutments for the new railway bridge at Auburn are already completed, and a coffer dam is in position for one of the piers. Underbrushing Fires.

Some fires that had been started by the underbrushing gang on the canal, east of the Auburn mills, got beyond control yesterday owing to the high wind. Several farmers lost considerable fencing and a number of fields were more or less burnt over. Some farm houses and barns in the neighbourhood were also endangered, and the farmers had their teams out ploughing wide furrows across the fields between their houses and the scene of the blaze, for protection.

What They Do in Germany.

Dutch Peasants are proverbially stolid and slow but they are quick enough to grasp new ideas for increasing their comfort. For years they have used wooden sabots for footwear on account of their lightness and warmth; and now they have stockings made of a yarn which is spun out of pure wood fibre; and their coats and vests are interlined with Fibre Chamois, which is nothing more or less than a wooden cloth, made as it is entirely from Spruce Fibre. These same stolid peasants realize thoroughly the non-conducting properties of the wool and avail themselves of the inexpensive warmth it provides. Fibre Chamois has a world-wide reputation as a warmth giving interlining, for it is so light that its presence is hardly felt in a garment and yet it gives an absolute healthful protection from the coldest blasts of a long stormy winter.

THE CONDITION OF WATER STREET.

The Legacy of Bone-Breaking Stones Left by Sewer Construction—A few Calm Comments Called Forth by the Circumstances.

It may seem unkind to throw stones at the street authorities, but they can't reasonably complain since they have left so much material so temptingly convenient that flinging a rock or two cannot be resisted. Water street, from St. Paul's north, has been left in a shameful condition as the result of laying down the sewer. Stones big enough for the foundation of a house are scattered about the street, and in the middle smaller stones are raked up and comprise a hog's back, that makes the street almost unfit for use. Sewers are necessary and very important, but ratepayers should only be taxed once—for the cost of the work—and should not be called upon to pay damages done to vehicles by the exceedingly rough condition in which the street is kept. The town authorities properly insists that the by-laws passed in their wisdom should be observed—sometimes. If the waterworks company in putting down a main should leave a street in one tenth as disgraceful a condition as Water street has been left by sewer operations, the councillors would howl and insist, and rightly, too, on the street being restored as nearly as possible to its normal condition. And ratepayers are compelled—sometimes—to live up to the letter of the bylaws, but councillors who spend their money it seems can outrage ratepayers and compel them to submit to the greatest inconveniences and also to offensive "back talk" if remonstrance is made. If the terms of the contract with Mr. Bogue call for leaving the streets in proper condition such a condition should be insisted upon, if the contract leaves it an open question the town authorities are gravely to blame if, by their neglect, the public is put to unnecessary and grave inconvenience. Our whole system of street improvement administration seems to need a vigorous shaking up. A little attention and forethought in dealing with our streets could be made to result in better work and a lessening of cost for worse work, that would easily reduce the rate of taxation one or two mills on the dollar. The money wasted by slipshod street work and management in ten years would, it is safe to say, equal one year's ordinary appropriation for such work. No private citizen would for a moment submit to have his work done as street work is done. When Councillors conduct public business upon the same principles they would apply to their own they may lay some claim to representing the people.

CHURCH CHIMES.

Last evening the following quartette rendered a pleasing selection in George street Methodist church:—Mrs. Seward, soprano; Miss L. Pascoe, alto, and Messrs. J. Brown and A. Turner, tenor and bass respectively. Mr Turner took the solo part very creditably and a duet was taken by Miss Pascoe and Mr. Brown with good effect.

During the offertory in St. John's last night Miss Barron sang very sweetly "Ashamed of Jesus" as a solo, the choir joining as a chorus in the subsequent stanzas. The choir, with the organ accompaniment of Mr. Percy Owens, sang very acceptably.

By a remarkable coincidence Rev. J. C. Davidson, in St. John's, in the evening, preached on the same subject as that chosen by Rev. J. J. Rae for his sermon to the Foresters, "the duty of Christian sympathy and mutual helpfulness.

Largest Shipment on Record.

The S. S. Ryckman Medicine Company yesterday made a shipment of Kootanay Cure which beats all records. It consisted of just as many boxes as a Hendrie lorry would hold, piled six tiers high, and was for the Canadian Drug Company, of St. John, N.B. Piper, and Mr. Arthur Piper, of Toronto, were in town Friday night of last week and had a gay time marching through the streets. They were a jolly crowd and were on their way by canoe from Huntsville to Lakefield, a distance of 155 miles.

Where Brock Fell.

"We climbed the heights, on foot; passed the Monument House. Talking the while of that great day when Brock led his handful of men to drive back the invading foe, and fell, giving his life for the flag and the country he loved. Living again the grief of his brave 49th and feeling the fire in our veins which won for them the fear of the foe in after battles, we stood a moment to look at Brock's monument, and to point out the cliff over which the enemy were driven and the day won." These are the stirring words of one of a party of excursionists who visited this historic spot the other day. You can go with the Foresters' excursion on Peterborough's Civic Holiday, August 20th, and "feel the fire in your veins." At the same time you can take in Niagara and all its wonders. See posters and folders.

A Peculiar Accident.

Albert White, a young man who lives with his father, Mr. Henry White, on a farm a short distance north of Uxbridge, was the victim of a very painful accident on Wednesday last. His father was cutting grain with a binder, when, something going wrong with the knotter, a sheaf was missed. Albert, who was alongside of the machine at the time, noticed the fault and tried to remedy it without stopping the machine, but had not time to do so before the needle caught him fairly between the fingers of his right hand and, piercing the hand obliquely, came out at the other side near the thumb. The needle of the binder has a very sharp point, but within about one and a half inches from the point is about three quarters of an inch in thickness, then, abruptly narrowing down, it again gradually increases in size. The thickness of the needle in the hand was a little over an inch, and there it remained for about three-quarters of an hour before it could be withdrawn,

ANCIENT ORDER OF FORESTERS

ATTEND A SPECIAL SERVICE.

Rev. J. J. Rae Preaches the Special Sermon—The Gospel of Mutual Help—The Duty of Assisting one Another.

The Charlotte street Methodist church was crowded to the doors last evening, the special attraction being the occasion of the Ancient Order of Foresters attending divine service. The procession of members was headed by the S. O. E band, and marched to the church by way of George and Charlotte streets. The procession was a very good one and the sidewalks along the route of march were crowded with spectators. There had been one hundred seats reserved for the visiting society, and these were comfortably filled. Rev. Mr. Rae preached an appropriate sermon, of which the following is the substance:

Rev. Mr. Rae read for the first lesson the 14th chapter of St. Matthews' Gospel. He took his text from the 16th verse of the same chapter—"But Jesus said unto them they need not depart, give ye them to eat."

"The idea of Jesus," said Mr. Rae, "was the salvation of the world. Some people have the idea that he came to save certain individuals and the remainder of the world might go to perdition. This was not the correct idea by any means. Christ came to save all the world. He came to revolutionize and to better the condition of mankind, and to exalt them to the highest plane of excellence. Mere sympathy and no assistance is not the proper thing. Christ was sympathetic although he never overlooked sin; he did not only sympathise with the sinner but he came to his help. He tried to make the plan of righteousness easy.

Here in this instance he is before a hungry multitude, preaching, and right in the centre of his oration he is told of the beheading of John the Baptist. He crosses the lake to the farther shore intending to meditate in quietness for a short time but when he arrived on the opposite shore there is a multitude already there. Jesus was always sympathetic, and he often felt seriously concerned about the welfare of the great mass of mankind.

"We see Longfellow standing on London Bridge," continued Mr. Rae, "thinking of the great masses who walk over the bridge. Every man should be and is moved when he thinks of such a problem as this. Christ was moved by sadness when he thought of the welfare of the multitude before him. Jesus not only pitied man, as said before, but he encouraged them and aided them in every way possible.

"There is no use preaching to a hungry man," is an old and true saying, so Christ proposed that the multitude should not be sent away, but fed there, where they were. At this proposition the disciples evinced considerable astonishment. After Christ had fed the multitude he began to show them the errors of their ways and to try and persuade them to believe in the Lord Jesus Christ.

"Jesus did what all Christian people ought to do—help one another. There are too many ready—like the disciples—to say, 'Send them into the village and let them buy their own food.' This is not a Christian spirit to show, and we ought to be ready to show less of this spirit. This is exactly like the world today, which says: 'Send them away that they may get the provisions they need.'

"The Indian who kills his parents rather than let them live to die of old age ought to be despised. They should care very tenderly for them and in the same manner we ought to care for our brothers and sisters.

"Christ echoed the voice of Christianity when he said 'give them to eat,' and he fed them first and preached to them afterwards. Every organization that has the caring for the sick, clothing the naked and helping the poor and needy as its objects, will be sure to prosper and God will bless it."

The speaker honoured the society that was represented there before him, and he also honoured its principles. This society has on its roll over 800,000 names and is one of the leading societies in existence.

"In feeding the multitude," the reverend gentleman said, "Christ gave an object lesson to his disciples. Christ says that men depended for power only outside of themselves and they have the electricity harnessed, also the sunlight and other powers, too numerous to mention, and still they are not satisfied. We ought to be satisfied with Christ's power, which multiplies after its distribution is commenced by man, with the object before him of increasing God's kingdom." In conclusion, he said that when we do this God begins to bless us and we prosper and we are the heirs of His grace. Such an organization as this which has such manly objects in view cannot fail to be a blessing to humanity."

NOTES.

The special attraction in the line of music was the splendidly rendered "Abide with Me," solo, by Miss M. Hendren in her usually pleasing style.
